ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Fifty-Ninth Session.

JOURNAL FOR 1882.

FIRST DAY.

OPENING SESSION.

The Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened for its fifty-ninth session in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Lincoln, Illinois, Wednesday, 9 A. M., Sept. 20th, 1882, Bishop H. W. Warren presiding.

Religious services were conducted by the Bishop, and included the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, in the form prescribed by the Discipline, to the members of the Conference and other communicants. Previous to the administration of the Sacrament a collection for Conference Claimants was taken, which amounted to $32.75.

The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll of members, and the following answered to their names. (See Roll.)

On motion of W. S. Prentice, J. B. Wolfe was elected Secretary by acclamation, and, on his nomination, M. A. Hewes, C. Galeener, R. G. Hobbs and M. M. Davidson were elected assistants; W. A. Smith, W. T. Beadles, C. W. Jacobs, D. F. Howe and F. Poorman, Statistical Secretaries.

The following persons were announced as having transferred from this Conference: G. S. Alexander, to the Nebraska; R. M. Barns, to the St. Louis; J. D. Bodkin, to the Southwest Kansas; W. A. Crawford, to the Kansas; J. C. H. Hobbs, to the Nebraska; G. W. Miller, to the Wyoming; V. C. Randolph, to the Central Tennessee, and Duke Slavens, to the Arkansas Conferences.

R. Bird, W. D. Lemon and B. Randle were reported deceased.

The certificates of transfer of J. C. Brainerd, of Wyoming, C. F. Tobey, a Deacon of the First Class, of South Kansas, and F. C. Iglehart, of the Indiana Conferences, were presented and ordered filed, and they were introduced to the Conference.

The following were introduced to the Conference: J. L. Smith, of the North Indiana, and Weston, of the Ohio Conferences. Also, Rev. Hubbard, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of this city.

S. H. Pye, of the St. Louis Book Depository, was introduced and addressed the Conference in the interest of the Book Concern.

The following resolution was introduced, and tabled by the action of the Conference:

Resolved, That when any person or class has passed a satisfactory examination upon any branch or book in the course of study, that he or they be excused from further examination. W. S. HOOPER.

A motion prevailed to excuse classes from further examination on those books upon which they have previously passed.

R. N. Davies, in behalf of the Committee to nominate the Standing Committees, made report. (See Standing Committees.)

The bar of the Conference was fixed at the inside of the third windows from the altar. The hour for meeting was fixed at 8:30 A. M., and for adjournment at 11:45 A. M.

The twentieth question of the General Minutes—"Was the Character of each Preacher examined?"—was called. The Presiding Elder of the Bloomington District reported that charges were preferred against H. O. Hoffman. The Bishop appointed J. A. Kumler and M. D. Hawes for the prosecution, and the defendant announced R. N. Davies, and Dr. Gurney, of the Rock River Conference, for the defense.

A motion was made that the trial be open to all who may desire to attend, to which an amendment was made that it be private, admitting only the parties in the case, the committee, counsel and witnesses. A substitute was offered that it be open to Ministers of the Gospel, official members within the bounds of the Conference and newspaper reporters. The substitute prevailed.

The time of the session was extended.

The number of the Committee to try H. O. Hoffman was fixed at thirteen, and the following were elected: W. H. Wylder, T. J. Bryant, S. H. Whitlock, S. Middleton, J. B. Colwell, Wm. Murphy, Wm. M. McElfresh, L. F. Walden, W. H. Davis, A. C. Armentrout, E. D. Wilkin, W. A. Smith and J. R. Miller.

The following resolution prevailed:

Resolved, That in case of unavoidable absence of any one or more of the members of the Judiciary Committee, any number not less than nine shall be competent to give a verdict. PRESTON WOOD.

The Chair appointed W. H. Webster President of the Committee, and R. G. Hobbs and M. M. Davidson were appointed Secretaries.

The reception of Statistical Reports was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

J. P. Dimmitt was appointed to conduct the devotional exercises for to-morrow morning's session.

Announcements were made, and the Conference adjourned after singing the doxology, and the benediction was pronounced by the Bishop.

The Bishop announced that the sessions of the day would be occupied with the Conference anniversaries and the consideration of the periodical and publishing interests of the church.

Our educational interests of the Southwest were presented by Dr. G. W. Gray, President of the University of Little Rock, and Dr. J. C. Hartzell.

The Committee on Freedmen's Aid presented their report, which was adopted with the following:

WHEREAS, The wisdom of the General Conference in continuing the labors among the blacks and whites of the South is held in dispute, we offer the following:

Resolved, That we fully indorse the policy of the church in establishing colleges and seminaries for the education of the whites of the South; and that we especially commend the enterprise of establishing a university at Little Rock, Arkansas, intended to be the controlling educational institution of the entire Southwest.

SALEM HODGES,
G. W. BATES,
C. F. McKOWN.

To which was added the following resolutions:

Resolved, That as a Conference we are deeply impressed with the vast importance of our educational work in the South, as being carried forward by the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Resolved, That in view of the special demands of the work in establishing our university at Little Rock, we will, as pastors, as far as possible present this cause to our people before January 1st, 1883, and raise our assessment and as much more as possible, and forward it to the treasurer of the society.

JAMES LEATON,
W. S. HOOPER.

After an address by the Bishop, a subscription was taken for the society, which amounted, together with cash, to $1,478.

Drs. Walden, Stowe and Fry addressed the Conference in the interests of the Church Periodicals and Book Concern.

Dr. E. Foster represented the interests of the Sunday-School and Tract Causes.

Brother T. C. Iliff addressed the Conference in reference to his mission work, after which the following was adopted:

Resolved, That we deeply regret the necessity which deprives us of the companionship and help in our work of the Rev. T. C. Iliff.

Resolved, That our hearty thanks are hereby extended to him for his faithful and successful performance of a very difficult task in the delicate relations which he has sustained.

Resolved, That the memory of his genial face, genteel manners and able ministry will live with us, and our prayers shall follow him for his safety and success in the responsible field of labor assigned him by the church.

J. G. LITTLE,
M. W. EVERHART,
J. T. ORR.

The Bishop appointed W. J. Rutledge to preside at the afternoon and evening sessions, and I. H. Aldrich to conduct the devotional exercises for the afternoon session.

Announcements were made and the Conference adjourned after singing the hymn beginning, "The Morning Light is Breaking," and the benediction was pronounced by W. M. Reed.

FOURTH DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

SATURDAY, September 23, 1882.

The Conference met at 8:30 A. M., Bishop H. W. Warren presiding. The devotional services were conducted by S. Shinn.

The journal of yesterday's proceedings was read and approved.

The committee in the case of James Miller read their report, which was adopted, as follows:

The committee appointed to consider the case of Brother James Miller, report, that after careful consideration of the charges presented against him and the documents placed in their hands, and after a full and free conversation with the complainants and the accused, they believe that Brother Miller intends to be sound in the faith and to preach only in accordance with the standards of Methodist theology; but they are satisfied that by his attempt to philosophize upon and explain the mysteries of revelation, and by his adoption of the language of the so-called advanced thinkers of the day, he has led many of his hearers to conclude that he is unsound in faith. The committee, therefore, recommend that he be admonished by the Bishop to be more careful in the future in his statements of doctrine, to conform to our standards, to study to clothe his thoughts in plain language intelligible to the common people, and to avoid in his sermons all "vain philosophy" and all attempt to explain the inexplicable and incomprehensible. The committee also recommend that his character pass.

JAMES LEATON,
W. D. BEST,
J. F. STOUT,
} Committee.

The Bishop gave the admonition recommended in the report.

The third question, "Who Remain on Trial?" was called. Henry F. Collins, Charles W. Jacobs, David F. Howe, David H. Gillan, Abraham H. Gunnett, Melvin S. McCoy, were represented as having stood a satisfactory examination, their characters passed, and they were continued on trial.

James M. Young, character passed, and he was continued, having been excused from further examination in course of study.

Marion F. Ault was discontinued at his own request.

The thirteenth question, "Who are the Traveling Deacons of the Second Class?" was called. A satisfactory examination in the course of study having been reported of Charles F. McKown, Charles R. Morrison, J. O. Collins, Abner Clark, Jacob Kagy, their characters passed, and they were advanced to Deacons of the Second Class.

W. A. McKinney was reported as having sustained a satisfactory examination. L. A. Powell and J. Q. Swim, not having been before the examining committee, their characters passed, and they were continued as Deacons of the First Class.

G. E. Scrimger and P. A. Swart were added to the Board of Stewards.

A communication from Frances E. Willard was read and referred to the Committee on Temperance.

The fourteenth question, "What Traveling Deacons have been Elected to Elder's Orders?" was taken up. The following were represented as having stood a satisfactory examination in the course of study, characters passed, and they were elected to Elder's Orders: Albert D. Beckhart, Gilmore Cunningham, Chas. A. Crane, Francis M. Hays, Samuel H. Huber, Chris. Galeener, Robert McIntyre, Edwin B. Randle, Hezekiah M. Short, Albert H.Rusk and Wm. A. McKinney.

W. S. Prentice presented a letter from Mrs. Obenshain, written to one of her friends, in reference to her condition, after the reading of which a collection was taken for her, which amounted to $116.98. T. A. Parker, A. C. Byerly and J. W. Sinnock were appointed to take charge of the collection for the benefit of Mrs. Obenshain and appropriate it as they may see proper. The Conference expressed its sympathy with Sister Obenshain in her affliction.

The fifth question, "Who are Admitted into Full Connection?" was taken up. The persons eligible were called forward, answered the usual questions, and were addressed by the Bishop, after which the following were reported as having sustained a satisfactory examination in the course of study, were admitted into full connection and elected to Deacon's Orders: Jonathan Glick, Roger L. Choate, John M. Driver, Jonas E. Artz, Joseph Coomb and John F. Horney.

Dr. H. B. Ridgway was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interests of Garrett Biblical Institute.

The tenth question—"What Local Preachers have been elected Deacons?" D. H. Gillam, of Bloomington District, John A. Lucas, of the Danville, and James W. Madison, of the Quincy Districts, were duly recommended and elected to Deacon's Orders.

C. F. Tobey was made effective.

The sixteenth question—"What Local Deacons have been elected Elders?"—was taken up. James T. Galford, of the Springfield District, was duly recommended and elected.

W. J. Rutledge, Chaplain of the State Penitentiary at Joliet, addressed the Conference in the interests of the prisoners, after which the following was adopted:

WHEREAS, A document presented us by the Chaplain of the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet sets forth the fact that better facilities for worship are needed there, we heartily commend this matter to the Ministers and members of our church, that suitable petitions may be sent in due time to the State Legislature asking the building of a Prison Chapel.

T. D. Weems and J. Foxworthy were granted leaves of absence.

Dr. W. P. Stowe addressed the Conference concerning the Episcopal Fund.

J. Leaton was added to the Committee on Memoirs.

T. J. N. Simmons read the Stewards' report. (See report.)

The Conference directed that the money appropriated to Sister Dickens be placed in the hands of Dr. Short and W. H. Webster for her benefit, and that the Barton Randle Fund be placed in the hands of W. A. Smith, who shall administer it at his discretion.

W. S. Hooper read the report of the Committee on Education, which was adopted. (See report.)

The eighteenth question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was taken up. The characters of the following brethren passed, and they were continued in that relation: Charles Adams, J. C. Rucker, J. H. Dimmitt, S. H. Clarke, C. W. C. Munsell, A. T. Briscoe, J. R. Locke, T. J. N. Simmons, G. W. Reed, F. W. Phillips, W. H. Milburn. Thomas Bonnell.

E. J. Hamill was granted a superannuated relation at his own request.

E. Gallagher was granted a location at his own request. I. Groves was granted a supernumerary relation at his own request.

The nineteenth question, "Who are the Superannuated Preachers?" was taken up. The characters of the following brethren passed, and they were continued in that relation: M. Butler, B. Hungerford, J. C. Finley, C. Atkinson, I. H. Aldrich, S. McCall, R. E. Guthrie, J. C. Long, W. T. Bennett, P. N. Minear, D. Bardrick, G. D. Randle, J. H. Moore, R. C. Norton, G. M. Crays, I. B. Henry, B. C. Wood, E. Rutledge, P. Akers, W. B. Barton, P. F. Thornburg, W. W. Roberts, A. Bradshaw, W. Owen, J. S. Kirkpatrick, C. D. James, D. H. Hatton, R. Chapman, A. Don Carlos, N. S. Morris, W. S. Clark, M. C. Sweeney, J. G. Mitchell, G. R. S. McElfresh, A. S. McCoy, Ira Emmerson, W. E. Johnson and J. S. Akers.

L. Janes's relation was changed to supernumerary, and Robert Clark was made effective.

The Stewards were instructed to consider the case of Brother McCoy, which had been overlooked, and provide such means for him as they deemed proper.

The order of the day, fixing the seat of the next session of the Conference, was taken up, and Danville, Kimber Church, was unanimously chosen.

A collection for the Secretaries' expenses, amounting to $45.90, was taken.

L. T. Janes was requested to open to-morrow morning's session with devotional services.

Announcements were made and the Conference adjourned after the benediction by the Bishop.

SEVENTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, September 27th, 1882.

The Conference met at 8.30 A. M., Bishop H. W. Warren presiding. The devotional services were conducted by J. A. Burks.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved. The select committee in the case of H. O. Hoffman was permitted to retire.

J. Shinn was requested to take charge of the $21 allowed to C. Atkinson and dispose of it at his discretion.

The reports of the Committees on Tract Cause and Preachers' Aid Society were read and adopted. (See Reports.)

The report of Committee on Missionary Cause was read and adopted. (See Report.)

Reports of Committees on Bible Society and Sabbath were read and adopted. (See Report.)

The report of the Committee on Temperance was unanimously adopted by a rising vote. (See Reports.)

On motion W. R. Goodwin, I. Villars, Horace Reed, M. D. Hawes and W. H. Webster were elected to represent the Conference in the Illinois Temperance Union, to be held in Springfield, Illinois, on the first Tuesday in December, 1882.

B. Bartholo and J. Montgomery were granted supernumerary relations and A. D. Beckhart a location at their own requests.

The second question, "Who are Admitted on Trial?" was taken up and the following were duly recommended, and having sustained a satisfactory examination were introduced to the Conference and admitted on trial: Danville District—John A. Lucas; Mattoon District—E. G. Catermole, John W. Miller, David T. Black and Mitchell H. Ewers; Springfield District—Benjamin D. Wiley; Jacksonville District—Frank Crane and John B. Martin.

The sixth question, "Who are Re-admitted?" was taken up. Henry A. Barton being duly recommended and having presented his certificate of location was readmitted Deacon of the First Class.

The seventh question, "Who are Admitted from other Churches?" was taken up. S. K. Coats being recommended as a minister in good standing in the United Brethren Church was admitted, his orders recognized and he was excused from the course of study.

W. T. Beadles read the report of the Statistical Secretary. (See tables.)

The Presiding Elders were appointed to nominate standing committees for the ensuing session of the annual Conference at their annual meeting, and report on the first day of Conference.

The following was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the visit of Bishop H. W. Warren to the Illinois Conference has been exceedingly pleasant to us. His manner of conducting our business has been characterized by promptness, thoroughness and a beautiful Christian urbanity. His sermons, addresses and lecture have been heard with delight and profit. We will gladly welcome his return to us at any time in the future; and we devoutly pray that Providence will bless him with long life and with increasing power of usefulness for the glory of God and the good of the Church.

I. A. PARKER,
W. S. PRENTICE,
J. P. DIMMITT.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the citizens of Lincoln for their hospitable entertainment of the Conference; to the pastors of the different city churches for the use of their pulpits; to Bros. Noble and Armentrout for their cheerful labor in providing for the Conference, and to superintendents of railroads for favors received.

J. G. Little was appointed to conduct the religious services of to-morrow morning's session.

Announcements were made, the doxology sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.

EIGHTH DAY.

THURSDAY, September 28, 1882.

The Conference met at 8:30 A. M., Bishop H. W. Warren in the chair, who also conducted the devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The second question, "Who Remain on Trial?" was resumed, and James W. Madison, Thomas W. Greer and Ralph L. Patterson, of the Quincy district, being duly recommended and reported as having sustained a satisfactory examination, were admitted.

The reports of the Committees on Sunday-Schools and Church Periodicals were read and adopted. (See reports.)

The Treasurer of the Church Extension Fund read his report, which was adopted.

A motion prevailed requesting the Secretary to convey the thanks of the Conference to the pastors and trustees of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the use of their church during the sessions of the Conference.

J. B. Wolfe, Secretary, was granted leave of absence.

On motion, Conference adjourned.

NINTH DAY.

FRIDAY, September 29, 1882.

The Conference met at 10:30 P. M., Bishop H. W. Warren presiding. After singing the 770th hymn, W. H. Musgrove led in prayer.

The records of the previous session were read and approved.

The report of the committee in the case of H. O. Hoffman, finding him guilty of charges 1, 2 and 6, and expelling him from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was received, read and ordered to be entered upon the minutes.

Mr. Hoffman gave notice of an appeal from the decision of the committee in his case to the Judicial Conference.

The Bishop accepted the notice of the appeal.

On motion of J. D. Fry, J. A. Kumler and M. D. Hawes were appointed to represent the Conference in the appeal case.

A motion prevailed that with the reading of the appointments the Conference adjourn.

The appointments were accordingly read, and the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Warren.

Reports and Resolutions.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are pleased to note the prosperous condition of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and that Children's Day is being more largely observed than ever, and that the interest in the objcect and work of the society is on the increase. The Board is now making larger appropriations for the aid of indigent students than ever before. This society demands our encouragement and co-operation.

Resolved: That we heartily indorse the Board of Education and its work, and that we will take and forward our educational collection as enjoined by the Discipline.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This institution presents a very favorable report. It being the only Theological Institute in the northwest, and having had a noble record it is in every way worthy of our patronage. It has been greatly strenthened in its finances, and now has an income ample to meet all current expenses. It has arranged to provide assistance toward the education of worthy but indigent students.

Resolved: That we will heartily co-operate with its Trustees and Faculty in their plans to strengthen the institution and increase the number of students.

We nominate D. W. English and W. S. Hooper as Conference Visitors.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Another prosperous year has been added to the history of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and the institution was never more prosperous or worthy of confidence than at this time.

The debt, which at one time threatened the permanency of the institution, has within a few thousand dollars been removed, and the school opens this year with increased facilities for doing all the work of a university of high order.

The Woman's Educational Association of the University has become a permanent institution and a valuable auxiliary by affording a home for our daughters at greatly reduced prices, and surrounding them with christian influences and associations. We commend the association to the continued patronage and liberality of the friends of the University and bespeak for its Financial Agent, Mrs. O. H. Updegraft, a hearty co-operation in her work.

The advantages of the Law School are not excelled in any institution of the West.

The Commercial School is so thoroughly equipped as to merit the confidence of any who desire a complete commercial education.

The efficiency and success of the graduates of both these departments are the best evidences of the high character of the instruction afforded.

We present the financial condition of the University as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Principal Endowment Fund	$ 4,950 25
Principal New Bonded Debt	18,708 51
Tuition	7,999 00
Interest from several funds	4,625 46
Cash on Hand June 1, 1881	1,100 62
Total from all sources	$37,383 84

DISBURSEMENTS.

Orders paid, canceled and returned by the Treasurer	$36,751 71
Cash on hand June, 1882	632 13
Total	$37,383 84

ASSETS.

Notes, bonds, etc., secured and unsecured	$ 49,305 50
Real Estate, estimated	21,000 00
Buildings and Grounds	100,000 00
Total	$170,305 50

Resolved: That we request the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. H. H. Adams, D. D., to the Presidency of the University.

We nominate as Trustees Rev. J. A. Kumler, Abraham Mann, of Rossville, N. N. Winslow, of Bloomington, J. T. Hoblitt, of Lincoln.

We nominate as visitors W. S. Prentice, P. Wallace, P. Wood, M. D. Hawes, W. H. Wylder, D. H. Gillan.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of this institution. A new building is now in course of erection for school and dormitory purposes, 110 feet long, 50 feet wide and four stories high, which, being soon completed, will give greatly increased facilities. Funds for this building have been amply provided.

There is a large increase of students this fall with a promise of a very large attendance during the year.

The location, the buildings, grounds and an excellent faculty make this a very desirable institution.

A medical department has been organized and opens this fall under favorable auspices.

This institution is well entitled to our hearty co-operation.

We nominate as Trustees J. G. Bonnell, L. F. Walden, Wm. Sterne, M. Chase, Geo. Adams.

We nominate as visitors W. H. Webster, M. A. Hewes, W. H. Reed and the pastors of the city of Quincy.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The collegiate year ending June 1st, 1882, was one of the best in the history of this institution. The attendance numbered nearly two hundred. The standing in literary, musical and artistic attainment was as high as at any period in the history of the college. The graduating class numbered twenty-one. Four young ladies also received diplomas, having completed the course in music, and one in fine art.

A good degree of religious interest prevailed, and a number of the students were converted.

This institution merits the confidence and patronage of the church and the public on account of its superior location and appointments; the parental carefulness of those in charge of it; the higher and wider range of its courses of study, and the cheapness of its terms, the expense being lower than any school of like grade in the West.

The present year opens very prosperously. The new members of the corps of instruction have already shown a superior fitness and qualification for their respective positions, and the college is evidently entering upon a career of greater prosperity and usefulness.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., as President, and T. A. Parker, P. N. Minear and the pastors of Jacksonville stations and circuits, and of Waverly, as Conference visitors.

T. A. PARKER, Chairman.

MISSIONARY CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The Great Head of the Church has commanded us to "preach the gospel to every creature;" and

WHEREAS, There is now a wide open door to preach the Gospel to all nations; and

WHEREAS, The Church has been eminently successful in her missionary operations; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we renew our diligence in our efforts to raise money for this great cause;

Resolved, 2d. That we put forth an earnest endeavor to carry out the plan of the Discipline in this work.

J. D. FRY, President.

E. S. WAMSLEY, Secretary.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, The Sunday School is one of the most potent agencies for good in the Church, in that it seeks to lay the foundation for christian character in childhood; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That as pastors it shall receive its due amount of our support and effort.

2d. That we will seek to make more prominent in Sunday School work the salvation of souls.

3d. That we will insist upon the organization of all our Sunday Schools into missionary societies and recommend for lesson helps the use of our own publications.

4th. That we will present the claims of the Sunday School Union to all our congregations, and take the annual collection.

T. I. COULTAS, Chairman.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your committee to whom was referred the interests of the Preachers' Aid Society, report:

1st. An increase of its assets for the past year of about $800, with an aggregate of considerably more than $8,000. The income for the past year was over $600.

2d. This society is an incorporate body and is complete as an organization.

3d. Investments in this society are thought to be the best and surest of any open to our preachers for the purpose intended.

JOS. MONTGOMERY,
M. M. DAVIDSON,
A. D. BECKHART.

TRACT CAUSE.

Your committee on Tract Cause report that the amount of $220 has been collected for tracts this year and paid over to the book agents. Though an advance over last year of $22 it is not, we think, the measure of our ability or duty in this respect, for many charges have reported no collections for this year. We therefore urge that the collection be taken in all our charges and that our tracts be circulated among all our people, for when wisely used, the tract can render a service to the cause of our Master which cannot be so easily secured by any other agency; and we are persuaded that, as pastors, we cannot afford to ignore the advantages of this silent yet potent messenger. Let us give the Tract Society an opportunity to aid us in our pastoral labors.

M. AUER, Chairman.

W. C. AVEY, Secretary.

FREEDMAN'S AID SOCIETY.—(See Journal, page 8.)

BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society, which has already circulated over 38,000,000 copies of the Word of God in the various languages of the earth, is about to enter upon its fourth general canvass of the States and Territories for the supplying the destitute; and

WHEREAS, Such work is essentially missionary, preparing the way of the Lord; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we will welcome to our fields of labor the agents of this society and will co-operate with them.

2d. That we urge all our pastors to report collections for this purpose at the ensuing Conference, that they may appear in the minutes and our people receive credit for what they are doing.

A. C. BYERLY,
J. EVERLY, } Committee.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

WHEREAS, Our church literature is worthy the patronage of the church and is greatly promotive of our work as pastors; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we will do our utmost to increase its circulation, taking for our motto, "One Methodist periodical for every Methodist family."

2d. That we recognize with pleasure the growing merit of the Central Christian Advocate, and since it is the recognized organ of this Conference we will give it the preference in the canvass.

T. I. COULTAS,
E. L. CARLISLE,
A. C. BYERLY, } Committee.

SABBATH.

WHEREAS, We recognize that the Sabbath was made for man, and acknowledge Jesus is the Lord of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 1st. That we are in favor of the recognition of it by civil law, whereby the rights of man are secured, so that peace, quiet and rest may characterize the day.

2d. That we are opposed to the profanation of the Sabbath as manifested by railroad corporations in running transportation trains upon that day.

J. D. FRY, President.

W. F. GILMORE, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

It must be a source of gratification to every well wisher of law and order, especially so to all christians, to witness the upheaval of public sentiment for the suppression of the rum traffic.

Your committee would indorse every honorable effort made for the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors; and would earnestly recommend all temperance voters to support for office only pronounced temperance men, who are in favor of legal prohibition. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That it is the sense of the Illinois Conference that our Senators and Representatives should, at their next session, pass a law submitting said constitutional amendment to a vote of the people.

Resolved, 2d. That it would be an insult to the intelligence of this age and a stigma upon the moral sentiment of the people to set apart the revenue derived from the infamous liquor traffic for the education of our children.

MEMOIRS.

REV. BARTON RANDLE.

Of Barton Randle nothing but good can be said. He was born in Scriven county, Georgia, November 7th, 1796. In his sixteenth year he was converted in Madison county, Illinois. In 1831, after he had traveled part of a year as a supply on the Spoon River Circuit under the Presiding Elder, he united with the Illinois Conference, and was appointed to the Shelbyville Circuit. This charge then embraced the counties of Shelby, Moultrie, the larger portion of Coles, and parts of Fayette and Cumberland counties. He had a successful year, closing with a camp meeting at Wabash Point, at which much good was done. His next appointment was the Henderson River Mission. This was a new charge, embracing the scattered settlements in Henderson, Warren and adjoining counties. Mr. Cartwright, who was Presiding Elder of the district, states that at one of his quarterly meetings on the charge this year there were present the six members of the church and eight who were not members, and these comprised the whole settlement, save one family, who were so much opposed to the Methodists that they would not attend the meeting.

"At another quarterly meeting," he adds, "on this mission, on Sunday we had twenty-seven for our congregation, and yet the population were all or nearly all there for many miles around, and when we administered the Sacrament on Sabbath we had just seven communicants, preachers and all. Barton Randle, the missionary, though a man of feeble health and strength, was yet faithful in hunting up the lost sheep in this new and laborious field of labor. He suffered many privations and hardships, but he endured all as seeing Him who is invisible, and I have thought that he was among the very best missionaries I was ever acquainted with. He did great good in this new and rising country, and laid firmly the foundation of future good, which the increasing and now densely populated country has realized. No doubt many, in the great day of retribution, will rise up and call Brother Randle blessed, and he will hail many of his spiritual children in Heaven from this field of labor."

The next appointment to which Mr. Randle was sent in 1833 was also a mission field—Galena and Dubuque. Whilst on this charge he preached the first Protestant sermon ever preached in the state of Iowa. His colleague was John T. Mitchell, who had filled the Galena mission the year before. On account of the difficulty of crossing the river (the Mississippi) at that time, the work on the mission was practically divided, Mitchell remaining at Galena and Randle taking the work at Dubuque. To that place, accompanied by his colleague, he proceeded on Saturday, November 6th, 1833, and there in the tavern of Jesse M. Harrison, on the present site of the Julien House, he preached the first Methodist sermon of which we have any account as preached on Iowa soil. The next day his co-missionary, Mitchell, preached the second sermon at the same place. The next May a society was organized, consisting of twelve members, and during the summer a hewed-log meeting house, twenty by twenty-six in the clear, was built, and a two days' meeting was held at it. Mr. Randle's next appointment was Alton Station. But his health having failed, at the end of the year he was placed on the superannuated list. During his second year, however, his health being partially restored, he was employed by the Presiding Elder to assist Garrett G. Worthington on the Carlinville Circuit In 1837 he was sent to Carrollton Circuit, and in 1838 to Vandalia and Hillsboro, a double station. During the two following years he was on the Vandalia District, and from 1841 to 1843 on the Mt. Carmel District. In 1844, having been seriously injured by a shock received from a stroke of lightning, from which he never fully recovered, he was placed on the superannuated list, on which he remained five years. Having somewhat recovered he was in 1849 again sent to the Shelbyville Circuit, then much smaller than when he had traveled it before. But the work was still too much for him, and at the session of Conference of 1850 he was again granted a superannuated relation, in which he continued till his death, January 2d, 1882. One who knew him on his first circuit says of him: "He was a strong preacher and a fine theologian. He was particularly strong on baptism and the divinity of Christ. He was a good scholar and a hard student." The last twenty years of his life were spent at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. P. Ripley, at Staunton, Illinois. For six months before his death he was entirely deprived of sight and confined to his bed. All his faculties, except the spiritual, seemed to fail, but he never lost his interest in Christ, and was always patient, cheerful and happy in the midst of his sufferings. And often, when his pastor would inquire after his welfare, his answer would be, "As happy as a king."

REV. JAMES H. DICKENS.

Rev. James H. Dickens was born in Montgomery county, Tennessee, July 2d, 1810, and died at his home in Jacksonville, Illinois, September 24th, 1882. He was converted in Jacksonville, August 8th, 1831, and soon after received license to preach. In 1833 he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference, and appointed to Athens Circuit. At the close of the year he was discontinued. Three years afterwards he was received again, and traveled in succession Nashville Circuit two years, Mt. Vernon, Jacksonville, Grafton, Mt. Carmel and Wabash one year each. In 1844 he was agent for McKendree College. The next year he was appointed to Winchester Circuit, but his health having failed, at the close of the year he was granted a superannuated relation, in which he continued four years. In 1850 he was assigned to Rushville Station, and the next year to Jonesboro District, which he traveled only one year, his health being entirely insufficient for the work. In 1852 he was appointed to Whitehall Circuit, and in 1853 was again placed on the superannuated list, on which he remained until 1862, when he was again made effective and sent to Havana. His next charge was Island Grove, where he remained two years. He then filled in succession Alexander and New Berlin, Pulaski, Augusta, Moweaqua, Lynnville, West Jacksonville, Island Grove, West Jacksonville, Franklin and Plymouth. In 1875 he was again superannuated. The next year he was sent to Winchester Circuit, but still continuing feeble, he was again compelled to superannuate. In 1878 he was assigned to Littleton Circuit. This was his last appointment. The next year he was again placed on the superannuated list, on which he continued until his death.

Brother Dickens was an excellent preacher. In the defense of the doctrines of the church he had few superiors. He was a very able debater; and in his earlier ministry, when doctrinal discussions were more frequent than at present, he was noted as one of the most successful controversialists in the Conference. A pamphlet that he published on the subject of Baptism was widely circulated. But, though much of his preaching was on doctrinal subjects, he was quite successful as a revivalist. On the Salem Circuit, which he traveled as a supply in 1836, more than two hundred souls were converted, and about seventy professed the blessing of perfect love. At a camp meeting on the Mt. Vernon Circuit, in the summer of 1840, under his labors there was a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit. For thirty-two hours the work at the altar went on without cessation, and it was estimated that during this time hundreds were converted and entirely sanctified. At Mt. Carmel, in 1842, about sixty were converted and brought into the church. And on most of his charges some souls were won to the Savior.

He was a man of strong convictions and great decision of character. The cause that he believed to be right he would pursue regardless of consequences. As an original abolitionist he brought upon himself much obloquy from the friends of slavery and the worshipers of expediency, but he remained unmoved. To fear he was an utter stranger. And yet despite his courage and unwavering firmness in defense of the right, he was a man of sweet spirit and loving heart. On his dying bed he sent to the Conference, through his pastor, the message, "Tell my brethren that eternity will hardly be able to tell how much I love them." For many years before his death he possessed that perfect love that castesth out fear; and his whole life gave evidence that he enjoyed continual communion with God.

In temporal matters he was often sorely tried. Some of his early circuits were as large as districts are now; sometimes he had to live in cabins inferior to most modern stables. The pittance he received on some of his charges was barely sufficient to keep his wife and children from suffering. Three times his dwellings were destroyed by fire; in two instances all their contents, furniture, bedding, books, manuscripts, all were consumed, and he was left with only half a suit of clothes. His family was greatly afflicted by sickness and death. But under all he went about the work in the name of his Master, seldom missing an appointment, and realizing under all his trials the sustaining and comforting power of divine grace.

LUCY A. BEADLES.

Lucy A., wife of Rev. Wm. T. Beadles, was born May 28th, 1853, in Cass county, Illinois. She was the daughter of John H. and Elizabeth G. Melone, and was converted during the winter of 1869, under the labors of Rev. J. W. Eickman. Her conversion was clear, criptural and powerful, filling her soul with the light and love of Christ. In that instant the "Sun of Righteousness arose full-orbed upon her spirit and continued to increase in power and brilliancy until she gently and sweetly passed through 'the pearly gates' into the city which hath foundations whose maker and builder is God." During all her subsequent life she never doubted her acceptance with God through Christ. She was united in marriage with Rev. Wm. T. Beadles, of the Illinois Conference, November 18th, 1875, by Rev. J. G. Mitchell, and immediately went with her husband to his charge, namely, Cisco Circuit, where they remained three years. Here she was an active worker in the Sabbath School, in the prayer and class meetings, where she demonstrated her love for God by her untiring endeavors to get men and women saved. From Cisco they went to Charleston Circuit and remained two years. From Charleston they moved to San Jose. It was here, in the midst of great usefulness, and during their second year, that Sister Beadles was taken ill, and after one week of intense suffering, without a murmur or complaint, she died, happy in God, Sunday, April 2, 1882, leaving three small children. In early life she had good educational advantages, which she improved. As a teacher she was very successful; as daughter, sister, wife, mother, she always carried with her an atmosphere of Christian cheerfulness—always happy because she lived to make others happy. In this she was a remarkable demonstration of the power of divine grace to refine and purify the soul and lift it above the petty things of earth, which disturb and annoy so many professing godliness. During her married life of six and one-half years she never spoke a discouraging word to her husband of their work, but words of encouragement were ever on her lips—her noble soul was delighted with the work of the Master. A memorial service was held at San Jose, conducted by Rev. A. T. Orr and J. Ingram, and five hundred people were present to pay their tributes of respect to the dead and weep with the living. Her remains were then conveyed to Greenwood Cemetery near her father's residence, where they await the resurrection of the just. Her funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Eckman in the presence of a large congregation, most of whom had known her from childhood.

J. W. ECKMAN.

REV. RICHARD BIRD.

Rev. Richard Bird was born in Mason county, Kentucky, November 19, 1804. He was converted at Nun's Camp Ground, Bourbon county, on the 26th of August, 1824, during a meeting conducted by Rev. Wm. McReynolds. He was soon afterwards licensed to preach, and in 1827 was sent as a supply to the Cumberland Circuit. The next year he was received on trial in the Kentucky Conference and traveled in succession the Elizabeth, Wayne, Ohio, Cynthiana, Little Sandy and Fleming Circuits. In the fall of 1834 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, and spent a year on each of the following circuits in succession: Sangamon, Flat Branch, Athens, Washington, Athens again, Danville, Mt. Pleasant, Waynesville, Carrollton, Jacksonville and Winchester. In 1845 he was appointed to Decatur Circuit, on which he spent two years; then he traveled the Mt. Pleasant Circuit again one year, and the Havana one year. In 1849 he was transferred to the newly organized Missouri Conference, and appointed to Gasconade; here his labors were greatly blessed, between four and five hundred having been added to the church during the year. In 1850 he was made presiding elder of Arkansas District, embracing the entire State of Arkansas, which he traveled for two years. Then he was placed on the Fayetteville District, on which he also labored two years. In 1854 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, traveled the Chatham and Mt. Pulaski Circuits, and in 1856 located. In 1873 he was re-admitted, and traveled in succession the Pulaski, Detroit and Easton Circuits. In 1876 he was placed on the superannuated list, on which he remained until his death.

In 1832 he was united in marriage to Miss Lucinda N. Fullinwider. Their golden wedding was celebrated last March at the residence of their son-in-law, Rev. R. Gregg, at Mt. Sterling. A few weeks since they all removed to Princeton, Kansas, where Bro. Bird died of paralysis, on the first of September, aged nearly seventy-eight years. He was seriously ill only about seven hours, during most of which time he was unconscious.

For many years during his early ministry Bro. Bird was very successful in winning souls to Christ. Whilst on the Mt. Pleasant Circuit five hundred souls were converted and added to the church; and on most of the circuits traveled by him there were extensive revivals of religion.

MRS. SARAH A. HOFFMAN.

Sarah A. Perry was born near Winchester, Virginia, October 24, 1832. She died in Bloomington, Illinois, July 6, 1882, aged forty-nine years and three months. She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Thornton, Indiana, in the year of 1856, and lived in covenant obligations up to her death. She was married to H. O. Hoffman, October 9, 1859, in Thornton, Indiana, by Rev. Wm. Campbell. The union was blessed with two children, both sons, both now living, and both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was for years a teacher in the Thornton Academy, and discharged her responsible duties with great satisfaction. She was highly educated and was a descendant of the Perry family connected with the celebrated commodore of that name. She was an invalid most of her life, and for eighteen of the last years of her life was a great sufferer and almost helpless. In consequence she was wholly disqualified for her household duties, and the government of her home fell wholly upon her husband; this was especially so for the ten years just preceding her death. She never complained in all her sickness. She was patient and resigned. Her long illness wholly destroyed her nervous system, and she had to be nursed and cared for as a child.

During her last illness her husband was with her day and night for six weeks. She said to him after one of her paroxysms of pain: "My suffering time will soon be o'er. I am afraid I have been a burden instead of a blessing to you." She kept her hand-bible near her on the bed and was a constant reader of its sacred lessons. Her life was a constant sorrow to her because she could not share in the labors and responsibilities of her church work. She loved the church, and the grace of God kept her during her long invalid life, so that she rejoiced in faith and was strong in hope.

She told her husband sixteen years ago that she had prayed to God to spare her life till her sons should become twenty years old, and that she had the answer that her prayer would be granted, and it was. Her youngest son will be twenty years of age in a few weeks.

REV. DR. W. D. LEMON.

Dr. Lemon was born June 1, 1809, in Jefferson county, Virginia, where he grew up and received his education. He died in Roseville, Illinois, July 25, 1882. He was united in marriage February 10, 1831, to Miss Julia A. Clothier, who still survives him. Under the labors of Rev. Edward Smith he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church September 22, 1827. Soon after his conversion he felt that it was his duty to preach the gospel. Hesitating for a time to enter upon so great a work, as he states in a biographical sketch of his own writing, after the lapse of a few years and after severe struggles, he finally determined to follow the indications of Providence. Having in the meantime removed to West Virginia, opportunities were soon presented for the exercise of his gifts, and improving them, he was soon licensed to preach, and in 1835 was appointed to Hughes's River Mission. At the close of this year he entered the Pittsburgh Conference and was reappointed to the same work, which now became a self-supporting charge. In 1837–38 he was appointed to Washington Circuit, the first year as junior preacher and the second year as preacher in charge. He was stationed in Monongahela City, Pennsylvania, in 1839 and 1840, and at Morgantown in 1841 and 1842. In 1843 and 1844 had charge of the Michaeltown Circuit, and was stationed at Wellsburg in 1845, and at Smithfield Street Charge, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in 1846 and 1847, and in Birmingham, Pennsylvania, in 1848. In 1849 the West Virginia Conference was cut off from the Pittsburgh Conference, and he was appointed to Morgantown District, with the understanding that he should be permitted to return to the Pittsburgh Conference if he desired, which he did after serving the district for three years. In 1852 and 1853 he was in charge of Fayette Circuit, Pittsburgh Conference, and was stationed at Temperanceville in 1854. In 1855 he received the appointment of agent for Wellsburg Seminary, and in 1856 and 1857 was appointed to Deerfield Circuit. He then removed to Illinois, and was appointed to Astoria Circuit, and that year was transferred to the Illinois Conference. In 1859 he was stationed at Beardstown, in 1860 at Virden, and in 1861 and 1862 at Rushville. Then, owing to declining health, he took a superannuated relation for two years, when he re-entered the active work. But he was compelled, in six months, to again abandon the work, and the following autumn to superannuate, which relation he sustained until his death, though never as a conference beneficiary, with the exception of one year, maintaining himself and family by the practice of medicine.

In every charge to which he was appointed his labors were blessed with the salvation of souls. Amid the arduous toils and privations of his early itineracy, he pursued his conference studies successfully, oftimes studying while on horseback, between his appointments.

His faithful and devoted wife, a helpmeet indeed, often studied for him, taking notes, from which one year he passed his entire examination.

In addition to his ordinary studies and writings, he often gave expression to the devotion and exalted aspirations of his beautiful life in poetical composition, and together with one of the sweet bards of our own Israel, the late lamented Rev. Wm. Hunter, wrote a number of hymns, some of which were published in the Select Melodies.

I learn from Sister Lemon that Dr. Hunter often sojourned with them in their home, and while there composed a number of his most beautiful hymns.

The salaries of the earlier years of Dr. Lemon's ministry, as was common in those times, were meager, and often they were not all paid. To meet the exigencies of the case Sister Lemon assisted by teaching school, sometimes with a babe by her side.

While a superannuate he was useful and helpful in the charges where he resided. The writer greatly appreciated his kind sympathy and generous assistance while the doctor was a member of his charge at Astoria, Illinois.

His last sickness continued for several months, during which he suffered extremely, was borne with true Christian fortitude and resignation, and in the triumph of faith he passed from labor to reward He leaves the companion of his early choice amid the infirmities of advanced years, and five children (three having preceded him to the land of rest) to mourn their loss, besides many other relatives and friends who will rise up and call him blessed.

J. G. BONNEL.

MRS. HARRIET M. WILKIN.

Mrs. Harriet Mayo Wilkin, daughter of Col. Jonathan Mayo, and wife of Rev. E. D. Wilkin, was born in Paris, Ill., April 25, 1835, and died October 31, 1881, in the house in which she was born. She was early the subject of impressions and convictions which impelled her to choose the people of God for her people, and gave her name for probation in the Methodist Episcopal Church, but a peculiar Puritanic sternness of those times seems to have required a measure of misanthrophy as a compliment to the godly life, and she was dropped from the list of probationers for no fault of hers, but a failure to transform innocent girlish gaiety into matronly sedateness and this kind of effort was as often repeated as the winter revival and summer decline in the religious fervor of the church occurred. She did not, in her Christian life, realize all the expectations of such as think the true woman like the dependant vine, ever clinging to and leaning on the oak. Her meekness was without timidity or slavish subserviency, and so her sense of responsibility was not vitiated by hesitancy and indecision. Her religious opinions were, more than common in her sex, the product of serious thought rather than a flash of intuitional perception, yet in quickness of perception she was among the foremost. The solid qualities of her mind, improved by an educational course exceptionally desultory yet effective, fixed her place far above the silly fripperies of shallow society and the sickly sentimentalities of mere religious imitators, and marked her as philanthropist, patriot, instructor and Christian. Her work as teacher with her husband in the Marshall Seminary, as wife of the chaplain and as nurse in the army; as pastor's wife in Charleston, Normal, Springfield, Mattoon, Paris, Pana and Champaign, and as Sunday school teacher, shows her as one who has done well. She was married to Rev. E. D. Wilkin December 28, 1857.

During the war of the rebellion she helped her country's cause caring for the sick and wounded in hospital, and by pen and labor for sanitary and Christian commissions at home. Her courage and endurance, among other things, though she was always in delicate health, are shown by a journey on horseback, with her husband and a division of the army, four hundred miles, from Corinth, Mississippi, to Louisville, Kentucky.

She took the children of her husband's parish to her heart and taught them in Sunday school the great truths of the lesson without undue dependence on songs or stories. She served several terms as one of the vice-presidents of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Illinois, and afterwards as treasurer of that organization. Her last illness, long and of intense suffering, she bore with Christian fortitude and patience, and when death came, with an uufaltering trust, she peacefully and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. J. G. CHADDOCK COLLEGE

QUINCY, ILLINOIS.

Thirty Professors. Two Separate Buildings. Largest, Cheapest and Best School.

This Institution offers unsurpassed facilities in Literary, Preparatory, Collegiate, Business, Law, Medical and Music Departments, and possesses the most beautiful buildings and grounds in the West. The main building and Dormitory cost over two hundred thousand dollars, and are situated in a beautiful campus, the most healthful to be found anywhere.

The rates for Board and Tuition are lower than those offered by any other first-class college in the United States. One hundred and forty dollars paid in advance in one sum pays for board and tuition for one year.

The following are the announcements for the remaining two terms of 1882–3:

WINTER TERM.

The Winter Term opens January 3, 1883. Board and tuition, with a beautifully furnished room in the new dormitory (two students rooming together), $48.

SPRING TERM.

The Spring Term opens March 28, with same advantages and same rates.

The Fall Term of 1883 opens the first Wednesday in September.

HAPPY HOMES.

This is What Good Men Everywhere Seek to Make, and the

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

—WITH ITS—

FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS,

HAS THE SAME MISSION.

MUCH of the sadness and misery we read of comes from poverty, and much of the poverty comes from the early death of husbands and fathers, who did not live long enough to secure a competency for their families. By Life Insurance a man can make sure his family will not want, whether he lives or dies.

THE NEW YORK LIFE issues two kinds of policies, specially adapted to men who believe that they have good prospects for long life. Endowments and Tontine Investment policies being payable to them if they attain a certain age—ten, fifteen, tweney or twenty-five years hence—or to their families if they die before reaching that age.

Would not the home in which this copy is read be happier if it were known that at the end of ten or fifteen years several thousand dollars would be paid to the husband and father, or, if he should die before that time, the family would receive that amount at his decease?

If you think so, write for further information to the Home Office of the

NEW YORK LIFE INSURARCE COMPANY,

Or to its nearest Agent. 346 and 348 Broadway, New York City.

MORRIS FRANKLIN, President, WM. H. BEERS, Vice Pres't and Act'y.,

THEODORE M. BANTA, Cashier.

"Once the question was, can a Christian man rightfully seek life insurance? That day is past—now the question is, can a Christian man justify himself in neglecting such a duty?

Your affairs may become involved, and your property be taken for debt Your stocks and shares may fall in value. But a policy of life insurance cannot be taken for debt; cannot be alienated from your heirs; and if you have chosen your company discreetly, is subject to no commercial risk. It is as nearly sure as anything earthly can well be."—Henry Ward Beecher.

"I am free to express my opinion of their value, especially to men in the circumstances in which ministers of the Gospel are. I have wondered that they have availed themselves so little of the advantage of such institutions. I know of no way in which they could so well provide for their own wants in advanced years, or their families when they die, as by availing themselves of these advantages."—Rev. Albert Barnes.

OF THE

Methodist Episcopal Church.

SIXTIETH SESSION.

JOURNAL FOR 1883.

FIRST DAY.

OPENING SESSION.

The Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its sixtieth session in Kimber Church, Danville, Ill., Wednesday, at 9 A. M., Sept. 19th, 1883, Bishop J. F. Hurst presiding.

The religious services were conducted by the Bishop. He read the 33d chapter of Isaiah, a hymn was sung, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to the members of the Conference and others.

The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll of members, and the following answered to their names. (See Roll.)

J. B. Wolfe was elected Secretary.

The first eight tiers of seats were fixed as embracing the bar of the Conference.

The hours for meeting and adjourning were fixed at 8:30 and 11:45 A. M.

The parchments of Geo. W. Dunn were received and placed on file.

The presiding Elders were appointed to nominate standing committees, and made their report, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows: (See List.)

The following were appointed a Committee on Centenary year:

J. F. Stout, Bloomington District; M. A. Hewes, Champaign District; A. T. Orr, Danville District; J. P. Dimmitt, Decatur District; J. A. Kumler, Griggsville District; W. H. Webster, Jacksonville District; W. S. Hooper, Mattoon District; W. D. Best, Quincy District; W. A. Smith, Springfield District.

Mrs. Dr. Marcy was introduced, and requested the Conference to nominate a committee on the Woman's Home Missionary Work, and J. H. Noble, W. H. Musgrove, E. B. Randle, J. B. Martin and W. McK. Gooding were appointed such committee.

A draft for $30 was ordered on the chartered fund.

The twentieth question, "Was the Character of each Preacher examined?"—was taken up. The character of W. N. McElroy, Presiding Elder of Bloomington District, passed, and he read a report of his District.

Chaplain McCabe presented the interests of the Metropolitan Church of Washington City, and a collection and subscription were taken to aid in paying its indebtedness.

Dr. Stowe represented the interests of the Western Book Concern.

A draft for $339 for Conference claimants was ordered on the Book Concern.

J. P. Dimmitt was appointed to conduct the religious services of Thursday morning's session.

M. A. Hewes, C. Galeener and R. G. Hobbs, were elected assistant secretaries.

Papers on Centenary Year, Education, Conference Claimants and the Book Concern accounts were referred to their appropriate committees.

After announcements, the Conference adjourned with the singing of the doxology, and the benediction pronounced by Dr. Stowe.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, Sept. 20th, 1883.

The Conference met at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Hurst presiding.

Religious services were conducted by J. P. Dimmitt.

The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

The roll of absentees was called and the following answered to their names. (See Roll.)

H. Wilson was relieved from the committee on Freedmen's Aid at his own request, and E. J. Hamill was appointed in his place.

A. Orr was excused from the Board of Stewards, and E. D. Wilkin was appointed in his stead.

The twentieth question was resumed. Bloomington district was again called, and the charater of the following elders passed, they reporting their missionary and fifth collection: G. Cunningham, W. C. REPORT ON EDUCATION.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The last year of the Illinois Wesleyan University has been one of thorough work, and in every way successful.

The attendance the present fall term, is larger than for several years. We commend the faculty to the public as thoroughly competent and worthy of the confidence of the church.

The old debt, so long a serious embarassment, is provided for and virtually cancelled.

A new roof has been put on the main building, and other repairs and changes add materially to the facilities for easy and thorough work.

The old building, having been repaired and refitted, now not only accommodates the college of commerce, but the preparatory school also, thus separating the preparatory from the college classes.

The preparatory school is under the principalship of Prof. Clark, a man of experience, and promises well.

We are pleased to note the prosperity and influence of the Woman's Educational Association, and recognize it as a most important auxiliary to the University. It affords worthy young women the advantage of an education at a low price, under all the influences of a model Christian home. We would recommend Mrs. O. H. Updegraff, the Financial Agent, to our people and preachers, as worthy of their patronage and hearty co-operation.

We present from the treasurer's report, the financial condition of the University as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From General Fund, Tuition, &c., &c	$26,076 15

DISBURSEMENTS.

Orders paid, canceled and reduced	$25,880 02
Cash on hand June 11th, 1883	196 13

ASSETS.

Value of building and grounds	$100,000 00
Endowment	70,000 00

We would recommend that steps be taken to increase the Endowment to $250,000 00 as early as possible.

We would also recommend, if practicable and suitable terms can be agreed upon, that the Danville Seminary be placed under the management of the University, and that Dr. Adams, J. G. English, J. H. Phillips and E. J. Draper be appointed a committee to take such steps as are necessary to present the matter to the joint board at its next regular session.

1. Resolved, That we request the board of trustees to require the treasurer to give bonds according to the provisions of the charter.

2. That we request the Board of Trustees to require all agents to give bonds, as suggested by the provisions of the charter.

3. That we request Bishop Hurst to appoint Rev. D. E. Adams to the Presidency of the University.

We also nominate as Trustees J. G. English, B. F. Funk, James Sconce and Dr. J. B. Taylor.

And as visitors W. A. Smith, W. S. Prentice, S. H. Whitlock, P. Wood, M. D. Hawes and J. Montgomery.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We commend the Garrett Biblical Institute as worthy the entire confidence of the church in its special work, and request that Rev. T. A. Parker and Rev. M. Auer be appointed visitors.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The thirty-sixth year of the Illinois Female College, ending June 7th, 1883, was one of the most successful in its history. During a part of the year its capacity in the boarding department was filled. Miss Lucy A. Booth, a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University, was preceptress and teacher of mathematics during the year.

Her high scholarship, refined culture, and fervent religious character, fitted her pre-eminently for the duties of her position.

The musical department, under the directorship of Prof. J. H. Davis, a graduate of the New England Conservatory, Boston, was more ably conducted than ever in the history of the College. The present musical faculty are all from that leading music school of the country, and no better advantage for the study of that branch of Fine Art can be found in the West.

The studio also made great advances in the character and amount of its work.

During the vacation very great improvements were made in the needed repairs and equipment of the building.

The present year has opened with an increased attendance. The College never stood fairer before the public, and never before offered equal facilities for instruction in all branches of solid and artistic culture. The committee can heartily commend the College to all who desire the best educational advantages for their daughters.

We recommend the re-appointment of A. C. Wadsworth, S. B. Capps and J. P. Willard, M. D., as Trustees; and Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., as President of the College; also the following as visitors: The Pastors of Jacksonville and Jacksonville circuits, Waverly and Virginia, together with Rev. P. N. Minear.

Resolved, That each of the educational Institutions whose interests are to be considered by this Conference, be requested to file certified copies of their respective charters with all amendatory acts thereto, with the Conference Secretary for the use of the Conference Committees who consider Educational matters.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

Chaddock Colloge was never more prosperous than it is now, and never had a more hopeful out-look for the future.

Its facilities for work have been greatly increased by the erection, during the last year, of a large, commodious and elegant dormitory building.

The attendance last year was nearly four hundred, and the prospects are for a larger attendance this year.

There is a good faculty, with all the departments of a thoroughly organized College.

Garrett Biblical Institute was adopted last year as the theological department of the Institution.

There is practically no debt upon the Institution, all incumbrances being much more than covered by good and available assets.

The receipts aggregated last year $13,405 58, while the expenditures were only $11,013 09.

We ask for this Institution the support of the Conference, and at the same time we advise the Board of Trustees to bring the Institution more thoroughly under their own control, and in more direct relations to this Conference.

We recommend the following appointments:

Rev. J. G. Bonnell, Financial Agent and Professor in Chaddock College.

Rev. J. A. Kumler, Rev. M. A. Hewes, Rev. James Shaw, Rev. W. N. McElroy, Rev. M. D. Hawes, and the pastors of Quincy as visitors.

Revs. W. R. Goodwin, A. M. Daneley, ministers; A. Newland, Rod. Lambert, Laymen, as Trustees.

W. H. WILDER, Secretary.

J. A. KUMLER, President.

REPORT ON MISSIONARY CAUSE.

It is with feelings of gratitude that we look upon the open gateways of so many white harvest fields, upon the character and efficiency of the harvesters, and upon the increased liberality of the church in their support. We renew our love for Him who died for us, and promise greater diligence in the universal spread of His truth.

F. C. IGLEHART, Secretary.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

Resolved, That we recognize the helpfulness of our church papers in our work as Pastors, and perseveringly push the canvass for them, striving to put a copy of at least one of our advocates in every family, giving the preference to our own Conference paper, the CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

T. I. COULTAS, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, We consider the Sunday School one of the most potent agencies in the make up of the world's moral forces, not to be dispensed with; therefore

1. Resolved, That as Pastors we will as far as possible attend every session, giving it its due portion of pastoral oversight.
2. That we urge upon each Pastor the importance of holding Teachers' Meetings.
3. That we will give our Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Literature the preference over all other, believing it to be superior. We will also introduce (where it is not introduced) and use the Catechism in all of our Sunday Schools.
4. That we request the Presiding Elders to organize their respective districts into District Normal Sunday School Institutions, and at the District Conference or Ministerial Association, one day be given to Sunday School work.
5. That we recommend the committee on Sunday Schools be denominated, the committee on Sunday Schools and Church Lyceum, and all Pastors are requested to organize lyceums in all of our charges.
6. That we will, without fail, take the annual collection for our Sunday School Union.

JAMES SHAW, Chairman.
J. B. FORD,
ROBERT STEPHENS.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your committee, to whom was referred the interests of the Preachers' Aid Society, report that Society in excellent condition, having greatly increased its assets and annual income.

We recognize the Society as thoroughly organized upon a basis of Christian and business equity which will, in the near future, assure to all who become beneficiary members, a liberal as well as equitable return from their investments.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Preston Wood as Conference Agent of the Society, and commend the Society and their Agent to the hearty support and patronage of the preachers and people within the bounds of this Conference.

W. R. CARR,
A. T. ORR,
W. McK. McELFRESH, } Committee.

TRACT CAUSE.

Your committee on Tract Cause report that the amount of $221.48 has been collected for Tracts this year.

While this is an advance over last year, we do not think it the showing that should be made.

We therefore take great pleasure in urging the claims of this noble cause, both upon the Pastors and people, and recommend that the collections be taken in all the charges. E. S. WAMSLEY, Chairman.

H. C. TURNER, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society has been the honored agency in the distribution of multiplied millions of copies of the word of God in the homes of this land, and in other lands, and in many of the tongues of earth, and,

WHEREAS, The society is now preparing to enter other fields, therefore

1. Resolved, That we commend the work of this society to our people, and earnestly recommend a united co-operation of Pastors and people, with its agents to the end that the leaves of the Tree of Life for the healing of the nations may be scattered everywhere.

2. Resolved, That as our people are forward in this as in every other good, that the results of the part taken by us in this grand enterprise ought to appear on the minutes of our Conference. W. C. LACY, Secretary.

CENTENNIAL OF M. E. CHURCH.

Your committee appointed to prepare a report on the Centennial Year of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this country, would respectfully submit the following:

1. This Centennial Year will furnish a golden opportunity to accomplish great things for God and Methodism, and that the most may be made of this opportunity, we recommend that the first Sabbath of the year 1884 be observed as a day of special consecration and prayer, and that appropriate anniversary services be held on the last Sunday of the year.

2. That the work of the year may be unhindered, we further recommend, that as far as practicable all our church debts be discharged by the close of the year 1883.

2. We advise that special efforts be made to raise funds for educational purposes, especially the endowment of our institutions of learning within the bounds of this Conference; viz: Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington; Illinois Female College, Jacksonuille, and Chaddock College, Quincy; that the permanent fund for the support of Conference Claimants be increased as largely as possible; that funds be solicited and received from all parties who desire to contribute for other benevolent objects than those mentioned above, and that special efforts be also made to increase our regular benevolent collections during this Centennial Year.

4. We suggest that a Centennial Agent be appointed by the Bishop, whose business it shall be to canvass the field under the direction of the Executive Committee for the purpose of raising funds, and securing bequests for all these special objects. We recommend as such agent Rev. James Leaton.

5. We further recommend the appointment of a Centennial Executive Committee of five, consisting of W. S. Prentice, W. N. McElroy, J. A. Kumler, Jacob Fullenwider and S. R. Capps, whose duty it shall be to devise and execute plans for carrying out the provisions of this paper, and also to fix and provide for the salary of the Centennial Agents.

6. We also recommend the appointment of John A. Chestnut, of Springfield, as Treasurer of all Centennial Funds secured during the year.

7. We request that the Bishop and his cabinet appoint a suitable minister to preach a Centennial Sermon on Sunday evening at the next session of our Conference.

TEMPERANCE.

We believe that the time has come in the history of temperance reform, that the church should give thanks for past achievements, and take radical measures to win more decisive victories. In the battle between right and rum we urge:

1. That temperance efforts, so far as controlled by the church, shall be made according to gospel methods, looking toward reform from drunkenness by the way of conversion from wickedness, and that while urging the pledge we should show the necessity of the cross.

2. That the employment of irresponsible temperance advocates be discouraged, inasmuch as by the results of many meetings held in our borders by such men, the whole power of public sentiment has been alienated from the work, and the true works.

3. Inasmuch as in the past years one of the greatest works of the century has been accomplished by the praying wives and mothers of the country through their organized war against the rum traffic, that we heartily endorse the Womans' Christian Temperance Union, and uphold it in its mighty work.

4. Inasmuch as the Word of God favors no compromise with sin in any form, and pronounces woe against him who puts the bottle to his neighbor's lips, that the condemnation of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall rest upon the license system in all its forms, high and low.

5. That the favor of the church be shown to every effort to enforce our present local option laws, and that we heartily recommend the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits by constitutional provision and statutory enactment.

SABBATH.

WHEREAS, We believe that the Sabbath was established for man's highest good, and that its proper and general observance would be a blessing to the nation; therefore

Resolved, That in our judgment, it should be respected and maintained by civil authority, and that Christian people in their individual and organized relations should revere and honor the Sabbath by their atttendance upon the public worship of God, in harmony with the requirements of His word.

Resolved, That we are opposed to making the Sabbath a day of traffic, travel or pleasure.

Resolved, That we recommend our Camp Meeting Associations to prohibit the sale of everything upon their respective grounds except meals, and that they discourage the running of trains upon that day.

Resolved, That we are heartily opposed to the teachings disseminated by the Outlook in its antagonism of the Lord's Day as the divinely appointed Sabbath, and that we will do all we can to discourage its circulation.

JOSEPH LONG, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We recognize the successful and efficient labors of the W. F. M. S., and recommend to the Pastors of the IllinoisConference the encouragement of the organization of their Auxilliary Societies througout the charges, and pledging their cordial co-operation.

A. P. STOVER,
R. McINTYRE,

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your committee report that $1,377.70 has been raised in the bounds of the Conference for this fund, and the Book Committee has apportioned to this Conference $2,124 for the ensuing year, which amount we have apportioned to the Districts as follows:

Bloomington District	$ 271 92
Champaign District	221 37
Danville District	242 88
Decatur District	234 03
Griggsville District	161 93
Jacksonville District	311 19
Mattoon District	165 85
Quincy District	197 31
Springfield District	317 52
Total	$2,124.00

G. CUNNINGHAM, Recorder.

P. SLAGLE, Secretary.

TRUSTEES' REPORT.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference desire to report in part as follows: By the will of the late Thomas Strawbridge, of Sangamon County, Ill., the following named sums were bequeathed to the Methodist Episcopal Church as follows:

To the Missionary Society	$1,000
To the Freedman's Aid	1,000
To the First M. E. Church in Springfield	1,000
To the Second M. E. Church in Springfield	1,000

The foregoing amounts have been paid into their respective societies.

Mr. Strawbridge also bequeathed to the superannuated preachers of the Illinois Annual Conference $2,000.

Also Mr. Strawbridge bequeathed to the Illinois Annual Conference, to constitute a fund, the proceeds of which to be used in defraying the expenses of an annual lecture or sermon on the goodness and mercy of God as manifested in Jesus Christ, $1,000.

The fund for the superannuated preachers is in the hands of the Treasurer, and the board would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the $2,000 bequeathed by the late Thomas Strawbridge, for the benefit of the superannuated preachers of the Illinois Annual Conference be permanently invested by the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Conference, the proceeds only to be used for the benefit of the above described persons under the direction of the Conference.

The board desire to nominate the following for re-election to serve as Trustees for three years: James Leaton, J. H. Noble and W. H. Webster.

The board also nominate as Trustees to invest the Strawbridge lecture fund, the following: John A. Chestnut, Dudley Wickersham and John Hardtner, to serve until their successors are appointed.

The board desire to further report that the Treasurer was instructed to take legal steps to secure the bequest made by Mrs. Mattison, of Hancock county, Ill., of eighty acres of land, the same to be sold and the funds to be invested for the benefit of the superannuated preachers of the Illinois Annual Conference.

The board would also report that W. H. Webster was re-elected Treasurer, and was required to give bonds for ten thousand dollars for the faithful custody of the funds.

The board also instructed the chairman to draft a code of by-laws for the government of the board, and report the same at the next annual meeting.

W. S. PRENTICE, President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

FREEDMAN'S AID SOCIETY.

When it is remembered there are eighteen millions in the South, six millions of them blacks, and by the eminently just mandate of the General Conference, we are called to aid both races in furnishing facilities for a higher education, and that we have 4,000 pulpits there, more than one half of which are supplied by illiterate men—add to this the fact that if we would win the respect of the men of mind of the South, and subdue sectional animosity, nothing more effective could be chosen by the patriot and the Christian than this work of the Freedman's Aid Society in diffusing this higher education among all classes. With such reasons before us, we should recognize the voice of God calling us to lofty sacrifices, if need be, for this great work. In the enlarged demands made upon this Society by the added duty of caring for the whites, we are now called upon for an increased appropriation of $2,500 from the Illinois Conference, which is about seven cents per member, certainly not an unreasonable demand.

The Treasurer reports $1,872.78 collected for the closing Conference year. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will raise $2,500, the amount asked of the Illinois Conference for the current year, and we do hereby request the presiding Elders to distribute this assessment among their charges.

Resolved, That we will give one service in our charges some time early in the year, and will then and there present the claims of this Society, and take up a collection for it.

Resolved, That we will use all proper influence with individuals to secure donation in aid of the greater work contemplated by the Society. All of which is respectfully submitted.

LIST OF QUESTIONS FOR CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

At a meeting of the Presiding Elders of the Illinois Annual Conference, held in Springfield, December 5, 1882, W. S. Prentice, D. D., Hiram Buck, D. D., and R. N. Davies were appointed a committee to prepare a list of questions to be used by Quarterly Conference Committees on Conference Claimants. At a meeting of the committee held in Decatur, June 15, 1883, the following questions were agreed upon:

1. Name of Claimant.
2. Sex, married, unmarried.
3. Health.
4. Age.
5. Length of time in the itinerancy.
6. Length of time in the Illinois Conference.

MEMOIRS.

AMERICUS DON CARLOS.

Americus DonCarlos was born in West Virginia, April 15th, 1815, and born again at a Camp Meeting near Georgetown, Illinois, in 1833. He read law with his father, and was admitted to the bar, but gave up the practice for the work of the ministry. He was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1840, and appointed to Mt. Carmel, with Jacob E. Reed for his colleague. After this he was appointed to and served in succession the following charges: Jonesboro, Pinckneyville, Metropolis, Sparta, Jonesboro, Hillsboro, Payson, Bay Creek, Pittsfield, Monticello, Randolph Grove, Sullivan, Scottville, Carrollton, Whitehall, Exeter, Concord, Chandlerville, Kinderhook, Perry and Columbus.

In 1864 he was granted a superannuated relation, which was changed the next year to supernumerary. In 1874 his relation was changed to effective, and he was appointed to Franklin Circuit, and the two next years to Mason City Circuit. In 1877 he was again superannuated, and sustained the relation until his death at Mason City, February 23d, 1883. In 1843 he was married to Miss Rebecca Goodner, daughter of Rev. Jacob Goodner, of Nashville, Ill., formerly a member of the Tennessee Conference.

Brother DonCarlos was not a great preacher, but a good one, winning by his affable manner the attention and good will of those to whom he ministered both in and out of the church. In his early ministry he was instrumental in leading many souls to Christ, one of whom at least, Rev. W. E. Johnson, has long been in the itinerant work. Though for many years afflicted with neuralgia, his last illness was of short duration. His last utterances were of texts of Scripture, such as "There is none other name given," &c., and of favorite hymns, as "Jesus, lover of my soul," &c. Brother DonCarlos was a good man, and true to his convictions of right. His remains were interred in the Diamond Grove Cemetery at Jacksonville.

ALEXANDER SEMPLE.

Alexander Semple was born in Ireland, Feb. 25, 1827. He was converted and joined the Wesleyan Connection in the days of his youth. On October 9, 1850, he sailed for America; after fifty-two days of a sea voyage he arrived at New Orleans, and by Dec. 20, reached Hardin, Ill. He entered the Illinois Conference in 1852, at Winchester, Ill., and was in uninterrupted active service until the day of his death. On May 31, 1853, he was married to Miss Sarah A. Riddle. Three sons and one daughter were born to him. The eldest son died in infancy, the two younger sons and the daughter are still living. During his connection with the Illinois Conference he was appointed to Hardin, Mechanicsburg, Carlinville, Decatur Circuit, Clinton twice, Atlanta twice, Urbana, Shelbyville twice, Augusta Circuit, Quincy, Jacksonville, Paris, Macon, Maroa, Champaign District, North Jacksonville District, Jacksonville Circuit, Delavan, Hillsboro and Moweaqua, where he died. In the month of March of the present year he suffered severely from cerebral hemorrhage, but as he seemed to fully recover from it, it was hoped that no serious consequences would follow. On Wednesday evening, June 13, he lead the prayer-meeting in his church, and seemed to be in unusual good health and spirits. Shortly after retiring to rest for the night he was attaked by cerebral congestion, resulting in hemiplegia. His physicians spared no pains to save him, but without avail. He died Tuesday evening, June 19. Bro. Semple was a man of superior intelligence and ready wit. He had a kind, generous heart. He was an earnest, forcible, effective preacher; loyal to his adopted country and to the church of his choice. He was buried on Thursday, June 21, at Mechanicsburg. The funeral services were held at Mechanicsburg; there was no funeral sermon, but short addresses were made by Bros. Buck, Prentice, Musgrove and Hawes. On his grave-stone might well be written: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

REV. ADAM WAGGONER.

Adam Waggoner was born in the State of Kentucky, on the 26th of August 1826, and died in Chatham, Ill., on the 5th of September, 1883, aged 57 years.

The father of Bro. Waggoner removed with his family from Kentucky to Greene county, Illinois, in 1830, and in the fall of 1844 young Waggoner was converted at a Camp Meeting held near Greenfield, Ill., and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. His faithfulness an zeal soon attracted the attention of his Pastor and brethren, and he was appointed to the office of class leader, and from this time till he entered the Conference his services as Leader, Steward and Sunday School superintendent, were in constant demand.

In 1866 he was licensed by the Quarterly Conference of Nilwood Circuit, Illinois Conference, as a local preacher, and by the same Quarterly Conference was recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial in the traveling connection. He was admitted, and his appointment was to Zanesville Circuit, where he remained two years. At the Conference held in the fall of 1868 he was appointed to Windsor Circuit. In 1869 he traveled the Sullivan Circuit. In 1870 he was appointed to Marshall Circuit, where he remained two years. In 1872 his appointment was to Kansas Circuit, where he remained two years. His appointment for the years 1874, 1875 and 1876 was to Girard Circuit. In 1877 he was appointed to Palmyra Circuit, where he remained till the fall of 1880, when he was appointed to Greenfield Circuit, his old home, where he remained two years, and in 1882 he was appointed to Chatham Circuit, where he died at the time above given.

Bro. Waggoner was married thrice; the maiden name of his last wife, now widow, was Henrietta Farley, to whom he was married March 29th, 1863. Of the children born to them but two are living, a son and a daughter.

Adam Waggoner was a good man, and more than this, he was an intelligent, faithful, zealous and successful minister of the gospel. In labors he was abundant, and on almost every charge to which he was appointed his efforts for the salvation of the people were blessed with extensive revivals of religion, and hundreds were added to the church, of such, doubtless, as shall be saved. He entered upon the labors of his last charge with his accustomed zeal, and as a result between fifty and sixty persons were converted and united with the church.

Soon after closing his series of protracted meetings his health failed, and during the five months preceding his death his sufferings were constant and severe. His long and painful sickness was borne with uncomplaining resignation, and with that calmness and confidence in God which the religion he professed can alone inspire. At one time during his sickness a friend attempted to comfort him in view of his years of faithful service in the ministry. His prompt response was, "that is nothing, nothing; it is all, all of grace."

At another time in speaking of his spiritual state he said, "I do not enjoy the wonderful exaltation of soul that I have at times experienced, but O! I have rivers of peace, rivers of peace!" And again, "the salvation of the gospel is free and full and precious."

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace.".

WM. S. PRENTICE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 13, 1883.

REV. JESSE H. MOORE.

Rev. Jesse H. Moore was born in St. Clair county, Ill., April 22, 1817. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church in early boyhood. He entered McKendree College in the fall of 1837, and graduated with honor in the classical department in August 1842. On September 13, of this year, in Union Grove, St. Clair county, he married Rachel H. Hines who still survives him, and is residing in Decatur, Ill. Immediately after marriage he began teaching in Nashville, Ill., where he remained until the autumn of 1844, when he was elected Principal of the Georgetown Male and Female Seminary. During the time he was in Georgetown he was licensed to preach as a local preacher of the M. E. Church, and in the autumn of 1846 he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference and was continued as the Principal of the Georgetown Seminary until the autumn of 1848, when he was appointed pastor of the Shelbyville charge. In the winter of 1848–49 he was elected Principal of the Seminary at Paris, Ill. He remained in this position until the spring of 1854, when he was called to the Presidency of the Quincy English and German College (now known as Chaddock College); the old college edifice was erected under his superintendency. Here he remained until the autumn of 1856 when he was appointed pastor of the Carlinville charge. In 1858 he was appointed to Jacksonville Circuit; in 1859 to West charge, Jacksonville (now known as Grace Church). In 1861 to Decatur.

On September 13, 1862, at the earnest solicitation of many who had enlisted in the regiment, he took command of, and was at Camp Butler, Ill., mustered into the service of the U. S. Army as Colonel of the 115th Regiment Ill. Vol. Inf. He commanded the post at Richmond, Ky., during November and December of 1862. During part of the summer of 1863 he was in command at Tulahoma. He received honorable mention for bravery at Chickamaugua, where his horse was shot twice under him. During most of the winter of 1863–4 he was in charge of his brigade. On May 7, 1864, he led the charge at Tunnell Hill, Georgia. After the battle of Resaca he was assigned to the command of that post. He participated in all the great battles of the Atlanta campaign. He fought with distinguished bravery at Franklin and Nashville, and on May 15, 1865, was promoted to Brigadier-General by brevet, "for gallant and meritorious services during the war." He commanded 2d Brig. 1 Div. 4th Army Corps during Thomas's pursuit of Hood. He was mustered out of the service in June, 1865.

From the autumn of 1865 to 1868 he was the presiding elder of Decatur District, Ill. Conference. He was a delegate to the General Conference of 1868. In 1868 he was elected to Congress; took his seat in 1869, and bore a prominent part in the discussion of the re-construction measures of the 41st and 42d Congresses. He was Pension Agent at Springfield, Ill., from 1873 to 1877. From 1878 to 1881 impaired health prevented him taking any active part in either church or state. In 1881 he was appointed U. S. Consul at Callao, Peru, where he died of yellow fever July 11, 1883.

During life Gen. Moore had stood before the world in the varied positions of citizen, husband, father, educator, preacher, soldier and statesman; in each and all of these positions he had challenged the respect of all who knew him. He was actuated by principles of Christian integrity; careful to render to every man his just due; paying the laborer his wages, and more. On his 47th birthday he made the following entry in his diary: "April 22, 1864.—This day I am 47 years of age. I ought to be a wiser and better man. The greatest desire of my heart is to be a true man, true to God, true to man, true to my country. But no man can hope that in this life his motives will be fully understood. But it is sufficient to know that to be misunderstood does not effect one's real character. I will try to be honest, then, whether I am understood by my fellowmen or not."

On September 4, after the family had returned from Callao, the funeral sermon was preached in the First Church, Decatur, by Pres. Short, D. D.; text, "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" 2 Sam. 3:38. The sermon was a just and appropriate tribute to the memory of a great man, well and eloquently rendered.

RICHARD N. DAVIES.

MRS. NANCY McCAW WOOD.

Mrs. Nancy McCaw Wood, daughter of David and Martha McCaw, was born in Wythe county, Virginia, May 30, 1795, and fell asleep in Jesus at her home in Carrollton, Ill., on Sabbath morning, Oct. 15, 1882. She came to Somerset, Ky., with her parents in 1805.

She was visiting a sick aunt upon whom an elderly gentlemen had called to speak upon the subject of religion. He spoke to the invalid of Christ, and the necessity of salvation in such a manner that she, the subject of this sketch was compelled, in tears, to leave the room. Inquiring who the elderly gentleman was, and learning that he was a Methodist, she covenanted with God if he would spare her to be of sufficient age, she would become a Methodist.

Under the ministry of Rev. John Travis, of the old Western Conference, she professed to experience salvation in Jesus, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1811, having been baptized in infancy in the Episcopal Church. She was united in marriage with Rev. Blatchley C. Wood, now a superannuated member of the Illinois Conference, at Somerset, Ky., Aug. 15, 1822. They came to Illinois in 1834, and settled in Carrollton, March 5, 1835. Here she spent the greater part of her long and useful life. To her the truest pleasure and highest dignity of human life consisted in being and doing good. She was a true Christian; never was aught found against her; she never failed when opportunity offered to acknowledge Christ as her Savior. She was a faithful, devoted companion, and possessed a mother's love. The proverb, "many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all," will apply to her as really as to any known case. She was seldom in a hurry, yet always engaged in some good work. She practiced a wise economy in the use of her physical strength. She furnished valuable lessons in reference to how people should live, and has just given a good example of how Christians should die.

Sister Wood, with her husband, began her early Christian work under favorable circumstances. Her husband, two years previous to their marriage, had been licensed to preach in the presence of Bishop McKendree and Valentine Cook. There was much of inspiration for them growing out of their association with these, and such godly men as Charles Holliday, James Gwinn, Mastin Ruter, Thomas A. Morris, Jonathan Stamper, Peter Akers, and others. She had a personal acquaintance with the larger part of the history of the church of her choice in America. All properly accredited ministers of the gospel found a welcome at her home. She busied with Martha's hand, and loved with Mary's heart. The last part of her life was more a labor of rest than activity. For some years past she has felt that her active labors in Christ's service were accomplished; yet to rest and not labor required great grace. For seventy years she never failed when opportunity offered, in the love-feasts and class-meetings, to acknowledge her love for Christ and his church. For more than sixty years she and her estimable husband have journeyed together in the path of life, each having for the other the greatest attachment. God granted her expressed desire that she might on a Sabbath morning ascend to the home of the blest. She leaves besides her aged husband, who has been long and favorably known in the church, three children: Mrs. Geo. L. Burrus, Miss Amanda Frances Wood, of Carrollton, and Mr. George M. Wood, of Decatur, Ill. The funeral services were held at the family residence, Monday, Oct. 16, 1882. The pastor was assisted by Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., of Jacksonville, and Rev. W. L. Tarbet, of Carrollton, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The casket was borne to the grave by five of the grand-sons of the deceased: John C. Burrus, David H. Burrus, Alfred L. Burrus, Edward W. Burrus and Howard N. Burrus.

M. M. DAVIDSON, Carrollton, Ill.

MARIA H. TROTTER.

Maria H. Trotter, daughter of Rev. Peter Cartwright, was born September 21st, 1812, in Christian county, Ky. In 1833 she was married to Rev. W. D. R. Trotter, and shared his labors. trials and successes in the itinerant ministry as long as he continued to travel. She was a very remarkable woman, inheriting much of the ability of her distinguished father, and the amiableness and domestic excellencies of her devoted mother. Her husband's success in the ministry was largely attributable to her earnest sympathy and wise counsel. Her Christian life was serene, cheerful, pronounced and hopeful. Hers was a most self-sacrificing life; she lived for others. Surviving her husband a little more than two years, she died of pneumonia at her residence in Jacksonville, December 11th, 1882. Her end was peace.

MARY ANN RUTLEDGE.

Mary Ann Rutledge was born near Enniskillen, Fermanah county, Ireland, September 15, 1819, and died at her residence in Jacksonville, Dec. 1, 1882. She was the daughter of Wesley and Eliza Mathers, and emigrated with her parents to America when about three years of age, and settled with them in Lexington, Ky. After residing in Lexington, Ky., for seven years the family removed by wagon to Illinois, and settled in Jacksonville in 1830. Mary Ann Mathers was united in marriage to Rev. George Rutledge in Jacksonville on the 1st of June, 1837, and for thirty-five years shared with him the sorrows and joys, trials and triumph of the Methodist itinerancy. Mrs. Rutledge had good religious training in early childhood. Her father, Wesley Mathers, was named for and baptized by the founder of Methodism, John Wesley. Mrs. Rutledge was consecrated to the service of God in infancy by baptism. She was converted in early life at a camp meeting in a grove northeast of Jacksonville, not far from where she was buried. For about fifty years she was a member of the M. E. Church, and lived the life of a zealous, happy and triumphant Christian. She suffered for thirty-eight years with an affection of the eyes, but always bore her sorrow and trials without a murmur. The last eleven years of her life were passed in the loneliness of widowhood, and these eleven lonely years she was also, by the providence of God, required to walk in blindness. Deprived of her sight and of the companion on whom she had leaned for so many years, she yet remained cheerful, happy and active down to the close of her life. Darkness reigned without, but her soul was full of light. She could not see the friends that gathered about her every day, but God encouraged her by giving her frequent visions of the friends that had gone before. On several occasions before her death she had become unconscious from the effects of heart disease, and so for more than a year was expecting death at any time, and could always say "for me to live is Christ and to die is gain." During the six days of sickness that preceded her death she suffered a great deal, being partially paralyzed from the effects of heart disease. When asked in the most extreme suffering if it was not too bad that she should have to suffer so much, she replied, "It is all right; God knows best." Only a few hours before her death she requested her children to sing and pray. The children, grand-children and friends gathered in the room and sang and prayed. She responded to the prayers and tried to join in the songs, and waived her hand that was not paralyzed in triumph. She gave many expressions of her love for Christ, and of her bright prospects of meeting friends upon the other shore. That room became the Gate of Heaven as she kissed her children, grand-children and friends good-bye, and gave them words of encouragement. Thus ended a bright, beautiful Christian life. She has gone from the Church militant to the Church triumphant—from friends here to friends in heaven.

RACHEL H. RUCKER.

Rachel H. Rucker, daughter of Rev. Joseph and Sarah Howard, was born in Bracken county, Ky., Feb. 23d, 1824, and died in Clinton, Ill., Sept. 3d, 1883, aged 59 years, six months and ten days. With her parents she moved to Ohio and from thence to what is now DeWitt county, Illinois, in the year 1836. At a camp meeting conducted by Rev. John Sinclair in the summer of 1838, she was converted. Thus at the early age of fourteen she entered on a Christian life, and for forty-five years was a consistent, devoted and active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her father's house was a preaching place for many years, and a home for many of the early preachers, she and her mother providing for them with all the hospitality of those days. Having but few school advantages, she and her brother were highly favored in listening to the preaching and conversation of such men as Sinclair, Cartwright, Akers, Springer, Trotter, Barger, Norman Allyer and others, and thus much of her mental and religious culture was obtained. Her father was gifted with unusual conversational powers. And in the presence of such company in early life, her mind matured with fixed conviction of duty and privilege. On the 29th of August, 1849, she was united in marriage to Rev. J. C. Rucker, of the Illinois Conference, and after spending the first six months succeeding her marriage as a student of the Illinois Female College at Jacksonville, she entered actively upon the duties, the joys and the trials of the wife of a Methodist itinerant. This position she cheerfully, faithfully and acceptably filled at Beardstown, Mt. Pulaski, Decatur, Danville on two different occasions, Marshall, Rushville, Taylorville, Georgetown, Homer on two different occasions, besides taking much of the responsibility of the management of their farm, two miles north of Clinton, whilst her husband served several adjoining pastoral charges. In the fall of 1876 she removed to Clinton where she resided until God called her to her mansion above.

The life of Sister Rucker abounded in exhibitions of devotion to others at the sacrifice of herself. In their first charge after her marriage, the City of Beardstown was visited with the scourge of the Asiatic cholera. She was ceaseless in her labors, endangering her own life in visiting the sick, the dying, and the bereaved. As a consequence of the exposure to the contagion, her husband was smitten with the disease. Though not more than able to serve herself, she was faithful and unintermitting in her services at his sick bed. During the time that her husband was agent for the Female College at Jacksonville, he became financially involved as one of the securities for the $30,000 debt of that institution. That the debt might be paid, Sister Rucker took upon herself the management and much of the hard work of the farm, that her husband might engage in other duties. In all their pastoral charges the prosperity of the church was very much to her, and sacrifice and effort were not counted worthy of consideration that it might be secured. In the beginning of their last pastorate at Homer, the society was in a weak and discouraged state, and the church building scarcely fit for a place of worship. Sister Rucker at great labor and sacrifice, personally engaged in and managed efforts for raising the money needful to put the church in proper repair; and it was the exposure and excessive work connected with this enterprise that brought on the disease from which she suffered for several years. And such instances in her life could be largely multiplied.

Her death was but the appropriate termination of the life that she lived. For many months her sufferings were extreme, but she realized that those who put their trust in God are not without a present comforter. Many times during her sickness she expressed her readiness to go, and her hopeful anticipation of being with her Saviour.

MARTHA S. WALLACE.

Martha S. Roberts, wife of Rev. H. C. Wallace, was born in Lancaster, New York, March 16, 1835, and died in Roodhouse, Ill., Oct. 12, 1882. She came with eminently pious parents to Barry, Ill., and was converted in early life, joined the M. E. Church, and in her twentieth year she married Rev. H. C. Wallace, late of the Illinois Conference, and for fourteen years shared with him the toils, cares, and privations of an intinerant minister's wife. Their labors were bestowed upon the following charges: Mason City, Athens, Pleasant Plains, Springfield Circuit, Petersburg, Pawnee, Girard, Whitehall, Roodhouse, Topeka, and then Pleasant Plains the second time, where her husband died and was buried seven years ago. She was suddenly and severely attacked with congestion of the stomach in church, and only withstood its malignance four days, and when told she could not live, she called her children to her bed, told them how to dispose of the property and how to divide it, asked each of them to meet her in heaven, which all promised to do, selected the text, "She hath done what she could," the hymns to be sung at her funeral, and Rev. Dr. Short, of Jacksonville, to preach the sermon, and said, "Bury me beside Henry at Pleasant Plains," and although naturally timid and retiring in life she met death with a calm, courageous spirit that was indeed sublime. Speech failed, and then with a calm, beautiful smile on her face she quietly and peacefully passed away to her rest and reward. She was a good wife, a devoted mother, an earnest, faithful Christian, full of faith and good works; everywhere and in everything she was the same earnest, humble, consistent Christian, loved and respected by all.

A. ORR, Roodhouse, Ill.

HELEN S. HUBER.

Helen Simmons, wife of S. H. Huber, was born in Jersey county, Ill., January 6, 1852. She was blessed with religious parents, and in early life the great and important truths of the Gospel were strongly impressed upon her mind. By these and the influence of her surroundings she was led to profess saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and to unite with the M. E. Church in girlhood. But for some years she was harrassed by doubts as to the reality of her conversion, and passed through seasons of terrible darkness. By these she was made to call mightily upon God for deliverance, often at such times falling prostrate upon the floor of her room. From these fiery heart and soul struggles, which were known at the time only to the Infinite One, and which were never revealed afterward except to the confidence of a loving husband, whom she was striving to help from similar difficulties, she did not emerge suddenly and gloriously as she had hoped. The light dawned gently and gradually, but steadily, like the coming of the morning rays. But like them it increased in brilliancy and fervency, until, when her husband chose her from her country home in early womanhood to begin the life of a Methodist itinerant with him, it had developed into a flame of burning love to God and man, and had so ripened the Christian graces in her heart as to make her ever after a marked example of her meek and loving Master. With this preparation, it is not to be wondered that she became a pastor's wife, who was most ardently loved by the people of every community in which she lived.

She was married to Rev. S. H. Huber Nov. 29, 1877, and from that day until the hour of her death proved a noble Christian wife, and an assistant of more than usual ability to him in his ministerial life. During the enforced privations attendant upon the life of their early ministry, she was never known to murmur, but counted all loss gain, if thereby the cause of Christ, which was dearer than life to her, might be advanced. Physically she was for years very frail. She was almost a constant and a very great sufferer, yet she maintained a disposition that was ever cheerful and hopeful, and her home, although the abode of affliction, was always illuminated by her smiles. Intellectually she was richly endowed. Although her opportunities for acquiring an education were only such as were afforded by a district country school of fifteen or twenty years ago, yet she had so developed her powers by self-culture as to be fitted to move gracefully in the most cultured society. Of music, poetry and painting she was passionately fond, and would have excelled in either. In the two last she had made what advancement her feeble health and strength allowed. She was the mother of one child—Little Mildred, who died Oct. 22, 1879, at the age of one year, and now sleeps by her mother's side in the Spring Hill Cemetery at Danville. Her absorbing interest in the revival of the past winter at Sullivan, Ill., led her to greater exertions for the salvation of souls than her frail physique could endure, and she became the victim of nervous prostration during the third week of the meeting. In this state she lingered for seven months, her condition at times giving her loved ones ground for bright hopes of her recovery, and at others exciting their greatest fears. During the last six weeks of her life she suffered more than tongue can tell. Amid it all her faith failed her not. Her sense of her own unworthiness was very keen, and at one time she said to her husband, "I sometimes fear that when the last great trial comes I shall not have grace to sustain me." Near the last, when in the midst of a paroxism of pain, she said to him, "You know my fear, but oh, I have such grace, such grace!" Then drawing his ear close to her lips she whispered, "My faith is built on nothing less than Jesus's blood and righteousness." During her last hours the hand of a kind providence gently shrouded her suffering in unconsciousness, and at 3:15 Monday morning, Aug. 13, 1883, in her home at Sullivan, Ill., while surrounded by a company of almost heart broken loved ones, she quietly fell to sleep and was at rest.

On motion, the Conference adjourned to meet at 1:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference convened at 1:30 P. M., pursuant to adjournment.

The hymn, "O for a thousand tongues," was sung, and prayer was offered by D. D. Alkire.

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows:

For President, Dr. E. W. Moore, of Decatur; for Vice President, J. T. Galford, of Elkhart; for Secretary, Merton Dunlap, of Paxton.

Dr. Moore declined the nomination, whereupon the committee substituted the name of L. C. Burr, of Tolono, for President.

On motion, said report was adopted as amended, and the permanent officers duly elected.

The following was offered:

Resolved, That the voting for delegates to the General Conference be by districts, the chairman of each delegation announcing the vote.

A substitute therefor was offered by D. C. Corley, as follows:

Resolved, That delegates to the General Conference be elected by ballot.

Whereupon the said substitute was duly adopted.

On motion, the President appointed the following persons as tellers to ascertain and announce the votes:

W. T. Smith, Pittsfield; Charles E. Connard, Decatur; S. R. Capps, Jacksonville; John Reed, Bloomington.

It was moved that this floor be reserved for delegates alone. Motion lost.

On motion, the delegates occupied the front portion of the room.

The following was offered by J. H. Ewing:

Resolved, That each delegate be allowed to vote for two candidates on one ticket, and any candidate receiving a majority of all the votes cast shall be declared elected. Adopted.

Several motions on question of extension and removal of the "time limit" were sent to the Secretary's desk.

On motion, the President appointed the following members as a committee on resolutions:

Albert Bonnel, J. W. Sim, J. H. Ewing, Thomas R. Petri, E. Gollar.

On motion, all resolutions were referred to said committee.

On motion, it was ordered that the Conference now proceed to the election of delegates to the General Conference.

M. Oakwood placed in nomination J. G. English, of Danville.

W. N. Bock nominated David H. Harts, of Lincoln.

W. G. Cochran nominated Dr. E. W. Moore, of Decatur.

Col. John Reed nominated O. T. Reeves, of Bloomington.

J. H. Ewing nominated Philip G. Gillett, of Jacksonville.

The first ballot resulted as follows:

Total number of votes cast 142. Necessary to a choice 72.

J. G. English received 107 votes.

E. W. Moore received 69 votes.

P. G. Gillett received 62 votes.

O. T. Reeves received 37 votes.

D. H. Harts received 7 votes.

Whereupon J. G. English was declared elected.

SECOND BALLOT.

Number of votes 142. Necessary to a choice 72.

E. W. Moore received 59 votes.

P. G. Gillett received 59 votes.

O. T. Reeves received 24 votes.

THIRD BALLOT.

Number of votes 142. Necessary to a choice 72.

E. W. Moore received 60 votes.

P. G. Gillett received 68 votes.

O. T. Reeves received 12 votes.

FOURTH BALLOT.

Number of votes cast 142. Necessary to a choice 72.

E. W. Moore received 67 votes.

P. G. Gillett received 69 votes.

O. T. Reeves received 4 votes.

J. G. English received 1 vote.

FIFTH BALLOT.

Number of votes 142. Necessary to a choice 72.

E. W. Moore received 63 votes.

P. G. Gillett received 79 votes. Whereupon P. G. Gillett was declared duly elected.

On motion the Conference proceeded to the election of alternates to the General Conference.

The following was offered by J. M. Patterson:

Resolved, That the candidate who receives the greatest number of votes shall be the first alternate, and the one receiving the next highest shall be the second alternate. But no candidate shall be declared elected unless he receives a majority of all votes cast. It is further provided that if one shall be elected before the other, the one first elected shall be the first alternate even if he has not received the greatest number of votes.

The names of candidates were duly presented.

The first ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast 137. Necessary to a choice 69.

E. W. Moore received 102 votes.

O. F. Reeves received 71 votes.

J. F. Galford received 49 votes.

Abraham Mann received 40 votes.

Whereupon E. W. Moore was declared elected as first alternate, and O. F. Reeves as second alternate.

The following was offered by J. Henderson and adopted:

Resolved, That on presentation of the report on resolutions, the vote be taken on each resolution separately and without debate.

The committee on resolutions presented the following reports:

Resolved, That we are unqualifiedly opposed to the removal of the time limit of service in the appointment of our ministry.

Resolved, That in our judgment an extension of the time of service in a charge is uncalled for, and would be unwise.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Electoral Conference are hereby extended to the citizens of Danville for their liberal hospitality during our session; also to the various railroad lines for favors shown.

ALBERT BONNEL.
THOS. R. PETRI.
J. H. EWING.
E. GOLLAR.

Resolved, That we favor the removal of what is known as the time limit, so that the Presiding Bishop may be left free to allow a preacher to remain in the same station so long as the good of the church and the cause of Christ will be furthered thereby.

J. W. SIM.

The first resolution in the majority report was unanimously adopted; second resolution was adopted by a vote almost unanimous; the third resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote. On motion, the President and Secretary were appointed to convey the proceedings of this Conference to to the Ministerial Conference. On motoin of W. G. Cochran, a collection was taken to assist in the publication of the Conference minutes. Amount of collection $17.99. On motion it was further ordered that the Secretary of the Ministerial Conference be requested to publish the proceedings of this Conference with the regular Conference minutes. A motion to adjourn prevailed. Praise God from whom all blessings flow was sung.

Benediction by Rev. Martin.

TRANSFERRED.—F. C. Iglehart was announced transferred to Genesee, and J. T. Roberts to the Nebraska Conferences.

RESOLUTIONS OF COMMENDATION.—W. H. H. Moore presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Our beloved brother, F. C. Iglehart, has, in Providence of God, been transferred to the Genesee Conference; therefore

Resolved, That, as a slight tribute to his worth as a gentleman and an able Christian minister, we desire to express our high appreciation of his many excellencies of heart and mind manifested during his stay among us, and the wisdom and energy that has characterized the discharge of his difficult duties as pastor of First Church, Bloomington, and that has resulted in such signal success.

Resolved, That we would gladly have retained him as a fellow-laborer in the Illinois Conference, but as his lot has fallen elsewhere, we heartily recommend him to the confidence of the church he will serve, and to the Conference that he will be associated with; and pray that God's blessings may ever attend him personally, in his family and in his ministry.

Resolved, That should he return to us at any future time, we will cordially welcome him to our fellowship.

W. H. H. MOORE.
D. W. ENGLISH.

Also the following:

WHEREAS, Our beloved brother, J. T. Roberts, has been transferred to the Nebraska Conference; therefore

Resolved, That we desire to express our high appreciation of his Christian and ministerial character, and recommend him to the confidence of the brethren in Nebraska, and pray that the blessings of God may ever abide with him personally, with his family and with him in his ministry.

W. H. H. MOORE.
D. W. ENGLISH.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.—T. A. Parker presented the Report of the Committee on Education, which was read and adopted. (See report.)

APPOINTMENT OF M. D. HORNBECK.—On motion of James Leaton, the Bishop was requested to appoint M. D. Hornbeck to the Principalship of Danville Seminary.

TRUSTEES' REPORT.—The Report of the Trustees of Conference was read and adopted as follows: (See report.)

RESOLUTION ON CENTENNIAL SERMON.—R. N. Davies presented the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

WHEREAS, The Centennial Sermon that was delivered yesterday afternoon, in this church, by Rev. James Leaton, D. D., is full of historical facts, statistics, and suggestions of great value; therefore Resolved, That he be requested to furnish a copy of it to Rev. Dr. Fry, for publication in the Central Christian Advocate.

R. N. DAVIES.
M. W. EVERHART.
J. P. DIMMITT.
I. VILLARS.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.—The following was presented by R. N. Davies and unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to Bishop Andrews for the courteous and efficient manner in which he has presided during the session of our Annual Conference; for his valuable counsels; and for his sermon, replete with grand truths, presented in a masterly manner. We pray God that his life, health and strength may be so preserved that he may bless the church with his counsels and labors for many years to come. And that we will gladly welcome him back to our midst whenever it may fall to his lot to visit us.

R. N. DAVIES.
M. W. EVERHART.
J. P. DIMMITT.
I. VILLARS.

The following were also unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we extend our hearty thanks to the citizens of Carlinville for the generous way in which they have entertained the Illinois Annual Conference.

R. G. HOBBS.
C. GALEENER.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the Wabash, C. & A., O. & M., Jacksonville Southeastern, and the P., D. & E. Railroads for favors extended to the Conference.

R. G. HOBBS.
C. GALEENER.

REPORTS.

Trustees' Report.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference desire to report as follows:

At the annual meeting, held September 18–20, 1884, the following members were present: W. S. Prentice, W. H. Webster, J. H. Noble, Hiram Buck, Jas. Leaton, T. A. Parker, J. F. Stout and Horace Reed.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

W. H. Webster, the treasurer, reported the loan of the Strawbridge fund of $2,000 at 8 per cent. interest; the same secured by a first mortgage on eighty acres of land in Macon county, Illinois.

The treasurer also reported in relation to the land in Hancock county, Illinois, which, by the will of Mrs. Mattison, is to be sold and the proceeds used for the Superannuates of the Illinois Conference; that there has been a delay in administering on the estate, but steps are being taken by which he hopes the estate will soon be settled, and the one hundred acres of land sold and the proceeds applied according to the will.

The board recommend for re-election the following members, to serve three years: Wm. S. Prentice, Hiram Buck and Horace Reed.

The treasurer further reported that there was coming into his hands from the sale of the old church building in Milton, Pike county, Illinois, the sum of $300. The board directed him to loan the same to Rev. Henry Wilson, of this Conference, on a personal note indorsed by two good securities.

The treasurer also presented his bond for ten thousand dollars, which the board approved.

The trustees of the Strawbridge lecture report that they have loaned the $1,000 bequeathed by Mr. Strawbridge as a lecture fund.

The board desire to recommend the appointment of Rev. R. N. Davies, D. D., with Rev. James Leaton, D. D., as alternate, to preach the sermon the ensuing year, in the city of Springfield, at such time as the trustees of that fund may designate.

Respectfully submitted.

W. S. PRENTICE, Chairman.

HORACE REED.

Preachers' Aid Society.

We, your Committee, to whom was referred the interest of the Preachers' Aid Society of this Conference, find the Society in a very prosperous condition, wisely and thoroughly organized, and worthy of the support and encouragement of the members of the Conference, and all others.

We would also respectfully ask that Rev. James Shaw be appointed Conference Agent.

J. JAY DUGAN, Secretary.

Education.

Your Committee on Education have had under consideration the educational interests of our Conference, and beg leave to report as follows:

I.—ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Concerning this the most prominent of our institutions of learning, your Committee can report that, in all respects, there is satisfactory improvement. The scholastic year of 1883–84 was very successful. There were 837 students in all the departments; the work of instruction was thorough, and the health of the faculty and students excellent. We notice, gladly, that not only is the intellectual development of the students cared for, but their religious welfare as well. During the last year scores of them were soundly and happily converted to God and brought into the church. We can cordially commend the whole corps of teachers to the confidence of the church. So wisely has the Wesleyan been managed, and so greatly have its facilities of instruction been enlarged, that we are sure no institution in the West is more amply equipped for instruction in all the work of higher education, and we earnestly recommend it to the good will, the patronage and the liberal spirit of the church.

Among the enterprises of the University we call your especial attention to the Danville Seminary, lately opened under the charge of Rev. M. D. Hornbeck. We request the Bishop to appoint him to that position.

The building and grounds, improved by an expenditure of $3,000, have been conveyed to the Trustees of the Wesleyan University. It is expected that this new Seminary will become a valuable aid in preparing students for College.

Besides this condition of things so gratifying, we are happy to announce to the Conference that the debts of the University have been either all paid or are provided for.

During the coming year Methodism cannot more nobly commemorate its Centennial in the Illinois Conference than by an increase of $200,000 to the Endowment Fund. We believe this may be done, and are sure it ought to be done, and to this end we nominate Rev. James P. Dimmitt as Financial Agent, recommending him to the co-operation and Christian generosity of the church in securing this additional endowment.

Your Committee offer the following resolution and nominations for the concurrence of the Conference:

Resolved, That we request the Bishop presiding to appoint Rev. W. H. H. Adams to the Presidency of the University, Rev. C. M. Moss and Rev. J. G. Cross to Professorships in the same.

We nominate as Trustees to serve three years, Rev. H. Buck, D. D., Peter Whitmer, Rev. W. H. Wylder and S. E. Prather.

We nominate as Visitors from the Conference, W. S. Prentice, D. D., Jas. Léaton, D. D., S. H. Whitlock, Preston Wood, Horace Reed, D. D., and W. E. Johnson.

II.—ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

From careful investigation into the affairs of this College your Committee are gratified to report that the last collegiate year was, in all respects, successful. This is shown in the number of scholars, the thoroughness of the instruction, the pure and wholesome discipline, the conversion of all the boarding students but one, in the increase of experienced teachers, and in the addition of facilities for the work of the Institution. In all these things we are glad to report remarkable improvement.

We cheerfully commend this College to parents desiring to find a school for their daughters where they can have the best advantages in literary, musical and artistic culture, and enjoy as well the security and comforts of the home.

We respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint the Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., to the Presidency of Illinois Female College, and nominate the following as Visitors from the Conference: W. H. Musgrove, W. S. Prentice, D. D., and the preachers in charge at Grace, Centenary and Brooklyn Churches, Jacksonville.

III.—CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

This College, located in Quincy, Ills., begins the present year under improved auspices. Dr. H. C. DeMotte has been elected as President, with a competent Board of Teachers, offering thorough tuition in well organized departments. A corps of resident physicians and lawyers are employed in the Departments of Medicine and Law.

We are able to report this Institution to be now thoroughly prepared for excellent work. The buildings and grounds are in fine condition, and the debt of $18,000 yet remaining, is fully provided for and will be met without embarrassment, while the Trustees have put into operation a plan to secure $50,000 for the endowment of the President's chair.

We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. G. Bonnell as Professor and Financial Agent, and E. C. Ferguson as Professor. We also nominate the following persons as Trustees: Rev. M. A. Hewes, Rev. Peter Wallace, D. D., S. E. Hewes and Dr. John Schmidt. We also name the following to be Visitors from the Conference: J. A. Kumler, James Shaw, and the preachers in charge of Vermont Street and Trinity Churches in Quincy, Ills.

IV.—GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

Your Committee recalls to the attention of all candidates for the ministry the recommendation of the last General Conference to obtain a good training in the Theological and other schools of the church before entering upon the active ministry. We advise pastors in the West of the noble, free and full advantages afforded in the Halls of Garrett Biblical Institute. Its facilities for the teaching and training of ministers for their work in the church and the world are unsurpassed. Its endowments are ample, its location convenient, and its faculty unexceptionably able and accomplished.

We nominate as Visitors to the Institute Rev. M. D. Hawes and Rev. Jas. Miller.

Your Committee also recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

(1.) That, in accordance with the new provisions of the Discipline, we, as pastors, will observe the second Sabbath in June as Children's Day; will take a public collection on that day for the work of education, and divide the amount collected equally between the Parent Board of Education and the Auxilliary Society of the Conference.

(2.) That the money for educational purposes shall be paid out by the Treasurer of that fund to the Treasurers of the several schools under the patronage of the Conference. The Treasurer shall also keep a record of the names of the beneficiaries of the fund.

(3.) That each Institution of learning fostered by this Conference be required to file with the Secretary of the Conference a certified copy of its charter and certificates of organization, and all amendments thereto.

Periodicals.

It is with feelings of gratitude that we look upon the increasing patronage given to our peroidical literature, and recognizing the helpfulness and indispensible need of our Church papers in the Church and home, recommend the faithful pushing of the canvass until all our families are supplied with Advocates, preference being given to our Conference paper, the Central Christian Advocate.

That we insist upon the Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church using the literature furnished by her own publishing house.

That we are pleased to learn of the growing success of the Lyceum Reading Unions already established in the bounds of the Conference, and recommend their establishment in every charge.

Resolved, That we welcome Dr. Fry on his return to the editorial chair of the "Central Christian Advocate," as well as in his visits to our Conference; and to the extent of our ability we will extend the circulation of the Central Christian Advocate.

W. F. T. SPRUILL, President.

E. S. WAMSLEY, Secretary.

Our Book Concern.

WHEREAS, Our Book Concern exists for the purpose of providing a literature in harmony with the doctrines and polity of our Church, and,

WHEREAS, Its net profits are devoted to the use and support of our worn-out preachers and their dependents, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we will continue to sell and circulate our publications, and endeavor to place our books, papers and periodicals in our families and Sunday Schools.

Resolved, 2d. That we will discountenance every abuse of the credit extended by the concern to our preachers; and we recommend that our agents refuse credit to any preacher who fails to pay his account at Conference, or to make satisfactory arrangement therefor.

Resolved, 3d. That we cannot reasonably expect cheaper publications until our books and papers have wider circulation, and the agents can rely with certainty upon prompt and full payments.

W. N. McELROY.
W. F. SHORT.

Missionary Cause.

WHEREAS, The command of the Lord our leader is, "Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward," while the world that lieth in wickedness and ignorance of the living God calls imploringly, "Come over into Macedonia and help us!" We confess the force of this two-fold, heaven and earth-born, obligation, and grateful to God for the sublime privilege of co-operation with him in spreading the knowledge of the glory of God as seen in the face of Jesus Christ, and in the lives of the redeemed; We resolve,

1st. That as pastors, we will, by precept and practice, present to and enforce upon our people the great claims of the Missionary Cause.

2d. That as far as we are able, we will take the Missionary collections in the early part of the year.

3d. That we will double our diligence in Sunday School Missionary effort, thereby greatly increasing our present collections, while we are planting ineradicably in the fertile soil of the Sunday School a branch of the vine that will bear fruit unto eternal life.

DAVID GAY, President.

J. P. McINTYRE, Secretary.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

We recognize in the W. F. M. S. an efficient organization for good; and recommend that the pastors of the Illinois Conference co-operate with the sisters in this work.

And further, we recommend that the pastors bring neither money nor receipts for money raised by said society to Conference, but simply report the amount of money raised by the Society within the bounds of their several charges.

S. H. MARTIN.

J. O. COLLINS, Secretary.

Freedmen's Aid Society.

We rejoice in the glorious work accomplished by the Freedmen's Aid Society in the past, and look with hope for it to accomplish still greater things in the future.

In view of the great importance and necessities of this Society, therefore be it Resolved, 1st. That we indorse the action of the last General Conference in putting the entire educational work of the South in the hands of the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Resolved, 2d. That we further indorse the action of the General Conference in fixing the amount to be raised by the Church for this cause at $500,000, and that we will use our best endeavor to raise our proportion of this amount.

Resolved, 3d. That we will give one entire service to the presentation of this benevolence, and secure as nearly as possible the amount apportioned to our charges.

Sunday Schools.

WHEREAS, There is a tendency in many parts of the Conference to disregard the law of the Church in the organization of the Sabbath School; Teachers and Superintendents being selected by various and irresponsible methods, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we will see to it that all our schools are organized after the disciplinary plans.

Resolved, 2d. That all our Officers and Teachers, where it is possible, members of the M. E. Church.

Resolved, 3d. That our music and literature are superior to all others, and ought to be used in our Schools.

A. C. BYERLY.

Resolved, That it is exceedingly desirable that Chautauqua Normal Classes be instituted in all of our Schools.

Resolved, That we regret the absence of the Bible in our Schools in addition to our present lesson helps, and that we will do all in our power to multiply copies of God's word in all our Schools.

C. G. WOOD.
E. C. HARPER.

Tracts.

Resolved, That we reaffirm our allegiance to the Tract Society, and recommend to pastors and people the "Spare Minute Course," and urge a more general distribution of all our Tracts.

G. W. DUNGAN, Chairman.

E. L. CARLILE, Secretary.

The Sabbath.

WHEREAS, We, with all Evangelical Christians, acknowledge the Scriptural obligations of the Sabbath; that the practical observance of said obligations would result in our highest good, spiritual and temporal, would give the greatest possible efficiency to our ministry and the work of the church in general; And

WHEREAS, Many disregard and contemn said obligations as Puritanical, and others practically desecrate the day by making it an occasion for pleasure; And

WHEREAS, Great laxity among ourselves obtains in many places under the false notion that the end sanctifies the means, such as collecting gate fees at camp-meetings, selling books on said day, collecting funds for secular or semi-secular purposes, diverting the minds of worshippers from the worship of the day, traveling, reading books and papers that do not tend to the knowledge or love of God; Therefore Resolved, First, That consistency requires us to assert and emphasize the obligations of the Sabbath in our pulpits and by our lives, before our own people and all men.

Second, That in our judgment the holding of either temperance or religious camp-meetings, with open gates upon the Sabbath, and advertising the same, thus by occasion encouraging excursion trains and other unnecessary travel on that day, is a violation of the Fourth Commandment, and we recommend all our people to use their influence to discourage the holding of such meetings.

Third, That we will not encourage running railroad trains on the Sabbath day. That we will do all we can to make the day a means of spiritual good, and thus gain the greatest possible efficiency as laborers in the vineyard.

W. H. H. MOORE, Chairman.

W. F. GILMORE, Secretary.

The Bible Cause.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society has in charge the work of supplying our own land with the Word of God in all the languages here spoken, and is also the chief agency of the American churches in doing their part of the Bible work of the world; Therefore Resolved, First, That we regard the work of the American Bible Society, both at home and abroad, as one of vital importance to the church and to the world.

Second, That we rejoice in the success that has crowned the efforts of this Society hitherto; that it has been enabled to put in circulation forty-four million volumes of the Bible, and portions of it in eighty of the leading languages and dialects of the globe.

Third, We are glad to learn the re-supply now going forward in our land is being prosecuted vigorously and successfully. That over four hundred colporteurs of the Parent Society were employed in this work during portions of the past year. That more than twelve hundred thousand homes were visited, and over one hundred thousand of the one hundred and fifty thousand destitute were supplied.

Fourth, That in view of the fact that in this great home and foreign work of the Society, the expenditures exceeded the receipts of the year by more than one hundred thousand dollars, we will see that a collection is taken up for this cause in each of our churches during the year, and will have the same reported to Conference according to the plan of the General Conference.

A. B. McELFRESH, Chairman.

J. C. KELLER, Secretary.

Centennial Executive Committee.

The Centennial Executive Committee of the Illinois Conference, appointed at your last session, make the following report:

The Committee was organized very soon after the adjournment of the Conference, with W. S. Prentice as Chairman, and J. S. Kumler, as Secretary, all the members being present. The various interests submitted to this Committee by the Conference were considered, and plans and details for work advancing these interests were made and declared. These met the hearty approval of the Centennial Agent, and also of the several Institutions and representatives of the several interests involved.

Provisions were made for the house rent, expenses and salary of the Agent. The nature and extent of the work done will more fully appear in the reports of the Centennial Agent and Treasurer, which we make part of our report, and which will be submitted to you by the Agent and Treasurer.

The whole amount of moneys and notes received above expenses being $4,659 35, besides some subscriptions yet to be collected.

We would make the following recommendations, viz:

1. The appointment of a Centennial Executive Committee, consisting of three ministers and two laymen, who shall plan and direct in these matters.

2. That John A. Chesnut be appointed the Treasurer of these Centennial Funds.

3. That the services of a Centennial Agent be continued for the ensuing year, under the direction of the Centennial Executive Committee, and that as such Agent his services be limited to the Permanent Fund for Superannuates, to be invested by the Trustees of the Illinois Conference, leaving the matter of the endowment of our literary institutions to the efforts, plans and Agents of these institutions themselves, and that James Shaw be appointed such Agent.

4. That special Centennial services be held in all our charges on Sunday, 26th December, 1884, and that a thank-offering be then made for the Permanent Fund for the Superannuate preachers, their wives, widows and orphans of the Illinois Conference.

5. That brief summaries of the reports of Centennial Agent and Treasurer be printed in the Annual Minutes.

Temperance.

We deem it a duty to declare at this time our ever deepening conviction of the evils growing out of the drink traffic, and while recognizing the value of all moral agencies to mitigate its evils, we at the same time recognize the necessity of its absolute and entire prohibition. And in doing this we but emphasize the oft repeated utterances of the Illinois Conference and also of the General Conference of the Church. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That the recent rapid growth of public sentiment in favor of the suppression of the liquor traffic is a source of gratification to the members of this Conference, as it should be to all lovers of law and good order in society.

Resolved, 2d. That we indorse every honorable effort made for a submission to the people of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks; and that it is the sense of the Illinois Conference that our senators and representatives in the state legislature, at their next session should pass a law submitting said constitutional amendment to a vote of the sovereign people, who have a right to decide this question that affects so greatly, not only the prosperity and happiness of the whole country, but the welfare and safety of every community and of every home.

Resolved, 3d. That, inasmuch as the word of God favors no compromise with sin, we are utterly opposed to the license system in all its forms, both high and low, as "a covenant with death that should be disannulled," and a "league with hell that should not stand."

Resolved, 4th. That it is a disgrace to the American nation to have the liquor traffic carried on in Washington City; and that it is the duty of Congress to prohibit this nefarious traffic in the District of Columbia, and wherever the general government has jurisdiction.

MEMOIRS.

REV. S. McCALL.

Rev. Solomon McCall was born in Marion county, S. C., June 10, 1813. In early life he removed to East Tennessee, where in 1831 he was converted at Knoxville. Soon after he felt that he was called to preach, but such was his sense of unfitness, that he refused to obey the call, and as a consequence lost his assurance of the divine favor. In 1836 he came to Illinois, and a few years afterward, while in the midst of imminent danger, he returned to God, and resolved to submit entirely to His will. He united with the M. E. Church in Jacksonville, Ill., where he received a license to exhort, and in 1847 to preach. The next year he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference and traveled in succession the following charges: Vandalia, Greenfield, Cummington, London City, Waverly, White Hall, Hardin, Perry, Barry, Perry, Ripley, Hardin, Spring Lake and Blue Point, but was changed by his Presiding Elder from this to the Decatur Circuit, where his effective labors ended. In 1862 he was granted a superannuate relation, in which he continued until his death at Decatur, Oct. 16, 1883. Though of limited education, yet as an industrious, zealous, devoted and successful laborer, Bro. McCall had few superiors. In most of the charges he served, revivals followed his labors; whilst in some, hundreds of souls were led to the Savior. During the many years of his superannuation he was greatly afflicted; at first with an affection of the eyes, that rendered him almost totally blind, and for seven years prevented him from reading; and afterward by a complication of disorders that caused him great suffering. In his most severe paroxisms of pain he could say: "Good is the will of the Lord." As death approached, the grace of God abounded more and more towards him. Among his last utterances were: "What a halo of glory around me! Streams of heavenly light! I am waiting to step into the heavly mansion that my Father has prepared for me."

REV. ABNER POTTLE.

Rev. A. Pottle was born at Buffalo Heart Grove, Sangamon county, Ill., October 15, 1842. He was converted on a sick bed, in 1869. He remained sick during the winter and spring and joined the church in the summer, as soon as he was able to leave his bed. He was licensed to preach under the administration of Rev. T. D. Weems, at Cornland, in Logan county, in 1872. He married on April 8, 1874. Joined the Illinois Annual Conference in 1875, and was sent to Lovington Circuit; in 1876 to Shelbyville Circuit; in 1877 to Casey Circuit; and was returned there in 1878; in 1879 to Grandview; in 1880 to Assumption; in 1881 to Mansfield; was sent back to Mansfield in 1882, when he broke down under a combined malady of stomach and lungs. During his sickness at Mansfield the writer visited him, and found him patient, cheerful and hopeful. In 1883 he was moved to Waynesville, where he died July 2. Brother Pottle had always been of poor health ever since his admission into Conference. But notwithstanding this he was a faithful, industrious, untiring laborer in the Master's vineyard. Had he done less work he might have lived longer; but he had consecrated his spirit, soul and body to the Master's work, and he made his consecration an efficient one. He was a man of fair English education, considerable reading, clear common sense, and a heart filled with the love of God. His life was a happy illustration of the combination of holy industry and patient resignation. A week or so before his death he said: "I do not have the joys that others have had in their last hours—such joy as I have read about, and such joy as I have seen in others; but if the Father wishes me to go down into the river by faith, I can do it." A few minutes before, Bro. Ellis (the pastor at Waynesville) said to him, "Brother Pottle, do you know that you are going down into the river?" He answered, "I did not know it until a few moments ago. The first intimation I had that I was going down into the river was when I heard the angels singing." He lay still for a short time with his eyes closed, listening to the heavenly singers, when suddenly he opened his eyes, reached his hand to his wife and said: "A band of angels have come; I am going, good-bye." Then "he fell asleep." Brother Pottle leaves a wife and two little daughters.

R. N. DAVIES.

MRS. MARY H. BARTHOLO.

Mary H. Bartholo, daughter of John and Mary Heller, was born near New Philadelphia, Ohio, Sept. 15, 1825. She was married to her beloved husband, Rev. B. Bartholo, of the Illinois Conference, Feb. 20, 1844. She was converted in her thirteenth year, and joined the M. E. Church on Christmas day, 1837. When her husband, in 1854, entered upon the laborious life of an itenerant Methodist minister, Sister Bartholo assumed the equally heroic and arduous duties devolving upon the itinerant's wife, and most faithfully did she perform them for thirty years. Much of their early ministry was upon the large circuits incident to pioneer work, and her husband was necessarily absent a great deal from home. This threw the care of a young family largely upon her. But such was her influence over her children that they suffered no appreciable detriment from their father's enforced absence. The first evening of their married life Brother and Sister Bartholo established a family altar, which was ever after religiously maintained, Sister Bartholo always bearing her share in its conduct, and keeping its fire burning when her husband was away.

She always manifested the deepest interest in the welfare of the church and the salvation of souls. Often when in feeble health her husband would be reluctant to leave her, but she would urge him to go to his appointments praying God's blessing to attend his labors. No Methodist preacher ever had a help-meet more in sympathy with his work, or more willing to toil and sacrifice for his success than had Brother Bortholo in the devoted, uncomplaining Christ-like woman who walked by his side for thirty years, as he went up and down the world proclaiming the unsearchable riches of the Gospel. With her husband she believed in that heroic fraternity, now rapidly passing away, who traveled over these vast prairies, and by their labors founded an empire in this wilderness. Said one of her sons to the writer as she was dying:

"There lies a martyr to the Methodist church;" and he answered, "Yes, and she will soon receive a martyr's crown," which prophecy is now fulfilled. Her last illness was about a month in duration, her symptoms being alarming from the beginning. She bore her sufferings, which were severe, with great fortitude and composure. On Monday evening, March 21st, 1884, she quietly and peacefully passed away, with many expressions of confidence and joyous hope. We stood around her bed and sang: "My latest sun is sinking fast," &c., and when we were done singing she was home. Thus rests from her labors one of God's saints, and her works do follow her. The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Brothers Villars, Stephens and West.

JOURNAL OF CONFERENCE.

The sixty-second session of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held in Rushville, Schuyler county, Illinois, commencing on Thursday, September 17th, 1885, and closing on the following Tuesday, Bishop W. X. Ninde presiding.

The session was opened by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper by the Bishop.

The roll was called by the secretary of the last Conference, and 181 members answered to their names.

The Conference ordered that the names of the absentees be called tomorrow, and then the further calling of the roll should be dispensed with.

J. B. Wolfe, being nominated as secretary, declined on account of long service, and nominated C. Galeener, who was unanimously elected by acclamation. He selected as his assistants, J. B. Wolfe and R. G. Hobbs, with W. T. Beadles as Statistical Secretary.

The following brethren were appointed Assistant Statistical Secretaries: J. C. Keller, E. A. Hamilton, C. R. Morrison, W. S. Calhoun, C. W. Jacobs, John B. Martin, C. F. McKown, B. D. Wiley.

The Standing Committees were then nominated and elected. See list.

The following resolutions, presented by J. H. Noble, were adopted:

1. That the Stewards be instructed to allow claims only when clearly needed.

2. To make it a settled rule to grade all claims according to years of active service in the ministry.

3. To make exceptions only in extreme cases, of which we make the Stewards judges; and this exception only to be allowed for the next five years, counting 1885 as the first—after that abiding implicitly by the rule.

The bar of Conference was fixed, and the hours of meeting and adjournment agreed on.

Rev. John Clarke, an aged local minister of sixty years standing, and George Baker, an aged layman who was a member of the Quarterly Conference at Flemingsburg, Ky., where Dr. P. Akers was licensed to preach, were, on motion, invited to seats on the platform.

A draft was ordered on the chartered fund for $30.

The Conference ordered that a session be held this afternoon for the collection of statistics.

A document from the Theological Seminary of Boston University was referred to the Committee on Education.

Bro. S. H. Pye, of the St. Louis Book Depository, addressed the Conference on the interests of the Concern.

The 20th question was asked, "Was the character of each preacher examined?" and from the BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT the characters of D. W. English, P. E., G. Cunningham, P. B. Huffman, H. W. Bennett, James Miller, J. T. Orr, J. L. B. Ellis, J. C. Keller, A. M. Danely, H. C. Adams, F. C. Bruner, J. E. Artz, W. H. H. Moore, J. Everly, P. A. Swart, H. S. Taylor, L. A. Powell, G. W. Reed, W. H. H. Adams, J. G. Cross, J. P. Dimmitt, J. Shaw, were severally examined and passed.

The following were passed from the CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT: M. W. Everhart, P. E.; S. Goldsmith, W. D. Best, J. Muirhead, W. S. Hooper, E. S. Wamsley, J. M. West, E. A. Hamilton, R. N. Davies, D. A. Grime, L. F. Walden, N. H. Kane, J. Foxworthy, J. A. Burks, A. C. Byerly.

E. L. Carlile and A. B. McElfresh were granted a superannuated relation.

The Bishop announced J. C. Brainard transferred to the South Kansas Conference, and J. A. Lucas transferred from the S. W. Kansas Conference to this.

THE DECATUR DISTRICT was reported by W. H. Wilder, P. E., and his character was passed with those of the following preachers: J. F. Horney, L. T. Janes, J. R. Reasoner, I. Villars, T. I. Coultas, G. Stevens, D. E. May, P. F. Gay, W. F. Gillmore, W. F. Lowe, T. A. Parker, M. H. Butler, S. H. Whitlock, C. R. Morrison, W. R. Howard. J. W. Crane, T. J. Bryant, W. A. Reynolds, W. H. Davis.

Dr. W. A. Spencer, of the R. R. Conference, addressed the Conference in behalf of the interests of the Church Extension Society.

At the Close of his address, the session was closed with the Doxology, and Benediction by J. H. Noble.

SECOND SESSION.

THURSDAY, September 17th, 2 o'clock P. M.

Conference met and was opened by J. T. Orr, James Leaton presiding by appointment of the Bishop.

The Conference ordered that at the call of the Districts, the preachers should come forward and deposit their reports.

H. Wilson was appointed Treasurer, and J. G. Bonnell assistant, to receive, examine, and hand over the funds and reports to the proper persons.

The Districts were then called by the Secretary, and the reports handed in.

The Conference instructed L. F. Walden to publish 3,000 copies of the Minutes, and appointed J. Everly, E. M. Jeffers, W. D. H. Young, H. A. Barton, W. Murphy, A. Clark, E. D. Champion, E. C. Harper, M. Auer, to collect the funds for their publication from their respective Districts.

Conference then adjourned with the Doxology, and Benediction by T. D. Weems.

THIRD SESSION.

FRIDAY, September 18th, 8:30 o'clock A. M.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. Davies, Bishop Ninde in the chair.

The roll of absentees was called and twelve members answered to their names.

The Journal of yesterday's sessions was read, corrected and approved.

A committee on Church Extension was appointed.—See Standing Committees.

Documents from the Freedman's Aid Society, the Garrett Biblical Institute, and the Board of Education, were read and referred to the appropriate committees.

The report of the Commission on General Conference Entertainment was read, and on motion, the Presiding Elders were instructed to nominate the sub-committees called for in the report.

The report of the trustees of the Strawbridge Lecture Fund was read and adopted (see report), and on nomination of Dr. Davies, James Leaton was appointed to deliver the annual sermon, and George Stevens was appointed alternate.

A collection was taken for the expenses of the Secretaries, amounting to $32.38.

The Conference ordered that all reports and resolutions should be presented in duplicate.

The consideration of the 20th question was resumed, and from DANVILLE DISTRICT, H. Buck, P. E., Joseph B. Martin, G. L. Miller, G. W. Bates, B. F. Hyde, F. Poorman, J. F. Stout, E. D. Wilkin, D. C. Burkett, J. M. Goodspeed, W. D. H. Young, J. P. McIntyre, W. Mitchell, W. J. Tull, R. Stephens, J. Slater, W. T. Beadles, T. J. N. Simmons, J. Ingram, G. Lowther, M. D. Hornbeck, were severally examined and passed.

E. D. Wilkin, in a neat speech in behalf of the preachers of the District, presented Dr. Buck a copy of the Holy Scriptures, containing the old and revised versions, and five volumes of the Beacon Lights of History.

A collection was taken for the relief of E. L. Carlile, amounting to $122.85, and was placed in the hands of M. W. Everhart for him.

From GRIGGSVILLE DISTRICT, the characters of M. E. Hewes, P. E., W. McK. Gooding, W. F. T. Spruill, M. B. McFadden, S. T. Hawkins, P. Slagle, W. M. Reed, A. H. Alkire, P. L. Turner, G. B. Wolfe, W. S. Calhoun, R. Clark, W. McK. McElfresh, were examined and passed.

REPORTS.

Education.

The Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following report:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Your Committee is glad to report that this University continues to steadily advance along all the lines of progress that contribute to the efficiency of an educational institution.

During the past year a larger number of students were enrolled than in any previous year of its history. The work done in both the preparatory and collegiate departments has been of a high character, and will bear comparison with that done by the best colleges of the land.

The unity, harmony and efficiency of the faculty are all that could be desired.

The religious tone and spirit of the advanced students is such as to assure its friends that the faculty are earnestly devoted to the work of God, and that it is a school where christian young people will not only find the best facilities for a christian education, but also the highest stimulus to spiritual life.

The financial outlook of the University was never so cheering as at the present time. During the past two years upwards of forty thousand dollars have been added to the endowment fund. Of this amount, twenty-seven thousand was the generous gift of Mr. Charles Cramp, of Macon, Illinois, whose noble act, we doubt not, will stimulate other christian laymen to a like consecration of their wealth to Christ.

During the year, fifteen hundred dollars have been expended in improvements upon Henrietta Hall—a house for young ladies who attend the University, and one thousand dollars upon improvements and apparatus for the chemical laboratory.

Three hundred specimens of Mexican and ancient pottery, and fifteen hundred fossils have been placed in the museum of the University during the year, thereby greatly increasing its facilities for the study of Natural Science.

According to the provisions of the charter, four Trustees are to be elected by this Annual Conference at this session, and we nominate for the same, John A. Kumler, Abraham Mann, Dennis Kenyon and L. H. Kerrick. For Conference Visitors we nominate W. S. Prentice, S. H. Whitlock, Preston Wood, Geo. E. Scrimger and W. A. Smith.

We also recommend that the Conference request Bishop Ninde to appoint Rev. W. H. H. Adams, D. D., to the presidency of the University; Rev. Charles M. Moss, professor in the same, and Rev. Hiram Buck as Joint Endowment Agent, in connection with the Illinois Female College.

DANVILLE SEMINARY.

Danville Wesleyan Seminary was organized one year ago in three departments—a litrary department, affording a four years' course of study, consisting of the English branches, three years' higher mathematics, three years' Latin, two years' Greek, two years' German, two years' French, and an equivalent of accompanying sciences and literature; a department of music, affording carefully graded courses in instrumental and vocal training, requiring two or more years study; a department of fine arts, affording instruction in painting, drawing, crayon and charcoal work, and other features of art studies.

During the past year seventy students attended the literary department, and thirty the music department.

The fall term of the present year has opened with an increased attendance in both the literary and music departments. The prospects for the school are encouraging.

We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. M. D. Hornbeck, S. T. B., as principal of the Seminary, and the pastors of the North Street and Kimber Churches, Danville, and our pastors at Hoopeston, Paris and Philo as Conference Visitors.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

During the past year Chaddock College has had a good degree of prosperity. Under its present efficient management it has merited and received the sympathy and support of the friends of education throughout its patronising territory. The attendance of students has been in excess of that of previous years, and the confidence of the general public in the efficiency and thoroughness of the work done by Chaddock College has been greatly strengthened.

During the year the College property has been improved by painting and other needed repairs. Valuable additions have been made to the library, and through the efforts of Rev. R. G. Hobbs, assisted by others, important contributions have been received for the museum.

Plans have been devised by the trustees for securing a permanent endowment fund, and much valuable preliminary work has been done by the financial agent towards carrying the object to completion.

As a Conference we give this institution of learning our hearty endorsement, and recommend it to our people as in every way worthy of their patronage.

We recommend the election of Rev. David Gay and Rev. M. P. Wilkin, George Adams, Esq., and Marcellus Chase, Esq., as Trustees; and Revs. R. G. Hobbs, Chris. Galeener and A. L. Morse, as Conference Visitors; and Rev. J. G. Bonnell as Financial agent.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

Your Committee are pleased to report this institution as enjoying its usual prosperity. While the attendance has not increased, it has not fallen off; and this, considering the stringency of the times during the past year, we consider a good showing. A larger class than that of last year, and one of more than usual promise, was graduated at the recent commencement. The discipline has been excellent, and the standard of scholarship advanced.

The attendance upon the musical and fine art departments has been especially gratifying.

The prospects of a good attendance the present year are favorable.

We respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint the Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., to the presidency of the Illinois Female College, and we nominate as Trustees Thomas J. Pitner, M. D., H. Buck, D. D., W. H. Webster and S. S. Dewees; and as Conference Visitors, the pastors of Grace, Centenary and Brooklyn Churches, Jacksonville, the Presiding Elder of Jacksonville District, and Rev. T. D. Weems; and as Joint Endowment Agent with the Illinois Wesleyan University, Rev. Hiram Buck.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

Your Committee desires to call the attention of the Illinois Conference to this noble institution of learning. It has largely increased its facilities for work, has added to its faculty men of national reputation, and is laying broad foundations for the future, making it the peer of any institution of its kind.

We also urge all candidates for the ministry to avail themselves of its superior advantages, according to the recommendations of the last General Conference. We nominate as visitors to the institute, Rev. R. G. Hobbs and Rev. J. B. Colwell.

S. H. WHITLOCK, President.

W. A. SMITH, Secretary.

Report on the "Andrus Fund."

Your Committee, to whom the papers of the "Andrus Fund" were committed, report as follows:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Illinois Annual Conference be instructed to record in the Journal of the Conference, a copy of the will of John Andrus, made June 11th, 1859; and also to record in the Journal of the Conference, a copy of the bequest of John Andrus, made January 7th, 1863; and also to record in the Journal of the Conference, a copy of the report of the investigating committee of the Whitehall Quarterly Conference, made April 2d, 1880, and signed by Peter J. Bates, and James H. Stubblefield.

Resolved, That the Quarterly Conference of the Whitehall Station be instructed to forward by their Pastor or Presiding Elder, to the Treasurer of the Illinois Annual Conference Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, all money in his hands, for the purpose of being noted in the Journal of the Conference, and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Parent Society.

Resolved, That Rev. I. W. Higgs should pay over to the Treasurer of the Illinois Conference Missionary Society, the money pertaining to the Andrus Fund, now in his possession, taking the Treasurer's receipt for the same.

Missionary Society.

Recognizing the Divine origin of the Missionary Cause, its importance, and the necessity of supporting it, your committee have taken under consideration our duty as preachers in supporting the cause.

It is our duty to instruct the people concerning the Missionary obligations of the church. This involves instruction concerning the foundation laid for Missionary work, in the sacrificial death of our Saviour; "Christ died for us;" in the fact that he died for all men, for every man. The Apostolic Commission extends to "All nations," "All the world," "Every creature." It rests upon the fact that the Father had given to Christ "The heathen for" an "inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth" for a "possession."

We should inform them concerning the origin, history and success of each mission under our care.

We must urge the people to furnish themselves with our Missionary literature; we must urge them to read it, and to pray over it.

We must see to it that the Monthly Missionary Prayer-meeting is not a mere theory, but that it becomes a living, efficient reality.

Let each preacher make out a programme for the entire year, assigning to one prayer-meeting for each month in the year, the discussion of some Mission or Missionary topic. Said topic to be introduced by one or more speakers, and to be followed by general discussion. Let each preacher go to these prayer-meetings prepared to give the people ample information on the subject assigned to the evening.

Over twenty-five years ago the Congregationalists began this work. At first they found considerable difficulty in getting their people interested in the matter, but by patient perseverance they have succeeded so far that their members contribute to the Missionary Cause more money per member than any other church in the United States.

We would advise our preachers to read thoughtfully, and prayerfully, the article entitled "The Monthly Concert of Prayer for Missions," published in the Manual for January, 1882.

Every Sunday School in the church should be organized into a Missionary Society. This matter is not optional with us; the Discipline orders it done; reason sanctions it; and success has crowned it. In the year 1880 the Sunday School contributed very nearly one-third of the entire amount raised for Missions. Ample information concerning this part of our work will be found in the Manual.

We would respectfully suggest the propriety of each Presiding Elder holding at least one Missionary Conference in his district each year.

It is our duty to give to the people information concerning Christian Stewardship; its nature and duties; to teach them the duty of consecration to God's work; not only of themselves but of their property. We must impress upon their minds the promise made by them when they were received as members of the church—that they would "contribute of their earthly substance, according to their ability, to the support of the gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the church." We must impress upon their minds the great truth, that contributions to the cause of God are not derogatory to the spirit of religious worship; but on the contrary are esential to the completeness and perfection of religious life.

We must urge the necessity of an intelligent and hearty support of Missions.

The Missionary work is not optional with us; the heathen may be saved without our efforts; but can we be saved if we neglect them? The Master has commanded the Missionary work, and we dare not neglect it.

We have serious reasons for fearing that we are not doing our duty in the Missionary work as faithfully and heartily as the other churches around us are. The Dutch Reformed Church gives an average of $1.47 per member; the Protestant Episcopal, $1.57; the Presbyterian, $1.95; the Congregationalist, $3.59; while the Methodist Episcopal gives an average of only 50 cents per member. Brethren, these things ought not to be so.

Nor are we as a Conference measuring up to other Conferences. Last year we gave but 39 cents per member, while the Central Illinois gave 48 cents per member; the Central German 53 cents; Chicago German 58 cents; Rock River, 69 cents; Philadelphia Conference, $1.00; and the East German, $1.12. Brethren, these figures humble us; they ought to provoke us to a redoubling of our energy and liberality. We need the baptism of the Holy Spirit, producing deeper convictions of Missionary duty. Our convictions have been too shallow, hence our contributions have been too meager.

Brethren, we must wake up from this sleep of indifference. In the hour of our reconciliation with God, we consecrated ourselves to his service, with all that we have.

Are we redeeming this pledge? When we entered the ministry, we devoted ourselves to the great work of spreading scriptural holiness over the face of the earth. Are we true to the devotion of that hour? We preach that "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son." Are we doing all that we can to make the whole world acquainted with that blessed gift? We believe that Jesus tasted death for every man. Are we using every effort to bring the knowledge of this glorious fact home to every man on earth? Among the Methodist Preachers of the past, Wesley, Coke, Watson, Asbury, Garrettson, Cox and Wiley, were princes in the Missionary host of God. Have their mantles fallen upon us? Are we clothed with their power?

Brethren, let us wrestle with God, until the fire that burned in the hearts of the fathers of Methodism shall be kindled in us; then will we be worthy to tread in their footsteps.

We offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That we hail with joy the call for a million for Missions; and that we will exert our utmost efforts to raise the million asked for.

R. N. DAVIES.

Church Extension.

WHEREAS, the Church Extension Society of our church has a providential origin and growth, and has become one of the most powerful auxiliaries in the advancement of Methodism and the promotion of Christ's kingdom by providing places of worship and permanent church homes for feeble and destitute congregations; and

WHEREAS, our ministers and members have not fully realized the importance of this society and its work, no collections having been taken for it and no encouragement given it in many of our congregations, therefore

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to preach at least one sermon during the year on Church Extension, and take a collection for the same in each one of our congregations.

W. M. REED, Chairman.

W. D. H. YOUNG, Secretary.

Bible Cause.

WHEREAS, we regard the work of the American Bible Society as one of the most important of the Church of Christ, therefore

Resolved, That we will continue to give it our most hearty support, and will see that a collection be taken in each one of our charges for its benefit.

J. D. FRY, President.

J. H. AUSTIN, Secretary.

The Sabbath.

WHEREAS, while we, as Christians, acknowledge the scriptural obligations for the observance of the Sabbath, we fully realize the fact that these obligations are often regarded as Puritanical; and under the idea that "The end justifies the means," many use it as a day of pleasure, and in other ways violate these obligations; therefore

Resolved, That we will discourage the taking of gate fees, selling books or other merchandise at our camp meetings; the running of railroad trains, hacks and other vehicles as common carriers upon that day, to and from such meetings. That by our preaching and practice we will endeavor to bring the Sabbath observance up to the Scriptural standard, by making it a day devoted exclusively to the worship of God and the performance of acts of mercy.

Resolved, That we will discourage the circulation of that class of literature that tends to the overthrow of the Christian Sabbath.

W. S. HOOPER, Chairman.

W. F. T. SPRUILL, Secretary.

Sunday Schools.

WHEREAS, We recognize the superiority of our Sunday School methods and literature, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we will, so far as possible, adopt our disciplinary plans and use our own literature in our Sunday Schools.

2d. That we urge the use of the Catechism in the Schools.

3d. That we rejoice in the success of Children's Day throughout our church, and give it our earnest endorsement.

4th. That we recommend the use of the Epworth Hymnal, as adapted to our wants.

5th. That we hopefully receive Glad Tidings Day, as a service of promise to the Church.

WM. K. GOODING, President.

D. H. GILLAN, Secretary.

Tracts.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society was organized for the dissemination of Evangelical truth among the masses, therefore Resolved. 1st. That we appreciate the benefits derived from the society in our church work, and that as pastors we will avail ourselves of its influence as a co-laborer.

2d. That we hail with pleasure the coming of "Good Tidings Day," and as far as possible we will observe the day in the interests of the society, by presenting its claims and importance, and will take a collection for its support.

A. M. DANELY, Chairman.

J. M. WEST, Secretary.

Temperance.

We recognize in our midst the presence of a foe to God, home and native land. For its presence in the political domain, affecting the life and character of the state and nation, it alone is responsible. Where the wrong is found it only can be met. In its defiant attitude it catechises candidates for office, and will vote for no man or measure not favorable to the liquor interests. It seeks the repeal of law protecting the people against its ravages. It seeks enactments putting the constitutional prerogative of the people to amend their organic law by constitutional amendment beyond the control of the majority, thus arraying itself against popular government. It tramples under foot our Christian Sabbath. It corrupts the home life, and disqualifies men for citizenship. There is not a virtue nor industry of which it is not the foe either in individual or national character and life. In the face of all so-called restriction, regulation, moral influence and education, it has in the century past grown to gigantic proportions and defiant attitude, until it demands the subserviency of Church and State to its power—the Church to be silent and the State not to obstruct its ends. This foe is the liquor traffic, as we have in our State and Nation. Therefore Resolved, 1st. That we meet it where we find it.

2d. That we reaffirm the previous action of the Illinois Conference declaring "our ever deepening conviction of the evils growing out of the drink traffic, and that while recognizing the value of all moral agencies to mitigate the evils, we at the same time recognize the necessity of its absolute and entire prohibition."

3d. That we heartily endorse the advanced position of the last General Conference, to-wit: "The proper attitude of Christians toward the liquor traffic is of uncompromising opposition, and while we do not presume to dictate to our people as to their political affiliations, we do express the opinion that they should not permit themselves to be controlled by party organizations in the interest of the liquor traffic. We also recognize the liberty of the individual to exercise his right of franchise with reference to the methods of dealing with the liquor traffic without proscription.

4th. That we express our disapproval of the treatment that the question of submitting a constitutional amendment to a vote of the people prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, has received at the hands of politicians in the State and National conventions, ignoring the constitutional right of the people and taking friendly to the liquor traffic.

5th. That we cannot, in harmony with Christian conscience and the teachings of the word of God, look upon the license system in any form and at any price, high or low, in any other sense than offered partnership with the traffic. "Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right."

6th. That we endorse the Godly work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in their various lines of temperance reform, and as far as opportunity affords Christian endeavor, we will co-operate with the same.

7th. That we will encourage the dissemination of temperance literature, and urge a more general intelligence upon affairs of State and Nation affecting the home and moral welfare of the people, and that we favor statutory enactment introducing into our schools text books on the effect of alcoholic liquors on the human system.

Freedman's Aid.

Without changing the name of the society, the last General Conference placed under this direction the entire educational work of the Methodist Episcopal church in the southern states, among both white and colored people. This vast responsibility calls for greatly enlarged help, because one fourth of the pulpits and membership of our church are now in that territory, where the people are, multitudes of them, poor and needy.

Resolved, 1st. That we heartily approve the appeal of this society for a quarter of a million of dollars a year. Every dollar of it is needed. $100,000 of this amount it is expected will be raised in special gifts from individuals and our wealthier churches. $150,000 have been apportioned to the Conferences to raise. The apportionment of this Conference for the ensuing year is $3,000.

Resolved, 2d. That we accept the apportionment, and instruct the Presiding Elders to apportion it to the several charges, as the discipline directs.

Resolved, 3d. That as pastors we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to raise at least our apportionment, and request the society to send to each pastor its new lithographic chart, to aid in presenting this cause to our people, and to insure the raising of the amount due from each church.

GEO. W. BATES, Chairman.

A. P. STOVER, Secretary.

Periodicals and Church Literature.

We rejoice in the unparalleled success of our publishing interests.

Recognizing the superior worth of our periodical literature, we recommend that earnest effort be made to give it wide circulation.

We recommend that the members of this Conference see to it that the requirement of the discipline be fully complied with in supplying our Sunday Schools with literature.

Especially do we recommend the Central Christian Advocate, as being well worthy of our earnest support and of a place in every Methodist home in its patronizing territory.

WM. M. POE, President.

J. O. COLLINS, Secretary.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

We rejoice at the increased interest manifest among the members of the Illinois Conference concerning the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and in view of the object and influence of this excellent organization, its practical methods, its helpful literature, do hereby recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That at the Quarterly Conference in each charge, in connection with the question of organizing the Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies, the Presiding Elder be requested to make inquiry as to the practicability of interesting the women of the charge in the cause of Missions by the formation of an auxiliary society.

Resolved, 2d. That as pastors we will present the matter of organization early in the Conference year, to those most likely to act in the matter, assuring them of our hearty co-operation.

Resolved, 3d. That in order to aid this society and create an interest in its work in such charges where no organization can be had, we will encourage some one whose heart God has touched with the thought of this great work, to secure pledges of two cents per week for this society, which, with all other amounts raised we will report at each session of the Annual Conference.

Resolved, 4th. That the thanks of this Conference be extended to Dr. Bennett, of Bloomington, and Dr. Spencer, of Rock River Conference, for their eloquent and earnest addresses upon the work and influence of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at its anniversary meeting.

I. W. HIGGS, Chairman.

C. R. MORRISON, Secretary.

Trustees' Report.

The Trustees of the Annual Conference met in the lecture room of the M. E. Church in Rushville, Sept. 18th, 1885, at 7. P. M.

Present, James Leaton, J. H. Noble, Hiram Buck, W. H. Webster, W. D. Best, T. A. Parker and Horace Reed. James Leaton was elected president pro tem. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. W. H. Webster, the Treasurer, read his annual report, and it was approved, and it was ordered to be placed on file.

The Treasurer was instructed to pay to the Stewards of the Conference the interest on hand, amounting to $231.70, for the benefit of the superannuated preachers. The Secretary of the board was instructed to present to the Conference the names of T. A. Parker, W. D. Best and J. F. Stout, for re-election, for the term of three years.

JAS. LEATON, President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

Strawbridge Fund.

To the Illinois Annual Conference:

Your Committee, for the loan and management of the Strawbridge Lecture Fund, report that the fund ($1,000) still remains on loan to John Piper, at rate of 7½ per cent., as reported to the last Annual Conference.

They report further, that said Piper paid the first year's interest, due on the 30th July, 1885, being $75, and that said sum of $75 was paid to R. N. Davies, who preached the sermon, as appointed by the Conference, on the 16th day of August last, at the First M. E. Church in Springfield, and that for said payment we took his receipt.

Your Committee ask the appointment for a similar discourse during the next year. Respectfully submitted.

JOHN HARDMER.
J. A. CHESNUT.
D. WICKERSHAM.

Preachers' Aid Society.

Your Committee, appointed to consider the interests of the Preachers' Aid Society, after careful examination of the books and assets of the same, have to report the society in a flourishing and satisfactory condition worthy the patronage of all our ministers and the favors of our laymen generally.

Rev. Jas. Shaw, having served the society faithfully and successfully as agent during the past year, your committee is pleased to ask that he be re-appointed to that offie.

THOMAS D. WEEMS, Chairman.
GILMORE CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

REV. BENJ. BARTHOLOW.

Rev. Benjamin Bartholow was born near Baltimore, Md., September 22d, 1823, and died at Philo, Ill., Feb. 16th, 1885. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church when but eleven years of age. In his twenty-first year he married Miss Mary Heller, of Old Town, Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, in whom he found a faithful wife. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Leasville Circuit, Pittsburg Conference, in 1842. In 1854 he moved to Illinois and entered upon the active work of the ministry in the Illinois Conference. He performed thirty years of efficient service to the Church in the ranks of the ministry. During this time he was pastor of the following charges:

Randolph Grove, Waynesville, Mt. Pulaski, Martinsville, Charleston, Leroy, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Pulaski, Mason City, Waynesville, Philo, Camargo and Newman, Urbana Circuit, Ogden, Seymour, Atwood, Cisco.

Notwithstanding he was born where the slave element prevailed, he was opposed to slavery from his youth. As a patriot he did all that he could to crush out rebellion. Kept at home by an invalid wife, he sent two sons to defend the Union. His eloquence was the means of rousing others to a high pitch of enthusiasm for the country's safety. Brother Bartholow was a Christian gentleman wherever he was. As such he was in the confidence of all who knew him. He was a man of great faith, possessed of a sweet spirit, and knew his Father's will and did it. He feared nothing but sin, and hated none but Satan. As a preacher, he was instructive, sound in doctrine, and betrayed much earnestness of soul under a calm demeanor. He held exalted views of the work of the Christian ministry. Whatever the church committed to his oversight was carefully looked after. His end was in keeping with his life. When visited by Rev. R. Stephens, of Philo, towards the close, he gave repeated assurances of tranquility of spirit. When asked, "What shall I say to the Conference?" he replied: "If there be an opportunity, tell my brethren in the ministry that my love for them is abiding." When told that he was weak and could not remain long, he said, "It is all right. I am not disappointed, Christ is so precious. The best of all is, God is with us."

M. W. EVERHART.

REV. JAMES C. FINLEY, M. D.

Rev. James C. Finley, M. D., was born in Somerset county, N. J., October 10th, 1802, and died in Jacksonville, Ills., July 27th, 1885. His parents were members of the Presbyterian Church, and reared him in their own faith. He was converted when eleven years of age and joined the Presbyterian Church, in whose fellowship he remained for twenty-three years, and in the Methodist Episcopal Church nearly 50 years. He was educated at Princeton College, and upon leaving school he studied medicine in the office of the celebrated Dr. Rush, of Philadelphia. After completing his medical studies, he went to Cincinnati, Ohio, and remained there some time in hospital practice. He married Miss Margaret Smith, a most estimable lady, who was truly a helpmeet to him, and who preceded him but four years to her Heavenly home.

Soon after his marriage he came to Jacksonville, Illinois, and engaged in the practice of medicine until 1835, when he, with his wife—who up to that time had been a member of the Baptist Church—united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Believing that God had called him to the ministry, he gave up his profession and was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference in 1837. The following is a list of the appointments filled by him during his ministerial life:

1837, Port Gibson and Grand Gulf; 1838, St. Helena,; 1839, Feliciana; 1840, Covington; 1841, transferred to Illinois Conference; 1841–45, President of McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois; 1845, transferred to Rock River Conference; 1846, Grand De Tour and Oregon; 1847, located and returned to Jacksonville, and engaged in the practice of medicine; 1851, readmitted into the Illinois Conference; 1851, Randolph Grove; 1852 and 1853. Island Grove; 1854, Naples; 1855, Franklin; 1856, agent of the Colonization Society; 1857, superannuated, remaining in that relation until 1864. He was then transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference and appointed Professor of Greek in McKendree College, he having occupied that chair for two or three years previously; 1865, Professor in Olney Seminary; 1866, Professor in State Agricultural College at Irvington; 1867, superannuated, in which relation he remained until his death, being transferred to the Illinois Conference in 1871. He lived at Richview, Ills., until 1881, when he returned to Jacksonville, residing with his daughter until his death.

Such is the outline of the record of his outward life. But how little it reveals of the man. Such life is but the shadow of the real life, which is alone known to him who lives it, and the more vivid and intense it is to the liver, the less the outward life reveals it to the beholder. His life was as intensely subjective as that of the old Hebrew poets. It is for this reason difficult to estimate him correctly, or give him his true place among men. We look at the deeds of men, rather than the men themselves, and thus contemplate an ideal instead of the real man, forgetting that the deed is sometimes altogether different from the doer. Dr. Finley was not a man of great deeds, but he was nevertheless a great man—great in his subjective life, in the qualities of his character. Judged by external appearances, his life seems a comparative failure; but by internal quality wonderfully successful, and the outward seeming failure arises from his internal greatness. He saw truth so clearly that it fascinated and absorbed his entire being. He could not understand why others did not see it as clearly as himself, and act accordingly. This sometimes made him seem impatient and severe, and intensified opposition or lethargy in others instead of overcoming it. His moral convictions, because of this intensity and clearness of intellectual vision, were most profound and overmastering. His loyalty to what he believed to be right was supreme. Money, place, power, position, even friends, were insignificant things when put in the balance against truth and righteousness. His was the martyr spirit, welcoming loss and suffering if they came through the performance of duty. He stood for the rights of the black man long before it was thought honorable to do so, and also for his christian master when it was fashionable to denounce the slaveholder. His human sympathies were very strong and his hand was as open as his heart. He could not understand how a Christian could die worth a hundred thousand dollars, while hungry men were starving and the world perishing for the bread of life. Having lofty views of the dignity of any human soul, he had a corresponding disregard for the temporary accidents of wealth or position, and either was freely surrendered when the needy sought help or principle demanded.

James C. Finley's whole organization was of the finest quality. Eyes, skin, hair, step, all proclaimed the intellectuality and sensitiveness of the man —a soul set to the most exquisite music of life—sure to thrill with pain under rough touches, but respond with sweetness to the hand which understands how to sweep its keys. If sometimes there was a note of extreme sadness, or the wail of intense sorrow, or the tones of a righteous indignation, or a sarcasm sharp and keen, it arose from the fineness of the instrument and the coarseness of the hand that touched it, and not because it was the nature of the soul to make such music.

His intellectual culture and training were of the best. His scholarship exact, his reading extensive, and his observation of men and things remarkable. His Greek Testament was his constant companion during his last illness. He was as familiar with the sayings of Plato and Socrates as with the commonest affairs of daily life. Socially the lines had fallen to him in pleasant places. Parents, wife, children, were all exceptional in character; so with his friendships and church fellowships. But the crowning element in making him what he was, was the grace of God. Divine grace hallowed his clear intellect, adorned his varied culture, refined his sensitive nature, softened his heart, directed his will, and purified his whole being, linking him by a living faith to our Lord Jesus Christ, and giving him more than victory over disappointment, suffering, pain and death.

During his illness of two years—in which he was confined to his room and bed—his faith in God was constant and invariable. "I am the happiest man in the world," he would often say. "I have all attention and kindness fron my friends, and Christ for my Saviour, and I shall have everlasting life hereafter." "I am ready to go at any time and am anxiously waiting the Master's call." His last words were in answer to his daughter's question, "How are you father?" "Very comfortable, I thank yon," he said, and fell asleep to wake in heaven. As a man he was honest; as a citizen, public spirited; as a husband and father, kind; as a friend, true; as a writer, able, chaste and elegant; as a preacher, practical, and sometimes overwhelmingly eloquent; as a teacher, dignified and luminous, and as a Christian, humble, trusting and joyful.

Some days before his death he selected the following Scriptures and hymns to be read and sung at his funeral, saying, in substance, these are my testimony. They embody my theology, announce my hope, and relying upon their teachings and truth, I leave this life and go to enter upon that one which they portray. John's Gospel, 5: 20–29; and 11: 21–26; 1 Cor. 15: 47–58; 1 Thess. 4: 13–18; Rev. 7: 9–17. Hymns Nos. 319, 979 and 1045, Methodist Hymnal.

REPORTS.

Education.

The Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following report:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Your committee report that the detailed report of the treasurer to the joint board of trustees and visitors has been laid before them, and they find that the business management and financial outlook of the University was never more encouraging than at the present time. At the last session of the joint board, the executive committee recommended several important changes looking to greater economy in the expenses of the school, and the joint board ordered the changes made, resulting in a net saving in the item of salaries and local expenses of about twenty-three hundred dollars, and with this saving in expenses it is confidently believed that the current receipts will equal the current expenses of the present fiscal year. The dean of the College of Music having resigned, Prof. H. G. Williams, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, was elected to fill the vacancy. He comes well recommended as a Christian gentleman, thoroughly qualified for the position. The principal of the preparatory department having resigned, Prof. H. L. Dougherty was elected to fill the vacancy. He is a gentleman of large experience as a teacher, and is highly recommended as a gentleman of integrity and Christian character.

The religious influence of the University is of a high character, and Christian parents can place their sons and daughters under its care, feeling assured that while they acquire intellectual culture, they will also come under the influence of the best conditions to secure their conversion. A college prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening, which is attended by from fifty to one hundred students, the average attendance of last year being sixty-five.

Under the provisions of the charter four trustees are to be elected by this annual conference at its present session, and we nominate for the same Hon. J. G. English, Hon. B. F. Funk, James B. Sconce, and V. S. Lindsay. For conference visitors we recommend W. S. Prentice, Preston Wood, W. A. Smith, M. W. Everhart, W. D. Best and James Miller.

The present fall term opened on Tuesday, the 14th of September, with a larger enrollment than ever before, and the present prospects for a prosperous year are very encouraging. We heartily commend the University to the patronage of our people within the bounds of this conference, and pledge ourselves to every legitimate endeavor to bring its advantages before the notice of our people in our several charges.

Your committee recommend that the bishop be requested to appoint Rev. W. H. H. Adams, D. D., as president, and Rev. C. M. Moss as professor in the University.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Illinois Female College has just entered upon the fortieth year of its history, with very gratifying prospects. The attendance is larger than it has been for several years past. The College embraces three departments—the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Music, and the College of Fine Arts, with a corps of thorough and competent instructors in each department.

Methodism has just reason to be proud of the Illinois Female College. No better institution for the higher education of women exists in the west, and the church ought to give it a grand support. It needs an endowment of $100,000, and ought to have it within a few years. The preachers of Central Illinois ought to rally around the college with enthusiasm. Hundreds of the noblest and best women in the west have been educated within its halls, and it is doing as efficient work to-day as ever. Its intellectual, æsthetical, and especially its moral and religious tone are of the highest order. Its president, Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., is abundantly qualified for his place and duties, and the whole atmosphere of the school is pervaded with a healthy spirit of Christian intelligence and refinement. We speak for this institution an increased support. We believe it is worthy of it and will receive it.

We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., to the presidency of the college, and the pastors of Centenary, Grace and Brooklyn churches, Jacksonville, the presiding elders of Jacksonville and Griggsville districts, and the pastors of Jacksonville and West Jacksonville circuits as conference visitors.

DANVILLE SEMINARY.

The Danville Seminary has been disconnected from the Illinois Wesleyan University. Its Annual offers very flattering inducements to those who may wish to pursue either an academical or normal course of study. We commend it to the favorable consideration of parents, teachers and youths. We respectfully ask Bishop Foster to appoint Rev. M. D. Hornbeck, M. A., as the principal of this school.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

While, during the past year, Chaddock College has not had as large a degree of prosperity as was hoped it would have, the efforts made to secure an endowment fund have met with some success. A splendid gift of a farm valued at $7,000 has been made by Mrs. S. E. Clark, of Mt. Sterling, Ill., and there are other donations of a similar character which are expected in the early future. The very efficient work done by the president and his able assistants has gained a reputation for the school, and gives promise of large returns in increased patronage and general support.

The Department of Music, under the direction of Prof. H. Bretherick, has very rapidly developed, while the Department of Art has received a due share of patronage. The boarding department is admirably conducted, and all the arrangements of the school are such as to make it a delightful school home for students. We commend the college to all who are desirous of a thorough education, and to our people of wealth who are looking for a suitable place in which to invest their surplus funds for the Lord's cause.

We recommend the election of Rev. A. M. Danely, Rev. J. F. Wohlfarth, D. L. Musselman and S. E. Hewes as trustees, and the pastors of Vermont Street and Trinity churches, Quincy, the presiding elder of Quincy district, F. M. Sisson, R. G. Hobbs and Chris Galeener as conference visitors.

It has come to our knowledge that for several years past the school has been running behind in current expenses yearly, and thus accumulating a debt which, if this course continues, will soon swallow up the entire property of the institution. This state of things we greatly deplore, and recommend that in the future the trustees so reduce the expenses of the school as to keep them within the income.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

The Garrett Biblical Institute, located at Evanston, Illinois, is reported to us as having a full faculty of eight teachers of high rank in their special departments. One hundred and nineteen students were in attendance the last year, representing twenty-five different states and fifty-nine colleges, universities and high schools. The inducements offered to young men to prepare them for the most useful ministry are of the best character. We would be glad to know that its halls are crowded with students, for we believe that no other course of training can take the place of that offered in this noble institution to every young minister. More than a thousand students have enjoyed the privileges of this school, and of that number many have attained prominence in the church. We recommend the appointment of Rev. T. A. Parker and Rev. R. N. Davies as the visitors of this conference.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

For the first time there has been placed before the committee a report of the School of Theology, connected with the Boston University. The general conference of 1884 having formally placed the entire church in a patronizing relation to this school, it is, therefore, brought to our notice. The faculty is now composed of a very accomplished body of teachers. There were seventy-nine students in attendance the last year, sixty-six per cent. of whom were from localities outside of New England, and of the whole number fifty-five were graduates from thirty colleges and universities. With the new buildings nearly completed, the splendid library, and the facilities for the highest grade of instruction, this school is cordially recommended to the young men of our conference. We recommend the appointment of Rev. T. I. Coultas and Rev. M. D. Hornbeck as visitors from this conference.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY IN DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

We have learned with much pleasure from its dean of the founding, success and prospects of this new school of theology, located at Greencastle, Indiana.

Its faculty of instruction having received the formal sanction of our board of bishops, according to the provisions made by our late general conference, this institution now stands forth, side by side with our other theological schools, credited and entitled alike to draw patronage from the broad field of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We commend this school of theology to the interest and patronage of the young men of our conference contemplating a course of theological instruction, as we do the other theological schools of our church.

We recommend to this conference the appointment of Rev. W. N. McElroy and Rev. Horace Reed as visitors to attend its ensuing annual examinations and commencement in May, 1887.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following:

We earnestly press upon the attention of the conference the claims of the Conference Educational Society. By provision of discipline the money taken upon children's day, in accordance with the provisions of sec. 262, paragraphs 5, 6 and 7, may be equally divided between the Board of Education in New York and the Conference Society of Education. One principal design of this society is to apply the money given into its charge to aid needy young men and women in our conference schools. We call the attention of brethren to this provision, and earnestly request them to observe it, in order to increase the fund to be expended within the bounds of our conference.

W. S. PRENTICE, President.

DAVID GAY, Secretary.

Temperance.

A calm, dispassionate examination of the liquor traffic cannot fail to convince an honest inquirer that it wastes the resources of the people; causes idleness, poverty, filth, wickedness and disease. It fills our poor houses and asylums—increases our taxes while it empties our public treasuries. It ensnares our boys and corrupts our young men. It causes wife beatings; causes children to perish with hunger and cold and cruel treatment. It hinders education, perpetuates ignorance, antagonizes Christianity. It fosters obscenity, debauchery, profanity and blasphemy. It causes dishonesty, robberies, embezzlements, burglaries, arson, assaults, murders and suicides. It blights and blasts every honest business, but furnishes abundant work for the sheriff, the jailer, the hangman and the grave-digger. It ruins men and damns souls. It bribes or intimidates juries, perjures witnesses, corrupts constables, sheriffs and magistrates, and prevents justice. It buys votes, corrupts the ballot box, enables worthless, base men to get into office, and debauches legislatures. It enslaves political parties, compels them to support its interests, and to execute its villainous schemes. It endeavors to silence the press and it would gag the pulpit if it could. It sets all law at defiance, promotes insurrection, riot and anarchy. The saloons are the hot beds of hell, where the schemes of anarchists, communists and nihilists are hatched and matured. It unhesitatingly resorts to slander, libel, perjury, house-burning, the bludgeon, the knife and the pistol to effect its purposes. It has no redeeming feature. It is criminal in the sight of God, infamous among men, and has no right to an existence outside of the bottomless pit of the damned.

We protest against it in the name of the millions whom it has sent to drunkards' graves. We protest against it in the name of the great host of broken-hearted women and suffering children, whose lives have been embittered and blasted on account of its accursed influence. We protest against it in the name of the ever blessed God who has pronounced his righteous curse against every one who putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips. We protest against every scheme of license, either low license or high license, because it makes those who consent to the license criminal parties with the liquor seller. We protest against a professing Christian voting for license, or voting for those who are in favor of license, for in so doing he brings disgrace upon the church, and paralyzes the power of Christianity around him. A Christian's vote should always agree with his prayers.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church spoke wisely and justly when it said: "The proper attitude of Christians towards this traffic is one of uncompromising opposition; and while we do not presume to dictate to our people as to their political affiliations, we do express the opinion that they should not permit themselves to be controlled by party organizations that are managed in the interest of the liquor traffic. Finally, we proclaim as our motto, voluntary total abstinence from all intoxicants as the true ground of personal temperance, and complete legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks as the duty of civil government."

Resolved, First, That we will from time to time read and explain to our congregations what our discipline says about prohibition.

Resolved, Second, That we will not vote for or support any man for any office unless he will pledge himself to the work of securing and maintaining legal constitutional prohibition.

Resolved, Third, That in the murder of the Rev. Geo. C. Haddock by the liquor traffic, we see its hellish spirit and see the fate of others who may fearlessly antagonize it, and while we offer our deepest sympathies to the broken hearted family, we hereby pledge ourselves never to rest until the last brewery, distillery and saloon shall be utterly wiped out by the power of public sentiment and the heavy hand of the law.

Resolved, Fourth, That we recognize the Woman's Christian Temperance Union as one of the powerful agencies engaged in the great work of wiping the liquor traffic out of existence, and we wish them God speed, and will give them our hearty support in their great work. We rejoice in their success in the past, and pray that it may increase a hundred fold.

Missionary Report.

Realizing that the Scriptures teach that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God; that the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all unrighteousness of men; that no idolater can enter the kingdom of God; that, therefore, the millions of the heathen world are in danger of perishing in their sins; and that as the nail-pierced hands of the Redeemer are filled with healing power for the entire race; as a measure of the Spirit is given to every man, and the gospel is to be preached to every creature; and God will have all men to be saved and come to a knowledge of the truth; and the leaves of the tree alone can heal the nations; we are as deeply convinced as ever that it is our imperative duty to support to the utmost the cause of Christian Missions.

While grateful to God for the achievements which have characterized our own church in the past, it is certain that renewed effort exercised unitedly by ministers and members will secure greater and more numerous victories. And there is room for this; for, evidently, we have not put forth the full measure of our strength. Therefore, be it resolved,

First, That the herald cry of a "Million for Missions" should receive the sympathetic response of every member of the church.

Second, That we are devoutly thankful for the increased contributions which, under the inspiration of this grand aim, have been received during the last year, not only in this conference, but in all the various conferences throughout the land.

Third, That for the purpose of bringing missionary intelligence before the people, we will do all that we can to circulate the literature of the church, especially the "Advocates" and "The Gospel in all Lands," and preach frequently upon this subject.

Fourth, That the disciplinary plan for obtaining funds is the best adapted for that purpose, and none of its instructions should be neglected.

Fifth, That during the coming year, in private, social and public prayer, we will earnestly plead for richer baptisms of the Holy Ghost to be poured out upon all parts of our missionary work, both at home and abroad.

W. N. McELROY, President.

H. W. BENNETT, Secretary.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

We are highly elated at the wide interest among members of the Illinois Conference, relating to the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society —and in view of the purpose and influence of this superb work and its rare methods and literary helpfulness, we do hereby offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, First, That as pastors we will stir up the matter of early organization in those most likely to take immediate steps in the work and give it a hearty co-operation.

Resolved, Second, That in order to help this society and build up new interest in the work in such charges where no organization can be produced, we will cheer some one, whose heart God has mellowed with his spirit, which has awakened the beautiful thought of this heaven-born work, to secure at least two cents a week for this society, which, with all other moneys, we will report at each annual conference.

Resolved, Third, That our unbounded thanks are extended to Rev. Wm. Butler, the founder of our great work in India, for his admirable address before the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and that we shall ever cherish his burning words given to add momentum to one of the sublimest movements among women.

GEO. B. WOLFE, President.

FRANK C. BRUNER, Secretary.

Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Recognizing in the Woman's Home Missionary Society an arm of the church which, through God and the encouragement of pastors, may lead to the elevation and salvation of thousands of the poor and neglected of our race, we recommend the following for the action of the conference:

Resolved, First, That we will encourage the organizing of auxiliary societies in our charges.

Resolved, Second, That we will recommend their organ, "The Woman's Home Mission," to our people as altogether worthy of their patronage, and a means of light and instruction upon this subject.

J. MONTGOMERY, Chairman.

J. P. McINTYRE, Secretary.

Sabbath.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath was instituted and ordained by God for wise and beneficient purposes towards man, and God sanctified it and set it apart by resting from labor thereon; and

WHEREAS, The first day of the week was recognized by the apostles and early disciples as the Christian Sabbath; and

WHEREAS, Sabbath desecration is one of the plain signs of the spiritual decline of a nation, and the sin that was most emphatically rebuked by the Hebrew prophets in the days of the degeneracy of their nation ; and

WHEREAS, There is a fearful tendency to the disregard of the Sabbath in our land and in our state,

Therefore, Resolved, That we will faithfully preach against the various forms of Sabbath profanation, as social visiting, pleasure, riding, whether by private or public conveyance, and traveling on railroads on the Sabbath, unless in cases of extreme necessity.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask the legislature of this state to frame our laws so that they will in an unequivocal manner protect the sanctity of the Sabbath, and also ask the other conferences of this state to unite with us in this petition.

Resolved, That we very much deplore and emphatically denounce as a flagrant desecration of the Sabbath, the encouragement and patronizing of excursion trains to camp meetings, or any religious meetings held on the Sabbath day. We also regard as exceedingly inconsistent and sacrilegious the keeping open of gates and charging gate fees at camp meetings on the Sabbath day.

J. D. FRY, President.

T. J. BRYANT, Secretary.

Sunday Schools.

WHESEAS, We are more than ever impressed with the importance of the systematic religious training of our children and youth ; therefore resolved,

1. That we urge upon all our pastors the use of our catechism, both in our Sunday schools and classes formed for religious instruction.

2. That knowing as we do the superiority of our own lesson helps and literature, we insist upon their use in all our schools.

3. That the adult members of our congregations be urged to attend our Sunday schools, and the children and youth the regular services of the church.

4. That we recognize the necessity of the organization of our Sunday schools in accordance with the disciplinary plan, and so far as possible their continuance during the entire year.

WM. MURPHY, President.

J. E. ARTZ, Secretary.

Freedman's Aid Society.

We recognize this as one of the great benevolences of the age, calling to the church for increased liberality.

Conference Trustees.

The trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met for annual meeting in Urbana, Ills., September 17th, 1886. Present: W. S. Prentice, Jas. Leaton, J. H. Nolle, W. H. Webster and Horace Reed.

Jas. Leaton presented by-laws for the government of the board, which were adopted.

On motion of Dr. Leaton the treasurer was directed to pay over the accrued interest in his hands, amounting to $245, to the conference stewards.

The secretary was directed to nominate for re-election as trustees J. Leaton, J. H. Noble and W. H. Webster, term of office to expire 1889.

On motion of J. Leaton the treasurer was directed to pay over to the trustees of the Milton church, on Time circuit, the principal and interest which was deposited in his hands.

Upon the call of the president, W. S. Prentice, the board met September 20th.

Present—W. S. Prentice, Jas. Leaton, Thos. A. Parker, W. H. Webster, Horace Reed.

The secretary reported that the nominations of Jas. Leaton, Jas. H. Noble and W. H. Webster had been confirmed.

On motion of Jas. Leaton, W. H. Webster was re-elected treasurer of the board.

On motion of T. A. Parker, Jas. Leaton was elected vice-president.

The treasurer, W. H. Webster, made his annual report, which, on motion of Jas. Leaton, was received and the recommendations adopted.

Jas. Leaton presented the report in relation to the Strawbridge fund.

Rev. A. S. McCoy was nominated to preach the Strawbridge sermon in 1887, and S. Shinn was appointed alternate.

W. S. PRENTICE, President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

Bible Cause.

WHEREAS, The report of the American Bible Society for the past year gives evidence that with unabated vigor the publication and dissemination of of the Holy Bible is being carried on; and,

WHEREAS, We regard this as of vital importance in Christian work; therefore,

Resolved, That we continue true in our allegiance, firm in our support, determined to put forth every consistent effort for the increased usefulness of the organization, including the taking of a collection and reporting the same, as per our discipline.

W. MALAY REED, President.

LEWIS T. JANES, Secretary.

Chinese.

To the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress Assembled:

The Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, composed of 300 ministers, and representing 40,000 church members, beg leave to present to your honorable body their respectful petition, showing:

1. That the treaty of 1880 between the United States and China, in which China gave her consent to the restriction of immigration of Chinese laborers to this country, provided that "Chinese laborers who are now in the United States shall be allowed to go and come of their own free will and accord, and shall be accorded all the rights, privileges, immunities, and exemptions which are accorded to the citizens and the subjects of the most favored nation." Said treaty also contained the following solemn pledge on the part of our government: "If Chinese laborers, or Chinese of any other class, now either temporarily or permanently residing in the territory of the United States, meet with any ill-treatment at the hands of any other persons, the government of the United States will exert all its power to devise measures for their protection, and to secure to them the same rights, privileges, immunities and exemptions as may be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation, and to which they are entitled by treaty."

2. That most flagrant and grevious outrages have been perpetrated upon the Chinese in Wyoming and Washington Territories, and in the States of Oregon and California; and in many places in that portion of our country the purpose is still openly expressed of driving out the Chinese inhabitants.

3. That in the course of these outrages not only has much property belonging to Chinese residents been destroyed, but many persons have been put to death.

4. That the failure to keep our treaty obligations, and the inhuman persecutions and brutal massacres which have been perpetrated upon these strangers in our midst, have disgraced our country in the eyes of the civilized world, and subject us to the just judgment of a righteous God.

5. That the safety of our citizens in China is imperiled by these frequent and unredressed wrongs to Chinese subjects in the United States, and that we have no right to expect that the people of a heathen country will be more careful of the rights of American merchants and missionaries than the people of this Christian country are of the rights of the Chinese in our land.

6. That these outrages have already borne sad fruit in the destruction of the property of our mission at Chung King, in Western China, and the expulsion of our missionaries.

7. That it is imperatively necessary that immediate measures of the most stringent character be taken for the protection of the lives and property of the Chinese in this country, and the spirit of persecution and lawlessness, so rife in some regions, be sternly rebuked, and prompt and efficient punishment visited upon law breakers.

We therefore petition your honorable body to enact without delay such measures as will enable the officers of the law to suppress all efforts to persecute and drive out the Chinese, and secure to them, wherever they may be in our wide domain, the same protection afforded to all other persons in "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," and especially that the indemnity bill pending when congress adjourned be passed without delay.

And for this your petitioners will ever pray.

Signed by order and in behalf of the conference.

R. S. FOSTER, President.

C. GALEENER, Secretary.

Church Extension.

WHEREAS, The Board of Church Extension has done a work of incalculable value in the last twenty years, having aided over 5,000 churches in the various points of our great home field, and for several years past has been aiding between 400 and 500 churches with annual donations and loans of over $200,000;

WHEREAS, This conference has been called upon to contribute annually $3,000, and has responded with only about one-third of the amount asked, with 217 pastoral charges, only forty-four have reported collections of $10 and over, while 126 have reported less amounts, and forty-seven have reported no collections, such a record does not accord with the just demands of this cause upon the liberality of our people, and should not be satisfactory;

Therefore, Resolved, That we will avail ourselves of the helps furnished in the "Church Manual" and in the "Church Extension Service of Song," and will present this cause in all our preaching places, and will use due diligence to secure the amounts asked of our respective charges.

J. T. ORR, President.

Tract Cause.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society was organized to scatter the thoughts of good men among the people, and has been an evangelizing power to bring souls to Christ, therefore,

Resolved, First, That we appreciate the benefits derived from the society in our church work, and as pastors we will avail ourselves of its help.

Resolved, Second, That we will present its claims and take a collection in its support.

C. POWEL, Chairman.

J. A. BURKS, Secretary.

Periodicals.

We are pleased to learn of the increased prosperity and success of our publishing interests. Believing that there is no better religious weekly published than the "Central Christian Advocate," we will, therefore, make an earnest effort to introduce it, or some one of the other Advocates, into all our homes.

Believing, also, that our own Sunday school literature is surpassed by no other, we therefore heartily recommend it to our Sunday schools. We also commend the action of the book committee in reducing the price of the Sunday School Advocate and The Classmate, and we hope they may soon see their way clear to do the same with regard to the Weekly Advocates and other publications.

J. P. DIMMITT, President.

J. JAY DUGAN, Secretary.

Preachers' Aid Society.

The work of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Conference has been very successful the past year, resulting in a large increase of the funds, through the efficient labors of Rev. Shaw, agent.

Resolved, First, That it be commended to the regard of the preachers and laymen of the patronizing territory

Second, That the bishop be requested to re-appoint Rev. Jas. Shaw to the agency thereof for the ensuing conference year.

W. H. DAVIS, Chairman.

Book Concern Claims.

The Committee on the Claims of the Book Concern respectfully report as follows:

Your committee is highly gratified to report that $5,300 of the claims against members of this conference have been paid during the present session —the largest amount ever collected at one time—and would be more highly gratified if we could report as paid $3,000 yet due, the most of which is regarded good.

E. S. WAMSLEY, Chairman.

J. B. MARTIN, Secretary.

Historical Society.

The committee on the History of Methodism in the Illinois Annual Conference would respectfully report the following resolutions:

1. That a committee of three be appointed by the bishop to draft a constitution and by-laws for the organization of a conference historical society.

2. That this committee be required to report at the next session of the Illinois Annual Conference.

3. That this committee be authorized to receive all books, papers and other matters pertaining to such work.

Piasa Camp Meeting.

We had the privilege of visiting the Piasa Bluffs Assembly Camp Meeting this past summer, and were very much delighted and pleased with its fine location, it being located convenient to our conference. Be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we will give it such aid and encouragement as we can.

J. JAY DUGAN.

Episcopal Fund.

We recommend the disciplinary plan of dividing the amount raised for ministerial support, pro rata, between the bishops, presiding elders, and preachers in charge.

D. P. LYON, Chairman.
PLEASANT B. HUFFMAN, Secretary.

Andrus Fund.

The committee on the Andrus Fund report that the income from the same during the past year amounted to eighty ($80) dollars, which sum has been paid to the missionary treasurer and his receipt taken therefor.

JOHN A. KUMLER.

REV. R. E. GUTHRIE.

Resolved, That the Illinois Conference expresses its profound regret that Bro. R. E. Guthrie has felt it his duty to sever his connection with us by transfer to the Southwest Kansas Conference. Having been forty-five years with us in conference fellowship and counsel, we attest our high appreciation of his long service among us, recognizing him as a brother greatly beloved. We congratulate the Southwest Kansas Conference upon the accession to their body of one whom we recognize as a wise counselor, a pure Christian gentleman, and a truly consecrated Methodist preacher, and one who will ever find a welcome to his old conference home should he in the providence of God return.

MEMOIRS.

PETER AKERS.

Peter Akers was born in Campbell county, Va., September 1, 1790. His parents, John and Agnes Akers, were members of the Presbyterian church, who dedicated their children to God in infancy by baptism, and brought them up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." His father conducted family worship morning and evening, and on Sabbath, after leading the singing in the congregation, taught his children the Shorter Catechism. He died when Peter was thirteen, after exhorting him to lead a virtuous life. Peter commenced his education in common schools, and when 16 was called to teach a school. He afterwards studied in higher institutions in Virginia and North Carolina, pursuing a classical course. Determined to devote himself to the law, though his godly mother desired that he might become a minister, he removed to Kentucky, as offering a better field. Reaching Mount Sterling, at the solicitation of the authorities he took charge of a school under state control; but looking on this as a diversion from his life work, he remained there only six months, and then passed to Flemingsburg, where he entered the law office of Major W. P. Fleming. In 1817 he was admitted to the bar, and immediately entered into partnership with Major Fleming, and soon took rank with the most gifted young men. On March 2th, 1818, he married Miss Eliza S. Faris, of fine intelligence and excellent family, but averse to religion. In the year after, he commenced the publication of The Star. Upon the death of their first child his wife became solicitous for her salvation and that of her husband, and urged him to unite with the church with her. He refused, but when a second child was born and consumption fastened upon her, having fainted one day, a Christian physician was called in, and as she came to herself she asked him to pray for her. He asked her if she would pray for herself, and she said she would. Her husband thought that if he had not opposed her she would have before this been converted, and deep conviction seized him. The physician gave him Alleine's Alarm, and Baxter's Call. These only deepened his conviction. After a severe mental conflict he agreed with his wife to spend the remnant of his life in the service of God. On the night of March 21st, 1821, they had family prayer by themselves for the first time. On March 25th a sermon was preached in his house by the physician, the Rev. Dr. Houston, from I. Kings, XVIII, 21. At the close Mr. Akers and his wife joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On Sunday, June 24, 1821, his wife having died about a month before, in a class and prayer meeting his heart was strangely warmed, and he received the assurance of his conversion. With this came the conviction that his life-work henceforth was to be the ministry. He preached his first sermon under a permit from the preacher in charge, on Friday night, July 27th, from "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel," and at a local preachers' conference about two months afterwards, he was licensed to preach, and recommended to Kentucky Conference. Admitted on trial, he was appointed to Limestone circuit, where his labors resulted in the salvation of many souls. His second circuit was the Little Kanawha, in Western Virginia. While on this circuit he visited his mother in Virginia, whom he had not seen for several years. While there he preached, his mother being much affected. At the last meal at home, an older brother asked his mother if she would not be glad if Peter would leave the Methodists and become a Presbyterian. She replied, "I hope he has more stability than to be carried about with every wind of doctrine." During the year he started seventeen Sunday schools, and received $37.56¼.

In 1823 he was appointed to Fleming circuit in Kentucky. He had previously felt the need of entire sanctification, had sought instruction and had read in regard to it, but without obtaining it until this year. He had been sick, and had missed some of his appointments. His presiding elder, Andrew Monroe, appointed a two-days' meeting at one of the preaching places. Mr. Akers was able to attend. The sermon of the presiding elder on Sabbath seemed exactly adapted to his wants, and during it he was enabled to lay hold on Christ as his sanctification. At the close of the sermon he attempted to announce his appointments, but could not utter a word; he sat back in his seat; the people began to weep, then they sang. He, feeling that he must rest, went to his lodging. As he cast himself on the bed, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost came to him and so filled him he felt he could not live, but he prayed that he might be spared to preach this great salvation. The presiding elder came to him and asked, "Brother Akers, has the Lord sanctified your soul?" He said, "I don't know what it is, but God is love, and I am filled with love."

From this time there was a marked change in his preaching. Wonderful revivals occurred under his ministry, and multitudes were converted. In 1826 he was appointed to Lexington. Some of his official members there insisted that he should preach shorter sermons. He timed himself for a few Sabbaths and closed his sermons just as he began to get into the spirit of them. Finding that he was doing no good, and was dwarfing his own soul, he resolved he would no more preach by the watch, but by the spirit of God, and on Sunday preached on Ezekial's vision of the dry bones. The power of God came upon the congregation; some screamed, some shouted, others fell prostrate. Many were from that service brought to Christ, and his officiary gave him liberty to take his own course. The next year, 1827, he was appointed agent for Augusta College, and did good work. His subsequent appointments in Kentucky were Louisville, Danville and Harrodsburg, Louisville a second time, and in 1831 he was again agent for Augusta College. His ministry during all these years was in power.

In 1832 he removed to Illinois and was transferred to Illinois Conference. The understanding was that he should be appointed to Jacksonville. But the Kentucky Conference coming after the Illinois, and the transfer not being effected until the session of the former conference, Bishop Soule felt that he could not legally give him an appointment in this conference. This was a great disappointment both to the people and Brother Akers, but his freedom from the care of a charge enabled him to do the work of an evangelist. His skill in exposing sophistry and his denunciation of sin in all its forms have perhaps never been equaled in this region. And yet he kept such intimate personal communion with God, and so set forth the way of salvation that hundreds were won to Christ. In 1833 and 1834 he served as president of McKendree College. In 1835 he started the Ebenezer Manual Labor School at his own residence, four miles north of the city. He also filled the newly formed station at Beardstown for a year, and in 1837 was assigned to Springfield station. In 1838 he was appointed to Quincy district and moved to Pulaski. Having learned that the church in which his first quarterly meeting was held had been built from timber taken from unsold public lands, he, in his first sermon, denounced the stealing of timber from the government as an equal sin with stealing from an individual. In 1840 he was appointed to the Springfield district, which he traveled four years. Here wonderful revivals attended his ministry.

At the conference in Winchester in 1842 he preached powerfully, and, as usual, with violent bodily exertion. Exposed after the service, he took a severe cold and was thrown into high fever. He lay sick for a long time until it was thought he was dying. A Baptist minister, who was also a physician, came in, and being asked to have prayer, read the twenty-third psalm. As he read, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil," he turned to Brother Akers and said, "You are now in the valley." He could not speak but he thought, "If I am, then I fear no evil," and from that time he rapidly recovered. During the next four years he presided on Jacksonville district, and during the three following on Quincy district. It was at this time that he was engaged in preparing his work on chronology—a work indicating profound research and varied learning. In 1851 he was again assigned to Springfield district, but at the next session of conference he again consented to serve as president of McKendree College. Here he remained for five years—years of great succees as president, but of great family affliction, for in the burying ground there he deposited the bodies of three daughters and a son. In 1857 he was transferred to Minnesota Conference and assigned to Red Wing. At Red Wing a great revival occurred, and at Spates's School House—a country appointment—over a hundred souls were converted under his labors.

From 1858 to 1864 he sustained a superannuated relation, during the first five years in the Minnesota, and the last two in the Illinois Conference, to which, at the request of his brethren, he had been transferred. In 1865 he removed to Jacksonville, of which he remained a resident. After serving the church again as presiding elder of Jacksonville district, he was appointed to Pleasant Plains district, but at the close of his second year on it was granted a superannuated relation, in which he remained.

Dr. Akers was thrice married. Of his first wife mention has been made. While traveling in Kentucky Conference, April 21st, 1825, at Carlisle, Ky., at the house of Dr. Leach, he was married by the Rev. Geo. C. Light to Miss Elizabeth Reid, a loving and most efficient helpmate. She died in 1845, and on May 12th, 1846, he married Miss Anna Goheen, of Lebanon, who survives him, and who for forty years has been a loving mother to his children, and his own earthly stay and support.

Dr. Akers was a man of marked character, of large frame, of giant intellect, of extensive learning, of wonderful eloquence. He would have been a leader in any department. He stood in the church the peer of the foremost. As a preacher he was rarely equaled, never surpassed. His profound knowledge of the Scriptures, his intimate communion with God, his fidelity to his convictions, his eloquence and his humility, combined with his physical strength to make him the most powerful preacher in the west, and only equaled in the east by Dr. Stephen Olin. He magnified the Scriptures and made them honorable, so that it was not the preacher who was thought of, but the truth of God. He was remarkable for his modesty and humility. He never sought ecclesiastical preferment. His brethren chose him as their representative to eight general conferences, generally placing him at the head of the ticket.

In searching for the cause of his grand career and success, great credit should be given, first, to his devoted Christian parents and their strict yet loving training. He is another exemplification of the adage, "Great men have great mothers." Secondly, to his deep religious experience that caused his whole being to be permeated with the life of God, and made faith in God's word his normal condition. And lastly to his constant, thorough study of God's word, until it became as it were a part of his very being, and caused it to be said of him as of Apolos, "He was an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures."

REV. J. C. LONG.

Rev. J. C. Long was born in Preble county, Ohio, April 21st, 1817, and died September 5th, 1886, in Urbana, Ill. When quite young his parents moved to Indiana, where he remained until he was about twenty years of age. He then came to Illinois and settled in Georgetown, Vermillion county, and established himself in the business of blacksmithing. On December 9, 1838, he was married to Mrs. P. F. Milligan, with whom he lived thirty-three years. He was converted in the twenty-fourth year of his age, at a camp meetiug near Danville, August 15, 1841, and immediately joined the church on probation. His conversion was very manifest to himself, as well as to all observers. Grace wrought very signally in him, and the joy of his soul, the regularity of his life and the ability of his prayers and exhortations pointed him out as a suitable person to be licensed as an exhorter. In 1847 he was licensed to preach in a local relation to the church. He preached in said relation two years. He was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1849, and stationed in Urbana circuit. In 1850 and 1851 he was stationed in the Shelbyville circuit. In 1852 in Urbana circuit, the place his itinerant ministry commenced. His labors were crowned with a wonderful revival this year. Much of the fruit remains to this day, though the greater part has been garnered in the skies. In 1853 he was appointed to the Charleston circuit. In 1854 and 1855 he was sent to Homer Mission. Here he did good, faithful work, laying the foundation of the present prosperous church in that place. In the fall of 1856, feeling the necessity of rest, he took a superannuated relation, and for the next two years resided in Homer, being engaged in the dry goods business. During the summer of 1859, however, he was appointed by the elder to fill out the year on Middletown circuit, that had been vacated by its pastor. At the conference of 1859 he was placed on the effective list and appointed to the Danville circuit. He did effective work here and was returned in 1860 to the same circuit. In 1862-63 he traveled the Vermillion circuit. In 1864 and 1866 he was on the Danville circuit. In 1867-68 he was superannuated. In 1869 his faithful wife, who had borne with him the trials and sufferings of the itinerant life, was called to rest and reward, and he was appointed to the Urbana circuit. On June 21, 1870, he was married to the lady that survives him, Miss P. A. Keeler, and at the ensuing conference was appointed to the Bloomfield circuit. In 1871 to Myersville circuit, the last he traveled. On account of failing health the conference of 1872 granted him a superannuated relation—a relation he sustained until death. He took up his residence in Urbana, where he has ever since resided, rejoicing in the prosperity of the church which his early labor did so much to establish. His last sickness was characterized by great suffering. During most of the time he was unconscious of his surroundings, but his oft repeated testimony, and above all, his Godly life, leave no doubt as to his eternal blessedness.

REV. EZRA J. CARLILE.

Rev. Ezra J. Carlile was born in Phenixville, Chester county, Pa., Sept. 4, 1847. His parents located in Morgan county, Illinois, in his early childhood. He married Miss Hattie Chrisman December 25th, 1874. She proved to be a worthy and useful helpmeet to him in his ministerial work. She died November 24, 1880, leaving a son still living. He married Miss Ella L. Mansfield October 19th, 1881, she and two sons surviving. He died at his home in Franklin, Ill, Feburary 6, 1886. Brother Carlile was converted December 25, 1862, at the age of fifteen. From that time he felt himself called to the ministry. Preparatory to that work he received license to exhort, and entered the Illinois College at Jacksonville. Before graduatiou, however, he was licensed to preach in September, 1874. He served the church at Alexander as a supply during the following year. Joining the Illinois Conference in 1875, he was appointed to Waverly circuit, which charge he filled for three years. In 1878 and 1879 he was appointed to Manchester, in 1880 to Franklin, in 1881-3 to Morrisonville, in 1884 to Tolono, and in 1885 he was superannuated. In his childhood he received an injury to his foot, which took a scrofulous character and gave him long and very great suffering. While at Morrisonville the malady appeared again, complicated with a cancerous nature. Amputation of the limb became necessary, and for a time seemed to give permanent relief, but again the disease reappeared and progressed to a fatal termination. During all these long years his sufferings were great beyond description, but were always borne with fortitude, cheerfulness and resignation. In suffering and death he was more than conqueror. Bro. Carlile had an unusually sweet disposition, and made friends easily. As a preacher he was thoughtful, sensible, earnest and popular. He understood the doctrines of the church and believed and preached them. He was successful in building up the church in a sound and substantial manner. His premature removal is a great loss and sorrow.

MRS. SUSAN J. DUNGAN.

Mrs. Susan J. Dungan, nee England, was born in Washington county, Ky., November 27, 1835, and died in Ashland, Ill., December 1, 1885. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when about twelve years old, and from that time became a regular attendant upon the means of grace. She greatly delighted in all the work of the church, and was an efficient laborer in the Sunday school department. She served in the capacity of teacher and superintendent, and was highly gratified when she witnessed the gathering of the children into the fold of Christ. In 1861 she married Rev. George W. Dungan, of the Louisville Conference. In 1865 Mr. Dungan became a member of the Illinois Conference. The deceased dearly loved her home. She never neglected the poor, but as far as it was in her power she would alleviate their sorrow and cheer them in the sad path of their pilgrimage. She fully accepted the hardships and pleasures of the itinerant's mission. Willingly she espoused the work of her husband, and faithfully aided him. Wherever the church appointed, she earnestly strove to make the best of their new field of action, and never left a parish without receiving the benedictions of numerous friends. Her sufferings were severe. She arranged for her funeral services, selecting the text, Psa. 73:24, choosing the place of her burial, giving minute detail in all the particulars, and then cheerfully encouraging her husband, pointing to his reward hereafter, she pronounced her dying blessing upon him and the son and daughter. Yielding to the divine order, she ceased to labor and entered upon rest.

MRS. LILLIE B. CHAPMAN.

Lillie Burnside was born near Brookborrow, Ireland, in 1818, and died at Mt. Sterling, Ill., October 1, 1885. She embraced religion in early youth in the Methodist church of her own town, came to America quite young and became a member of Wesley Chapel, in Pittsburgh, Pa. She was married to Rev. Robert Chapman, of the Illinois Conference, in 1852, to whom she was a faithful and uncomplaining help in the itinerant ministry for twenty years. Her affliction was long and severe, but she did not complain, saying it was the will of the Lord. How frequently she said in her affliction, "Well do I remember when I gave my heart to Jesus in my youth, the first of my father's family; 'O happy day when Jesus took my sins away.'" In moments of severe pain she would say: "How precious is Jesus, how pleasant it will be to get home. Yes, there is rest for me in heaven." To her brother, T. Burnside, she said, "I have a bright prospect of the blessed shore." To her husband, "You must give me up, I shall soon be with Christ." Her religious life was systematical and not without enjoyments. She was patient in trials and decided in her convictions. She was earnest in defending the church of her choice. She was always most happy in her home. Over fifty years on her heavenly journey, she is now at home at last. She was buried October 3d in the Mt. Sterling cemetery, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Harper and Rev. Mr. Baldwin, of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of many.

MRS. J. W. LAPHAM.

Mrs. J. W. Lapham, whose maiden name was Asenath Maria Hammond, was born at Elliott, York county, Maine, January 17th, 1830. In the fourteenth year of her age she was converted and joined the M. E. church, of which she remained a worthy and consistent member until death. She was married to J. W. Lapham in 1856 by Rev. W. S. Crissey, at Decatur. During his itinerant life in the Illinois Conference she greatly aided him in his work, and was under God instrumental in leading many souls to Christ. She not only believed the doctrine, but enjoyed the grace of holiness. In 1883 her health became poor, with indications that pulmonary comsumption had set in. The next year she was taken to California. For a time after her arrival her health improved, but on January 18, 1885, she was attacked with pneumonia. From that time she gradually failed, until on February 13, 1886, death came to her relief, and she peacefully passed to her heavenly home. Throughout her long sickness she manifested the most complete submission to God's will concerning her. She gave every evidence of being fully ripe and ready for heaven. A few days before her death she said to her husband, "I can truly say with Wesley, 'The best of all is, the Lord is with us,' and with McKendree, 'All is well, all is well,' for I do know it is well with my soul." She leaves besides her companion three sons to mourn her absence, her only daughter having preceded her to the better land.

MRS. ELIZABETH J. KIMBER.

Elizabeth J. Amos was born in Hereford county, Md., October 21, 1813, and married Rev. I. C. Kimber, September 16, 1830. Mrs. Kimber was converted when a young girl, and proved herself a valuable helpmate to her husband in his ministry. While he was a local preacher, she would remain at home with her little children, often for weeks, while her husband was conducting revival meetings and otherwise laying the foundations for Methodism over a large scope of country in Western Illinois. During all the years of their itinerant labors she was a patient, self-sacrificing, cheerful helper of her husband in his work, thereby making it possible for him to render the great and valuable service to the church, which he did in his day. Mrs. Kimber sent for Rev. J. P. Dimmitt several weeks before her death and requested him to conduct her funeral services, and to make special mention of her privations, poverty and sufferings in working for Christ when the country was new. Her last words to him were: "Tell them that I have never been sorry for any hardships I have endured or any labors I have performed for my blessed Master, and only regret that I have not been able to do more than I have." She died February 20, 1886, in great peace, leaving two sons and one daughter, viz: Wesley Kimber, of Springfield, Ill., G. A. Kimber, of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. Caroline Bell, of Rushville, Ill.

DR. FRY'S ADDRESS.—Benjamin St. James Fry addressed the Conference in behalf of the Central Christian Advocate.

PROF. BENNETT'S ADDRESS.—Dr. Bennett, Professor in Garrett Biblical Institute, addressed the Conference in the interest of that institution.

REPORT OF FIFTH BALLOT.—The tellers announced the result of the fifth ballot, as follows: Whole number of votes cast 163. Number necessary to a choice, 82. W. N. McElroy having received 92 votes was declared elected delegate to the General Conference.

The Conference then proceeded to cast a ballot for reserve delegates to General Conference, and the tellers retired to count the vote.

RATIO OF REPRESENTATION.—The Committee on Ratio of Representation in the General Conference presented its report, which was adopted. (See Report.) The Conference then voted directly on the proposition to change the ratio of representation with the following result: For the General Conference Proposition, 18; against the General Conference Proposition, 109; and it was therefore declared not approved.

RESERVE DELEGATES ELECTED.—The tellers announced the result of the ballot for reserve delegates to the General Conference, as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 137; number necessary to elect, 69. D. W. English having received 99, and P. Wood 76 votes, they were declared elected reserve delegates to the General Conference.

The motion ordering the election of reserve delegates to the General Conference by ballot was reconsidered and lost.

It was then ordered that the third reserve delegate to the General Conference be elected by acclamation, and S. H. Whitlock was so elected.

Miss Phœbe Rowe, of Lucknow, India, a representative of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, was introduced to the Conference.

With announcements, doxology and benediction, Conference adjourned.

REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following report:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The detailed report of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Illinois Wesleyan University shows this institution to be in a better financial condition than it was a year ago. The endowment fund now amounts to $98,361.11, as follows: Secured notes, $30,024.36; unsecured notes, $13,831.75; real estate, $37,930.00; new endowment notes, $13,575.00. The income from this endowment reaches the sum of $5,336.09. The receipts from this fund, together with the tuition, are now sufficient to pay the salaries of the entire faculty, and meet the other current expenses of the school. Since the meeting of the Joint Board of Trustees and Conference visitors in June, the Executive Committee have employed as additional teachers, Edward Manly, Miss Ella New and Edward T. Heckel, at a total salary for the year of $1,650, which is covered by the above sources of income. These are all graduates of leading colleges, and are most efficient teachers, giving the University a large and able corps of instructors.

The religious atmosphere of the institution, though wholly unsectarian in its nature, is of a high order, and all the students are brought within its influence.

The fall term opened September 13th, 1887, with a large number of students in the College of Science, and a larger number than usual in the College of Music. The number is constantly growing larger, and the outlook for the future of the school is most encouraging. We heartily commend this University to the patronage of our people everywhere, and especially within the bounds of our Conference. We faithfully promise to do all we can to increase the attendance at this institution, and to make it a great educational center of widening influence and growing power in Central Illinois. Under the provisions of its charter four Trustees are to be elected by this Conference at its present session, and we nominate as such, Rev. H. Buck, D. D., Peter Whitmer, Rev. W. H. Wilder, M. A., and Sain Welty, M. A. We recommend as Conference Visitors, Preston Wood, W. A. Smith, M. W. Everhart, W. D. Best, James Miller and M. D. Hawes. Rev. W. H. H. Adams, D. D., having resigned his position as President of the Illinois Wesleyan University, we further recommend that the Conference sanction the action of the Board in making Prof. W. H. Waite, M. A., the Acting President, and respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. C. M. Moss as a Professor in the University.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The forty-first year of this institution opened September 14th, 1887, with a larger attendance than for a number of years past, requiring the full capacity of the buildings for the comfortable accommodation of the pupils and faculty. During the vacation the buildings were greatly improved and beautified, and the equipment increased at a very large expenditure; so that it is the most complete and beautiful home and school for young ladies in the West. The faculty is composed of teachers and artists of the highest scholarship and refinement. To all who desire the best facilities, care and associations for their daughters we most heartily commend this worthy and prosperous College for young ladies. The Musical Department is modeled after the New England Conservatory, of Boston, Mass., and offers unsurpassed facilities for the study of music in all branches.

We recommend the appointment of Hon. William Thomas, Lloyd W. Brown, M. D., and Rev. G. R. S. McElfresh as Trustees, and Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., as President.

The following visitors: Pastors of the three charges in Jacksonville and of Waverly; also the Presiding Elder of Jacksonville District.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

This institution has brighter prospects than for a number of years. Rev. M. D. Hornbeck, A. M., S. T. D., was elected president at the meeting of the Board in June, and at once entered upon his duties with his characteristic energy and hopefulness. Some needed improvements have been made in the buildings, and the Collegiate year opens with an attendance almost double that of last year.

The following items of information are submitted:

VALUE OF PROPERTY AND ASSETS.

Main building, dormitory and grounds cost	$ 60,000
Actual cost, (originally)	225,000
Estimated value	175,000
Furnishings in the two buildings	2,000
Vickers farms (2)	16,000
Clark farm	8,000
Mr. and Mrs. Chaddock's note	10,000
Mrs. Chaddock (promised in will)	7,000
Total	$218,000

PRESENT INDEBTEDNESS.

Loan from Germania Insurance Company at 6 per cent., secured by mortgage on main building and grounds	$ 25,000
Loan of money on Vickers farm	4,500
Total	$ 29,500

ORGANIZATION OF THE COLLEGE.

Preparatory Department, College Department, School of Oratory, School of Music, School of Law, School of Medicine, School of Fine Arts, School of Pedagogy.

These departments are unified and all recite in the main building. The faculties are filled with able instructors. We recommend the appointment of Rev. M. D. Hornbeck as President, and the election of Abner Clark, the Pastors of Trinity, Rushville, Mt. Sterling and Payson as visitors, and A. C. Byerly and S. H. Whitlock, Ministers, and W. T. Smith and H. J. Vickers, Laymen, as Trustees from this Conference.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

The Boston School of Theology was projected in 1839. It was opened in Concord, N. H., in 1847. In 1867 it was removed to Boston, and was known until 1871 as the "Boston Theological Seminary." In 1871 it was incorporated into the University of Boston. It has ample accommodations in its buildings; large libraries, and a well qualified corps of professors. During the past collegiate year it has had ninety-nine students, gathered from twenty-seven States, besides those outside of the United States. It is flourishing and effective. We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. N. McElroy, D. D., and Rev. M. D. Hawes as visitors from this Conference.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Your committee have not received any communications from this school, hence cannot make any report.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

This school was organized in 1884. It has a corps of seven professors. It claims to have had 181 students since its organization. In the last collegiate year it has had one graduate and forty-seven students, representing seven States. We commend it to the kindly notice of the Church. We recommend Rev. R. N. Davies and Rev. W. D. Best as visitors from this Conference.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

Garrett Biblical Institute, with its magnificent Memorial Hall; its dormitories; its ample libraries; its very able corps of professors; its 354 alumni, and its 132 students of the past year, representing 19 States, need no endorsement; it speaks for itself, an honor and glory to Methodism in our State. We cheerfully recommend it to our young men as a proper place in which to seek Biblical culture.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. A. Smith and Rev. A. C. Byerly as visitors from this Conference.

We, as a committee, would kindly urge upon our young men the propriety of qualifying themselves for the work of the Ministry by seeking and obtaining thorough classical and Biblical culture. We would ask them to consider the following points:

First—The intellectual status of the age demands thorough culture on the part of the Ministry.

Second—The teaching and enforcing of the doctrines of the Sacred Scriptures demand the best possible culture and preparation.

Third—The practice of medicine and of law demand great preparation; how much more certainly does the preaching of the Gospel demand that the Christian Minister avail himself of every opportunity to qualify himself for his superior duties?

Fourth—To those of our young men who cannot attend a classical or Biblical school, we suggest the value of the "Non-resident Course" of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

W. N. McELROY, Chairman.

M. AUER, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Recognizing the overshadowing evils of the liquor traffic:

First—We declare our full conviction to be that our people everywhere should array themselves on the side of legal prohibition.

Second—That in view of the present attitude of the leading political parties toward the liquor traffic the proper position of the Christian voter should be that of entire independence in the exercise of his ballot.

Third—That it is our solemn conclusion that no Christian should vote for any candidate to political office who uses intoxicating liquors as a beverage or in any way favors the traffic therein.

Fourth—That we rejoice in the position of the "Knights of Labor," and other fraternities, in recognizing the criminality of the traffic by refusing membership to all liquor dealers.

Fifth—That we declare the teachings of the partisan press of the day in urging high license or "regulation" as a remedy for the evils of the traffic, to be misleading and false.

Sixth—We urge the membership of our church to wholly abstain from the use of tobacco.

Seventh—That we earnestly request Bishop Foss to appoint no Preacher to any vacancy in the Presiding Elder's office who is addicted to the use of tobacco.

Eighth—That we instruct our delegates to the General Conference to vote for no candidate to office in our church who uses tobacco in any form.

Ninth—That we are in favor of municipal suffrage for women as a temperance measure.

Tenth—That we are in hearty sympathy with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in its great work of awakening the people to the evils of intemperance. We bid them God-speed and promise our co-operation.

J. FOXWORTHY, Chairman.

S. P. STOVER, Secretary.

MISSIONARY.

WHEREAS, The Gospel of our Lord is the heaven-appointed instrumentality for the world's salvation, and

WHEREAS, The Missionary Society has for its special object the promulgation of the Gospel, and

WHEREAS, God has opened wide the doors for the entering in of the word of truth in all lands, therefore

Resolved, That we as Pastors pledge ourselves anew to the Missionary idea and plan as given in the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and that we will encourage our members to read about, think about, pray over, and liberally give to the Missionary cause.

That, because of the great destitution in many of our rural districts we would encourage the Presiding Elders in securing Missionary money to be used in our Conference, when in their judgment it would further the interest of the church by supplying the waste and neglected places with the Gospel.

That, the cry for "a million for missions by collections only," receives from us a hearty response, and we note with great satisfaction that our Conference has passed the million line.

J. P. DIMMITT, President.

F. M. SISSON, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Most heartily appreciating what the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has accomplished in the past, and the spirit of genuine helpfulness in its method of the present, we offer the following resolutions:

First—That we will encourage the Society in every way possible in its efforts to secure greater circulation of Missionary intelligence, and increased contributions to the work.

Second—That as Pastors we will urge immediate and aggressive work in the matter of organizing auxiliaries wherever practical, and will see to it that we give hearty co-operation.

Third—That we do heartily appreciate the address of Miss Rowe, of Lucknow, India, who, by her simple and unfaltering faith in Christ has touched us into response, and we feel that we have by her presence and words been brought forth into a larger place, and we say to her by this resolution, The Lord bless her and keep her, and cause his face to shine upon her.

W. V. JACOBS, Chairman.

C. R. MORRISON, Secretary.

THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath is an institution of Divine appointment, founded in the physical, moral and spiritual necessities of the race; in the violation of which every interest of the race is imperiled; therefore Resolved, First, That we, the members of the Illinois Annual Conference, deplore the practice in our cities and towns of keeping open places of business on the Sabbath, and pledge ourselves to denounce the practice, both publicly and privately, in the spirit of the Gospel.

Resolved, Second, That we commend the favorable enactments of our State Legislature on Sabbath observance, and pray that more stringent laws may yet be enacted and faithfully executed.

Resolved, Third, We regard social visiting, pleasure riding and railroad travel and excursions, whether to religious assemblies or otherwise, on the Sabbath inconsistent with Christian profession, and not to be indulged in by members of our church.

Resolved, Fourth, That the holding of Campmeetings on the Sabbath with open gates, free bridges, hunting grounds, fishing and boating as special advertisement, is not only a violation of the Fourth Commandment but a gross insult to the Illinois Conference and our common Methodism.

C. G. WOOD, President.

J. O. BATY, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We can but regard the Sunday School as one of the great factors in the conversion of the world, and especially the young. We rejoice in the wonderful success with which the efforts of our Sunday School workers have been crowned.

We regard no Sunday School literature superior to our own, and none equal to it for Methodist schools, therefore consider all honest efforts to place it in all our schools as laudible.

We regret the failure on the part of many of our schools to take the Sunday School Advocate and Classmate. This our Pastors should look after.

We urge the use of the Bible itself in the school, and the helps furnished, for home study.

We are sorry to see so few Sunday School children attend the preaching services, and believe our Pastors and Sunday School Superintendents can do much to remedy this lack of interest on the part of the children, and further we do promise a strong and persistent effort on our part to remedy this evil.

MARION ROSE, Chairman.

J. O. COLLINS, Secretary.

FREEDMAN'S AID SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, This great benevolence is second to none in importance to the church and nation, appealing alike to our love of God and country; and

WHEREAS, This Society is constantly enlarging the field of its operations, thereby requiring more generous gifts; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That we urge our Pastors to an increased emphasis of the importance of this cause, and our members to increased liberality in their contributions to the same.

Resolved, Second, That we recommend the distribution of tracts and other literature on the subject, and the use of the charts published by the Society in taking collections for this cause.

Resolved, Third, That we commend the plan adopted by Dr. Rust at our recent anniversary, of securing the presence and address of one or more persons trained in the schools founded by this Society, and suggest its more general adoption, as thus furnishing the best exponent of our work in the South.

G. E. SCRIMGER, Chairman.

G. B. GOLDSMITH, Secretary.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met for annual meeting in Decatur, Ill., September 21, 1887.

Present—James Leaton, Hiram Buck, J. H. Noble, J. F. Stout and Horace Reed.

The President, W. S. Prentice, having died during the year, the Vice-President, Jas. Leaton, occupied the chair.

On motion of J. F. Stout, the Treasurer was directed to pay over the accrued interest in his hands, amounting to $472.90, to the Conference Stewards.

The Secretary was directed to nominate for re-election as Trustees, Hiram Buck and Horace Reed. To fill the unexpired term of W. S. Prentice, deceased, W. H. Wilder; to fill the unexpired term of J. F. Stout, transferred, W. A. Smith.

James Leaton was elected President and H. Buck Vice-President.

The following minute was adopted in relation to W. S. Prentice: (See Journal.)

Upon the call of the President, James Leaton, the Board met September 22d, 1887.

Present—Jas. Leaton, W. H. Webster, J. H. Noble, H. Buck, W. A. Smith and Horace Reed.

Horace Reed was re-elected Secretary of the Board.

The Secretary was directed to nominate J. H. Noble to preach the Strawbridge sermon, and M. D. Hawes, alternate.

The report of the Treasurer was received and placed on file.

JAMES LEATON, President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The circulation of the Holy Scriptures must go hand in hand with every advanced movement of the church in establishing of the kingdom of Christ in all lands; Therefore Resolved, First, That we rejoice in the continued success of the American Bible Society, and especially in its ability to publish each year eighty million copies of God's word in the leading languages of our globe.

Resolved, Second, That we favor the plan of the Society for enlisting our Sunday Schools more generally and systematically in the work of Bible distribution at home and abroad, and we renew our promise of a collection in all our charges for this great cause.

WM. J. RUTLEDGE, Chairman.

Resolved, That we will require of the agent of the American Bible Society a receipt for the money paid to him by our societies.

JAS. LEATON.
R. N. DAVIES.

PERIODICALS.

Believing that there is an inseparable connection between good reading and good character; and also believing that the dissemination of Methodist literature among Methodist people is necessary in order to acquaint them with the polity, usages and work of the church, in the home and foreign field; and to create that denominational preference and enthusiasm which is indispensable to denominational growth;

Resolved, Therefore, that we will make an earnest effort to introduce some one of our church periodicals into every Methodist family; and as the Central Christian Advocate is our Conference paper we will give it the preference.

Resolved, Also, that we, as Methodist Preachers, will make an earnest effort to place our own Sunday School literature, which we consider unsurpassed, in every Sunday School over which we have control.

Resolved, That we encourage our people to purchase our own hymnal and denominational literature, first, because we believe our own publications as cheap, considering the quality, as can be found anywhere; second, because they disseminate the truth as we believe it; third, because such a course saves the profits made on the sales for the benefit of the church.

Resolved, That we favor selling our publications as low as possible so as not to interfere with the objects of the funds of our concern.

Resolved, That we hear with delight that the profits on our publications furnish so much revenue for our worn-out Preachers.

Resolved, That we regard the editorial management of the Central Christian Advocate by Dr. Fry, as eminently successful and satisfactory.

G. R. S. McELFRESH, President.

E. B. RANDLE, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

It seems needless to urge upon the members of this Conference the claims of the Church Extension Society, but we think it necessary to urge its claims upon our charges. We therefore recommend that each Pastor take his Church Extension collection in December, and that it be taken separately from other collections. We press this collection specially at this time in view of the pressing needs of one of the most important societies in our church. We also recommend the use of the helps that the Society will furnish upon application.

W. R. GOODWIN, Chairman.

G. W. DUNGAN, Secretary.

TRACT CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society was organized for the dissemination of truth among the people, and has become a power in bringing souls to Christ; therefore be it Resolved, First, That as Pastors we show our appreciation of it by availing ourselves of the helps which it affords.

Resolved, Second, That we will present its claims carefully to our people, and take a collection for its support.

L. T. JANES, Chairman.

J. SCOTT CARR, Secretary.

JOSEPH LONG, Special Treasurer.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, has for its aim the building of a fund, the interest of which shall be used for the benefit of its members who shall be superannuated; Therefore Resolved, First, That we heartily recommend it to the careful consideration of each member of the Illinois Conference, as a means of helping himself when superannuation comes.

Resolved, Second, That we will bring this society to the attention of our charges, and will co-operate with its agent in securing contributions and bequests for its fund.

H. BUCK, President.

J. C. KELLER, Secretary.

BOOK CONCERN CLAIMS.

Your Committee report as follows:

First—Of the $7,000 indebtedness at the opening of the present session $5,000 have been paid.

Second—The indebtedness remaining is confined to about forty members of the Conference, some of whom have paid nothing, and some a part of their indebtedness. Therefore Third—Resolved, That we deprecate the seeming recklessness of a few of our Preachers in making and leaving unpaid large accounts with the various branches of our Book Concern.

W. F. T. SPRUILL, President.

E. S. WAMSLEY, Secretary.

ANDRUS FUND.

We, Committee on Andrus Fund, report that the income from the same during the past year is eighty dollars, which sum we have paid to the Missionary Treasurer and his receipt taken therefor.

JOHN A. KUMLER.
ROBERT STEPHENS.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your Committee on Episcopal Fund submit the following report:

Total receipts in Treasury, $1,482.10, an increase of $22.10 over last year. The total deficiency on this claim is $879.90. There are twenty-eight charges making no report. There were twenty-four last year.

Your committee recommend the enforcement of the disciplinary requirement as a means to remedy this deficiency.

W. McK. GOODING, President.

A. CLARKE, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

REV. W. H. H. ADAMS, D. D.

WHEREAS, Rev. W. H. H. Adams, D. D., has resigned the Presidency of the Illinois Wesleyan University, which he has so successfully held for the last twelve years; therefore Resolved, First, That while sincerely regretting the resignation of Dr. Adams we recognize with great appreciation the fact that through his untiring zeal, indomitable energy and arduous labor, which has taken the best years of his life, a mammoth debt of $60,000 has been removed from the institution, its endowment has largely been increased, and it has been put upon a sound financial basis, so that by judicious management it can be self-supporting.

Resolved, Second, During his administration the standard of scholarship has been elevated, the curriculum broadened, the facilities for scientific study increased by large and valuable additions to the laboratory, and the post-graduate and non-resident courses have been made a stimulus and help to a large number of students not in actual attendance.

Resolved, Third, That his ability as a preacher and an educator, and his attainments as a scholar has given him a deservedly high standing in his Conference and in the church at large.

Resolved, Fourth, That in view of his invaluable services the lasting gratitude of this Conference and of the whole church is due to him, and that we bid him God speed in whatever work Providence shall open to him.

W. D. BEST.
A. C. BYERLY.
W. A. SMITH.

INSTRUCTING STEWARDS.

Resolved, First, That the Stewards be instructed to allow claims only when needed.

Resolved, Second, To make it a settled rule to grade all claims according to years of active service in the ministry.

Resolved, Third, To make exceptions only in extreme cases, of which we make the Stewards judges, and this exception only to be allowed for the five years, counting 1885 as the first, and after that implicitly abiding by the rule.

WHITE CROSS.

Your Committee on the "White Cross" movement presents the following:

Resolved, That we realize the importance of unceasing effort for the purity and elevation of society. That as Ministers we heartily commend the White Cross movement and all other agencies calculated to further this work, and we will urge upon our members the imperative necessity of doing so.

J. C. KELLER, Chairman.

WM. M. JOHNSON, Secretary.

REV. H. W. BENNETT.

WHEREAS, Rev. H. W. Bennett has been transferred to another Conference; therefore

Resolved, That we wish him well in his new field of labor; and that we pray the Great Head of the church to abundantly bless his work, with the same success that has attended it here.

R. N. DAVIES.
D. W. ENGLISH.

REV. J. F. STOUT.

WHEREAS, Rev. J. F. Stout leaves us for a new field of Ministerial service; therefore

Resolved, That Brother Stout having grown up in our midst, and having endeared himself to us by his loyalty to Methodism, his tireless industry, and sweetness of spirit, it is with deep regret that we part with him; and we earnestly pray that the richest blessings of our Saviour may attend him through all of his ministry.

CONSTITUTION OF THE Illinois Conference Historical Society.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be called "The Illinois Annual Conference Historical Society.

ARTICLE II. Its object shall be to collect and preserve records, reminiscences, memorials, relics and all other matters and things connected with the history of Illinois Methodism; and especially to collect and preserve the history of the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the limits of the Illinois Annual Conference, and to promote and disseminate a knowledge of Methodist history and traditions by means of lectures, addresses, essays, published transactions, anniversaries and other public gatherings, as well as by each and every other method known and practiced for the accomplishment of such and kindred aims.

ARTICLE III. Its officers shall be a President, one Vice-President from each Presiding Elder's District within the Conference, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, an Archivist and Librarian, each of whom shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Society. The corps of officers then elected shall constitute an Executive Committee, a majority of which shall be a quorum for business.

ARTICLE IV. The duties of the officers of the Society shall be as follows:

First—The President, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, exercising such powers as usually belong to the Chair in kindred organizations.

Second—The Vice-Presidents, according to seniority, priority of election, shall preside at the meetings of the Society in the absence of the President, and with like powers.

Third—The Recording Secretary shall make and preserve full and complete records and minutes of the meetings of the Society, under the direction and approval of the same.

Fourth—The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct all the official correspondence of the Society, under the direction and supervision of the same. He shall notify honorary members of their election; shall prepare brief biographies of deceased members for publication when so ordered; shall, by correspondence and otherwise, under orders of the Society, enlarge the historical collections of the same, and collect and preserve materials for a history of the Society, to be published under its order. He shall make a detailed report of his work at the annual meeting of the Society, which report shall be duly recorded in its proceedings.

Fifth—The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds of the Society; collect and disburse the same, under the order of the Society, and present a detailed report of receipts and expenditures at each annual meeting, which report shall go upon the records of the Society.

Sixth—The Archivist and Librarian shall have the custody for the use of the Society of all books, records, papers, documents, literary contributions and relics, belonging to the Society, and of the archives of the Society, and shall be responsible to the Society for the safe-keeping of the same; and shall arrange and catalogue the same in a book under the direction of the Executive Committee, and shall report to this Society at its annual meeting the state of the archives and of the property therein, which report shall be spread upon the records of the Society.

Seventh—The Executive Committee shall have general oversight of the affairs of the Society, including the archives, and the plan of keeping the same. They shall arrange for the annual and other meetings of the Society, as they may deem expedient. They shall have power to elect their own President.

ARTICLE V. Any Minister or member of the Methodist Episcopal Church may become a member of the Society by enrolling his name under the Constitution and paying such fees as may be determined in the by-laws. Honorary members may be constituted by the recommendation of the Executive Committee followed by election by the Society. It shall be the duty of each member of the Society to put forth every reasonable effort to collect historical information, books, pamphlets, documents, journals, class-books, obituary notices, biographical sketches, and all ancient and modern literary productions, relics, and any and everything relating to the history and literature of Methodism in Illinois and locations adjacent thereto, and to deposit the same in the archives of the Society.

ARTICLE VI. There shall be an annual meeting of the Society in connection with each session of the Illinois Annual Conference, at which all reports required by the Constitution shall be presented. At the annual meeting there shall be delivered an historical address by such person as shall have been selected therefore by the Executive Committee; a copy of said address to be deposited with the Archivist of the Society. Copies of all papers and reports worthy of note to this Society shall be with the Archivist. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee at such times and places as they may deem necessary.

The Executive Committee shall also have power to publish matter of historic and public interest relating to this Society and its work, paying therefor out of the funds of the Society.

ARTICLE VII. This Constitution shall not be altered or changed except at an annual meeting of the Society and by a vote of a majority of the members present and voting; notice of the prepared change having been given in open Conference at least two days before the annual meeting at which the change is to be voted upon.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WILLIAM S. PRENTICE.

WILLIAM S. PRENTICE, D. D., was born in St. Clair county, Illinois, May 21st, 1819, and died in Springfield, Ill., June 28th, 1887, aged 68 years, 1 month and 7 days. He was a descendant of an old Puritan family, the founder of which settled in America about the middle of the seventeenth century.

It is recorded in a book published some years ago in Boston, entitled "The History of the Prentice Family," that about the year 1650 Capt. Thomas Prentice came from England to Newton, Mass., and the subject of this sketch is of the seventh generation from him. His parents were John O. and Rachel (Swain) Prentice. After he grew up and had received such educational advantages as the school system of that early day afforded, he obtained an appointment as clerk in the United States Land Office at Vandalia, at that time the Capital of the State. He was then engaged for a time in the State Auditor's office under Levi Davis, and came to Springfield with the removal of the Capital in 1839. He, together with Milton H. Walsh, afterward his brother-in-law and Secretary of the St. Louis Public Schools, comprised the entire force of the Auditor's office at that time. Afterwards, through the influence of Stephen A. Douglas, with whom he was intimately associated, he procured an appointment in one of the Government offices in Washington City, D. C. In his early manhood he was somewhat interested in military matters and attained to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the State Militia, and was attached to the Governor's staff as Aide. In those days he was well acquainted with the public men of the State, and he abounded in reminiscences of early days. His last secular employment was as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, Illinois. He was married December 21, 2842, to Martha Ann Walsh, of Vandalia, Ill., who walked by his side for forty-five years, assisting him in his work, and sharing with him the joys and sorrows of his itinerant life, and who patiently and trustingly awaits the call to join him in heaven. He was brought up a Methodist; his father's house at Williamsburg, to which the family removed from St. Clair county, being a preaching place for some years, and his eldest brother, Amos Prentice, was for many years an able and successful preacher of the gospel. He was converted in Shelbyville, Ill., at a remarkable revival under the labors of James B. Woolard, who went to his rest only a short time ago. Soon afterwards he was licensed to preach, and in 1849 was admitted on trial into the Illinois Annual Conference and was assigned to his first work on the Paris Circuit. He then filled successively the Danville Circuit for two years, and Paris Circuit again for one year, then Carlinville for two years, then the Vermont Street Church, Quincy, for one year, and then the West Church Jacksonville, for one year. During the next four years he traveled the Springfield District, and the four years following the Jacksonville District. In 1860 he was appointed to the Second Church, Springfield, as its first Pastor, where he labored successfully for three years. Then in succession he traveled the Springfield, the Decatur, and the Jacksonville Districts, and again Springfield District, on each a full term of four years. In 1884 he was granted a supernumerary relation, which was changed to superannuated at the last Conference. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him in 1875 by the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington. In 1860 he was elected delegate to the General Conference of the Church, and also in 1872, and was thereafter elected a delegate to each succeeding General Conference during his life.

One of the most signal illustrations of the esteem in which he was held by his brethren was given in 1880, when, by a vote of the Conference requesting it, the Bishop re-appointed him to the office of Presiding Elder, in the face of a newly adopted rule making an incumbent inelligible to a second consecutive term. He was a natural Presiding Elder.

It is no dispraise of others to say that he possessed the Presiding Elder instinct in a larger share than most men, and, whilst he sustained himself well and was quite successful on his pastoral charges, it was on his districts he made his most successful mark and did his most successful work in the cause of the Redeemer. While planning for the Ministers and making the best provision he could, he always kept in view the best interests of his brethren and the Church, and endeavored to do the best he could for each and all, and was ecclesiastically and morally one of the best administrators of discipline in the Illinois Conference. His intellectual quality was very rare; his mind was of a practical quality and cast. He was not metaphysical in his mode of thought; not poetical to any extent in his mental conceptions, but his analytic power was remarkable. His mind was incisive, and went to the core of the subject. He looked upon everything from a practical standpoint, and not from a theoretical, thus causing his judgments to be almost infallible. He was a very superior preacher. There was no cant about him, no stage effect, no attempt at display, but there was clearness of statement, logical development of his subject, and a copiousness of illustration that made him really on his plane a preacher of surpassing power. He seemed to seize upon the salient points, the very essence and marrow of the truth, and so present it that every one who heard him could not but take hold of it and appropriate it. There was an undercurrent of pathos in his preaching which sometimes, when his heart was warmed, would burst out in great fountains of feeling that would move his audience and melt them to tears. He was a true man, honorable and upright in everything, a man of action, and having great contempt for meanness in every form. He was a man of strong intellectual powers, well cultivated; of wide mental grasp, but not incapable of entering into minute detail. He was a ready and correct writer. He was a thorough Methodist, not only by education but by conviction, believing and loving the doctrine and polity of the M. E. Church, and was true and loyal to all her interests. He loved the Illinois Conference, and his last message was: "Tell the Brethren I love them all."

He was a profoundly religious man, and while he never said much about his religion or religious experience, yet when he did speak his testimony was clear and unequivocal. With him religion was genuine, there was no profession beyond attainment, but his faith was strong, his experience clear, his hope calm and serene as an evening sky. His last sickness was long and painful, but he bore it with patience and resignation. He never wearied of conversing of his brethren in the ministry and of their work. Like Eli, he was ever solicitous of the ark of the covenant, and in his last moments, when his mind wandered over other things, and he would fail to recognize his own family, he never failed to recognize his ministerial brethren. He frequently spoke of the joy of meeting Akers, Cartwright, Crane, Newton Cloud, Jesse Moore, George Rutledge, Jonathan Stamper and others, and of hailing all his brethren when they cease their labor and enter into rest. To the last his faith was unfaltering, his testimony clear, and without a shudder he stepped down into the stream of death, passed over and hailed the redeemed on the other side.

Like the dying day passing away to rise again in orient splendor in the East, so he passed away from earthly sight to greet the glory of the day that has no night beyond it. Followed by fifty of his brethren, members of the Illinois Conference, his body was taken to Oak Ridge Cemetery, where it was laid at rest to await the resurrection of the just.

DR. B. C. WOOD.

Batchley C. Wood was born in Iredell county, North Carolina, November 5, 1797, and during his earliest years was taken by his parents to Warren county, Kentucky. Here on his father's ample plantation he was brought up to habits of industry and economy. His education was the result of his own careful and persevering use of the simplest advantages, and his industry and natural ability are attested by the fact that his mind showed so little of the narrowness which is sometimes a characterist of self-made men. He united with the Methodist Church in 1817, and having in the meantime studied theology under the direction of the neighboring ministers, was received in the Tennessee Conference in 1820. The next year he fell into the Kentucky Conference and filled in succession the Somerset, Barren, Bacon Creek and Green River Circuits. In 1825 and '26 he was superannuated. In 1827 he was on the Christian Circuit. Then for seven years he was superannuated, and in 1835 located. Finding much physical suffering on the Circuits he traveled, as the two professions of spiritual and bodily healing are compliments of one another, he studied medicine and began practice in 1829. The year after his admission to the ministry he was married in Pulaski county to Miss Nancy McCaw, with whom he came in 1834 to Greene county, Illinois.

The first fourteen years of his life there were devoted to the practice of medicine, when he again resumed his first and most sacred calling, laboring faithfully in Jerseyville, Jacksonville, Upper Alton, Greenfield, Naples, Exeter and Manchester charges. In 1863 he was granted a superannuated relation, in which he continued until his death, which occurred near Carrollton, Ill., January 16th, 1887, in his ninetieth year. For years he was so feeble as to be able to leave the house only on rare occasions. He had a fall which ended in something like paralysis, causing him to linger some months before he died. He retained a remarkable degree of intellectual and spiritual vigor for one so advanced in years. The strong points of his character were probably quite as manifest at eighty-five and later as they had been at earlier periods of his active life. He was a man of superior natural capacity, and of varied attainments. He had been an unquestioned master in two of the learned professions, and had large acquirements in the third, which made him one of the best church lawyers in the Conference. He came down to a very ripe old age, retaining vivid and intelligent recollections of the men and the times of historic and heroic Methodism. With Valentine Cook, Russell Bigelow and Bishop McKendree he was well acquainted. He knew more about the points involved in all great ecclesiastical, doctrinal and social crises of Methodism than any man of his day. His estimates of the actors in those eventful periods were most interesting, by reason of the intelligent and discriminating analysis to which he subjected them. He came out of those eventful experiences with a very tender heart, remarkably free from all taints of bitterness, and from dregs of human ambition.

No man had a larger charity for human weaknesses and errors; none had larger hopes for humanity. He constanty kept his finger upon the pulse of the church, an interested observer of all departments of her work. He often aroused the flagging columns by battle shouts that were freighted with the instincts and assurances of victory. He had a consuming enthusiasm for the success of the great benevolence of the Church, and was for years one of the most valuable supporters of every movement looking toward the spiritual or intellectual elevation of the people, whilst his private character and disposition were such as to win for him the warmest affection of those who knew him. He was a veritable landmark in Methodism, thoroughly grounded in her traditions, a most able exponent and defender in her theology and polity, and yet so broad, kind and catholic in his spirit and practice as to have retained the confidence and good will of all denominations of Christians.

His last ministerial service was on the Sabbath before he was hurt, when he baptised his youngest great-grandchild. His end was peace.

REV. J. S. KIRKPATRICK.

Rev. John S. Kirkpatrick, son of Augustus B. and Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, and grandson of Rev. John Kirkpatrick, who was probably the first local preacher licensed in Illinois, was born in Sangamon county, Ill., April 1, 1825. In 1829 his parents moved to Adams county, where John learned his letters on a lind paddle, at the first Sunday school organized in the county, in the house of George McMurray, and where he was converted in 1840. On Christmas day, 1845, he married Miss Sarah Bruce, who survives him. He was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1852, and traveled in succession the following charges: Liberty, two years; Littleton, Havana and Chili one year each. In 1857 he was superannuated. The next year he was sent to Pulaski, and for the two following years to Plymouth. In 1861-2 he served as Chaplain of the Seventh Missouri Cavalry. In 1863 he was assigned to the Rushville Circuit, and for the three following years to LaPrairie. In 1867 he was on the supernumerary list. In 1868-9 he was at Lima, and in 1870 at Mendon. In 1871 he was granted a superannuated relation in which he continued until his death. Brother Kirkpatrick removed to Kansas in 1876. His health being somewhat improved, he was appointed by Rev. J. W. Mitchell, P. E., to the Beloit Circuit, Northwestern Kansas Conference, which he supplied one year. Rev. J. H. Lockwood, P. E., secured his labor for three years on the Round Springs charge, and one year at Saltville. In 1883 his health failed so that he was unable to preach any more. He was a patient sufferer until his death, which occurred at his home in Mitchell county, Kansas, December 21, 1886, from hemorrhage of the lungs. His last words were, "All is over." He was a good man, a fair preacher and a consistent Christian.

REV. G. M. CRAYS.

Rev. George M. Crays, a superannuated member of the Illinois Conference, died at his home near Armstrong, May 1, 1887. Brother Crays was born in Sangamon county, Illinois, August 25, 1833, and was converted in Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1853. He was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1855, and was appointed junior preacher on the Danville Circuit. In 1856-7 he served Sangamon; 1858, Greenfield; 1859, Augusta and Pulaski; 1860-1, Lima; 1862-3, Nilwood; 1864, Mt. Sterling; 1865-6, Petersburg and Athens; 1867-8, Chandlerville; 1869-70, Topeka; 1871, Mason Circuit; 1872, Catlin; 1873, Ridge Farm; 1874, Bismarck; 1875-80, supernumerary; 1881-7, superannuated, though for the last two years of his life he served as a supply on the Gifford Circuit. On September 14, 1859, Brother Crays married Miss Maria Courtney, who with nine children survives him. Our brother seemed to be aware of the approach of death. He said to a brother watching with him, "My work is done;" then as it grew evident that his time was short he took farewell of children and wife, leaving a dying father's counsel. His composure was remarkable, his death was triumphant and his victory complete. Although Brother Crays's ministry was not as far-reaching and deversified as the ministry of some, yet he was a fair preacher, a faithful pastor, conscientiously performing the duties of the Methodist preacher, and there will be many in heaven who will look upon him as the chief instrument of their salvation. He has left the universal conviction on the minds of friends and neighbors that he really was what he professed to be.

REV. J. W. LAPHAM.

John W. Lapham was born near Decatur, Illinois, December 18th, 1832, and died in California in the summer of 1887. His father, Alonzo Lapham, was a pioneer local preacher in Eastern and Central Illinois. John was converted in the fall of 1850, studied for some time at McKendree College, after which he studied medicine and engaged in the practice of it at Taylorville. When the war of the rebellion broke out he enlisted in the army, serving as Captain and Major in the 115th Regiment of Illinois Volunteers, under Col. J. H. Moore. After the war he studied theology at the Garrett Biblical Institute, and in 1870 was received on trial in the Illinois Conference, in which he served the following charges: Lovington, Arcola Circuit, Oakland, Windsor, South Shelbyville, Palmer, Irving and Butler, Mt. Pulaski, Waynesville, Marshall Circuit, Sullivan, DeWitt and Deland. In 1884 he was placed on the superannuated list, on which he continued until his death. Brother Lapham was a man of remarkable zeal and persistence, which, after he entered the ministry, led him to continued efforts to increase the membership of his charges. And in some of his appointments he succeeded in inducing hundreds to unite with the church. Before his death his mind became seriously affected.

MRS. J. B. SEYMOUR.

JULIA, wife of Rev. J. B. Seymour, was born August 28, 1836, and died at the Methodist Parsonage, in Camargo, Illinois, April 19, 1887. She was converted and joined the M. E. Church in early life. Her entire Christian life was marked by cheerfulness, practical piety and sound judgment. As the wife of a soldier and chaplain; caring for her own dear children; trying to make her aged father and mother comfortable and happy; visiting the sick, she ever cheered the heart of those in trouble. Leading the prayer meeting, talking to penitents at the altar, she was the same noble-hearted Christian woman. In assisting her husband she was very useful, winning all hearts, and leading many to Christ. For more than twenty years she toiled cheerfully as the wife of an itinerant minister. Her illness was brief. Just at the close of a great revival in Camargo she passed peacefully away to rest, saying to her daughter, "I am going home, darling."

MRS. A. SLOAN.

MRS. MALVINA D. SLOAN, whose maiden name was Norton, was born in the State of Vermont, July 13th, 1829, and died at the parsonage in Ashland, Illinois, July 23d, 1887. She was converted when sixteen years old and joined the Baptist Church in Greenville, Illinois, of which her parents were among the very first members. She was married to Rev. A. Sloan in 1852, and when he entered the ministry, three years afterwards, she united with the Methodist Epicopal Church, joyfully accepting the life of an itinerant's wife, and doing what she could to honor her position.

In early life she was a teacher in the Georgetown Seminary, in its day one of the noted educational institutions in Eastern Illinois. She was a woman of decided force, extensive attainments and thorough consecration. Her path was largely through the furnace of affliction, but she found sustaining grace. Her last illness was brief, and none of her friends expected so speedy a termination of it. But from some lines she left in her Bible near the last chapter in the course of her daily reading, it would seem that she was apprised of the nearness of the Master's coming.

Sister Sloan loved the class-meeting and was regular in her attendance upon all the means of grace. A diligent and careful reader of the church papers, she noted the progress of the gospel, and earnestly prayed for its success in all lands. Her end was peace.

MARY McLEAN PINCKARD BALDWIN.

MRS. MARY M. BALDWIN was born in Upper Alton, Illinois, February 11, 1824, and died in Pana, Illinois, August 19, 1887. She was converted in Upper Alton when but a child, probably not more than seven years of age, but though so young, she had a bright religious experience, which she maintained until the end. Immediately after conversion she connected herself with the church to which she gave the devotion of her entire life. She loved the Methodist Episcopal Church with an unwavering affection, and was often called upon to endure privations in its behalf. She always put the interests of her Master's kingdom above every other concern. She married Rev. C. P. Baldwin, of the Illinois Conference, March 4, 1841, and with him began the life of an itinerant in 1849, and for forty-six years she walked by his side, a helpmeet and companion in all that these terms denote. The earlier years of that companionship were contemporaneous with the era of large circuits and meagre support, often requiring the absence of the husband from home for weeks at a time, and yet, though sometimes in feeble health, she never but once hindered her husband from meeting an appointment, and then her condition was so precarious that he doubted seeing her alive on his return if he left her. The motto of her life was, "Husband's duty first." She realized the greatness of his vocation as few wives ever did. Endowed naturally with a fine sense of discrimination, her judgment was much prized by her husband, and she enjoyed his confidence to an unlimited extent. Her last illness, though not of long duration, was very severe, and her sufferings were intense, but she patiently endured by faith in Jesus. She often expressed her implicit confidence in her Savior. Her last words were, "It is all right with me," and these were uttered only a little while before she took her departure. Her husband, three sons and four daughters survive.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was received and adopted as follows:

ON REUNION.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Illinois Lay Conference that it will be for the best interest of the Church of Christ that the two branches of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North and South, be re-united; and

Resolved, That the Lay Delegates to the next General Conference from the Illinois Conference be hereby instructed to use their influence to promote such reunion in such manner and upon such terms as may be just and right.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That we endorse the teaching of the descipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church which requires total abstinence on the part of the individual and legal prohibition on the part of the State.

That we regard the great question of prohibition as broarder than party, and that we are opposed to and shall strenously resist all efforts that may be made, directly or indirectly, to have the Methodist Episcopal Church endorse any political party.

That as it is the usual custom for Legislatures to permit the people to vote on any question of importance, the Legislature of Illinois should submit to the people of this State a Constitutional amendment abolishing the making and vending of intoxicating liquors as a beverage; and

That all our efforts for temperence should not be confined to securing the passage of new laws on this subject, but that all good citizens should unite and enforce the laws we already have.

LAY REPRESENTATION.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Illinois Lay Conference that it will be for the best interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church that the ratio of representation in the General Conference be changed so as to make the number of Lay Delegates more nearly equal to the number of Ministerial Delegates.

ON BISHOP TAYLOR.

Resolved, That the Lay Delegates from the Illinois Conference to the next General Conference are hereby instructed to use their efforts to secure to Bishop Taylor equal rank and privileges with the other Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted by your committee.

J. A. CHESTNUT. T. L. BURRILL.
THOS. SMITH. R. L. STEED.
JOHN SHUDEL. H. G. REEVES.
G. W. BOLINGER. J. R. HARKER.
J. M. HUCKSTEP.

A communication on tobacco, signed by Frances Willard and many others, was received.

The following resolution was moved by J. A. Chestnut, and adopted:

Resolved, That our Delegates to the next General Conference are hereby instructed to ascertain beforehand that every person for whom they shall cast a vote for Bishop, or any General Conference officer, is not (and for a satisfactory period has not been) addicted to the use of tobacco.

President Hornbeck, of Chaddock College, addressed the Conference briefly in the interest of that institution.

On motion of S. Welty a vote of thanks was given to the citizens of Decatur for their kind and generous hospitality.

Also a vote of thanks to the President and Secretary of the Conference.

Rev. T. I. Coultas presented an invitation from Bishop Foss and the Illinois Annual Conference to the Lay Conference, to attend a reception in the main audience room of the First M. E. Church at 4 P. M.

On motion the Conference accepted the invitation and stood adjourned.

W. F. CALHOUN, Chairman.

W. T. SMITH, Secretary.

ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

SIXTY-FIFTH SESSION.

JOURNAL FOR 1888.

FIRST DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 19th, 1888.

CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED.—The Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its sixty-fifth session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, Illinois, at 8:30 A. M., Bishop John P. Newman, D. D., LL. D., presiding.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.—Religious services were conducted by Bishop Newman, who, assisted by the Presiding Elders, administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the members of the Conference, and others present.

ROLL CALL.—The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll, and 159 answered to their names.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—On motion of H. Reed, C. Galeener was elected Secretary by acclamation, and on his nomination, R. G. Hobbs and D. F. Howe were elected assistants. C. F. McKown was elected Statistical Secretary, and John B. Martin, H. M. Hamill, W. M. Poe, R. L. Steed, E. A. Hamilton and H. C. Gibbs were elected assistants.

HOURS FOR SESSIONS.—The hours for meeting and adjourning were fixed at 8:30 A. M. and 11:45 A. M.

BAR OF CONFERENCE.—The bar of the Conference was fixed at the line of gallery pillars.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.—The Presiding Elders were constituted a nominating committee, and presented the following report. (See standing committees.)

TREASURERS ELECTED.—H. Wilson was elected Treasurer, and on his nomination J. G. Bonnell, A. Clarke and C. R. Morrison were elected assistants.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.—On motion of T. A. Parker a special committee of one from each district was appointed on young people's societies, and the following were appointed such committee: Bloomington, E. A. Hamilton; Champaign, C. B. Taylor; Danville, T. I. Coultas; Decatur, George Scrimger; Griggsville, F. C. Bruner; Jacksonville, W. H. Musgrove; Mattoon, E. B. Randle; Quincy, D. W. English; Springfield, Abner Clark.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF TRANSFERS.—The transfer of G. W. Barnett from the Kentucky, and Abraham Wells from the Tennessee to this Conference was announced.

SELECT NUMBER.—The Eighteenth Question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was taken up. The name of S. K. Coats was called, and his presiding elder, S. H. Whitlock, having announced that he had been suspended from the ministry for misconduct, the following were chosen as a select number in his case: M. H. Ewers, W. D. Best, C. A. Crane, F. M. Sisson, G. B. Wolfe, E. D. Wilkin, T. D. Weems, A. T. Orr, Joseph B. Martin.

Joseph Foxworthy was appointed chairman of the committee by the Bishop, and R. G. Hobbs was designated as secretary.

A. C. Byerly was appointed to prosecute, and W. C. Lacy was chosen counsel for the defense.

THE TWENTIETH QUESTION CALLED.—The Twentieth Question: "Was the character of each minister examined?" was taken up. Bloomington district was called. The character of George Stevens was passed, and he read his report, after which the characters of the following passed:

W. M. Johnson, W. R. Howard, Horace Reed, R. N. Davies, B. F. Hyde, J. P. McIntyre, C. Y. Hecox, J. W. Madison, E. A. Hamilton, P. N. Minear, John Everly, D. E. May, W. A. McKinney, W. McK. Gooding, J. E. Artz, G. W. Reed, S. G. Ferree, James Shaw.

Champaign District was called, and the Presiding Elder, T. A. Parker, read his report after the passage of his character.

INTRODUCTIONS.—Dr. W. A. Spencer was introduced and spoke in the interests of the Church Extension Society. Dr. Benjamin St. James Fry addressed the Conference in behalf of the Central Christian Advocate, and Dr. T. C. Iliff spoke on our mission interests in Utah.

Dr. James Shaw was elected soliciting agent for the Methodist Review.

PAPERS REFERRED.—Papers were referred as follows: General Conference expenses to the Presiding Elders, papers on Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education to the committee on that cause.

Dr. James H. Leaton was, on motion of J. H. Hobbs, placed on the Board of Stewards.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.—James Leaton asked as a question of privilege that his name and that of R. N. Davies be transposed in the Committee on Conference Historical Society, thus placing Dr. Davies first in order.

AFTERNOON SESSION ORDERED.—On motion of C. F. McKown it was ordered that when the Conference adjourn it be to meet at 2:00 P. M., for the collection of Statistics and Benevolent moneys.

Dr. R. M. Hatfield, of the Rock River Conference, and J. T. Pender, of the Southern Illinois Conference, were introduced.

Announcements were made, the doxology sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Hatfield.

REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following report:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

After a careful investigation into the financial status of this institution, by a Special Committee appointed for this purpose by the Joint Board of Trustees and Conference Visitors at its last annual session, the fact is revealed that this school rests on a solid and satisfactory financial basis. We hope that at no very distant day an endowment of sufficient magnitude may be secured, through the liberality of the many laymen residing within its large patronizing territory, whom God has made stewards of His larger trusts, that the officers of the University may be permanently relieved from all further anxiety in reference to even its largest necessities. It is the sense of this Conference that as soon as practicable an agent should be appointed by the Executive Committee to collect the unpaid subscriptions and notes, and further increase the endowment fund of the institution. We request the Executive Committee of the University to publish the financial report of the special committee appointed by the Joint Board of Trustees and visitors at its last session, in tract form, together with the charter of that institution, for general distribution. It is with special satisfaction that we note thus early in the opening term of the year the large receipts from tuition, revealing a gain in the attendance equal to, if not in excess of, any former term in the history of the institution. The healthful religious tone that pervades this institution, and the large attendance and earnest spirit that characterize the meetings of its religious societies, are a most encouraging feature to its many patrons and friends, and call for our devout thanksgiving to God.

In addition to the already able corps of teachers employed in this institution, our esteemed brother, Rev. W. H. Wilder, D. D., was elected to its presidency; and, while we deeply regret the loss of his valuable and efficient services as Presiding Elder or Pastor in the work of the Conference, we rejoice that his services have been secured to this, our leading institution, where we believe they will be crowned with equal success; and Prof. R. O. Graham, A. M., Ph. D., from Johns Hopkins University, who has been called to the chair of Natural Science, vice Prof. Thoburn, resigned, who starts in with the most flattering prospects in this department, and Prof. M. J. Elrod, A. M., of Simpson College, Iowa, has been chosen as assistant to the chair of Natural Science. Thus reinforced, and with every department so well provided, we confidently expect that a success hitherto unknown will crown the efforts of this earnest band of Christian educators. The provisions of the charter require the election of four Trustees at the Conference. We nominate as such Rev. J. A. Kumler, A. M., Abraham Mann, Denis Kenyon and Hon. L. H. Kerrick, A. M.; and we recommend as Conference visitors M. Auer, James Miller, J. H. Noble, A. T. Orr, W. A. Smith and W. H. Webster; and respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. H. Wilder, D. D., President, and Rev. C. M. Moss as Professor in the University.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Woman's Educational Association in its efforts to establish a Christian Home in Bloomington for lady students of the Illinois Wesleyan University, where board shall be furnished at the lowest available rates, and opportunities afforded of reducing to a minimum the expense of securing a liberal education.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The fall term of Chaddock College has opened with an increase of forty per cent. over the opening of last year, and is the best beginning the college has ever had.

The Literary Faculty remains the same as last year. An examination of the catalogue will show as broad a curriculum as the best Methodist colleges of the West. The Art Department enrolled seventy-four students the past year, and the work done was very satisfactory.

The Department of Music has taken a turn for the better. Miss Annie Gooding, a recent graduate from the College of Music at Bloomington, and a daughter of Rev. William McK. Gooding, of the Illinois Conference, has been elected Principal, and is finely prepared for her work.

The Quincy College of Medicine has been reorganized and made an organic part of Chaddock College under the title, Chaddock School of Medicine. The Trustees of the College elect the Medical Professors and have full control of the Medical School. It is the purpose of the Trustees and friends of the institution to give as much attention and devote as much means to the School of Medicine as circumstances will allow. They hope, with a good beginning, to build up the School, so that in a short time Chaddock School of Medicine will take rank with the best in the land. Within the past year the buildings have been repaired and put in good condition, inside and out. The dormitory has also been supplied with all necessary furniture.

Within the past vacation the Woman's Educational Association of Chaddock College has supplied both buildings with steam heating apparatus at a cost of $5,000, which in no way involves the Treasury of the College.

An extensive Laboratory has been arranged for, with stalls for students to work separately, provided with water and gas and all other appliances for a first class Laboratory.

It is surely not claiming too much to say that for suitableness, beauty and healthfulness, the Chaddock College property is unsurpassed.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. M. D. Hornbeck, S. T. B., A. M., as President, and we nominate J. H. Clark and Marcellus Chase as Trustees, and our pastors at Trinity (Quincy), Pittsfield, Rushville, Warsaw and Mt. Sterling as Conference Visitors.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Illinois Female College closed last June one of the most prosperous years in its history, the attendance being large and the work every way satisfactory to the patrons and friends. The building has been handsomely repainted and put in most excellent repair, inside and out.

The fall term opened with a large attendance September 12th. The Faculty in every department are prepared to do as good work as can be done in any institution in the country. We would therefore commend this old and justly popular institution to the patronage of our people and the general public, and, as this is the only institution in our Church west of Indiana which is exclusively devoted to the education of young ladies, we would call the attention of our people to the possibility of making it a great and increasingly useful institution by their generous patronage and liberal benefactions.

We recommend for President of the College Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., and for visitors the resident Methodist Episcopal pastors of Jacksonville and the Presiding Elder of Jacksonville District.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This institution is again commended to the highest regard of the Church. The past year has been the most successful in its history. Enlarged means and facilities now possessed are the sure pledge of continued success and prosperity.

The Faculty are unsurpassed in learning and zeal.

We nominate Revs. W. D. Best, Frank Crane and Horace Reed as Conference Visitors for the coming year.

DePAUW UNIVERSITY—SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

We desire to commend the efforts to build up a School of Theology in connection with DePauw University. The visitors report a successful year.

We recommend the appointment as Conference Visitors of Revs. A. M. Danely, C. Galeener and T. I. Coultas.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

The Boston School of Theology has been in successful operation so long, and is so well and widely known, that it needs no other commendation.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. E. B. Randle as Conference Visitor.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We heartily approve the action of our late General Conference in placing the Board of Education upon an equality with other great Boards of the Church, and its Secretary made elective, as are other connectional Secretaries.

It is cause for gratification and encouragement in our educational interests that the popularity of Children's Day is observed with annually increasing interest.

We recommend,

1. That the Day be observed in every charge in the Conference.

2. That it be used as an Educational Day, our preachers providing such information as shall awaken a desire among all our youth for a higher education, and exerting an influence to secure them to our seminaries and colleges.

3. That a Connectional Collection be taken on that day to aid our young people in securing a Christian education, and no other object be permitted to divert this collection from its legitimate end.

JAMES MILLER, Chairman.

W. A. SMITH, Secretary.

MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, In the advent of Christ to our world we behold the spirit and genius of the missionary idea; and,

WHEREAS, In the world's need of the Gospel is found the Church's responsibility, and the Providential opening of the doors to all heathendom for the Word of Life, her opportunity; and,

WHEREAS, The imperative command of our Lord is, "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations," that to Him may be given "the heathen for an inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for a possession;" therefore,

Resolved, That as pastors we pledge ourselves to carry out faithfully, to the utmost practicability, every provision of the discipline for raising missionary funds, in the distribution of our missionary literature and in the dissemination of missionary intelligence, in observing Easter Sunday as Missionary Day for the children and youth; that we will particularly recommend "Gospel in All Lands," "Missionary World," "Little Missionary," our tracts and books; that we will begin early in the Conference year an effort to secure at least a dollar per member.

We earnestly recommend the closing words of Chaplain McCabe's last appeal to the Church: "To the rank and file of the Church, Missionary Sunday comes once a year. The collection is taken and forgotten. The price of a pound of tea, perchance, or a pair of shoes, or a daily paper, is thrown into the plate, and something is said about "so many collections!" or, "I don't believe in foreign missions, any way!" It is different with the Missionary

Secretary. It seems as though he were in telephone communication with every race on earth, and that forever the plaintive voice of some sorrow-stricken woman or broken-hearted child were sounding in his ears: "Come to our help! Come to our help! Five, ten, fifty, a hundred, a thousand millions of us are sitting in darkness and in the regions of death. Send us the Gospel. Our hearts are sad; our homes are wretched; our lives are hung with blackness from the cradle to the grave! Send us the Light of the World!"

"Listen to such cries, morning, noon and night, and then look upon this Protestant Christian nation—the richest upon earth—whose wealth, as Josiah Strong has shown, is valued at $43,642,000,000, more than enough to buy the Russian and Turkish empires, the kingdoms of Sweden and Norway, Denmark and Italy, together with Australia, South Africa and all South American lands, mines, cities, factories, ships, flocks, herds, jewels, money, thrones, scepters, diadems and all—everything which they possess—and then confess that Judson's prayer was far within the bounds of reason and duty.

"We appeal to "every soul who loveth our nation;" to every one to whose believing heart Christ is precious; to every one who is living in expectation of one day seeing the King in beauty amid the glories of Heaven. We appeal to you all—the old and the young, the rich and poor! Help us! Help us to reach the Twelve Hundred Thousand Dollar Line by collections only."

M. M. DAVIDSON, President.

W. T. BEADLES, Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

After seven years of existence, four of which have been under the endorsement of the General Conference, we express ourselves as being heartily pleased with the spirit and work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and in relation thereto present the following resolutions:

First—That we will give encouragement to this Society by contributions to advance its work, and shall put forth greater efforts to secure the dissemination of Missionary intelligence.

Second—As pastors, we promise our hearty co-operation in the organization of auxiliaries, and will urge active and aggressive work wherever practical.

C. R. MORRISON, Chairman.

W. H. DAVIS, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Resolved, First, That we rejoice in the continued prosperity of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and hail with delight the fact that there has been a general advance in the collections of said Society throughout the Illinois Conference.

Resolved, Second, That we heartily encourage any and every effort by this Society to organize auxiliaries in our respective charges.

H. C. TURNER, Chairman.

E. A. HAMILTON, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

1st. Believing that the disciplinary plan for the organization of Sunday Schools can not be improved upon, and that our own publications are, par excellence, the literature for our schools, we recommend to our Pastors and Superintendents the advantage of these, and urge upon them such action as will bring all schools in Methodism under the Disciplinary requirements, and supply them with our own literature.

2d. We regret that the custom of holding Sunday School Conventions on the Sabbath, which has been so demoralizing to our regular Church services, is yet prevalent, and we urge our Pastors and people to use their influence to discourage such custom.

3d. It is of great importance that such children as are to become missionaries and teachers in our Church be properly educated. To raise a fund for this purpose, Children's Day has been instituted, and we condemn the unlawful appropriation of this fund in any other way.

4th. The benefits of a systematic study of the Bible and of Sunday School methods can not be over-estimated. We would especially call the attention of the preachers to the Normal Outline Studies, by Dr. Hurlbut, of our Sunday School Union, and recommend to our Pastors and Superintendents the organization of classes among the Sunday School workers and pupils for the more systematic study of the Bible and methods of work, as suggested by such outlines.

5th. A circular from the Sunday School Union has been placed in the hands of the Committee. It asks for an increased contribution to the cause, and apportions to this Conference the sum of $1,300, with the suggestion that this sum be referred to the Presiding Elders, to be apportioned by them among the various charges. The Committee approve the request and hope the amount will be raised.

6th. The Committee desire to refer to the merits of Our Youth, as a most suitable paper for the young people of our Church and Sunday Schools, and bespeak for it an increased circulation.

W. McK. GOODING, President.

C. B. TAYLOR, Secretary.

THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath, as a day of rest and holy convocation, is the gift of a beneficent Creator to the human race, a violation of which is detrimental to the physical, moral and religious interests of man; and,

WHEREAS, There is in this age an ever-increasing tendency to the Germanization of the Sabbath, in every shape and form; therefore,

Resolved, First, That we, as members of the Illinois Conference, both in the name of religion and law, protest against the opening of places of business on the Lord's Day, and against all kinds of traffic, wherever found.

Resolved, Second, That we disapprove the holding of political camp meetings on the Sabbath.

Resolved, Third, That the holding of camp meetings at which gate fees are taken on the Sabbath, and in connection with which excursion trains are run on that day, sanctioned and encouraged by the authorities of the meeting, is a violation of the Sabbath law, necessarily producing moral mischief and a total disregard of the sanctity of the day; and, therefore, it is the duty of Christian ministers to refrain from conducting or taking part in any such meetings.

Resolved, Fourth, That the position taken in regard to this question of Sabbath observance by the Pennsylvania Central and a few other eastern railroads, in refusing to run Sunday trains, demands our greatest esteem, and should have our heartiest commendation.

P. N. MINEAR, Chairman.

JOSEPH LONG, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, We have in the South 6,500,000 colored people, over 70 per cent of whom are unable to read or write; and,

WHEREAS, There are 20,000,000 of whites in the South, who, though constituting but one-third of our population, furnish three-fourths of the illiteracy of the whole country; and,

WHEREAS, Over 2,000,000 of these people are clothed with all the prerogatives of citizenship, including suffrage; and,

WHEREAS, The illiteracy of the South, among all races, is a barrier in the way of the legitimate work of the Church, in persuading men to accept Christ as Savior and Lord; and,

WHEREAS, The perpetuity of our government and the final and complete triumph of our Zion hinges upon the education and christianization of all peoples within our borders, that in obedience to a common Savior and love of our whole country, we may be a unit and homogeneous; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we urge every pastor, as a religious and patriotic duty, to devote one entire Sabbath each year to the presentation of this one cause to the people, and the solicitation, by public appeal and collection, of funds in its behalf.

2. That we recommend that the morning of Freedmen's Aid and Southern Society Day be devoted to a sermon crowded and bristling with the latest trials, conquests and providential leadings and indications in that part of our country; and that in the evening a popular concert be given by the Sunday School, assisted by the choir and such other help as may be available, in which the morning sermon may be recapitulated and emphasized by the aid of maps, drawings and charts, and in dialogue, recitation and song.

3. That we present sincere congratulations to the Rev. J. C. Hartzell, D. D., and felicitate ourselves upon his promotion by civil service process to the place so long and so worthily filled by the Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., and pledge ourselves to follow both the old Secretary and the new with our prayers, and to press our collections even beyond, if possible, the $5,000 asked for.

W. C. LACY, Chairman.

J. M. DRIVER, Secretary.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in First Church, Springfield, Ill., September 19, 1888.

James Leaton, W. H. Webster, James H. Noble, W. A. Smith and Horace Reed were present.

The President, James Leaton, occupied the chair.

On motion of J. H. Noble, the Secretary was instructed to nominate for the class of 1891, W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock and Preston Wood.

On motion of J. H. Noble, the Treasurer, W. H. Webster, was instructed to pay over to the Stewards all money for distribution among the superannuates, amounting to $385.41.

Adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

The Board of Trustees, at the call of the President, met September 22, 1888.

Present—James Leaton, H. Buck, W. H. Webster, S. H. Whitlock, W. A. Smith and H. Reed.

W. H. Webster, Treasurer, made his annual report, which was, on motion, received and placed on file.

On motion, M. D. Hawes was appointed to preach the annual Strawbridge sermon, with W. A. Smith as alternate.

James H. Noble moved that the two congregations in this city be requested to hold a united service on the occasion of the Strawbridge sermon.

JAMES LEATON, President.

H. REED, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, We regard the Holy Scriptures as "the only rule and sufficient rule, both of our faith and practice;" therefore,

Resolved, First, That we rejoice in the prosperity of the American Bible Society, and pledge to it our continued support.

Resolved, Second, That we favor their plan of enlisting our Sunday Schools in the work of Bible distribution, both at home and abroad.

WILLIAM J. RUTLEDGE, Chairman.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

WHEREAS, We have been greatly pleased and favorably impressed with the presence of the editor of the Methodist Review at the session of this Conference, and from the masterly manner in which he has represented its interests, and the masterly manner in which it promises to treat the great and living questions of the day, we are satisfied that it will be to the interest of all the preachers of the Conference to take the Methodist Review, and we do hereby recommend it, not only to the ministry, but to all the intelligent laymen of the Church, and, as occasion offers, we will present its claims to our people.

WHEREAS, We are more than ever pleased with the able manner in which the Central Christian Advocate is edited, and the aid which it has given in our ministerial work; and,

WHEREAS, The agents have made such liberal offers to new subscribers, by promising them the paper for fifteen months for one year's subscription price, and by promising to devote twenty-five cents of each subscription above the present list to the Conference Claimant Fund; therefore,

Resolved, That we will make special effort to double the subscription list for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That in the periodical, Our Youth, we find a publication that meets an urgent want of our young people. If we hold the man, we must secure the youth, and to do that we must have a live periodical for them that will inculcate the teachings and love of the Church.

WHEREAS, We are satisfied that there is no literature of equal value to our Sabbath School with that which is issued by our own publishing houses; therefore,

Resolved, That we are opposed to the introduction of other literature into our Sunday Schools.

WHEREAS, In the publications of our Book Concern we find a valuable aid in building up the Kingdom of Christ; therefore,

Resolved, That we will do what we can to spread our literature, and we most heartily recommend the book entitled "Faith Made Easy," by Rev. J. H. Potts, as a very valuable volume to our people who desire to become instructed in the doctrines of our holy religion. R. STEVENS, President.

J. D. FRY, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

The manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors is the moral plague of the nineteenth century. It is the prolific cause of idleness, dishonesty, licentiousness and violence. There are but few crimes that may not be traced to its influence. It is the crime of all crimes, "the sum of all villianies." It has filled our poorhouses, hospitals, asylums, jails, prisons and graveyards. It bribes witnesses, juries and magistrates, and thus corrupts our courts and perverts justice. It openly avows its disregard of all laws that have been passed to regulate and control it. It demands that all legislation shall be subservient to its supremely selfish and demoralizing business. It marshals the hosts of its degraded slaves to defeat every law that would be likely to check its career or punish its crimes.

We quote with hearty approbation the words of our Bishops in their last quadrennial address: "The liquor traffic is so pernicious in all its bearings, so inimical to the interests of honest trade, so repugnant to the moral sense, so injurious to the peace and order of society, so hurtful to the home, to the Church, and to the body politic, and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward it, for Christians, is that of relentless hostility. It can never be legalized without sin."

"We furthermore emphatically declare that men engaged in the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages, or those who use them, ought not to receive the suffrages of Christian people for any political office, or any position of influence on educational boards." (Rep. Gen. Con. Com., Sec. VI.) Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we recognize the complete legal prohibition of the traffic in alcoholic drinks as the duty of civil government, and that we will seek by all honorable means to secure the same.

2. That we are opposed to all license of the liquor traffic, either low or high.

3. That while we commend to the membership of our churches the most conscientious Christian scrutiny of the great issues and obligations of temperance, we leave to the individual conscience the determination of party affiliation.

4. That we are opposed to the use of churches for the presentation of partisan temperance.

5. That we reaffirm the report of the last General Conference Committee on Temperance, and that we urge its distribution, in tract form, throughout our Conference.

6. That we recall with pride the historic fact that the very foundation stone of the great temperance reform, in these latter days, was laid by the hands of infant Methodism, under the sanction of our saintly founder, John Wesley; and that, during its wonderful progress around the world, Methodism, true to its foundation, has ever faithfully proclaimed the gospel of Christian temperance. We therefore look joyfully and not impatiently to the achievements of the past, and render thanks to Almighty God for the grand work he hath already wrought at the hands of our beloved Church.

7. That we will preach against the drinking of alcoholic liquors, pointing out the sin and ruin of the habit; that we will preach against the liquor traffic, denouncing its criminality; that we will teach our people that those who vote to license the liquor traffic become particeps criminis with the liquor seller.

8. That we will urge upon the Temperance Committee of the Quarterly Conference to enlist our people in this great movement against the drink custom and against the drink traffic.

9. That we will make diligent efforts to obtain from the State Legislature such provisions as will secure for our children in the public schools a scientific knowledge of the physical, mental and moral effects of alcohol on human beings.

10. That we protest against the degredation of the Lord's Supper by substituting alcoholic liquor in the place of the divinely appointed "fruit of the vine."

11. That we heartily approve of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in its great "preventive, educational, evangelistic, social and legal work."

12. That we heartily sympathize with the National Temperance Society in its labors, and rejoice with it in its success.

13. That we, the Illinois Conference, respectfully ask our Legislature to enact laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within one mile of said institutions.

W. N. McELROY.
A. C. BYERLY.
HORACE REED.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We hail with delight the grand achievements of the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. This cause commands the admiration of the civilized world. Its growth has been marvelous; in twenty-two years the collections from Conference and miscellaneous sources aggregate $2,095,640.90, and capital and loans returned of $1,085,583.23, making a grand total of $3,187,724.13. In the Illinois Conference, from the beginning to last November, the total collections amounted to $23,147.02, only about 35 per cent of the amounts asked from year to year.

WHEREAS, The Church Extension Society this year asked for $5,000 from this Conference, owing to the increasing demand for money to prosecute the work; therefore,

Resolved, That we not only heartily endorse the Society, its officers and its work, but recommend that each pastor faithfully use the methods of the Discipline, and earnestly and constantly use all possible diligence to give increased efficiency to this part of our Church work, by raising the full apportionment for the cause of Church Extension.

Resolved, That the Local Board of Church Extension secure from the General Board, in the shape of donations, as much money as they may have applications for, and that they may approve as really necessary.

W. D. BEST, Chairman.

J. W. CRANE, Secretary.

PREACHERS' AID.

The character and object of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference is such that it should attract the attention and secure the careful consideration of every member of the Conference, especially the younger members. No young man should hesitate for an hour to identify himself with this Society, after the opportunity makes his admission possible.

We are glad to say that the capital stock is constantly increasing at an encouraging rate. The Society is already meeting a long felt want, and will ere long afford a comfortable support to the aged and worn-out veterans of our Conference.

We therefore commend this Society to the considerate attention of every member of the Conference. Respectfully submitted.

W. H. MUSGROVE, Chairman.

J. M. WEST, Secretary.

TRACT CAUSE.

WHEREAS, In the Tract Society, connected as it is with the work of the pastor, our Church recognizes an efficient agency for the awakening of sinners and the culture of converts; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we co-operate with the Society in the judicious distribution of these condensed, yet strong statements of Bible and moral truths.

1. By taking our collections for the cause on Glad Tidings Day, or at least early in the Conference year.

2. By a careful selection of the Quarterly Conference Committee on Tracts in each of our charges that will aid in the work of general and systematic distribution.

C. R. MORRISON, Chairman.

ANDRUS FUND.

We, the Committee on the Andrus Fund, report that the income from the same during the past year is $80, which sum we have paid to the Missionary Treasurer, and his receipt has been taken therefor.

JOHN A. KUMLER.
ROBERT STEPHENS.

BOOK CONCERN FUNDS.

The Committee on the distribution of Book Concern Funds to the Conference report:

That inasmuch as in those Conferences in which there are few or no superannuates, the salaries of the Traveling Preachers are usually largely deficient; and, in view of the fact that the profits of the Book Concern were intended originally for the support of needy Methodist Preachers, whether in effective or superannuated relation to the Church, we recommend that no change be made in the principle of distribution of said funds to the Conferences.

JAMES LEATON.
W. H. H. MOORE.
A. T. ORR.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your Committee on Episcopal Fund would respectfully report:

Total receipts for the year, $1,461, a deficiency of $838, thirty charges making no report.

WHEREAS, This deficiency is proportionately greater than that of the ministers in charge; therefore,

Resolved, That the Disciplinary plan be the rule of our action for the future.

G. W. BATES, Chairman.

BOYD McFADDEN, Secretary.

BLUFF PARK ASSOCIATION.

HENRY WILSON,
Treasurer Illinois Conference.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we have heard with profound sorrow, tidings of the death of Sister Villars, whose abundant labors have added largely to the strength and membership of our Church, and that we tender our sincerest sympathy to her bereaved husband.

The Illinois Conference has heard with sorrow of the severe and long continued affliction of Brother William E. Johnson, and, whilst rejoicing in the grace which has sustained him, would express their deep sympathy with him in his sufferings, and offer their earnest prayers for his recovery.

JAMES LEATON,
W. H. H. MOORE,
Committee.

REV. SAMUEL B. IVES.

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father, in His All-Wise Providence, has been pleased to call from labor to reward Rev. Samuel B. Ives, our beloved brother, class-mate and fellow-laborer in the vineyard of the Lord; therefore,

Resolved, That, as we bow in humble submission to the will of an All-Wise Providence, we realize that our class has lost one of its brightest and most promising members, and the Illinois Conference a young minister who gave promise of a life of more than ordinary usefulness.

Resolved, That the Conference class of which he was a member hereby express their sincere and deepest sorrow for their loss, in the seemingly untimely death of our brother, whose courteous manners, pure Christian character, and noble devotion to the cause of Christ, have won for him our highest admiration and Christian affection.

Resolved, That we hereby express to his bereaved wife our Christian sympathies, and we will pray that the Grace of God, which sustains, may be granted to her in proportion to her great loss.

C. B. TAYLOR, Chairman.
M. R. PALMER, Secretary.

REV. JAMES LEATON, D. D.

WHEREAS, The Scriptures authorize us to give honor and praise to whom honor and praise are due; therefore, on the occasion of Dr. James Leaton's superannuation, after the faithful labor of forty-five years, we deem it due him (and ourselves as well) to say he is greatly endeared to us, not only for what he has done, but for what he is to us—a brother beloved.

As Preacher, Pastor and Presiding Elder, he has been prompt, correct and efficient, and, as Conference Secretary for twenty-five years, and as Conference Historian, he has built for himself an enduring monument, and at the same time rendered us most important service.

We rejoice that Brother Leaton has learned the art of gracefully growing old, and we pray that he and his faithful wife may be led peacefully down the sunset slope of life, as they were led triumphantly up the hills of morn.

MEMOIRS.

REV. S. B. IVES.

S. B. Ives was born in 1847 in Long Island, N. Y., and at an early age removed with his parents to Springfield, Illinois. Completing his education in the city schools, he shortly thereafter entered into business. Associating himself with the Wabash Railroad in the department of the resident civil engineer, his success was soon assured. Here his business ability was developed and displayed, and during his life the habits of business never deserted him. Obtaining leave of absence from his employers, he completed a course of civil engineering at the Boston University, and returned soon to accept a very desirable appointment, for which he was well qualified. His advancement was rapid, and in 1881 he was filling the position of assistant superintendent of the Illinois Division of the Wabash. It was at this time, after having demonstrated his business ability, that there was imposed upon him the conviction that his life work was not to be in worldly business, but the ministry of the Gospel. At all times true to his convictions when satisfied of their genuineness, he immediately set aside his flattering future and entered upon a preparation for his new work.

After spending two years at Drew Theological Seminary, he returned to enter the Illinois Annual Conference. He was assigned for three years to the Auburn Circuit, and for the past two years to Mechanicsburg Station.

He brought to his work marked ability as an original thinker, high literary accomplishments, and culture of no common sort. His work was crowned with great success, and the common testimony of all who knew him is that the impress of his personality on the First Church at Springfield, where his invaluable labors with the young men of the Church are so highly appreciated, will continue even after the present generation has gone hence.

He was one of the most beautiful and manly characters which have ever adorned the fragrant history of the First Church, Springfield. There was about him no cant, no stage effect, no attempt at display. His candor decieved the deceitful. His liberality astonished the liberal and shamed the stingy. His chastity and cleanness of thought and conversation helped many a young man struggling in his first conflict with vice. Intellectually strong, well cultivated, of wide mental grasp, his heart was the largest part of him, and it was a common saying among the boys whose lives have been blessed by him that he had the heart of a giant.

Dying on what seemed to us the very threshold of a life of abundant labor, he yet has left a record of good deeds done on which many older ones might reflect with pleasure.

REV. JOHN SLATER.

Rev. John Slater was born in Hampshire County, Virginia, September 15, 1820, and died in peace at Oakland, Ill., October 8, 1887. He was converted when a young man and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Licking County, Ohio, under the ministry of Dr. Asbury Lowrey. He was soon after licensed to exhort, and later to preach. In 1839 he married Eliza A. McVicker, and afterward emigrated to Vermillion County, Illinois, where he labored faithfully and acceptably as a local preacher until 1853, when he was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference. His first appointment was New Albany Circuit, which he served one year. Then, in succession, he labored for two years each in Martinsville, Taylorville and Sangamon Circuits. In 1860 he received a location and afterward engaged in a mercantile business. In 1879 he was re-admitted in the Conference and filled the following charges: Raymond and Blue Mound, one year each; Oconee, three years, and Pilot two years. In 1886, being no longer able to endure the hardships of the itineracy, he was granted a superannuated relation, in which he remained till his death. Brother Slater had good ability as a preacher, was unusually gifted in prayer, and was faithful in the discharge of his ministerial duties. His daily life and conversation were in fullest accord with a perfect Christian manhood. He was a lover of good books, and also kept himself well posted in passing events. He bore his last illness with Christian patience and resignation. He leaves a wife and two children, his first born son having fallen in defense of his country, and a married daughter preceding her father a few months to the heavenly rest.

REV. G. GARNER.

Rev. Greenberry Garner was born in Clark County, Indiana, March 11, 1816, and died at Ashland, Ill., November 24, 1887. He had attended the public Thanksgiving services on that day in his usual health, and had assisted by making a short address. While sitting in his chair after dinner, engaged in conversation, his head suddenly dropped on the back of the chair, and he was gone. He was converted in his eighteenth year under the ministry of his father, Rev. James Garner, one of the pioneer preachers of Indiana and Illinois. In 1847 he entered the itineracy in the Illinois Conference, and traveled, in the order named, the following charges: Waterloo, Salem, Pulaski, Havana, Fancy Creek, Clinton, Mt. Pleasant, Danville, Georgetown, Camargo, Sangamon, Leroy, Mt. Pulaski, DeWitt, Camden, Rushville, Littleton, Labuda, New Hartford, Chandlerville, Ashland and North Jacksonville. When superannuated, he returned to Ashland, which was his residence until his death. In 1836 he married Miss Mary J. Redman, who survives him. Ten children were born unto them, of whom seven are still living. Brother Garner's parents and grandparents, on both sides, and all his brothers and sisters, ten in number, were active, useful Christians and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Brother Garner was a good preacher, a devout Christian, a prudent man, quiet, but warm-hearted, conscientious and faithful. Great success attended his labors in the Gospel. It is probable that not fewer than four or five thousand souls were converted through his instrumentality during his long and laborious ministry. Many of the charges he traveled were large four weeks circuits, in which he had the assistance of a young man as his junior, and to whom he became an instructor in the itinerant work. And, taking the young men who traveled with him and received from him their first lessons in the practical work of the itineracy, and those of his converts who have entered the ministry and done good service for the Lord, but very few of the fathers in the Church will have more such stars in their crown of rejoicing.

REV. F. W. PHILLIPS.

Franklin William Phillips was born in Montgomery County, Kentucky, November 5, 1827, and died of carbuncle, in Jacksonville, Ill., January 17, 1888. He was the son of Rev. William Phillips, a noted preacher of the Kentucky Conference, who died soon after his election as assistant editor of the Western Christian Advocate, and of whom Dr. Redford says: "Not only in the pulpit did he evince a high order of talents, but he wielded his pen with a master's hand. Nor was his ability and usefulness confined to his gifts as a polemic. In every department of the Christian ministry he excelled. As a practical preacher he had but few equals in the West; while his persuasive powers contributed to his success in winning souls to Christ."

His father and mother dying, Franklin was left at the age of nine years to battle his way through the world. This he bravely did—a fact that doubtless had much to do with developing that energy and sturdy independence which characterized his manhood life. After the death of his parents he went to Indiana and lived with an uncle for about four years, and then to Cincinnati to reside with his older brother, J. M. Phillips, now senior agent of our Book Concern in New York, then engaged in the Book Concern in Cincinnati. While living with his brother he entered Woodward College, where he continued until, finding that close confinement at hard study was impairing his health, he sought more active employment for the purpose of physical recuperation. He concluded that a sound mind is best retained in a sound body, and so he served an apprenticeship at the carpenter trade. This change corrected a growing tendency to chest trouble and aided in developing that magnificent stalwart manhood which gave him such a commanding presence, and at the same time gave him the mastery of a useful trade, a great boon to any man in any calling or profession. He acquired a taste and talent for architecture which would doubtless have opened the way to wealth, but God had other work for him to do.

He was converted February 5, 1845, in his eighteenth year, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cincinnati. Soon after he was divinely drawn toward the Christian ministry. He commenced preaching when about twenty years of age, and in the fall of 1848, being in the State of Kentucky, he entered the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His first appointment was Bloomfield. He was then appointed successively to New Castle, Bedford, London and Manchester, Pikeston and Prestonsburg, Georgetown, North Middleton, Paris and Perryville. In 1856 he located. His location was made necessary by a disease of the throat, and his voice completely broke down; although otherwise a man of robust health, he was compelled on this account to give up the active work of the ministry. Having already acquired a considerable knowledge of medicine, he now gave his undivided attention to it. He attended lectures in Louisville, Ky., and then entering upon the medical profession, he soon built up a large and lucrative practice. The orthodox theory is decidedly averse to turning aside from the ministry for any other profession or pursuit. But the case of Brother Phillips was very different. Physically disqualified for the time for the work of the ministry, it was not only his privilege, but duty demanded that he should engage in some other useful employment, and what more appropriate employment than the medical profession? Between the ministry and the medical profession there is a natural sympathy. Going from the care of souls to caring for the bodies of men involves no abrupt transition. Both professions are philanthropic and have the divine sanction. Luke was "the beloved physician" as well as the inspired evangelist. Our brother, like his Divine Master, not only wrought at the carpenter's trade, but, like him, also offered healing to the souls and bodies of men.

Brother Phillips was married October, 1853, to Miss Lucy J. Dungan, of Maysville, Ky., the daughter of Rev. Richard J. Dungan, a member of the Kentucky Conference. His widow and three sons are left to mourn his departure. But he has left them the heritage of a spotless name, and a character for integrity, true and tried. In the dark days of the civil war, when every means possible was used to injure and intimidate Union men in the south, Dr. Phillips maintained an unfaltering devotion to the cause of the Union. He was an anti-slavery man, and a Union man from principle, and although he suffered loss of property and was constantly exposed to personal peril and even death, still his loyalty was unshaken. He was a man of strong convictions and firm purpose, and he had the courage of his convictions. Naturally of a conservative temperament, he was not obtrusive in the utterance of his sentiments, but those who took his conservatism for a compromising or a time-serving spirit entirely misapprehended him. His convictions once formed, and his purpose fixed, he stood like a granite wall.

He came to Illinois in 1864, and after stopping awhile with friends in Car-linville, he was called to fill a vacant charge in Mattoon. He took hold of the work with his accustomed energy. He built up a flourishing society, and after a successful ministry of nearly two years he joined the Illinois Conference and was assigned to East charge, Jacksonville, in 1866. Here he spent three prosperous years, beloved and honored by the entire community. He had a gracious revival, and succeeded in raising money for building a parsonage, and carried forward the project of church building so far as to have the basement dedicated before he left. His next charge was the First Church in Springfield, where he remained three years. In 1872 he was returned to Centenary, Jacksonville. In 1873 he was appointed to the Danville district, and although he only remained one year on the district, he impressed the preachers and people as possessing rare fitness for the presiding eldership. In 1874 he was elected superintendent of the State Institution for the Blind, which position he filled till his death.

In his ministry of nearly 20 years he was strong, popular and successful. Nearly every charge he served was blessed with a revival, and that without outside aid. He believed that every pastor should be his own evangelist. He acted on this belief, and by satisfactory results demonstrated the correctness of his theory. Of Dr. Phillips as a man, a Christain, a minister, a citizen, a superintendent, much more might be said, much more indeed than the brief limits of this tribute will allow. He was a fine specimen of a high-toned, dignified Christian gentleman. He had a great aversion to mere pretense and sham. In his intercourse with society he was candid, but courteous and honorable. In his personal appearance he was dignified and somewhat reserved, but an intimate acquaintance showed him to be a genial companion. In his friendship he was sincere and faithful. In his religious life he was not demonstrative or emotional, but practical. He was a man of fine executive ability, as his superintendency of the State Institute attests. During his thirteen years connection with this intstitution he won the confidence of all, and every interest of the institution was cared for and by wise methods promoted. His life work is ended, and from our point of view it would seem all too soon. But God has called him and we cannot sit in judgment on the wisdom of the act.

REV. MILO BUTLER, M. D.

Rev. Milo Butler, M. D., was born in Pompey, Onondaga county, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1808. After receiving his education in the schools of the country, he studied and engaged in the practice of medicine. He was converted in 1831, and the same year was married to Miss Lydia A. Goodwin, daughter of Rev. Timothy Goodwin, then of the Black River Conference. In 1834 he moved to Ohio, where in 1838 he was licensed to exhort, and the following year to preach. In 1843 he was received on trial in the Erie Conference, and was appointed in succession to the following charges: Newburg, Middleburg two years, Chardon two years, Warren and Braceville. At the close of his second year there he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, and was assigned successively to Quincy, Columbus two years, Griggsville, Perry two years,

Winchester and Urbana. In 1859 he was granted a superannuated relation, in which he remained two years. Then he was assigned to Paxton for two years, at the expiration of which he was again placed on the superannuated list, in which he remained until 1868, when he was appointed to Beverly. But the work was too much for him, and at the next session of Conference he again became a superannuate, and remained such until his death. After his retirement from the regnlar itinerant work, he removed to Shelbina, Mo., where, whilst practicing as a physician, he labored in preaching and pastoral work as extensively as his strength would permit, and only ceased when advancing age and infirmity would permit him to labor no longer. After an illness of two weeks he died Nov. 12, 1887, having just entered on his eightieth year. Dr. Butler was esteemed by all who knew him as a quiet, refined, Christian gentleman. As a preacher he was clear, scriptural and practical, but always tender and impressive. It was evident to all who heard him that he preached Jesus as he knew him and because he knew him. He loved to preach, and even with failing strength and enfeebled body he loved to tell the story of a Savior's love. The internal life shone out in all his sermons; there was no superfluity of words or gestures; he uttered in mild but earnest tones things beautiful and forcible, and success followed in conversions and revivals during all his ministry. In his home life the affections were always bright and sweet, combined with great meekness and simplicity. He maintained in his spirit the freshness of perpetual youth, and was full of a great contentment, which was like the dawn of the coming heaven. He was full of joyous thanksgiving, and often spoke of his increasing spiritual enjoyments as the years passed, as though he might be walking in light from the open doors of the celestial city. His communings with God were wonderful; no one hearing him pray with his deep, overpowering inspiration could ever forget him. In the outgoings of his spirit, the intensity of his love for Christ, and the assurance of his faith, he has left a legacy of precious memories to those who mourn his loss.

REV. COLIN D. JAMES.

Rev. Colin D. James was born in Randolph county, Va., Jan. 15, 1808, and died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Hawk, near Bonita, Kan., Jan. 30, 1888. His father was a physician and local preacher who had removed at an early day to Vigo county, Ind., and who is described by one who knew him well as "a tall, straight man, and an excellent preacher." Brother James was converted at a camp meeting near Paris, Ill., in the summer of 1827, and in 1834 was received on trial in the Illinois Conference, in which he filled in succession the following charges: Rock Island two years, Platteville, Apple River, Paris, Eugene, Georgetown, Shelbyville, Paris, Grafton two years, Sparta District three years, Lebanon District two years, Alton District one year, Bloomington District two years, Jacksonville, East Charge two years, Winchester, Jacksonville Circuit two years, Greenfield, Island Grove two years, agent for Illinois Conference Female College, Oldtown two years, Heyworth, Normal, Atlanta, McLean and Shirely one year each. In 1869 and '70 he was on the superannuated list. In 1871 he served as agent for the Normal church, and at the close of the year was again granted a superannuated relation, in which he remained until his death. In 1863 he settled in the neighborhood of Normal, that his growing family might enjoy the educational advantages afforded there, and in 1876 he removed to Evanston with the same object. Brother James was twice married. His first wife was Miss Eliza A. Plasters, of Livingston, Ill., who died in 1849. In 1850 he married Miss Amanda K. Casad, daughter of Dr. Casad, of Lebanon, with whom he lived until her death in 1878. He was the father of thirteen children, ten of whom still live as honorable and useful members of society. Of his sons are George James, of the Decatur High School, and Prof. Edmund J. James, formerly of Normal, but now of Philadelphia, and one of the associate editors of Our Day. As a preacher, Brother James was exceedingly practical, sententious, pithy, earnest and devoted. His sermons were useful rather than popular. As a Methodist preacher he was faithful and conscientious in attending to all the details of the pastoral work, blessed often with good revivals, and leaving his charges in a better condition than he found them. A good man, a useful minister, "he rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

MRS. LOIS STRATTON RUTLEDGE.

Mrs. Lois Stratton Rutledge was born in Randolph county, Ill., March 9, 1822, and died at Lincoln, Ill., Sept. 30, 1887. Her father, Col. Charles Stratton, emigrated from Maine (his native state) and settled near Kaskaskia, the oldest settlement in Illinois, where he continued to reside until October, 1827, when he removed to Pike county, Ill., and settled on the Mississippi bottom below Quincy.

Mrs. Stratton, mother of deceased, was an estimable and accomplished Christian lady of rare courage, both natural and moral. She was the only daughter of Capt. John Beard, long commander of the Cumberland District under Gen. Andrew Jackson, of whom Gov. Reynolds says in Pioneer History: "Capt. John Beard was the bravest, as his son, Senator Allcorn Beard, was the most accomplished of the men of those early times."

Shortly before this last removal, the subject of this memoir, though only a little child, gave her heart to God, and with a brother and two sisters was baptised and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the ministry of Rev. Josiah Patterson.

Soon after the Stratton family were settled in their new home in Pike county their house became a preaching place in the Blue River Mission, afterward Atlas Circuit. The opening of this humble home for the public worship of God, where Trotter, Cartwright, Akers and other able and heroic men dispensed the word of life under the divine blessing, resulted in the permanent establishment of a very prosperous Methodist Church (Akers's Chapel) where multitudes have been converted, and from which church many have gone forth as ministers, missionaries and teachers of the word of life to bless the world and lift it toward Heaven.

Col. Charles Stratton, who was a man of sterling worth and a Christian of unblemished character, aided by his heroic wife, together with their children, who, by inheritance, assimilation and by the grace of God, possessed the virtues of their parents in a high degree, set in motion in his own neighborhood waves of blessing to mankind which have been widening to the present time, and will, through all the years, till time shall be no more.

Mrs. Rutledge enjoyed the advantages of education which were common in those early days, and also pursued the higher branches of education at the "Institute" near Quincy, Ill., under the management of the celebrated Dr. Nelson.

September 14, 1843, she was united in marriage to Rev. W. J. Rutledge, of the Illinois Conference, by whose side she walked in the itinerant ministry more than forty-four years. She was the mother of eleven children and the foster-mother of three orphan girls, left to her in their early childhood, thus constituting a family of sixteen, one-half of whom have crossed the flood, and occupy to-day the "house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

Possessing a vigorous constitution, with great powers of endurance, few women have been able to do the work for others that she did in her day. The wise man's words described her perfectly, as she was seen, the central figure in her home, with husband and children about her, whose every want she was so quick to see, and ever ready to supply. "She worketh with her hands willingly;" "She riseth also while it is yet night and giveth meat to her household; she looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness." "Her children arise and call her blessed, her husband also and he praiseth her." None delighted more than she to extend the hospitalities of her home to all who entered it. Many faint and weary toilers in the Master's work have been refreshed and rested in her neat and cozy home. Bishops Waugh, Morris and Simpson doubtless remembered her hospitality to their dying day. And Bishop Taylor, too, as he lays himself upon the ground to sleep and rests his weary head upon the stony pillow, with the skies of Africa for the ceiling of his chamber, doubtless calls to mind the rare and beautiful hospitality extended to him and his family in the house of Sister Rutledge. These generous hospitalities were not like angels' visits, "few and far between," but they were of almost daily occurrence. Such homes as hers are never wanting in opportunity, and such women as she never fail to improve their opportunities. Her home was her empire, where she reigned in quiet, queenly grace and loveliness. No shadows were allowed to linger in her path or throw their somber folds about her life. She wore no cloud upon her face to render sad the heart of husband, child or friend. Her soul was full of light and hope. In life's allotment of care and toil she was mercifully exempt from the afflictions borne by many. In the process of removal from the earthly to the Heavenly home she was spared the physical sufferings which are common. In comparatively good health, enjoying the companionship of beloved children and grand-children, she was stricken with paralysis, and sank down, as though weary, to rest. She lingered from Monday, September 26, until Friday, September 30, when, without a pain or a groan, she sweetly fell asleep, as calmly as an infant in its mother's arms. She was conscious until near the end. She had no fear of death, but testified to a beautiful acquiesence in the divine will and a profound peace of mind through the merits of her precious Savior, to which must be added the testimony of her well spent life.

Forty-four years of faithful domestic toil and duty were completed. Her youngest child had grown to manhood. She had done her best to care for and educate her children, to fit them to be useful members of society. The youngest one had gone from home, armed with a mother's counsels, prayers and blessing to engage in life's battle. And in two short weeks this noble Christian wife and mother, the ornament and the guardian of a happy home, went from it to a happier home in Heaven, ever more to dwell with Christ and with the angels and the loved ones gone before.

MRS. JOSEPH LONG.

Eleanor Maria Leighton was born at Yaxley, Huntingdonshire, England, Jan. 20, 1843. Her father, Peter Leighton, was a sergeant-major under the Duke of Wellington, and received a sword and a medal of honor for bravery at the battle of Waterloo. Sister Long, who was the youngest of nine children, was married to Rev. Joseph Long, at Downham Market, in Norfolk, in 1879, and in 1874, with her husband, came to America. Three weeks after their arrival, Brother Long united with the Illinois Conference, and from that time until her death she shared with him the labors of the itinerancy. She was converted in 1876 at Leroy, Ill., during a series of meetings held by Rev. J. B. Seymour. She was a woman of great decision of character, clear and decided in her conviction of the right and hatred of the wrong. Whilst outspoken and fearless in her denunciations of what she regarded as evil, she was self-denying and generous almost to a fault. She was a loving and faithful wife, and an unswerving friend. For years before her death she was at intervals a great sufferer. Her last illness began in August, at Hoopeston, where her husband was pastor. Getting somewhat better, she was taken, at her request, to the parsonage at Rossville to remain while her husband attended Conference. There, kindly cared for by the family of Brother Beadles, the pastor, she remained until October 11th, when she passed away. Much of the time her mind was clouded with delirium, but in her lucid moments she expressed an unshaken confidence in the power of Christ to save. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Rossville.

MRS. MARTHA ANN PRENTICE.

Mrs. Martha Ann Prentice died in Springfield, Ill., October 27, 1887. Her maiden name was Wash. She was born in Logan county, Ky., January 8, 1823. When but a child she removed with her parents to Vandalia, Ill. In 1842 she was married to William S. Prentice, who united with the Illinois Conference in 1849, and with him for thirty-five years she shared the joys and sorrows of a minister's wife. He died June 28, 1887, and she was not long separated from him. On the 22d of the following October she was stricken with paralysis, and five days later quietly passed away. She leaves five children, two sons and three daughters, and an only brother, Hon. Milton Wash, of St. Louis. Mrs. Prentice was very quiet and unassuming in her manners, domestic in her habits and tastes, regarding her home as the special sphere of her labor and influence, and living chiefly to promote the happiness of her husband and children. Much of Solomon's description of the model woman might be safely applied to her. The day before her death she was noticed motioning with her left hand, which was the only limb she had control of, and on being asked if she wanted anything she shook her head and put out her hand as if to grasp something. She was asked if she saw any one, and if so, who it was. Her face brightened, and with all the strength she could control she said, "Pa, Pa," as she always called her husband, and as long as she remained conscious continued to look where she thought she saw him, and to smile and beckon to him.

MRS. CALVIN W. LEWIS.

We deeply regret that our information is so meager in regard to this wise, good woman, as none of her relatives now live in this vicinity. Her life was so blended with that of her husband that we need only say that she was truly "a help-meet," and every way worthy of him. We are of opinion that she was married to Rev. C. W. Lewis before he joined the Kentucky Conference in 1837, where they continued until 1841, when he located and came to Illinois, where for several years he was a teacher. He joined the Illinois Conference in 1847, and was a very efficient minister until his death, in 1852. Our remembrance of Sister Lewis is that she was an intelligent, faithful and good woman, bearing patiently her part of the itinerant's burden, and always rejoicing in her husband's success. He was a man of marked ability, and they were "not unequally yoked together." After a widowhood of thirty-five years this noble woman was brought here in November last for burial with kindred long since deceased. The funeral services were conducted in the First Church, Springfield, by Dr. McElroy.

MRS. ALICE WEBB FALCONER.

Alice Webb was born in Manchester, England, February 1, 1817, and died at Parsons, Kan., November 7, 1887. When she was two years old her parents removed to America and settled in Baltimore. There, in her fifteenth year, she was converted in the old Light Street church, the cradle of Methodism, and the spiritual birthplace of thousands. Her conversation was clear, and her subsequent growth in grace rapid. She at once became an active and efficient worker in the church, and was noted for her remarkable power in prayer. Her family having removed to Petersburg, Ill., in 1843 she became the wife of Rev. E. G. Falconer, of the Illinois Conference, with whom she endured for five years the toils and privations of the itinerant life, and then for twenty-four years the more severe privations of superannuation. Her husband died in 1872, and from that time until her death she was truly one of Paul's widows indeed, trusting in God, continuing in prayers and supplications night and day, and diligently following every good work. She was the mother of seven children, four of whom preceded her to the spirit world. Whilst visiting a daughter at Parsons, Kan., she was taken suddenly with a chill, and in less than a week passed away. Her body was brought to Decatur and was buried from the First M. E. church, of which, for more than thirty years, she had been a faithful, active and honored member.

MRS. W. T. BENNETT.

Rebecca J. Roberts was born in Virginia October 5, 1811, whence she removed with her parents to Washington County, Pennsylvania. After the death of her parents she lived with her uncle, Dr. James Roberts. She was converted at quite an early age, at Harrisburg, Pa., under the ministrations of Rev. Joseph Lybrand. In 1833 she came with her uncle to Illinois, settling in Jacksonville. From there she moved to Ottawa, Ill. On June 6, 1836, she married Rev. W. T. Bennett, now of the Illinois Conference. After fifty-two years of married life she passed away peacefully without a struggle, February 15, 1888. Her funeral was held in Mechanicsburg Methodist Episcopal Church, Friday, February 17, Rev. M. M. Davidson, of Virginia, Ill., Rev. J. B. Colwell, of Williamsville, Ill., Rev. W. M. Poe, of Buffalo, and the pastor of Mechanicsburg charge taking part in the services. Her remains were interred in the Mechanicsburg cemetery. The meager facts given above merely outline a life of more than ordinary Christian vigor and influence. The wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher had much to endure in the pioneer times of thirty-five years ago. The hardships in her life found her brave and courageous to meet them. The responsibilities that came found her willing and ready to assume them. For many years she was a great but patient sufferer. At a cottage prayer meeting, gotten up especially for her at her home recently, her testimony as to God's power to give comfort and peace, even in great bodily affliction, impressed those present wonderfully. On one occasion lately, thinking she was dying, her friends having gathered about her bed, she said: "If this be dying, it is glorious." An incident which is never to be forgotten was the gathering of the family and friends in one room—her body being in the adjoining room—the assembled friends uniting in prayer and singing softly and prayerfully, yet with the joy and hope of Christians, Sister Bennett's favorite hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

NOTICE OF PUBLISHERS.

To the Ministers and Members of the Illinois Conference:

These Minutes are for you; read and study them. They contain the Journal and Records, the Reports and Status, not only of the Conference, but of every Charge and District in the Conference; each Pastor and each Benevolence, each Charge and the Moneys reported from same here appear. They are accessible to the people nowhere else. These are the Pastor's vouchers and reports of his work. They indicate the good name of our pastors. These Reports and Minutes are indispensible. Every family in Methodism in Illinois Conference should possess and study them.

The Appendixes added hereto from year to year have added greatly to their interest and value. These Appendixes should be carefully preserved, as they will not soon be republished.

The Advertisements herewith inserted are notices of only such institutions and departments of business as are worthy and reliable. The men in their control and management are entitled to the confidence of our people and patronage of all interested. We take pleasure in giving them our hearty commendation.

JOHN A. KUMLER,
HENRY WILSON,
Publishers of Conference Minutes.

JACKSONVILLE, ILL., November 1, 1888.

HISTORICAL APPENDIX.

CONFERENCE CLASSES.

NOTE.—The Historical Appendixes to the Conference Minutes for the years 1885-'86-'87-'88 were compiled and edited by the Rev. James Leaton, D. D.

PUBLISHERS.

In the following pages are recorded the names of those who became connected with the Illinois Conference in the successive years of its existence. In the class of 1824, the first item after the name is the Conference with which the preacher first united and the year of such union; then in succession the different Conferences of which he became a member; then the mode and year in which his Conference membership terminated; and lastly, the number of years of effective service rendered by him to the church. After 1824, when no year or Conference is mentioned, the preacher became a probationer in the Illinois Conference in the year under which his name occurs.

Abbreviations are used as follows:

Con.—Conference.	M. E. Ch. S.—Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
Rec.—Received on trial.	P. E. Ch.—Protestant Episcopal Church.
Dis.—Discontinued.	Pres.—Presbyterian Church.
Loc.—Located.	U. B.—United Brethren Church.
Read.—Readmitted.	Ev. Ass.—Evangelical Association.
W.—Withrawn.	Dep.—Deposed from the Ministry.
Eff.—Effective.	Sup.—Supernumerary or Superannuated.
Ex.—Expelled.	Un.—Unknown. This is used in the cases in which the General Minutes fail to show what became of the preacher.

When the termination of a preacher's relation is not specified, it indicates that he is still a member of the Conference last mentioned. After the first date is given in each case, the figures indicating the century are omitted.

REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

It is with pleasure we record the prosperity and mention the superior work and hopeful outlook of our home university. The past year has been one of activity and splendid results. A fine spirit is manifest by both instructors and students.

More students were in attendance last year than at any previous time, and while the expenses were, probably, larger than usual, they were fully met, and a balance remains in the treasury.

The faculty of the College of Letters remains unchanged, but new instructors have been placed over some of the other departments.

Prof. Calvin W. Green, M. A., has been chosen principal of the Academic and Preparatory Departments. The courses of study in these have recently been carefully revised so as to combine thoroughness with practicability.

The College of Music, under the proficient direction of Prof. Gray, has been much improved, and every facility is offered those who may wish to study music in its various branches.

The able corps of legal gentlemen composing the faculty of the Law Department is sufficient guarantee to those who are preparing for the profession of law that time well spent in the University must result in proper qualifications for the bar.

The Natural Sciences are by no means neglected, but receive special attention. The liberality of Mr. David S. Shellabarger, of Decatur, Ill., and others, has enabled the Trustees to equip with great care and thoroughness such chemical and other laboratories as are needed for instruction in all branches of the sciences. The aim is to make possible original work in all departments of chemistry, biology and the like. Prof. Graham has proved himself to be all that can be wished as an instructor in the scientific studies.

The Board has employed Margaret D. Langstaff, a graduate of the Northwestern School of Oratory, and a thoroughly competent instructor in the theory and art of elocution, who will have charge of so much of the course as belongs to the subject. For special instruction in elocution a moderate extra charge will be made.

It is encouraging to note the moral tone of this institution. Fully eighty-two per cent. of the students enrolled last year were members of the Evangelical Churches, and twenty-four per cent. were from Churches other than our own. A healthy moral atmosphere pervades the Wesleyan, and the character of the faculty assures us that the hearts, quite as much as the minds, of the students are being conserved.

A pleasant home for young ladies may be found in Henrietta Hall at very moderate cost.

The prospects and opportunities for increasing the Endowment Fund of this institution, and enlarging the sphere of its usefulness, were never better than they are now.

A venerable man of God, whose life of heroic deeds and sacrifices has been an important factor in laying the foundations of the educational institutions of the Conference, and of Methodism itself, has deeded to the Trustees of the Illinois Wesleyan University property valued at $12,500 on the condition that the friends of the Wesleyan raise an additional $25,000. We fully appreciate this large donation made by Dr. and Mrs. Buck in addition to their invaluable services already rendered this University and the Illinois Conference, and recommend that the Conference request the Board of Trustees to accept the deed with its condition, and take such immediate steps as are necessary to raise the additional $25,000.

We recommend the election of the following named gentlemen as Trustees of the University, viz: Hon. J. G. English, B. F. Funk, George P. Davis and Rev. Preston Wood.

For visitors we nominate the following, viz: James Miller, W. A. Smith, A. T. Orr, A. C. Byerly, W. H. Webster and E. D. Wilkin.

We also recommend W. H. Wilder, D. D., for reappointment as President, and C. M. Moss as Professor of Greek.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The enrollment in the Department and College of Letters and Science for the past year was 105, the largest in the history of the institution. The entire enrollment was 161. The enrollment in the Department of Fine Arts was not so large as for the previous year, but the receipts for tuition were more than twice the amount of the preceding year, showing that a higher grade of work was done. Miss Roberts will continue at the head of the Department of Fine Arts. Hitherto the Department of Music has cost more than its receipts, but for the past year the receipts were in excess of the expenditures, and the attendance increased. Miss Gooding will continue to conduct the work in Music. The enrollment, as well as the receipts, of the Department of Elocution and Oratory fell below that of the preceding year, but the receipts were slightly in advance of the expenses. Miss Powell having resigned, the Department will be carried forward by Miss Miriam Nelke, of Quincy.

The Law school moves on in the even tenor of its way.

One year ago the Quincy College of Medicine was reorganized and made an organic part of Chaddock College under the name, Chaddock School of Medicine. The result thus far has been most gratifying. The facilities for medical instruction have been extensively increased; the standard of requirements and grade of work done have been much higher than at any time in the past. The receipts were $400.00 in excess of the expenditures. The Trustees, at their annual meeting, June 6, were enthusiastic over the reports. The prospect for a splendid year is before the School of Medicine.

The steam heating apparatus, placed in the building a year ago by the Ladies' Educational Association of Chaddock College, at a cost of $5,000.00, has given very great satisfaction, heating the halls and rooms in both buildings at much less expense than the same could be done in any other way; also, the danger from fire is thus reduced to a minimum.

During the summer the rooms in the ladies' section of the Dormitory were enlarged, so that a bed room is now provided just off from each sitting room. Bath rooms were put in, providing hot and cold water, and are accessible to all the students, free of additional expense. The two literary societies have furnished their halls with excellent fixtures, including body Brussell carpet, elegant chandeliers, and other furniture to match. All the rooms were thoroughly renovated, repaired and painted wherever needed. The plumbing has been overhauled, the cisterns cleansed, and everything about the buildings that could produce ill health provided against.

We are confident that no institution provides a more convenient and healthful home for its students.

Instruction given in Languages, Sciences, Mathematics, Belles-Lettres, Elocution, Music, Fine Arts, Law, Medicine, and Accounts. The corps of Instructors includes graduates and Post Graduates from Illinois Wesleyan University, Michigan University, Pennsylvania University, Boston University, Johns Hopkins, Harvard, Yale and other high grade institutions.

The earnings of the various departments for the past year provided sufficient funds, save $271.00, for the payment of all the regular expenses of the institution. The interest on the indebtedness was unprovided for, and was added to the principal. An additional attendance of forty students would enable the Treasurer to pay all the expenses, including the interest.

There were thirty conversions during the past year in the College, and ninety per cent. of the students were professing Christians. We recommend that the pastor of the Church at Clayton and the Presiding Elder of the West Jacksonville District be appointed visitors, and W. N. McElroy and A. M. Danely Trustees.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The past year has been one of great success in this institution. The attendance was larger than for many years past, and the character of the students was above the average. The faculty was strong and efficient; the management of the school excellent. The accommodations, though not ample enough for the demands made upon the school, are neat, pleasant and comfortable. The building is kept in good repair. There is no indebtedness. The prospect for the coming year is encouraging. This institution being the only institution for the exclusive education of women of the Methodist Church in the West, it should receive the hearty support of all our ministers and churches. There are many parents who prefer to send their girls to an institution of this kind. This institution needs endowments and more room and better apparatus to carry forward its work and meet its growing demands.

Illinois Female College has a great future before it, if it can secure the money it needs to make it what it should be. The Methodists might have here a College for women which in every respect would rival the best institutions of the kind in the country. Let us do all we can to make it such.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. F. Short to the presidency, and the pastors of Jacksonville and Jacksonville Circuits and the Presiding Elders of Jacksonville District as visitors. We also recommend the election of the following as Trustees: A. C. Wadsworth, T. J. Pitner, M. D., J. P. Willard, M. D., J. H. Osborne.

The recent death of Hon. William Thomas, late President of the Board of Trustees of Illinois Female College, calls for a formal notice in this Report of the Committee, and of this Conference.

We therefore offer the following testimonial:

"That we recognize his great and valuable services rendered the State of Illinois and the Methodist Episcopal Church in behalf of the cause of education. That to him as a Legislator more than to any other citizen of the State is due the obtaining of a charter for McKendree and other Colleges, in the early history of the State; for the founding of the first Hospital for the Insane, and the institutions for the education of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind; and particularly for the founding and generous support of Illinois Female College by his long services and the liberal contribution of his means.

"We hereby gratefully record our sincere appreciation of his life-long efforts in behalf of this department of our work.

"That we hereby extend to Mrs. Thomas our sincere sympathy in her bereavement, and request the Secretary of this Conference to convey this expression and testimonial to her."

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This is one of the oldest and best endowed Theological Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Its location is the best possible in our country for giving students opportunities of work in the pastoral office. Chicago, half an hour distant, with its immense population, and the numerous neighboring towns within easy reach by rail, are calling every year for scores of our young men, and thus largely helping them to meet the expenses of their education. For beauty of scenery, healthfulness, and quiet, Evanston is without a rival. It is the great Methodist literary center of the Northwest, famed for the culture and refinement of its people.

The Faculty of this institution is composed of men well known throughout the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also beyond her communion. No school in Methodism possesses a more efficient and thoroughly equipped Board of Instruction.

This institution is one of the best of its kind in this country. It continues to prosper, and with enlarged facilities for still better work in the future, it presents unusual advantages to those who seek a thorough theological education and preparation for the ministry.

We heartily commend it to our young men. We nominate as Conference visitors J. L. Pitner and R. G. Hobbs.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

The past year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the Boston School of Theology. The number of students in attendance was greater than in any previous year in the entire history of the school, namely, one hundred and thirty-one. The quality of the work done has not been surpassed in any previous year.

We recommend this institution as an eminently suitable place to prepare for the work of the Christian ministry.

We recommend that J. R. Reasoner be appointed as visitor.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY—SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

This school is in an excellent and growing condition. The prospects for larger attendance than heretofore are good. It has a splendid outlook for usefulness. We recommend E. B. Randle as Conference visitor.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This institution has had a year of unusual prosperity. The attendance has been greater than during any previous year.

The work wrought by this School of Theology is truly most worthy, and we cordially recommend it to the consideration of young men preparing for the ministry.

We ask the appointment of E. A. Hamilton as Conference visitor.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We heartily approve the action of our late General Conference in placing the Board of Education upon an equality with other great Boards of the Church, and its Secretary made elective, as are other connectional Secretaries.

It is cause for gratification and encouragement in our educational interests that the popularity of Children's Day is observed with annually increasing interest.

We recommend:

1. That the Day be observed in every charge in the Conference.

2. That it be used as an Educational Day, our preachers providing such information as shall awaken a desire among all our youth for a higher education, and exerting an influence to secure them to our seminaries and colleges.

3. That a Connectional Collection be taken on that day to aid our young people in securing a Christian education, and no other object be permitted to divert this collection from its legitimate end.

W. A. SMITH, Chairman.

R. G. HOBBS, Secretary.

MISSIONS.

The Missionary idea is Divine. The Methodist Episcopal Church is a product of this Divine Idea, and we believe is divinely instituted for the consummation of the purpose for which Christ came into the world.

The genius of Methodism makes it peculiarly adapted to spreading the Gospel.

We recognize the individual member of the Church as responsible for the bringing of this world to Christ. The individual member will recognize and discharge this obligation when his life is fully in harmony with the spirit of the Gospel.

That we may be helpful in the discharge of recognized obligations to the cause of Missions.

We recommend that the Presiding Elders be requested to preach Missionary sermons in all the charges during the second quarter of the coming year.

We also earnestly recommend that Easter Sunday be observed as Children's Missionary Day in all our charges.

That the pastors hold Missionary prayer meetings the first week of each month, and that the first Sunday of each month be observed as Missionary Sunday in all our Sabbath Schools.

We most heartily commend the diligence of our Missionary Secretaries in their efforts to bring before the people facts concerning our Missionary work, and we pledge ourselves to render them every assistance in our power, and to this end we recommend the placing of Gospel in all Lands and World Wide Missions in every family.

We rejoice in the fact of an increase in our collections of $1,681.00 over last year, and we are determined to stand on an advance line, and to take no backward movement.

HORACE REED, President.

A. H. REAT, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Resolved, First, That we rejoice in the increase of $500 to the collections of the "Woman's Foreign Missionary Society" in our Conference during the past year.

Resolved, Second, That we recognize the helpfulness of this organization in the line of benevolence, and will do what we can in the year to come to increase the number and efficiency of its auxiliaries within our bounds.

E. A. WANLESS, Chairman.

GILMORE CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Illinois Conference recognizes in the Woman's Home Missionary Society a great power for good. Its work has already demonstrated its ability and its effectiveness. It shall have our prayers and our hearty co-operation.

J. T. PENDER.
H. G. WASS.

THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath, as a day of rest and holy convocation, is the gift of a beneficent Creator to the human race, a violation of which is detrimental to the physical, moral and religious interests of man; and

WHEREAS, There is in this age an ever-increasing tendency to the Germanization of the Sabbath, in every shape and form; therefore,

Resolved, First, That we, as members of the Illinois Conference, both in the name of religion and law, protest against the opening of places of business on the Lord's Day, and against all kinds of traffic, wherever found.

Resolved, Second, That the position taken in regard to this question of Sabbath observance by many railroads, in refusing to run Sunday trains, demands our greatest esteem, and should have our heartiest commendation.

Resolved, Third, That we appreciate the effort the Chicago Daily News is making in behalf of a Sabbath of Rest, and that we commend its attitude upon that question, and express our pleasure over the knowledge that at least one great metropolitan journal is by example and precept arrayed on the side of a Christian American Sabbath.

J. M. WEST, Chairman.

W. N. RUTLEDGE, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Recognizing the great work of faithfully training our children and youth in the Sabbath Schools as second to no work of the Church, therefore,

Resolved, First, That as a means of larger results in conversions, and greater efficiency in systematic training, we recommend:

1. That all our schools be organized in accordance with the disciplinary method.

2. That we give hearty support to our Sunday School literature, than which none is superior or better adapted for Methodist schools.

3. That Normal classes be organized wherever possible, that our more advanced scholars have the advantage of normal training to equip them for the work of teaching. Such classes may be under the pastor's immediate supervision, or placed under the auspices of already existing Young People's Societies. We recommend Dr. Hurlbut's and Bishop Vincent's Normal Outline Studies.

Resolved, Second, That we request the Conference, at its present session, to appoint a Sunday School Statistical Secretary, who, under direction of the Conference, shall collect all helpful facts relating to our Sunday Schools, supplementing the blanks already furnished by such additional items as in his judgment may be of service; and also furnishing to the Conference the statistics of the Young People's Societies of our Churches. The Secretary to be appointed annually as one of the statistical corps, and to have charge of all statistics relating to the Sunday Schools of the Conference.

The committee heartily commend "Our Youth" as a young people's paper of superior merits.

J. E. ARTZ, Chairman.

C. W. JACOBS, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, One-third of our population and three-fourths of our illiteracy are in the South, 7,500,000 being unable to read or write, 1,500,000 of whom are clothed with all the prerogatives of citizenship to be exercised for weal or woe; and

WHEREAS, Illiteracy and ignorance are the handmaids of irreligion, anarchy, "treason, strategems and spoils;" and

WHEREAS, The perpetuity of our government and the gospelization of our people are imperiled and impeded by this wide-spread eclipse and becloudment; and

WHEREAS, The State refuses and no party proposes to occupy the field opened up and thrust upon us by the war and consequent legislation; and

WHEREAS, The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has entered upon this work with an intense aggressive activity, and during the past twenty-three years has achieved a glorious work prophetic of future possibilities; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we heartily commend both the society and its efficient Secretary and assistants.

2. That we point with pride to the record of the past year: The successful prosecution of work in forty-three institutions of learning, twenty-four for the colored people, nineteen for the whites; the payment of $38,485.52 in tuition and room rent by the beneficiaries themselves, making the total receipts of the society for the year ending July 1, 1889, over $212,000; the generous response of Southern Conferences; and the high grade of students graduated from the various literary, industrial and professional departments.

3. That we pledge ourselves to devote at least one Sabbath during the coming Conference year to such sermons, or literary and musical exercises (using, if possible, the official Sunday service furnished gratuitously) as will best inform our people and most increase our collections.

4. That we deplore the fact that after pledging at the last Conference "to press our collections even beyond, if possible, the $5,000 asked for," we have actually raised but $2,020.

5. That we exceedingly regret that after the pledges of the last Conference twenty-eight charges entirely ignored this claim; and one hundred and thirty-one charges gave less than $10 each.

6. That we will heartily respond to the call for $269,825—the amount absolutely needed now. That we will not omnibus this interest, and that pressing the claims of our Southern work upon the hearts and consciences of our people we will do our utmost, as a religious and patriotic duty, to raise our full assessment of $6,324, and recommend that the Presiding Elders make an early apportionment.

JAMES LEATON, President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The exhibits of the American Bible Society for the past year are highly gratifying to us, and commend and give promise of the realization of its ultimate design, to place the Word of God within the reach or in the hands of every human being. The special demand for the Bible in the Sabbath Schools is fully met by the variety of editions of the Scriptures issued from its presses, some of which can be procured at a merely nominal price. We fully approve the efforts made by this society to place a copy of the Bible in every family in the United States. In home and foreign lands this agency is the harbinger and helpmate of our great Missionary enterprises. It is our purpose to aid the agents of this society in all our charges, and take collections as directed in the Discipline for the maintenance of its work.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

We rejoice in the growing prosperity of our Church papers and periodicals; are proud of the fact that our Sunday School literature leads the world, and we pledge ourselves to advance our magnificent publishing interests by every effort possible.

TEMPERANCE.

We recognize in the liquor traffic our most dangerous foe. It is the enemy of the home, of the State, of the Church. It wastes in riotous living the substance of the rich, and despoils of their scanty earnings the poor. It robs the helpless wife and mother, and impoverishes the innocent child. Like the fabled dragon, its choicest prey is the youth of the nation. It poisons the body, debases the intellect, destroys the soul. It debauches public morals and defies public opinion. It bribes Legislatures and suborns the secular press. It defiles the ermine of the judge and wrests judgment from the juror. It corrupts or intimidates political leaders, and dares to dictate the platforms of political parties. Its vast revenues are devoted, if need be, to bribery of law-makers and perversion of the law. Wiser in their generation than the children of light, its defenders present an unbroken front to our assaults. They never quarrel among themselves; they do not train their guns upon their friends. They are vigilant, active, aggressive, insolent. If their ends are purchasable with money, they buy their way; if money fails, they threaten, intimidate, assassinate. Failing in everything else, they flaunt the red flag of anarchy and defy the executors of law. Twelve hundred foreign-born saloon keepers in one city, trampling under foot the Christian Sabbath and openly defying the law of a Christian State, is an object lesson to Americans in the methods and purposes of the saloon. Quick to discern its friends or foes, apprehensive of its doom, it challenges and assails the Church as its inveterate enemy, and in God's good time, its destined destroyer. It invades the pulpit, and sometimes secures apologists in the sacred desk. It works in the pew, and cites Scripture for its right to exist. It rejoices in the passiveness of Christian voters, and exults over the dissensions of its foes. It appeals to unchristian greed, and parades its electric lights, paved streets and overflowing city treasuries in justification of its crimes. It strikes ready hand with him who, by high or low license, "buildeth a town with blood and establisheth a city with iniquity." Madam Roland's pathetic words when led to the scaffold—"O Liberty, what crimes are done in thy name!"—might well be paraphrazed—"O Christian liberty, what crimes are done in thy holy name!" Long tolerance of human slavery gave a deep significance to the apostolic words that "without shedding of blood is no remission of sins." The sin of the nation was expiated by a million lives. So will too patient tolerance of the slavery of human souls be remitted only in the blood of countless innocent lives.

We rejoice, brethren, that the sin lies not at our doors. We recall again with pride that the first temperance society in the world was in a Methodist Church; that the three hundred ministers of this "Mother of Conferences," in practice and in principle, are prohibitionists of the strictest sect, and that the tens of thousands whom we serve, with rare exceptions, are the enemies of the saloon. The bold words of our bishops, that "it can never be legalized without sin," have become the battle cry of our Church. The most powerful and compact Evangelical Church of the Republic, we accept the leadership and responsibilities involved in this great Christian warfare. Faint-heartedness, disloyalty, dissensions, discouragements, occasional defeats, have sorely tried our courage and our faith; but above the smoke of the battle, and the din of the conflict, we believe that the ever pure cause of Temperance shines with increasing light. We therefore resolve,

1. That as Methodist preachers we will enter upon another year of labor with renewed endeavors to preach more faithfully and fearlessly than ever the Gospel of Christian Temperance. It shall be a whole Gospel, comprehending alike the law of Sinai and the grace of Calvary.

2. That we will steadily set before ourselves and Churches that the supreme end to which every effort should be directed is the complete constitutional and National prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks.

3. That we believe that "prohibition does prohibit," and we turn with not unchristian envy to our brethren of Kansas and Iowa in attestation of the fact.

4. That we heartily commend the example, in recent months, of two distinguished American office holders, one a member of the Cabinet, the other Governor of a great State. The first gave voice and influence in his city and State in fearless championship of the prohibition amendment; the other, though candidate for office at the time, when the law was defied by a powerful league of saloon-keepers, invoked the armed power of his State and compelled their obedience.

5. That we affectionately warn our people and our brethren against the steadily increasing indulgence, too often by professing Christians, in the use of other than alcoholic stimulants, such as narcotic poisons, opiates, drugs, etc. We are persuaded that this indulgence more widely obtains than is popularly known, and that though less swift and more genteel, it is not less surely destructive to body, mind and soul.

6. That we regard as our most imperative and productive work the thorough and early indoctrination of the children of our homes and Sunday Schools as to the evils of intemperance. Let us systematically and diligently teach the statutes of temperance into our children, and talk of them when sitting in the house or walking by the way, when lying down or rising up. Let them be "signs upon the hands" and "frontlets between the eyes," and let us write them upon the posts of the home and on the gates of the Church. Denied unto us their pastors and parents, may God grant unto our children at least the blessings of a free land unpolluted by the presence of the saloon.

7. That it is ths sense of this Conference that in relation to the regulation of the liquor traffic, the principle of absolute prohibition is superior to our political party ties, and we will refuse to vote for the candidates of any party who do not believe in the practical enforcement of that principle in Municipal, State and National affairs.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We rejoice in the marvelous achievements of the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Thus far our society has gloriously led in the van of the host. Your Committee regret to report that the contributions of our Conference for this most deserving cause are scarcely more than one-third the amount assessed by the board. In view of the ever enlarging field of usefulness occupied by this society, and the great opportunities now afforded for laying permanent foundations that shall make glad the heart of the Church in the days to come, we recommend that our pastors press this cause more earnestly, and that they endeavor to increase their collections the coming year so as to meet the reasonable demands of the Board.

D. GAY, President.

T. M. DILLON, Secretary.

TRACT CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is a powerful agency for the conviction of sinners and the upbuilding of believers, and, therefore, demands of us as ministers of Christ our sympathetic co-operation, therefore,

Resolved, That we will not fail to take the annual collection in all our Churches; that we will take it as early in the Conference year as possible; disseminate the publications of the society throughout our charges; and do all that we can to promote its interests and extend its influence.

GEORGE W. READ, Chairman.

JOSEPH LONG, Secretary.

ANDRUS FUND.

Your Committee report an income of $80 received from the Andrus Fund. This amount has been paid to the Conference Missionary Secretary, and his receipt taken.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Recognizing the fact that the children and youth are the hope of the Church we greatly rejoice in the largely awakened interest and activity of the Church in behalf of the young people. The result of this has been the institution of a large number of young people's organizations under various names, with different constitutions and methods of work, the manifest tendency of which was ultimate conflict and confusion. Foreseeing this, delegates from the various young people's organizations met in Cleveland, Ohio, and constituted what they were pleased to call the Epworth League, with headquarters in New York, to be the general society of the M. E. Church, with which all young people's societies of the Church should be connected as branches, under one constitution, though they might have different names. This plan has given general satisfaction because it is a wise one and will unify the young people of our Church, while at the same time its aim is to strengthen the loyalty of the young people for the Church. We rejoice to see that earnest efforts are being made to put this plan into successful operation throughout the Church by District, Conference and General Conference District organizations. It seems proper, therefore, that this Conference should also take some action towards enlisting our Churches and young people in this grand movement. Therefore, we, your Committee on the Epworth League, would respectfully recommend that

1. Every preacher in charge in the Illinois Conference make an earnest endeavor to organize the young people in his charge under the constitution of the Epworth League.

2. That some time during the year, in each Presiding Elder's district, there be organized a district association of all the Leagues in the district.

3. That there be held, at the time and place of the session of the Annual Conference next year, an Epworth League Convention composed of delegates from each district association, at which time there shall be constitued a Conference association of the Epworth League, and that there be a time provided for this in the program of the Conference.

4. In the meantime, for the purpose of expediting the work of organization and of having a head to the movement, we would recommend the election of a Conference President of the Epworth League to serve until the Conference organization is effected.

We would recommend as President, W. D. Best.

All information concerning the organization of the League can be obtained of Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D. D., 805 Broadway, N. Y.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference stands upon apostolic counsel. Paul's advice to Timothy was "to provide for one's own house." It also stands upon the plan of Bishops Coke, Asbury and the Fathers of our Church. It is the only plan that ever prospered in this Conference, and is now the admiration of other Conferences for example.

It is a chartered institution with provisions and a mission that will bless the ministry of this Conference to the end of time.

Five years ago there were about $12,000 in the hands of the society; to-day there are about $30,000 in notes, cash, subscriptions and real estate. We commend it to the attention of the ministers of the Conference, especially to the young men, as a safe provision for superannuated life, and to the liberality of the Church for its cordial and earnest support.

JAMES SHAW, Chairman.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The work of the Society, which is to gather material for a history of Methodism in Illinois, and especially within the bounds of the Illinois Conference, and to publish such history as it may be prepared and the funds of the Society may warrant, is a work that should commend itself to every preacher and every layman in the Conference.

The Society is fully organized with a good working constitution and by-laws, and officers who take hold of the work with a good degree of enthusiasm.

One thousand copies of the Constitution, By-Laws, Proceedings of last year, and the very able address of Rev. G. E. Scrimger before the Society at its last annual meeting, have been published, and a number of them distributed among the members.

The Conference historian has completed and donated to the Society two additional volumes of the "History of Methodism in Illinois," bringing the history down to 1852, which are now in the library of the Society at Springfield and ready for publication. In addition to Conference proceedings, decisions of law questions, accounts of revivals, anecdotes, etc., they contain sketches of over five hundred ministers and laymen.

At the request of the Executive Committee, James Leaton was employed for two months before the Conference, without salary, only his traveling expenses being paid, to collect old records, journals of quarterly Conferences and leaders' meetings, etc., and also to secure members to the Society. Several important and valuable records have been obtained, others have been copied by him, and a number of members secured. The Executive Committee have requested him to perform the same work during the coming year.

The books purchased of J. Leaton by the last Conference have been placed in the library of the Society at Springfield, and will constitute, we trust, the nucleus of a large and valuable historical library.

The great present need of the Society is membership and money to pay the debt incurred in the publication of the Constitution, Address, etc., referred to above, and to provide for publishing the proceedings of the present year with the address to be delivered by Brother Hooper.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we urge every member and probationer of this Conference to become and continue a member of the Historical Society by the annual payment of one dollar.

2. That we commend the Society to the attention of our lay members, and urge them as far as practicable to become members of it.

3. That we request the Quarterly Conferences and Official Boards within our bounds to deposit their complete records with the archives of the Society at Springfield, or place them in the hands of the Conference historian, who will deposit them there.

4. That we ask our ministers and members to donate any books, pamphlets or manuscripts in their possession bearing upon the history of Methodism in Illinois to the library of the Society.

5. That we recommend that steps be now taken to secure the publication of the two manuscript volumes of Methodist History now in the hands of the librarian of the Society at Springfield.

W. S. HOOPER, Chairman.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN G. MITCHELL.

Rev. John G. Mitchell, of the Illinois Conference, died at Virginia, Ill., Oct. 25, 1888. He was born in Marysville, Tenn., March 7, 1827, and was converted in his sixteenth year, at Naples, Ill. In 1864 he was received on trial by the Illinois Conference, and admitted and ordained Deacon in 1866. In 1868 he was ordained Elder. He served the following charges: Bath, Virginia, Topeka, Perry, Griggsville circuit, Centreville, Tolono and North Jacksonville. These appointments covered a period of eleven years. From 1875 to 1879 he was supernumerary, and in 1880 was superannuated.

Bro. Mitchell had clear perceptive powers, was a good average preacher, and had frequent revivals. He loved children, and they were greatly blessed through his ministry, as he aimed in many of his sermons to have "some words for the children." He was a manly man, had strong convictions, and was very frank in his utterances both in the pulpit and out, never afraid to condemn those in authority in Church or State when in his opinion they had rendered themselves unworthy of respect or confidence. At the same time he sustained with all his might those who were worthy. He was not ambitious of promotion to office or place in his Conference, attended to all the interests and was intensely loyal to the economy of his Church. A firm and devoted friend of humanity, he hated everything that was evil, and especially did he hate intemperance. In every way in his power he labored to bring about national prohibition. Honored and trusted, even by those who opposed him, his party friends nominated him for the Legislature on the Prohibition ticket, confidently expecting that the voters of the Thirty-fourth district of all parties would vote for him. He was fervent in prayer and forcible in exhortation. His exemplary life commended him to the people wherever he lived, and his rich religious experience sustained him to the last and gave him the victory. His last greeting to the brethren of the Illinois Conference was: "Assure them that Jesus was with me, all is bright, I am greatly sustained, I am not disappointed—all is well; meet me in Heaven."

Brother Mitchell was married twice, first to Miss Mary E. Grant, Jan. 10, 1849. She died Jan. 6, 1850. He married again April 29, 1855, Miss Nancy D. Eckles, who with three children—Edward J., John W. and Julia T. (wife of Rev. T. H. Agnew)—survive.

REV. W. E. JOHNSON.

Rev. William E. Johnson was born near Urbana, Champaign county, Ohio, August 27th, 1820, and died at Normal, Ill., August 17th, 1889. He was forty-four years in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and thirty-nine years a member of the Illinois Annual Conference, the last eight of which he sustained the relation of a superannuate.

When he was nine years of age his parents removed to Illinois and settled in Perry county.

His youth and early manhood were passed amid the toils and privations of pioneer life incident to that day. He was born of Christian parents, whose house was for many years a preaching place and the home of the toil-worn itinerants. Under the influence of these Gospel ministers and the leading spirit of godly parents he was led to God in early life, being converted in October of 1842, under the ministry of Rev. A. Don Carlos. He was licensed to preach in June, 1845, and entered the Illinois Conference in September of the same year, entering the work from a sense of duty, feeling that he was truly called of God to this sacred work of the ministry. At the time of his admission to the Conference he was absent in the South, upon business, and hearing that he was rejected, and feeling that he had discharged his duty and had been relieved from an overwhelming responsibility, he shouted for joy; but afterward, learning of the mistake, he accepted his work in the spirit of his Master, and for years pursued the work of the ministry with faithfulness and zeal until an enfeebled body compelled his superannuation, after saying that he "would rather be the humblest minister in the calling and service of God than to enjoy any earthly emolument."

He was appointed to Jacksonville Circuit in 1845; Jonesboro, 1846; located 1847; readmitted 1851, and appointed to Carrollton; 1852, Clinton; 1853–4, Urbana; 1855, Virginia; 1856, West charge, Bloomington; 1857–8, Mt. Pleasant, now Farmer City; 1860–1, Heyworth; 1862–3, McLean; 1864, Waynesville; 1865–6, Decatur Circuit; 1867–70, Quincy District; 1871–3, Jacksonville Circuit; 1874, West Jacksonville; 1875, North Jacksonville; 1876–7, Williamsville; 1878, Sangamon; 1879, Pleasant Plains; 1880, Elkhart; 1881 to 1889, superannuated.

He began his labors at the time of large circuits, and when the itinerant preached every day except the two days of rest in the month, and when Methodism in Illinois was embraced in two Conferences, when it required heroic bravery to endure the lot and labor of an itinerant. But these large and laborious fields afforded great opportunities for the development of his splendid energies, and called out the noblest elements of his character. Located at the end of his second year to attend McKendree College, he was compelled to change his plans on account of failing health. During the time of his location he respectively occupied the position of agent of the Illinois Female College and of the American Bible Society. During his location he was appointed by Bishop Janes to Springfield, where he established a second charge, beginning without a member or a dollar, but closed the year with a membership of over one hundred and a subscription for a church building well under way.

This year of his ministry was memorable for the camp meeting held upon the site of the present State Capitol, his services in private families and school houses, and the outdoor exercises for building up the Church, resulting in many conversions. Similar powerful revivals followed the course of his ministry in other charges. His pastorate at Urbana was marked, also, by his efforts in other directions. At this charge he was successful in raising money for the erection of a Conference Seminary, at that time when Methodism was making such earnest efforts in the cause of education, and of seeing that school in successful operation, and of securing the erection of the present Church at that place, though not fully completed for a few months later, and the purchase of parsonage property.

At the close of his presiding eldership of Quincy district he was elected delegate to the General Conference held at Brooklyn, N. Y., which position he filled with dignity and honor.

He was a faithful minister of the Gospel, a man of unswerving loyalty to the Church, and devoted to all of its interests, and conscientious in all his religious duties. He was a man of clear and sound judgment, and impartial in the administration of the affairs of the Church.

He was especially valuable in his pastoral work, and at the bedside of the sick and dying. In social life he was serious and thoughtful, though at times he was radiant, with flashes of sparkling humor, and in conversation he was pure; and a deep, fervent spirituality pervaded almost every element of his life.

The Church had no more earnest advocate of progress in all the departments of her work; nor her benevolent enterprises a more loyal and devoted friend. In all his life he felt, "I am nothing; Christ is all, and in all."

Though a good speaker, such was his modesty and lack of confidence as to his own ability that he almost always manifested a sense of shrinking whenever he entered the pulpit; and when the time came for him to retire from the active work he felt it to be a grateful respite from the severe responsibilities of ministerial life. In the autumn of his declining years, and while gracefully growing old, he sat under the ministry of his younger brethren, feeling it a great pleasure to hear the Gospel from lips other than his own, and entering into the service of God with cheer and earnestness, he was faithful to every means of grace. He was one of that class of men who consecrated all to God in preparing the way for the final triumph of the cross.

The last fifteen months of his life were spent upon a bed of sickness, but with an uncomplaining patience, indicating the true character of a Christian. "My work now," said he, "is to patiently endure this affliction." And again he said to his wife, "We will not be separated long." The expressions, "Precious Savior," "My all sufficient Saviour," and "Meet me in heaven," falling from his lips at different times, clearly indicated his Christian preparation, and the fit ending of a devoted life, as his eyes caught sight of the eternal city and his immortal spirit entered into the company of the redeemed.

Rev. Johnson leaves behind him his wife and a family of one daughter and three sons, one of whom, Rev. W. M. Johnson, is a member of the Illinois Conference, and all of whom are active members of the Church.

Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last.

ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

SIXTY-SEVENTH SESSION.

JOURNAL FOR 1890.

FIRST DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 10th, 1890.

CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED.—The Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its sixty-seventh session in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, Jacksonville, Illinois, at 9 o'clock A. M., Bishop S. M. Merrill, D. D., LL. D., presiding.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.—Religious services were conducted by Bishop Merrill, who, assisted by George Stevens, Preston Wood, James Leaton and W. J. Rutledge, administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the members of the Conference and others present.

ROLL CALL.—The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll, and 194 answered to their names.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—On motion of W. S. Hooper, C. Galeener was elected Secretary by acclamation, and R. G. Hobbs and C. W. Jacobs were elected assistants, and T. M. Dillon Railroad Secretary. C. F. M'Kown was elected Statistical Secretary, and John B. Martin, W. M. Poe, A. L. Plowman, J. R. Van Pelt, F. C. Reed and W. H. McGhee his assistants. Henry Wilson was elected Treasurer, and A. Clark and W. T. Beadles his assistants.

HOURS FOR SESSIONS.—The hours for meeting and adjourning were fixed at 8:30 and 11:45 A. M., to be preceded by thirty minutes prayer meeting.

BAR OF THE CONFERENCE.—The bar of the Conference was fixed at a line drawn between the third windows from the platform.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.—The presiding elders were constituted a nominating committee, and presented the following report. (See Standing Committees.)

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.—A special committee of nine on an Itinerant's Club was ordered, and M. Auer, F. Crane, J. A. Hardenbrook, A. P. Stover, W. D. Best, J. J. Dugan, A. C. Byerly, J. R. Van Pelt and J. F. Wohlfarth were appointed.

RESOLUTION REFERRED.—Resolution on the World's Fair was referred to the committee on the Sabbath.

TWENTIETH QUESTION CALLED.—The twentieth question was taken up. Bloomington District was called, and Geo. Stevens, Presiding Elder, read his report after the passage of his character. The characters of the following also passed: J. L. Pitner, W. A. Smith, H. Reed, M. Auer, J. M. West, J. W. Maddison, Wm. Brandon, W. M. Gooding, G. W. Reed, W. M. Poe, J. Everly, D. E. May, W. F. REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The college year closing June 12, 1890, was one of the most prosperous that this institution has ever enjoyed. The income was equal to the expenses.

About $15,000.00 have been raised for the "Endowment Fund," and Dr. Wilder will soon complete the work of raising $10,000.00 in the city of Bloomington for the purpose of improving the buildings of the University. The enrollment of students last year was the largest of its history. The discipline, especially in the preparatory school, is excellent. The professors and instructors in the various departments are cultured, efficient and devoted to their work.

We wish to call especial attention to the fact that the Illinois Wesleyan University is as thoroughly equipped for the teaching and study of the various branches of experimental science as any institution in the State, and we earnestly commend this department to the attention of our people.

The moral and religious tone of the institution is of an especially high character, about 90 per cent of the students of the College of Letters and Science being members of some evangelical church. Dr. Wilder, during the two years of his presidency, has administered the affairs of the University with a degree of ability and conservative wisdom of which his most sanguine friends may be justly proud.

The College of Music of the University and the Conservatory of Music of the city of Bloomington have been consolidated and made a part of the University, thus giving the school one of the largest musical departments in the West, with about five hundred students.

Steps have also been taken looking toward the establishment of a College of Art, and the necessary arrangements will probably be consummated in the near future. We recommend that the Conference request Bishop Merrill to appoint Rev. W. H. Wilder, D. D., as President, and Rev. C. M. Moss, Ph. D., as Professor of Greek in the University. We recommend for trustees the following: Rev. Hiram Buck, D. D., Peter Whitmer, Esq., Samuel Welty, Esq., and Hon. J. W. Fifer.

We nominate for Conference Visitors: Robert Stephens, W. A. Smith, A. T. Orr, W. H. Webster, A. C. Byerly and James Miller.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The enrollment in the College of Letters and Science for the past year was 117, being a small increase over the preceding year, and the largest in the history of the college.

The entire enrollment was 260.

For the Department of Art the services have been secured of Miss Franc Green, a young lady of fine ability and experience in this department. Miss Green is a superior artist, and under her management an advancement in this department is confidently expected. The Department of Art is not only self-sustaining, but it also brings in quite a surplus for the college.

The Department of Music for the past year has also been more than self-sustaining. This department for the present year will be under the charge of Miss Maude G. Wells, who is a graduate in pipe organ.

The Department of Elocution and Oratory will be under the charge of Miss Nelke who had charge of the same department last year.

The Law School has a bright prospect. The attendance in this department has been small, but the large increase in the school brightens the prospects in this department. The instructors are eminent and active lawyers.

It was thought best to drop the College of Medicine from the catalogue.

The Dormitory has sixty-four well furnished rooms. The entire building is heated by steam, which gives great satisfaction to students, and materially reduces their expenses. No institution in the West provides a more beautiful, convenient and healthful home for students.

To the instruction given in the Languages, Sciences, Mathematics Belles-Lettres, Elocution, Music, Fine Art, Law, we have added a full business course with Prof. J. M. Clary in charge.

There were a large number of conversions among the students during the past year. The religious condition of the school was excellent, a very large per cent. of the students were professing Christians. The opening of the present school year is very encouraging, being a gain of 25 per cent. over last year. We recommend as trustees Revs. S. H. Whitlock, T. J. Wheat, H. J. Vickers and W. T. Smith, and as Conference visitors our pastors in Quincy, Vermont St., and at Paloma, Augusta, Payson and Griggsville.

JACKSONVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.

The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the institution. The attendance has been full and the order and behavior of the students is very commendable, while the work has been excellent. This is due to the excellent management and oversight of Dr. Short and his wife, with the assistance of an able corps of teachers.

The Music Department of the college cannot be excelled. There are but few abler or more competent instructors than Professor Day, who has charge of this department.

No better school for the exclusive education of young women exists in the West than the Illinois Female College. Parents can send their daughters here, however young or inexperienced they may be in the ways of the world, and feel perfectly sure that they will be thoroughly protected, well cared for and treated like children in the home. If these facts could be made more widely known by our preachers, pressing the claims of this historic school upon the members of our churches, its prosperity would be rapidly multiplied. We recommend that the pastors of our churches in Jacksonville be appointed visitors, and that Dr. Short be appointed president.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

This Institution has had a year of great prosperity. The attendance has been larger than during any previous year. To all our young men, who purpose to attend a theological school, we heartily commend to their attention the Garrett Biblical Institute.

We nominate as Conference Visitors J. B. Colwell, C. A. Crane and S. H. Whitlock.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

Boston School of Theology has had the most successful year of its history.

Boston affords many advantages to the theological student.

The school has an able faculty and affords fine opportunities for practical drilling in the work of the ministry.

We recommend that M. D. Hornbeck, W. A. Smith and E. B. Randle be appointed visitors.

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY—SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

Although this is one of the youngest schools of theology in the West, yet its progress is steady and the work done excellent. We are glad to have with us the dean of the faculty, Rev. H. A. Gobin, D. D., and wish the school great prosperity.

We recommend for visitors A. M. Danely and M. A. Hewes.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Drew Theological Seminary maintains its high rank as a school for the training of our young ministers. We most cordially commend it to all seeking a theological education.

We recommend that George E. Scrimger be appointed visitor.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend that, so far as practicable, "Children's Day" be observed in all our charges, and that a public collection be taken on that day for the Sunday School fund of our Board of Education. In case no other educational collection be taken during the year, we advise that the claims of both causes be presented on that occasion, and that there be an equal division of the money according to the provisions of the discipline.

MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, The great head of the church enunciated His mission and its widespread embrace in the brief sentence, "The field is the world;" and,

WHEREAS, The founder of our beloved Methodism expressed the same idea in his memorable declaration, "The world is my parish;" and,

WHEREAS, The Spirit of Jesus, in its missionary character, is emphasized by the Methodist Episcopal Church; therefore,

Resolved, That we most heartily rejoice in the advance made all along the line in our collections for missions, and especially in the advance of $588.00 in our own Conference, and that we will use every proper effort to reach greater results in the year to come.

Resolved, That to secure this end we will follow the disciplinary requirement and preach upon the subject to our people, urging individual responsibility upon our members, impressing them with the scriptural truth that opportunity and ability measure our responsibility.

Resolved, That we recommend the placing of a copy of the "World-Wide Missions" in every family in our charges. Also, that we heartily endorse and rejoice in the work done in our own land among the Indians and others within our borders.

Resolved, That we hail with gratitude the providence which has so wonderfully opened the gates of the nations, the inhabitants of which are saying, in the language of certain ancient Greeks, "We would see Jesus."

Resolved, That we will heartily respond to the calls made by our Missionary Secretaries, and to the more emphatic calls of the Gospel of Christ, and that we will devoutly and earnestly pray and labor to the end that in the near future every idol may fall and every heathen temple may crumble to dust, and that we may thus expedite the time when Jesus may be enthroned in the nations of earth and have the right of way in all hearts.

W. S. CALHOUN, Chairman.

F. M. SISSON, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the continued increasing prosperity of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, as evidenced in the amount contributed the last year.

Resolved, That we recognize the helpfulness of this organization in the line of benevolence, and will do what we can in the year to come to increase the number and efficiency of its auxiliaries within our bounds.

Resolved, That we cordially invite the officers of this Society to come to our charges and organize local auxiliaries where there are none.

E. A. WANLESS, Chairman.

J. FRANK POORMAN, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, The Discipline of our Church, in Chapter 3, Section 354, provides for a "Conference Domestic Missionary Society," as follows: "Any Annual Conference may, at its option, by a vote of two-thirds of its members, assume the responsibility of supporting such missions already established within its own limits as have hitherto been reported under the head of 'Missions in the Destitute Portions of the Regular Work,' and such other missions as may be established therein, and for this purpose it shall be at liberty to organize a 'Conference Domestic Missionary Society,' with branches;" therefore,

Resolved, That by the adoption of this report, we organize the Conference into a "Conference Domestic Missionary Society."

To carry out the objects of the Society, we request the Bishop to appoint one of our number as "Superintendent of Domestic Missions," who shall be authorized to travel through the Conference in behalf of the Society; to issue circular letters; form auxiliary branches in our cities and districts; arrange with the Presiding Elders a plan for raising funds, and report at the Annual Conference the state of the work, together with the money contributed; provided he shall so arrange the plans for raising funds as not to interfere with the regular missionary collections or the other benevolences of the church.

The Presiding Elders shall receive the money raised, and at the ensuing Annual Conference, after paying the necessary expenses, shall apportion the collection to such charges as may be in the most need, and which, for that purpose, shall be considered mission charges.

The Superintendent, who shall be the executive officer of the Society, shall keep account of the expenses incurred in the work and report the same to a Board of Control, to be appointed hereafter; but for the present year the Presiding Elders shall act as such board, and at their annual meeting may apportion to their several districts such sum of money as, in their judgment, will be necessary to meet the purposes of the Society.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Resolved, 1. That we rejoice in the substantial progress and prosperity of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society during the past year, in an increase of over seven hundred students, and an increase in the income of over $45,246, not only an increase in Conference collections, but also in the receipts from the students in incidentals, tuition, and room-rent, which is a most encouraging indication as to self-help. It is with gratitude we note the growing appreciation among the masses of the Sonthern white people outside of our own communion, for the work which the society is accomplishing.

2. That we pledge ourselves to present this cause to our people the coming Conference year, not only in showing the success of the past, but in view of the indebtedness we will emphasize the needs of the present, and strive to raise our full apportionment of the $6,266.

3. That we recommend to our people the Christian Educator, an illustrated quarterly magazine, published by this society in the interest of Christian education, especially in the Southern States.

4. That we greatly appreciate the visit of Dr. Chadwick to our Conference, and wish him God-speed in his noble work.

5. It is with pleasure that we note an increase over last year of $152.67, which is an increase in all the districts, save one, which has a large decrease.

D. E. MAY, President.

E. M. JEFFERS, Secretary.

ANDRUS FUND.

Your Committee on the Andrus Fund report $80.00 received and handed to the Conference Secretary.

M. W. EVERHART.
E. A. HAMILTON.

THE SABBATH.

We believe the Sabbath to be a holy day, set apart by God for rest and worship. Therefore, we most earnestly deprecate every attempt to secularize the Sabbath by making it a holiday or by performing ordinary labor thereon.

Business traffic, secular entertainments, picnics, social visiting, excursions and the like, on this day, are demoralizing and should be condemned.

We believe the moving of railway trains, and the transportation and distribution of United States mail, to be wholly unnecessary on the Sabbath, and we most respectfully ask Congress to take action against such desecration. We further request our people not to patronize railway trains or postoffices on Sunday.

The making, transportation, and sale of newspapers on the Sabbath we regard as a serious evil, a desecration of the holy day, and therefore ought to cease.

We are opposed to charging admission fees to camp-meetings and other services on the Lord's Day.

WHEREAS, It is proposed that the grounds of the Columbian Exposition, to be held in Chicago in 1893, shall be kept open on Sunday; and,

WHEREAS, We believe this would be a disgrace to our Christian nation, which professes to honor God and keep His commandments, and a serious calamity to the morals of our own people and of the people of other nations; therefore,

Resolved, That we most earnestly appeal to the managers of said Exposition to close the grounds on Sunday. We also ask all other religious bodies, and every lover of morality, to co-operate with us in urging this appeal.

If said Exposition should be open on the Sabbath, we ask all people to withhold their patronage from it on that day.

J. MONTGOMERY, Chairman.

J. O. DENNING, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, The training of two million one hundred and eighty-eight thousand children and youth in our Sunday Schools, two-thirds of whom are unsaved, is a work of supreme importance; and,

WHEREAS, Although our church, through its Sunday School Union, has during the last year aided three thousand Sunday Schools scattered throughout the republic, yet the crying needs in the South, on our Western frontier, and in foreign lands appeal to every Christian and patriotic heart; therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend—

1st. That all our schools be organized in strict harmony with the disciplinary requirements.

2nd. The use of our own Sunday School literature, both in loyalty to the church and as best adapted to the needs of our schools.

3rd. The exclusive use in the class of the Bible as the supreme authority, having employed all proper aids in the preparation of the lesson.

4th. That wherever practicable normal classes be formed, thus affording a supply of well-trained teachers when needed in the work of the school.

5th. That our teachers urge upon their scholars the great duty of total abstinence from intoxicating liquors, not only on "Temperance Day," but continuously.

6th. That in consideration of the great needs of the work, we approve the action of the Board of Managers of the Sunday School Union in asking for fifty thousand dollars this coming year, and recommend the Conference to assign our apportionment of thirteen hundred dollars to the Presiding Elders to be divided among the districts and the charges severally.

D. G. DUBOIS, Chairman.

G. E. SCRIMGER, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

The Methodfst Book Concern ought to be considered by every Methodist preacher as a part of his own business. He ought to know about it; to be interested in it; to buy his books and papers of it. We pledge ourselves as a Conference to unswerving loyalty to this grand institution.

The circulation of our Sunday School periodicals has increased in the last ten years 133 per cent. It now stands at 1,718,500 from the western house alone. We are publishing several thousand more copies of our Berean Leaves than there are scholars enrolled in Methodist schools. Our cup runneth over.

The aggregate sales of the past ten years are more than one-third of the sales of the past one hundred years. By the honest and economical business methods of our agents we have succeeded in sweeping the cheap and irresponsible religious trash practically off of the field.

The General Conference rule requiring accounts to be settled every year ought to be carefully and faithfully enforced. Without this, dividends will be impossible and the business as well as many of the ministry will be demoralized.

We heartily commend the Epworth Herald to our youth; the Central Christain Advocate to the families of our people; and the Methodist Review to the study table of every one of our ministers.

The suppression of the liquor traffic, the purification of the ballot, the problems attendant upon the rapid spread of Romanism, Mormonism and Socialism, and all the other great causes of moral reform cannot be understood nor appreciated by our people without a liberal use of Methodist Episcopal literature. FRANK CRANE.

TRACTS.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society is an efficient co-laborer with the ministry in disseminating the Word of Divine Truth and thus bringing a lost world to the knowledge of the world's Savior; and,

WHEREAS, Tracts to the value of one-half the tract collection on any charge will be returned to the pastor on his request; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as ministers, will not only take the collection for tracts, urging our people to liberality, but will also avail ourselves of this opportunity to secure tracts, and will by careful distribution make practical use of them in our charges. J. W. MADISON, Chairman.

A. N. SIMMONS, Secretary.

TEPERANCE.

WHEREAS, The gigantic evil of intemperance still throws its dark shadows over our land, striking a deadly blow at all the sacred interests of humanity—one of the most dangerous foes to society, to the home, the nation and to the church; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we hail with delight the auspicious signs of progress in the temperance work; that Protestant Evangelical Christians are standing with the Methodist Episcopal Church in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic.

2nd. That the action of Congress in enacting prohibitory laws for the government of the Territory of Oklahoma, and in the "Original Package Decision," restoring the rights of the States to control this question, meets with our hearty endorsement.

3rd. That we most respectfully and earnestly petition the managers of the Columbian Exposition to absolutely prohibit the sale of all intoxicants, and by our example send to the nations of the earth the potent protest of this Government against this great crime of the nineteenth century.

4th. That we are unalterably opposed to license, high or low, to free whisky, or to the toleration of the traffic in any form.

5th. That we should attend the primary meetings of our respective parties, and by our influence secure the nomination, and by our votes elect men to office who will seek the overthrow of the rum power, and advise our people not to vote for candidates of any political party who do not believe in the practical enforcement of the principles of prohibition in Municipal, State and National affairs. W. M. REED, President.

G. W. DUNGAN, Secretary.

ITINERANTS' CLUB.

We recommend that a committee consisting of Frank Crane, H. H. O'Neal, J. T. Orr, R. G. Hobbs and M. D. Hornbeck be appointed to co-operate with a similar committee from the Central Illinois Conference, which joint committee shall have full power to arrange for and manage an Itinerants' Club, to be held sometime within the ensuing Conference year, at the Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, Ill.

We recommend that Rev. Frank Crane be appointed by this Conference to visit the Central Illinois Conference at its next annual session, and secure the co-operation of that body in this matter. But in case that Conference cannot be induced to co-operate, we recommend that our committee proceed independently. J. R. VAN PELT, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

WHEREAS, The great success which has attended the work of the Board of Church Extension since its organization in 1864 has been such as to call for devout thanksgiving to God from the whole church; and,

WHEREAS, Special addressess and services calling attention to and emphasizing the inception, development and widening work of this Society would be of great value to the whole church, by showing the blessed results accomplished with the money already expended, in directing the thought of the ministry and members of the church to the necessity of enlarged contributions to this work, and also in directing the minds of those contemplating special gifts to this cause; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we heartily endorse the efforts of the Board to disseminate needful information through the publication known as "Christianity in Earnest, or a House of Prayer for all People."

2nd. That as preachers we will subscribe for and seek to circulate among our people the Bi-Monthly and Service of Song published by the Board.

3rd. That we will do all in our power to press the claims of this cause, and raise the full amount of our assessment.

A. H. REAT, President.

C. BAUGHMAN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We regard the Epworth League a child of Providence, as well as the result of the combined wisdom and piety of the church, in response to a felt need throughout the denomination for an organization for the young people that would incorporate all that was good in the Oxford League, Young People's Alliance, and other excellent societies, and yet be better adapted to the work throughout Methodism.

Its basal object is the cultivation of the gifts and graces of the young people, and the leading them into an active and assured religious experience, and to that end it provides for the development of the religious, intellectual and social natures, through its several departments, which can easily be adjusted to all local conditions.

We therefore commend the object of the League to all of the ministers, and urge the immediate organization of local chapters.

We respectfully request the Presiding Elders to give the movement the full weight of their influence, and direct in the matter of district organization.

We recommend that local chapters will, so far as possible, follow the plans suggested in the model constitution and by-laws.

We take pleasure in heartily commending the organ of the League, The Epworth Herald, and suggest that pastors circulate it among our young people, whether organized into chapters or not.

J. E. ARTZ, Chairman.

C. B. TAYLOR, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The object of the Historical Society of the Illinois Annual Conference is, or should be, too well understood to need any description of its aims and methods, but we again earnestly ask for it the co-operation of the entire Conference. To succeed in its work and get the "History of Methodism in Illinois" before the people, it is necessary that there be secured a subscription for one thousand copies of each unpublished volume now ready for the printer, and that the preachers urge the sale of the work among the people, and that they also assist the Society by gathering up all the records and papers bearing upon the history of the church; therefore,

Resolved, That we urge as a duty that every member of the Conference become identified with this Society.

Resolved, That we ask for a subscription in open Conference for the unpublished volumes of the History, and that the Society be requested to proceed to its publication as soon as practicable.

Resolved, That we again request all Quarterly Conferences to place the old records of the various charges in the hands of the Society, and that we repeat our former request for the donatiou of books for the Historical Library at Springfield.

Resolved, That we request the Conference to continue W. N. McElroy and C. Galeener as a Committee on the Publication of "The History of Methodism in Illinois."

Resolved, That as the Society seems to have its work now fully in hand, that a committee is no longer necessary, but that the Conference hereafter request an annual report of the doings of the Society.

J. B. WOLFE, Chairman.

W. S. HOOPER, Secretary.

SABBATH AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

We, the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in session at Jacksonville, Ill., September, 1890, representing two hundred and ninety ministers, fifty thousand members, and a population of probably two hundred thousand more, learn with regret that efforts are being made to secure the sale of intoxicating liquors on the grounds of the Columbian Exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893, and that it has been proposed to keep said grounds open on Sunday for public exhibit.

We regard the liquor traffic one of the most serious evils, productive of a very large proportion of the poverty, corruption and crime of our land; and as our Government has full control of this Exposition, we do not want it to sanction or become party to this debasing traffic.

We regard the sanctity of the Sabbath, as a day of rest and worship, as essential to the stability and perpetuity of our free Republic. The opening of the Exposition on the Sabbath, instead of accommodating the laboring man, as suggested, would cause thousands of men to labor on that day, depriving them of rest and the privilege of worship. This influence would tend to secularize the Sabbath throughout our land, making it a day of labor and a holiday, thus striking a serious blow to the highest morality and temporal welfare of our people; therefore,

Resolved, That we most earnestly appeal to the managers of said Exposition to prohibit the sale of all intoxicating drinks upon the Exposition grounds; also to keep the grounds closed to the public on Sunday.

We further ask all other religious and reform bodies, and every lover of morality, to co-operate with us in urging this appeal.

S. M. MERRILL, President.

C. GALEENER, Secretary.

TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in Centenary Church, Jacksonville, September 10, 1890.

Present—James Leaton, Hiram Buck, W. H. Webster, Preston Wood, S. H. Whitlock, A. T. Orr, W. A. Smith, W. H. Wilder and Horace Reed.

The President, James Leaton, in the chair.

On motion of Preston Wood, the Treasurer was instructed to obtain such advice (legal if necessary) in regard to notes, or bequests, as may best serve the interests of this corporation.

On motion of W. H. Wilder, the meeting adjourned.

JAMES LEATON, Bresident.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

ARMY CHAPLAINCIES.

WHEREAS, A Christian nation is under obligations to provide for the moral and religious wants of its army and navy; and,

WHEREAS, The efficiency and standing of the military force of a country depends largely on the moral character of the officers and enlisted men; therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend to the Congress of the United States the providing by law of a chaplaincy for our army and navy, such as in number, rank and pay shall fully meet all these claims upon our beloved country.

E. D. WILKIN, Chairman.

PETER WALLACE, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That while it is with sincere sorrow we learn of the very rapid decline of the health and strength of our beloved brother and former colaborer, the Rev. R. N. Davies, D. D., yet we rejoice to know that while the outward man perisheth, the inward man is renewed day by day, and that in the fiery furnace of affliction into which he and his loved ones have been cast, we can behold one like unto the Son of God walking, and hear him say when thou passest through the fire it shall not burn thee.

Also, that his present pastor, the Rev. R. G. Hobbs, and his brother in affliction, the Rev. J. H. Noble, be appointed a committee to convey to him this evidence of our remembrance and the assurance of our warmest sympathy and most earnest prayers. S. H. HUBER.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to all the railroads which have granted us special favors. We also desire to express our high appreciation of the many courtesies received from Mr. W. W. Kent, the gentlemanly General Passenger Agent of the Jacksonville Southeastern Railway, and we commend the line he represents as in every way worthy of the patronage of our people.
T. M. DILLON.

Resolved, That we have been pleased and profited by the easy and pleasant manner in which Bishop Merrill has presided over the session of our Conference, and assure him that he will always be welcome to our body and our charges. J. MONTGOMERY.
J. H. NOBLE.
W. N. McELROY.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference is hereby tendered the Jacksonville National Bank for courtesies extended.
HENRY WILSON.
W. T. BEADLES.
ABNER CLARK.

Resolved, That hereafter the Committee on Public Worship, at the sessions of our Conference, be requested to arrange for our Annual Memorial Services to be held on Sunday afternoon, immediately prior to the ordination of Deacons and Elders by the Bishop. E. D. WILKIN.
W. A. SMITH.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the Secretary, C. Galeener, and his assistants, for their hard and faithful work, to the Treasurers, and to the Christian Church and pastors of churches. W. S. HOOPER.
M. H. EWERS.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the citizens for their kind and hospitable entertainment. W. S. HOOPER.
M. H. EWERS.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to the pastor and members of the Christian Church for the use of their church during the session of the Conference, and to the pastors of the churches of Jacksonville for their courtesies.

MEMOIRS.

W. H. H. ADAMS, D. D.

The subject of this memoir, Rev. William Henry Harrison Adams, D. D., like the eloquent Summerfield, who said he was born in both Dublin and Liverpool, and like all God's true sons on earth, was twice born. His first birth occurred in Effingham County, Ill., March 30, 1840. He was born again at a point on Paradise Circuit, Coles County, near Mattoon, Ill., in 1856. "God's finger touched him and he slept," March 12, 1890, within eighteen days of the fiftieth anniversary of his advent into this life. W. H. H. Adams was a favored son of man and of God. He was created with great natural endowments of wealth in head and heart, to which were subsequently added unusual attainments in knowledge and grace, which gave him, in a high degree, the best equipments for life. He was a lineal descendant of John Quincy Adams, and possessed some of the characteristics of that remarkable man. His early educational facilities were meagre, indeed, being confined to the opportunities afforded by a primitive log school house in Coles County, Ill., but he made the best use of the advantages thus presented.

He was given an exhorter's license at Paradise in March, 1859, by Rev. Joseph Lane, and soon afterward he was licensed to preach by Rev. J. L. Crane, Presiding Elder of Paris District. He was ordained Local Deacon October 10, 1869, at Freeport, Ill., by Bishop D. W. Clark, and Elder at Mattoon, Ill., September 20, 1874, by Bishop R. S. Foster. He was first married in August, 1861, to Miss Sarah E. Campbell, who died January 14, 1866. Two children were born to them, who died while young. In August, 1867, he married Miss Hannah Concklin, of Plymouth, Richland County, Ohio, whose life was linked with his from that time to the day of his death, and who, with her four children, suffers the pangs of bereavement. One brother and two sisters also survive him.

Young Adams was a patriotic son of his country, and when the nation's life was imperiled, and rising rebellion must be crushed, he responded to his country's call, took up arms in defense of the flag, rushed to the front into the thickest of the fray and offered his life for the life of the land. He enlisted as a private in company A, 111th Illinois volunteers. In 1863 he was promoted to first lieutenant, brevetted a captain and then a major with a commission signed by Abraham Lincoln, the ideal hero of this young soldier. He commanded the 4th battery, drilled the first 2,000 colored troops mustered into the service, organized them into companies and placed them in their proper commands. He resigned July 4, 1865, his position in the regular army and returned home. Shortly afterward, interpreting a call to preach to include a call to prepare to preach, Bro. Adams entered the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., to secure a higher education. With that indomitable energy and great capacity for bearing burdens that characterized his whole life, he not only preached regularly in Chicago a large share of the time while in college, but also carried along with his literary and classical studies the theological course of Garrett Biblical Institute, graduating from the college of letters and arts in June, 1870, and from the school of theology in October of the same year, taking the degrees of A. B. and B. D. from these respective schools.

He has always been a loyal son of Methodism and of the Illinois Conference. Before leaving college he was offered a church at Louisville, Ky., after graduation, at a large salary. He was also asked to take charge of the church at South Evanston. He refused both these tempting offers, saying he preferred and proposed to remain with his own people, and that they were entitled to his services if they were of any value. He united with our own Conference at Shelbyville in the autumn of 1870, and was sent to Monticello. There he remained two years, greatly endearing himself to the people of the charge and community. His next appointment was Clinton, where he was stationed three years. Here he paid off a burdensome debt. Never did pastor stand higher in the regard of his people than did the shepherd of this favored flock. In June of the last year of his pastorate there he was elected President of the Illinois Wesleyan University. He entered on his new duties in September, 1875, and continued to occupy that position with marked ability, acceptability and adaptability during the twelve succeeding years. He made hosts of friends both in the school and out of it, especially in Bloomington, where he was best and most favorably known. The people everywhere learned to love him, and the students were devotedly attached to him. After his sudden demise many of them were most profuse and tender in their expressions of regard. While under his administration they felt the inspiration of his presence and the impress of his touch in molding and beautifying their characters. His influence for good has entered into their very lives and become a part of them, and by this, though dead, he yet speaks. His own alma mater, not slow to learn his true worth, conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in June, 1876, at the close of the first year of his Presidency. While occupying this position Dr. Adams was unceasing in his efforts and heroic in his endeavors to relieve the University from debt, increase its endowment fund and make the institution first class in all its appointments. He succeeded as few other men would or could have achieved success.

Dr. Adams was a many-sided and well-rounded man. But he was pre-eminently a pulpit orator. As a preacher and platform speaker he had not many peers and fewer superiors. The pulpit was his throne, and there he reigned as king. The great simplicity of his language, combined with richness and fullness of thought, indicated something of his greatness, while his geniality and magnetism held his audiences in his own grasp. His rhetoric indicated the true scholar. His style was remarkable for its chrystalline clearness, while the unselfishness, sincerity and subdued earnestness of the man clothed him with remarkable power. This soon gave him great popularity as a public speaker, and thus, in addition to the arduous labors already mentioned, he received and answered many calls to deliver lectures and addresses and dedicate churches, especially in the great West. He would have been almost superhuman had he performed all these tasks without physical injury. Besides, he was afflicted with a most excrutiating disease, acute muscular rheumatism, contracted by exposure in the army. All this, in time, incapacitated him for doing the same work in quantity if not in quality which he had previously performed. Failure of health led to his resignation and his retirement from the Presidency of the University three years ago, but not to a complete cessation of labor. He was still active in a general way. Last fall he requested of his Conference an appointment near Bloomington, so that he could continue to live among a people whom he loved. He was sent to Atlanta, and the people there were surprised and delighted at receiving him as their pastor.

While on a visit to the Pacific coast a short time before his death he was offered several important positions in churches and schools, and more recently he was asked to assume the Presidency of Spokane College. The salary in all these places was large, but the same ties which bound him to us at first led him to decline them all. His own Conference reciprocated this feeling, and honored him by electing him a delegate to the General Conference of 1880, and thereby also honored itself. As already stated, Dr. Adams was for years a great sufferer. Only his family and his most intimate friends knew what he endured. While attending school at Evanston his physicians, including some of the most eminent men in medical circles in the West, gave him only a short lease of life because of his rheumatic malady. Under their prescription he sought relief in medicinal specifics, which they said he must use or die, but the benefit was only temporary. After an attack of la grippe he suffered a relapse and his old trouble returned with great violence. On Friday, March 7, I saw him the last time alive at his own home. He declared that he was suffering "intolerable agony;" said he had obtained more permanent help than in any other way at Hot Springs, two years ago, and if nothing else would do he would be compelled to go there again and burn the disorder out. He went, and the result produced the keenest sorrow and the most poignant grief.

He seemed to realize that he was a very sick man and that his days might be numbered, and just prior to his departure his farewells were more tender than usual.

Though at times suffering almost more than mortal can bear, Dr. Adams, through all his life of pain, was one of the most unselfish and genial of men. He carried sunshine with him everywhere. Especially was he an affectionate husband and devoted father. Some one once asked Mr. Whitfield if a certain man was a Christian. "How do I know?" said Whitfield, "I never lived with him." Those who were nearest our brother are most sure of his benevolent nature, generous disposition and Christian character. He was always cheerful and hopeful. On rising each morning he would sing:

"Arise, my soul, arise,
Shake off thy guilty fears,
The bleeding sacrifice
In my behalf appears.
Before the throne my surety stands,
My name is written on His hands."

We believe the sun of his soul has now arisen in the glad morning of eternal day to go no more down forever.

"The sun is not extinguished when it sets
Upon the dull horizon; it but goes
To shine in other skies; then reappear
In ours, as fresh as when it first arose.

"His day has come, not gone,
His sun has risen, not set,
His life is now beyond the reach
Of death or change, not ended, but begun."

DR. CHARLES ADAMS.

Charles Adams, son of John and Anna Folsome Adams, was born in Stratham, N. H., January 24, 1808, and died in Washington, D. C., January 19, 1890. His grandfather, Rev. Joseph Adams, was the Congregational minister in his native town for thirty years or more, and his mother, a woman of great excellence, died in 1835, about twelve years before his father.

In early childhood Charles attended the town school near his home, but when he was ten and eleven years old he was a student for three terms at the Wesleyan Academy at Newmarket, N. H., then in charge of Dr. Martin Ruter. In the summer of 1827 he entered the Wesleyan Academy at Wilbraham, Mass., and there he became a student of Rev. Wilbur Fisk, the distinguished principal of the academy. A short time before he went to Wilbraham he had become an earnest Christian, and had a strong conviction that it was his duty to preach the Gospel. He accordingly entered on the study of the languages preparatory for college. Whilst in the academy he made it a point in all the social meetings in the boarding hall either to speak or pray or both in a few brief but appropriate words, and on Sabbath he was accustomed to hold meetings over the Wilbraham mountains or elsewhere in the vicinity. Whilst there he discussed with his fellow student, J. W. Merrill, the question, "Whether the more highly educated minister, other things being equal, could be the most useful?" It was agreed by both that true science and learning were an aid to ministers as well as others, and that other things being equal, the best educated minister could be the most useful. Soon after the two concluded to form the "Theological Association," uniting with them Edward Orheman, a fellow student, and choosing Dr. Fisk as their president. He assented, and met with them regularly once a week. This was the real germ of the Concord Biblical Institute, that has since borne such abundant fruit.

There were at that time many young men in the academy who were contemplating the Christian ministry as their calling for life, who were soon gathered into the association and participated in its work. Mr. Adams not only well sustained his part in the society, but was very diligent in study and Christian duty. He made the Bible a constant companion, and garnered its truths as his most precious attainment. As his Christian experience deepened and his talents unfolded, he secured the universal respect both of the students and officers of the school; and when the revival of 1828 occurred, in which Osman C. Baker and David Patten were converted, he was a zealous and laborious factor in the precious work.

Having rapidly finished his preparatory course, he entered Bowdoin College in 1829. During his college life he carefully studied theology, especially Dwight's, in addition to his regular studies. He was a student of rare application, and gained not only the respect but the esteem of his fellow students and professors. He became a sound scholar, a good speaker, and a chaste writer. By permission of the president of the college, having been duly licensed as a local preacher, he was accustomed to spend his Sabbaths in preaching in various places in the neighborhood; and at the close of his college course in 1833, having preached for four years, he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Hedding at Bath, Maine, and then, entering the New Hampshire Conference, he was two years afterwards ordained Elder by Bishop Emory at Portsmouth, N. H. His Conference history is as follows: In 1833 he was assigned to Winchester; for the five following years he had charge of Newbury Seminary; in 1839 he was transferred to the New England Conference and assigned to Andover; in 1840 to Lynn Common, and for the following four years he was principal of Wilbraham Academy. In 1845–6 he was in Bromfield street, Boston; then for two years was professor in the newly established Biblical Institute at Concord; in 1849 and '50 his appointment was Worthen street, Lowell, and '51 and '52 Harvard street, Cambridge. In 1853 he was transferred to Genesee Conference and stationed at Lima; in 1854 he was transferred to Indiana Conference, but his appointment does not appear in the general minutes; in 1855 he was transferred to Cincinnati Conference and assigned to Asbury Chapel, Cincinnati, to which he was returned the following year; in 1857 he was appointed to Xenia, and in 1858 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, of which he remained a member until his death. He had been elected President of Illinois Female College, where he served acceptably for ten years, when in 1868 he was at his own request granted a supernumerary relation, which in 1885 was changed to superannuated. When he left the educational work, in which so large a portion of his life had been spent, he went to Washington, where until his death he held a position in one of the government departments, exercising at the same time his ministry in his own and other communions, as opportunity offered.

In addition to his ability as a preacher, Dr. Adams was a writer of no mean repute. Amongst his works were "The Minister for the Times," "The New Testament Church Member," "The Women of the Bible," "Evangelism in the Middle of the Nineteenth Century," "Earth and its Wonders," "Words that Shook the World," some of which were quite widely circulated and passed through several editions. He was, too, a poet of considerable ability, and was the author of several short poems of no mean rank either for sentiment or verse.

For eleven years Dr. Adams was Secretary of the New England Conference, and in 1859 McKendree College honored itself in conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Dr. Adams was a true Christian gentleman, courteous and kind to all, faithful and successful in the work to which he was called by God and His church, irreproachable in character, and ever the fast friend of all that is good and true. Thousands of young people at Newbury, at Wilbraham and at Jacksonville have been inspired, under his teachings, with higher instincts for virtuous endeavor, and with noble aspirations for a grand moral life. His death was as calm as a summer evening. Called to dinner on the holy Sabbath, after standing by his chair and asking the divine blessing he sat down, leaned back in his chair, and "was not, for God took him."

REV. IRA B. HENRY.

Ira B. Henry was born near North East, Erie County, Pa., August 2, 1839, and died in Mason, Texas, on August 11, 1890. In 1842 he moved West with his parents and settled in Ogle County, Ill., near the city of Polo At the age of eighteen he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon after he left the farm to attend school. He spent one year in the Rock River Seminary at Mt. Morris, Ill., and one year in Jennings Seminary, Aurora, Ill. During the winters he taught school. In October of 1861, while at school at Aurora, he enlisted in the 13th Illinois Cavalry and served in the Union army over three years, holding successively the ranks of orderly sergeant, second lieutenant and first lieutenant. For six months he was acting quartermaster of his regiment, and had command of his company for the same length of time. He was appointed brigade instructor and added to brigade staff in 1864, but soon after resigned and was mustered out of service at Little Rock, Ark., January 9, 1865.

In the following May he entered the preparatory department of the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., taking studies also in Garrett Biblical Institute. In June, 1870, he graduated from the University, and in the following October from the Biblical Institute. He married, on August 10, 1870, Miss Nellie L. Case, with whom he lived very happily, and who proved to be to him a loving and faithful companion and a great comfort and blessing to all his labors and sufferings.

He joined the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1870 and filled successively the following appointments: Virginia, two years; Island Grove, three years; University charge, Bloomington, one year; Pittsfield, one year; Trinity Church, Quincy, two years. His health was always poor, and during his second year in Quincy entirely failed. In December, 1878, he moved to San Antonio, Texas, where he remained a year preaching occasionally. He then took a frontier charge, a light work at Mason, which he served for about three years and a half. Constantly the climate seemed to hold his disease in check, and part of the time gave him hope of regaining comparative health, till September, 1882, when on a trip, being overtaken in a severe storm, he suffered so much from exposure and fatigue that hemorrhage of the lungs ensued. This continued at intervals until ninety distinct hemorrhages occurred, causing so much loss of blood that he was completely prostrated. But at the end of five years he had again so far recovered that he was able to supply the pulpit of the church at Mason once a Sabbath, superintend the Sunday School and do some pastoral work. In June, 1890, he was appointed census enumerator, but the hard work and intense heat were too much for him, and on June 27 he was prostrated with an attack of asthma and forced to discontinue his work. On August 3 he attended the quarterly meeting, administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, received one member into the church, was taken home sick, and never again left his house until he entered the "House not made with hands."

Bro. Henry was a noble man, a genuine Christian gentleman, a thoroughly consecrated and devoted servant of God. He was an able preacher, and loved the work of the ministry, and was always loved by the people he served. His last days were days of intense suffering, mingled with holy triumph. He said, "I would like to live, but I am ready for whatever the Lord sends." He sent requests to all his friends to meet him in heaven. He requested the 23rd Psalm to be read, and to the words, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil," he responded in a whisper, "Yes, yes." At his request they sang, "In the sweet bye and bye," "It is well with my soul." The last struggle came, and just before he took his departure he said, "It is all right," and then sweetly entered into rest. He leaves a wife and three daughters.

REV. WILLIAM F. LOWE.

William F. Lowe was born at Bath, N. Y., February 13th, 1819, and died in Macon, Ill., ——, —, 1889, after a life of devotion in the cause of his Master. His disease was senile gangrene, necessitating the amputation of his limb. He died in the arms of his aged wife and his faithful children. Every temporal want was fully met in the watchful care of loved ones, and every spiritual aspiration fully realized in the comforting presence of Christ. His end was peace. No Christian warrior ever met his fate with a calmer courage or a more blessed assurance of a joyful immortality! His dying salutation to his kindred, friends and ministerial brethren, many of whom visited him during his illness, was very trustful and inspiring. His message to his Conference was a bright and enthusiastic testimony to the great profit there is in Godliness. His had been a protracted, sustained and faithful ministry of unusual length, and unmarred by the slightest reproach.

His earlier years were spent in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada, where he filled many of the most important charges. He was Secretary of his Conference for many years, and twice delegate to the General Conference of that body. He was also Presiding Elder of an important district therein at the time of his removal to this country. No member of his Conference commanded a larger measure of the respect and confidence of his brethren. His fields of labor were the following: Niagara Conference of M. E. Church in Canada, 1848, Toronto circuit; 1849, Canboro; 1850, Smithville; 1851, Southwold; 1852, St. Marys; 1853–1854, Dumfries; 1855, Saltfleet; 1856–1857, Yonge Street; 1858–1859, Oxford district; 1860, removed to St. Louis Conference M. E. Church, South, Arrow Rock; 1861, same; 1862, removed to Central Illinois Conference, supplied West charge, Bloomington; 1863, Sheldon; 1864, Onarga; 1865, Pleasant Hill; 1866, Groveland; 1867, transferred to the Illinois Conference, Shelbyville circuit; 1868, Mattoon circuit; 1869, Irving; 1870–1871, Moweaqua; 1872, DeWitt; 1873–1874, Oldtown; 1875–1876, Stanford; 1877, San Jose; 1878–1879, Bath; 1880–1881, Littleton; 1882, Assumption; 1883, Irving and Butler; 1884, Irving; 1885, Harristown; 1886, superannuated, remaining such until his death.

During his illness he requested the writer to preach his funeral sermon. Rev. Messrs. Spruill, Armentrout and Wood, Conference brethren of adjoining charges, assisted in the service, together with the pastors of sister churches. We laid him to rest in Macon.

REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We congratulate the patrons and friends of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and all interested in its welfare, upon its present splendid state of prosperity. Of the three years of Dr. Wilder's administration the first was hopeful, the second substantial, and the third triumphant. During the past summer the buildings have been renovated, refreshed and beautified throughout. The large and valuable museum has been provided with suitable cases, and so arranged that it is now accessible to professors and students for daily use. The physical laboratory is a model of its kind for utility and convenience. The reading room is a rich and most valuable appointment of the University. It may be said in a word that the whole plant for the first time in its history is in such condition that no apology in its behalf is necessary.

The attendance has increased in a constant ratio for the past three years, and the opening this fall shows the largest attendance by far of any autumn term.

The earnings of the Endowment Fund and the receipts from tuitions for the past three years have been $1000 more than the actual expense of the school and regular interest, and nearly equal to all necessary expense of caring for all the interests of the University. The prospect now is that the earnings of the present year will exceed all expenditures, leaving a handsome surplus in the treasury.

Under the new adjustment the Music School enrolled for the past year 452 students in seven departments. No words of commendation are necessary for the School of Music. Its enrollment, efficiency and enthusiasm speak for it.

The new department of Fine Arts, under the title, "The Wilson College of Arts," has made a most auspicious beginning. Sixteen departments of instruction, some of them requiring six years for completion, have been provided. Students are taught charcoal sketching, architectural drawing, pen drawing, mechanical drawing, crayon drawing, pastel painting, water color painting, landscape and still life in oil, animal painting, tapestry painting, decorative design, etching, wood carving and photography. During the past year students were enrolled from nine different states.

The Law School also feels the impulse of the present tidal wave of prosperity and is increasing in numbers.

The non-resident course department of the University has a matriculation of 455. In view of the present agitation for university extension education, the Wesleyan University may be said to have in its non-resident matriculants a splendid basis for the inauguration of the new movement. If it were possible arrangement should be made at once to develop the non-resident work and bring it into a high state of development and proficiency.

The management of the University is to be congratulated upon having secured within the specified time the $25,000 necessary to secure the grateful bequest of $12,000 by Dr. Hiram Buck.

As a basis of guarantee to all persons, whether laymen or ministers, who may have large legacies or small gifts to bestow upon a worthy cause, mention may be made of the following facts concerning the Wesleyan University.

1. An excellent and permanent plant in fine state of equipment.
2. A well chosen and able faculty of instructors now at work in the University.
3. The actual attendance of a large and fine body of students, numbering 895, in addition to 495 non-residents, making 1350 in all, now receiving instruction or studying under the direction of the University.
4. The situation, a central location in a large, wealthy and most prosperous territory.
5. The actual need of such an institution by both the church and the country at large.
6. The splendid record of the school in the past. The University has furnished to the church and to the whole country many worthy and well trained servants.

We recommend for Trustees: J. A. Kumler, Abraham Mann, Dennis Kenyon, Leonidas H. Kerrick.

For Visitors: George Scrimger, James Miller, E. B. Randle, M. D. Hornbeck, J. T. Orr, A. C. Byerly.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The past year has been the most successful for Chaddock College for many years. The enrollment in the college of letters and science was 157, being an increase of 40 per cent over the preceding year. The entire enrollment was 200.

The Department of Art has, in Miss Franc Green, a teacher of rare ability, she being a superior artist. This department is not only self-sustaining, but brings quite an amount of revenue to the College.

The Department of Music will be under the charge of Prof. E. L. Williams, who is a graduate of the North German School of Pianists of New York City. Prof. Williams comes highly recommended and brings practical experience as a teacher. This department also brings in quite a surplus revenue to the College.

The Department of Elocution and Oratory will be under the charge of Miss Axford, a lady of nine years successful experience as a teacher.

The School of Law has a larger enrollment than for some years past. This department is not only self-sustaining, but it also yields a revenue to the College. The instructors are eminent and active lawyers.

Prof. Louis Webber having resigned the chair of Natural Science, the College has fortunately secured the services of Prof. J. F. Clearwater in this place.

For the first time in the history of the Institution the dormitory is full. The dormitory contains 64 well furnished rooms, all supplied with steam heat.

In addition to the Literary course the College provides a full Business course, with Prof. J. M. Clary in charge.

The religious condition of the College is excellent. The greater number attending school last year were converted.

The finances have assumed a more satisfactory form; all bills were met monthly during the year. The prosperity of the school has not only enabled the Trustees to meet all bills, but at the close of the last year they were enabled to pay off quite an amount of former debts.

The opening of the present school year is, also, unusually encouraging, being a gain over the large increase of last year of 38 per cent.

We recommend as Trustees: Peter Wallace and Abner Clark.

We recommend as Visitors: C. Galeener, T. W. Greer, J. B. Horney, C. Baughman and Wm. M. McElfresh.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The forty-fourth year of the Illinois Female College closed June 1st, 1891.

The attendance nearly equaled its capacity.

The corps of instruction in the Literary, Music ahd Fine Art departments is composed of teachers of the highest qualifications.

The building is steam heated, lighted with gas, and supplied with water (hot and cold) throughout. We can assure our people and all others who may be looking for a school for their daughters that they can find no school for young ladies whose home and school equipment and facilities are better.

We commend the College as worthy and deserving of the confidence and patronage of the members of the Church and all others.

The present year is opening with its usual attendance.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Hiram Buck, D. D., Rev. W. H. Webster and S. S. Dewees, Esq., as Trustees, and Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., as President.

We recommend the appointment of the Preachers at Centenary, Grace and Brooklyn Churches and Jacksonville Circuits as Conference Visiting Committee.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

The last year in this institution has been unusually prosperous. The enrollment of studeuts reached 196, and there were 38 graduates.

The chair made vacant by the death of Dr. C. W. Bennett has been most ably filled by the eleetion of C. J. Little, D. D., L.L. D., of Syracuse University, to the position.

One-third of the $50,000 donated toward the library building is to be appropriated to this school. Seventy of her students have been employod in ministerial work during the past year, who have received an aggregate salary of $24,000, while numerous chapels have been built and over 1000 conversions have resulted from their labors. Young men called to preach are also called to prepare to preach by availing themselves of the facilities here afforded.

We nominate as Conference Visitors: R. G. Hobbs and M. Auer.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Drew Theological Seminary maintains a very high rank as a "School of the Prophets." By its able faculty, its superb library, the marked spirituality pervading its halls, and the helpful association with the professors afforded to the students, this institution offers superior advantages to young men seeking a Theological education. We heartily commend it to all such.

We recommend that E. S. Hamilton be appointed Visitor:

THE BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

The past year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the Boston School of Theology. The number of students in attendance was greater than in any previous year in the entire history of the school, namely, 140. The quality of the work done has not been surpassed in any previous year.

We recommend this institution as an eminently suitable place to prepare for the work of the Christian Ministry.

We recommend that M. D. Hornbeck be appointed as Visitor.

DE PAUW SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

We find in the De Pauw University a grand organization for all the interests and purposes of higher education, and are glad to recommend it to all who are seeking such education as one of the foremost in the West. Wishing for it great prosperity in the future.

Visitor: M. D. Hawes.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We recognize in the Board of Education of our church an important connectional organization, which is doing a much needed work. We heartily indorse the efforts of its Secretary, Dr. C. H. Payne, to secure unity, harmony and greater efficiency in the management of all our educational interests.

We recommend the general observance of Children's Day and the use of the exercises prepared by the Board of Education.

WHEREAS, It is desirable to harmonize the work of the Conference Educational Society with that of the Board of Education and thus simplify the educational collections; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Education has made a generous proposal to the Conference societies (as fonnd on page 61 of its latest annual report) and explained to this Conference by its Corresponding Secretary, Dr. C. H. Payne; therefore,

Resolved, That this Conference recommends the officers of the Conference Educational Society to accept the proposal of the Board of Education and to turn over to the treasury of said board all Children's Day collections and all other collections taken for the purpose of aiding students to prepare for Christian work. On the condition that the Board of Education grants no application for aid to any student within the bounds of any Conference retaining any portion of the collection for education or the Children's Fund.

We recommend that each pastor hold an educational meeting in each appointment of his charge in the interest of our Conference educational institutions, not to take a collection, but to make the people acquainted with our facilities to furnish a Christian education to our own boys and girls.

Committee { W. A. SMITH, Chairman.
E. B. RANDLE, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

WHEREAS, The Board of Church Extension has done and is continuing to do a work of incalculable value in aiding and building thousands of churches within our connections; therefore,

Resolved, That we will urge our people in our respective charges to an increased interest in this work and that we will as pastors use all the helps we can for an increased contribution to this work.

Resolved, That we insist that applications for aid to churches within the bounds of this Conference which have the endorsement of the Conference Board of Church Extension shall be honored up to the full amount to which this Conference contributes.

J. C. KELLER, President.

J. EVERLY, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society during the twenty years since its organization has proven itself worthy of the highest approval and continued patronage of the whole church. Woman's work in India, China, Japan and other fields is a marvelous development of female capacity, courage and adaptation for successful missionaries; showing her co-operation in foreign fields to be indispensible in extending and maintaining the Kingdom of Christ in all lands and abroad.

The Society in the bounds of our Conference, we are glad to know, are alive to the mighty work of saving this world to God, and its managers are worthy and well qualified to lead to still further achievements. We will continue to give the agents of the Society a welcome in all our charges.

J. C. RUCKER, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, There is need of woman's kindness and efficient help in seeking the lost and perishing of our land, as well as aiding the poor among our own worthy brethren in Western and Southern fields of labor; and,

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society has been called by Divine Providence into this field of usefulness.

Resolved, That we rejoice in their abundant success and prosperity as evidenced by the largely increased offerings of last year, and that we extend to the officers of this Society congratulations for their great success during the year just closing.

Resolved, That we will encourage every effort looking toward a more thorough organization in all our charges, and that its claims and literature be placed before our parishioners.

JAMES O'KIRKPATRICK, Chairman of Com.

M. V. HILL, Secretary.

The Illinois Conference recognize in the Women's Home Missionary Society an earnest, sympathizing and efficient helper in the home missionary work; therefore we renew our pledge of support and co-operation.

J. C. KELLER, President.

N. H. KANE, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Resolved, 1st. That we rejoice with thanksgiving as we consider what God has wrought through the agency of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society in the quarter century of its existence. Its 41 Christian schools, 330 Christian teachers, 9,310 students, and property consecrated to Christian learning valued at $1,800,800, tell only a part of the story of its usefulness, but indicate gratifying progress.

Resolved, 2d. That we are gratified to learn of the movement looking to the federation of our church schools. We hope that this may be consummated at an early day, believing that the efficiency of our educational institutions will be greatly increased thereby.

Resolved, 3d. That we recognize the value of the Christian Educator both to pastors and people, that they may be informed as to the work and needs of the Society.

Resolved, 4th. That the Secretaries have not asked too largely of our great church when they say give us this year $300,000 for this important work, and since the need is so great we will make an honest, earnest effort to raise our apportionment.

Resolved, 5th. That we will observe in our churches the fourth Sunday of November, designated by the Society, as Southern Education Day, using the service prepared by our Secretaries for the occasion.

Resolved, 6th. That we have heard with great interest and satisfaction the clear presentation of the work of the society by Dr. Hartzell, and congratulate the church that this work is entrusted to such able hands, hoping that his faithful labors and zeal will be seconded by an appreciative response in liberal contributions from the church.

A. N. SIMMONS, Secretary. M. AUER, Chairman.

ANDRUS FUND.

Your Committee respectfully report that they have received and handed to the Conference Treasurer $80.00, interest on Andrus Fund.

M. W. EVERHASH.
E. A. HAMILTON.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, The Sunday School with its two million, five hundred thousand membership in Methodism is the most potent agency in the conversion of the young and the perpetuity of the church; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That wherever possible our Sunday Schools be organized in strict harmony with the disciplinary requirements.

2d. That we use our own Sunday School literature, both in loyalty to the church and as best adapted to the needs of our schools.

3d. That pastors, wherever practicable, form normal classes, in order to have a supply of well trained teachers when needed in the work of the school.

4th. That the membership of our schools be urged to greater diligence in securing an increased attendance on the part of the church.

5th. That in order to the highest effectiveness of our Sunday Schools, there be urged upon all parents, home religious training as of primary importance.

6th. That all pastors and Sunday School Superintendents be respectfully requested to use their earnest endeavors to secure the attendance of all Sunday School scholars upon the regular preaching of the Gospel.

J. E. ARTZ, Secretary. CHAS. WEHRMAN, Chairman.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Bible deserves and demands our greatest attention. And it is encouraging to all lovers of the Bible that the "American Bible Society" aims to make the Bible the cheapest of all books, by placing it within the reach of the people, offering it at the mere price of publication and supplying those who are unable to purchase gratuitously; therefore,

Resolved, That we will aid and encourage this benevolent work by co-operating with the County and Township Bible Societies, as far as possible, in raising money and circulating the Bible.

Resolved, That the county and its auxiliary, township, depositories should be kept in a healthy state and well supplied with books.

Resolved, That we sympathise with the American Bible Society in its great need of money, and we will give attention to collections for its benefit.

Resolved, That the Bible Record, published monthly at 25 cents a year, is a valuable publication and ought to be encouraged.

In behalf of Committee.

J. MONTGOMERY, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We believe the Epworth League to be an efficient factor in bringing souls to Christ and in building them up in the work of the Lord, and we hail with delight the results already achieved and look forward to greater victories.

We again recommend that all pastors urge the immediate organization of local chapters and respectfully request the Presiding Elders to give the movement their hearty co-operation.

We recommend that a Conference Convention be held between this and the next session of the annual Conference.

We recommend that all districts at once become organized.

We commend the National Convention idea and trust it will speedily be fulfilled.

We greatly appreciate the work of Rev. Chas. F. McKown in supplying the pastors with blanks for statistical reports.

With great pleasure we recommend the organ of the League, The Epworth Herald, and urge the pastors to solicit subscribers whether chapters exist or not.

C. B. TAYLOR, Chairman.

PARKER SHIELDS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance report as follows:

1st. That we urge the laity to come up to the high ground occupied by the members of the Conference on the tobacco question.

2d. What is the representative fruit of the liquor traffic? The saloon.

What openly and insolently defies the law? The saloon.

What is the chief desecrator of the Sabbath? The saloon.

Wherein are held the love feasts of anarchists? The saloon.

What dominates politics and defiles elections? The saloon.

What puts a premium on vice and a premium on villainy? The saloon.

What is the rendezvous of thieves and thugs? The saloon.

What fosters idleness, fires passion and incites to deeds of lust? The saloon.

What is the companion and feeder of the brothel? The saloon.

What ruins houses and human hopes and damns the souls of men? The saloon.

What brings horror to the mother's heart and robs the youth of virtue? The saloon.

What is the most deadly enemy of home and school? The saloon.

What secures the enactment of license laws and then despises and defies them? The saloon.

What debauches the public conscience with the false and infamous philosophy of the license system? The saloon.

What terrorizes the press and seeks to put its slimy hand on the pulpit? The saloon.

What is the great American king whose palaces are on our principal streets and which collects a tribute from our people of more than $90,000,000 per annum? The saloon.

What prospers under low license and pampered by high license waxes fat and insolent? The saloon.

Against what shall we declare a war in which there is no discharge? The saloon.

What merits the everlasting execration of all righteous men and the blighting curse of Almighty God? The saloon.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

We recognize that the obligation and inspiration to missionary effort rests on the great commission of the Master, "Go ye into the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

Our Lord furnished the supreme example of obedience to His own command, subsequently given by coming from the realms of glory to this earth, as Heaven's anointed missionary.

The Church of Christ, through her prayers, money and missionaries, is Christ going into all the world to save and bless its every part.

Gratitude to God for His great salvation personally experienced, and a sense of obligation to announce to the ignorant heirs of a common inheritance in Christ, "that they may become "partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light," should make every Christian an enthusiastic friend of missions; therefore,

Resolved, That while we hail with joy the largely increased gifts which the church is laying on God's altar for missions, promising to reach this year one million and a quarter dollars for this sacred cause, and while it is a matter of congratulation that in our own Conference more than thirteen times as much per capita is given than half a century ago and a handsome advance is made this year over last, yet we believe that we have only touched the edge of our possibilities for God, made manifest by the wide opening gates of heathen lands, the grand success attending missionary effort, and the modern agencies of steam, printing press, and electricity, which God would have consecrated to the work of the world's salvation.

Resolved, That in order to press home upon the conscience of every member of the church this duty and privilege of contributing to missions, we recommend—

1st. That the monthly missionary prayer meeting be sustained in every charge.

2d. That all our Sunday Schools be organized into Missionary Societies, and the monthly concert be made as interesting as possible.

3d. That our pastors circulate faithfully missionary literature, such as the "Gospel in all Lands" and "World-Wide Missions," in order that the people may know the burning facts.

4th. That the preachers take the missionary collection separate from all others.

5th. That the Presiding Elders arrange for missionary mass meetings which will tend to educate and enthuse the people along missionary lines.

6th. That so far as practicable the pastors comply with the request of our Secretaries, and urge the people to observe the week of self-denial for missions, beginning with Sept. 27th, or later if not then convenient, both as a means of spiritual benefit and of supplying the present urgent needs of the Missionary Society.

Resolved, That we invoke the Holy Spirit to work in the hearts of all who aid by prayer and money in sending forth the missionaries of the Cross, and in the hearts of the missionaries, and of those in pagan lands to whom they carry the message of life, that they may receive the truth, and that the Holy Spirit may so rest upon all the agencies employed, that the whole world may speedily be laid at the Redeemer's feet as the purchase of His precious blood.

WM. McK. McELFRESH, President.

G. E. SCRIMGER, Secretary.

THE SABBATH.

The Sabbath day is a divine and most benevolent institution, and, as our Lord Jesus Christ declares, "was made for man," for all men of all nations and through all time. It is not an arbitrary institution, but one of love and goodness to his loyal and obedient children. Jesus himself observed the day and antagonized only the hypocrisy of the Pharisees, who condemned even works of love and mercy on the Sabbath day. True loyalty to God, under the Gospel, will always be manifested by keeping the Sabbath holy. Refusal to do this is rebellion against God. Opposition to the Sabbath is found mostly among infidels, rumsellers and their patrons and those who say, "Who is the Lord that we should serve him." Only lovers of sin, more than lovers of God, wish to do away with the Sabbath of the Lord by turning it into a day of fun and sinful pleasure.

All kinds of business for gain or mere pleasure, the running of railroad trains or traveling upon them, the making or sale of newspapers, and social visiting for convenience or pleasure, are justly regarded as violations of the law of the Sabbath. No minister of the gospel is justifiable in traveling on railroad trains on the Sabbath, even to fill an appointment to preach.

WHEREAS, Some of the professed friends and the open enemies of the Sabbath and of good morals are now joining hands and massing their forces to secure the opening of the great Columbian Exposition on the Sabbath day, to the insulting of Jehovah, the humiliation and disgrace of the American people, and to the sorrow of all Christians everywhere; therefore,

Resolved, That the Illinois Conference of the M. E. Church, composed of about three hundred ministers, representing more than fifty thousand members, and a population of over two hundred thousand more, most earnestly pray the Directors and Managers of said Exposition to keep the gates closed on the Sabbath day, in the interest of all the people.

Resolved, 2d. That a copy of this preamble and resolution be signed by the Presiding Bishop and the Secretary of Conference and by the Secretary forwarded to the Directors of said Exposition.

S. SHINN, Chairman.

M. B. McFADDEN, Secretary.

TRACTS.

WHEREAS, The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is a potent agency of the church and ministry to put the germs of divine truth into the minds of men not accustomed to the ministry of the Word of God in our churches; therefore,

Resolved, That we as preachers will take up the tract collection, urging our people to liberality, and that we will avail ourselves of the privileges of said society.

WM. BRANDON, Chairman.

A. WILLARD, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

We earnestly commend the Central Christian Advocate and the Epworth Herald with its forty-three thousand subscribers to all our families and Quarterly Review to all our preachers and leading laymen.

The suppression of vice and all manner of evil in the land, at the head of them all the saloon, and its accomplice the gambling den, race course, and Sabbath desecration cannot be successfully carried forward without a liberal use of religious literature.

The spread of Romanism, socialism and anarchy are alarming. The press is either for good or evil, for or against these dangers that threaten us as a nation. Therefore let the press that gives no uncertain sound be used freely.

Resolved, therefore, That we stand by our standard publications in Sunday School literature, papers and books.

JAMES SHAW, Chairman.

J. A. BURKS, Secretary.

LAY DEACONS' TRAINING SCHOOL.

WHEREAS, At no time in the history of Methodism has there been greater necessity nor a stronger desire than now to reach the masses; and

WHEREAS, No field is so accessible, nor is there one in which well planned and directed effort will be so fruitful for good as among the thousands in our cities and rural places who are not identified with the Sabbath School, nor found in our churches on the Sabbath day; and

WHEREAS, Many of the more prominent and best men in our church, among them five of our Bishops—namely Walden, Joyce, Newman, Warren and Ninde—have seen the importance of this unused power, and have recommended training-schools under the care of our church; therefore,

Resolved, That we favor the establishment of such training schools, by a duly formulated statute, of tne General Conference.

Resolved, That our delegates be, and are hereby, instructed to represent our wishes to the General Conference and secure, if possible, the aforesaid organization.

DAVID GAY.

WHEREAS, Rev. D. Gay was a worthy and valuable member of the Illinois Conference for the space of thirty years, having spent the best part of his life dmong us; and,

WHEREAS, He has in the providence of God been called to another field of labor; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That our best wishes and most earnest prayers will go with him in his new field.

Resolved, 2d. That if he wishes at any time in the future to return to the Illinois Conference we will cordially welcome him back again.

T. D. WEEMS.
F. M. SISSON.
J. F. WOHLFARTH.
S. H. WHITLOCK.

S. A. KEEN.

Resolved, That we have greatly enjoyed the presence and labor of Rev. S. A. Keen and J. P. Hillis among us. His work in the Conference devotional meetings and in the special Pentecostal Services has been helpful and of great inspiration. We believe his coming was Providential and our thanks are hereby extended with the hope that he may visit us again, when he will be cordially received.

R. H. OSBORNE.
FRANK CRANE.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That all our pastors should labor with those persons who use tobacco in any form and who apply for probation in the church, and endeavor to secure that measure of self-denial, that they may be entirely free from this great evil. And 2d

Resolved, That all persons admitted to full membership from probation should be free from the use of tobacco.

T. J. BRYANT.
S. SHINN.
E. S. WAMSLEY.

Resolved, That our delegates to the General Conference be instructed to endeavor to secure the distribution of the profits of the Book Concern on the basis of the number of claimants rather than on the number of members in Conference.

W. T. BEADLES.
D. W. ENGLISH.
E. B. RANDLE.
THOS. J. WHEAT.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are tendered to the Western Passenger Association for its uniform liberality in granting excursion rates to the members of this body and others attending its session. We further tender the thanks of this Conference to all other railways that have given reduced, more or less liberal, especially the Jacksonville Southeastern, which has always granted special favors to this body.

T. M. DILLON.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference be hereby tendered to the citizens of Bloomington for their kind hospitality, and to the Secretaries for their earnest labors during the session.

W. S. HOOPER.
J. FOXWORTHY.

Resolved, That we thank the officers of the First National Bank for their accommodations to the Treasurers of this Conference.

ABNER CLARK.
H. WILSON.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby extended to Bishop Warren for the able and impartial manner in which he has presided over all our deliberations, and that we will most cordially welcome him whenever he may return to us in the future.

A. C. BYERLY.
JAMES MILLER.
T. D. WEEMS.

WHEREAS, Rev. Jay Benson Hamilton, a member of the New York East Conference and editor of Our Veterans, is giving himself to the work of awakening an increase in the Church through the several annual Conferences, as far as practicable, for the better support of superannuated preachers, their widows and children, and offers to give one month of labor, gratis, in this Conference this year, upon a plan that may be arranged; therefore,

Resolved, That we thankfully accept his offer and that a committee of three be appointed to correspond with him at Hackettstown, New Jersey, in reference to the arrangement of the plan of work.

Resolved, If Dr. Hamilton should be employed to labor on this line and collections be taken, the traveling expenses of the agent be paid, the apportionment to the charge be paid, and all over that amount be turned over to the Conference Trustees.

S. SHINN.
A. SLOAN.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are extended to our host, Rev. Frank Crane, for the wise and liberal provisions for conveniences, comfort and spiritual profit of our Conference session, and to Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of Grace M. E. Church for his generous cooperation in this effort.

M. AUER.
J. W. ECKMAN.
T. D. WEEMS.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Illinois Annual Conference, extend our hearty thanks to all the different railroad companies, who have granted reduced rates to the members of our annual Conference.

J. M. DUFF.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WILLIAM M. JOHNSON.

Rev. William M. Johnson was born in Jacksonville, Ill., April 6, 1851. He was the son of the late William E. Johnson, of the Illinois Conference, and for many years was one of its worthiest, most useful and respected members. Thus, young William had a long and valuable training in the peculiar experiences of our itinerant ministry, which no doubt was of much advantage to him when he also entered upon the same work.

He dated his conversion in his ninth year, during a meeting held by his father at Waynesville, Ill.

He entered the Illinois College in 1869 and graduated in June, 1873, with the honors of his class, having been chosen veledictorian.

In September of the same year he was licensed to preach and was recommended by Centenary Quarterly Conference of Jacksonville for admission on trial in the traveling connection in the Illinois Conference at its session at Bloomington. He was received and appointed to Ludlow in the Champaign district. At the end of this year he located to attend the Theological School at Boston, where he spent three years. He preached regularly during that time and had a pastoral charge for one year. He was ordained local deacon in 1877 by Bishop Peck, and admitted on trial and appointed to Auburn, where he served two years. In 1879 on account of ill health he was granted a supernumerary relation and went to California.

Having regained his health he resumed his labors and served consecutively in San Francisco, Colfax and San Rafeal, (in the latter two years.)

He transferred to California Conference in 1881 and was ordained while a member there.

He returned to Illinois in 1884 and served as a supply at Green Valley in 1884 and Atlanta in 1885. Being transferred to Illinois Conference in 1886, he was re-appointed to Atlanta for 1886-7-8, and was stationed at Brooklyn charge in Jacksonville in 1889-90, where he ended his ministry and life Feb. 20, 1891.

Bro. Johnson was an able preacher and a faithful pastor. He was especially gifted in the management of the Sunday and social meetings of the church and in his influence with the young. He was a man of one work, to which he gave his time and talents. Manliness, self-renunciation, courage and gentleness were marked traits of his character.

He was attacked with typhoid pneumonia and survived but one week. From the first he was assured of the fatal character of the attack and early arranged everything for his departure, being almost constantly in a state of holy rapture.

He was buried by his father's side in Bloomington, Ill. Thus father and son, two faithful servants of God, sleep side by side on earth, while their spirits join in sweet transports of joy in the land of hallowed bliss.

REV. GEORGE D. RANDLE.

Rev. George D. Randle, of the Illinois Conference, died on Nov. 28, 1890, in the 85th year of his age. He was born in Montgomery County, North Carolina. Early in life he came to Illinois and settled near Edwardsville. Here amid the crude conditions of society he grew to manhood. When he was quite a youth his father died, but the faithful, godly life of his loving mother early and deeply impressed him with the reality of sin and holiness of Christ and heaven.

When quite a youth he was converted at a camp meeting and immediately joined the church. He never doubted his conversion—it was always clear and abiding. Early in his Christian life he felt himself called to the ministry; but his sense of its weighty responsibilities, and his natural timidity, for a long time kept him back from the work. He was licensed to preach at Greenfield, Ill., in 1847, and ordained deacon by Bishop Ames in 1852. For several years he labored efficiently as a local preacher, filling several appointments as a supply, and in 1856 he was received on probation in the Illinois Conference. Two years after he was admitted into full connection and continued a member until his death.

He filled the following appointments: Walker's Grove, Bath, Quiver, San Jose, Rushville circuit, Middletown, Mason City circuit, Mainto, Chesterfield and Winchester. To some of these he returned after years had intervened, and was always kindly received. As a pastor he was thoughtful and winsome and looked well after the flock. As a preacher he was tender and pointed, always making his people see what he saw and feel what he felt. He had revivals at every appointment, and at some places they were of great power. At Walker's Grove, San Jose and Chesterfield there were remarkable outpourings of the Holy Spirit and great numbers were lead into the faith and added to the church.

On April 24, 1828, he married Miss Lucy A. Arnold, who proved a helper to him in every way. She was with him in all his toils and battles for over sixty-two years, and survived him but five days. Where he was best known the people had faith in his piety. His children, six of whom yet live and have families of their own, have made his Savior and his church their choice. He preached the first Methodist sermon preached in Mason City, and there, in his later years, he made his home. He moved there in 1864, and except in a brief interval, there he staid until the Lord called him home. He felt a growing interest for the cause of Methodism in that city. Their church was insufficient, and he longed and prayed for years that the way might open for building a new one. And when at last the work for building was begun he was one of its most liberal helpers.

For more than four years previous to his death he was so afflicted that he scarcely ever got out to church, yet in his home where he could scarcely see or walk, he greatly rejoiced in communion with his Saviour. He died in great peace.

REV. W. T. BENNETT.

Rev. William T. Bennett died in Mechanicsburg, Ill., on Nov. 23, 1890. He was born in Jefferson county, Va., on Nov. 30, 1805, and was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1828, at Shepherdstown in the same state. In 1834 he came to Springfield, Ill., accompanied by his brother, Van S. Bennett. He married on June 6, 1836, Rebecca J. Roberts at Ottawa, Ill., and to them were born seven children, only three of whom are living. Father and mother and four children are on the other side.

In 1849 Father Bennett entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and became a member of the Illinois Conference. The first work assigned him by the Conference was as a supply to the old First Church at Springfield, Ill., to fill out the unexpired term of Dr. Jaques. The various charges he served during his effective relation to the Conference are in order as follows: 1850–1, Mechanicsburg, Ill.; 1852, Sangamon; 1853, Griggsville; 1854, Sangamon; 1855–6, Athens; 1857, Middleton; 1858–9, Paris; 1860, Danville; 1861–2, Williamsville; 1863–4, Rochester; 1865, Harristown; 1866, Mechanicsburg; 1867–90, superannuated. About eighteen years of service were given in effective relation to his Conference, and a great amount of voluntary service was rendered during his superannuate relation.

It has been said that Father Bennett sang many a soul into the fold of Christ," for he was a singularly sweet singer. Wherever he went he was acceptable and efficient, and is remembered as one "having in him that mind which was also in Christ Jesus." While he was of that temperament which consumes vital forces rapidly, yet few live to be so vigorous in body and spirlt as he, with the life-current flowing so warmly into the arctic circle of four-score and five. The last charge he served while in effective relation was Mechanicsburg, Ill. Here he chose to make his home during the remainder of his life. Here his light shone with a steady, constraining power; he exemplified the golden rule of a Christian life, and he was revered and ministered to by a kind and loving people. He never lost pace with the spirit of the age. He left several volumes of sermons in manuscript. To the writer of this Father Bennett often said, "My time here is short, I hear the footfall of years. I am grain ready for the reaping. I have seen wonderful progress in all things since my boyhood. The brethren have been very good to me, and I love the society of Methodist preachers better than any other. The Lord has treated me better than I deserved. The peace that floweth like a river is mine."

C. W. JACOBS.

REV. CURTIS POWELL.

Rev. Curtis Powell was born near Caddis, Ohio, on Sept. 21, 1824. In 1835 the family moved to Illinois and in 1840 settled in Fulton county. He was converted in 1842. About this fime his father died, leaving him the care of the widowed mother and younger children. His father's mantle as class leader also fell upon him, though he was but eighteen years old. Shortly after this he was licensed to preach. He married Miss Margaret Welsh on Nov. 25, 1845. She proved a true helpmeet. At the session of the Illinois Annual Conference in 1853 he was admitted on trial. In 1856 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Simpson, and elder by Bishop Morris in 1858.

The following were his appointments: 1853, Littleton circuit; 1854–5, Columbus circuit; 1856–7, Pulaski circuit; 1858–9, Perry circuit (here he buried two children); 1860, Clayton circuit; 1861–2, Payson circuit; 1863–4, Barry circuit; 1865–6, Columbus circuit; 1867, La Prairie; 1868, Agent Quincy College; 1869, Bowensburg; 1870–2, Pulaski circuit; 1873, Bowen; 1874–5, Catham circuit; 1876–8, Lincoln circuit; 1879–80, Mt. Pulaski circuit; 1881–2, Decatur circuit; 1883, La Prairie circuit; 1884, Plymouth circuit; 1885–6, Bowen; 1887, supernumerary, went to Oregon, supplied a circuit for six months under the Presiding Elder; 1888, was made effective and sent to Plymouth circuit; 1889, was again granted a supernumerary relation and so continued in 1890.

In the thirty-four years of his effective ministry he served fourteen charges. Four of these he served two and one three pastorates. Upon all he left the impress of his vigorous mind and holy life. His death occurred at the residence of his son, Rev. L. A. Powell, in Mt. Sterling, Ill., on Jan. 30, 1891. His dying testimony, clear, calm and confident, will ever remain fragrant in the memory of those who heard it. To the wife of his youth and the eight surviving children he leaves the rich legacy of a name that is like ointment poured forth. As a preacher his gifts were superior. His mastery of the subject was complete. His thought clear and often brilliant with apt illustration. Seldom did he fall below a high ideal, while frequently in wit, pathos, fervored and forceful eloquence he was irresistible. Revivals attended his labors everywhere, and multitudes of men were brought to the Savior. As a pastor he was not less efficient nor less appreciated. He took his people into his heart, and they soon came to know and love him. His genial tact would warm the coldest nature. His spring of sympathy was perennial, and so free to all that it was a striking element of his success. His ministry in and out of the pulpit was tempered by a masterful knowledge of human nature. His personal character was pure, noble and well rounded. He was indifferent to, or rather shrank from, personal preferment. The noble Christian man and minister of the Gospel is followed into the ministry by two sons aud another is preparing for the same work.

The remains were taken to Bowen, Ill., for interment, where the writer preached the funeral sermon.

W. M. REED.

REV. A. B. McELFRESH.

Rev. Aquila Becraft McElfresh was born at Liberty, Frederick Co., Md., on May 20th, 1820, and died in Jacksonville, Ill., on Jan. 15th, 1891. His father was Rev. John McElfresh, at one time a member of the Baltimore Conference. He removed with his family, first to Kentucky, and then to Illinois, and located near Jacksonville, where he died in 1845.

Aquila was converted at a camp meeting held at Robinson camp ground, a historic place of Methodism in pioneer times, on July 16th, 1836, being then in his 17th year. When about 22 years of age he received license to preach as a local preacher. In 1853 he was admitted on trial into the Iowa Conference and was appointed successively to Otter Creek, Maryville and Cedar Rapids. By the division of the Iowa Conference he fell into the Upper Iowa Conference, and discontinued his effective relation in 1856. He was again received in the Illinois Conference on trial in 1872 and was appointed to Mason City circuit; in 1873–4 to Athens circuit; in 1875–6 to Topeka circuit; in 1877 to Mt. Pulaski; in 1878 to Mattoon circuit; in 1879 to Humboldt; in 1880–1 to Tower Hill; in 1882 to Martinsville; in 1883 to Cisco; in 1884 to DeWitt and Deland, making sixteen years of service as a traveling preacher. At the Conference of of 1885 he was granted a superannuate relation, which was continued till his death. During the years when not in the active work he was engaged in teaching school, as a temperance lecturer, or agent of the American Bible Society. At times during his superannuation he was employed in the latter.

During the childhood and youth of Brother McElfresh he possessed very meagre advantages for scholastic preparations for the work of the ministry as compared with those enjoyed by young men of this day. Nevertheless, he made good use of such means as offered, and thus acquired a large amount of information. This, added to his fine abilities for ready discourse, made him a preacher of considerable strength, acceptability and usefulness. At times his services were marked by great effectiveness and power. Earnestness and animation in his public efforts were characteristic of his manner as a preacher. He possessed a very genial disposition which, united with his exuberant humor and a large fund of incidents and anecdotes made him an agreeable companion in society. His ability as a temperance lecturer was perhaps more marked than in any other line of public service. The qualities mentioned served him to wonderful purpose in his lectures. These he frequently used with irresistible effect. Had Bro. McElfresh enjoyed the advantages of this day, with his fine natural gifts, he would no doubt have attained to high and wide distinction as a minister of the Gospel. A few years ago his health became so greatly impaired by paralysis that he was compelled to give up active work. He continued to decline till he entered the "rest remaining to the people of God." Two brothers, William McKendree and Greenbury R. S. are also members of the Illinois Conference. These and another brother and two sisters survive him. He also leaves a wife and four children. His funeral was conducted by Dr. Short, assisted by Revs. W. H. Musgrove, D. F. Howe and W. M. Johnson.

REV. JAMES LEATON, D. D.

Rev. James Leaton, A. M., D. D., was born in the parish of Crowland, Lincolnshire, England, May 17, 1817. His father, James Leaton, Sr., was a gentleman farmer of considerable estate in England. He came to this country in 1832, and settled in Orleans county, N. Y., afterwards moved to Port Rowan, On., where he died in 1865. He was a gentleman, not only of fortune in his native country, but of classical culture and social influence. The qualities of intellectual acuteness, courage, sternness and energy were marked in his character. The mother was a woman of excellent mind, but her superiority consisted more in those noble qualities of heart that made her a benediction wherever she went. She was of gentle nature, decidedly pious and profoundly interested in the spiritual welfare of her family. These, to some degree, diverging parental qualities, had a peculiar blending in the son, and on the side of nature prepared him for those intellectual and spiritual attainments and achievements that made him prominent in the church of which he became a member. In fact these peculiarities were more or less marked in the entire family life. All who grew up to maturity were to some degree prominent in the communities where they lived, some of whom attained to considerable distinction in the religious and educational circles of the East. His sister, Elizabeth, taught successfully in Buffalo, N. Y., for some time; another sister, Mrs. Rev. Ann Meade, daughter-in-law of Bishop Meade, of the Episcopal church, was principal of an Institution of Learning for Young Ladies in Charlottesville, Va., for forty years. His sister, Mrs. Rev. Page, wife of a clergyman of the same church, assisted her in conducting the school for a number of years. Thus we may see something of the family from which Dr. Leaton came.

Dr. Leaton came to this country in 1832 with his parents and remained with them in Orleans county, N. Y., until he came West. He was educated in Crowland Abbey for the ministry in the Established Church.

It will be remembered that Crowland, or Croyland, is a town in Lincolnshire, England, and of considerable interest to the antiquarian and historian. There are the curious triangular foot bridge, dating from Edward II, and the ruins of a famous and magnificent abbey, a portion of which is still used for a church. The abbey was founded by Ethelbald in 716 and was many times destroyed and as often rebuilt with increasing splendor.

There, amid those historic lessons and rugged scenes of art and nature, he laid a broad foundation for a well cultured mind. To his training in the English branches he added a knowledge of natural sciences and of the Latin and Greek languages. He studied Hebrew after coming to this country. In his early history he gave considerable time to the study of natural sciences from the knowledge of which he drew largely in the labors of after years.

His early influences, in some respects, were not influential in the foundation of a character for piety. He then had no inclination to the ministry, and an effort to educate him for a work for which he had no taste, being destitute of spiritual life, seems to have awakened feelings of antipathy against both the ministry and church, and aided an inclination to skepticism until he doubted the credibility of the Gospel and the sense if not the sincerity of its votaries. The commendable quality of sincerity was observed all through his life. What he did not believe to be true, there were good grounds to him for disbelieving it, and he did not hesitate to assert his convictions. This, sometimes, gave him the appearance of bluntness but it was only a strong, sincere man following his own convictions. This peculiarity, with well trained powers of mind and extensive information, made him a formidable antagonist in controverting the teachings of Christianity.

In 1839 he removed to Illinois and engaged in teaching in Sangamon county. While teaching he heard for the first time the doctrines of regeneration of heart through faith in Jesus Christ. He was unfavorably impressed with both the speakers and the doctrines, and classed the preachers as weak and unduly credulous in religious matters, both harmless and ignorant. Yet, in spite of all his opposition to those men and their methods he began to receive a conviction that his life did not measure up to the dignity of his being or to the purposes of his Creator concerning him. About this time, in 1842, a camp meeting was held near Petersburg, Ill. Dr. Peter Akers was present and preached on the occasion of the conversion of Dr. Leaton. In this case the conviction for sin was intense and in seeking for Divine clemency there was such a self-surrender to the Savior that brought him conscious deliverance. From that glad hour of victory until transferred to the Church Triumphant he moved steadily forward, making new discoveries in divine life and advancing in the belief and experience of the power of God to save a soul. That was the golden moment of his life and sent him out on a career of mercy and blessing, the results of which cannot be known until the final adjudication of the affairs of the universe.

Dr. Leaton's conversion was deep and thorough, his mind being convinced and his heart changed. This was, in part, the cause of his always contending for a deep and complete work of grace in the heart, making one a new creature in Christ, and his utter distrust of any effort to advance the Redeemer's kingdom that was not based on a genuine Christian experience. Having in his surrender to God promised to do the Divine will as he understood it or as it might be revealed to him, and having at the time, or soon thereafter, realized his duty to work in the ministry he was licensed to exhort by Rev. N. P. Heath, pastor in charge of Athens Circuit, Ill., Conference, Oct. 28, 1842. He was licensed to preach by Dr. P. Akers in the early part of 1843, and September of the same year was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference. At Springfield, Sept. 21, 1845, he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Thos. A. Morris, and at Jacksonville, Sept. 26, 1847, he was ordained Elder by Bishop B. Waugh.

His appointments were: Sangamon, Jacksonville circuit, Jerseyville, Winchester, Alton, Griggsville, Quincy. In 1850 he was on the superannuate list, but filled the chair of Natural Science in McKendree college, to which he was regularly appointed the next year. In 1852 he fell into the Southern Illinois Conference and was continued in the professorship, though he spent most of the year as agent for the college.

In 1853 he was appointed to Mt. Carmel, and the year following to Mt. Vernon, filling not only the station, but having charge of the Mt. Vernon Academy, to which he was appointed in 1855-6. Having resolved to return to his old Conference he received a location in 1857, but still retained charge of the academy and station. Feeling the need of rest, he resigned both in the middle of the year, and at the session of 1858 was re-admitted in the Illinois Conference, in which he filled the following appointments: Springfield, two years; Quincy, two years; Quincy District, three years; Jacksonville, west charge, three years; Danville, two years; Bloomington, two years; Carlinville, two years; Pana District, two years; Decatur, first church, two years; Clinton, one year; Paris, two years; Rushville, two years; Centennial agent, one year; Jacksonville, Brooklyn church, three years; Griggsville, one year. In 1888, being worn out, he was granted a superannuate relation. He was elected from the Southern Illinois Conference to the General Conference of 1856 and from the Illinois Conference to the General Conference of 1868 and 1876. He was also a member of the Centennial Conference of 1884. He had received the appointment as delegate to the Ecumenical Conference to be held next month—October, 1891—but he resigned the delegacy to join the assembly of saints in the Paradise of God. For four years, from 1864 to 1868, he was a member of the Missionary Committee. He received the honorary title of A. M. from McKendree College, and of D. D. from the Illinois Wesleyan University. In 1887 he was appointed Conference Historian, and as such published a volume on Methodism in Illinois. During his superannuation he prepared two other volumes, bringing the history down to 1852. He was secretary of the Illinois Conference nine years, and secretary of the Southern Illinois Conference from its foundation till his location. As an educator he was methodical, clear and skillful, successfully impressing his students of the necessity of thoroughness. His printed sermons, lectures, essays and History of Methodism in Illinois are valuable contributions to the literature of the church, and those that are unpublished are still more valuable.

As a preacher he was, in many respects, a prince. He was scrupulously Biblical, yet drew from every available source of art, science and history to illustrate the teachings of the Word. His power in the analysis of Scripture, his graceful syntax and impressive presentation of truth made his declarations often appear axiomatic. Though not unfrequently eloquent to a remarkable degree, he deprecated all efforts at rhetorical display in preaching, or what seemed to him as an oratorical contest in the pulpit, and looked upon efforts of Christian societies to secure an orator for the pulpit rather than a spiritual leader and instructor as evidence of spiritual decline. He made studious and prayerful preparation for preaching, generally using extensive notes, sometimes complete manuscript, though a pleasant, logical and graceful extempore speaker. His ministry was blest with many revivals of religion, the more marked were those of Jacksonville, Danville, Springfield and Quincy. While he was always ready to help the distressed, encourage the despondent and to forgive the penitent, he was a strict disciplinarian, believing it his duty to preach the Gospel according to the word of God and to administer the affairs of the church according to its polity.

Though an Englishman by birth he became thoroughly American, often speaking in defense of and showing a profound interest in the preservation of our national institutions and government.

He was a devoted, faithful and warm friend. This was seen in his conduct and words at the funeral of Dr. Akers. His emotion was deep and his words expressive of the loss he felt in his death. On that occasion he said: "I believe I but voice the feelings of all who have been longest and most intimately associated with the departed saint to whom we to-day pay the last tribute of respect, and whose body is enclosed in the casket before us, when I cry after his ascended spirit as Elisha cried after the ascending Elijah, 'My father! my father! the chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof.'"

To have known Dr. Leaton well it was necessary to be acquainted with him in his home life. There his genial spirit exhibited its most lovely character; there he greeted his friend with a heartiness that made him feel a sincere welcome; there he proved most clearly the kind man that he was, a conversationalist of rare ability, pleasing, friendly and instructive, to those who better knew him. After an acquaintance with him for almost a quarter of a century, the writer learned to love him most in his own home.

He was married August 20th, 1844, by Dr. Akers, to Miss Sarah E. Lockerby, the present bereaved wife, and for a little more than 47 years they lived in conjugal love and happy fidelity. They were blest with an issue of six children, four of whom are living, J. H. Leaton, present circuit clerk of McLean county, Mrs. A. E. Corbin, of this (Macoupin) county, Mrs. M. J. Guthrie, of Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Prof. Beals, of Greencastle, Ind. He was a devoted and faithful husband, a careful, loving and lovable father. He felt a deep and uninterrupted interest in all the members of his family, often speaking of them and of those brought into it by marriage, and of his grandchildren, with the concern and pride of a true patriarch. To them he has left an inheritance of example, instruction and love that cannot be valued with gold. He became ill a little more than a year ago, though he continued to do literary work, to occasionally lecture and preach until a few weeks before his decease. His last labors were with a mental vigor that characterized his life work.

During the closing weeks of his illness he was at times a great sufferer but was sustained by Divine grace. Often, during moments of intense suffering he prayed the Lord for help to endure the pain and to sustain him in it. Concerning his sufferings he would say to members of the family and visiting friends: "I had a severe day yesterday or a hard time last night, but with a blessed victory in the Lord." He several times called for the reading of his own selections of Scripture. Among the last were the chapters in 2 Cor. beginning: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved" and "We then as workers together with him."

Thursday afternoon, Sept. 10, 1891, there were indications that he would not live but a few hours. All that day we were strongly inclined to linger about his earthly home, and from 3 P. M. until he left us, we remained near his bed. As we sat with friends in his room, gazing upon his pale face and watching the saint of God approaching the end of his conflicts, we thought how true:

> "The chamber where the good man meets his fate
> Is privileged above the common walks of life
> Quite on the verge of heaven."

What he said at the death of his spiritual father, Dr. Akers, may be properly applied to himself: "A father in Israel, a messenger from God, a preacher of righteousness, a wise master builder, an example to the flock, a sage, a counselor, a Godly instructor, and a faithful and sympathizing friend. By his Godly example, his ardent piety, his incorruptable integrity, his true loyalty, his reverence for law, his unwavering advocacy of the truth and the right, and his unsparing denunciation of the false and the wrong, he was the defense and glory, the preservation and prosperity of the state, as was Elijah to Israel, more than her chariots and horsemen." In his death, a truly great man in Israel has fallen.

As he stood on the margin of the eternal world he could say with St. Paul: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

Friday morning at 1 o'clock he, more calmly and quietly than

> "One who wraps the draping of his couch about him
> And lies down to pleasant dreams," left us to join the saints above, to meet those old companions with whom he fought in the great battles of life—Fairbanks, Kimber, Cartwright, Akers, Rutledge, Crane, Prentice and a long line of our sainted dead—with whom and the multitude of the blest, to be forever with the Lord.

The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church, Carlinville, Ill., by Rev. Dr. Wolfe pastor, assisted by Rev. Dr. Best, Presiding Elder of Jacksonville district, and Prof. H. L. Beals of Greencastle, Ind. By Dr. Leaton's request the remains were taken to the Loomis cemetery, near Chesterfield, Ill., and laid away to await a glorious resurrection to immortality.

JOHNSON.

Maggie Mortland was born in Calhoun County, Ill., on February 14, 1850. Her parents were Scotch-Irish, and were members of the Presbyterian Church, her father being a ruling elder for more than sixty years. She married Rev. I. M. Johnson, of the Illinois Conference, on December 18, 1866. She was converted in 1867, in a meeting held on the Hardin circuit, by Rev. W. W. Smith, and with her husband joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1876 she cheerfully gave up the quiet home life on the farm and went with her husband, as he, at the call of the Church, went to take charge of Summit Grove circuit, where they remained for three years. While on this charge they were called to part with their first born, a daughter, nine years of age. After spending one year at home, caring for her aged father, they were sent to Hulls circuit, where they remained three years. Here again death visited them, and took from them their only son, aged fifteen months. Their next home was North Jacksonville circuit, and from there to Lima, where death came a third and fourth time, taking first the youngest, one year old, and then the eldest, a beautiful Christian girl of eighteen summers. The next and last move for Sister Johnson, was to LaPrairie circuit. Here, on February 22, while the church bell was calling the people to the house of God for worship, her happy spirit quietly laid off the earthly and passed to the land of rest. Not many knew the real worth of such a life as hers. She was retiring to a marked degree. Her home was her throne, where with a womanly grace and quiet spirit she reigned. She was always greatly and deeply interested in the work of the Church. So greatly was she concerned for the salvation of souls in the revival that was in progress in the church, that on Sunday morning, the day of her death, she urged her husband to go to the church and preach the gospel that had so blessedly saved her own soul. Her Christian experience was satisfactory and peaceful, though never demonstrative. She lived her religion in the home, among her friends, and in all the walks of life she was the same quiet trusting soul. Her death was triumphant. She had been a great sufferer, and when she realized that she could no longer be of service to her family and at Church she was anxious to quit the earthly and enter upon the heavenly life of joy and peace. Three daughters, with the husband, remain on this side. She was laid to rest in the cemetery at Pulaski. Her funeral sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. Ives, a life-long friend of the family. There were present Revs. J. B. Horney, T. W. Greer, and S. H. Whitlock. The loss to Bro. Johnson and children is a very heavy one, but grace is abundant and sufficient.

MRS. J. A. BURCHIT.

Jessie Howard, wife of Rev. James A. Burchit, of the Illinois Conference, was born near Paris, Ill., on August 17, 1868, and died at Casey, Clark county, Ill., on Jan. 31, 1891.

She was converted at Paris, Ill., in May, 1887, and united with the Christian church. In October, 1889, she was married to Rev. James A. Burchit, of the Illinois Conference. She immediately united with the M. E. church and devoted herself to the work of the church. She soon became known as an earnest Christian worker. Every department of church work found in her a valuable helper. She was greatly loved by the membership of the church in Casey, where her husband is pastor. She was always ready to lead in prayer in her home and in the church; to witness for Christ, and by her life she evidenced to all that "faith without works is dead, being alone." She left a husband and a babe about ten days old. About three days before her death she was impressed with the conviction that she would not recover, and she conversed with her husband about her approaching departure. She said she would like to live to assist him in raising their boy, but that she was ready to go and would soon be with her Savior. "Our brief married life has been sweet, but we must now be separated for a little while. Go on with your work, but remember, where I am I will be waiting for you."

Sister Burchit was a woman of deep sympathy, of marked spirituality and eminently fitted to be the wife of a Methodist preacher.

After a brief funeral service at Casey her body was borne to Paris, Ill., where the funeral was held in the Methodist Episcopal church. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery, where sleep her mother and friends.

LUCY A. P. RANDLE.

Mrs. Lucy A. P. Randle, nee Arnold, was born near Richmond, Va., on Aug. 2, 1810, and died in Mason City, Ill., on Dec. 2, 1890. When three years of age she moved with her parents to Kentucky and settled near Hopkinsville. Here she grew to womanhood, and on April 24, 1828, married Rev. G. D. Randle. In a few months they moved to Illinois, and settled in Edwardsville. In 1855 they moved to Jacksonville, Ill., and in the fall of 1856 her husband joined the Illinois Conference, and from that on she moved with him from place to place, as his appointments called him, until he superannuated, when they settled in Mason City, Ill.

Very early in life she was converted and joined the M. E. church. She was an earnest, happy Christian, bearing her trials incident to the itinerancy with patience and loving loyalty. When her husband was away from home she kept the fires burning on the family altar with the morning and evening sacrifice. For years she was greatly afflicted, scarcely ever able to get out to church or away from home and most of the time a great sufferer, but she bore with meekness her lot of pain. She was the light of the home and an example to the community. Her faith was constant and abiding.

CAROLINE S. McCANN.

Caroline S. Shouer was born in Flemingsburg, Ky., Sept. 8, 1818. She married J. F. McCann, Sept. 16, 1839. and died May 5, 1891. She was converted in her eleventh year and joined the Methodist Episcopal church. She entered the itinerancy with her husband, in the Indiana Conference in 1851, and traveled in that Conference nineteen years.

In 1870 they entered the Illinois Conference by transfer. During the year she endured the trials of the itinerant with heroic firmness.

True, kind, patient and loving, she lived and died in the complete assurance of a glorious immortality.

She had been afflicted with cancer of the most virulent character, which finally caused her death.

Her influence for Methodism in the community where she lived was of the highest order. The sinful looked upon her life and were rebuked, the righteous were strengthened by the sublime exhibition of her unwavering faith. The church of her home will miss her in all its services; the ministry whom she so often encouraged has lost a warm friend and a valuable counsellor, and a faithful and conscientious Christian has been lost to the service of God.

MRS. GRACE STOUT.

Grace Nichols was born at Martinsville, Ill., Aug. 4th, 1864; converted in 1883 under the ministry of Rev. A. B. McElfresh and united with the Methodist Episcopal church; was married to Jesse A. Stout Jan. 8th, 1884. In the autumn following her marriage she, with her husband, entered DePauw University, where she studied four out of the five years of their stay there. Having finished their course of study, Bro. Stout entered the Illinois Conference in 1889 and was stationed at Butler, where she entered with all the devotion of a youtful life into the full work of the itinerancy. In a short time she was attacked with pneumonia, which was increased in the following February by prostration from la grippe, which was succeeded by consumption, from which she died Nov. 9, 1890, at the home of her parents in Martinsville, Ill.

Sister Stout was an accomplished lady, cultured in mind, strong in spirit, and a woman of excellent Christian character. These elements of character enabled her to enter with zeal into all the work of the Master, and to help in all the plans of her husband in the work of the church.

Bright hopes of the future and a long life of usefulness seemed to be before her, but in the midst of her life of usefulness she was cut down by death, the destroyer of human hopes, and carried to the brighter future beyond, where care, toil and affliction are unknown. During all her great suffering of more than a year she was patient and hopeful, preserving her character of a devoted disciple of Christ and finally died in great triumph.

During the days preceding her death, when approached concerning her separation from friends, and the church she so much loved, she would quote the words, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." In the last moments she called all the family about her and talked in perfect calmness to each, exhorting them to meet her in heaven. After a pause she said, "Hark, I hear the angels singing," and her soul was borne on angelic wings to the heavenly kingdom.

MRS. MARY ALDRICH.

Mrs. Mary Aldrich was born in New York, April 3, 1813. Died in Mattoon, Ill., Jan. 1891.

She was converted at the age of ten or twelve years, near Fort Montgomery, on the Hudson river, and remained faithful to the vows of her church to the day of her death. During her last days she gave evidence of her faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

In her early life she was married to Rev. I. H. Aldrich, with whom she lived for fifty years. Having no children of her own, her motherly instincts led her to give a mother's care to the orphans of others. She reared the husband's child of a former wife to the age of sixteen, at which time this daughter died, but not without being led to Christ by the foster mother. She adopted and reared other motherless children, who in their maturity went out into the world, bearing with them the hallowed blessings of her religious instructions.

In 1847, a few years after her marriage, she entered the itinerancy of the Methodist Episcopal church with her husband, and shared in all its toils and privations. Until 1855 they were in the Northwest Indiana Conference, and from that time to her death in the Illinois.

For many years sister Aldrich was an invalid, unable for the heavy burdens falling to the lot of an itinerant's wife, but she bore them with the marked firmness of her character. This feeble state of health compelled the superannuation of her husband in 1872, when they made their permanent home in Mattoon, and though he served two charges after this their home was not removed, but she remained while he attended the Lord's work in other places.

Months before her death she received a fall, from the effects of which she never recovered, and gradually failed in health till death claimed her.

During her long years of itinerant life she bore the burdens, endured the trials, and submitted to the privations incident to that life with firmness, even amid the afflictions of the body, until she was finally compelled to seek the quiet of a permanent home.

Of her religious life it need only be said that she endeavored to lead the life of a follower of Christ.

She gave to her pastor full evidence of her willingness to die and of her confidence in the Lord Jesus Christ. The day before her death, being asked, "Do you feel the saving presence of Christ?" she replied, "Yes, he has never left me."

During the few months of the writer's acquaintance with her she gave satisfactory evidence of the saving power of the religion of Christ. Her afflictions were borne without murmuring and finally she passed away in peace, resting in the arms of her Savior. Thus has passed away another servant and worker for the Master.

MRS. EMMA SQUIRES.

Mrs. Emma Squires, wife of Rev. E. A. Squires, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Wetmore, in Corry, Pa., on Monday, after a four month's illness.

Mrs. Squires was born in Union City, Pa., in 1836. In early life her father and family removed to this place, where she resided until her marriage to Rev. E. A. Squires, in 1862. For years she was the life of every social gathering and no singing circle was complete without her. We remember her singing the "Star Spangled Banner" when the state was invaded during the late war and enlistments were first made. The enthusiasm was unbounded and enlistments were made at once. Often in public gatherings have we heard her sing with such exquisite pathos that scarcely one dry eye could be found among her hearers.

Mrs. Squires was an excellent Christian lady and through her very painful illness she maintained a cheerful disposition and an exultant hope for her future. Her faith in the wisdom and goodness of her God was unbounded. Often she spoke words of cheer and comfort to those who were around her, and never for a moment doubted but that she would be cared for under all circumstances by the Omnipotent one. She realized her condition, but always expressed herself ready and willing to go when called. She had all her faculties to the very last and passed away without a struggle or a fear. Her desire was to be buried beside her venerated parents and on Wednesday her remains were placed in the family lot in our cemetery. The gathering at the funeral obsequies was large and all sympathized with the bereaved pastor and the friends as well as mourners the death of one who was affectionately remembered by all.

Mrs. Squier was a woman of strong intellectuality. A devout christian, prayerful, earnest and full of faith. Her life was a constant reproach to sin. For every one striving to do right she had a pleasant smile and a kind word. Through her severe illness her faith in and love for God never wavered.

When her husband was passing through the severest trial of his life his wife changed from an ivy to an oak, upon which he could lean. Her sympathy, counsel, confidence, and love sustained and cheered him. Like the subsidence of a zephyr her breath left her worn out body, and her spirit rests with God.—Erie Herald.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE Illinois Lay Electoral Conference

HELD AT

Bloomington, Illinois, September 28, 1891.

MORNING SESSION.

Lay representatives of the Illinois Conference met in Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Bloomington, Illinois, at 10 o'clock A. M., on September 18th, 1891.

On motion of Brother S. P. Mooney of Springfield, Brother A. C. Vandewater of Pana was elected Temporary Chairman and J. W. Davidson of Champaign and Richard Yates of Jacksonville were chosen Temporary Secretaries.

The motion was made and carried that a Committee on Credentials be appointed, to consist of one member from each district, each district to select its own member.

Springfield District—S. P. Mooney.

Danville District—A. G. Hull.

Bloomington District—John Reed.

Decatur District—D. S. Shellabarger.

Champaign District—J. M. Hanly.

West Jacksonville District—Harvey Dunn.

Mattoon District—J. H. Clark.

Jacksonville District—W. S. Rearick.

Quincy District—W. R. Hoyt.

Dr. W. H. Wilder, President of the Illinois Wesleyan University, upon being introduced, extended an invitation to the members of the Conference to hold their future sessions in Amie chapel of the University. At the close of his remarks a vote of thanks was extended for the invitation.

The Committee on Credentials made the following report:

"To the Lay Representatives of the Illinois Conference:

BRETHREN: Your Committee on Credentials would beg leave to report that they have duly examined all credentials presented and that the same are regular and in form; further, that the several districts are respectively represented in this convention by delegates entitled to vote as follows:

Quincy District, 16 delegates.

Mattoon District, 20 delegates.

Danville District, 21 delegates.

Champaign District, 21 delegates.

West Jacksonville District, 11 delegates.

Bloomington District, 22 delegates.

Decatur District, 20 delegates.

Jacksonville District, 17 delegates.

Springfield District, 21 delegates.

A complete list of delegates is hereto attached and made a part of this report.

S. P. MOONEY, Chairman.

RICHARD YATES, Secretary."

On motion of Joseph Ivers of Quincy District the temporary organization of the convention was made permanent.

It was moved and carried that all resolutions be referred to a Committee on Resolutions and that said committee report at the afternoon session at the close of the balloting.

Moved and seconded that a Committee on Resolutions be appointed, to consist of one member from each district, each district to select its own member. Motion was carried. Committee as appointed was as follows:

Quincy District—Joseph Ivers.

Mattoon District—Joseph Cavins.

Danville District—Thomas Bennett.

Champaign District—A. B. Shuck.

West Jacksonville District—G. I. Fields.

Bloomington District—Sain Welty.

Decatur District—J. R. Gorin.

Jacksonville District—H. G. Whitlock.

Springfield District—George Burton.

H. C. DeMotte, Superintendent, invited the convention to visit the Soldiers' Orphans' Home.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference met in Amie Chapel of the Wesleyan University at 2 o'clock P. M.

After singing by the Conference, Brother J. R. Gorin of Decatur offered prayer. Another song followed, and on motion the Conference proceeded to the election of two delegates to the General Conference to be held in Omaha, Nebraska.

It was decided that a majority of the votes cast should be necessary to a choice. The following gentlemen were nominated for delegates:

A. T. Stone, Quincy District.

D. M. McFall, Mattoon District.

J. C. Sheldon, Champaign District.

F. J. Fitzwilliam and H. C. DeMotte, Bloomington District.

J. R. Gorin, Decatur District.

Rev. A. C. Vandewater, Decatur District.

Mrs. E. E. Williams of Roodhouse offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the candidates before this Conference for election as lay delegates to the General Conference state their positions on the questions of temperance and the admission of women to the General Conference."

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The result of the ballot was as follows:

DeMotte, 114; Vandewater, 91; Gorin, 56; Fitzwilliam, 31; McFall, 18; Sheldon, 18; Stone, 13. Total number of ballots cast, 170. Necessary to choice, 86.

Messrs. DeMotte and Vandewater were declared duly elected.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of alternates. J. R. Gorin of Decatur, S. P. Mooney of Springfield and J. G. Hull of Danville were placed in nomination. Mr. Hull withdrew his name, and on motion Messrs. Gorin and Mooney were declared elected alternates by acclamation.

It was moved and carried that Brother Mooney be alternate for Brother Vandewater and Brother Gorin the alternate for Brother De Motte.

On motion the chair appointed as a committee of six the following brothers, to wait upon the annual Conference and tender congratulations, viz: H. G. Whitlock, J. R. Gorin, S. P. Mooney, A. B. Shuck, S. W. Treese and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

J. R. Harter moved that it be the sense of this Conference that women should be admitted to membership in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The motion was carried.

The Committee on Resolutions recommended the passage of the following resolutions:

1st. "Resolved, That the thanks of this body be returned to Dr. W. H. Wilder for his courtesy toward us in the use of the chapel of the University for our meetings."

2d. "To the citizens of Bloomington for their hospitable entertainment of us at this meeting."

3d. "To the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church for courtesies in the use of their church for meetings."

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

A. B. Shuck of Champaign moved the passage of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Illinois Lay Electoral Conference, believe it to be detrimental to the interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church for ministers in the active work to advertise themselves as lecturers and spend their time and strength in that direction."

The resolution was adopted.

On motion a vote of thanks was extended to the Chairman and Secretaries.

W. H. Coffman of Champaign moved that it be the sense of this Conference that the World's Fair should be closed on the Sabbath Day. The motion was carried unanimously.

The Conference then adjourned.

A. C. VANDEWATER, Chairman.

J. W. DAVIDSON,
RICHARD YATES, } Secretaries.

REPORTS.

EDUCATION.

THE ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We note with pleasure the increasing prosperity of the Illinois Wesleyan University. A steady and healthful growth is manifest in every department, and in this day of radical change in the condition of educational affairs which test the fitness of Colleges to live, there is every sign of vitality, of adaptation to the new environments and of successful evolution.

There was an enrollment last year of 1012 different resident and 325 non-resident students in the various departments, and the first week of this college year furnishes the prophecy of a still larger attendance. Enthusiasm, intense application, thoroughness and efficiency have characterized the work of the faculties and students. The high moral standard and pronounced christian life of former years have been fully maintained. The religious associations are more perfectly organized and rendering more effective service than at any previous time.

The curricula have been carefully rearranged and strengthened, especially in the department of Belles Letters, and the standard of admission to the College of Letters has been raised to about that of the best New England colleges.

A very marked advance appears in the department of Greek, where the classes are three or four times as large as they were a few years ago. But a still greater growth is seen in the department of experimental sciences. Here the courses have been extended, giving opportunity for some original work in natural history and chemistry, the museum which is now in splendid condition, greatly contributing to the attraction and efficiency of the department. But the time is now at hand when the demands for a new science hall are imperative.

The preparatory school has fully demonstrated that it occupies a place among the very best schools of preparation for college and is now crowded to its full capacity, and is worthy of the patronage of all our families.

The income from tuition in the college of letters and preparatory school exceeded $11,000, notwithstanding the very low rates charged. The need of larger income, however, has never been so great. We therefore call the attention of our people to the crying need of increased endowment to meet the expectation created by the large patronage of students. In fact we believe a crisis has been reached.

It consists, however, in the present opportunities. "There is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune." The flood time has come to this institution. If properly taken, the future of this plant, laid in struggle and sacrifice by our fathers, will be happily secured. The morning of greatest hope and promise is at hand, in the light of which, if we improve upon what it brings, we may very soon read our title clear to permanency and highest usefulness.

After raising $25,000 to secure the gift of $12,500 from Dr. Hiram Buck, made some time ago, the trustees received from him and his wife a second gift of $15,000, on the condition that the friends of the institution raise $30,000 more for endowment purposes by January 1, 1893. We recommend that the preachers urgently present this proposition to our people from the pulpit and in private conversation, and solicit contributions to this fund. It is all the more important to meet the conditions of this donation because Mrs. Buck is powerless to modify in any degree its terms, and is also exceedingly anxious to carry out cherished plans of Dr. Buck and herself not yet made known to the public, and thereby secure to the university still larger munificence.

Another cause for great hope and confidence in the future of the university is found in the fact that within the last year sums aggregating $100,000 have been written in wills in favor of its endowment fund. We most earnestly recommend this institution as furnishing the best conditions for permanency of funds and perpetually yielding large returns in serving the highest interests of humanity.

We would also recommend that the trustees accept the proposition of the Woman's Educational Association now before them, and receive the Henrietta Hall property and put it in suitable condition for ladies at their earliest convenience.

We nominate for trustees Hon. B. F. Funk, Hon. Geo. P. Davis, M. D., Rev. Preston Wood and Jesse Maharry.

We recommend as visitors Rev. Jas. Miller, Rev. Geo. E. Scrimger, Rev. E. B. Randle, Rev. J. T. Orr, Rev. A. C. Byerly and Rev. W. A. Smith.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

Reports from this institution show that the past year was a successful one, and that the opening of the School this year gives promise of increased prosperity. We heartily commend it to parents who desire an educational home for their daughters, where they will be surrounded by the best social and religious influences.

We would call the earnest attention of the church to the present financial opportunity of this school presented by the characteristic liberality of the late Dr. Hiram Buck, so long a member of its board of trustees, and who during his life time, at great personal sacrifice, so frequentiy rendered it eminent service. Before his death he executed a deed to the trustees of the institution for one hundred and sixty acres of land valued at $16,000, which deed becomes of force if by commencement day of the present school year in June, 1893, the sum of $40,000 additional shall have been secured for the endowment fund of the school. This proposition presents an opportunity to greatly strengthen the school, enlarge its usefulness and open to it a most hopeful future. This School should enlist the interest of the Methodist people of the west, as it is now practically the only school of our church between the Allegheny and Rocky mountains devoted exclusively to the education of women. That there is a demand for such a school is abundantly evidenced by the large number of Methodist young women who are sent to the ladies' colleges of the east and even to Catholic schools in the west. It seems to us that this one school of its kind in this large territory ought to be so generously endowed and enlarged as to meet the wants of all parents of our church who prefer not to send their daughters to co-educational institutions. We consider it very important that this generous proposition made by Dr. Buck should be met.

We recommend the election of the Rev. W. D. Best to fill the vacancy in the board of trustees occasioned by the death of Dr. Buck. We nominate as visitors, the resident Presiding Elders and Pastors at Jacksonville.

We also request the Bishop to re-appoint Rev. W. F. Short as president of the school.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

Chaddock College enjoyed great prosperity during the year ending June 7, 1892. There was a larger number of students than during any year in the history of the institution. The removal of M. P. Lackland to Bloomington left the college without a president; but at the annual meeting of the joint board Rev. Abner Clark was selected to take charge of the financial management of the college. He immediately entered upon his work with characteristic enterprise and with good prospects of large success. At the opening of the present school year the number ef students was large enough to inspire hope that the year would be one of prosperity financially.

The faculty will compare favorably with that of any institution of similar grade in the country, and is capable of doing efficient work.

The department of law opens with a fine faculty and a good number of students, and gives excellent promise for the future.

We ask for the election of Rev. A. M. Danely, D. W. English, S. E. Hewes and Thos. Sinnock as trustees, and the pastors in Quincy, Rushville, Mt. Sterling and Griggsville as visitors. We request the Bishop to appoint Rev. Abner Clark as professor and financial agent.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

There are five theological schools in the United States owned and supported by the Methodist Episcopal Church, viz: Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Ill.; Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, New Jersey; Boston School of Theology, at Boston, Mass.; De Pauw School of Theology, at Greencastle, Ind.; and Iliff Divinity School, Denver, Col., all of which offer a high grade of theological instruction. While the instruction in all of these is similar in the main, each institution affords peculiar advantages in accordance with its location and appointments.

We commend to the young ministers of the Illinois Conference seeking theological instruction a careful inspection of the relative advantages of these schools.

We recommend that Rev. H. H. O'Neal be appointed visitor to the Boston School of Theology, Rev. W. F. Gilmore to the De Pauw School of Theology, Rev. Geo. Scrimger to Drew Theological Seminary, and H. C. Gibbs to Garrett Biblical Institute.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

WHEREAS, The national capital presents unequaled facilities as a distributing center for great intellectual and moral forces, and incomparable advantages because of vast treasures for scientific and literary investigation accumulated by the general government; and

WHEREAS, It is the imperative duty of the Protestant Church to provide in the city of Washington a university—christian, Catholic, tolerant and American—its sole object being post-graduate and professional study and original research; and

WHEREAS, The American University has been placed under the authority and control of the Methodist Episcopal Church; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we commend the action of the General Conference in accepting the patronage of the University, also their judgment that at least $10,000,000 should be secured for the endowment of the same.

Resolved, 2d. That all our pastors in the Illinois Conference be requested to call attention to the Lincoln memorial hall, which is to cost $500,000, and to be provided for by subscriptions of $1.00 each.

We recommend F. M. Sisson as Conference Secretary for the American University.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

We urge upon every pastor the necessity of observing Children's Day and taking the collection for the Board of Education and remitting the same promptly to the Secretary at New York.

EDUCATION DAY.

The educational collection shall be taken separate from the children's fund and on another day than Children's Day, and its proceeds retained and paid over to the Conference Treasurer.

We recommend that the Conference endeavor to raise on the Educational Day the sum of $4,000 for an Illinois Conference endowment fund, to be distributed as a commission of nine to be appointed by this Conference shall direct, the Presiding Elders apportioning the same to the various charges.

We pledge ourselves to cordially welcome to our respective charges the regular financial agents of our Conference educational institutions.

REV. HIRAM BUCK, D. D.

WHEREAS, Rev. Hiram Buck, D. D., has been taken to his reward,

Resolved, 1st, That we hereby express our high appreciation of his labors, gifts and sacrifices to establish and endow our educational institutions; and that we will heartily contribute our best energies to meet the conditions of his generous donations to the Illinois Wesleyan University and to the Illinois Female College.

Resolved, 2nd, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Sister Martha A. Buck.

W. A. SMITH, PRESIDENT.
J. T. McFARLAND, SECRETARY.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We note with pride the great work accomplished by our Board of Church Extension. From the beginning of this work in 1866 to September, 1892, $4,522,000 have been collected and disbursed, thereby aiding more than one-third of all the churches in the denomination. Of this large sum the Illinois Conference has contributed $33,720 less $3,891 returned in donations and loans.

Through the agency of this society gratifying improvement has been made in Courch architecture both in beauty and adaptation, and more care exercised in securing for our Church property advantageous locations and legal titles.

We commend this great benevolence to the sympathy and liberality of our people.

We insist that all applications for aid having the endorsement of our Conference Board shall be honored to the full limit of our contributions.

Dr. A. J. Kynett, now closing his twenty-fifth year as Church Extension Secretary, is the sole survivor of the connectional officers who were in service in 1867, and is the only one in the history of Methodism who has served the Church as secretary for a full quarter of a century. We offer him our heartiest congratulations, and pray that his days may be lengthened out in this honorable service. Surely he loveth our nation and hath built us many synagogues.

W. H. McGHEE.
M. S. McCOY.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The history of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is a story of earnest, persevering labor crowned with continued grest success.

This society has a field of labor entirely its own. Women alone can do women's work.

It commands the warmest sympathy of all christian people. It should have their most earnest prayers, their most liberal financial support.

We therefore most cordially welcome the agents of this society to our charges, and bid them God speed in their work of love, and in their sacrifices for the degraded and lost of all lands.

W. McK. McELFRESH, PRESIDENT.
WM. MURPHY, SECRETARY.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society has, where opportunity has been afforded, and requisite support been given, shown itself to be a child of Divine Providence and a much needed instrumentality in the spread of Christ's Kingdom among the poor and needy. Therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That we will encourage every effort looking toward a more thorough organization in our charges, and will welcome among us any of its officers with a view to the furtherance of that end. And in order that their work may be effective

Resolved, 2nd, That we earnestly ask the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Illinois Conference to establish a Deaconess Home within the bounds of this conference as soon as practicable.

M. V. HILL, PRESIDENT.
A. M. CAMPBELL, SECRETARY.

To further this object the committee begs leave to nominate the following named persons a Conference board of nine: W. N. McElroy, W. H. Musgrove, W. H. Webster, W. A. Smith, C. Galeener, R. G. Hobbs, Mrs. N. W. Matheny, Springfield, Ill., Mrs. M. C. Oliver, Jacksonville, Ill., Mrs. B. S. Potter, Bloomington. With such power as is conferred by the Discipline of the M. E. Church under the head of "Deaconesses," page 206; ¶ 203 (New Discipline.)

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Twenty-six years ago this society started by borrowing a large sum of money with which to send twenty-five teachers into the South to raise up an empire for God.

Since that day the general sentiment and watchword of the Church has been, "Onward with the work of Southern Education."

The necessity for this society lay in the inadequacy of the provisions made by the state for the education of the colored race, and the danger to civilization by leaving them in darkness.

We rejoice in the splendid success of the past and the hopeful outlook for the future.

While we are happy to announce that the annual income of the society has now reached the magnificent sum of $266,000 yet one-half a million dollars can be used to the glory of God in this cause. Therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That we will give our most hearty endorsement and support to this society, and will endeavor to raise the amount of the apportionment to our Conference.

Resolved, 2nd, That we will preach in all our charges on the subject and take a collection for the support of the same.

Resolved, 3rd, We take pleasure in commending the Christian Educator as a valuable medium for the dissemination of information in regard to this bureau of our Church, and recommend its circulation among our people.

Respectfully submitted,

L. J. WHEAT, CHAIRMAN.
T. F. WALDEN, SECRETARY.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Next to the preaching of the Gospel, we believe the Sunday School to be the most important work of the Church.

We believe that the wise pastor catching the true spirit of the Scriptures and of the times, will regard the conversion of the child as highly as that of the adult. We urge our pastors to make our schools both evangelistic and educational. It is the opinion of this committee that far too few conversions are reported from our Sunday Schools.

We urge the teaching of the Methodist Catechism, Methodist history and discipline in our schools in such way as shall make our Sundny School pupils intelligent Methodists.

We commend Methodist literature and helps to our schools, because they are the best of their kind, and in order to sustain our denominational publishing interests.

We urge the formation of pastors' training classes, in order to qualify the teachers for their work, and unless the pastors do this it will not be done. We believe that the disciplinary idea of the Sunday School should prevail, and that all persons should find a place in the school, the motto being: "All the school at Church, and all the Church at school.

We ask again that every Sunday School in the Conference be organized and conducted as a missionary society, the pupils being trained to give liberally and intelligently to our Church benevolences.

We believe that it would be wise in our Conference to set aside one of its members from year to year, to do exclusive work under its direction, and in its interests, among the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues. The demand already presses heavily upon the Conference, and the Methodism of Illinois—with the exception of the Rock River Conference—is the only considerable denomination that has not already provided one or more special workers for this wide and fertile field.

J. GLICK, CHAIRMAN.
H. M. HAMILL, SECRETARY.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society has been a potent factor in the evangelization of the world by printing about three-quarters of a million of volumes and distributing the same in foreign lands and among the foreigners in our land, and making the word of God accessible to all people to the extent of its means.

Resolved, That we do what we can to aid said society in its work, both by presenting its advantages to our people and urging them to liberal contributions to the same.

B. F. THRASHER, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

It is with great satisfaction that we note the wonderful success of the Epworth League in the Illinois Conference, and that during the past year the recommendations of the report of your committee of last year have been followed, and great good has resulted as shown by the reports from the several districts.

We heartily appreciate the action of the general Conference in recognizing the Epworth League as the official young people's society of the M. E. church, and believe that the best interests of the church demand that all the young people should if possible belong to its own society.

We endorse the action of the Epworth League in forming a permanent conference organization and providing for a conference convention, and we pledge our hearty co-operation to make the convention a success.

We realize the importance of training children early to do Christian work, and to this end we urge the organization of junior leagues in every charge in the Illinois Conference.

We realize the need of better league statistics that the young people's work may thereby be recognized as it deserves; therefore we recommend that the following form of tabulated statistics be published in our annual minutes.

Name of Charge.	Pastor.	NUMBER OF LEAGUES.		MEMBERSHIP.		Conversions.	Heralds taken.
		Junior.	Epworth.	Junior.	Epworth.

We rejoice in the marvelous prosperity of the Epworth Herald, the organ of the League, and heartily recommend it to our young people and would urge that pastors try to place a copy in every home of their charges.

WALTER MITCHELL, Chairman.
G. W. FLAGG, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, The rum power is the direct enemy of all that is pure and good in the social and moral world; and is in league with some of the political parties of the country, dictating the platforms and influencing the legislation of the same, and,

WHEREAS, The individual or church that espouses a principle and then repudiates the only methods possible to render that principle attainable is disloyal to the principle itself. Therefore it is the sense of this conference, that in order to prove ourselves sincere and loyal to the principle of prohibition, which our church has espoused, we must not only pray for its triumph, but we must also cast our ballots, as citizens. for the same, and use all honorable means to have others do so. Therefore Resolved, 1st, That we declare ourselves indepeadent of any political party influenced or controlled by the liquor traffic.

Resolved, 2nd, That while we do not presume to dictate the political affiliations of men, yet we record it as our deliberate judgment that no political party has a right to expect our support, nor ought it to expect the support of any christian man so long as it stands committed to the interests of the saloon and the license policy, or refuses to place itself on record in an attitude of relentles hostility to the vile traffic.

Resolved, 3rd, That we protest against vilifying and abusing those who think and vote differently from us; determining to continue on in our peaceful and righteous way, until light shall dispel the darkness that hath surely happened in part to Israel.

W. H. MUSGROVE, CHAIRMAN.
EZRA J. DURHAM, SECRETARY.

MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, God's word, Divine Providence, the spirit of the christian religion and the example of our Lord's life each set the seal of their approval on the missionary work of the Church; therefore,

Resolved, That every member of the Church may be fully awakened to the duty and privilege of contributing to missions, we recommend, first, that the monthly missionary prayer meeting be sustained in every charge; second, that all our Sunday Schools not only take a monthly collection for missions, but that they be organized into missionary societies according to the Discipline and so put new life into the missionary concert; third, that our pastors faithfully circulate missionary literature, such as the "Gospel in All Lands," "Worldwide Missions" and the tracts on missions published by the Book Concern; fourth, that this literature be given a special circulation immediately at the close of the revival services and that the collection for missions be taken separately soon after the distribution of this literature; fifth, that the Presiding Elders arrange for missionary mass meetings to educate the people and aid weak charges in meeting their apportionments; sixth, that the pastors preach a sermon on "self-denial" and lead their respective congregations in a solemn covenant to observe the week of self-denial.

Resolved, That while we are grateful to Almighty God for all success achieved in this greatest enterprise of the century, yet we invoke a richer baptism of the Holy Spirit for the Church and the agents in this work, and for all to whom she carries the gospel of life and peace, that the whole world may soon be won for Him who died for all.

H. H. O'NEAL, CHAIRMAN.
F. B. MADDEN, SECRETARY.

THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The fathers of this republic accepted the christian Sabbath as from God, and by the concensus of American opinion the day has been received as the Sabbath and the belief in its sanctity woven into law in many of the states and the national congress has recognized it as a day of rest from usual toil during the great Columbian exposition, therefore

Resolved, That we approve of closing the gates to the exposition on the sacred day and urge upon the nation the propriety of setting the example of honoring the Lord during the time of the exposition by an observance of the christian Sabbath.

We believe a proper observance of the christian Sabbath will greatly aid our people in adjusting labor troubles and such other difficulties as torment sinful nations.

JAMES SHAW, President.

TRACT CAUSE.

We recognize in the Tract when wisely employed, a potent agency in promoting the interests of the Master's cause and in helping to bring the true light of Heaven to many a soul that would otherwise never be saved. To the earnest pastor, the faithful teacher of the Sunday school and the active laymen who want to help save lost souls and build up christian believers in the knowledge and grace of Christ, this agency will aid as no other can. These white winged messengers will often tell the blessed story far better than we can; and by wisely preparing the way with a few earnest, loving works, carry the message to the heart with a force that we had neither the time or ability to do. Tracts, useful for all kinds of christian work, suited to all classes of people, and upon all desired subjects, can be had at rates so liberal that none need be without them. Promiscuous scattering of these leaflets will accomplish little, but directed by intelligent thought in personal christian work, with heart and head in that work, much good may be done. Therefore

Resolved, That we as preachers will avail ourselves of the great value of the Tract, encourage its use more generally in the various lines of christian activity in our charges, and we recommend the general observance of Good Tidings Day as far as practicable, in all our charges.

W. R. HOWARD, Chairman.
MELCHIOR AUER, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

The pulpits and the press are the guardians of public morals. And while the pulpits should "cry aloud and spare not" our periodicals should stand by and aid in reproving all manner of sin and crime in private and public life, in both the higher and more humble walks of mankind.

It is a source of encouragement to us who are ministers, that we have such helps in our efforts to make this world better, in the periodicals published by the Church. We therefore heartily commend our Central Advocate and other publications of the Church and would urge our people to furnish themselves with one or more of our Advocates, and urge our preachers to see that our families be furnished with missionary intelligence, such as the Worldwide Missions, Gospel in All Lands and our Sunday Schools be well supplied with the papers and literature which our Church is constantly publishing under the direction of men of elevated thoughts and enlightened piety.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Sept. 20, 1892.

SECOND CHURCH, SPRINGFIELD.

Your committee to whom was referred the case of the Second Church of Springfield report as follows, viz: The Second Church building is constructed of stone, in modern style of architecture, and is well finished within and without; it is commodious, convenient and well suited to the uses of a large congregation. It is admirably located in the midst of a large and rapidly increasing population of English speaking people.

A debt of $20,000 bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum rests upon the property. The membership of the Church numbers about 500. These people are earnestly devoted and loyal to the Church. They have been, and are, doing their utmost to carry their enormous burden; but they are, almost exclusively, working people living upon their daily wages. They are not able to pay the debt; they are not able to carry the heavy annual expense of the debt much longer. They must have relief from sources other than their own or this beautiful church with its splendid opportunities will be lost to Methodism.

The following plan of relief is approved by the committee and submitted to the Conference for its approval, viz: That the Board of Church Extension grant a donation of at least $2,000 and a loan of $5,000 for five years, without interest, on the express condition that said Church shall first raise and pay on the principal of the debt the sum of $3,000 and provide, by notes and securities, the sum of $10,000, all of which shall be applied upon the principal of the debt.

In consideration of the foregoing we recommend the adoption of the following: First—That this Conference asks the general committee of Church Extension to except said Second Church of Springfield, Ill., from the rule limiting aid to Churches costing more than $10,000. Second—In view of the pressing emergency of the said Second Church of Springfield, Ill., this Conference urges upon the general committee of Church Extension to grant the loan and donation as prayed for.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. WEBSTER, CHAIRMAN.
H. H. O'NEAL, SECRETARY.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

The amount asked from the charges of the Conference is	$2,208 00
The amount raised is	1,877 00
Leaving a deficiency of	$331 00

WHEREAS, The discipline provides that the claims of Pastor, Presiding Elder and Bishop be paid pro rata.

We therefore respectfully insist that the disciplinary plan be complied with.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, For the two years past the Conference has been organized as a Domestic Missionary Society, a society provided for in our discipline and specially commended to the annual Conferences by the last general Conference, and believing that there is urgent need for this society within the bounds of our Conference; therefore

Resolved, That we will co-operate with the superintendent of Domestic Missions to carry out the objects of the society.

T. A. PARKER.

Resolved, That in addition to the action already taken in respect to the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Conference hereby undertakes to raise a fund for the purpose of establishing and endowing an Illinois Conference Professorship in the said University.

ON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, Methodism has always required the purest and best type of christian example to represent her spirit and doctrine, and

WHEREAS, There has crept in among us certain ministers who do not regard their vows before their people in abstaining from the use of tobacco, therefore,

Resolved, That when the names of such offending members are called by the Bishop that no Presiding Elder nor any member of the Conference shall answer "nothing against him," but

Resolved, That we deem it sufficient grounds for complaint to arrest the ministerial character of all who have promised the Conference to abstain from the use of tobacco and have not.

Resolved, That when their names are called by the Bishop they shall come before the Conference and be questioned by the Bishop why they have not kept their obligations.

T. H. AGNEW.

Resolved, That we are grateful to the great head of the church; that after six years Bishop Foster has met us again, and his mild and gentle manner in presiding over our deliberations, his wise counsels to ministers and members and his instructive preaching as well have endeared him to all our hearts.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Illinois Conference be extended to the officers of the Thornton bank for courtesies shown the Conference and its Treasurers.

C. W. JACOBS.
L. F. WALDEN.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the Big Four, Chicago & Alton, Chicago & Eastern Illinois, Illinois Central, Jacksonville & Southeastern, Ohio & Mississippi and Wabash railways for excursion courtesies to the ministers and visitors of the Illinois Conference.

Resolved, That we appreciatively acknowledge the special courtesies of Mr. W. W. Kent of the Jacksonville & Southeastern.

C. W. JACOBS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH AND COUNTRY.

SHELBYVILLE, ILL., Sept. 1892.

Your committee to whom was referred "The state of the Church and Country," beg leave to report as follows, viz:

WHEREAS, 1. It is conceded that the form of government of the United States, and the genius of our civilization have come from the experience and the best thought of all the preceding ages and governments, and are to-day the best expressions of civil and religious liberty which the world has ever seen.

2. That our government and its institutions are based upon the self evident truth: "That all men are endowed with equal rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," and that ours is "A government of the people, for the people and by the people;"

3. That the perpetuity of our form of government, and the development of the ideal of its founders, require the broadest intellectual and moral culture which may be possible for the masses of the people. And that the rising generation who are to be the future citizens of our nation, and upon whom will rest the responsibilities of all departments of the government, and the destiny of our civilization, should be taught the principles upon which our government and its institutions are founded.

4. That we recognize the fact that there are elements in our midst which antagonize all of the above named principles, and repudiate our public school system, which is one of the strongest bulwarks of our civilization; therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of the members of the Illinois Conference, that we as citizens of the commonwealth of Illinois and of this great nation, that we will stand by and for the public school.

2. That the safety of the institutions of our country makes it imperative that the state possess and exercise the privilege of requiring that all parents and guardians of children of suitable age and condition, shall cause such children for a reasonable length of time, to attend some school where opportunities are afforded for receiving instruction in the common English branches. And as the commerce, the public business, the public records, the history of our country and its institutions are all in the English language; and as a community of tongues is essential to the perpetuity of the republic as a means of assimilating to the body politic the heterogenious mass of immigration we deem it highly important that the elementary text books in science and history shall be in the English language.

3. That we oppose the appropriation of any of the public funds to any sectarian or denominational institution whatever. We are also opposed to the use of any distinctive or sectarian form of religious exercise in any school which may be supported in whole or in part from the public funds.

4. That it is the right and duty of the state or nation to supervise every public, private or parochial school to the extent of prohibiting any text-book or instruction which may, either directly or indirectly, antagonize the principles of our government; or which may teach that any foreign power, civil or ecclesiastical, should have any jurisdiction over any citizen of the United States in any way that would have a tendency to compromise, impair or interfere with his allegiance to this government.

5. That we recognize the importance of having the text-books and the teaching of our schools to conform as nearly as possible to those undisputed principles of moral science which are recognized by men of integrity of all religions. But for the teaching which is distinctively religious or denominational, our dependence is in the home, the Church and its institutions.

6. That we recognize the common brotherhood of man. And that "God has made of one blood all nations to dwell on the face of the earth." And that we welcome from other countries all who may come to us in harmony with the genius of our government and civilization. But we most earnestly protest against the governments of the Old World unloading their paupers, criminals and diseased of every type upon our shores.

7. That we recommend to the conference and Churches that inquiry be made regarding the expediency of erecting and endowing hospitals, so far as practicable, in cities whose population is 10,000 and over; said hospitals to be under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and that this branch of our work shall be under the jurisdiction of our Conference Domestic Missionary Society.

MEMOIRS.

REV. ROBERT CHAPMAN.

Rev. Robert Chapman was born in the northern part of Ireland, on March 17, 1818, and was converted at the age of eighteen. He began preaching at the age of twenty. For ten years he was class leader, his class meeting before breakfast. He came to America in 1849 and married Miss Lillie Burnside, of Pittsburg, Pa., in 1852. In 1853 he came to Illinois, and joined the Illinois Conference in 1856. His appointments were Grandview, one year; Barry, two; Payson, two; Clayton, two; Perry, two; Mt. Sterling, one; supernumerary, one; Clayton and Camp Point, one; Pulaski, two; LaPrairie, one; again supernumerary, one; Mt. Sterling, two. Since 1873 he was superannuated. His first wife died on Oct. 4, 1885. On Nov. 17, 1886, he married Mrs. Elizabeth Newnham. He willed his property to his wife and step-daughter and near relatives. He died childless. He was a man of energy and naturally turned to business, in which he was successful. Near the close of his life he expressed to friends his sorrow that he had allowed business to draw him so easily from the ministry. He was a strong preacher; within a few months of his death he would frequently show in preaching the vigor of his prime. In the revival here a year ago I was often surprised at the fervor and pungency of his words. In his active pastorates on charges where they were building churches he commonly gave the society a part of his salary, sometimes a large part of it, to help on the enterprise.

He was a genial friend to his pastor, his appreciation and sympathy being spontaneous. When solicited he was ready with kindly and wholesome advice. His health had been rapidly failing for nearly a year. He was well aware of the near approach of death. Only two or three Sabbaths before his death he expressed himself in class as being fully ready for the great change. He died on Nov. 7. The funeral sermon was preached the following Sabbath by Rev. W. M. Reed, of Clayton, Ill. The Presbyterians dismissed their service to pay respect to one whom they also respected and loved. The interment was in the Mt. Sterling cemetery.

REV. JAMES MUIRHEAD.

James Muirhead was born in Glasgow, Scotland, February 9, 1822, and died in Champaign, Ill., December 11, 1891. He had lived the allotted three score years and ten, lacking a few days. His early training was of the strictest Scotch Presbyterian kind and left its mark upon the man for good. While he was yet a young child his father died and the mother brought her family to the New World when James was about ten years old, settling in Carlton Place, Canada West. Here Bro. Muirhead was converted and immediately joined the Methodist Church. He was now 17. At once he formed the purpose to become a preacher. He was ambitious to serve the Church and his Divine Master and was soon licensed to preach though he did not enter the traveling connection for some years.

In 1852 he married Mary, third daughter of Rev. M. Blackstock, of the Methodist Church in Canada. In 1856 he came to Illinois and for some time was employed as an agent for the American Bible Society.

In 1859 he entered the Illinois Conference remaining an active member until his death. For 32 years he received his appointments in this conference and went cheerfully about his work.

His appointments in their order were: Livingston, Neoga, Vermillion, Georgetown, Myersville, Arcola, Martinsville, Littleton, Barth, Ashland, Hoopston, Ludlow, Seymour, Champaign Circuit, Belleflower, East Lynn and White Heath.

Bro. Muirhead was a man of sturdy character. His integrity could be counted upon. No one could question his downright sincerity. His brethren knew him for a man of sterling worth. He was never unwilling to give his views on a question and having given them he was ready to maintain them against all comers. There was that about the man which made you know at once that you could dictate to him neither his ideas nor his conduct. Upon all questions which concerned him he had thought out his own conclusions. He copied after no one in his manner or thinking, but presented to the world his rugged personality with all its strong points and sharp corners.

He died in the harness. To the very last he was about the Master's business. His final illness was not protracted. His hand dropped the sword and at once grasped the crown.

As a pastor he was faithful and attentive to his work, less active perhaps as years increased upon him, yet never losing his ambition to be a faithful under shepherd.

As a preacher he was biblical rather than philosophical; that is, he was the very best kind of a preacher. He was busy teaching the people the plain, all-sufficient doctrine of the Bible as iterpreted by the people called Methodists.

The members of the Conference can never forget the deep interest he took in the Preachers' Aid Society and the Preachers' Mutual Benefit Association. With great patience and exactness he helped to formulate the regulations of these societies, believing they would be of great practical benefit to his brethren.

He lived a long and useful life. He was committed heart and hand to what he conceived to be the right. His last words were spoken in a conversation with his wife concerning the welfare of his charge. He died with a steadfast hope in Christ.

REV. E. J. HAMILL.

Rev. E. J. Hamill was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1818, and died in his 74th year, Dec. 19, 1891. When a child his parents came to New York City, where he grew up to manhood. He was educated for the Romish priesthood and had begun to serve at the altars of that church before attaining his majority. While a young man he drifted southward and found employment at his trade as a cabinet maker in Columbus, Georgia. Near this city in an old-fashioned Methodist camp-meeting he was most happily converted and soon after was called to preach the Gospel. Loving the Methodist church intensely as his spiritual mother, he united with it, and in 1842 was received into the Alabama conference, with which he continued until 1869, when he located, by reason of the animosities incurred through his well known loyalty to the cause of the Union, during the war of the rebellion. While connected with the Alabama conference up to the beginning of the war, he was foremost among its members in influence and position. During the four years of the rebellion and for several years after he suffered almost intolerable persecution. He was frequently assailed, once imprisoned and several times in peril of his life. Notwithstanding this bitter hostility from those who had once been his devoted friends and admirers, he persisted in denouncing secession and the confederate cause, and when brought to trial in 1864 by his conference, upon charge of disloyalty to the confederacy, he boldly declared his sentiments, and was only saved from expulsion by the conference and rough military treatment by army officers, through the kindly intervention of Bishop McTyre, who had been for years his close personal friend.

Applying to Bishop Janes in 1871, he was admitted to the East Genesee Conference and thence transferred to the Missouri Conference. In 1874, as agent for McKendree college, he was transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference, and in 1878 to the Illinois Conference as agent of the Illinois Female College. In 1881 he became supernumerary, and for some years gave himself to the work of caring for orphan children under the auspices of the American Educational Society. Though unable to endure the strain of a regular pastorate he continued his remarkably active life until the year of his sickness and death, preaching much, occasionally assisting his brethren in revival meetings, and in every way using his failing strength to its utmost tension. He was sick and confined to his room at intervals for several months before his death, his body and mind wearing slowly away. By advice of physicians he was started on a journey southward in the hope that a warmer clime would be helpful to him. Suddenly and while the promise of recovery seemed about to be realized he died on the Louisville & Nashville express train, near Mt. Vernon, Indiana, his wife being the only member of his family with him. His long cherished wish was realized—an instant translation from earth to Heaven. He was buried at Marshall, Illinois, the home of his youngest son, his funeral sermon being preached by Rev. John W. Miller, pastor of the Methodist church. His wife, three sons and a daughter survive him.

His ministry lasted fifty years and was singularly blameless, as it was remarkably fruitful. He delighted greatly in revival meetings, and was the honored instrument under God in the conversion of very many precious souls. His joy above all others was in leading some penitent to Christ, and he persistently used every opportunity "in season and out of season" to speak the words of eternal life to any who would listen. His preaching was of varying power. Some of his sermons were remarkable for their intellectual strength and divine unction. He was a close student all his life, mastering Hebrew after his 50th year, in order that he might read the Old Testament more intelligibly. In his later years he became literally homo unius libri, a man of one book, devoutly reading and studying the Bible for hours daily. He had a strong faith in God and never knew what it was to lose courage or confidence in Him or his own work for Him. Naturally stern and rugged, he grew as gentle as a child in his old age. In his early ministry he read much of entire sanctification and sought, obtained, and sometimes with humility and much thankfulness to God, made public profession of it. To those who lived closest to him, his inner life was a noble illustration of the beauty of holiness. He loved his church and his brethren, never failing to challenge unfriendly criticism of them or their work. His heart went out especially towards the younger men of the conference, for whom his words of encouragement and approbation were unfailing. His life was a singular illustration of how God's grace can take one born and bred a Romanist of extremest type and make of him a bold, resolute and deeply spiritual Methodist preacher.

REV. R. C. NORTON.

Rev. R. C. Norton was born at Jericho, Crittenden county, Vermont, April 1, 1818, and died at his home in Parsons, Kan., January 26, 1892, after an illness of five weeks. He was married to Miss Frances E. Peake in 1849. To them was born three sons who with their mother survive him. One of the sons being a missionary in Japan. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when but 13 years of age, near the place of his birth. In the early days of his manhood he came to Illinois and was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1844 and entered upon the active work of the ministry in which he continued faithful until compelled to superanuate. He performed 25 years active service to the Church, serving in the following charges: Lebanon 1844, Brownsville 1845, Pinkneyville 1846, Sparta 1847, Petersburg 1848, Edgar 1849, Paris 1850, Georgetown 1851–52, Presiding Elder of Paris district 1853–55, Decatur circuit 1856–57, Leroy 1858, Edgar 1859-60, Oakland 1861–62, Franklin 1863–64, Manchester 1865–66, Lynville 1867–68. In 1869, on account of failing health, he was granted a superanuated relation which he sustained until his death.

In writing to his Presiding Elder in this Conference one year ago he said: "Sixty years ago this year I volunteered in the service of our Divine Master and have been ever since testifying and praying in public. Twenty-six years ago the first day of last January I entered the Beulah Land and that has given a great degree of permanency to my christian enjoyment and life. I have learned by blessed experience to walk with God from day to day. I have learned to see and appreciate the excellences of my brethren rather than their deficiencies; possessing that charity that suffereth long and is kind."

Brother Norton was a good preacher. His mind was of a practical cast. His preaching was pointed and went to the core of the subject. There was no attempt at display but a clearness of statement, and a logical development of his subject that always attracted the attention of his hearers.

He was a true man, honorable and upright in all the relations of life. He was a Methodist by education and conviction, believing the polity and doctrine of the Church and was true and loyal to all of her interests.

With him religion was a reality. With an experience deep and profound his testimony was always clear and unequivocal. In the pastoral work, visiting the sick, and in his home was the true spiritual life and experience of the man more fully known to those most intimate with him.

After superanuating he moved to Neosha Falls, Kan., locating on a farm near that place in 1870. In 1885 he removed te Parsons where he remained until the time of his death.

His last sickness was long and painful; but he bore it with patience and resignation, often rejoicing in the hope of the rest so near at hand. "Suffering in body but calm as a summer evening" was his frequent expression in his last days.

His last moments were filled with praise to God for victory. Perhaps no one ever went down to old age more sweetly than he and none ever had a more triumphant death. A good man, a useful minister has been called to his reward and his works do follow him.

REV. D. P. LYON.

Rev. D. P. Lyon was born in Hampshire county, Virginia, May 30, 1829. He died at Rochester, Ill., June 4, 1892. Brother Lyon was married to Miss Eliza Greer in October, 1856. To them was born seven children. He was married the second time to Sarah Hicks, who survives him, and who with four adult children are left to mourn the loss of one they dearly loved.

He was converted June 18, 1847, in the county of his birth and to his death remained an earnest, consistent christian. He was early in life convinced of his duty to give his life to the service of God, and feeling the call of God to this duty he was granted license to preach and in 1853 was received on trial in the Illinois Conference; after which during his ministry he served the following charges: Columbus 1853, Pulaski 1854, Ripley 1855–56, Milton 1857, Beverly 1858, Rochester 1859–60, Taylorville 1861–62, Monticello 1863–64, Arcola 1865, Myersville 1866–67, Bloomfield 1868, Chandlerville 1869–71, Sangamon 1872–74, Newcomb 1875–76, Camargo 1877–78, Marysville 1879, Rushville circuit 1880–81, Rochester 1882–83, Pleasant Plains 1884–85, Pawnee 1886, which was his last work. During all these 33 years he was known as a true and faithful minister of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ; always performing his duty to the best of his ability; doing the full work to which he had been called as a servant of God. Perhaps no one did more faithfully than he the work of an itinerant Methodist preacher.

By his Presiding Elders he was known as a good and true man; one that could always be relied upon for anything he was capable of doing. "He was," says one of his Elders, "a christian, every inch a christian. I thought him a good appointment for a suitable work; good for the work and sure to do them good service." He was a man true to all the duties of the Church and his ministry.

He was a good preacher, clear in his thought, and one who presented a pure gospel to his people.

He was superanuated in 1887, a relation he sustained from that time until his death.

As a citizen he was highly respected, and having an extensive acquaintance was called from far and near to preach funeral sermons and perform marriage ceremonies He was a man loved and held in high esteem by his brethren in the ministry.

In his last hours his family were all present to administer to his comfort and receive his last blessing. As well as being an earnest christian he was a very pleasant and agreeable companion and many who knew him in the social life have cause to mourn his loss. His memory will long remain bright in the minds of his friends for his social and religious qualities as well as his devotion to the cause of God.

REV. MARQUIS D. HAWES, M. A.

Marquis D. Hawes was born near Homer, Champaign county, Ill., May 1, 1838, and died Aug. 4, 1892, at Decatur, Ill. In his infancy the family moved to Georgetown, near Danville, Ill. Here the father engaged in the medical profession, establishing a very large practice. Under the father's direction he began early to assist in compounding medicines, acquiring much valuable knowledge on this line. Had he not been otherwise inclined, he would doubtless have entered the medical profession himself, for this had been the father's desire. His early education he received at the old Conference Seminary, located at his home. Here, at the age of sixteen, while attending the school, he was converted, under the pastoral labors of Rev. Samson Shinn, in 1854. His conversion being attended with the impression that he must preach the gospel, he shrank from the obligation, and lost his sense of acceptance. In 1860 he was reclaimed, and with his renewal came yet more deeply the sense of duty to preach the gospel. He became active in Sabbath school work, and as a local preacher, but still there was unrest and a feeling that this was not his whole duty. During this time he had been studying law, was admitted to the bar, and entered the practice with D. D. Evans as partner. Soon the war broke out, and, having taken a strong stand for the Union, he enlisted in the 73d Illinois Infantry Volunteers, and was mustered in as 1st lieutenant of company C. He was in the "Bragg campaign," and participated in the battle of Perryville, Ky., Oct. 8, 1862. He continued with his command till it arrived at Nashville, Tenn., when sickness necessitated his resignation and retirement from the service. When health was recovered he resumed the practice of law at Danville, Ill., and continued therein until 1870. Rising in social standing as his professional reputation increased, he was soon on the high road to distinction.

Bro. Hawes married Miss Anna M. Thompson, of Georgetown, Ill., on April 13, 1865, who since that time has been to him a true helpmeet. Two of their three children survive to comfort the mother. With a strong preference for the law, comfortably established in his home, and a lucrative practice, with bright prospects to allure him, Bro. Hawes finally yielded in 1870, to his deep sense of duty to preach the gospel. Only those who have gone through a like experience can fully appreciate the heart-struggle it cost him. Some of his friends said he was throwing away his life, but when the decision was made it was final.

His first appointment was Mahomet circuit, with T. I. Coultas as junior preacher; and following this, he was stationed successively at Tuscola, three years; Springfield, second church, two years; Lincoln, one year; Carlinville, two years; Bloomington, Grace Church, three years; Jacksonville, Centenary, three years; Carrollton, two years, and Mattoon, one year; from which he was appointed presiding elder of Decatur district, where he was finishing the fourth year when he was called home. In 1888 he was a delegate to the General Conference. In all his charges he was a faithful, pains-taking pastor, a strong, logical and earnest preacher, and a diligent and systematic worker in all lines of ministerial duties. In his office as a presiding elder he brought the same diligence and fidelity into his work. He had the interest of his charges and his preachers deeply at heart. He greatly rejoiced at the success of his men; and if the work was difficult and a brother felt discouraged, he was always ready with words of cheer and appreciation of honest efforts made. He was keenly sensitive to and always on the look-out for the interest of his preachers. Bro. Hawes had a big heart, and it was as tender as a woman's. Intellectually he was a very strong man. He was a close thinker, and under his logical mind a subject fell into its natural divisions, and assumed a transparency that was truly wonderful, The more intricate a subject, the more apparent his strength. As a writer he especially excelled. It is a matter of deep regret that he did not use his pen more.

As a husband and father he was devoted and tender; as a christian, earnest, devout, trustful. As presiding elder he faithfully attended the prayer meetings, going alternately to the two churches in Decatur. On the last Wednesday evening just the night before he was taken with his last sickness, he lead the prayer meeting at Grace church, the pastor being absent. Few that were present will soon forget that service. It was remarked that his words always so helpful and cheering, were that night especially tender and full of unction. With tearful eyes, many a sad visitor to his home, bore loving testimony over his silent form, of the blessing his words had been to them on that memorable occasion. He could be nothing by halves. He was quickest to detect his own faults, and severest on his own acts whenever he considered that they were wrong. Perhaps few were more prompt to acknowledge an injury, if he thought he had done any. His christian experience was calm, clear and of a thoroughly spiritual type. He was a hater of shams. His abhorrence of all insincerity was most pronounced. He wanted no display over himself when he was gone, and often said, "Mark my last resting place with a plain stone, bearing my name, date of birth and death, and these words, 'A sinner saved by grace.'" His last sickness was brief but severe, and his end was peace. His trust was firm, and found expression in these words: "I've given the best part of my life to Him, and He'll not forsake me now." When spoken to again, while yet conscious, he said, "I have no ecstasy, but I have great peace—rivers of peace, rivers of peace."

REV. RICHARD NEWTON DAVIES, D. D.

Richard Newton Davies, son of Alexander and Martha Davies, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., October 28, 1829, and died August 5, 1892, at Paxton, Ill., which place had been his home subsequent to the failure of his health, three years before. He was converted in his sixteenth year and joined the Protestant Episcopal Church. A little later he transferred his allegiance to the Methodist Episcopal Church. He came to Illinois about the time he reached his majority. He had clear, strong convictions that he ought to enter the ministry, but no door seemed to open before him. He was on his way to join the engineering corps of the Illinois Central Railroad, then commencing the survey of its line through the heart of the state. But he fell in with W. J. Rutledge, to whom he opened his heart and told his ambitions. After earnest prayer and long conversation Bro. Rutledge urged him to apply for a place on the Jerseyville circuit, then vacant. This he did and was immediately licensed to preach and began work. I have heard him tell, with his irrepressible good humor, that he traveled that huge circuit with its 20 and more appointments for the better part of a year, receiving for his service the munificent sum of $12, and that he honestly believed he got the best of the bargain. This was in 1851, when he was 21 years of age. In October of the same year he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference and sent to Winchester circuit, where he was married to Susan E. Davis on August 23, 1852.

In 1853, on account of impaired health, he was discontinued, and for nine years he was engaged in the study and practice of medicine.

With the brave defenders of the union he marched to the front in 1862 as second lieutenant of Company C, 73rd regiment, Illinois infantry. At the battle of Perryville, in Kentucky, he was injured by the bursting of a shell over his head. No doubt this was the beginning of the trouble which finally resulted fatally, for his death at 62 years of age was not the result of advanced years. This army injury together with the severe blow on the head which he received by being thrown from a wagon several years later produced the trouble at the base of the brain which resulted in loss of eyesight, extreme suffering and finally death.

After his return from the army Dr. Davies rendered conspicuous service to the union cause as a recruiting officer, working throughout central Illinois. The men whom he was instrumental in sending to the front numbered well up toward 2,000. This work required great courage, for there were many people in the territory through which he went who were hostile to the union, outspoken against the prosecution of the war and threatening with death those who were most active in furthering the federal cause. But Dr. Davies was a man of great personal bravery and could not be frightened from his duty.

In 1863 he was again admitted to the Conference of which he continued a member until his death, 29 years. His appointments in their order were Manchester circuit, Waverly, Mechanicsburg, Quincy, Shelbyville, Paris, Mattoon district, Hillsboro, Decatur district, Paxton and Delavan. In 1876 he was a delegate to the General Conference, in 1878 fraternal delegate to the Reformed Episcopal Church, and in 1884 delegate to the Centennial Conference held in Baltimore.

He was prominent throughout his career as a defender of the faith. His logical mind could set truth in such array that error fled abashed. He was frequently called upon to defend the doctrines of the Church in public debate. He never sought these encounters, nor did he shrink from them. His brethren frequently called upon him for aid in routing the hosts of infidelity and erroneous teaching, and never called in vain. He said to me one day: "I have led the life of a debater. I have been in 26 pitched battles as a debater, yet never challenged a man to discussion, and never accepted a challenge but once without being asked to do so by the authorities of the Church. In preparing for a debate I have always been more concerned about finding out the arguments of my opponent's side than of my own. I have read the Methodist side as I had time, but have always read everything I could get my hands on on the other side, and could always anticipate before an audience an adversary's line of argument."

This valiant defender of the faith has crossed over the river and his tongue will be heard no more on earth pleading eloquently for the truth.

He was a ripe scholar. Especially along the line of biblical exegesis he had pushed his studies with great vigor. Though not trained in the scnools, a fact which he often deplored, he had by close application mastered the Greek and Hebrew languages, and the chief works in the field of biblical exegesis and systematic theology. He had a prodigious memory. The fruits of his wide reading were well stored in his mind.

He was naturally a logician. His method of argument was always fair and always convincing. His conclusions were inescapable. His chief publications show the logical character of his thinking. His works on "Justification" and on "The Trinity" display his straightforward ways of thinking and strong manner of putting arguments.

As a preacher he was both biblical and philosophical. His clear mind readily perceived the relations of ideas and things. He knew the language of the school men and was familiar with their ways of reasoning. He was never at a loss in constructing an argument on purely philosophical lines. But when he stood up as an expounder of the word he never dallied with doubtful theories of interpretation, he wasted no time on rationalizing speculations. There was never any taint of heterodoxy about him, for he was engaged all his ministry through in teaching the people the truths of divine revelation rather than in trying to make a cheap sensation by getting away a little from the old-fashioned ideas of Moses and Paul. The Bible, the Word of God to him was the final test for all teaching rather than the foggy vaporings of higher critics and men of that ilk.

He was always quick to seize an opportunity of any kind for setting forward whatever cause he might be interested in at the moment. He could adapt himself to circumstances in a manner possible only to men of quick perception, deep conviction and high courage. An old soldier who was with him in the army tells an incident connected with his war record which shows these qualities in him. On Friday, the night of November 7, 1862, the advance guard of the Army of the Cumberland marched into the little town of Edgefield and camped in its outskirts. The 73d (called the preacher regiment from the fact that all its officers were either ministers or elders of the Methodist Episcopal Church,) and the 88th Illinois were camped near neighbors. Sunday morning Lieutenant R. N. Davies, myself and a number of soldiers strolled into the M. E. Church just as the congregation were singing the opening hymn.

The minister arose, saying, "Brethren and sisters, the Yankees are with us and you had better be at home taking care of your property. We will have no services while they remain." Suddenly Lieutenant Davies stood up and called out, "Sergeant, put a guard at that door." Marching up into the pulpit with sword clanking at his heels, said to the astonished and thoroughly frightened audience: "Brothers and sisters, I am a minister in good and regular standing in the Methodist Church. I do not intend you shall be deprived of your sermon." Then, taking a text, he proceeded to give them one of the most vigorous anti-slavery talks.

None but those who were near him during the last three years of his life know how he suffered, and yet how brave a heart he kept through it all. Disease wasted the rugged body, dimmed the eye that had flashed fire in many a battle for God's truth, diminished the clarion voice to a whisper, but to the last there was the genial, cheerful spirit, so well remembered by many of you, perpetually bubbling over with pleasant reminiscences or wit that never needed irreverence or unkindly sarcasm to give it point. He was the same courteous, considerate man to the last. He had too kindly a heart to treat his brethren brusquely. You never felt that he was trying to patronize you. He was a man of genuine christian humility, not unfitting him for striking blows but making those blows more terrible because you knew they were given by a man of very sincere purpose.

The thoughts and affections of no member of this Conference were ever more entirely centered in the affairs and members of the Conference than his. The Illinois Conference was everything to him. Its prosperity his delight, its current history his constant theme of conversation, its growth his pride, its members his brothers, and when he died it was the passing of one who was ever peculiarly eager to hear that the preachers of the Conference were prospering.

During his long illness he was exceedingly patient, yet he often wished that he might be in the eternal home of God's people. One day as I was leaving him he was in great pain and I said: "Doctor, I hope you will not be suffering this way long." "No," said he, "I will not suffer long," plainly speaking of release in death. "Well," I said, "I presume it is all right with you?" "Yes, yes," he said, "it is all right. It is not that I am impatient at suffering, but if I were told that I would die to-night it would be welcome news. The hopes that center in the future make me feel so. There is only one thing that I could wish for, and that is that I might, before I die, know more about the wonderful plan of redemption; but that will be a delightful study in eternity." He often spoke of his trust in Christ. I stood by one day when a good, pious woman bade him good-bye, saying she was about to leave town for a while and conjecturing that if she did not find him in the flesh on her return he would be in a better place. Said he, "Wherever I am I will be trusting in Jesus Christ." So he lived from day to day, wracked often with severe pain, but never losing hold upon the Saviour. He had abundant trial of his faith but never had it shaken. He had the christian's confidence and so one can understand his wish that that verse of Scripture should be in the minds of the people at his funeral services, the passage in which the Lord says, "Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out." He had tried that promise and found it true. He has gone to be with that Lord and Master whom he loved so loyally and served so faithfully and by whom he will never be cast out from the eternal home.

REV. HIRAM BUCK, D. D.

Rev. Hiram Buck, D. D., was born in Steuben county, New York, March 1, 1819. He was converted at the age of seventeen years, at Moscow, New York in 1836. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church and was admitted to the Illinois Annual Conference on trial, at Quincy, in 1843, and was stationed at Danville, Ill. He was united in marriage to Miss Martha A. Hammett, Sept. 17, 1846. Since then through all the trials and triumphs of the past forty-six years of ministerial labor, another life has lived in his, another heart has beat in unison and sympathy with all the nobler impulses of his manly nature, another brain has throbbed responsively to the creative energy of his noble intellect, a woman's life, a woman's heart, a woman's brain made his as his was made hers, in holy wedlock at the altar of God. These two lives have thus far traveled the rugged path of time together in sunshine and shadow, in calm and storm, in health and sickness, until at last the shadows of a dark night cast themselves athwart their pathway, bringing five long years of uncertain waiting, but dissipated now by the dawn of an everlasting morning to him, and for her by the promise of an eternal noon, in full-orbed radiance of Him in whose "presence there is fulness of joy, and at whose right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

Dr. Buck spent sixteen years of his earlier ministry in the pastorate and served with great efficiency and success the following charges: Danville, Embarress, Charleston, Shelbyville, Paris, Georgetown, Mechanicsburgh, Jacksonville and Decatur. Many still live as witnesses of the power of his ministry in those early days of Illinois Methodism. Twenty-three years of his ministry were given to the presiding eldership to which office he was first appointed by Bishop Ames, at the conference at Winchester, in 1853, being then but thirty-three years of age. He brought to this office the learning and eloquence of an able preacher, the tact and skill of a wise administrator and the broad and generous sympathy of a noble and unselfish nature. As a presiding elder he served with honor to himself and the church, the Danville, Bloomington, Champaign and Decatur districts, beginning and ending his work as presiding elder on the Danville district. In the performance of the functions of this important office, he commanded and merited the confidence of bishop, presiding elders, preachers and people. The full measure of his large ability and unquestioned integrity were brought to the maintenance and execution of every trust reposed in him by the church.

In caring for the interests of the preachers of his district, he was unsurpassed by any of his contemporaries in office. Ever watchful, tender hearted and sympathetic, his brethren learned to trust and love him as a true friend.

The invincible logic, intense fervor, thrilling eloquence and often melting pathos of many of his sermons made the quarterly meeting occasions times of great interest and profit to both preachers and people. His commanding presence, his over-mastering oratory, his passionate enthusiasm and his transparently honest earnestness will long be remembered by those who saw and heard him in the prime days of his full orbed manhood.

Dr. Buck was the ardent and unwavering friend, advocate and patron of higher education, and in the prime of his best manhood he turned aside from the regular work of the ministry to devote his time and energies to the advancement of our educational work. The institutions of his own conference lay nearest his heart and their financial embarrasment awakened his deepest sympathy. In 1863 he was appointed financial agent of the Illinois Female College at Jacksonville, and in 1869 agent for the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington. In this capacity he served the former institution one year and the latter three years.

During the last twenty-five years of his life these two institutions have continued to draw increasingly upon the sympathies of his heart and the best thought and energy of his tireless brain, until thought and sympathy, accumulating energy and generating action, finally crystalized themselves in the munificence of princely gifts, which will make his name immortal, his influence perpetual, and his example an inspiration to many others, to consecrate their worldly substance to the cause of christian education. While the ardent friend of education in general, and of christian education in particular the Illinois Wesleyan University, because of its location, its management, its aims and its future possibilities lay nearer his heart than any other similar institution of learning, and this institution never did itself greater honor than when it conferred upon Rev. Hiram Buck the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In loyalty, patriotism and devotion to his country, and the maintenance of federal institutions during the dark days of the sixties, Dr. Buck was uncompromisingly committed to the snpport of the union and the overthrow of secession and slavery, and by speech and pen was untiring in his efforts to promote the cause of justice and liberty.

He was four times elected to represent his annual conference in the general conference of the church, viz: In 1856, 1872, 1876 and 1880, and in this we may well recognize not only his popularity with his brethren in the ministry, but his native genius for government, his preordained destiny to be a leader of men and great movements, and his eminent fitness to be entrusted with the most sacred interests of the church.

Theologically his mental structure was cast in the molds of the "Old Masters," and any deviation therefrom on the part of more recent thinkers "vexed his righteous soul;" and yet withal he retained his mental flexibility and expansive intellectual capacity to the end of life, and only needed to be convinced to yield cheerful assent to any new statement of truth that might be presented to his mind.

He was the contemporary of the pioneers of Methodism in Illinois, among whom were Cartwright, Akers, Jonathan Stamper, Hooper Crews and George Fairbank, and of his own generation Moore, Crane and Prentice. In the atmosphere of the lives of such men he acquired his style of preaching at a time when Methodist doctrine and Methodist usage had to win their way through fire and flood; when every principle of Methodism had to be defended against calvinistic antinomianism on the one hand and rationalistic latitudinarianism on the other, and so his preaching like all truly original preaching, partook rather of the spirit of the times in which he lived and in which his manhood was moulded, than of the spirit of the literature which former generations had produced. He was moulded by contact with men rather than books. Hence his ministry was a living ministry, pregnant with great thoughts, guided by lofty ambitions, inspired by high and holy purposes and fruitful in lasting spiritual results.

As an administrator of church law, usage and organized work Dr. Buck has long been recognized as one of the leaders of his conference and one of the safe and wise counselors of his brethren. Into every line of work to which he was called by the church he carried with him the sunshine of a radiant and smiling countenance and the warmth of a genial and noble nature.

His later years were shadowed by a great affliction, but in the midst of this the gospel he had so eloquently and faithfully preached unto others was the support and stay of his soul.

He passed to his long sought rest as he most desired to go, suddenly, swiftly, as if borne on the wings of an angel, on Sunday morning, August 21, 1892. We shall greatly miss him, everywhere we shall miss him, but only for a little while, a very little while, and we shall meet again in that land where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

MRS. SARAH E. LEATON.

Sarah E. (Lockerby) Leaton was born in Tioga county, N. Y., on July 6, 1822. When a child she moved with her father to what is now the state of Michigan, thence to Sangamon county, Ill., where on August 20, 1844, she was married to Rev. James Leaton, D. D., by Rev. Dr. Akers, who was a life long friend to both. She was converted at the age of ten years, and from that early consecration of her young life she never turned aside, but as the years rolled on she grew not only in a knowledge but experience of the divine life. Following her marriage began the experiences incident to the itinerant life of those early days—full of trial and anxiety—yet she never failed to enjoy grace sufficient to sustain her in every emergency. Whenever she had opportunity she assisted her husband in his religious devotions and labors, praying and speaking when occasion invited. Wherever he was called to serve the Master, whether on the circuit, station or district, or in the professor's chair, there she went cheerfully, and faithfully contributed her measure of influence in making his labors successful. During the late war, and while Dr. Leaton was stationed in Quincy, Ill., she gave her time almost wholly to the care of suffering soldiers who were brought there from battle fields and hospitals, and where, by cheering words, she did much to brighten the lives of the sick and suffering. When the enslaved colored people were set free Mrs. Leaton visited many states, receiving money for their relief and aided them to a knowledge of a better life. But, like her distinguished husband, more in the home than in public life was the beauty of her character revealed. Possessed of a joyous unselfish disposition, she made the home "a spot where angels find a resting place." She was an aggressive christian, a devoted mother, a faithful friend. The last year of her life was one of almost uninterrupted suffering, yet she patiently endured it all. On September 11, 1891, her husband died. The attention she gave him in his last illness and the care she tried to bestow were often pathetic evidence of her devotion to him. Confident that their separation would be of short duration, she waited with sweet submission the will of the Master. She spent her last few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Prof. Beals, in Greencastle, Ind. A while before she went to her daughter's, she, in conversation with her pastor at Carlinville, Ill., said: "I have thought it would be a fearful thing to die, but I do not now;" and, lifting her trembling hands towards heaven, continued: "O I think now it would be a blessed thing to me to die!" On November 22 her summons for departure came. On November 24 the remains were taken to the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Corbin, six miles west of Carlinville, Ill., where the funeral services were conducted by the pastor in Carlinville. Her remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband.

MRS. SAMUEL H. CLARK.

Hannah Stahl was born in Cherry Valley, N. Y., on August 15, 1817, and died in Virden, Ill., on February 10, 1892. She was married to Samuel H. Clark in Jamestown, N. Y., on December 11, 1839. She and her husband moved from New York to Quincy, Ill., in 1840. In 1853 her husband joined the Illinois Annual Conference, and for 25 years she bore cheerfully the toils and hardships of the itinerant ministry. In 1878 her husband took a superanuated relation, partially on account of her failing health, and settled in Virden, in which place they lived until her death. She was always kind and benevolent without display. She had a profound reverance for the realities of life. During the last 14 years of her life she was a great sufferer and confined mostly to her home. She died as she lived, quietly and peacefully, trusting in Him who doeth all things well. She leaves her husband, two brothers and one sister. She was the mother of two children, who died in childhood. The funeral services were conducted at the home by the writer, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Hancock, of Girard, Ill., and Robinson, Presbyterian minister, of Virden, Ill. Her remains were laid at rest in the Virden cemetery.

PUBLISHERS' STATEMENT.

The Illinois Conference minutes for 1892, will, we believe, compare favorably with former editions in nearly all respects. The Journal, Records and Reports have been edited with great care and every effort made to avoid mistakes, though, we have no doubt, that some may appear in this part of the work.

We are aware that many errors will be found, especially in the footings of the statistical tables. Many were detected and corrected in the proofs but not all. The printers have followed "copy" except where the defects were glaring and have departed from the originals only when glaring errors were to be corrected.

These are the minutes of your Conference. Please bear in mind that neither the editor nor publishers have any pecuniary interest in them. The labor incidental to their publication is by no means trifling, therefore we beg of you to be charitable in your judgment of the work; give the publishers your cordial support; circulate the minutes among your people, and we hope they may prove helpful in your work.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 22d, 1893.

OPENING.—Conference opened at 8:30 a. m. with devotional services led by W. M. Gooding, Bishop Fowler presiding.

MINUTES.—The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

WITHDRAWAL.—It was announced by W. N. McElroy that E. Knock had withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the church, and had surrendered his parchments.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION.—A. C. Byerly presented the following and it was adopted:

Resolved, That the Conference express its appreciation of the munificent gift of Hon. J. C. Sheldon and his wife, of Urbana, in erecting the new and beautiful church in that city in memory of their son Clarence. That we deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement, and express the hope and belief that in the noble manner in which they have chosen to express their affection for their noble son they will derive constant comfort. We invoke upon them the blessing of God, and pray that they may live many years to see the wisdom of their generous act.

THE TENTH QUESTION, "What members have completed the Conference course of study?" was considered. The names of the following were called, they reported their collections, their characters passed, they were represented by their examiners and presiding elders and elected to elder's orders: Thos. B. J. Winterbottom, Wm. Murphy and M. Auer were appointed a committee to confer with Rev. J. Odgers, concerning the Wesley Hospital.

STRAWBRIDGE FUND. The following was read and ordered to be placed on the record.

Report of Trustees of Strawbridge Fund:

JACKSONVILLE, ILL., Sept. 15th, 1893.

The annual interest on the fund $70.00 has been paid and deposited in bank, subject to the litigation still pending. Respectfully,

JOHN W. HALL, Trustee.

Preston Wood, Sr., as counsel for the church in the case of the Strawbridge heirs vs. Brooklyn Church, Jacksonville, and the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, reported that every possible effort had been put forth to procure a decision from the court, but so far without avail. Upon his request G. R. S. McElfresh was appointed counsel in his stead.

Those having the Strawbridge fund matter in hand were instructed to proceed at once to a settlement of the case.

CONFERENCE SEAL AND CORPORATE NAMES.—Preston Wood, Sr., introduced the following which was adopted:

Resolved, That the corporate names of all the benevolent organizations authorized by the General Conference, as also those of the Illinois Conference, including the educational organizations, be printed annually in the Conference minutes.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference is hereby anthorized to procure a suitable seal, bearing the inscription of the corporate name of the Conference.

C. G. Wood introduced the following and it was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that we should not invite to our pulpits or allow any man to assist in administering the Sacraments to our people who has withdrawn from our church under charges of immorality.

G. R. S. McElfresh was appointed to conduct devotions at the Monday morning session.

With announcements and benediction the Conference adjourned.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY, SEPT. 25th, 1893.

OPENING.—The Conference opened with religious services conducted by G. R. S. McElfresh, Bishop Fowler presiding.

MINUTES.—The journal of Saturday's session was read and approved.

Goldsmith, E. D. Champion, P. L. Turner, A. H. Alkire, W. S. Reed, J. N. Dewell, P. A. Swart, Chas. Baughman, Joseph B. Martin.

P. F. Thornburg, J. F. McCann and J. B. Seymour were granted a superannuate relation.

J. C. Kellar, I. M. Johnson and L. A. Powell were made effective.

E. Ward was announced as transferred to the Colorado Conference and J. D. Fry to the Minnesota Conference.

S. H. Whitlock was appointed to inform J. G. Cross that the Conference requests him to ask for a location, and that if he does not do so the Conference will locate him next year according to the discipline.

P. Wood, Sr., was made effective, and the Bishop was asked to appoint him Agent of the Preachers' Aid Society.

The relation of T. D. Weems was changed from effective to supernumerary.

THE FOURTH QUESTION, "Who have been received on trial?" was considered, and John P. Edgar, Thos. S. Mitchell, Edward E. Bean, Charles L. Flowers, A. C. Hunter, Theodore Kemp, Dudley V. Goudy, Albert H. Flagg, James P. Morton, and Howard C. Augustus were represented by their examiners and Presiding Elders, and admitted.

Howard C. Augustus having passed in the studies of the first year, was passed to the class of the second year.

REPORTS.—The reports of the Committee on Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, the Committee on Education, and the Educational Commission were presented and adopted. (See reports.)

Dr. J. R. Harker, Dr. W. H. Wilder, and Dr. B. W. Baker, were introduced and addressed the Conference concerning the Conference educational institutions.

The report of the Committee on Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society presented a report, and the consideration of it was made the order of the day at 4 p. m.

COURSE OF STUDY.—The following preamble and resolutions were presented and adopted:

WHEREAS, The demand for the intellectual improvement of our ministry is becoming more imperative; and,

WHEREAS, The course of study presented in the Discipline is the curriculum from the study of which the great majority of the candidates for our ministry chiefly receive their theological training; and,

WHEREAS, We are convinced that the confessedly unsatisfactory results obtained from this course of study are largely due to the defects of the traditional method according to which it has been conducted; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to devise and submit to the next session of this Conference a plan adapted to secure a more efficient supervision of this important course of study, and greater thoroughness on the part of the candidates who shall pursue it.

J. T. MCFARLAND,
E. B. RANDLE,
W. A. SMITH,
J. B. WOLFE.

P. Wood, Sr., was appointed to preside and J. Winterbottom to lead the devotions at the afternoon session.

Bishop Fowler was invited to address the people of Jacksonville and Bloomington in the interest of education.

After announcements and the benediction the Conference adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

OPENING.—Pursuant to adjournment Conference met at 2 p. m., P. Wood, Sr., presiding, by appointment of the Bishop. Devotions were led by J. Winterbottom.

EPISCOPAL FUND.—The presiding elders were directed to apportion the Conference assessment for the Episcopal Fund among the charges in proportion to the salaries of the pastors.

CHINESE BILL.—A petition to the Senate and House of Representatives asking the repeal of the act passed on the 5th of May, 1892, known as the Geary Law, was adopted unanimously.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.—Resolutions of thanks were adopted as follows:

To the Clinton Public, to the Illinois Central, Wabash, Jacksonville & Southeastern, and Ohio & Mississippi railroads and DeWitt County National Bank.

ORDER OF THE DAY.—The time having arrived for the consideration of the report of the committee on the Incorporation of the Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society, such consideration was postponed until the Bishop should be in the Chair.

WORLD'S FAIR.—The following was presented by W. F. Gilmore, and adopted by the Conference:

Resolved, That we request Congress to demand the return of the millions donated to the World's Fair because of the violation by the directors of the terms as to Sunday closing.

STEWARDS' REPORT.—The Stewards presented their report and it was adopted. (See Report.)

Permission was given C. A. Crane to have the report of the committee on the state of the church printed in tract form.

F. M. Sisson was appointed to lead devotions at the evening session.

With doxology and benediction the Conference adjourned to meet at 7:30 o'clock.

Evening Session.

OPENING.—Pursuant to adjournment Conference opened at 7:30 p. m. Preston Wood, Sr., presiding by appointment of the Bishop. F. M. Sisson conducted devotions.

Reports of Committees.

EDUCATION.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The Illinois Wesleyan University, at Bloomington, closed its most prosperous year last June. In all its different departments it ran up a magnificent enrollment of 1428 students. Nearly every state in the Union was represented in this list. It sent out sixty graduates from its three leading schools, besides a large graduating class from its efficient Preparatory School. The receipts from tuition and the endownment fund were in excess of those of any former year, and were sufficient to meet all current financial obligations.

Through the untiring energy and indefatigable labors of Dr. W. H. Wilder, its progressive President, with such assistance as he was able to call to his aid, the conditions of Dr. Hiram Buck's last munificent offer were more than met, and nearly sixty thousand dollars were thereby added to the endowment fund of the University, which now aggregates over $200,000, productive and unproductive. When the joint-board of Trustees and Official Visitors adjourned after one of the most hopeful and harmonious sessions in the entire history of the Institution, all felt that a day of larger things had dawned for the University.

The two scholarships given to the school by Mrs. M. E. Cameron, of Greenfield, Ill., and W. W. Anderson, of Taylorville, will doubtless stimulate others to do likewise, and thereby embrace the opportunity now afforded to such donors to name such scholarships, and select the students who shall receive the benefit in tuition of the net income of such scholarship donations.

The faculty is now complete in number, wise in counsel, able in administration, painstaking, thorough and efficient as teachers, and are doing work that is rarely surpassed in any class room. The chair of Belles Lettres which has been vacant for several years, is now most acceptably filled by Miss Luella Denman, a classical graduate of Ann Arbor University, and a lady of experience and refinement. She is already endearing herself to all concerned.

The free reading room, the large library, the gymnasium now in process of completion, the laboratory with its extensive apparatus, and the museum with its mammoth collections, some of which are unsurpassed, if not unequalled, by those of any other Institution in this great West, afford all necessary facilities for the prosecution of almost every course of study, line of thought or means of investigation, experiment and growth. The purchase of new property and the removal of the janitor and his family from the building used by the Preparatory School, have increased the number of class rooms, while the Chapel of the old building is now used by students for study in the interim between recitations, and under the supervision of one of the teachers.

The moral atmosphere surrounding the school and the religious spirit pervading it are of the first order. A large per cent of the students are members of churches, and it is always the case that nearly all the remainder are reached and rescued for Christ before each school year ends. Here they are taught the truth that heals and saves, and led to follow it, and he who follows truth, follows God. Men of means may here find a most worthy object of Christian beneficence, and parents a noble institution to whose fostering care they may safely commit their sons and daughters.

We respectfully recommend the election of the following trustees: Hon. H. S. Swayne, Sain Welty, Mrs. Martha Buck, Peter Whitmer, and request the Conference to elect as Official Visitors, James T. Orr, E. B. Randall, W. A. Smith, Chris Galeener, A. C. Byerly, Robt. Stevens.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

In spite of financial embarrassment, a faithful faculty did excellent work at Chaddock College the past year and encouraging results, both eductional and religious, were attained. Fair progress was made in all departments and a fine class was graduated.

The religious conditions were good. A number of students were converted and the regular prayer meetings and Bible meetings were well attended. At the annual meeting in June last, the trustees elected Rev. B. W. Baker, Ph. D., president of the institution. He has directed all his energies to the building up of the school and the liquidation of its debts. He has been very fortunate in securing an efficient and earnest corps of teachers, and the outlook for the College is most encouraging.

The financial condition is as follows:

Buildings, grounds, etc	$100,000
Endowments not productive	8,000
Note to apply on debt without interest	10,000
Note to apply on debt bearing interest	7,000
Subscription, etc	2,500
Total	$127,500

LIABILITIES.

Becker mortgage	$30,000
Interest on same, due	1,700
Due other creditors	7,800
Total		$39,500
Balance		$88,000

It is recommended that the pro rata share of the educational collection for Chaddock College be left to be used to meet current needs

The interests of Methodism of Christianity demand that Chaddock College shall be sustained. We have a territory of a hundred miles square from which to draw students.

The following persons are recommended as Trustees: Ministeral, S. H. Whitlock, R. G. Hobbs; Lay, J. H. Vickers, John Lutz.

As Conference Visitors, T. B. Hilton, F. M. Sisson, H. Reed, J. B. Horney, A. H. Reat, M. G. Coleman.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The information received concerning this institution is of the most gratifying character. The report of the Board of Trustees placed in our hands gives a very ample exhibit of the present condition of the school, and furnishes ground for a very hopeful outlook. In this report we are informed of the resignation of Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., as President of the College, in which position he had served for eighteen years. We desire to record our appreciation of the long and faithful service of Dr.

Short, and express our hope for his success in the honorable and responsible position to which has been called by the State, as Superintendent of the Insititution for the Education of the Blind.

Rev. J. R. Harker, Ph. D., has been elected as the successor of Dr. Short, and has entered upon his work with enthusiasm. President Harker has been for many years the principal of Whipple Academy, Illinois College, and has an established and widely recognized reputation as an educator, and under his administration we confidently expect greatly increased prosperity for the school.

Without reflecting in any way upon the wisdom of the arrangement heretofore maintained with the President of the School, which was probably the best arrangement practicable under the circumstances existing at the time it was made, we are glad that the Trustees, in the election of the new President, were able to place the management of the College upon a new basis, by which all justification of the feeling that the school was little more than a private enterprise, under the exclusive control of, and for the personal advantage of the President, is entirely removed. President Harker is employed upon a specific salary, and will be required to render detailed statements of the financial affairs of the school, and his accounts will be open to the inspection of all who have a right to know concerning the business management of the institution.

During the summer, extensive repairs and improvements have been made in the College buildings, by which it is made in every way a comfortable and attractive school home for young women. An efficient and increased corps of teachers have been employed, and the school has opened with a very large increase in students. We most cordially recommend this school to parents seeking a place for the education of their daughters under the most favorable home and religious influences.

Under a new law, the number of Trustees may be increased to twenty-five. We recommend that for the present the number be increased to eighteen, to be divided into three classes, one of which shall retire every second year. We place in nomination for Trustees the following: J. H. Osborne, L. W. Brown and Rev. G. R. S. McElfresh, present Trustees whose terms now expire, to be their own successors; H. C. Tunison, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. J. P. Willard. For additional Trustees, Wm. Hall, Edmund Blackburn, Wm. E. Veitch, Stephen R. Capps, H. G. Whitlock, Rev. J. R. Harker, Rev. J. A. Kum-ler, Rev. Richard G. Hobbs, and Rev. Chas. A. Crane; the terms of the additional Trustees to be determined by lot at their first meeting. We further recommend that the alumnæ of the College be invited, at their next annual meeting, to nominate from their own number two additional Trustees, to be added to the first class, and two additional members each of the two succeeding years, to be added to the second and third classes, thus adding six women to the Board; and that we recognize it as the permanent privilege of the alumnæ to nominate biennially the successors of the lady members whose terms shall expire.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed as Conference Visitors: E. A. Hamilton, H. H. O'Neal, P. Shields, W. N. Rutledge, E. B. Randle, M. A. Hewes, F. B. Madden, C. B. Taylor and Henry Wilson, and pastors in Jacksonville.

We would urge upon the attention of the Conference the necessity of providing for the endowment of this important institution; and as the semi-centennial of its history will be reached in the rear 1897, we recommend that measures be adopted with a view to securing for it by that date an endowment of at least fifty thousand dollars.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

The year now closing has renewedly and remarkably illustrated the necessity for thorough preparation for the christian ministry. For the champions of truth there can be no place of refuge where they can rest from their labors. The Representatives of Heathen Religions have opened their propaganda in this christian country, and in unchristianized lands there are pleadings for more teachers and more preachers to carry forward the world-wide work of christian evangelization.

Those contemplating the ministry must make scholastic as well as spiritual preparation in order to meet the demands of the times and do the most effective work in the Master's Service. Methodism has provided a number of schools for the training of her ministry, which offer decided opportunities and inducements for those desiring suitable equipment for the great work to which they have been called. They have all enjoyed great prosperity during the past year, having a larger number of students than during any year of their history. They number five, viz: Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Ill.; Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, New Jersey; Boston School of Theology, at Boston, Mass.; DePauw School of Theology, at Greencastle, Ind.; and Iliff Divinity School, at Denver, Col., all of which offer a high grade of Theological training.

We commend to the young men of the Illinois Conference seeking Theological Instruction a careful inspection of the relative advantages of these schools. We recommend that Rev. J. T. McFarland be appointed visitor to the Boston School of Theology; W. H. Webster visitor to Garrett Biblical Institute; C. B. Taylor visitor to DePauw School of Theology, and Geo. E. Scrimger visitor to Drew Theological Seminary.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

We are in hearty sympathy with the movements in connection with the American University at Washington, D. C., and in every way possible will keep before the minds of our people the demands of this University.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

We urge upon every pastor the necessity of observing Children's Day, and remitting the collection promptly to the Secretary at New York.

EDUCATION DAY.

The educational collection shall be taken separate from the children's fund and on another day than Children's Day, and its proceeds paid over to the Conference Treasurer.

We recommend that the Conference endeavor to raise on Educational Day the sum of $4,000 for an Illinois Conference endowment fund to be distributed among the several Conference Institutions on the basis of number of students in Literary Department, the presiding elders apportioning the said sum to the various charges.

J. T. McFarland, President.
F. M. Sisson, Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.

We, the members of the Educational Commission, appointed at the last Conference, directed, according to the authority with which you vested us, that the educational fund to be raised by assessment among the charges should be divided between the Illinois Wesleyan University, Chaddock College and Illinois Female College upon the basis of enrollment of students in their literary departments.

We find that the charters of Chaddock College and the Wesleyan University require the vacancies in the Board of Trustees to be filled by the Illinois Conference in session, while that of the Illinois Female College provides that "the remaining members of the Board shall appoint as successors such persons as may be designated by the Illinois Conference, but vacancies occurring between the annual meetings of the Conference may be filled by the Board, until the next meeting of the Conference." We regard each of our Educational Institutions as under the control of the Illinois Conference, and that the difference in the method of electing Trustees is simply a difference in form.

We recommend the Conference to direct that those charges which have given pledges to some one of our institutions, shall, in the future, forward to such institutions the moneys raised by them for said institutions and get a voucher for the same to be used at Conference.

We recommend that all money raised by charges for particular educational institutions and paid into the general educational fund this year, be paid over, by the Conference Treasurer of the Educational Fund, to said institutions to be credited on the notes given by said charges.

We recomend that Chaddock College be permitted, for five years, to apply its share of the educational collection upon its debts.

We recommend if the financial representative of any of our schools shall raise more money in any charge than the apportionment for the regular educational collection, that the excess so secured shall go to the school he represents.

W. A. Smith, Chairman.
R. G. Hobbs, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

WHEREAS, The general welfare of our country rests largely on the proper recognition of the respective rights and mutual dependence of Capital and Labor; and

WHEREAS, This recognition is becoming yearly of greater and more pressing importance. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we condemn all efforts leading to the mutual antagonism of these great interests and heartily approve all measures leading to the just recompense and protection of both. That we regard the anarchistic element as not only the foe of Capital but also as the greatest obstacle in the path of true labor reform, and therefore condemn as the foes of American prosperity those politicians who pander to such elements.

WHEREAS, The future happiness of our country rests largely upon the educational qualification of our people; and

WHEREAS, such qualifications are principally secured through our public schools; and

WHEREAS, There is a growing antagonism to these schools by a considerable element of our population. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we heartily approve of compulsory attendance upon our Public Schools; and as heartily condemn all political ecclesiastical interference with our public school system, such as the use of Text books distorting facts of history; the substitution of foreign languages for the English language; and the division or diversion of school funds for church schools. And be it further

Resolved, That we endorse the utterance of Bishop Vincent, where he says: "The Republic must maintain the American school. It must be kept out of the hands of plotting politicians in Church or State. Its teachers must be American whether born on this side or the other of the Atlantic; and they should also be the products of the American public school. The Republic must not be disturbed by the cry of "injustice" in taxing Roman Catholics for the support of the public schools, which their church does not permit its youth to patronize. Sectarian discrimination would work untold damage. The Public School is the hope and stability of the nation. We want no false peace. We want the independence of American citizenship and no foreign allegiance. In this is the salvation of the Republic. We judge the individual leniently and generously. We fight the system vigorously" and will unto the end.

WHEREAS, Strange and false doctrines are being disseminated in some of our churches on the subjects of dancing, theatre going, card parties, and like amusements, and

WHEREAS, Such diversions are contrary to the law of the church and true piety. Therefore

Resolved, That we heartily oppose all looseness of doctrine and practice among our members in these customs of society and urge a wise enforcement and a faithful administration of the discipline by our preachers and class leaders.

WHEREAS, The Hibernian Rifles, a Roman Catholic society, has been armed and made a part of the Illinois State Milita, by state authority; we therefore record our deep distrust of all such schemes to join the state and the church, and here declare our purpose never to cease the agitation of the public mind upon this question till these offensive alliances cease.

We rejoice in the great general agreement of all Christian churches in America that the American Sabbath must be perpetuated, and that to this end we must, the more enthusiastically, unite in its defense against the galloping charge of greed, the persistent assaults of lust and sports, and debilitating and enervating influence of the Sunday paper, and that we here record our high appreciation of the consistent attitude and work of The Chicago Daily Record in the conflict in the Sabbath question as raised by the unfaithful action of the management of the World's Fair during the present year. Further, that we cannot as consistent Christians who believe in the obligation of the Fourth Commandment patronize any newspaper which debauches the Sabbath of God and defies and defiles the Sunday of the State by a Sunday edition, and we will endeavor to make this a prevalent sentiment among our people.

Resolved, That the shame of Prostestantism in allowing its sick and wounded to fall into the hospitals of a foreign church must speedily be wiped out by the erection of infirmaries and hospitals in our larger cities, and the perfection and development of the magnificent work of the Deaconnesses.

MISSIONS.

The Church is great in all its essential work.

One of the great essentials, for a Church is missionary zeal. The spirit of our faith is missionary.

It was the spirit of the Messiah's Coming. It was the Pauline spirit. It constitutes the life of the Kingdom. "If any man have not the spirit of Christ he is none of his." This makes religion more that a sentiment.

It includes a principle as the quickening and maintaining power making efficient Christian men and women who base their fidelity, not upon emotions or experience only, but upon the spirit of the words: "Freely ye have received freely give" and "Herein is My Father glorified that ye bear much fruit."

The exegesis of these words is found in the command of Christ "Go ye therefore and teach all nations."

Here is the key to prosperity. The Christian Church becomes rich and influential to the degree that she gives of her best intellect, her gold and heart.

To withhold and retain, is to wither, lose vitality, decrease, and displease the Head of the Church.

It is our privilege to comply with the missionary spirit, if not by going, then by giving.

In view of the foregoing reflections and the fact of a year of financial stringency, we deem it imperative to lay special emphasis upon renewed devotion along the line of missionary enterprise. To this end be it resolved:—

1st. That our Pastors lead in a manifest interest in the cause by sermons, in prayer, through the League, Sunday school and prayer meeting, missionary services.

2nd. We especially recommend the "World Wide Missions" "Gospel In All Lands" and other of our missionary publications.

3rd. We conclude, that as missionary zeal is characteristic of Methodism we should attend diligently to the continuance of the same. We are assured that the Illinois Conference will ever be to the very front in this glorious movement. We look towards the dawn of a yet brighter day in the conquest and victory of our exalted Christ, to whose cause we pledge constant vigilance, love, generosity and enterprise. And with Dr. Ker: "Instead of praying that God will grant us less work, our request shall be that he would give us a greater heart and growing strength to meet all his claims."

A. L. T. EWERT, Chairman.

W. S. CALHOUN, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We recognize the Sunday School as one of the most important agencies used in reaching the homes of the unsaved, for the spreading of scriptural truth and the conversion of souls. "Feed my lambs" was the command of Christ and too much value can not be attached to the importance of this work, while every possible effort should be made to bring our Sunday Schools to the highest state of efficiency for the impartation of right doctrines and winning the children to the knowledge and love of the Saviour.

We commend the teaching of our catechisms, history and discipline, and the use of our Methodist literature, but urge that, as far as possible, the bible alone be used during the sessions of the Sunday School.

We deprecate any tendency toward separating the Sunday School from the church.

We would also recommend that the expenses of the Sunday School be met by the church so that the Sunday School collections, may be used for the benevolent collections of the church, thus training the children in the habits of christian giving.

E. M. Jeffers, Chairman.
Walter Mitchell, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Whereas, The Freemen's Aid and Southern Education Society is a product, under God, of the strength and zeal of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and having according to official reports accomplished marvelous achievements, since its orgnization; therefore

Resolved, That we as Pastors cheerfully accept our apportionments and urge our people to contribute of their means to this great work of education in the south.

Ezra J. Durham, President.
W. A. Reynolds, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Whereas, The American Bible Society has, during the 77 years of its existence, been greatly blessed of God as manifested by its distribution of nearly fifty-seven million volumes of the Sacred

Scriptures, in nearly one hundred languages and dialects, thus being a potent factor in the World's speedy evangelization, therefore Resolved, 1—That we as a Conference are in hearty accord with this Society in its world-wide Bible work; that we commend its exhibit and distribution of Bibles at the World's Columbian Exhibition; that we offer to it our cordial cooperation and liberal support.

2—That in view of what this Society is doing for missions in all lands we heartily endorse and commend the action of the last General Conference in urging the more liberal contributions of our church to the Bible Cause.

W. W. McIntosh, Chairman.
M. L. Browning, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, The saloon is the implacable foe of the church, of state and of all mankind, and ought to be banished from our midst. Be it

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the General Conference of 1892 on Temperance and the Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic, as published in the appendix of our Discipline.

Resolved, That we rejoice that all branches of Evangelical Christianity agree in their open hostility to the saloon. The friends of Temperance and Prohibition should enlist, organize and discipline for victory. The enemy strong and united challenge the conflict. The battle must converge at the polls. Christian citizens have the necessary weapons for victory. The one thing needful is that we shall come together, act together, and persevere to the end.

Resolved, That we will endorse and execute wherever practicable, the plan adopted by the General Conference Temperance Committee, which seeks the enrollment and organization of all friends of temperance reform.

Resolved, That we adopt the following basis of union proposed by the General Conference Committee and invite the cooperation of all friends of temperance reform.

1st. The strict enforcement of the suppressive measures of existing laws.

2nd. The early enactment of more stringent laws for the destruction of the Liquor Traffic.

3rd. The ultimate adoption of constitutional prohibition for every state and the nation. Declaration of Principles:

1. Primary allegiance to God and country and mankind.

2. All party measures subordinate to these higher aims.

3. Liberty to choose political affiliations, but freedom from the liquor power through any party.

Here we stand and seek membership in this Christian Temperance League and through it alliance offensive and defensive with all who are like minded.

Resolved, That a committee of five shall constitute a permanent committee who shall co-operate with like committees of other Conferences and christian bodies in the organization of the Christian Temperance Alliance of Illinois.

Resolved, That the members of the Illinois Conference be recommended to co-operate with the said state organization, by organizing as soon as possible the The Christian Temperance League, in their respective charges, by encouraging the pastors of other churches to do likewise, and by joining with them in forming a Local Temperance Alliance, and by making contributions or otherwise for the support of the state work.

C. W. JACOBS, President.
J. O. KIRKPATRICK, Secretary.

SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath is an heritage given by God to all mankind to be held sacred and inviolable, and whereas, we believe that on its proper observance depends our civil and religious liberties; therefore Resolved, 1st—That we condemn and denounce all efforts of individuals or organizations to make it a day of gain or pleasure.

Resolved, 2d—That we rejoice that the act of Congress, and the covering of the exhibits, the sentiment of the Christian people of the United States and the providence of God have brought to naught the wicked designs of the directors of the World's Fair to keep open the gates on the Sabbath.

Resolved, 3d—That we hold it to be a violation of the word of God and the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church, for any of our members to load, or ship stock, visit, ride on Sunday trains, or excursions, driving or resorting to parks or public places for pleasure on the Sabbath day.

Resolved, 4th—That we, the ministers of the Illinois Annual Conference, will preach to our congregations on this subject, teaching and exhorting them to make the Sabbath day, not only a day of rest from physical and mental toil, but, also a day of investigation into the spiritual life and devout worship of Almighty God.

G. W. DUNGAN, Chairman.
A. D. MOON, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We recognize the providential mission of the Church Extension Society in our economy and commend it to the love and liberality of our people. The reports show that in the last twenty-seven years, since its organization, this Society has disbursed nearly five million dollars of the gifts of our membership in aid of new and feeble charges.

T. J. WHEAT, Chairman.
J. FOXWORTHY, Secretary.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

The amount asked from this Conference, $2,760; amount raised, $1,710. Your committee deprecates this deficiency and calls the attention of the Conference to paragraph 280 of our Book of Discipline.

J. R. REASONER, Chairman.
S. G. FERREE, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

Among the advantages we receive from the press are information and edification concerning our general and peculiar work.

In our homes, schools and leagues we depend, largely, upon our publications for instruction to intelligently build up our institutions and maintain our benevolent enterprises.

We therefore recommend, as well adapted to these purposes the literature of our church.

In our Sunday schools and among our people should be distributed the "Gospel In All Lands," and "World Wide Missions," for missionary intelligence.

"Christianity In Earnest" is making our people better christians and better patriots.

The Central Christian Advocate, ably edited by J. B. Young, D. D., should be in every family. It is our Conference newspaper and through it we must be informed of the church work in our Conference and general church.

As is the Epworth League among our societies, so is the Epworth Herald among our publications. Bright, beautiful, loyal and true, we gladly say put it among our Leaguers.

In our reading circles, put our new books where they will do their part in moulding the Methodism of the morrow.

C. F. TOBEY, Chairman.
W. M. GOODING, Secretary.

TRACTS.

Fully appreciating the great value of the Tract Society's work in advancing the interests of our Church, we urge it as the duty of each pastor to take an undivided collection for this cause at every point under his care.

We consider that the lack of knowledge of the object and work of this society, so manifest among our people, demands, that by sermons, or otherwise, we impart the information needed, that the gifts of our people may be more liberal and spontaneous.

We recommend that every pastor should, after a careful study of his charge, order and distribute at least the number of tracts his charge is entitled to, and of such a character as in his judgment would be most beneficial.

T. M. PRICKETT, Chairman.
G. W. FLAGGE, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, Through the providence of God, and by his divine assistance the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has accomplished and is accomplishing great good among the degraded and lost of all lands; and

WHEREAS, There is still need of a greater work among those who are in the darkness and superstitution of heathenism. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That we encourage every effort for the advancement of this work.

1st. By welcoming its representatives to our Conference.

2nd. By tendering to local societies the use of our churches.

3rd. By giving them our warmest sympathy, our earnest prayers and our financial support.

J. A. STOUT, Chairman.
F. C. BRUNER, Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

With feelings of profound gratitude to God, we recognize the existence of this youngest daughter of the church. Therefore be it Resolved, 1st—That we encourage every effort looking to the organization of Woman's Home Missionary Societies in our charges.

Resolved, 2nd.—That we request the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Illinois Conference to establish a Deaconess's Home within the bounds of this Conference, as soon as practicable, and to further this object the committee begs leave to nominate the following named persons as a Conference board of nine: W. N. McElroy, W. H. Webster, W. A. Smith, C. Galeener, R. G. Hobbs, A. C. Byerly, Mrs. N. W. Matheny of Springfield, Mrs. M. C. Oliver of Jacksonville, Mrs. B. S. Potter of Bloomington.

T. M. DILLON, Chairman,

WESLEY HOSPITAL, CHICAGO, ILL.

Having heard with interest the statement made by Rev. Joseph Odgers, Superintendent of "Wesley Hospital," situated in the City of Chicago, Ill., concerning the plans and purposes for providing greatly improved facilities in caring for the sick and suffering in that institution, to which the Methodists in most of our western Conferences now look with sympathy and hope, in view of the encouraging possibilities of the near future to furnish there, the best facilities which medical and surgical science can afford, and deeming it wise and important to cooperate in the work of identifying the several Annual Conferences of this region with this Institution, both as patrons and also in its management and support, we recommend the following action:

1.—Resolved, That this Annual Conference hereby undertake the endowment of two beds, to be known as the Illinois Conference beds, and that collections and contributions be solicited from our churches to pay the interest at 6 per cent. per annum, on the $10,000 necessary to said endowment, and that the surplus amounts of such collections be credited to this Conference on the principal of the endowment.

2.—Resolved, That this Conference will proceed to the election of one minister and one layman to represent this body in the advisory council of "Wesley Hospital," which minister and layman shall serve as trustees for this Conference, if the charter is so changed as to admit of Conference representation in said board of trustees before the next meeting of this annual Conference.

3.—Resolved, That the second Sabbath of February be known as hospital day in our Conference, and that we will present this cause before our congregations and send their offerings to the Conference Treasurer for this fund.

4.—Resolved, That we elect Rev. John A. Kumler, of this Conference, and Buck Prentice, of Springfield, Ill., as members of the advisory council; and that Mr. Prentice be Conference Treasurer for this fund.

J. WINTERBOTTOM,
W. McK. GOODING,
MELCHIOR AUER. } Committee.

PREACHER'S AID SOCIETY.

Your committee finds that the sum of $2,400 has been distributed by the Preacher's Aid Society to claimants on its fund, at this session of our Conference. The highest amount received by any beneficiary being $160, a sum about equal to the largest amount paid to any claimant on the Superannuated fund. These facts commend the merits of the Preacher's Aid Society to the patronage of every member of our Conference.

G. CUNNINGHAM.

TRUSTEES.

The Treasurer, W. H. Webster was directed to pay the accrued interest amounting to $475.00 to the Board of Stewards.

The Secretary was directed to prepare a new bond to be signed by the Treasurer and his securities, which he has done.

W. N. McElroy, W. H. Wilder and Horace Reed were re-elected Trustees. Horace Reed was selected to preach the annual Strawbridge sermon, and the pastor of the Second Church in Springfield alernate.

W. H. Webster, W. A. Smith and W. N. McElroy were recommended to the Conference as a suitable committee to perfect and publish a plan before the next session of our Conference for the raising, maintenance and distribution of funds for our Conference claimants.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We recognize in the Epworth League a spiritual force and power in the church which could not have been secured without this organized young life of the church; and we hail with profound gratitude and joy this supplemental help of the pastor.

The past year in the history of Epworth League work in the Illinois Conference, has been one of great success and blessing. A material growth of membership is recorded; a general impetus has been given to all departments of spiritual work in the church. Our thanksgiving for the success of the past, is only surpassed by our hopes and expectations for the future, that the Epworth League will continue its increasing power for good among the young people of the church.

Recognizing the great benefit to be derived from large gatherings of young people for the purpose of religious training and development; and also the enkindling of Epworth enthusiasm, we recommend that conventions be held in circuits and sub-districts, where our young people and their pastors may be massed together for that purpose.

We also recommend inter-chapter correspondence and fraternal visitation by delegates, appointed by the local chapters.

We heartily approve of the reading course selected by the General Board of Control, and recommend that our young people adopt it so far as practicable.

We note with pleasure the phenomenal growth of, and universal satisfaction with, The Epworth Herald, the organ of the League.

And urge that a thorough canvass be made among the friends and members of the local chapters, that the circulation of this valuable paper may be greatly increased.

We rejoice in the revival of open air and Jno. Wesley—sunrise—gospel meetings, and recommend that they be extensively used by the Epworth League.

We request that a place be given in the minutes of this Conference for a summarized statement by Districts, of the statistics of the Epworth League of the Illinois Conference for the Conference year now closing.

We recommend that the President and Secretary of the Epworth League of the Illinois Conference, be authorized to prepare blanks for the statistics of the League for the coming Conference year on the following items:

No. of Chapters of Epworth League, No. of Members.

No. of Chapters of Junior Leagues, No. of Members.

No. of Epworth Heralds taken. Amount of money contributed to the benevolent or other enterprises of the church.

And to publish the same, and forward them to the Conference Statistical Secretary to be sent out with the other statistical blanks of the Conference.

J. W. MILLER, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON BOUNDARY.

The joint commission on boundary between the Illinois and Southern Illinois Conferences met in Beecher City, Ill., Nov. 15th, 1892, and organized by electing Rev. J. T. Orr, president, and B. A. Hoar, secretary.

A motion was passed recommending the following change in boundary, viz: As shown in Discipline, Edition 1892, ¶517 (94) Southern Illinois Conference Boundary, after the word Hillsboro, leaving it in the Illinois Conference; thence east through Fayette and Effingham Counties, etc., to read thence east to the north and along the line of Fayette and Effingham Counties, leaving Holliday in Southern Illinois Conference, thence east to the north line of Jasper and Crawford counties to the Wabash River, so that the whole boundary will read thus ¶517 (94) "Southern Illinois Conference shall include that part of the state south of the following line, namely: Beginning at the mouth of the Illinois river, thence up said river to the northwest corner of Jersey county, including Kane and Woodbury; thence to Honey Point; thence to Hillsboro leaving it in the Illinois Conference; thence east to the north and along the line of Fayette and Effingham counties, leaving Holliday in Southern Illinois Conference; thence east to the north line of Jasper and Crawford counties to the Wabash River.

DOMESTIC MISSIONARY AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

We recommend the organization of a Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference, under the following articles of incorporation:

CHARTER.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, } ss.
COUNTY OF DEWITT, }

This certifies that the undersigned, being citizens of the United States of America, and of the State of Illinois, and residing within the bounds of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and State of Illinois, desire to form a corporation, not for pecuniary profit, pursuant to an act of tbe General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled an "act concerning corporations, approved April 18, 1872," do hereby certify that the following is a true statement of the name, or title by which such corporation shall be known in law, the particular business and object for which it is formed, the number of its trustees, and the names of the same selected for the first year of its existence, viz:

I. The name of such corporation shall be "The Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

II. The object of said corporation is the founding of missions and maintaining mission churches and Sunday schools, and affording financial aid to weak churches of the Methodist Episcopal church within the bounds of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

III. The Board of Trustees shall consist of twenty-seven members beside the Presiding Elders of the Illinois Conference who shall be ex-officio members of said Board of Trustees, and nine members shall constitute a quorum to do business, and all vacancies occurring in said Board may be filled by said Board at any regular meeting. All trustees shall be residents within the bounds of the Illinois Annual Conference and three-fourths of said trustees shall be active members in good standing in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Trustees may adopt and shall be governed by such By-Laws as they may from time to time adopt, not in conflict with law or these articles of incorporation.

IV. The members of said Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes, by lot, at their first meeting. Each class to consist of nine members. One class shall hold their office for one year, one class for two years and one class for three years, and all until their successors are elected.

At each annual meeting after January, 1894, said Board of Trustees shall elect by ballot nine persons of the qualifications herein required as successors to the class of Trustees whose term of office then expires. All Trustees except the first two classes above named shall hold their office for the term of three years and until their successors are elected.

The first Board of Trustees are: H. B. Prentice, Abraham Mann, J. C. Sheldon, S. R. Capps, Sain Welty, D. L. Musselman, W. S. Grubbs, John H. Carver, J. M. Davis, Preston Wood, W. H. Webster, J. T. Memoirs.

REV. JAMES HENRY NOBLE.

James Henry Noble was born in Point Pleasant, Clermont county, Ohio, Oct. 6th, 1821, and died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Grace Hermans, in Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 5th, 1892. His father and mother were for more than sixty years devout and active members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and were deeply interested in the education of their children. When the subject of this sketch was six years of age they moved to Cincinnati, and he attended the Ward school for seven years, and the Woodward College for three years. When he was sixteen his parents moved back to Clermont county, and for one year he attended a high school taught by the late Dr. J. W. Weakley. Between the years of nineteen and twenty-five he taught school. On Jan. 1st, 1838, he united with the Church, and lived a beautiful and exemplary Christian life for fifty four years. Mr. Noble married Miss Angeline Simmons on April 1st, 1841. The first five years of their married life he was engaged in teaching. For eighteen years she shared with him the hardships of the itinerancy. She died in Greencastle, Ind., Feb. 17th, 1864. The union was crowned with eleven children Eight are still living. His second marriage was to Miss Carrie Simmons, the yonngest sister of his first wife. In his last sickness he said, "Not only to the glory of God, but to the praise of my wife, I want to leave my testimony to the uncomplaining, constant and loving attention of my wife through my long affliction" Two children crowned this union.

At the age of twenty-two Mr. Noble was licensed to preach. For three years he taught school or toiled on the farm through the week, and preached on Sunday as a local preacher, and during those years he won many souls to Christ. In 1846 he was admitted into the Indiana Conference, and his appointments were as follows: 1846 47; Lynnville Mission; 1848-49, Rockport; 1850-51, Evansville; 1852 53, New Albany; 1854-55, Wesley Chapel, Indianapolis; 1856-59, Evansville district; 1860 61, Indianapolis district; 1862 63, Greencastle district; 1864 66, New Albany. In 1867 he transferred to the Illinois conference where he filled the following charges: 1867-8, Champaign, Ill.; 1869 71, First Church, Decatur; 1872-73, Champaign; 1874-76, Danville district; 1877-79, First Church, Springfield; 1880–81, Lincoln; 1882 83, Mattoon; 1884 86, First Church Shelbyville; 1887 88, Paxton. At the session in 1889 he felt that his health was too much impaired to take a charge, and he asked for a superannuate relation. The success of his ministry can only be faintly outlined in this brief sketch. His achievements were along many lines. In some of his charges he had great revivals; and hundreds were converted. In others he exhibited a masterful organizing ability. In others he showed his skill in starting new church enterprises, or completing those already begun. In others he manifested rarest tact in harmonizing discordant elements. He always had a strong hold upon the young people.

He was elected a delegate from the Indiana Conference to the General Conference of 1865. His brethren of the Illinois Conference esteemed him for his wisdom, integrity, and all the elements that make a manly man. He was in the best sense a Scriptural preacher. His sermons were always instructive, and often he rose to a very high style of eloquence. All who were brought in close contact with him, so they could feel the throbbing of his great, honest, loving heart, loved him ardently.

For one year after superannuating he lived in Champaign, the last two years in Kankakee, Ill. Though too feeble to do much in the Church, yet the people soon began to show high esteem for him. For eighteen weeks he was a great sufferer. As the city pastors and other friends visited him and witnessed his patience, resignation and triumphant faith, they would go and tell about it to their families and congregations. His message to the last conference was, "Tell my brethren that in all my great suffering I have never been lonely or despondent." A volume might be filled with his delightful conversations with his wife, and children, and pastors during the last weeks of his suffering, as he tarried in Beulah land, waiting for the chariot, all the time enjoying "peace, steady, constant peace." A largely attended memorial service, was conducted in Grace Church, Kankakee, Sunday evening, Nov. 6th, by the pastor, Rev. T. W. McVety, assisted by other city pastors. The day following his remains were taken to Champaign, and the services at First Church were conducted by the writer and Rev. Messrs. Hobbs, Byerly, McVety, Murphy, and the pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The interment was in the cemetery in Champaign.

REV. SAMSON SHINN.

At midnight, January 20th, 1893, after an illness of three months, Rev. Samson Shinn passed from his home in Chicago to his home in heaven On Dec. 26th, 1821, he was born at Shinnston, Va., and in 1839 came to Illinois. In 1843 he joined the Illinois Conference, having been converted in 1838. In 1846 he married Miss Lucy A. Dodd, of Quincy, who, with their seven children, survive him, he being the first of the family to go hence. For nearly fifty years Bro Shinn was engaged in the work of the Methodist ministry, and for the most of that time sustained an effective relation. He served in the following charges: 1843, Paris; 1844, Danville; 1845, Columbus; 1846, Hillsboro; 1847, Salem; 1848, Waterloo; 1849, Carlyle; 1850, Warsaw; 1851, Columbus; 1852-3, Mt. Pleasant; 1854-5, Georgetown, 1856-7, superannuated; 1858-9, Lincoln; 1860, Grandview; 1861, Danville Circuit; 1862-3, Middletown; 1864, Mt. Pleasant; 1865-8, Danville District; 1869-70, Jacksonville Circuit; 1871, West Jacksonville; 1872, Lincoln Circuit; 1873-5, Columbus; 1876, Chandlerville; 1877, Griggsville Circuit; 1878, Stanford; 1879-80, Oldtown; 1881, Hopedale; 1882 3, Fisher. In 1884 he took a superannuated relation, which he held until his death.

He was a reserve delegate to the General Conference at Philadelphia in 1864. He always had the confidence and love of his ministerial brethren, and was very successful in building up all of the interests of the Church he loved. As a preacher he was clear, forcible, earnest, positive and successful. He was strong doctrinally, and professed and preached the doctrine of sanctification constantly. On great moral and political questions he was a radical, and had the courage of his convictions. His was the material of which martyrs are made, and neither threats nor persecutions could swerve him a hair's breadth from his convictions. He was a leader among his brethren on the anti-slavery question. His strong utterances against tobacco and liquor cost him some friends, but neither place nor power had any influuence over him when conscience was involved. He was outspoken, clear and courageous in the utterance of his convictions of right, and scorned to sell out to any body or for any price. He was the soul of honor, and a more intrepid warrior never entered the lists against sin in high or low places.

His last days were full of patient suffering, but he was a complete victor and at last triumphed gloriously. He has left a legacy to his Church for all time in his faithful, earnest and successful labors, and to his family he leaves a priceless legacy of love, devotion and unstained record. His treasure was laid up in heaven, not on earth, and he has gone to enjoy the results of his glorious war fare. For nearly fifty years his devoted wife was a helpmeet indeed, both in temporal and spiritual affairs, and made it possible for him to accomplish so much for his Master. His sons and daughters rise up to call him blessed, and his memory is to them like precious ointment poured forth. He has gone to take his appointment with his former colleagues, Cartwright, Akers, Crane, Buck, Prentice, Noble, Davies, Hawes and others who have ceased to itinerate, for they are now stationed in the Church triumphant. Revs. J. M. Caldwell, P. Swift, Peter Wallace, William Goodfellow and other old friends spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing ones at the funeral. His body was interred at Oakwood cemetery at Chicago. A true Methodist preacher, a loyal citizen, a loving husband, a devoted father and a genuine Christian has gone to his crown and kingdom, but the work of Samson Shinn will follow him through the coming years and will make an indellible impress upon the Church and world. May divine grace sustain the feeble but faithful widow, and may the entire family have a glorious reunion in the home of the soul.

REV. JOHN EVERLY.

John Everly was born in Shelby county, Ohio, Nov. 14, 1835, and died at Aurora, Ill., April 20, 1893. Whatever may have been the advantages of his youth for intellectual and moral development, he secured a good secondary education and became established in the habits of morality at an early age. At nineteen he was brought under the conviction that men need regeneration of heart through the grace of God in Jesus Christ. This grace he sought, therefore, and found in a meeting held at Piqua, Ohio, in 1854. He also perceived that a regenerated man needs every aid, sympathy, stimulant, and retraint, to be found in the association with men inspired with the holiest ambitions and loftiest resolves; he therefore united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, which relation he enjoyed to the day of his final triumph. He was soon led by the spirit of God and the Word of his truth to devote himself to the Christian ministry, being received on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference in the fall of 1856. He received and served faithfully and efficiently the following appointments, viz: 1856, Waynesville; 1857, Decatur Circuit; 1858, Maroa; 1859, Cheney's Grove; 1860 and 1861, Mt. Pulaski; 1862 and 1863, service in the field for his country; 1864 and 1865, Elkhart; 1866 and 1867, Girard; 1869, Mattoon; 1870, Chatham; 1871, Sangamon; 1872, supernumerary; 1873 and 1874, Lincoln circuit; 1875 and 1876, McLean; 1878 and 1879, Heyworth; 1880, Stanford; 1881 and 1882, Bloomington circuit; 1883 and 1885, Oldtown; 1886, Leroy, circuit; 1887 to 1889, Mason City; 1890 and 1891, Island Grove; 1892, Naples and Meredosia.

None knew John Everly but to respect him. The business man, the friend, the pastor, or preacher never eclipsed the man as he moved among men in various relations. Pure minded, warm-hearted, even-tempered, well-balanced in judgment, his contact with men has not subtracted from the World's brightness or peace. He had the reputation of being a good preacher and a most excellent pastor. In some charges great revivals were experienced, notably at Mattoon and on Lincoln circuit, where there where large ingatherings to the Church. In many of these fields his name is spoken as of blessed memory and from which he will witness a great harvest as the sheaves are gathered in. His personal influence as pastor was perhaps greater than as preacher, due to splendid social qualities and the refining power of grace to which he had so perfectly submitted himself, especially in the last years of his life.

This is evidenced by a letter to one of his parishoners written to his son on receiving the intelligence of his pastor's death. He says, "While I was somewhat prepared for it, it filled our family with profound sorrow, for we had learned to love him so well, feeing that he was one of God's noblemen. He was always so gentle, so kind, and had such a sweet spirit that drew us to him." This tenderness and sweetness characterized him in his home with family and friends alike. No husband or father was more faithful and uniformly kind and loving.

Fully alive to all the interests of the Church, with a consuming passion to save souls, he labored until a few weeks before his death, when he was compelled to rest from his personal duties; but he found final rest—the rest that awaits the people of God—sooner than any had thought, rather than that which comes from restoration to physical health. It was so ordered by infinite wisdom and love. No human skill could even prolong his life, such was the nature of his malady. While for his wife and children's sake he would have rejoiced to have remained here longer, there was no confusion in his own mind when it was made known to him that the end had come; death did not surprise him. He could not delay it, but through redeeming grace he had robbed death of its victory by overcoming its sting. He died as he preached and lived since 1854, the time he entered into communion with God. His religious experience was most satisfactory to him in this trying hour, and frequently he cried aloud, "Praise the Lord—it is all right."

He leaves a wife whose maiden name was Elwood, and to whom he was married March 1, 1860, one daughter and one son, one brother and four sisters to mourn his death, to rejoice in the triumph of his life, and to cherish the memory of his name.

WINGATE JONES NEWMAN.

Wingate Jones Newman was born January 13th, 1812, in Ross county, Ohio His home, humble godly and on a little farm, his education was limited; and the means to get it was simply such as could be afforded at the fireside, with the spelling book and New Testament as text books. On September 15th, 1827, when 15 years of age, he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Ross county, Ohio. His conversion after a most terrible struggle was clear and powerful, and the glory of that hour never left his faith or his memory. Two years afterward when seventeen years of age he was licensed to preach, as a Local Preacher; this was in 1829, and to the year of his death he continued to preach Christ to sinners and urge them to come to repentance through the period of sixty-four years. Brother Newman was an earnest and efficient Local Preacher, in the home of the people, winning many souls to Christ; in the class-meeting he was expecially efficient and enthusiastic through his whole religious life.

For eighteen years he was a Local Preacher, whose prayers and exhortations were attended with peculiar power from God. The traveling preacher always found in Brother Newman a cordial helper as long as he was a Local Preacher. In these years he moved to Illinois, and in 1847 at Jacksonville, Illinois, at the age of thirty-five, he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference, of which he remained a member till his death. Brother Newman served the following charges: McLeansboro in 1847; Mount Pleasant in 1844; Randolph Grove in 1849 50; Sulphur Springs in 1851; Agt. Ills. Wesleyan University in 1852-53; Island Grove in 1854-55; Sangamon in 1856-57; Chadlersville in 1858-59; Franklin in 1860–61; Chaplain in Union Army in 18626-3; Meredosia in 1864 -65; Griggsville Circuit in 1866-67-68; Perry in 1869; Kinderhook in 1870; Barry Circuit in 1871-72; Beverly in 1873; New Hartford in 1874-75; Bowen in 1876; Ashland in 1877-78-79; Palmyra in 1880-81-82; superannuated in 1883 —93. He served twenty different charges and appointments, many of which were very large and required much travel, with seven to nine sermons per week, with as many class and prayer meetings. Brother Newman was a Traveling Preacher for forty-four years, of which time he was for ten years a superannuate. In such relation he was loyal to the preacher in charge—ever ready to help him and stand ready to give him success in every Church enterprise and difficult undertaking. He was a man of plain speech, easy manners, many resources, and large practical sense. His zeal and tact with men, in his religious work, was great. His cheerfulness and courage both physical and spiritual was abounding. His work was among many difficult appointments. He worked hard, made good collections, sold many Methodist books; had many revivals and thousands were converted under his ministrations. He built many churches, paid many church debts, and was a marked blessing to his charges. He was a good singer and was himself tunning-fork, organ and choir. He was a useful man and loyal Methodist, and full of faith and the Holy Ghost for his sixty-six years of Christian life, and for sixty-four years of his life as a Local and Traveling Preacher. His love for the church never flagged.

As a preacher he was earnest, plain, practical and methodical, requiring of each the testimony of an experience of pardon and witness of the Spirit, and a religion of peace and joy.

His last sermon—a few weeks before his death—was preached on the Waverly Circuit, from the text "I have fought a good fight; I have finished the faith," which was preached with deep emotion and with great power, among the people.

He was sick for about four weeks and with much suffering, yet amid a holy faith and triumphant joy he rested in Christ and passed away peacefully to Heaven.

Brother Newman was married three times: To Miss Nancy E. Carter in 1833, by which marriage there were born unto them three children, one of whom still survives. The wife died in 1838.

In 1840 he was married to Miss Lucy A. McPherson, by whom he had nine children, all of whom have died. This wife died in 1873.

On April 24, 1877, he was married to Mrs. Rebecca J. Buffin, of Naples, Illinois, who survives him, and with whom in life he and she lived in sweet affection and in the faith of Christ.

Brother Newman died from the effects of blood poison at Palmyra, September 3rd, 1893, aged 81 years, 7 months and 20 days, and is buried at Palmyra, Illinois.

REV. CHARLES ATKINSON.

Charles Atkinson was born in Sligo County, Ireland, Aug. 3, 1816, and died Dec. 13, 1892. He was baptized in the Protestant Episcopal Church Aug. 25, 1816, converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1833; licensed as an exhorter 1836; licensed as local preacher 1837; joined the Illinois Conference on trial 1837, and served as follows: Gileas, 1838; Rushville Circuit, 1839; Pittsfield, 1840; Lacon, 1841; Waynesville, 1842; Supernumerary 1843; located 1844; readmitted and served Murphysboro, 1848; Jonesboro, 1849-50; Golconda, 1851; Bunker Hill, 1852; Collinsville, 1853; Athens, 1854; Chatham, 1855; Danville Circuit, 1856; Columbus, 1857; Vermont, 1858; Littletown, 1859; Vermont and Astoria, 1860; Naples, 1861; in the army 1862-64; Beverly, 1869; Harain, 1870; Shelbyville Circuit, 1871; Summit Grove, 1872. He took a superannuate relation this year and thus remained until his decease He was married to Miss Mary Oliver, who survivors him. To them were born four children, three of whom are living, viz: A. P. Atkinson, W. O. Atkinson and Mrs. S. E. Rankin.

Father Atkinson was a positive character, a vigorous thinker, an earnest preacher and a writer of considerable ability. He spent his last years in Chicago, perfecting some inventions, one of which was in practical use, upon which he was receiving an annual royalty at the time of his death. He was ill but a few weeks before he died. At his own request he was taken to Wesley Hospital to die, where in his last moments he gave assurance to those present with him of his hope through grace. After appropriate funeral services in Ada Street Church, Chicago, his remains were laid to rest in the preacher's lot at Graceland cemetery.

REV. J. H. DIMMITT.

Jonas Hare Dimmitt was born in Clermont county, Ohio, July 16th, 1833, and departed this life in Mount Pleasant, Iowa, July 3rd, 1893.

His parents removed, in his early childhood, from Ohio to Illinois, and settled upon a farm in Pike county, three miles southeast of Griggsville. The neighborhood was settled by a superior class of immigrants. The village was originally a New England colony from Boston and the towns adjacent. The people were of superior culture and refinement, and of high moral and religious character. These gave superior schools, churches and society; and these exerted a healthful influence upon the youth reared in their midst.

His father was a man in good circumstances, of superior intelligence, a very earnest christian and loyal Methodist, occupying an official relation to the church for nearly fifty years. His mother was a pious, godly woman. The Dimmitt home was always the preachers' home, and in early days a preaching place. This home and its surroundings had its effect upon the children reared in it. Three of the four sons became itinerant Methodist preachers—James P., George W. and Jonas H., the subject of this sketch.

Early religious surroundings resulted in early conversion. In childhood he became a christian and a member of the church. He was licensed to preach in August, 1855, and in September of the same year was admitted on trial into the Illinois Conference and appointed to Payson Circuit. He served faithfully and acceptably the following charges: 1855–6, Payson Circuit; 1856–7, Delavan; 1857-8, Concord; 1858–9, New Hartford; 1859–61, Girard; 1861–2, Rochester; 1861-64, Decatur Circuit.

In 1864 he took a supernumerary relation and retired to his old home near Griggsville, to take care of his aged parents. In 1870 he located and removed to Missouri. He joined the St. Louis Conference in 1874 and was stationed at Bolivar. In 1875 he transferred to the Illinois Conference and served the following charges: 1875-6, Macon; 1876-7, Cerro Gordo; 1877-8, Decatur Circuit. His health failing he took a superannuary relation and removed to Missouri, where he resided until 1889, when he removed to Corning, Iowa, and in 1891, to Mount Pleasant, where he died.

He was characterized by a genial, sunny nature, sterling integrity, deep piety, and remarkable common sense. He was not a great orator, nor a profound thinker. There was neither superior brilliancy, or genius, or logical power in his mental nature. His preaching was not characterized by remarkable originality, imagination, conception or pathos. He disdained the arts of the rhetorian. He never wreathed the sword of the spirit with flowers, nor swung it so that it might merely flash the light from it. His sermons, however, were clear, evangelical and forcible. They were marked by intelligent apprehension of gospel truth, profound conviction and the earnestness born out of the consciousness that he was God's ambassador, commissioned with God's message to guilty men. As a result believers were edified, and sinners converted upon the charges he served.

He was faithful in attending to all the details of a preacher's work. Nothing was neglected or overlooked. A good pastor, a good preacher, an earnest Christian, and a superior business man, whatever field he cultivated showed careful tillage and abundant harvests.

He was a man of great energy and industry. He ate not the bread of idleness. Whatever he did he did with his might. After he ceased to travel he preached and labored to the utmost of his physical endurance until prevented from performing any work, by the disease of which he died, progressive paralysis. As a citizen, a husband and father he was unsurpassed.

In his early manhood he was married to Miss Hull, of Pike county, Illinois, who survives him. She proved to him a helpmeet indeed. Four sons and three daughters were the fruit of this marriage. Two of the daughters are the wives of itinerant Methodist ministers; and one son, Rev. F. A. Dimmitt, is a member of the Indiana Conference, and pastor of Madison Avenue Church, Indianapolis.

His last days were marked by suffering. For months he could not leave his room, but he found the religion he had preached to others sufficient for himself. His faith in God was so unfaltering, and his christian experience so deep and clear, that he lived on the mountains of Beulah ere he entered death's valley, and passed triumphantly over the river, and went up with the "shining ones" through the gates of the city to be forever with the Lord! His remains were laid to rest in Bethel cemetery near his old home, followed by hundreds of his old friends and neighbors. By his own request the religious services were conducted by the writer, W. N. McElroy.

REV. THOMAS J. BRYANT.

Thomas J. Bryant, a superannuated member of the Illinois Conference, died in Versailles, Brown County, Illinois, March 7, 1893. Brother Bryant was the son of William Whaley Bryant, who settled in Kentucky in an early day. The subject of this sketch was born in Overton county, Sept. 28, 1892. His mother was Isabel Rankin, the daughter of James Rankin, of Virginia. At the breaking out of the Mexican war, Mr. Bryant joined a company raised in Jacksonville, Ill., and went to the front at the age of seventeen years. Subsequently he was converted and licensed to exhort. In 1854 he was licensed to preach and the same year joined the Illinois Conference, and was sent as junior preacher to the Payson Circuit. In 1855 he was sent to Mowequa Circuit, and in November of that year he married Miss Margaret Ann Brady, of Hannibal, Mo. He subsequently served the Middletown, Harden, Kinderhook and Greenfield charges. On May 9, 1861, he was elected captain of Company D, of the 14th Illinois Volunteers. He was wounded three times in the battle of Shiloh, and on account of the injuries sustained in this engagement was, on Oct. 5, 1862, discharged for disability. In the fall of this year he was appointed to Carrollton charge. In 1871 after serving successively the Pittsfield Circuit, Barry, Whitehall Circuit, Greenfield Circuit, Winchester and Virden, he went to Kansas, he having withdrawn from the church.

In 1874 he was received on trial again in the Missouri Conference and stationed at West Hannibal. In 1875 he transferred to the Illinois Conference and served in the following charges: Versailles, Camp Point, Columbus, La Prairie, Decatur Circuit, Pana, Astoria, Littleton, West Point, Harristown. In 1892, when broken in health, he took a superannuated relation and moved to Versailles. He lingered but a few months and passed peacefully away from toil to reward. Brother Bryant was perhaps as extensively known within the bounds of the Illinois Conference, as well as many other places, as any member of the Conference, and known only to be respected and loved. He was a man of marked individuality and of strong and decisive convictions. He was strongly attached to his friends. He was well posted in the doctrines of the Church and Christianity. He was a good preacher and was instrumental in bringing hundreds to Christ. Those who knew him well formed a high estimate of him as a Christian and a successful preacher. His wife, three sons and two daughters survive him.

LAVINA STAATS HEWES

was born near Dana, Ind., Sept. 28, 1834, and died in the parsonage at Saybrook, Ill., January 20, 1893.

She joined the church when 16 years of age. For five years she taught in the public schools of Paris, Ill. Sept. 7, 1871, she married Rev. M. A. Hewes, of the Illinois Conference, and during the remainder of her life she was a devoted itinerant, bright, cheerful and self-sacrificing. Giving her heart to God in early childhood, she never ceased to love him, and her devotion to his cause never flagged. While she never professed to have an experience that was wonderful or unusual in the christian life, the foundations of her faith were grounded in the very depths of her soul.

Upon her marriage to Brother Hewes she entered upon her duties as foster-mother to his children with feelings of the deepest love, and during their twenty-one years with her they knew her as a model mother.

In the beginning of her sickness it was hard for her to give up her cherished plans, but God kindly prepared her mind for the coming change, and though she endured great suffering she as calmly made her arrangements for death as though she were wrapping the drapery of her couch about her to lie down to pleasant dreams.

She had the queenly presence of a regal womanhood. Her feelings had the freshness and fragrancy of young flowers Life had no dim or lowly spot which she could reach which did not share her sunshine. In the path of duty there was no sacrifice too high or dear for her to gladly make. The chamber of the sick, the pillow of the dying, the vigils with the dead, the altars of religion never missed her presence or her sympathies if within the range of her knowledge or influence. Her vivacity, and never-failing cheerfulness brightened allwho mingled in her society. With such a steward at home her husband went forth on his work upon the district relying fully on her:

"To come with jaded spirit home at night,
And find the cheerful fire, the sweet repast
At which in dress of happy cheek and eyes
Love sits and smiling brightens all his board."

Judicious, diligent and religious, she was the soul of her house. Civil, obliging and tender, she was full of courtsey and threw the glow and glamor of home around her transient guest.

Her dauntless courage would in the days of persecution have made her a shining martyr, so that of her life as well as of another Von Salis might have said:

"Who in life's battle firm doth stand
Shall bear hopes' tender blossoms
Into the silent land."

We men who count courage peculiar to war and combat on the field, take all too little note of that superior courage that glorifies the routine duties of the home.

"The bravest battle that ever was fought,
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not,
'Twas fought by the mothers of men."

Nay not with cannon or battle shot,
With sword or nobler pen;
Nay not with eloquent word or thought
From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in a walled-up woman's heart—
Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently bore her part—
Lo! there is that battle-field.

No marshalling troup, no bivouac song,
No banners to gleam and wave;
But oh! those battles they last so long—
From babyhood to the grave.

Yet faithful still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town—
Fights on and on in the endless wars;
Then silent, unseen, goes down.

O, ye with banner and battle shot
And soldiers to shout and praise;
I tell you the kingliest victories fought
Are fought in these silent ways.

O, spotless woman in a world of shame;
With splendid and silent scorn,
Go back to God as white as you came
The kingliest warrior born."

MRS. E. M. JEFFERS.

Florence Smithson was born in Clinton county, Ohio, Dec. 28, 1853, and died in Gifford, March 31, 1893. In the spring of 1867 she moved with her parents to Champaign county, where she resided until June 13, 1882, when she married Rev. E. M. Jeffers, and entered the Methodist itineracy with her husband, making herself useful in the following fields of labor: Deland, St Joseph, Belle Flower, Cisco, Seymour, Mansfield, Rankin and Gifford, all in the Champaign district. She united with the church in her sixteenth year, under the ministry of Rev. H. S. Tryon. She was a faithful, consistent christian, and was active in all church work, especially as Sunday school teacher, president of the local boards of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

In her home relations she was a noble wife, and a faithful and devoted mother, always looking carefully to the christian welfare of her household. Active and anxious as to the spiritual affairs of the church she was a valuable helpmeet to her husband in the work of the ministry. She was steadfast in her faith in God, which had dissipated all fear of death, so that she came down to that hour fully prepared for the change, and passed down the valley and peacefully entered into rest.

She desired to live to rear her boys to useful manhood, but was resigned to leave them to the care of others.

Although afflicted for the past few years, her faith in God made her a patient sufferer. In conversation with her husband a few days before her death, she said that she was not afraid to die. With her husband and children she leaves two brothers, two sisters and her parents to mourn her loss.

Her body was laid beside that of her little daughter, who preceded her to the better land. She was a noble woman, a strong worker in the vineyard of the Lord, a faithful follower of her Master and a strong advocate of his sublime teachings.

MRS. J. F. HORNEY.

Cora May Hulen was born June 10, 1860, at Elm Grove, Ill., where she grew to womanhood. She was married to Rev. John F. Horney Sept. 5, 1878. On Feb. 5 following, she was converted and united with the church, and continued a pronounced and useful christian to the end of her life. In September, 1880, her husband became a member of the Illinois Conference, and Mrs. Horney took up the duties of an itinerant's wife with a devotion that nothing could diminish. For twelve years she was his faithful companion and co-laborer. She soon developed rare qualifications as a soul winner. She was an untiring and efficient worker in the church, finding work in every department of the church and christian activity. The Epworth League and the Sabbath school were her special fields of labor and of love. In seasons of revival she would prevail upon hardened sinners, whom no one else could move, to bow at the altar and yield themselves to Christ In the twelve years of her itinerant life she saw perhaps a thousand souls converted under the ministry of her husband, many of whom publicly testified that it was through her influence that they were persuaded to become christians In 1890, while on the Sadorus circuit, she became afflicted with what was pronounced cancer. After it was removed disease of the lungs followed, which slowly, but surely, did its work of death. She gradually grew weaker until March 30, 1893, when she passed peacefully to that rest "That remaineth to the people of God."

She was a patient sufferer, never uttering a complaint or murmur as to her sad lot, but accepting it as if a visitation of Providence to call her to the rest from toil and suffering. The funeral service was held in the church of which her husband is the pastor. Mrs. Horney died, as might have been expected of one who had lived as she had, triumphant in the Lord. Her husband and little Mary, their only daughter, aged ten years, her father and one brother, survive her, with a cloud of witnesses who testify to her nobility of character and saintliness of life. Thus has been lost a faithful wife, a loving mother, a devoted christian and a faithful worker in the church. She was buried near her childhood home, at Elm Grove cemetery, Adams county, Ill.

MRS. J. O. KIRKPATRICK.

Jennie Isabelle Adams, wife of Rev. James O. Kirkpatrick, was born of christian parents at Forest, Livingston county, Illinois, March 15th, 1863. Before she could speak words plainly she began a life of prayer, which she exemplified till she was translated to the skies. At five years of age, of her own accord, she publicly professed her conscious knowledge of her divine acceptance, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church. Her experience felt and told was best expressed in her own words, thus: "I have always had the consciousness of God's love to me. I cannot point to the particular day or moment when I received him, but I have always been in keeping with my Saviour."

The church and her associates all through her life believed her. Her presence anywhere was a rebuke to sin and an inspiration for righteousness. Her humility and religious spirit produced energy and devotion agressive, scriptural and blessed among those about her. Her nature seemed radient and welcome. Her religious life seemed to move along a system of principles abounding in the Gospel of Christ. Her life seemed like a well-planned one of fidelity to Christ and his church moving constantly toward such harmony.

This element of order characterized the details of her work and duties. Her prayers and testimonies, her teaching, her music, her touch on the piano, her advice, her order in her home and the care and affection for husband and children, seemed intensely to share such pleasing relations.

This apparently required no effort. It was, through grace, her nature, never extreme, never indifferent, never hasty, yet always timely, she moved through her work with a skill and success, ever compelling respect and confidence for her and her work. What she did was but the reflection of her own life.

A sweet singer, a skillful musician, an apt teacher, an efficient housekeeper, a humble spirit, a loving nature, a devoted wife and mother, given to cheer and hospitality, she was well fitted for the wife of a Methodist preacher. She won her way to all hearts for good. She was liberally educated, having been a student in the public schools of Forest, in the academy at Paxton and in the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delavan, Ohio. She was well qualified for great usefulness and was so making her life.

She was married by Rev. J. A. Kumler to Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick at the home of her parents on the farm near Belle Flower, Ill., Sept., 1886, at which time her husband was pastor on the Le Roy Circuit and a student at the Illinois Wesleyan University. She and her husband resided at Bloomington, Illinois, till the following commencement, when they went to Fort Worth, Texas, where her husband was called to take charge of Saint Paul's Methodist church. The climate was unfavorable to her health, and to return to Illinois for a cooler climate seemed imperative.

In September, 1889, having been transferred to Illinois Conference, they were assigned to Heyworth, Illinois, where she was prostrated with "grippe" which resulted in lung trouble and then in consumption, from which she never recovered. After a trip to Kansas with a view to health, but which was without benefit, she went to Demorest, Georgia, for a new and exhilarating climate, which, for a brief period, seemed full of promise, but it was not continued, when, in a brief day, a change came and on the 26th day of November, 1892, she died in peaceful and holy triumph to be forever with her Saviour. She left the following message to her mother:

"I am trusting in my Saviour and have no fears for the future. It is all right; the way is clear; I resign myself—everything to his care, my husband, my boys—poor little dears—I know they will be cared for Tell the girls (her sisters) to live more for Jesus than for society and to be good, christian girls."

Though she died among strangers, she impressed her holy faith and salvation upon all about her. Her life was rich in grace, great in faith, noble in example, efficient in church work and radiant in the glory of its blessings. She died at the age of 29 years, 8 months and 11 days, leaving a husband and two infant sons surviving her. She was buried at Bloomington, Illinois.

MRS. EMILY SMITH RUTLEDGE.

Emily Smith was born near Chandlerville, Cass county, Illinois, Sept. 13, 1862. At eight years of age, she with her father's family moved to Wichita, Kansas, where after five years residence the death of her sainted mother induced the return of the family to Illinois. For about sixteen years her home was with her aunt, Mrs. M. A. White, of Petersburg, Ill., where she was converted, educated and also united with the Methodist Episcopal church. Although naturally diffident she was aggressive. Her love for the church inspired her activities and directed her consecrations; her chief delight was in church work. Whether teaching the infant class in Sunday school, singing in the choir, or doing the work of the stward in the finances of the church, it was well done as "heartily unto the Lord and not unto men." She was ready and efficient in every duty, without boast or much profession, for anything great or difficult she gave grace and dignity to responsibility and the details of church work became promptly and well done. Energy, time, and affection were combined in holy consecration in what she did. She accepted office and trust in the church as from God. While never neglecting her own work, she, like Enoch, walked with God in the work assigned her, and had this testimony that she pleased God. Her presence or coöperation in any difficult work inspired confidence and compelled respect for the cause and for those engaged in it. To know her was to see the simplicity and worth, and beauty of pure religion. She was positive, buoyant, and impressive in her religious experience. Living and dying there was no discord in the music of her pleasures, activities, and responsibilities. Alone or with friends she kept company with Christ.

On May 6th, 1891, she was married to Chaplain Wm. J. Rutledge. From that time her home was in Jacksonville, Ill. The duties of housekeeping and care of her infant son modified her church activities, but never quenched her religious zeal or dimmed the light of her faith or love. After a short, but severe illness, she died April 4, 1893. Six ministers were her pall-bearers to her grave; while three other ministers officiated at her funeral. Her memory is precious.

MRS. J. R LOCKE.

Eliza Jane Hawthorn was born at Newcastle, Pa., September 2nd, 1810, and calmly entered on her peaceful sleep at 5 o'clock a. m Nov. 8, 1892, at her home in Decatur, Ill. At sixteen years of age she united with the Presbyterian church in her native city and continued a faithful member thereof until her marriage with Rev. J. R. Locke, on May 1st, 1839, when she transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal church, of which her husband was a member and minister. She entered upon the duties of the itinerant's wife with a zeal and devotion that was unflagging, cheering her companion in his trials and hardships, and affording every encouragement to him in his arduous labors. In the social meetings of the church she ever contributed her share to the interest and profit of the services by her presence and active participation. She was the mother of four children, three of whom preceded her to the home beyond, where she now shares in the bliss of paradise.

During the late civil war, while her husband was chaplain in the army, Sister Locke was commissioned as field agent by the Cincinnati Sanitary Commission to look after the welfare of our sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals, military posts and in the field This work involved much travel, exposure, labor and care. She also superintended the distribution of hospital stores for the sick and wounded. Many a poor soldier secured comforts and favors, never knowing to whose kind ministries they were due. She continued in this work some time after the war had closed ministering to the suffering so long as there remained any sick or wounded to care for. She was engaged in this work at Holly Springs, when that place was captured by Van Dorn on Dec. 20th, 1862, and was held a prisoner for some time with her husband, until the enemy was compelled by the close pursuit of our forces to let them go.

For a number of years she was in delicate health. Three years ago last May her health began to fail more rapidly, continuing to decline to the end. About eight weeks before the end came, her malady took on a more violent form, during which she suffered extremely. But in it all she was patient Only in her severest suffering would she exclaim, with uplifted hands, "How long! oh, how long!" At last the welcome summons came and she joyfully answered it.

She loved the songs of the church, and looked the gratitude she could not speak to those who thus ministered to her; and while friends prayed with her, she praised her maker with shouts of "Glory to God!" Thus passed away another from the ranks of the workers, those who shine as the stars forever and ever

Reat, A. M. Danely, W. N. Rutledge, R. L. Steed.

The following resolutions were introduced by S. H. Huber and adopted:

WHEREAS, Miss Lucy A. Williams, who died in Pittsfield, Nov. 13, 1893, left bequests to the institutions of our church as follows:

Methodist Episcopal Hospital of Brooklyn, N. Y	$5,000
Church Extension Society	3,000
Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society	3,000
Missions	1,500
Chicago Deaconess Home	1,000
Illinois Wesleyan University	600
Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Conference	400

Therefore, Resolved, That we regret the departure of such a staunch and generous friend of our beloved Methodism, and express our high appreciation of her character and worth.

That in this last and crowning act of her beneficent life, she has set an example worthy of all commendation, and one which we hope will be very generally imitated by those who have the Lord's wealth in their hands.

That we rejoice to know that the death-room of this faithful steward of God was filled with the Divine presence, and radiant with Divine glory.

The report of the committee, to whom was referred the preparing of a plan for the support of the superannuate preachers, their widows and orphans, was made. (See report.)

The discussion of the resolutions was made the special order at the evening session.

Reports of Committees and Boards.

EDUCATION.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The Illinois Wesleyan University, under the wise and efficient presidency of Dr. Wilder, reports the past year as one of the most prosperous in all its history.

Its enrollment of pupils in its several departments was 1444.

It graduated from the College of Letters and Science, 20; from the College of Law, 28; from the College of Music, 44; and in the Post Graduate Course, 36; making a total of 128.

The financial condition of the University is gratifying, its receipts the past year being $1,200 in excess of its expenses.

The opening of the present year gives promise of still greater prosperity and usefulness.

The faculty now numbers 13 in the College of Letters and Science; 5 in the College of Law; 8 in the College of Music; and 2 in the College of Art; 28 in all, efficient, painstaking and earnest teachers, all doing excellent work in their respective departments.

The department of Physical Culture, with a well-equipped gymnasium, has been brought into definite shape and is placed in charge of a competent Physical Director.

The Endowment Fund has been increased during the year $6,000, by the bequest of Jonathan Totten.

The University is better equipped than ever before for its work.

The large library has been re-arranged and re-catalogued and made more available for the use of the students.

The Private Chemical Library and Library of Hon. Henry S. Swayne, deceased, selected and arranged at great expense for special and original research, has, as a gift of Mrs. Swayne, become available for the use of the students, and has been given a room in the University building adjoining its other magnificent laboratories.

The University is also assured that a new telescope, which will be one of the six largest in the United States, will be in place and for use during the current school year.

The University is greatly in need of two additional professorships, or chairs of instruction, one of modern languages, which the past year has been in charge of the professor of Greek, W. A. Heidel, and then the time has come for a special chair for Bible instruction.

That these may be provided as soon as possible, the attention of the pastors is called to their expressed purpose to raise the funds needed to endow an Illinois Conference Professorship, and the necessity for promptness for collecting the amounts already pledged and faithfulness in taking the educational collection ordered by the Conference.

The moral atmosphere and religious spirit of the institution is excellent. Most of the students are earnest Christian workers, and all are brought under healthful, inspiring Christian influences, and very many of those who enter the institution unconverted leave it as earnest, consecrated Christian workers.

We respectfully recommend the election of the following trustees: Rev. John A. Kumler, Abram Mann, Dennis Kenyon and L. H. Kerrick, and request the Conference to appoint as official visitors, J. T. Orr, C. Galeener, A. C. Byerly, George Stevens, W. A. Smith and H. C. Gibbs.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The year recently closed has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the institution. The attendance of boarding pupils has been larger than last year, and the number of day pupils has more than doubled. One hundred and seventy-five were enrolled.

A spirit of diligence and earnestness characterized the work of the young ladies, and an excellent religious sentiment prevails. The year closed with only four or five of the pupils who were not professing Christians. President Harker has been especially fortunate in his selection of teachers, and the course of study has been revised and greatly strengthened.

The courses of study are now equal to the highest grade of seminaries and colleges for young women. By the gifts of the students and their friends an excellent physical and chemical laboratory has been fitted up during the past year, and laboratory work and experiments are now required in all scientific subjects.

Financially the year has been successful. All the expenses of the schcol have been met, and over two thousand dollars have been expended in repairs and improvements.

The alumnæ nominate as trustees, Mrs. S. R. Capps of Jacksonville, and Miss Mary Pegram of Lincoln, Ill. The privilege of nominating alumnæ trustees, to be appointed by the Conference, will tend to bind the alumnæ more closely to the college.

The trustees recommend the appointment of Judge T. B. Crear to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Dr. Brown. They also recommend the appointment of Mrs. S. R. Capps and Miss Mary Pegram, who have been nominated by the alumnæ, as alumnæ trustees. As conference visitors they recommend the appointment of Revs. Horace Reed, W. D. Best, W. N. McElroy, C. Galeener and the pastors of the Jacksonville city churches.

The trustees and friends of the college are highly gratified with the able and spirited administration of the school by the new president, Dr. Joseph R. Harker. We feel that the college is entering on an enlarged sphere of usefulness, and bespeak for it the hearty co-operation of the neighboring conferences, and beg to assure our brethren that the institution merits their confidence and support. It is the only college of our church west of the Alleghanies devoted exclusively to the education of young women.

It is desired and expected that in the near future an endowment will be secured which will give permanency and increased efficiency to the institution.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

Notwithstanding the hard times, the financial condition of Chaddock College is better than it has been for years. In the matter of providing for the debt, we are able, in spite of the financial stringency, to report in individual notes and church subscriptions, an amount sufficient to cover the mortgage indebtedness.

Because these notes and pledges are payable in annual installments, and these installments would but little more than meet the annual interest on the debt, the trustees thought it well to sell part of the property and pay as much of the indebtedness as possible. $16,000 worth of property was sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the debt.

The report of last year showed an indebtedness of $39,000. That of this year shows that the entire debt is only $18,500. The mortgage debt is now $16,900. All other debts amount to $1,600. To meet this entire debt of $18,500, we hold in individual notes and church pledges about $28,000. With reasonable success in collecting, these notes and pledges will pay the debt. The board has resolved to push the work for another year, and the Rev. A. M. Stocking, A. M., will continue to act as regent. We commend him to you as in every way worthy of encouragement and help.

While the past year has been marked by financial success, the needs of the college demand an increased interest along this line, and that an endowment be secured.

A faithful and efficient faculty did excellent work last year, and encouraging results, both educational and spiritual, were attained. Several students were converted and the prayer and Bible meetings were well attended.

The school opens this fall with an increased attendance and a fine school spirit.

The board recommends the election of the following persons as trustees: Rev. J. B. Horney, Rev. Abner Clark, Theodore Morrison, J. H. Clark. They also ask the Conference to appoint as Conference Visitors, Rev. Horace Reed and the pastors of Pittsfield, Mt. Sterling, Clayton, Mendon, and Vermont Street, Quincy.

EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

We would express our high appreciation of the work of the General Educational Society, under the efficient and vigorous administration of Secretary Payne. There is increasing demand for assistance for those who are preparing for the work of the ministry, that they may receive the scholastic training that is now so imperatively demanded of those who occupy the pulpit of our church.

We earnestly request that all our churches faithfully observe

Children's Day, and employ all proper means to increase the collections on that day for the benefit of the society.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

The demand of the time is for an educated ministry. The preacher must be abreast of the age in all lines of thought. It is with pride and satisfaction that we turn to our well equipped and thoroughly progressive Schools of Theology. Those of our young men who desire a complete equipment for the great work into which God has called them, have here every advantage that can be enjoyed in this country.

They have all enjoyed prosperous years, and the constantly increasing attendance upon them is encouraging in a high degree.

Without desiring to discriminate among them, we recommend our young men to carefully consider the advantages that they severally offer to those desiring a thorough theological training.

They are five in number, viz.: Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Ill.; Boston School of Theology, at Boston, Mass.; DePauw School of Theology, at Greencastle, Ind.; Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, N. J.; and Iliff Divinity School, at Denver, Col.

We recommend the appointment of the following as visitors to the several institutions, viz.: To Boston School of Theology—Rev. C. B. Taylor. Drew—J. B. Wolfe. Iliff—E. D. Wilkin. Garrett—T. J. Wheat. DePauw—A. Wells.

EDUCATIONAL COLLECTION.

Touching the distribution of the Educational Collection to the schools under the control of this Conference, your committee beg to report the following:

First—That the discipline of the church provides that an annual conference may appropriate the Educational Collections taken within its bounds to aid the Educational Institutions under its control.

Second—That under this provision of the discipline notes and pledges have been taken by the Illinois Wesleyan University and Chaddock College from Quarterly Conferences and Official Boards of some of our charges, which expressly stipulate that the same shall be paid out of the Educational Collections raised by said charges.

Third—That by the adoption of the report of the Educational Commission, at its session of 1893, this Annual Conference authorized the payment of said notes and pledges in the manner therein provided for.

Fourth—That many charges have, during the past year, raised their annual apportionment for education with the express understanding that it would be applied by this Conference in payment of their notes or pledges.

Your committee, therefore, recommends that this Conference reaffirm its action of one year ago.

That the Educational Collection raised by any charge having given a note or pledge to either of our schools, shall be applied by the Conference Treasurer in payment of such note or pledge.

We further recommend that in view of the complications arising and likely to arise out of the taking of notes and pledges from charges as such that no more such notes or pledges be given by our charges, and that the Financial Agents or representatives of our schools refrain from seeking to obtain them.

That so much of the Educational Collection as may have been raised by charges which have not given notes or pledges as shall be necessary to pay the pro-rata claim of the Illinois Female College, as provided for in the Educational Commission, and adopted by this Annual Conference, shall be paid by the Conference Treasurer to the said Illinois Female College.

That any balance that may remain of the collections from charges which have not given notes or pledges after the pro-rata claim of the Illinois Female College has been met shall be divided pro-rata between the three schools, as provided for by the Educational Commission.

JAMES MILLER, Chairman.
U. Z. GILMER, Secretary.

MISSIONS.

We recognize the fact that God's promise to be with His people always, even unto the end of the world, is conditioned on their acceptance of the command to go into all the world and preach His gospel to every creature; and that He who was rich left His home above and became poor that we, through His poverty, might be rich, hath said to His followers: "I am the way," thus leaving an example to all His church. The holy word declares that "if any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of His." Although the plan for the world's conversion is the most wonderful of any design yet found in the Lord's revealed word, yet we know that the Gospel, through the power of the Holy Spirit is sufficient to meet the most pressing needs of an advancing host. This knowledge should lead every pastor to a faithful prosecution of the disciplinary course for raising supplies.

Resolved, That we will carefully look to the organization of all our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies; that we will arrange for at least one Sunday School collection in each month, to be placed in the missionary treasury; that we heartily approve the plan for every member of the Epworth League to make a thank-offering of fifty cents to missions on Thanksgiving Day; that we will encourage monthly missionary meetings, to be held for prayer, in behalf of missions; that we will make reasonable effort to spread missionary literature among our people; that we will look carefully after the missionary interests as the most important cause demanding our attention.

With gratitude to God we rejoice in the past year's prosperity attending the labor of foreign missionaries in the conversion of more souls than in any previous year.

While we pray "Thy kingdom come," we would be more diligent to play some part to hasten that coming, and day by day to be prepared in faith to hail our Commander in words of cheerful service "In thy majesty ride prosperously."

J. Foxworthy, President.
A. Wells, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School committee would call attention to the growth and importance of the Sunday School work in our church embracing as it does 28,856 schools, with 328,343 officers and teachers and 2,409,874 scholars.

We would suggest that inasmuch as the religious education of the young is of vast importance, great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers and that the pastor and superintendent unite in choosing for teachers the best men and women; those who are earnest in their spiritual experience, intelligent in mind, apt to teach, and godly in their lives.

We would recommend the plan of normal classes for the better training of teachers, as presented by the Sunday School Department of sur church.

We would call attention to the literature used in our Sunday Schools, the lesson helps, the periodicals, and the library books, and would recommend the Sunday School publications of the Methodist Book Concern.

We acknowledge the advantage of the lesson helps in studying the lesson, but recommend that the Bible only be used in the class.

W. MALEY REED, Chairman.
T. B. SMITH, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has done marvelous things for the intellectual and moral elevation of the needy of the South—black and white. And

WHEREAS, It is still a field of immense possibilities; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as pastors, will in the ensuing year urge our people to greater liberality.

P. L. TURNER, Chairman.
M. S. McCOY, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society is engaged in a work essential to instruction in the "Truth Which Makes Free," and upon its success depends largely all endeavor in the evangelization of the world.

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, pledge to it our heartiest support, and join gladly in the testimony to the fact that "The word is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword."

A. M. CAMPBELL, Chairman.
M. V. HILL, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

While we do not expect to legislate evil out of the world and righteousness into it, yet when an institution protected by law becomes so vile and so degrading and destructive in influence that from first to last it must be classed as evil; and when it becomes so boastful and proud and persistent that everything good is threatened by it, then it is time to remove all legal protection from it, and enact laws for its complete destruction and for the protection of the home and state; then it is time for the right of God to become the might of His people in everlasting destruction of that institution. We believe the saloon to be that institution; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will do all in our power for the annihilation of the liquor traffic.

2. That it is our uncompromising conviction that no member of our church should in any way contribute to the protection and perpetuity of the liquor traffic, this great enemy of God and man, without disqualifying himself for membership in the church.

3. We declare that the church of Christ which we represent is the relentless and uncompromising foe of this ungodly business, and that it is the duty of every Christian to wage ceaseless war against it.

4. We declare that all license laws are wrong in principle and powerless for good; and instead of curtailing the influence of the traffic they have become its protector and defense. We will accept nothing but unconditional surrender.

5. We insist that the United States government, and the various state governments, in protecting the tariff for revenue, are guilty of wicked complicity with a business which produces nothing but evil.

6. We hail with delight the movement of the Epworth League and other kindred societies to preserve the young manhood and womanhood of the land, and pledge them our hearty support in their efforts to banish the saloon within four miles of all institutions supported by the state.

7. While we do not presume to dictate to our people their party affiliations, yet we believe that a man's party ought to be his servant and not his master, and that a Christian is under obligation to always vote in the interest of good government, morality and religion.

8. We are in complete sympathy with the action of the United Christian Commission, respecting the moral and religious needs of the Regular Army, and believe that the youth uniting with said Army should be protected from the ruinious effects of gambling and the liquor traffic by statutory enactment.

We declare our decided disapproval of the Post Exchange or Canteen, which is conducted by officers and soldiers as a part of their military duties, and the profits of which are used as a part of the necessary subsistence of the Army. We disapprove of every movement in connection with the Army that imperils the morals of the soldiers and especially the youth, and ask that such legislation may be given as shall banish gambling and the liquor traffic from the Army and secure a better observance of the Sabbath, which is now almost entirely disregarded.

9. We disapprove of the conduct of all ministers of our Conference who have solemnly promised before God and their brethren that they would desist from the use of tobacco and have violated their obligation by continuing the use of it. We regard their action as dishonest and untruthful, and unworthy of any conscientious minister of the Gospel.

E. B. RANDLE, Chairman.
E. S. WAMSLEY, Secretary.

SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The privileges of the sacred Sabbath are due to all mankind, and ought to be held inviolable, since on its proper observance our civil and religious liberties depend; therefore,

Resolved, First, That all efforts of individuals or organizations to make the Sabbath a day of gain or pleasure, are contrary to the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church and violations to the law of God.

Resolved, Second, That we, the preachers of the Illinois Annual Conference, will teach our people by precept and example that the Sabbath is the opportunity God gave to man in which to learn more of Him, and to rest from worldly toil, pleasure and care.

W. F. SPRUILL, President.
W. W. DRAKE, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We congratulate our church upon the great work done by the Board of Church Extension. It has inspired by its promise and aided by its money, nearly one-third of all our churches. Today the applications for aid on file are more than four times as many as can possibly be met. The needs increase much faster than our contributions. The struggling West and the groping South cry mightily unto us, and we must help them. Therefore, we urge that our brethren command this cause to the enlarged liberality of the people, and strive to keep this collection up to its full proportion.

2. To avoid grievous and lasting mistakes in church building, we advise our brethren to call the attention of all building committees to the excellent plans offered by the Board.

3. We endorse Christianity in Earnest as an able help in the work of the Board; but we recognize no obligation to pay for it unless personally subscribed for.

W. S. CALHOUN, Chairman.
E. E. CARR, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSION AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

We, your committee, beg leave to report that we find this society duly incorporated according to law, and Trustees and officers duly elected. Though even in its formative period, work of importance to the church has been done. The superintendent has worked during two years of the society's formation without salary and at his own expense.

We find that the scope of this society's work is not understood by all our preachers and people, and therefore recommend that the collections by charges be published in the minutes.

We recommend that where local missions are started that they be organized auxiliary to this society.

We recommend that if possible arrangements be made at our next Conference for an anniversary for this society.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the work of Rev. W. H. Webster, as superintendent of this society, and recommend his reappointment. W. T. BEADLES, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

Methodism should rejoice that she has abundant facilities for the dissemination of knowledge among her people; and that in every department of knowledge she is prepared to furnish suitable literature. We urge upon the ministry the importance of availing themselves of this helpful agency furnished by the church to help them in their work.

For missionary intelligence our people should be informed of such missionary papers as the "Gospel in All Lands" and urged to subscribe for them.

The Central Christian Advocate, edited by J. B. Young, D. D., is one of the brightest in the family of Advocates, and it should be placed in every Methodist family in the bounds of this Conference. We gladly recognize the generous action of the Book Concern in offering to share the financial burdens of our people during these stringent times by making for 1895 a special price of $1.60 for our official paper. Twenty per cent. is a liberal discount, and we believe that if our pastors will present the Advocate earnestly under the offer the list may be doubled and thus enable the publishing Concern to make the low rate permanent.

The Epworth Herald, the official organ of the Epworth League, is becoming a housebold word among the young people of Methodism. It has won its way to their hearts. It is read with eagerness by young and old, and we bid it God's speed in its mission of spreading the truth, and inspiring the young people of Methodism to a nobler life.

The Methodist Review, one of the very best magazines of its kind in the world, ought to be on the table of every pastor. We rejoice in its large circulation, and urge upon the young ministry coming into the Conference to subscribe for it at once.

E. M. Jeffers, President.
J. C. Lockhart, Secretary.

TRACTS.

In view of the fact that some of the most important and helpful thoughts on special subjects are published by the Tract Society, we urge that every pastor carry out the requirements of the discipline in regard to the distribution of the same, and that a separate collection be taken in each charge for this cause.

C. B. Draper, Chairman.
J. H. Hartrick, Secretary.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Believing that the Women's Foreign Missionary Society is of Divine appointment, and that God has wonderfully led this Society in helping to evangelize the nations of darkness and take this world for Christ.

Resolved, That we encourage these holy women of God in their labor of love for the Master, and continue to assist them with our influence, voice and money in this great work, and put forth our best effort to enlist the hearty support of the church, by opening our churches, hearts and fields of labor for more effective work in this direction.

W. A. McKINNEY, Chairman.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We rejoice greatly in the growing interest in the Women's Home Missionary Society throughout the Conference.

We urge, and will assist in every way in our power, the organization of auxiliaries, and we will welcome the representatives of the Society to our charges.

We will encourage in every possible way the establishment within the bounds of our Conference of a Deaconess Home affiliating with this Society, and recommend the following named persons as a Conference Board of nine to further this work: W. N. McElroy, W. H. Webster, W. A. Smith, C. Galeener, R. G. Hobbs, A. C. Byerly, Mrs. N. W. Matheny of Springfield, Mrs. M. C. Oliver of Jacksonville, Mrs. B. S. Patten of Bloomington.

T. M. HOUSE, Chairman.
J. O. KIRKPATRICK, Secretary.

PREACHER'S AID SOCIETY.

Your committee would report that this Society is in the most flourishing condition. It has a membership of 140. Its invested capital is about $25,000. Its claims amount this year to $2,777, and its receipts are about the same. The annual dues of members aggregate the sum of $1,200, and the largest claim this year is $172. Our preachers cannot do better than to become members of this Society.

W. N. RUTLEDGE, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Five years ago the most prophetic spirit among us had not dreamed that this century would witness what has already been accomplished by the young people of Methodism. Unlike great moral movements, which require ages for growth and completion, and only succeed after many reverses, the Epworth League has swept onward toward perfection, as if actuated by the prophecy, "a nation shall be born in a day." As a part of this great movement, the Illinois Annual Conference Epworth League records another year of great prosperity, and with profound gratitude to God for his blessing in the past, looks forward with hope toward a future of still greater achievements.

Recognizing in the Epworth League a powerful agency for good and the promotion of the cause of God and of the church; and as a means of quickening and calling into active operation the gifts and graces of our young people, therefore we recommend the organization of a chapter in every society of our church where it can be done.

Also we will do what we can to have each chapter of the League and member to respond to the call of the Missionary Society for fifty cents per member, to be collected on next Thanksgiving Day.

Also, we heartily commend the Epworth Herald, and the League Reading Course to all our young people.

Further, we commend Christian and fraternal relations with all Christian Endeavor Societies, yet we recommend that wherever a Christian Endeavor Society exists in our church, that such a society be converted into a Chapter of the Epworth League, as soon as practicable, and it can be done without friction.

ANDRUS FUND.

As the committee on the Andrus Fund, I make a report for two years. I received from the Andrus Fund for Missions in 1893 sixty dollars and paid the same to the Conference Treasurer at our last Conference and took his receipt.

I received from the Andrus Fund for Missions for 1894 sixty dollars and have paid the same to Conference Treasurer and taken his receipt.

W. N. RUTLEDGE.

RESPONSE TO THE CHICAGO MINISTERS.

As the Chicago Preachers' Meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, April 2, 1894, has led the way in asking from the Church of Rome for persecuted Protestants in Roman Catholic countries the same civil and religious liberty Protestants accord to them in these United States, we offer the following:

WHEREAS, The United States Government of America, and the large Protestant churches and their adherents therein freely and cordially concede to and are ready to vindicate in behalf of Roman Catholics, their liberty of conscience, and rights to worship God, according to their conviction and training; and,

WHEREAS, This conceded liberty has received the approbation of the head of the Roman Catholic church, which approval has been explicitly expressed by the Pope to his authorities and subordinates in the United States; and,

WHEREAS, We are informed that Protestants and non-Catholics in the South American States of Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador, also in Quebec, Canada, and in the cities of Cork and Galway, Ireland, where Protestant ministers have been stoned almost to death for preaching the word of God, are denied the exercises of civil and religious liberty; therefore,

Resolved, That we suggest to Pope Leo XIII., the head of the Roman Catholic Church, that he so exert his influence and authority, which are paramount in the countries named, that residents therein may be enabled to enjoy the same rights which are enjoyed by Roman Catholics in the United States.

WM. J. RUTLEDGE,
HORACE REED,
JAMES SHAW,

SUPERANNUATES' AID SOCIETY.

Your committee to whom was referred the matter of arranging a plan for the support of the superannuated preachers, and widows and orphans of preachers, beg leave to submit for your consideration the following as a constitution for a Superannuates' Aid Society:

SUPERANNUATES' AID (OR SUSTENTATION) SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be called the Superannuates' Aid (or Sustentation) Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and its object shall be to secure a more systematic support for the superannuates, and widows and orphans of the preachers of the said Conference.

ARTICLE II. All members of the Conference in good standing shall be members of this Society.

ARTICLE III. The officers of the Trustees of the Conference shall be the officers of this Society, viz: the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Society may also elect a Financial Secretary, who may be the same or a different person from the Treasurer. The Board of Conference Stewards shall be ex-officio Stewards of the Society.

ARTICLE IV. The funds of this Society shall consist of a Permanent and Annual Fund. The Permanent Fund shall consist of such property as has been or may be donated, the income of which alone is to be used for the support of the Conference Claimants, together with one-half the fee paid by the preachers annually. The Annual Fund shall consist of the Conference collection for Claimants, the proceeds of the Book Concern distribution and of the Chartered Fund, the money paid by the Trustees for that purpose together with one-half the amount paid by the preachers as their annual fee. The Permanent Fund shall be kept and administered by the Trustees of the Conference who shall pay over to the stewards at each Conference session the annual income less such surplus as they may deem proper to retain to meet any special expense in administering the funds. The Annual Fund shall be administered by the Stewards in the following manner: All moneys received for annual distribution in aid of the support of Conference Claimants shall be divided into two sums; the first, consisting of fifty per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Annuity Fund; the second, consisting of fifty per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Necessitous Fuud. All superannuated ministers, the widows, and children under fifteen years of age, of deceased ministers, shall be Conference Claimants unless the claim be voluntarily relinquished. The Annuity Fund shall be divided among the Conference Claimants upon the following basis: Each minister shall receive annually seven dollars for each year of his effective service; each widow shall receive annually five dollars for each year of her connection with the effective service; and each child shall receive annually two dollars for each year of its father's effective service. These claims shall be paid prorata from the moneys in hand. The Necessitous Fund shall be divided among the Claimants, whether superannuates, widows or children, whose annuities are insufficient for their needs, in such proportions as the Committee on Conference Claimants may deem equitable.

ARTICLE V. Each member of the Conference who is effective shall pay into the funds of the Society an annual fee of $10.00, one-half of which shall go to the Annual, and one-half to the Permanent fund of the Society, and any member who fails to make such payment, unless he afterward pays that sum, with six per cent. interest up to the time it is paid, the sum which he has failed to pay shall be deducted with compound interest from the amount of his annual claim. A person may give his note at six per cent. interest for one-half the amount of his annual fee, but if the interest is not paid annually, the note shall be returned, and the maker of it shall be considered a delinquent member. A person who is in arrears in his fee for two Conference sessions, shall have no voice in the proceedings of the Society.

ARTICLE VI. No person who is a Claimant shall have a vote upon any item of business by which his claim would be affected.

ARTICLE VII. The Stewards shall keep a record in permanent form of the amount paid annually by each member, and after distributing the money due the Claimants they shall pay over to the Conference Trustees the one-half of the fees received from the preachers, keeping a debit and credit account with each preacher for the fee.

ARTICLE VIII. Each congregation shall observe a Sunday to be known as Veterans' Day, upon which the pastor shall present this cause to the members of the church, and emphasize their obligations to the Conference Claimants. A collection shall be taken in the public congregation for the support of Conference Claimants, separate from other interest.

ARTICLE IX. At each Conference session at a time fixed by the Trustees, there shall be a business meeting of the Society, when any business of the Society may be transacted. Also, there may be held an anniversary session to which the public may be invited, which shall be so conducted as to promote the best interests of the Society.

ARTICLE X. This constitution may be changed at any regular business meeting, one year's notice having been given of the proposed change, and both the article to be changed and the change desired stated in writing and read in the open Conference. A two-thirds vote of all the members present and voting shall be necessary to effect any change in the constitution.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in annual meeting Sept. 19th, 1894.

Present—Preston Wood, sr., W. N. McElroy, W. H. Webster, W. H. Wilder, W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock, A. C. Byerly and Horace Reed. Preston Wood, sr., the President, in the chair.

The Treasurer, W. H. Webster, made his annual report, and on motion of W. N. McElroy, the report was accepted, and the recommendation that $500, the accrued interest, be turned over to the Board of Stewards.

The Secretary was instructed to nominate W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock and Preston Wood, sr., as their own successors in the Trustee Board.

J. A. Kumler was nominated to preach the Annual Strawbridge Sermon, and W. H. Wilder alternate.

The Presiding Elder of the Decatur District was requested to look after the collection of the note given for Burk's Chapel in the Irving circuit.

W. H. Wilder moved that the Treasurer be allowed to make loans on sums less than five hundred dollars on other than real estate securities. Carried.

Report was received from John W. Hall, Trustee of Strawbridge Fund in Jacksonville, Illinois, and ordered placed on file.

Preston Wood, sr., was re-elected President of the Board.

PRESTON WOOD, SR., President.

HORACE REED, Secretary.

Memoirs.

REV. THEOPHILUS B. HILTON, D. D.

Rev. Theophilus B. Hilton, D. D., of the Illinois, formerly of the Rock River Conference, was born in Rockton, Illinois, August 28th, 1848, and died in Quincy, Illinois, Easter Sunday, March 25th, 1894. He gave his heart to God at an early age, and joined the Methodist Church. Subsequently he spent eight consecutive years at Evanston, graduating with high honors from both the University and Biblical Institute, winning the Gage prize for oratory from the University. Shortly after his graduation, he was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Brown, daughter of the Hon. A. J. Brown, of Evanston, and she, with four bright, promising children, survives him. They had been students together at the University, where they formed an attachment that lasted until death put an end to a sixteen years' companionship of mutual love and devotion. Dr. Hilton's first charge was at Ravenswood, in the Rock River Conference. In 1880 Bishop Wiley appointed him to take charge of the Methodist educational work in Utah, and for two years he was at the head of the Methodist Episcopal Seminary at Salt Lake City, and succeeded in placing it upon a firm basis, though at great personal sacrifice. At the same time he was editor of the Utah Review, a monthly that had a wide circulation. With the endorsement of the Governor of Utah, and the leading Gentile citizens, he returned East in 1882, and lectured in nearly all the large Eastern cities. As a lecturer he possessed that rare gift, the power of personal magnetism, and in addition he always brought to his subject the most scholarly and exhaustive preparation, so that he never failed to produce a most decided impression of eloquence and power. For the three succeeding years he was pastor of the Paulina Street Methodist Episcopal Church of Chicago, and in 1886 he was transferred to the North Nebraska Conference and stationed at South Omaha, where he built a church and parsonage. In 1888 he went to Fremont, Nebraska, where he remained two years, during which time he was instrumental in organizing the Christian Park and Assembly Association, and succeeded in raising $16,000 to buy and establish the Central Chautauqua grounds. In 1890, while pastor at York, he secured the location of the Mothers' Jewels' Home for that city. From there he returned to Chicago, where he was pastor of the Marshfield Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, until he assumed the pastorate of the Vermont Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Quincy, Ill., in March, 1893. In the short period of his Quincy ministry, he had attached the hearts of the members of his church and congregation to him in a way that is allowed to few ministers. Five weeks before his death, and at the close of a remarkably successful series of revival meetings, Dr. Hilton was taken sick with typhoid fever. During his illness the Church Board had voted him a vacation, but he never rallied from the commencement of his illness. The end was not unexpected, and he passed peacefully away the afternoon of Easter Sunday. Shortly before his death, his devoted wife read to him his favorite passages from the Scriptures: the twenty-third Psalm, the fourteenth chapter of St. John, the fourth and seventh verses of the twenty-first chapter of Revelation, and the fifth verse of the twenty-second chapter of Revelation, to which he listened with evident pleasure. The funeral services were conducted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. D. W. English, who delivered the address; the Rev. B. W. Baker, of Chad-dock College, Rev. M. S. McCoy, and the Rev. Charles A. Crane, of Danville, assisting. Rev. J. M. Rudy, of the Christian Church, read a series of resolutions adopted by the Ministerial Association of Quincy, paying a most beautiful tribute to the memory of their departed brother. The following is but a short extract: "God honors the few by declaring that ere the winter's frosts have whitened their locks, they shall be made to know that their cup of service is full and henceforth they shall rest with Him." Our brother dared to do all that becomes a man. Who dares not this is none. "Fearless minds climb soonest unto crowns." It is heaven's order to take home her mighty men in full armor from the field of conflict. He was wont to say, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth," has at last heard the voice from the excellent glory: "'Tis enough, come up higher." Beausant Commandery performed the beautiful Templar service for the dead. The interment took place in Rose Hill cemetery, Chicago. A biblical student of deep knowledge, a pulpit orator of force and eloquence, his whole heart was intensely devoted to his chosen work, and it was truly said of him that he never lost an opportunity to spread the cause of Christianity. Of his last two sermons it was generally remarked that he appeared far beyond himself in eloquence and religious fervor, although his every sermon was delivered as if it were his last. He preached love and tenderness at both services, and left an impression on the minds of the congregation that time cannot obliterate. One of the Quincy papers said of him: "Dr. Hilton's sermons and addresses were prepared with great care, were full of thought, and delivered with almost marvelous power. Many of his discourses should be placed with those of the highest order of eloquence."

REV. HARRY LINCOLN BEALS.

Harry Lincoln Beals was born in Cass County, Illinois, on the 6th of February, 1864. He entered the Freshman class of DePauw University in the fall of 1882, and graduated from the college of liberal arts in June, 1886. During his senior year he was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Monrovia, Indiana. In 1886 he joined the Indiana Conference, and was reappointed to the church in Monrovia in 1886 and 1887. On November 16th, 1887, in Griggsville, Illinois, he was married to Miss Clara Leaton, Dr. James Leaton, father of the bride, performing the ceremony. In the summer of 1888 he was elected by the executive committee of the University to the instructorship in English in the preparatory school. He filled this position until the winter of 1889-90, when he was elected to the instructorship in systematic theology. In 1891 he was promoted to a full professorship in the same department. In the summer of 1892, his health having failed the previous winter, he was granted an indefinite leave of absence, with the hope that he might regain his strength and return to work. In this hope we were all to be disappointed. He went with his family to Albuquerque, New Mexico, in the fall of 1892. Alternating between hope and discouragement, he spent the winter and spring in the land of strangers. These were months that tried his faith in God. A little angel came from heaven to smile for a few short weeks upon him and his heroic wife, and then went back to God, a reflected ray of heavenly purity, and a distinct echo of immortality. Later on the devoted wife must come back to her northern home to gird her physical strength for almost superhuman burdens. During all these trying months his faith faltered not. In the summer, the family were united in Wichita, Kansas, whence on the morning of Thursday, October 19, his spirit took its flight to the throne of God.

On his advent to university life at Greencastle, there was nothing to indicate the latent power that was in him, and which afterwards developed in ever fresh surprises to his acquaintances. He was tall and slender in person, with a large head, dark-red hair, pale face, clear gray eyes and sensitive mouth.

In manner he was very quiet and somewhat reticent in disposition, the latter quality being heightened, doubtless, by his being thrown among strangers. For a year he was but little known in college circles. But after that his thorough scholarship began to win for him a reputation second to none in the college. He was a tremendous student. What was other men's drudgery seemed his delight, and he tarried often with his books till far in the night. And as we came to know him well he became a constant revelation of ability and character. It was discovered that he was not only a scholar, but an orator. Not a polished elocutionist or rhetorician, though he did not neglect the study of the art of speech, but an orator—one whose soul took fire at the altars of truth and flamed in eloquent utterance.

Prof. Beals was different from the ordinary college boy. The motives that controlled most men as to some things found no response in him. The rivalries and animosities of college life seemed to him unworthy. Most of the boys took the ethics of college life as they found it—a thing separated in a measure from the ethics of common life. Prof. Beals recognized no such distinction. Everything must be taken at once to the court of last appeal, the moral law—the voice of God. Nothing was trivial or outside the domain of conscience. No amount of respectable precedent, or letters of approval from departed generations of the good and great, could make a wrong thing right to him. For instance, in the matter of fraternities—and I write as a fraternity member—Prof. Beals believed that the rivalries and bitternesses aroused by fraternity life overbalanced the good that was in them, and that their principle of selection was itself selfish and un-Christian. Hence he could never be persuaded to join a fraternity. Yet to any of them he would have been an ornament. He was not severe towards those who saw differently. He only chose his own path conscientiously and followed it consistently, applying thus early the principle that afterward became his motto: "Doctrine in life."

Harry Beals deserves a monument as fair and rare as the Taj Mahal; or as noble a memorial as "In Memoriam" is to Arthur Hallam. Would that there were a Tennyson to write it. But lacking these, some one has spelled out imperfectly this brief story:

"The gospel of his blessed Christian life.
I owe it to himself and to the world.
Grateful for all his tender ministry in life and death,
I bring these leaves, dewy with my tears,
And lay them as the tribute of my love
Upon the grave that holds his sacred dust."

REV. C. Y. HECOX.

Rev. C. Y. Hecox, a member of the Illinois Conference during forty years of active service, died April 18th, 1894, in Homer, Illinois. He was born in Christian Hill, Cattaraugus county, New York, February 28th, 1825. His grandfathers were deacons in their respective churches, Presbyterian and Baptist. During his infancy his parents moved to Niagara county. At the age of fourteen he was converted, during a series of meetings held by Rev. John Downing, in a school house near his home. When he gave his first testimony and offered his first prayer, the people, impressed by their power, said: "He will be a preacher." He was appointed class leader at the age of sixteen, his father and mother being members of his class.

The impression that he should preach the gospel caused him many days of struggle and anxiety before he could be reconciled to this line of duty. The midnight hour found him and his mother deeply engaged in prayer, that he might know whether this was duty, or a snare of the evil one.

Coming to Illinois in early life, Brother Hecox had decided upon farming as his occupation, but the conviction that the Lord desired him for another field of labor prevailed, and he accepted the call and prepared for the ministry. In 1854 he entered the Illinois Conference, of which he remained a reliable and efficient member until his death.

During his years of service he filled the following charges: Grand View, 1854; Lovington, 1855; Middletown (now Mahomet), 1856-57; Monticello, 1858; McLean, 1860; Sullivan, 1861; Chatham, 1862-63; Middletown (now Mahomet), 1864-55; Blue Grass (now Potomac), 1868-69; Homer, 1870-71; Camp Point, 1872; Littleton, 1873-74; Payson, 1875-76; Naples and Meredosia, 1877-79; New Salem, 1880; Augusta, 1881; Humbolt, 1882; Oakland, 1883-84; Hopedale, 1885-86; Heyworth, 1887-88; Ashland, 1889-90; Versailles, 1891-93. He superannuated in 1866, and in 1867 he took a supernumerary relation, the rest of his ministerial life being in the active service of the ministry.

Bro. Hecox's ministry included the years culminating in and the settling of the slaveholders' rebellion. His fields of labor were such as to test his manhood. We have no doubt that he served his country's flag as truly and as bravely as his brethren who received their appointments "in the army." His patriotic words and moral influences for the defense of the Union are retold and felt yet with pleasure by his old parishioners and friends. As a preacher he was a Methodist in doctrine and explicit in statement. He had no sympathy for any religionist who would lower the standard of the fathers. Many will rise up and bless him in the day of judgment. One very near to him says truly: "His life work will never be fully understood until God reads it from the pages of His infinite diary." Bro. Hecox was twice married. First to Miss Clarinda S. Dickson. Of this marriage were born six children. The second was to Miss Philomela W. Hawley, a former friend and schoolmate. She and five of the children survive him. On Nov. 4, 1893, at the parsonage in Versailles, Bro. Hecox was seized with hemorrhage. This attack was followed by complications which soon prostrated him. He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas, in Homer, Illinois, hoping to regain his health and strength. But instead of recovery, he grew worse, and finally passed to his reward. During his sickness, though very feeble in body, he was happy in the promises of the Lord, and spoke of his appointments as the places assigned him to work for the Master, and rejoiced in the thought that his labors had been appreciated and the Lord had approved his work.

He took pleasure in hearing sung "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus."

Brother Hecox was a good preacher, strong in doctrine, faithful in all his labors, an industrious worker for God, a companionable man, a faithful and true friend, and a devoted follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

REV. JOHN H. AUSTIN.

Rev. John H. Austin was born Nov. 1, 1824, and died at Paris, Edgar county, Illinois, Sept. 26, 1893. He married Agnes Seymour, Dec. 25, 1845. Just subsequent to his marriage he was converted and joined the church, of which he was a devoted member. He was licensed as a local preacher two years after he joined the church and did much efficient work for the Master up to 1873, when he joined the Illinois Conference and served the following appointments, viz: Cerro Gordo, three years; Sadorus, two years; Fisher, two years; Farmington, one year;

Grandview, three years; Vermillion, three years; and Irving, three years, when his health failed him and he was located at his own request. He was instrumental in raising a company of men for the Union cause, which was assigned to the 122d Illinois Infantry, but before date of muster he was chosen chaplain of the regiment, in which capacity he served, braving the hardships and dangers of his regiment till mustered out. He leaves his aged companion and two sons and two daughters, also one brother and sister The deceased was buried at Providence Chapel, Sept 27, Rev. W. D. Best preaching the funeral sermon.

At the time of his death Brother Austin was residing at his country seat, about four miles east of Paris. He was a member of the Vermillion quarterly conference, holding his membership with the North American Society. He was a faithful and regular attendant upon church services, as long as his health would permit. Though subject to great suffering he bore his afflictions, physical and mental, with Christian fortitude and patience. At the class meetings he always gave in a clear testimony, earnest and joyous, and inspiring to his brethren. He was visited by his pastor and the committee on Conference Claimants a few days preceding his decease. Though he was unable to converse intelligently about himself, he yet could speak of the Conference and express his desire to meet his brethren once more.

Brother Austin was a man of God, a faithful Methodist preacher, a kind parent and devoted husband. He passed peacefully to his reward on the day of the adjournment of Conference in 1893, receiving his appointment to that congregation which never breaks up, and the reward of the saints of God.

REV. JAMES B. SEYMOUR.

Rev. James B. Seymour was born near Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 12, 1834, and died at El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1894. He married Miss Julia A. Seymour on April 2, 1856. Their union was crowned with two daughters and a son. The son died in childhood.

Mr. Seymour was converted and united with the church at the age of sixteen, and while yet a young man he was licensed to preach, and did honor to the office of a local preacher till 1865, when he was received on trial as a traveling preacher in the Illinois Conference. He retained his relation to the Conference for more than twenty-eight years, during which time he filled the following pastoral charges: Pittsfield, Kinderhook, LeRoy Circuit, Atlanta, Farmer City, LeRoy, Versailles, Barry, White Hall, Island Grove. His next appointment was that of a missionary to Dakota Territory, where he was stationed at Huron and then at Millbank. From this field he returned again to his own Conference, and served in the following charges: Camargo, Arcola, and Sidney, which closed his work as a pastor. For seven years out of the twenty-eight he sustained a supernumerary relation to the Conference, but at its last session he was granted a superannuated relation.

When the rebellion broke out Mr. Seymour enlisted as a private soldier to help save the Union. In Company H of the 101st Illinois infantry, he left Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 6, 1862, and after a service of two years and three months he received an honorable discharge. But such was his Christian character, courage and ministerial fidelity while in the ranks, that after he was mustered out his comrades unanimously asked him to accept the chaplaincy of the regiment, which he did, and remained with them till the regiment was mustered out, on June 7, 1865. After the war he re-entered the itinerancy and rendered faithful and efficient service. During his pastorate at LeRoy about two hundred persons were converted and added to the church as a result of a single revival effort. During his pastorate at Camargo, he was called to part with the companion of his youth.

Mr. Seymour married Miss Etina Bristow, of Hamilton, Ill., on June 5, 1889.

In 1890 he was compelled, from ill health, to take a supernumerary relation for the third time, and shortly thereafter he settled in Irving Park, Ill., with his wife, who, during his last illness, ministered to his necessities with all the tenderness of a wife's affection; she received his last counsel, his last words of cheer to his brethren in the ministry, and his last farwell to dear ones.

His illness was somewhat protracted, being of a pulmonary character. The last few weeks of his stay on earth were full of excruciating pain, but the grace of God was sufficient for him. He frequently expressed himself as more than willing to receive his discharge from earth, that he might enter into the "rest prepared for the people of God." He died at El Paso, Texas, having gone there in hope of a restoration to health.

Brother Seymour was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and an honored member of the Masonic fraternity of the Knights Templars.

He was a successful pastor, a good preacher, and an earnest and a faithful expositor of the Bible. He was a man who had the courage of his convictions and was a true man of God.

MRS. LUCINDA N. BIRD.

Lucinda N. Fullenwider was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, December 20, 1809, and married Rev. Richard Bird, March 18th, 1832. She died at Jacksonville, October 30th, 1893. At the age of ten years she was converted and united with the church. She labored with her husband as the wife of an itinerant two or three years in Kentucky, about twenty years in Illinois, one year in Missouri, and four years in Arkansas. Mr. Bird was also a local preacher from 1856 to 1873, when he was readmitted to the Illinois Conference, with which he remained till death. The itinerant always found an open door, a well-spread table, and a hearty welcome at their home. More than eleven years ago, and about six months after their golden wedding, Mr. Bird was translated to his home above. It is the belief of friends that the great sorrow she cherished over her bereavement was the cause of the dark shadow that hovered over her spirit for years, deranging the once bright intellect, compelling her kindred to place her under the care of others. For nearly three years this care was nobly borne; and in the last nine days of life, while utterly helpless from paralysis, she was cared for with delicacy and tenderness. All praise to the state that has developed such an institution. I am ready to doubt if there is in the world a monument that does higher honor to Christian civilization than the Central Hospital for the insane at Jacksonville, Illinois. The children who knew of her prostration hurried to her bedside, and some of them remained with her till the last. Her remains were laid to rest beside her husband at Mechanicsburg, Illinois, after appropriate services in the church, conducted by Rev. A. D. Moon, the pastor there. I never looked upon the face of death more expressive of happiness. It seemed to me as if the spirit, ere it took its flight, had one clear bright view of the shining throng that beckoned it away, and then with immortal skill fashioned the dying features after the pattern of the heavenly.

R. GREGG.

MRS. ANNA C. WEHRMAN.

Anna C. Wehrman, nee Voirath, wife of Rev. Charles Wehrman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Littleton, Illinois Conference, died at the home of her parents, in Edwardsville, Illinois, April 14th, 1894, in her thirty-sixth year. Sister Wehrman left her home in Littleton in her usual health, March 23d, to visit her parents at Edwardsville, and when about ready to return home was taken sick, and after only a few days' suffering was called to her eternal home. She was converted at the age of fourteen years, while attending school at St. Louis, and united with the Wash Street church. From that time on she was a devoted Christian, and in her last moments expressed her willingness to depart and be at rest. She married her now sorely bereaved husband on December 6th, 1879. Since then she has performed her part faithfully and well as a Methodist preacher's wife. She was always ready to go with her husband to any field of work, and willing to do whatsoever her hands found to do. When the news of her death reached their present field of labor there was deep sorrow in every home. When she found she must go, she told her husband that when she was gone, he must return to his charge, and never cease to preach the gospel, and even in those critical moments sent messages of love to friends on the charge. A husband and four small children mourn the loss of a wife and mother.

The funeral services were held in the German Methodist Episcopal Church in Edwardsville, conducted by Rev. J. B. Horney, of Rushville, Illinois Conference, assisted by Rev. John Schlagenhauf, pastor of the church in which the funeral services were held.

MRS. MARY E. IVINS.

Mary E. Glasco, wife of Rev. J. R. Ivins, of the Illinois Conference, was born of Presbyterian parentage at Mt. Sterling, Illinois, July 17th, 1868. She married Rev. J. R. Ivins, Dec. 24th, 1890, and died at Camp Point, Illinois, May 18th, 1894. These dates represent only the outward life of one who lived so much in so short a term of years. From her childhood she was taught the Bible and saw the beauty of a Christian life illustrated in her own home, and very early in life she gave her heart to the Lord. Preferring the Methodist Episcopal Church, she connected herself with the society at Chapel Hill, on the Camden circuit, in the summer of 1889, during the pastorate of her own bereaved husband.

Her consecration was so entire and her experience so deep and clear, and her heart so trustful, that her life was a beautiful exhibition of loving service for the Master. At the marriage altar she not only gave herself to him who had won her affection and love, but cheerfully gave her life to the toil and labor of an itinerant's wife.

During the year of 1893 her husband's health gave way under excessive labor and study, and at the conference at Clinton he took a supernumerary relation. In the winter he went to Florida in hopes of regaining his health and strength. She remained at home, willingly denying herself for his good that he might again be able to preach the gospel. During his absence, and while Brother Ivins was preaching in Florida, Mrs. Ivins became a mother, and died May 18th, a few hours before her husband reached his home.

Mrs. Ivins possessed a beautiful Christian experience, not self-reproachful nor boastful, but illustrating the beauty of a life hid with Christ in God. She had an ardent desire to live to be a faithful wife, mother and helper in the work of the Master, but she knew whom she believed and trusted, and when the end came it was closing the eyes on earth to open them in heaven.

She was buried at Camp Point, Ill. Thus again we have been called to record the departure of another of God's faithful handmaidens.

LELA MINEAR BAUGHMAN.

Was born in Charleston, Illinois, where her father, Rev. Philip N. Minear, was pastor in charge of the M. E. Church, May 22, 1860. Died at Paris, Illinois, January 9, 1894.

She graduated from the Illinois Female College June 7, 1880, and was married to Rev. Charles Baughman near Jacksonville, Illinois, May 21, 1884. Five children were born to them, of whom two preceded their mother home, and three, Charlie, Naomi and Philip Neville, survive.

In the fall of 1892, the health of Mr. Baughman having temporarily failed, he was granted a supernumerary relation, and with his family located in Paris. Though not permitted to take up the active responsibilities of the pastor's wife for the time being, the change of Conference relation did not lessen her interest in the work of the Church. She was a faithful attendant upon the means of grace, a helpful counselor in church work, and her life a daily inspiration to all. She attracted to her side all who desired safe counsel and who admired a beautiful Christian character.

Possessing a spirit of true devotion to the Divine Master, and a zeal according to knowledge, she was none the less a devoted and painstaking wife and mother.

Having been reared in a Methodist parsonage, she was by home training, as well as by natural endowment and spiritual graces, eminently fitted for the unique and responsible position of a pastor's wife. She was conspicuously efficient in the multiform duties of wife, mother and Christian worker. Without minifying the importance of any department of church work, she was especially devoted to the interests of the young people, in the Epworth League, and to that very practical and Christly phase of Christian devotion, the Deaconess work.

But to specify one phase of the Lord's work as receiving more attention than another would appear an injustice to her memory. She was intensely loyal and devoted to all the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom.

Nor life, nor comfort counted dear,
Midst griefs and perils knew no fear.
She felt that Christ was all.

Words of fulsome eulogy could but detract from the real beauty of her character.

"Can storied urn or animated bust
Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath?
Can honor's voice provoke the silent dust,
Or flattery soothe the dull, cold ear of death?"

All may be summed up in these three epigrams: "True Christian woman! True wife! True mother!"

Immortal wreaths of finer text and true,
From love's sweet offering they drew,
Of sacrifice, devotion's test,
Of consecrated life, the best,
Shall crown her years, her memory bless.
Enshrined therein is this immortal thought,
Into that life the best of earth and heaven were wrought.

HOURS OF SESSION.—The hours for meeting and adjourning were fixed at 8:30 and 11:45 a. m.

CONFERENCE BAR.—The second window from the rear was made the bar of the Conference.

STEWARDS.—The following resolution in reference to the Conference stewards was adopted:

Resolved, That the Conference stewards elected at this session shall be divided into three classes, which shall hold office for one, two and three years, as shall be determined by lot. At each successive session of the Conference the presiding elders shall nominate three stewards, to be elected for the term of three years.

Resolved, That the stewards be directed, at their first meeting to classify themselves as herein provided, reporting the result to the Conference.

SELECT NUMBER.—It was voted that a committee of three be appointed to present 15 names for the trial of W. F. Wright, whose case had been remanded from the Judicial Conference: J. B. Wolfe, P. Wood, Sr., and C. B. Taylor were selected. They presented the following names: A. C. Armentrout, M. Auer,

G. W. Bates, W. T. Beadles, D. Gay, J. T. Orr, H. H. O'Neal, S. W. Thornton, T. A. Canady, J. R. Reasoner, M. P. Wilkin, A. L. Plowman, T. M. Prickitt, J. F. Wohlforth, W. S. Calhoun, and their appointment was confirmed by the Conference.

A. P. Stover was appointed by the Bishop as chairman of the special committee. H. M. Hamill and J. T. McFarland were appointed to represent the Church, and W. C. Lacey was recognized as counsel for the defendant.

H. M. Hamill and W. C. Lacey were authorized to employ a stenographer.

The Conference directed the Bishop to place all papers relating to the trial of W. F. Wright in the hands of A. P. Stover.

It was decided that eleven of the select committee would be sufficient to bring in a verdict if it became necessary to excuse some on account of illness.

Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church was selected as the place and 2 o'clock in the afternoon as the time for the first meeting.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.—A. P. Stover, J. T. Orr and A. C. Armentrout were appointed a committee to visit J. P Dimmitt in his sickness, and express the good will and sympathy of the Conference. The Secretary of the Conference was instructed to send to Mrs. H. Buck a telegram expressing sympathy for her in her affliction by the death of a beloved niece.

THE THIRTEENTH QUESTION.—"Was the character of each preacher examined?" was taken up. Bloomington, Champaign and West Jacksonville Districts were called, the character of their presiding elders, J. B. Wolfe, A. C. Byerly and Horace Reed, passed, and they read their reports as follows:

——

Bloomington District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHERN:—We hail with gratitude to Almighty God the opportunity of making this our second annual report of the work and workers of Bloomington district.

1. The work began encouragingly and thus continued to the close of the year. The material prosperity of the district has met with formidable obstacles in poor crops and low prices for grain, but these obstacles have been largely overcome by the self-sacrificing efforts of a devoted membership and the activity and tact of the pastors.

There have been two new parsonages built and six old ones improved. Four new ones are contemplated, and at Delavan about $2,000 have been secured to begin the new house. Sixteen old churches have been improved and three new ones are designed.

Bethel Church, of the Normal District, Central Illinois Conference, having been left out of the plan of supply, by request of its members, we sent them C. B. Brewer, a Wesleyan student, who supplied them during the year and has a good report of all the interests of the church. Hiawatha Church, of Easton Circuit, we temporarily gave to Green View Circuit of the Jacksonville District, from which it has been supplied.

We have secured the insurance of a number of churches during the year, yet there is a painful lack of insurance upon our church property.

Amount raised for improving and building parsonages, $7,340.

Amount paid on old indebtedness, $6,435.

A permanent fund for the support of Green Valley Station, amounting to $2,000, has been given in will by our late brother, Jonathan Totten, Bement, Illinois.

Our benevolent collections are about the same as last year. The failure of crops and the consequent stringency in our financial affairs have been against raising our benevolences: however, we are encouraged to believe there is no decrease from last year for the district.

There has been an increase of pastors' salary at eleven appointments that was cheerfully allowed by the official members of the respective charges, and as cheerfully paid by the people. There may be a deficit in the payment of salaries, but our statistical reports will show more money paid for them than was paid last year.

2. The intellectual work has been advanced during the year. The Epworth League, Young People's Society and the Sunday school have been successfully employed in promoting the religious intelligence of our people.

The Epworth League Chapters and Young People's Societies held a district convention at Heyworth, and, though the weather was such as did not favor a large attendance, there were present one hundred delegates. It was generally considered by those in attendance the most instructive and enthusiastic convention the young people have ever held in the district.

A Ministerial Association was held at Mason City in May, where a carefully prepared program was carried out to the profit and pleasure of all who attended. These Associations are growing in interest and it is designed to hold two each year: one in the fall to prepare for the year's campaign; one in the spring to be of the character of a Theological Institute.

The pastors have given special effort for the distribution of our church literature and have been rewarded by an increase of periodicals taken and books sold.

The Illinois Wesleyan University in which all the districts have a common interest and a just pride, being located in the Bloomington district, it becomes our disciplinary duty to make special reference to it. The past scholastic year has been one of great prosperity to the University. During the year 1,184 different students received instruction in residence and 441 in absentia, making a total of 1,625, 74 degrees being conferred in June, 1895. The present outlook indicates that there will be a large increase of attendance over last year. The number attending the Preparatory School and College of Letters taxes the utmost capacity of the buildings for recitation purposes, and active measures must be taken to prepare room for the hundreds of young people that are crowding the University for instruction. The old Henrietta Hall property is platted and offered for sale, the proceeds of which will be put into a new Home for Girls, plans for which are being perfected. The telescope promised last year has received a comfortable home in the observatory building erected for its special use. The outfit enables the University to offer advantages equal to the best for study and original astronomical investigation. The faculty is stronger than it has ever been in any time of its history, and its president, Dr. Wilder, is deserving of great credit for his untiring and able efforts to make the University stand where it does in the front line of our educational institutions.

3. The spiritual work has been duly regarded as the supreme work of the district. The Sunday School, the Epworth League, the class meetings and prayer meetings have all been advantageously utilized for the spiritual advancement of our people and for the conversion of sinners. Each society has contributed its share of influence to this end.

The preaching of the Gospel has been, as it is so ordained of God, the principal means in the spiritual advancement of God's people and for the salvation of the lost. There have been over 1100 conversions. The most extensive revival was at Mason City where the Lord shut up the pastor to his own Gospel means and methods of revival and made him instrumental in the conversion of over two hundred souls.

II. The workers were in their charges early after Conference, most of whom continued in faithful and efficient work during the year, or died.

J. M. West began a good year's work at Downs, but owing to ill health was compelled to relinquish the charge. He has since done excellent work.

F. A. McCarty was called to supply Fremont, Central Illinois Conference. M. M. Davidson left Hopedale to accept the financial agency of Chaddock College. Downs has been supplied by H. B. Montgomery; Bloomington circuit was united to the Shirley circuit, and supplied by the Shirley pastor: Hopedale, by A. J. Robertson, formerly of one of the Canadian Conferences, and Lincoln by D. T. Black, a supernumerary member of this Conference. D. E. May has striven all the year against disease, but has rendered faithful and popular service his fourth year at Green Valley station. His heroic struggles and tender greetings will never be forgotten by those who associated with him. Others have been temporarily ill, but are restored to health. They were patient during their illness, and the burden of their hearts for the welfare of their respective charges, clearly heralded their spiritual life and divine calling. E. D. Wilkin began his fifth year at Lincoln in delightful anticipation of making it the best of the five. He entered energetically into his work and a desire for a revival became so intense as to interrupt his sleep. Day and night he talked, prayed and preached for a revival. Saturday, April 6, he was down in the city transacting business.

Not feeling well, and his pulpit being supplied by delegates to a Y. M. C. A. convention, he remained at home on Sunday. Early Monday evening he called a physician, who gave him treatment, but anticipated nothing serious in his case. He was in his usual happy state of mind and said many pleasant things to cheer his friends. Later in the evening he went up stairs to go to bed, took a seat in his study chair for a moment's rest and when fairly located in it threw up his hands and "was not, for God took him." His often expressed desire that he might "cease at once to work and live" was granted him. Thus ended a long and useful life—a brother whose memory will be cherished by his brethren and many friends.

The grandeur of the ministerial calling has been sufficient incentive to all the preachers for constant and faithful labor during the year. We believe that all have striven to do well and to be helpful to those with whom and for whom they have labored. One thing stands in no doubt that "the light of the knowledge of the glory of God that is in the face of Jesus Christ" has kept spiritual darkness from our hearts and inspired us with an even brighter hope of a glorious immortality.

J. B. WOLFE.

Champaign District.

In reporting the affairs of Champaign District, it is my purpose to be as brief as possible, without injustice to the work or the workers. The time of the Conference is too precious to be consumed in fulsome eulogies of brethren. The committee on Memoirs are masters of rhetoric, and they will do ample justice to us all in due time. It will be my pleasure to speak of the diligence and faithfulness of the brethren with whom I have been associated so intimately the past twelve months, where I think it will do more good than here, around the Bishop's table in the cabinet. If I particularize some names and appointments in this report, it will be because of their association with events of such importance as to be of interest to the whole Conference. At Belleflower, Bro. S. H. Huber has made substantial improvements in the parsonage and a healthy increase in the benevolence.

Bement—Bro. E. S. Walmsley has had a harmonious and prosperous year. All benevolence will be in advance of any reports from that charge for years past.

Champaign—Dr. H. H. O'Neal has had a red letter year. The old parsonage has been sold, a debt of $600 extinguished and a new parsonage erected and furnished, which is in all respects a model and modern residence second to none in the Conference, unless it be First church parsonage, Decatur. Its estimated value is $4,500, and is absolutely free of incumbrance. The benevolent collections have almost doubled, and the congregations have been uniformly large and enthusiastic.

Champaign Circuit—Bro. Clarence Reed closes the third year on his first appointment, and will spend a year in Europe as a further preparation for the work of the ministry. The prayers of the people whom he has served so faithfully and whose hearts he has won will ascend for his prosperity and safe return.

Cisco—Bro. W. F. Stevenson, received on trial last Conference, has proven himself a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. He has created one new society and built a beautiful church, which is now ready for dedication, where Methodism is not known, held four revival campaigns, resulting in sixty or more accessions, and has brought up the benevolent collections to high water mark.

DeLand—Bro. Osborne closes a second successful year, with an increased membership and enlarged collections.

Farmer City—Bro. T. M. House found the old house ready for superanuation, and has taken the initiatory steps toward that melancholy event by purchasing an eligible site in the center of the city upon which is proposed to erect the coming year an edifice worthy of one of the strongest charges in the Champaign District.

Fisher—Bro. Reasoner has had two years of steady growth and the work is in fine condition, Fithian—Bro. J. C. Eninger has had a very successful year. The old church at Ogden has been remodeled and made into substantially a new church at a cost of $1,500, and is now one of the best and most beautiful churches in the district. He has had good revivals also, resulting in many conversions and the general upbuilding of the work. Benevolent collections fully up to last year.

Gibson City—Bro. W. T. Beadles has so hypnotized the people that the official board unanimously requested his return for the fifth year. Congregations are larger and the work in better condition than ever before.

Gifford—Bro. B. D. Wiley has had a very successful year. A debt of $500 on the parsonage has been extinguished, and something like $300 expended in improvements on the church. He had also one of the best revivals I have known for years. A revival deep enough to plow out by the roots, feuds and animosities engendered by a deplorable tragedy, that involved the entire community. Gifford Circuit is in fine shape. All claims met and the benevolences up to the apportionment.

Ludlow—Bro. H. T. Collins has done a hard and successful year's work in the face of many discouragements. Ludlow has been greatly weakened by removals. One country appointment has been abandoned and the church sold, and the remaining one is barely able to maintain an existence. The village appointment, however, is in a vigorous condition. They have a beautiful church and parsonage and a good congregation and Sunday school, Bro. Collins brings up a good increase in benevolences over last year.

Mahomet—Bro. T. D. Weems ought to be empowered to settle the Eastern question. His influence over the Mahommedans would rival that of the false prophet himself. But for divine grace he might have become one of the greatest confidence men of the century. He can talk people out of their money with a persuasiveness of speech that is irresistible. It is well for the public that the gifts are consecrated, otherwise he would be a dangerous man to be at large. He raised $5 000 in a cash subscription in the village of Mahomet in two months' time, and a new church is now in process of erection in the town, to cost not less than $5,000, and may approximate $6,000, every dollar of which will be paid as soon as the church is completed. His missionary report is full also, notwithstanding the church enterprise.

Mansfield—Bro. M. G. Coleman has been in the full tide of victory all the year. Mansfield was made a station last year, and the wisdom of that act has been demonstrated by the wonderful growth of the charge during the year. The church has been remodeled at a cost of something like $800, which is all paid, and is now admirably adapted to the wants of the congregation, its only defects being in its dimensions. It is not large enough to accommodate the people. The church has been in a continuous revival through the year, conversions frequently occurring in the prayer meeting and Sunday evening service. All claims, including benevolences, have been paid.

Monticello—Bro. J. Foxworthy has had a good year and has steadily grown in favor with the people. Monticello cannot be boomed. I don't think the man is living who could go there and create a sensation. But it is responsive to downright, earnest, persistent work, and that is the kind of work Bro. Foxworthy does. If he can be kept there long enough Monticello will be at the front.

Paxton—Bro. U. Z. Gilmer has greatly pleased and edified the people the past year. The spirit of revival has been in the congregation. A number of the official brethren who have had a name to live, now live in reality and are active in prayer meeting and Sunday school. Congregations are large and the interest growing. The official board unanimously request Bro. Gilmer's return.

Rankin—Bro. D. G. Dubois continues to grow in favor with our people on the Rankin circuit. The triumph of this year's work is the splendid parsonage now approaching completion, for which the pastor is entitled to great credit. By his persistent efforts the old parsonage, which was hardly respectable for a preacher to live in, was sold for a good figure, and by building on the church lot, where there was plenty of room, it only required a subscription of about $200 to erect a house of eight or nine rooms, with all the modern improvements, which, when complete will rank among the very best in the Conference. It will be a monument to Bro. Dubois' wise management and persistent energy. It is proper and the wish of the people too that he should return and enjoy, for at least one year, the fruit of his labor.

Rantoul—Thornton Clark has had a prosperous year. Congregations have been large and the League is one of the strongest in the district. The missionary collection is $123 in advance of last year.

Sadorus—W. A. Boyd closes his second year with good results. Bro. Boyd was very dangerously ill for several weeks in the winter, but has fully recovered, and brings up most excellent reports.

Savoy—This is always the banner missionary charge of the district. A great disaster befell them in February in the destruction by fire of their church and parsonage. Fortunately or rather it should be said through the good business sense of the trustees, both were well insured. Undaunted by misfortune the plucky people, encouraged by a plucky pastor, set to work immediately to repair their losses, and have succeeded so well that the pastor now lives in a new parsonage far superior to the one destroyed, and a new church awaits dedication, which is a great improvement over the old one. Both will be free of debt. Bro. Augustus brings up the usual $200 missionary collection from this little flock of 120 members, despite the drain on their finances, occasioned by the destruction of their property.

Saybrook—Bro. F. C. Bruner has had a very successful year. The official board, at the beginning of the year, volunteered to make the salary $1,200, an increase of $200, and they have paid all claims every month, and increased the total benevolences over last year nearly $200.

Seymour—Bro. C. N. Cain has had three years of continued prosperity. Many of our people on this work are tenants, and owing to the failure of the oat crop this year, it has taken hard work to keep the benevolences up to the high standard of the two previous years. But Bro. Cain has accomplished it, and there will be no step backward at Seymour.

Tolono—Bro. Spruill has seen the pleasure of the Lord prosper in his hands. A harmonious and successful year. Benevolences fully up to last year.

St. Joseph—Bro. J. F. Horney has had a year full of labor and good results. The new church at St. Joseph, which he found erected and enclosed in going to the charge, was finished and dedicated in March, at which time all the indebtedness, amounting to nearly a thousand dollars, was provided for in good subscriptions, and we now have a beautiful brick structure, with slate roof, furnace, auditorium, Sunday school room, etc. free of incumbrance. Bro. Horney had a fine revival also, resulting in 65 conversions. The missionary report is $55 in advance of last year—just double.

Thomasboro—Bro. L. F. Walden has done hard and faithful work on this circuit this year, and after a third of a century in the effective ranks will ask for a supernumerary relation and take a summer's rest in the sunny climate of California. He brings up as usual a good report.

Monticello Circuit has been supplied this year by Bro. Philip Shaffer very acceptably and with substantial results. It is a large and widely scattered circuit, he has fully explored it and brings up excellent reports.

Weedman—This is a new work and a new preacher. Bro. R. B. Hubbart, received on trial last year, has been in charge. and has done a splendid year's work. The people have bought and paid for a parsonage and are happy to have a preacher of their own living among them. Bro. Hubbart will attend school this coming year at Bloomington. He has a fine report.

DeWitt—In consequence of organizing the Weedman work last year, DeWitt and Parnell were left to themselves, as too remote to be supplied from Weedmann. Not being strong enough to support a pastor alone they were happy to be served by Bro. W. D. Atkinson, who has been pursuing some special studies in the University of Illinois Under his ministrations the congregations at both places have been largely increased, and the people have been greatly pleased. A change is contemplated in the work, which will strengthen these two points and give a preacher a better support.

Urbana—Bro. J. F. Wohlfarth has had a great year. Congregations fill the house and a spirit of enthusiasm pervades the membership. Accessions occur at almost every service. A host of young people are especially active in Christian work. Finances are managed like a bank and the missionary report will double that of last year; other benevolences will be full, besides over $500 raised between the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies.

But the most remarkable thing that has happened this year in the bounds of the Champaign District, or, I think I may say in Illinois Methodism, is the establishment of a Deaconess Home and Orphanage in the suburbs of Urbana. This institution comes to us a great and glad surprise. It has sprung suddenly into existence, equipped for the battle, as Minerva issued from the head of Jupiter in full armor, only it came from the heads and hearts of Judge Cunningham and his noble wife, who have thrust this great gift upon the church, asking only that it be used to glorify the Master and bless humanity.

It is a magnificent property, admirably adapted to the purpose to which it is to be devoted, and worth at a moderate valuation $15,000. It will be ready for dedication about the first of November. At the proper time the magnitude and importance of this great enterprise will be more fully presented.

It has been a hard year to collect money for the benevolences, and yet through the persistent industry and faithfulness of the preachers, I am happy to report an increase over last year. The missionary report will show, I think, an advance of $650 over last year.

A. C. Byerly, P. E.

West Jacksonville District.

The West Jacksonville District is the excelsior district of the Illinois conference. Not in number of its population, for it contains less than any other district in the conference. Not in large cities, for all the other districts have larger. Not in wealthy churches, for all the others have wealthier. Not in the number of members, for six districts have more. Not in the salary paid to the Presiding Elder, for all the other districts pay more. Is is the excelsior district in the beauty and variety of its scenery, its high hills, rugged cliffs, bubbling springs and charming valleys. The delightful views in Calhoun county in the spring time when the orchards and forests are in bloom, and the rarest hues of the woods after the first frosts in the autumn may be imagined, but cannot be described. The district is excelsior on account of the number of methods by which it is traveled by a Presiding Elder, from the most magnificent palace cars of the Wabash, Chicago & Alton, and C., B. & Q. to the roughest road carts and leaky skiffs; and on account of bad railroad connections the Presiding Elder has more time at cross roads for meditation, writing letters and making sermons than any other district can furnish.

It is the excelsior district because of the political stability of the people.

Illinois was admitted into the Union in the year 1818. The very same way a majority of the people at the first election voted they are still voting in every county embraced in the district, with rare exceptions.

It is the excelsior district in the vigorous opposition of those who sneer at experimental religion, and fight creeds, while they have one themselves to which they hold more tenaciously than any other sect. the leading article of which is:

> We little care what men believe,
> Provided they our faith receive,
> And come to us—with us unite,
> And think our ways and plans are right,
> And swear allegiance to the water.
> As for the rest, 'tis little matter.

It is the excelsior district in that the preachers in the years past have done more hard work for less pay than the preachers in any other district, and the last year has not been an exception.

Excelsior in that there are more Epworth Leagues in the district to the number of its members than in any other district, and under the leadership of the district president, R. L. Steed, it gives promise of a still higher state of efficiency.

It is the excelsior district in that it has, I think, the most remarkable primary Sunday school teacher in the Methodist church, if not in the world, Mrs. Clara M. Cleveland, of Griggsville. She is 76 years of age. She organized the primary class in that church May 4, 1856, and thus for nearly 40 years she has been a teacher. From first to last she has enrolled in her class 1,771 names. The present number of the class is 68. Recently 22 were advanced to higher classes.

But with all the embarrassments in our work in the district the reports will show a healthy growth.

One great embarrassment has occurred on account of the number of unordained pastors in the district. A young man may have excellent preaching ability and may be a superior pastor, but he sustains a great loss if he cannot baptize his own converts and marry members.

This Presiding Elder is under a deep conviction that the time has come when our discipline should be so amended that young men who are thought capable to have a part in our ministry and who prove themselves worthy by getting people converted, shall also be allowed to baptize their converts, and also to marry our young people instead of having them go to preachers of other churches or to justices of the peace.

The aggressive spirit of the preachers of the district is seen in their efforts to push out into new territory. During the two years I have been in the district ten new societies have been added.

In the territory embraced by the Sny Island Circuit two years ago there were not more than twenty Christians. Under the earnest leadership of J. O. Stone we now have 200 full members. I dedicated one church last November, all paid for, and another will be ready for dedication in a few weeks, and paid for. A greater transformation among a people I have never seen.

At Bluffs, eighteen miles west of Jacksonville, a city of 800 to 1,000 people, where our church never had a foot-hold, T. B. Smith held a meeting and the result has been a good society of over 100 members, the building of a new church costing over $3,000, which will soon be dedicated.

The entire society of the Methodist Protestant Church at Arenzville of their own free will and accord transferred their membership to our church. This gives us a good foot-hold in that town of 800 inhabitants I think that that society will build a new church the coming year.

Two societies have been added to the Bachtown charge, making six this year.

The two added to the Pleasant Hill work last year and two to Bluff Springs make ten in all added in the past two years.

A new church is being built at Seehorn, on the Kinderhook Circuit, which will be ready for dedication in November.

A new church is being erected in Virginia, at a cost of about $10,000, which is a great victory for Methodism in that city. Bro. Reat deserves great praise.

Dr. Parker has nearly paid off the debt on our church in Beardstown, and Bro. Waterbury has removed all indebtedness from our church of all kinds in Winchester.

The revival work has been quite extensive. The pastors have reported to me over 1,500 conversions.

I have emphasized the importance of the after revival work—systematic Bible study, the habit of reading good books and our church papers, and working in the various departments of our League work.

I am profoundly impressed that ten-fold more work is needed along these lines.

Special efforts will be made in the coming year to push the organization of reading unions.

It has required unusually hard work to bring up the benevolences. While the yield of the fields and the orchards this year is great, yet it will be several weeks before the corn and apples will be converted into money.

Owing to the great drouth in most of the district the two previous years, and the great failure of wheat and apples, many of our people have been financially embarrassed. Still I think the benevolent collections will show some increase.

I will not be accused of any partiality in making special mention of one of the preachers in the district. Wm. McK. McElfresh is the senior preacher of the Conference in continuous effective service. He entered the Illinois Conference in 1851. For forty-four years he has wrought his work so well that his brethren could say "well done." The good people at Barry were ready to ask his return the third year, but he feels that the time has come to ask for a change of relation. A more beautiful closing of a conference career has never occurred in the Illinois Conference.

I wish to record my gratitude for the most pleasant relations that have existed between the preachers and myself. Hearty coöperation has been given in carrying out the plans I have suggested. The pleasant hours I have spent in the homes of the preachers will ever be gratefully remembered.

I am profoundly thankful for the health I have enjoyed during the year, so that I have been able to do more work than in any year of my ministry.

I have held 106 quarterly conferences; administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper 110 times: devoted 30 days in holding Biblical institutes in the district, with Dr. Williamson, which were held in 21 different charges: have lectured 42 times, and preached 368 times.

HORACE REED, P. E.

S. H. Pye, representing the Western Methodist Book Concern, was introduced.

Dr. C. H. Payne, Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Society, Dr. J. F. Goucher, President of the Woman's College of Baltimore, Md., and Dr. J. C. Hartzell, Secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, were introduced and addressed the Conference concerning the interests which they represent.

EXTENSION OF TIME.—The hour of adjournment having arrived, the time was extended.

Theodore Kemp was appointed a member of the Committee on Education, in place of W. S. Calhoun.

S. H. Whitlock was appointed to lead the prayer meeting Thursday morning. With the announcements, doxology and benediction, the Conference adjourned to meet at 2:30 o'clock to receive statistical reports.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Conference met at 2:30 p. m., W. H. Webster presiding, by appointment of the Bishop.

Prayer was offered by F. C. Bruner.

REPORTS—The names of the districts were called and the pastors deposited their reports with the Statistical Secretary and Treasurer.

With the benediction, the Conference adjourned.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, Sept. 12, 1895.

OPENING—Conference opened at 8:30 a. m., Bishop Joyce presiding. Devotions were led by S. H. Whitlock.

MINUTES—The minutes of the preceding sessions were read, corrected and approved.

SPECIAL ORDER—It was moved by S. H. Whitlock and voted that at the close of the reading of the journal on Friday there should be taken the vote on the question sent down by the General Conference, and that the Conference then proceed to the election of the delegates to the General Conference.

THE THIRTEENTH QUESTION—"Was the character of each preacher examined?" was resumed. Jacksonville, Mattoon, Quincy and Springfield districts were called. The character of W. D. Best, R. Stephens, W. D. English and W. N. McElroy, presiding elders, passed and they read their reports, as follows:

Jacksonville District.

We submit this, our fifth annual report of Jacksonville District, with great gratitude to God for innumerable blessings abundantly bestowed upon us, and upon all the ministers and churches during the year.

The preachers have all devoted themselves to their work with great earnestness and industry. Each one, of course, rightly decided that the one great work he was called into the ministry to do was to obtain the salvation of souls; and to this great work all have devoted their time, talents and strength with unsparing fidelity.

REVIVALS.

Forty-eight revivals were held, resulting in 1,020 reported conversions. The average time spent in each meeting was two weeks and a half, which is 165 weeks, or more than three years spent in continuous revival work. The largest meeting occurred at Century Church, Jacksonville, in which between 300 and 400 professed conversion. It reached and greatly moved the whole city. Other meetings were as follows: Waverly, 90 conversions; Forest City, on the Topeka Circuit, 100; Bath Circuit, 65; Oakford Circuit, 60; Grace Church, Jacksonville, 50; Jacksonville Circuit 50, and many others ranging from 30 down. Other results of their revival efforts are: a quickened membership, more religious zeal, larger congregations, active Epworth Leagues and larger Sunday Schools.

COLLECTIONS.

The collections for our benevolent work will compare favorably with those of any previous year. Special efforts were made, particularly for missions, and largely increased subscriptions were obtained, which, if they have been collected, will put our missionary report considerably beyond last year. We have tried not to neglect or sacrifice any other collection in making these extra efforts for the cause of missions. Only sixteen charges observed Easter Day, but such as did will show a corresponding increase in their collections. Some of the Epworth Leagues responded to the call of Dr. McCabe last fall and reported handsome collections.

BUILDINGS AND REPAIRS.

There has been done some building and repairing of churches and parsonages. A new church has been built and dedicated on the Greenview Circuit, and the old church at Franklin has been remodeled, rebuilt and much enlarged. It is practically a new church that cost about $3,000, nearly all of which has been paid. Extensive repairs and improvements have been made on the church at Palmyra, Asbury Church on the Greenfield Circuit, and the church at Island Grove, Topeka and Appolonia on the Waverly Circuit. Eckman Chapel, on the Literberry Circuit, was destroyed by fire last winter, with all that was in it: a total loss and not a cent of insurance. The membership was too poor to rebuild, and the hope of the people as well as the church is still in ashes. An elegant new parsonage has been built at Ashland, at a cost of $2,500. The parsonage at Palmyra has been repaired and enlarged, and the property improved at an expense of $500. The parsonage property at Chesterfield, Roodhouse, Centenary, Havana and Literberry has been submitted to more or less renovation.

EDUCATION.

The Illinois Female College has enjoyed another year of unusual prosperity. The attendance of pupils was large, the faculty strong, the enthusiasm of teachers and pupils inspiring, and the work done has been thorough and satisfactory. Extensive preparations have been made by Dr. Harker, in the building and in plans for work, to make the coming year still more successful. The prospect is good for a largely increased attendance. The receipts of the institution last year paid all expenses and left a surplus to turn over to the trustees. In its president, its faculty, management, and as a pleasant home for girls, the Illinois Female College is not excelled in the West. This District has been giving attention to the subject of education. One hundred and fifty pupils from our territory have been attending our church schools. One young preacher was left without appointment to attend DePauw Theological School last year, and two others will ask to be relieved of work this year to attend Garrett Biblical Institute, while several others desire to do the same thing, but lack the necessary funds.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

The work among the young people in the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues has been progressing. There are now 40 chapters of the Epworth League as against 29 reported in the minutes last year, and all are alive and doing a good work.

LITERATURE.

Our church literature is widely circulated and generally used. Our advocates, Sunday School publications, and the Epworth Herald are popular, and everywhere supersede all others. The desire to read is on the increase, and good books and papers are in demand.

THE HAMILTON AMENDMENT.

Only a few preachers took the vote on the Hamilton Amendment. The vote that was taken, however, showed from eight to ten times as many against the amendment as there was for it. To which our mind says amen

DECEASED.

During the year death has claimed two of our elect sisters. Sister Phillips, the highly esteemed widow of Dr. F. W. Phillips, and Sister Akers, the venerable and saintly widow of Dr. Peter Akers. Triumphantly and in great peace they passed into their heavenly rest.

SUPERANNUATES.

The following brethren will answer to the roll call of the superannuates, viz: D. H Stubblefield, who, though he halts upon his staff, still, like Jacob, is pressing on to the Promised Land.

J. W. Helmick, who lives in Baldwin, Kansas, and of whom his pastor writes: "A good citizen, a Christian gentleman, a loyal Methodist, a faithful and true helper, worthy in every sense of the word, doing all he can for the Master, and succeeding in keeping off the claimant list."

J. P. Dimmitt, who now resides in this city, from all human appearances, will meet with his brethren here in Conference and answer to the roll call for the last time. But with Charles Wesley he sings:

"In age and feebleness extreme,
Who shall a helpless worm redeem?
Jesus, my only hope Thou art,
Strength of my failing flesh and heart.
O, could I catch one glimpse of Thee,
And drop into eternity."

G. R. S. McElfresh, as Father Barger used to say, "superannuate de jure, non de facto." Being turned out to graze he is often seen joyfully browsing in rich Presbyterian and Congregational meadows. While age somewhat enfeebles the body it seems only to brighten the mind and warm the heart.

W. J. Rutledge, still a perennial fountain of anecdote, reminiscence and poetry, is trying to refute the judgment of his brethren that he is old and superannuate, by so successfully caring for the mental, moral and spiritual welfare of several hundred of the State's most difficult wards that even the governor of the state has failed to find his equal as a successor. He highly adorns the list of effective superannuates.

Robert Clark remains the same sweet spirited Christian gentleman. Superannuation has not turned the sugar of his nature into vinegar. Conscious of failing physical powers, he is content to lie aside and join in the shout of the victory that younger and stronger leaders achieve.

Robert P. Droke has lost nothing, either in size or weight of either man or manhood because he is on the superannuate list. He delights in frequently taking a rest, holding quarterly meetings, preaching and conducting revivals for the brethren.

A. Sloan submits with sweet Christian resignation to the inevitable, although to cease to live would have been far more desirable to him than to cease to labor. When ever opportunity affords his voice is still heard shouting on the battle from the walls of Zion.

The harmony and good will existing between pastors and people have been without a flaw, and the same may be said of the relation between the Presiding Elders, the pastors and the people. For the opportunity we have had to work for what we have enjoyed for victory or defeat, unto Him who has washed us in his precious blood and called us into the ministry we give all the glory. Amen.

W. D. Best, P. E.

Mattoon District.

MR. BISHOP AND BRETHREN OF MY CONFERENCE:—The Mattoon District embraces territory reaching out in parts of seven counties, and is manned by thirty-three Methodist preachers, who from the time the appointments were read up to the moment they boarded the train for Conference, have been hard at work in coöperation with God in seeking to bring this world to Jesus Christ.

The spirit of gratitude is in our hearts toward God in that he has counted us worthy to have the blessed trust of preaching the Gospel of Christ to unsaved souls. We are also thankful for the Divine favor manifested toward the families of the preachers. We have had nothing to alarm us. There has been no sickness to cause us to fear results. And upon the door posts of every parsonage, death has found the Blood of Sacrifice and has passed over. So that the preachers with their families can sing, "And are we yet alive."

The preachers have received the reward of faithful Methodist preaching. Namely, the conversion of sinners and the upbuilding of christian character in those whom they led to Christ. Fourteen hundred persons have found their way to Jesus Chsist, received pardon of their sins, and gone on their way rejoicing. Nearly all of this number joined our church on probation, and through the faithful work of the shepherds a very large per cent. were received into full membership with the church.

More than 600 adults have been baptized, and about 100 children have been consecrated to God in baptism.

The Epworth League work continues to grow, while all over our district enthusiasm is at white heat among the young people.

We have held one district convention, four sub-district, and three conventions in single charges. In the development of this part of our work the preachers have their eyes open to the future of Methodism, and whatever we may lack in our district, that some other districts can boast of, we glory in the loyalty manifested by our young people for blessed old Methodism, its polity, doctrines, achievements and soul power.

We have fifty Chapters, with 3,000 members. We have near thirty Junior League Chapters. We take 500 copies of the Epworth Herald and publish a district monthly named the Mattoon District Leaguer, that every preacher and leaguer of this Conference should take that they might get an idea or two concerning pushing things up hill.

About 600 of our people take our church papers. It ought to be four times that number. For a Methodist to go outside of their church to get a church paper for his family, would be just as reasonable as for a Republican who desired to have his sons vote as he does, yet have them read Democratic papers.

A large number of our young people after completing studies in the high schools of their homes, have been urged by the preachers to go higher up, and this year will find many of our young people entering upon the higher branches of education in their own church schools.

The spirit of improvement has come to our people, and we are having a general house cleaning throughout the district.

Churches have been dedieated at Union and Humboldt on the Humboldt charge, Washington on the Stewartson charge, Trilla on Neoga circuit, Solomon on the Greenup charge and Clarksville in Clarke county. We are building a fine stone church, at Charleston, that will seat from 1,000 to 1,200 people, and which will cost $23,000.

We sold the parsonage here and bought a modern house by the new church. So that we will have property here valued at $28,000.

A lot has been purchased in Greenup upon which we will build a new church. Mattoon has raised $1,400 for street improvements. At Paris a subscription of $14,000 has been subscribed to build a $30,000 church.

Other charges have raised money and beautified parsonages and churches, and for this work we have raised from $25,000 to $35,000.

While we have thus been looking after Methodism at home we have not forgotten that we are the children of one who said the world is my parish, and we have not gone backward in our effort to raise money to save the world.

There will be an increase in nearly every collection over last year. We have raised for superannuated preachers $627, an increase, and for missions we have raised $4,400, an increase over last year.

We have had our trials as other men.

The chinch bugs and grub worms have got in our corn. We lost our hay, oats and wheat. Because of these things many of the preachers suffered the loss of salaries, but they have stood by the benevolences, and in many cases they have preferred to lose their salaries rather than the benevolences should suffer.

Many times the past year have I desired to be rich that I might help my preachers with a little money.

A Methodist preacher carries with him three things that are better than money. A good name, a good conscience and a certainty of heaven.

ROBERT STEPHENS, P. E.

Quincy District.

The close of a conference year affords a favorable opportunity to estimate the forces that have aided us, and the influences that have obstructed the work of the church.

Providence is with his people; the abundant harvests have made this a most productive year.

The boon of good health has been the portion of most of the pastors. Death has not entered a parsonage this year. Rev. J. R. Ivans, for four years effective and with brilliant prospects, passed away. His decline was steady and he was compelled to superannuate six months before his death. His hope, joy and power were ever increasing. Hosts of friends mourn his departure.

To a man of health, the question of endurance, is important; the opportunities and open doors are everywhere; the demand for personal work increases. Many of the pastors preach three times every Sabbath and ride long distances. While others preach but twice, other duties make their work equal to that of the circuit.

The financial question grows more important to the church. Gold was the first offering laid at the feet of Jesus, and to-day the world's conversion is retarded or accelerated according as men give their money to Christ. It is gratifying to note some progress in this line. The salaries fixed last are exceeded this year by about $1,400.

The financial management of Chaddock College is very satisfactory, and the attendance is increasing under the direction of Dr. B. W. Baker.

The benevolences will not suffer. The cause of Missions is growing in favor. Quincy District is now third in amount paid per capita, two giving more and nine less per member.

The spirit of enterprise is manifest in the improved condition of church property. Bowen dedicated a beautiful church in December; Golden has remodeled her church and added a room to be used by the League; Augusta has over $600 raised for a new edifice; Scotts Chapel has let the contract for a new building; Rushville and Vermont St. have renovated and re-carpeted their buildings. Many other charges have made improvements. The most significent work in this line is that of Rev. C. B. Taylor, of Vermont St., Quincy, where a debt of $14,000 was fully paid.

The agencies of the church are growing more successful in their influence on the young. The Sunday schools are large and in every case use Methodist literature. The work of bringing all the schools to giving for missions was no easy task, but when done means great things for Christ.

Several new Leagues have been formed and old ones strengthened. The League is a power in the revival and an aid to the pastor. The Epworth League is doing much to make the church a testifying church.

Revivals are held in nearly all the churches, the pastors doing their own work, aided by the League and members. The revivals resulted in bringing 700 souls to Christ.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is vigorous and active. Together with West Jacksonville District, it continues to support Miss Kate Blackburn in Loftcha, Bulgaria, as a teacher.

Our own church literature does not receive the support it deserves. The people incur a loss to themselves that is immeasurable in not taking more of our church papers.

Astoria—E. H. Lugg is highly esteemed in all his relations to the people, who greatly desire his return.

Astoria Circuit—Peter Slagle has worked hard and has done much to improve Methodism.

Augusta—M. A. Hewes had a revival with about 25 conversions. Over $6,000 has been subscribed for the erection of a new church.

Bowen—A. B. Peck dedicated a church in December, costing $3,500, had 23 conversions, and has increased his missionary collections $20 over assessment.

Bowen Mission—L. A. Powell's health is not greatly improved. He has preached every two weeks, and has organized a good society at York Neck.

Camden—R. N. Hathaway resigned in May, to rest and improve his health. His work also suffered by his sickness, but has been well cared for by A. K. Byrnes.

Camp Point—A. N. Simmons closses his second year, with his charge improved in every way. Increased missionary collection $25.

Clayton—Jonathan Glick has had three fruitful years with steady increase and improved collections.

Golden—W. T. Evans has worked earnestly and has had 27 conversions, and is repairing the church.

La Prairie—W. H. McDonald has advanced every interest of his church. Fully 80 conversions. Has increased salary and missionary collections.

Lima—J. M. Duff is highly esteemed. He has repaired his church, and has done good work in a difficult field.

Littleton—R. E. Mathis has had a prosperous year, 40 conversions and general prosperity.

Loraine—W. E. Rose. No pastor in the district has done better work. Eighty conversions. He has introduced a system into the business of the church; has organized two leagues and is desired for a third year.

Mendon—R. A. Hartrick is a young man who loves books and finds time to use them. He has done excellent work in his charge as pastor and administrator.

Mt. Sterling—F. B. Madden has grown in favor with his church, and has proven himself a worker in every line of service, and an efficient district president of the league.

Mt. Sterling Circuit—P. L. Turner, supernumerary, did some revival work.

North Rushville—Harry Willard has closed his second year. About 40 persons professed conversion. He has proven himself a good preacher and pastor.

Paloma—A. A. White has closed the third year, and his people unanimously desire his return. He has worked the field well, and has also gone outside and held a revival and built up a society at Coatsburg with 51 members, good Sunday school and leagues.

Plymouth—E. A. Hedges has done his first year of conference work. The church has steadily improved under his systematic and earnest methods. He had several conversions, and the league, Sunday school and congregations have grown and prospered.

Quincy—Trinity—Abner Clark. After the exodus from this church to Vermont Street church, and the general dissatisfaction with the site, the time has fully come for a new organization in another part of the city. Bro. Clarke has served the church faithfully and prepared the way for better things in the future.

Quincy—Vermont St.—C. B. Taylor entered upon his difficult task with the energy that wins. Laboring with the church, he has witnessed some 55 conversions and the liquidation of a $14,000 debt of long standing. A vigorous Epworth League has also come into life here. The congregations are good, and Bro. Taylor has proven himself a wise and faithful servant of the church and a good pastor.

Rushville—J. B. Horney is at the close of the third year, with increasing favor among his people. This year has afforded better results in conversions, collections and development than any other. Eighty conversions, $1,500 in improvements and a request for his return.

Rushville Circuit—O. E. Badger has a good report for the field, which is always a difficult one.

Warsaw—Wm. Dawson has uniformly drawn large congregations, and leaves the church improved, furnished and out of debt.

West Point—Jasper Miller will present the best benevolent collection ever brought up from that charge, the summary of which shows a considerable increase in every branch of evangelistic and itinerant work.

D. W. ENGLISH, P. E.

Springfield District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: The Springfield District is composed of twenty-eight pastoral charges. A number of changes in the boundaries of charges were made last year. The changes have been advantageous, and have worked well.

The preachers all went to their appointments cheerfully, and were cordially received by the people. They have worked faithfully, acceptably, and, as a rule, successfully.

SALARIES OF THE PREACHERS.

There was an aggregate increase in the salaries allowed the preachers of over $1,700, making an increase of about $5,000 in five years. But owing to conditions over which neither preachers nor people have had control, the deficiences on these liberal allowances will be, I think, larger than usual. In parts of the district the crops have failed, and consequently money has been scarce and collections difficult. The loss, however, will be but a very small per cent. of the aggregate.

HEALTH OF PREACHERS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

The health of the pastors and their families has been good. Death has entered but one household, that of Brother and Sister Geo. E. Burton, of Dawson charge. Their bright little son Dan was taken from them. They found the grace of God their stay and support.

CHURCH BUILDING AND CHURCH DEBT.

We have done something in the way of building and improving churches. Under the labors of Bro. Carlos, Raymond has erected a beautiful church, costing nearly $6,000. It is a model of convenience and elegance. It was dedicated by the Presiding Elder Sunday, September 8, its entire cost provided for, and several hundred dollars surplus to cover possible losses. This church building, with the great revival of last winter, places Raymond forward among our best second-class stations.

At Die Vernon, on the Auburn charge, under the direction of Bro. Theobold, a beautiful church, costing something over $2,200, has been erected, dedicated and paid for. Three years ago we had no society in Die Vernon. We now have about thirty members, a fine new church building, and a flourishing Sunday school.

At Riverton, on the Dawson charge, the church building is being enlarged and improved at a cost of $1,500, it having become much too small to accommodate the congregation. Bro. Geo. E. Burton is the pastor, and has greatly aided the work by his counsel and efforts.

We have built no parsonages this year, being fairly well supplied in that respect.

There is now no debt on any of the churches, save the Second Church in Springfield. Their crushing debt of $24,000, principal and unpaid interest, is still unpaid. But we hope this will not have to be said much longer. Almost $19,000 is pledged to its extinguishment, providing the whole amount is raised. We are not without hope as to the result. This debt has hung like a millstone around the neck of Springfield Methodism. It has hedged up our way on every hand, and set Methodism back more than ten years in its progress. If it was out of the way, it would be but a short time until we would have four or five flourishing churches in the Capital city, instead of but two, with this mountain burden on them.

CHURCH BENEVOLENCES.

We will, I think, make considerable advancement in our collections for the various church benevolences. Last year we reported for missions $3,347; this year we report for missions $3,832, a gain of $485. For all the collections the advance will be a still larger per cent. We lack less than $200 of reaching Chaplain McCabe's million and a half line for missions. This result has come from the faithful labors of the preachers and their co-workers.

REVIVALS.

God has greatly blessed us during the year with the outpouring of His Holy Spirit. There have been 1,450 conversions reported from the different charges. At Taylorville, Raymond, Carlinville, Pleasant Plains, Rochester, Dawson, Athens, Loami, and many other points, there were signal displays of the power of Divine Grace. These revivals were remarkable for the conversion of men, many of them dissipated men. The members yet feel the effects of these "refreshings from the presence of the Lord," and occupy higher spiritual ground than before.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Our Sunday Schools are in a flourishing condition everywhere. They were never better or doing better work. The statistical reports will show their condition.

EPWORTH AND JUNIOR LEAGUES.

The Epworth and Junior Leagues are all flourishing, and are doing noble work in the Master's cause. I am unable to report the exact number of Leagues, but we have no charge, save one, without a league, and that has a Christian Endeavor Society.

CIRCULATION OF PERIODICALS.

Twenty-two of the charges report 516 Christian Advocates taken, and 372 Epworth Heralds, the other six charges make no report, but will doubtless average as many as those reporting, which would make about 140 additional copies of the Advocates, or 656 in all, and about 450 Epworth Heralds.

GENERAL.

The churches are in a healthful condition. The congregations are large and growing, and all the means of grace well sustained. The church has the respect and confidence of the people, and growth is marked and solid. The people are anxious about their preachers for the coming year, and the preachers are anxious about their coming charges. Both are desiring of better, better things, and both deserve them. When all have done well, comparisons are difficult. In a mountain chain where the whole elevation reaches the clouds, it is impossible to point out individual peaks. There are here only twenty-eight summits. You can take your choice as to perfection and beauty among them. I might possibly point out some distinctions among them, but I will not.

W. N. McElroy, P. E.

The Seventh Question—"Who has been admitted into full membership?" was considered.

The following were called, addressed by the Bishop, their characters passed, they reported their collections, were represented by their Presiding Elders and examiners, were admitted into full connection, and elected to Deacon's orders: Edward E. Bean, Dudley V. Gowdy, William Landis, Thomas S. Mitchell, Charles L. Flowers, Theodore Kemp, Albert H. Flagg, Samuel W. Beggs, James R. Clark. James P. Morton, John P. Edgar and Alcany Hunter were admitted, being already deacons.

John S. Smith was continued on trial in studies of the fourth year; George LuFever was discontinued, at his own request; Jesse Tharp was continued in the studies of the second year.

Extension of Time—The hour of adjournment having arrived, the hour was extended.

SPECIAL ORDER—Upon the motion of A. C. Byerly, it was voted that on Friday, after the first ballot for General Conference delegates, the new plan for the Conference course of studies be the special order of the day.

Dr. S. L. Biler, of the American University, and Dr. O. M. Stewart, of the St. Louis Conference, representing the hospital and Deaconess' work in St. Louis, were introduced and addressed the Conference.

SPECIAL ORDER SUSPENDED.—It was agreed that the special order of the day, after the reading of the roll on Friday, be suspended until G. E. Scringer and C. Galeener, the Presiding Elders of Danville and Decatur Districts, should read their reports.

W. F. T. Spruill was appointed to lead devotions at the Friday morning session.

W. F. T. Spruill and J. A. Kumler were added to the committee to visit J. P. Dimmitt.

With announcements, doxology and benediction, the Conference adjourned.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, Sept. 13, 1895.

OPENING.—Conference opened at 8:30 a. m. with devotional services led by W. F. T. Spruill, Bishop Joyce presiding.

MINUTES.—The minutes of the preceding session were read, corrected and approved.

THE THIRTEENTH QUESTION was resumed. Danville and Decatur Districts were called and G. E. Scrimger and C. Galeener, Presiding Elders, after the passage of their character, read their reports:

Danville District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—In making this, my fourth annual report to this body, I rejoice in the goodness of God manifested to the preachers and people of the Danville District.

First in importance is the sacred work committed to our hands and of supreme importance in that work are the spiritual interests. A good degree of revival spirit has prevailed this year, though not so marked as during the previous year. A union revival service under the direction of Dr. Munhall was held in Danville last fall, resulting in the quickening of the coöperating churches, in a goodly number of conversions, and especially in the edification of believers. The spirit of the Lord has been at work in all the churches and extensive revivals have visited Lincoln and Grace churches, Danville, Homer and Chrisman. Very helpful meetings have been held in all the charges, which, if not so large in visible results, have added largely to the forces that make for righteousness. There have been about 1,100 conversions reported this year in the Danville District. As to the temporal interests we are able to bring a good report. I have made an effort to secure the insurance of our uninsured church and parsonage property, with a degree of success. There are, however, some fourteen or fifteen churches and parsonages uninsured in the bounds of the district. One large circuit has not a single church insured. Possibly if God should permit a thunderbolt to strike one of these churches it might prove to be for the remaining societies a more alarming voice than that of the Presiding Elder. There have been fine improvements made on First and Kimber churches, Danville, amounting to $1,800 in each case. One church in East Lynn has undergone much needed and extensive repairs, whereby the beauty, convenience and capacity of the auditorium has been increased at a cost of $600. Our Hoopston brethren rejoice in the beautifying of their audience room by new carpets, chairs and electric lights. The whole cost of church improvements, including street paving, amounts to $1,700. Pastor Auer, at Rossville, enjoys the reputation of being one of the best mechanics in town, which reputation has been gained as a member of the building committee while overseeing and sometimes overdoing, or doing over, the work on the remodeled parsonage at that place. After spending a thousand dollars Rossville has one of the best parsonages in the district.

Grace and giving have united in making possible our new church in Danville called Grace, which, having been built this year, desires to join our ranks as a station.

A neat and modern church is nearing completion at West Ridge, on the Villa Grove Circuit. It will be dedicated immediately after Conference, and will be occupied by the society wont to worship in the old "brick church," dedicated many years ago by Dr. Buck, but deserted in recent years by the railroad and the removal of many of its former supporters. Brother Ernest Pletcher, the pastor, deserves mention for his skill and success in managing this delicate and important movement.

Our elegant and commodious new church at Tuscola will be dedicated early in November, and will have a year's experience in church work before it houses the Conference next fall.

Some attention has been paid toward paying off church debts. A debt of $324 on our church at Broadlands has been raised. One of $1,100 which has rested like a heavy burden on the church at Sidell has been provided for. Rev. G A. Frazier, the pastor, has given much time to raising this debt. I believe that the offerings to our various benevolences—in itself a good indication of the spiritual condition of the churches—will be quite liberal this year. In company with Dr. Thomas Craven, I made a tour of the district in February which resulted in an education along missionary lines that was productive of good.

In spite of short oats, hay and wheat crops, and shorter prices, I believe that we will make a slight advance over last year in benevolences.

LAST YEAR'S SALARY ACCOUNT.

Now, as to the workers. Unusual good health has been the possession of preachers and their families this year. But one pastor, Rev. T. H. Fierce, has been compelled to relinquish his charge. Throat trouble, finally resulting in the loss of his voice, made his resignation a necessity. Several months after leaving his work his voice suddenly returned one night, and he hoped had come to stay in its old time strength, but subsequent attempts to preach revealed the fact that he could no longer place the gospel trumpet to his lips. Brother Fierce has done hard and efficient work, and he has the sympathy of this Conference in his affliction. Death has not claimed a victim in any parsonage this year.

The preachers have been loyal to God and the church, and present as noble and self-sacrificing body of men as can well be found. And the laity deserve commendation for their liberality, piety and devotion to Methodist doctrine and polity. Whatever changes may come to our polity the preachers and people called Methodists can be trusted to be faithful to the spirit of Methodism which has ever been zealous, adaptive and progressive.

Rev. M. H. Ewers, district president of the Epworth League, assisted by his fellow officers, has done good work among the young people. There has been a steady advance in interest and membership. Rev. W. H. Webster, our superintendent of Domestic Missions and Church Aid Society, has been alive to his duties, and has broad plans for future operation. If he remains in his present office I hope to have a Danville Mission Circuit to hand over to him for superintendence the coming year.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are making long strides in their work within the district.

OTHER ITEMS THAT MAY BE OF INTEREST.

In membership this district is second in the Conference, and second to none in its resources and possibilities.

There has been a handsome advance in the number of church periodicals taken. Owing to the little money realized for this summer's crops a greater effort than usual has been necessary to bring up the pastor's salaries. I fear that there will be several deficits in this district, resulting not from any lack of efficiency on the part of the preachers.

As to my own health, I have to record that more sickness has been pushed into this year than into all my life besides. I was compelled to step aside from active work during the months of April and May, but through God's abounding mercy I was raised to health again. Kind, indeed, have been the brethren, both of the ministry and the laity, and inexpressively good has been the Heavenly Father. To Him and His cause I give myself anew.

Respectfully submitted,

G. E. SCRIMGER, P. E.

Decatur District.

Third annual report of the Presiding Elder of Decatur District to the Illinois Annual Conference, Sept. 12, 1895:

The Presiding Elder and preachers of Decatur District have great reasons to be devoutly thankful to God for good health during the year, and for grace and health to do the work assigned to them.

There has been but little serious illness among the families of the preachers, so far as I know, this year. Brother E. J. Durham was for a time incapacitated by illness from attending to his duties, but with all that he has done a magnificent year's work.

The preachers entered vigorously upon their work immediately after conference, and during the winter the revival campaign was conducted with unremitting effort, and the result was a goodly ingathering of souls.

Soon after conference the beautiful new church at Lovington was dedicated, and that society put in a position of commanding influence for the future. In Stonington the society outgrew the old church building, under the vigorous pastorate of T. W. Agnew, and erected a new building at a cost of about $5,500. This structure is a model of architectural beauty and convenience, and must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Latham began early in the year to plan for a new house of worship, the old one being entirely too small to accommodate the people. A new structure graces the spacious premises, and the Lord's house in Latham is more beautiful than any other.

Several of the old churches within the district have been greatly improved, in some instances amounting almost to a reconstruction. The church at Moweaqua was re-roofed, newly frescoed, furnished with new furnace and generally renovated at a cost of about $900. Macon church has been treated in much the same fashion, and at about the same cost. Illiopolis has also spent several hundred dollars in improving their building, and on the Rosemond circuit large sums have been spent in improving the churches.

At Warrensburg, Brother Newkirk had the pleasure of dedicating a commodious new parsonage, and plans have been adopted for building a splendid residence for the preacher at Moweaqua.

In Decatur, both churches concluded about the same time to furnish better accommodations for their pastors. First Church constructed what is perhaps the finest parsonage in the conference, and Grace Church spent money lavishly in improvements until they are not much behind, and hereafter the preachers who go to Decatur charges will have no occasion to be ashamed of their residences.

With opening spring and advancing summer, the preachers, encouraged by the spiritual enthusiasm developed during the winter, and also by the prospect for an abundant harvest, entered vigorously upon the work of securing pledges for benevolences. The reports were then encouraging and the outlook for a fine increase most hopeful. But things are not always what they seem. I have never seen prospects for a large crop so near maturity so suddenly blighted as they have been this year over nearly the whole area of Decatur District. Hay, one of our chief crops in the southern part of the district, was a total failure. But few of the farmers attempted to harvest it at all, and when they did the yield was at the rate of about one ton to ten acres. Wheat and oats did not yield a third of a crop, and fully one-half was not harvested at all. Still, up to the first of August, corn looked fine and the hopeful farmer looked forward to the autumn months with expectation that then he should be rewarded for his labor. But here, as elsewhere, he seemed doomed to disappointment, for millions of chinch bugs, swarming out of vegetation now dried up by the hot winds, invaded the corn fields, and in many localities sapped the life out of the stalk before the ear was half matured, and the indications now are that the corn crop will not be larger than one-third the average. Many renters will not have enough to pay the rents and now look forward to the coming winter with gloomy forbodings.

This state of affairs has seriously affected collections of all kinds, including pastors' salaries. I believe that the people have this year given more largely in proportion to their increase than ever before. Many were determined that there should be no decrease in the Lord's portion, and made great sacrifices, even like the poor widow, giving of their living that the preacher might be paid and the missionary treasury kept full.

This report would be incomplete did I not mention the work being done by the Epworth League. The district is well organized and there are leagues in nearly every appointment. The young people are enthusiastic supporters of our institutions and polity. I think some of the older ones might well take lessons from their children in the matter of benevolence and systematic work for the Lord. I believe the province of the league is to train an army of workers to systematic and applied christianity, and twenty years from now Methodism will feel the mighty throbbings of this force now generating, and not only will the hosts of Israel "look up" to the hills whence cometh their help, but will seek to "lift" the fallen of every nation.

I believe that our beloved Methodism was never stronger in this territory than it is at present. There is a manifest growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and preachers and people seek to develop the highest type of vital Godliness.

C. GALEENER.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—The propositions for Constitutional changes to be submitted to the annual conferences in 1895 and 1896 on the lay delegates and on ratio of Ministerial representation were submitted with the following results:

On proposition I, ayes, 9: noes, 149. Declining, 74.

On proposition II, ayes, 170; noes, 34. Declining, 0.

On proposition III, ayes, 161; noes, 12. Declining, 12.

RESOLUTION OF INSTRUCTION.—The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates elected by this Conference to the next General Conference be, and hereby are, instructed to use their influence and votes to secure the proper admission as delegates of any women who may be elected to that body as lay delegates, by any electoral conference: Provided, That their election is regular in all respects, except in the fact that they are women.

W. H. WEBSTER.
M. W. EVERHART.
W. A SMITH.

BALLOT—The hour having arrived for electing General Conference delegates, the Conference proceeded to ballot. The following tellers were appointed: G. A. Scott, John W. Miller, J. F. Clearwaters, M. G. Coleman, F. B. Madden, G. T. Wetzell. J. A. Stout, R. L. Steed, after which the ballot was taken, and they retired to count the vote.

DRAFTS—Drafts were ordered on the chartered fund for $25, and on the Book Concern for $2,551.

CONFERENCE COURSES OF STUDY—W. N. McElroy presented the report of the Committee on Conference Courses of Study, and action thereon was deferred.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE—J. A. Kumler, W. H. Webster and S. H. Whitlock were appointed a committee to confer with a committee from the Lay Conference concerning a joint meeting of the two bodies.

MEMOIRS—J. E. Artz, D. F. Howe, E. H. Lugg and A. N. Simmons were added to the Committee on Memoirs.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY—G. E. Scrimger was appointed to draft and forward resolutions of sympathy to A. T. Orr.

W. H. Webster and P. Wood, Sr., were appointed to send like resolutions to W. H. H. Moore.

TRUSTEES—A. C. Byerly, W. H. Webster and G. E. Scrimger were elected Trustees of the class of 1898.

THE THIRTEENTH QUESTION was resumed. All of the districts were called, the character of the following passed, and they reported their collections: C. F. McKown, F. Craft, J. Miller, W. J. Tull, A. P. Stover, J. M. West, J. O. Collins, W. O. Rousch, M. M. Davidson, B. F. Shipp, J. E. Artz, J. A. Burchitt, J. B. Colwell, F. S. Artz, G. T. Wetzell, J. B. Pawson, D. T. Miles, W. H. Wilder, S. H. Huber, E. S. Wamsley, H. H. Oneal, R. H. Osborne, T. M. House, J. R. Reasoner, J. C. Eninger, W. T. Beadles, B. D. Wiley, H. T. Collins, T. D. Weems, M. G. Coleman, J. Foxworthy, U. Z. Gilmer, D. G. DuBois, T. Clark, W. A. Boyd, J. F. Horney, F. C. Bruner, C. N. Cain, L. F. Walden, W. F. T. Spruill, J. F. Wohlfarth, C. M. Moss, H. C. Turner, J. M. Goodspeed, W. Mitchell, A. E. Kester, W. H. Schwartz, A. Willard, S. W. Thornton, S. H. Whitlock, D. C. Burkett, T. O. Baty, E. M. Jeffers, J. T. Orr, H. G. Wass, G. E. Cunningham, C. F. Tobey, M. F. Ault, W. M. Gooding, G. W. Bates, J. F. Poorman, M. Auer, W. S. Calhoun, M. H. Ewers, W. H. Webster, J. A. Stout, E. E. Carr, C. Wehrman, W. M. Poe, D. F. Howe, R. G. Hobbs, A. M. Danely, A. M. Campbell, J. G. Jeffers, C. W. Jacobs, W. A. Reynolds, F. C. Read, Wm. Brandon, J. W. Eckman, C. P. Hard, W. R. Howard, J. H. Hartrick, E. J. Durham, W. C. Lacy, M. W. Everhart, S. A. MINUTES—The journal of the preceding session was read, corrected and approved.

The special committee in the case of W. F. Wright, made the following report: "From the findings, the select number decide that Wilbur F. Wright is guilty as charged, and that he be expelled from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by a unanimous vote."

The defendent asked that an appeal be entered on the minutes.

It was voted that J. T. McFarland, H. M. Hamill and H. Reed be appointed to represent the Church in the appeal.

CHANGE OF RELATIONS—The relations of Geo. Stevens and J. M. West were changed from effective to superanunate.

Notices of amendments to the Constitution of Superannuate Aid Society, were given as follows, to be acted on next year:

ARTICLE IV. The funds of this society shall consist of a permanent and an annual fund. The permanent fund shall consist of such property as has been or may be donated, the income of which alone is to be used for the support of the Conference claimants. The annual fund shall consist of the Conference collection for claimants, the proceeds of the Book Concern distribution and of the chartered fund, and the money paid by the trustees for that purpose. The permanent fund shall be kept and administered by the Trustees of the Conference, who shall pay over to the stewards at each Conference session the annual income, less such surplus as they may deem proper to retain to meet any special expense in administering the funds. The annual fund shall be administered by the stewards in the following manner:

The funds to be distributed annually shall be divided into two equal parts, one part shall be divided among the claimants on the basis of their necessities as ascertained by the stewards, independent of the years of service of the claimant. The other part shall be divided upon the basis of the years of service; so that a man who has served in the Conference 20 years shall receive twice as much as a man in the same class as to necessity, who has served but 10 years, and one who has served 30 years shall have three times as much as one who has served but 10 years and is in the same class, and in this proportion for each year of service in the Conference.

The stewards shall decide who shall be claimants on the Conference funds, and shall grade their claims from one to ten in proportion to their necessities.

ARTICLE V. The Conference Stewards along with the Trustees of the Conference shall fix an amount at each Conference to be raised by the pastors for Conference claimants for the ensuing year. This amount shall be apportioned by the Presiding Elders among the districts, and again by each Presiding Elder among the charges of the district, and each pastor shall report at Conference how much he has raised and whether the apportionment to his charge has been raised in full or not, in the same manner as he reports the collection for missions.

Also that Article VII shall be entirely stricken out.

W. H. WEBSTER.

I hereby offer the following amendments to the Constitution of the Superannuate's Aid Society:

Amendment 1.—Amend Article IV as follows: In fifteenth line strike out the word "fifty" and insert the word "seventy-five," and in the sixteenth line the word "fifty" and insert "twenty-five," so it shall read "The annual fund shall be administered by the stewards in the following manner: All monies received for annual distribution for the support of Conference claimants shall be divided into two sums, the first consisting of seventy-five per cent. of the whole, shall be called the annuity fund, and the second, consisting of twenty-five per cent., shall be called the members fund," etc.

Amendment 2.—In Article V, second line, strike out "$10.00" and insert "$5.00," so it shall read "Each member of the Conference who is effective shall pay into the funds of the society an annual fee of $5.00," etc.

W. N. MCELROY.

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT:—The report of the Committee on Conference Entertainment was presented and adopted. (See reports.)

COLLECTIONS FOR SUPERANNUATES:—The following was introduced and adopted:

In order to raise with more certainty, the amount apportioned for the support of the superannuate ministers, their widows and children, the Conference recommends, that besides making the apportionment to the circuits and stations, the presiding elders place such allowance as a part of the sum for ministerial support to be apportioned to the membership and raised in the same manner as the pastors' and presiding elders' claims are raised. This is not to be construed so as to prevent the observance of "Veteran's Day," or the taking of a public collection. The total amount raised on each charge shall be reported when the preacher reports his missionary collection.

T. J. WHEAT,
W. H. WEBSTER.

Reports of Committees.

EDUCATIONAL.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The past year of the Illinois Wesleyan University has been properous beyond any preceding year. The same wise and aggressive methods that have characterized the presidency of Dr. Wilder from the beginning, have steadily advanced the work and popularity of the University. There was an enrollment of students in the several departments of 1,625, an increase of nearly 200 over 1894. The faculty at present numbers 38, including assistants, all of whom are efficient and painstaking. With the opening of the present year the promise of continued and increasing success and attendance is reassuring. The institution was never so thoroughly equipped for its work as now. Its library, chemical and astromical appliances, provisions for physical culture and appointments in all other departments, render it competent to give the best discipline in head, heart and hand.

The moral and religious atmosphere of the institution is excellent. A majority of the students are earnest Christians and all are brought under healthful and inspiring Christian influences.

The educational collections, taken by the churches to apply on their pledges to the endowment fund, on account of Dr. Hiram Buck's gift, are very gratifying, though a few charges have not met their full apportionment. We recommend that the preachers be careful to present this claim, inasmuch as it is one of the causes for which collections are annually taken by order of the General Conference.

We insert the following extract from the annual report of President Wilder:

"The institution has grown upon the confidence of the people of Bloomington and of our patronizing territory, while her reputation has, perhaps, grown even more. Her sphere of usefulness has been enlarged. The courses of study, almost wholly unlike the old, have been broadened. Requirements of students have been made more and more rigorous until it is as difficult to obtain a degree here as in the best institutions of college grade and of far greater prestige than is enjoyed by us.

"The buildings and grounds have been improved, the endownment enlarged, the current expenses of these years have been paid, and the floating indebtedness of several thousand dollars reduced in the meantime practically to about four thousand dollars. Notwithstanding all this, the conviction returns with increasing power over me that the institution demands to have done for it what has not yet been done. Our people are not sufficiently awake to the importance and the promise of this institution, and its claims upon them for richer endowments and more buildings. The slight indebtedness will disappear without special effort provided times keep good and our attendance increases from year to year, as in the past; but this is too great a risk for this body to take when the removal of such a small indebtedness would bring freedom and multiplied power. New buildings can never be secured by an increase in attendance. They must come by new and special contributions of money. I have done my best to place these claims of the University upon the minds and hearts of our people. There is no adequate response for these new facilities. A new hall to accommodate one hundred young women, and a new science hall that would cost not less than fifty thousand dollars would be taxed to their utmost to accommodate the students at the beginning of next year."

We recommend the election of the following trustees: Hon. Benjamin F. Funk, George P. Davis, M. A. Preston Wood, Sr., Jesse Meharry. We request the Conference to appoint as visitors: Revs. J. T. Orr, C. Galeener, W. A. Smith, R. G. Hobbs, H. C. Gibbs and Robert Stevens.

ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Trustees of the Illinois Female College take pleasure in reporting another very prosperous year. The attendance has exceeded any previous year. Thorough work has been done by the able corps of teachers. A spirit of earnestness and enthusiasm has pervaded the entire school. Both teachers and pupils have cheerfully done their best and have taken laudable pride in the success of the school. The health of the pupils has been excellent, and the results of the physical training have been very apparent. Increased interest in Bible Study and general spiritual quickening have been marked.

Financially the year has been strikingly successful. The income, after all expenses were paid, exceeded $2,500, which has been applied by the Trustees to improvements in the building and additional equipment. The present building and appliances are not adequate to meet the increasing attendance.

The Trustees are very glad to announce that they have secured an option on the property just west of the College, extending to Clay avenue and fronting on State street, and that they propose at once to solicit funds to purchase this necessary ground, to erect a suitable building thereon, and to start an endowment fund. It is proposed to raise $50,000 the coming year.

With the strong conviction that our church has here a rare opportunity to build up a first-class college for young women, we confidently ask the active interest and coöperation of the members of the Illinois Conference.

For Conference visitors we would recommend the presiding elders of the Jacksonville, West Jacksonville, Springfield and Decatur districts and the pastors resident in Jacksonville.

For Trustees we respectfully recommend that Rev. Horace Reed be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the State of Rev. Charles A. Crane. Also that A. C. Wadsworth, S. R. Capps, H. C. Tunison and T. J. Pitner, of Jacksonville, be elected their own successors. We also recommend H. H. Harris, Esq., of Champaign.

In accordance with previous recommendations of the Trustees and the action of the Conference favoring the representation of the graduates of the College in the Board of Trustees, we recommend that Mrs. M. Vogel and Mrs. S. D. Osborne, of Jacksonville, who have been duly nominated by the College Alumnæ Association, be appointed additional Trustees.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

The Trustees of Chaddock College report that the mortgaged indebtedness is $16,900, for the payment of which personal notes and subscriptions are held to the amount of $24.000. This subscription is payable in annual installments, and part of it does not bear interest, and there will be some loss in collection, but with persistent effort it is hoped in due time to make the property free of debt. The city put special assessments upon the property for sewer and pavement amounting to $2,000. Arrangements are already made looking to the settlement of this claim by the next meeting of the board.

A faithful company of Christian teachers are doing their utmost for the success of the institution.

The running expenses of the school work are provided for by the income of the dormitory and the tuition.

This is a time when Chaddock College needs and deserves the earnest help of every member of the Illinois Conference, especially of those preachers who fill charges pledged to the College. In the interest of Christ and His church, and in behalf of an earnest, capable and self-sacrificing faculty, we ask for Chaddock College prayerful and kindly attention and consideration.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed as Trustees: D. W. English, T. A. Canady, Thomas Sinnock, Esq., Samuel E. Hedges, Esq.

We recommend as visitors, Horace Reed. A. N. Simmons, Rev. R. A. Hartrick and the pastors at Vermont street. Quincy, and at Clayton and Beardstown.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

The age in which we live not only needs but demands an educated ministry. To the young men among us, who are planning for a more thorough preparation for the ministry, we commend our schools of theology. It is the aim of our schools to secure the greatest freshness and variety consistent with scientific system and thoroughness in scholarship. We also emphasize the fact that besides the benefit of class recitation, the living teacher in his matured and carefully prepared oral instructions, is of greater benefit to the student than any other human form of aid.

We rejoice in the number and efficiency of our theological schools; that they are having material success, and that they are sending out large numbers of young men who are better prepared to preach the gospel than they could have been without such discipline, is to us a matter of real pleasure.

We judge it will not be amiss if we call attention to the need of thoroughly drilling our theological students in a knowledge of our missionary work. The Christian world needs information on this subject, and that information must come, largely from the pulpit. We recommend the following visitors to these several institutions of learning:

Boston School of Theology—E. B. Randle.

Drew—R. L. Steed.

Iliff—E. S. Wamsley.

Garrett—S. H. Whitlock, W. D. Best.

DePauw—Thos. J. Wheat, John W. Miller.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF BALTIMORE.

We highly appreciate the visit of Dr. Goucher, President of the Woman's College of Baltimore, and his eloquent appeal in behalf of higher education for women.

We congratulate the church upon the existence of an institution for the training of her daughters, thoroughly equipped, largely endowed, maintaining the highest educational standards, and loyal to the cherished principles of our religion. We commend the Woman's College of Baltimore to parents who seek for their daughters superior advantages for Christian education We recommend as visitors to this institution, J. A. Kumler and C. B. Taylor.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

We heartily approve the efforts to establish at the capital of the nation a great Christian university under the care of our church, and rejoice in the eminent success thus far attained.

As $75,000 have already been pledged by ministers for Asbury Memorial Hall, we will aid, as we have opportunity, in securing the $25,000 still needed for this building.

We commend to our Epworth Leagues the plan of the trustees of the University for obtaining funds for the erection of Epworth Hall.

We will do our utmost to encourage an enterprise so grand in conception and so vitally related to the future influence of Protestantism in our country, and to the strength and usefulness of our beloved Methodism.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are gratified to learn of the work of this board in promoting the cause of higher education in the church. The formulation of a standard for graduation at a Methodist College, as made by the University Senate and applied by the Board of Education, marks an important advance in the educational work of the church. During the past year the board has aided in securing an education, more than fifteen hundred young people from our Sunday Schools. Twenty-six students belonging within the bounds of the Illinois Conference received aid during the year to the amount of $1,501 while the amount of collections sent by the Conference to the board was but $1,389. This fact ought to stimulate the members of the Conference to greater effort in behalf of the collections for the board. Such a Conference as ours ought to give more than it receives.

We recommend the observance of Children's Day in every charge, that the exercises prepared by the board be used on that day, and that the collection for the children's fund be forwarded entire to the secretary of the board, as the discipline provides.

FROST CRAFT, Chairman.
E. B. RANDLE, Secretary.

MISSIONS.

The Church of Jesus Christ has received its marching orders direct from His Divine lips. Its chief business should be to keep step with this commission. In proportion to this desire does it secure its most glorious victories. Let us remember that our commander never says "Go Ye," but that its supplement is added, "Lo, I am with you always;" therefore

Resolved, That we will do more than ever to develop the missionary spirit in our Churches. We will organize our Sunday Schools and insist on the monthly collection. We will encourage the annual Thanksgiving offering in our Epworth Leagues. We will do our best to hasten the time when "Jesus shall reign," in fact, ever remembering that God so loved that he "GAVE."

W. F. GILLMORE,
Chairman.

E. J. DURHAM, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Our advance this year is indicated by an increase of 12 schools, 217 officers and teachers and 1,835 scholars, giving us 555 schools, 7,548 officers and teachers and 52,885 scholars.

The Illinois Conference commends to its constituency the thought, with hope of its soon becoming a fact, that the Sunday School is not for the little folks, in any pre-eminent or special sense, but is for all the people. It is the Church School, the Bible School.

We would call the attention of our families to the most difficult and the most important of our Sunday School problems, —how to retain our young people. We advise, as the available remedy, just commended, that the fathers and mothers be present in the Church School. Among desirable methods we refer to the adoption of the Assembly Department, as honoring to the adult attendants.

We wish the efficient activity of the Sunday School Board, according to the Book of Discipline. It will be remembered that the Pastor is its President. This appointment by the Church states his relation to the school.

We desire that our Sunday school requisites be used in all our schools. They are inferior to none. Tens of thousands of copies of them are appreciated by those who are outside of our communion. The financial profits aid the support of the Conference claimants.

We suggest the Home Class for invalids and those who are detained by domestic duties during the Sunday school hour. This plan is no longer an experiment. It succeeds. It is a feeder to the church school.

We hope that teachers' meetings and normal classes will not be crowded out of the program of church life.

We trust that our teachers will urge attendance of all scholars at the preaching services, and that they will be exsamples to their flocks, as helpers of the preacher in charge, the Methodist Sunday school teachers' vocation.

R. E. MATHIS, President.
C. P. HARD, Secretary.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY

WHEREAS, The Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society has wrought valiantly in its special field of work, and has accomplished marvelous things in promoting the cause of education and building up the spiritual and temporal interests throughout the South, among both white and black people; and,

WHEREAS, The work has just begun, and the foundations merely laid as yet for greater things to come; and,

WHEREAS, During the past year the society has suffered greatly from the financial stringency of the times, and hence a necessary shortage for teachers and officers, who have gladly submitted to large reductions in their salaries, and have labored heroically against great odds,

Resolved, That we, as preachers, believing that "the world is our parish," heartily endorse this society, and urge our people to not only inform themselves concerning the extent and benefits of this work, but also to be more liberal in their support of it.

BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS, Foreign fields are being opened up phenominally in the providence of God for the spread of the Scriptures: and,

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society is a great and successful agency for the world-wide dissemination of the Sacred Word; therefore,

Resolved, That we will heartily coöperate with this society and encourage its agents in this great cause.

C. BAUGHMAN, Chairman
O. E. BADGER, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

Believing the traffic in liquor the most destructive agency in the employ of Satan, and witnessing as we do the organized effort to perpetuate this evil, in the face of a Christian sentiment which, if united, would crush the business, the Committee on Resolutions submit the following:

1. The friends of temperance must act unitedly or see this insolent monster increase in power.

2. That we heartily endorse the plans for the suppression and extermination of the rum traffic as outlined in "Christianity in Earnest," by Dr. Kynett.

3. That we hail with delight the growing sentiment in towns and cities throughout the country which has for its chief object the annihilation of the business, even at the sacrifice of all party lines.

4. That we pledge our hearty support and coöperation to the young people of our church, in their efforts to develop a Christian character that ultimately will result in legislation based upon religious principles, and that we reaffirm the declaration of our General Conference, as contained in our Discipline: "The traffic cannot be licensed without sin."

5. That it is the sense of this Conference that its pastors should inaugurate an educational campaign in all of the charges, which shall bring together and combine the forces necessary to a victory, not only in a single instance, but that shall continue a relentless and uncompromising war until this evil, with all its wealth and power, is driven out of legalized existence.

J. H. WATERBURY, President.
T. A. CANADY, Secretary.

SABBATH.

We hold that the Sabbath day is one of God's gracious gifts to man; that it is full of sacred ministries, privileges and opportunities for making the world better.

That the greatest and safest governments on the earth are those in which the Sabbath day is most honored.

We most heartily endorse the work of the mayor of the City of New York in what he has so courageously done to enforce the laws and to uphold the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, therefore, That we discountenance, in every way possible, the desecration of the day and the growing tendency to hold in lighter estimate the sacredness of the Sabbath spirit.

Resolved, That as members of the Illinois Conferrence, we record our vigorous disappreval of any and all efforts to reduce the American Sabbath to the level of an European Sabbath.

Resolved, That we will encourage and take active part in the diffusion of literature that will more thoroughly teach the people concerning the sanctity and value of the Christian Sabbath.

C. W. JACOBS.
President.

H. C. TURNER. Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

1. We congratulate the Church upon the great work accomplished by our Board of Church Extension, and commend it to the enlarged liberality of all our people.

2. The fact that our country is new, that our population doubles in less than thirty years, so that within another quarter of a century we shall exceed a hundred millions of people, and that the powers of evil are intensely active, demand that the work of Church Extension shall immediately be greatly enlarged and more than doubled in the quarter of a century to come.

3. We recommend the use of the helps provided by the Board of Church Extension—Christianity In Earnest—which has for its motto "Church Extension and Saloon Suppression," and Glad Tidings that provide the latest facts and furnish the inspiration of glorious song. These publications placed in the hands of the people cannot help but create a vital interest in Church Extension.

M. W. EVERHART, Chairman.
C. R. CARLOS, Secretary.
Committee.

DOMESTIC MISSION AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, Methodism has important interests in cities, towns and rural places which of themselves are at present unable to care for and develop these interests: and

WHEREAS, The Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society is designed to do this work to the extent that the means for such work are put within their reach: therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That every pastor in the Conference lay the work and interests of the Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society before their respective congregations as early in the year as possible and urge a liberal contribution thereto.

Resolved, 2nd. That we recommend the reappointment of Bro. W. H. Webster as superintendent of this work for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. WANLESS, Chairman.
M. A. HEWES, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

In every department of life we note progress and improvement which is indicative of good condition and forward movement.

The power behind an intelligent people is pure literature unmixed with chaff, which if found in every home will produce a loyal people. As a church we believe in a free and unlimited education of the masses and the dissemination of the choicest literature. Hence we urge upon the ministry to avail themselves of the opportunity of recommending to all Methodists our periodicals and literature, upon their real merit and value.

FRANK BRUNER, Chairman,
T. L. HANCOCK, Secretary,

TRACTS.

Your committee, recognize that there are many delinquent church members and a great army of unconverted persons who are non church-goers, and that God often makes a single tract wisely used the instrument to arouse the former and the medium through which the Holy Spirit operates upon the hearts of the latter in conviction and conversion, and in view of the fact that our tract society offers for a nominal sum such tracts as are well suited to all classes. Therefore we urge all our pastors to take a collection in each congregation for this cause and that way give attention to the wise and systematic distribution of such literature through their Epworth Leagues and tract committees.

W. T. HEATER, Chairman.
THOS. H. TULL, Secretary.

JAMES STRAWBRIDGE FUND.

FATHERS AND BRETHERN:—Your trustee would respectfully report that the fund entrusted to him by your appointment, has been safely invested at 7 per cent. interest, and that the proceeds amounting to $70, has been appropriated as per will of James Strawbridge, one-half to the Missionary Society of our Church and one-half to the support of the pastor of Brooklyn Church. I hold receipts for these amounts as follows: First, a receipt for $35 from H. C. Gibbs, as Conference Treasurer for Missions; second, a receipt for $35 from T. M. Dillon, pastor of Brooklyn Church, for his support during past year.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN W. HALL, Trustee.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

It is with gratitude to God that we behold the prosperity of the W. H. M. S. of the Illinois Conference and throughout the entire connection. We will encourage the organization of auxiliaries and will always welcome representatives of the Society to our charges.

We congratulate the Illinois Conference upon the magnificent gift of the "Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage," by Judge Cunningham and his wife, of Urbana, through the W. H. M. S., and note with joy the possibilities of such an institution among us.

We further recommend that W. N. McElroy, W. H. Webster, C. Galeener, R. G. Hobbs and A. C. Byerly, and Mrs. N. W. Matheny, of Springfield; Mrs. A. W. Conklin, of Decatur, and Mrs. B. S. Potter, of Bloomington, be made a Conference Deaconess Board of nine, to attend to the interests of this noble institution of the Church.

W. A. REYNOLDS, Chairman.
J. A. BURCHIT, Secretary.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The committee on Preachers' Aid Society report that the Society is safe and solid and is the best thing in sight for all the members of the Conference, especially for the young preachers. The Society will disburse this year about $2,800 to its beneficiaries.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League does not disappoint, but it continues to impress itself upon us more and more as an institution that is indispensible to the best interests of the Church.

The reports of the Presiding Elders show that in every district our young people are responding by the thousands and with great enthusiasm, and through this agency are being drilled for important and responsible positions in the Church

In order that perfect unity and harmony of action may be realized between the pastors and people, we recommend that every pastoral charge be organized into one Society. This the stations may have in the local chapters, but the circuits will find the circuit plan to work admirably.

The call by the Missionary Board for a special Thanksgiving offering received such hearty and prompt response as to cause the missionary reports to greatly exceed all previous records.

The Epworth Herald and the Reading Course, while already patronized in a large degree, deserve to be pushed vigorously and largely everywhere.

We desire to especially emphasize the work of the Junior League. No work among us makes stronger appeals for our vigorous support, or gives promise of better results than does the Junior League. We commend the action of the several districts in appointing a superintendent of this department for the district work.

ANDRUS FUND.

As committee on the Andrus Fund, I report that I have received for 1895, one hundred and nineteen dollars and seventy-five cents, to be applied as directed by the Quarterly Conference of White Hall, Ill.:

For Missions	$96.75
For Domestic Missions	15.00
For Tract Cause	4.00
For Sunday School Union	4.00

I have paid the same to the Conference Treasurer and taken his receipt.

W. N. RUTLEDGE.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT.

Your committee recommend the following:

1. That a permanent committee be created by this session of the Conference, to be known as the "Committee on Entertainment," to be composed of one member from each Conference district, the same to be nominated in the usual way by the Presiding Elders.

2. It shall be the duty of this committee to collect and pay out, on order of the Conference, all money belonging to the "Conference Entertainment Fund," each member of the committee to be the collector for his own district.

3. The "Conference Entertainment Fund" in the hands of this committee is to be provided as follows: On or before the first day of each Conference session all effective members of the Conference, together with such supernumerary and superannuated members as shall attend the session, shall pay each to the member of the committee on entertainment from his district the annual fee of $2, the fund from which shall be a contingent entertainment fund, to be used at the discretion of the pastor and officers of the church which may be the host of the Conference for that year. Provided, first, that this plan of paid entertainment is only to supplement the present plan of volunteer and unpaid entertainment; and, Provided, second, that in the event sufficient unpaid entertainment at any session be received by the pastor in charge to accommodate all who attend, the entire fund, or such part as is not used, shall be carried over to the next Conference, and the next annual fee may be suspended or reduced by vote of the Conference. Provided, thirdly, that any member providing for his entertainment at any session of the Conference shall be excused from paying the annual fee for that year.

4. That on the third day of the Conference, the chairman of the committee on entertainment shall make report of moneys of this fund received and disbursed at the previous Conference, and shall also read the names of delinquent payers of the annual fee.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

THE STATE AND THE CHURCH.

Your committee would report that we are in hearty sympathy with the public school system of this country, believing it to be the foundation of all intelligent citizenship. We are in hearty sympathy with everything which tends toward the higher education of the people.

But while we realize the higher value of intellectual culture, we put at least an equal value upon the cultivation of religious nature. While we appreciate the great work being done by the State schools, respecting the former, we realize the impossibility in a country like ours, that they should cultivate the latter. We therefore believe that the Church should care for the higher education of the young within the scope of her influence, cultivating alike the intellectual and religious nature thus developing a symmetrical manhood and womanhood, and we earestly recommend all our people to patronize the institutions under the care of our Church.

U. Z. GILMER, Secretary.

THE DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE,

Appointed by this Conference, are rejoiced to report that the prayer of the Conference as expressed in a resolution offered for three consecutive years, has been answered through munificent liberality of Judge J. O. Cunningham and his wife. Their home with 15 acres of ground, "beautiful for situation," near the city of Urbana, has been given to the Woman's Home Missionary Society of this Conference, as a suitable home, as they expressed it, "in that chain of Homes under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of our Church."

The Deaconess Board have held four meetings in its interest during the year. The home will be dedicated the last of October, free of debt, thoroughly furnished and equipped for its work.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will make appropriations to its support. The Deaconesses will go out to the Churches at the call of the Pastors, and children will be sheltered there until Christian homes may be found for them

And we confidently bespeak for the representatives of this Society and this benevolence, a cordial welcome to your fields of labor as well as your personal sympathy and encouragement in their beneficent work.

We offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Conference highly appreciates the excellent spirit in Christian liberality manifested by Judge J. O. Cunningham and his wife, Mary Cunningham, who, of their own accord, or without solicitation, made the tender of this valuable property for this noble purpose.

ILLINOIS CONFERENCE PLAN FOR CONDUCTING THE COURSE OF STUDY.

To the Illinois Annual Conference:

Your committee, appointed to devise a plan for the more efficient supervision of the Courses of Study, respectfully submit the following report:

1. All members of the four Conference classes, together with all candidates for admission on trial, and all local preachers who are pursuing the courses of study for orders, shall be organized into what shall be known as the School of Theology of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. The direction of this School, and the supervision of the courses of study, shall be placed in the hands of a Board of Instructors and Examiners, who shall be members of the Illinois Annual Conference, consisting of a Dean, a Secretary, and twenty additional members, to be known as the Faculty of the Illinois Conference School of Theology.

3. This Faculty shall be constituted as follows: The Dean shall be elected by the Conference, by ballot, at 11 o'clock of the third day of the Conference session. The other members of the Faculty, except the Secretary, shall be nominated by the Presiding Elders at a special meeting for that purpose, at which the Dean shall be present for consultation, said nomination being subject to confirmation by the Conference, voting upon each name separately, a vote upon any name to be by ballot if demanded by ten members of the Conference. The twenty members thus chosen shall nominate a Secretary, not of their own number, to be approved by the Conference.

4. The tenure of the members of the Faculty shall be indefinite, except as vacancies may occur through death, transfer, resignation or retirement from the effective ranks of the ministry, except that the term of the Dean shall expire at the end of five years, who, however, may be subject to re-election; and provided that a vote by ballot may be demanded on the annual reappointment of the Dean or any other member of the Faculty, by a written petition to that effect being presented to the Presiding Elders, signed by not less than twenty-five members of the Conference.

5. The courses of study shall be divided into five departments, namely: Biblical Theology, Historical Theology, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology and Philosophy, miscellaneous studies being assigned to these departments so as to most evenly distribute the work. The Instructors shall be divided into five sections corresponding to the divisions of the studies, each section to choose a Chairman, who shall have immediate supervision of the work of his section. It shall be the duty of each member of the Faculty to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the candidates in the studies of which he has charge.

6. The Dean and the Chairman of the several sections shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Faculty, by whom the annual program of examinations shall be arranged, and by whom all recommendations concerning the passage or conditioning of candidates shall be made, subject to the rules elsewhere provided; and who shall have power to fill temporarily all vacancies in the Faculty occurring in the interim of the Conference session. Nominations for the permanent filling of such vacancies shall be made by the Presiding Elders in consultation with the Dean

7. The Districts of the Conference shall be formed into three groups, the first of which shall consist of the Jacksonville, West Jacksonville and Quincy Districts; the second, of Bloomington, Decatur and Springfield Districts; the third, of Champaign, Danville and Mattoon Districts. In each of these tri-districts a Theological Institute shall be held each year, commencing on the first Tuesday in May and continuing three days, the place and program for which shall be determined by the Executive Committee, and attendance upon which, for the full time, shall be required of all candidates unless excused by the Dean for sufficient reasons. The Dean of the Faculty shall preside at one of these Institutes, and shall appoint two of the Chairmen of the sections of the Faculty to preside, respectively, at the other two.

8. Examinations for the first half of the year's work shall be had at the said Institutes. The examinations on the second half of the work shall be conducted in each District on the third Tuesday of August for all candidates located in the respective Districts, under the supervision of some member of the Faculty, or other member of the Conference, appointed by the Dean, to whom the several Examiners shall send the examination questions. The written answers to these questions shall be returned under seal to those having charge of the studies, who shall make out the grades and forward the papers with certificates of the grades to the Secretary of the Faculty, who shall file the papers, and make a record of the grades in a book provided for that purpose.

9. The Secretary of the Faculty, on receipt of certificates of grades from the Examiners, shall promptly notify the candidates of the results of their examinations, which notification shall be to the candidate an official certificate of his work. In case any candidate fails to pass in a given study, the Secretary shall report the fact to the Chairman of the section to which the study is assigned, and also to the Dean of the Faculty.

10. The questions at each examination shall be returned with the written answers of the candidate, and each candidate shall be required, before his examination begins, to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

11. The examination questions in each branch shall not be less than twenty or more than thirty. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and the minimum grade upon which a candidate may be passed shall be 70 for Traveling Preachers, and 60 for Local Preachers who are candidates for Orders. Each Examiner in returning grades to the Secretary of the Faculty shall certify that he has made his markings impartially and rigidly upon the answers of the candidate, blanks for which report and certificate shall be furnished.

12. Candidates shall be required to present syllabi of the books to be read, certifying in writing that they prepared them independently, as the result of their own reading, not merely following the table of contents; and the syllabi shall be graded, and the gradings recorded, as in the case of examinations on books to be studied.

13. The Examiners shall be required to send to the Dean of the Faculty copies of all sets of examination questions at least two weeks before the examinations take place; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary, when so requested, to forward to the Dean the examination papers of any candidate, which papers must be returned to the Secretary before the session of the Annual Conference. And it shall be the right and duty of the Dean to insist that the examinations shall be thorough, and that the gradings shall neither work any injustice to the candidate nor extend to him any grace.

14. The Secretary shall bring with him to the seat of the Annual Conference all examination papers and syllabi; and in case any candidate appeals from the markings of the Examiner, the Executive Committee shall investigate the matter, into whose hands shall be given the papers in question. All examination papers shall be destroyed at the close of each Conference session, and no appeal shall be entertained thereafter.

15. No candidate shall be entitled to advanced classification who is delinquent or who has failed to pass in two books to be studied, or three books to be read, or in one to be studied and two to be read; and no candidate shall be entitled to examination on any advanced study until he has brought up all the work in which he is delinquent. In connection with the annual program of examinations, which shall be printed and sent to each candidate within thirty days after the adjournment of Conference, the Secretary of the Faculty shall notify the candidates of their respective delinquencies, if any.

16. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be charged each candidate, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, examination paper, and other necessary expenses of the school. This fee shall be paid to the Secretary (who shall act as Treasurer of the Faculty) within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, on the receipt of which the Secretary shall forward to the candidate a certificate which shall entitle him to all the examinations and other privileges of the School for the year. No money shall be paid out by the Secretary except on the order of the Dean; and the financial accounts of the Secretary shall be audited by the Executive Committee at each session of the Annual Conference.

17. Examinations for delinquents at other than the regular times may be arranged for, if it is thought proper, by the Dean and Chairmen of the sections to which the studies in question belong.

18. On the completion of the entire course of study by a candidate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate covering all his work, signed by the Dean and Secretary of the Faculty.

19. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the Secretary of the Faculty, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for Orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective Districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be required to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Dean when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

20. It shall be the duty of the Dean of the Faculty to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of all candidates for admission on trial, which information he shall lay before the Executive Committee; and it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee, having carefully considered all the information concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the results of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Dean to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another Communion, and of the Executive Committee to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant: and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Executive Committee. To facilitate the work of the Committee in this matter, the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the Dean as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

ORGANIZATION OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

J. T. McFarland, 513 N. Church St., Jacksonville, Dean.
J. J. Dugan, Hillsboro, Secretary.

Below, the letter "A" at the right of a given study indicates that it belongs to the class for admission; the Roman numerals stand for the first, second, third and fourth years; L. P. for local preachers' course. The Arabic numerals following the names of the members of the faculty indicate that they have charge of the subjects of corresponding numbers in the lists of studies assigned to the respective sections. Books whose titles are printed in Italic are the subjects for the examinations at the mid-year Theological Institutes; all others are assigned to the final examinations, to be held on the third Tuesday in August. Essays must be reported to the examiners not later than the first of May; the written sermons not later than the first of August. Syllabi may be submitted at any time during the period to which the books are assigned.

Memoirs.

REV. ELIAS D. WILKIN, D.D.

Rev. Elias D. Wilkin, D.D., was born near Newark, Licking county, Ohio, on September 20, 1830, and died at the Lincoln parsonage, on Monday evening, April 8, 1895. He was of a family of nine children, six sons and three daughters, viz: Andrew J., Elias D., Catharine M., Mary M., Jacob W., Margaret V., Henry O., Milton P., and William A. Of these Mary M., Jacob W., Henry O., and Milton P., survive him. When he was about 15 years of age, the family moved to Crawford county, Illinois, where they settled on a farm.

He began his education beyond the common schools under a private tutor in the home of a Methodist minister, in Hebron, Crawford county, while teaching school. Here, in 1848, under the faithful and earnest presentation of the gospel, he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Up to this time he intended studying law, and perhaps did some reading to that end. But he seemed to be impressed with a duty to preach from the time of his conversion, and all his subsequent efforts in life were directed to the fulfillment of that one duty and purpose. He always, however, retained his admiration for the legal profession, and felt an especial pride in the professional success of two younger lawyer brothers.

He entered McKendree College in 1850, and graduated from that institution in 1856, with the degree of A.B., and in due course received the Master's degree. While pastor at Carlinville, the seat of Blackburn University, a Presbyterian institution, he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from this school.

It will not seem strange to those who knew him that, while at school, his sterling piety and happy disposition made him a favorite with the faculty and his fellow students.

The fall of the year after graduation he accepted a position as professor in the old Marshall Seminary, under the management of the Church, and soon became president of that institution, which he conducted with fair success until the fall of 1860, when he took regular ministerial work in the conference, being stationed at Champaign. He was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference at its session held in Decatur, Illinois, in 1857, Bishop Scott being the presiding bishop, and Vincent Ridgely, secretary.

With the breaking out of the war, he became thoroughly aroused and interested in the Union cause. This took him into the army as chaplain of the historic 21st Illinois Volunteers, known during and since the war as "Grant's Regiment." His zeal in the Union cause was prompted by a patriotism as extensive as our great land, intensified by a deep hatred of the institution of slavery. He therefore had no feeling of tolerance for what he regarded a national sin. His belief in the justice of the Union cause, and his naturally enthusiastic nature made him more than the ordinary non-combatant of the Federal army, and often carried him into the thickest of the fight, as was signally illustrated on his thirty-third birthday, September 20, 1863, the second day of that terrible onslaught at Chickamauga, when he went in advance of the regiment and, seeing the flag hoisted in the distance as a sign of victory, he said, "Come on, boys, we've got them." He was often spoken of by Grand Army boys as "The fighting chaplain." His piety, witty, pathetic and eloquent utterances always captivated the camp fires, and started the old shout of the "boys in blue."

On returning from the war, in 1865, he resumed the regular work of the ministry in his conference, and served with great acceptability the following charges, viz.: Charleston; Normal; Springfield, Second Church; Mattoon; Pana; Paris; Champaign; Vermilion; Danville, First Church; Carlinville, and Lincoln, covering a period of nearly thirty-eight years. His ministry was truly effective, and in his death he realized the oft-expressed desire of "dying in the harness."

He was twice married: first to Miss Harriet Mayo, of Paris, Illinois, on December 20, 1857, who died on October 31, 1881; second, to Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Palestine, Crawford county, Illinois, who survives him. They made his home one of sunshine and joy. He was a most loyal son and brother—devoted to his father and mother, and deeply affectionate toward his brothers and sisters, and they in turn loved him and always listened to his wise counsel.

Physically he was strong; mentally, clear and thoroughly practical. He was a close student, and in one sense a lover of books, but he read and studied for practical ends. His whole nature was interested in the work of the ministry—all that he did and planned to do, was with the single purpose of advancing the cause of Christ. He was eminently Scriptural and practical in his preaching. He loved to preach, scarcely ever refusing when an opportunity was afforded. The predominating characteristic of this man whom we so tenderly love, was his sincere earnestness and single purpose, as was evinced in his planning in the interest of his charge just about four hours before his death. His great desire was that this, his fifth year as pastor of the Church at Lincoln, should be his best in soul-saving and the strengthening of the Church. His piety was such as one might expect from its early history—a piety breathed from the lips and caught from the beaming countenance of an excellent mother. It partook of the warmth of his nature, coming out in unaffected utterance, coloring his common thoughts and feeling, and giving strength and elevation to all his virtues. Religion in different individuals manifests itself in different forms. In him it shone forth peculiarly in faith, filial trust and gratitude. His faith in God was unbounded, and therefore never seemed to undergo a momentary eclipse. Much as he saw of the miseries of life, no doubt of the merciful purposes of God crossed his mind. Some ray of divine goodness streamed forth from the darkest trials and events. Congenial with this cheerful faith was the spirit of gratitude. As the magnet searches out and gathers around itself the scattered ore with which it has affinity, so his spirit selected and attracted instinctively to itself the more cheerful views of Providence. Thanks were the common breathings of his soul.

His influence comes over the mind like the tranquilizing breath of spring. Brother Wilkin began to fail on the Friday preceding his death. Sunday he was feeling badly and did not go to his church. In late years he has been subject to spells of indigestion, which after several days would pass and he would again be comparatively well. Monday evening he grew worse, and at about 9 o'clock he ascended the stairway to his room, and, upon taking his seat in the arm-chair, he threw up his hands, "and he was not, for God took him." His funeral was held in our churches at Lincoln and Paris. At Lincoln on Thursday morning, April 11, at 10 o'clock, Brothers J. B. Wolfe, the presiding elder of Bloomington district; W. N. McElroy, presiding elder of Springfield district; C Galeener, presiding elder of Decatur district, James Miller, J. A. Kumler, E. B. Randle, President W. H. Wilder, R. M. Tinnon, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the city, and the writer shared in the services. At Paris on Friday, April 12, at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. Messrs. Robert Stephens, presiding elder of Mattoon district; T. A. Cannady, W. H. Webster, S. H. Whitlock, S. W. Thornton, John W. Miller, and Capt. Ed. Harlan, of Marshall, and the writer shared in the services.

The pall bearers at Lincoln were: Brothers A. C. Byerly, presiding elder of Champaign district; M. W. Everhart, R. G. Hobbs, C. Galeener, C. F. McKown, Geo. A. Scott, of our conference, and J. S. Wrightnour and T. F. Weaver, pastors of the Baptist and Christian Churches of this city respectively. At Paris eight members of the 21st Regiment, Illinois Volunteers, of which Dr. Wilkin had been chaplain, acted as pall bearers. Members of the Grand Army of the Republic and Sons of Veterans attended in large delegations at both services.

The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Paris, awaiting the glorious resurrection.

REV. EDWARD RUTLEDGE.

Rev. Edward Rutledge was born in Augusta county, Va., March 11, 1818, and united with the Church August 20, 1832. In October, 1834, with the family of his widowed mother, he came to Illinois, settling near Table Grove, in Fulton county. Here, in 1840, he married Miss Leah Harris, who died March 18, 1849. Early in 1850, he was licensed to preach in Belleville, Ill., and joined the Illinois Conference in September, 1850. He served the following charges: Greenville, Columbus, (while at this place he married Miss Julia Fergus, July 8, 1852,) Scotsville, Havana, Pulaski, Greenfield, New Hartford, Monticello, Vermilion, Astoria and Bath. He then, in 1860, raised Co. H, 3d Reg. Ill. Cav., and was in August mustered in as their captain at Camp Butler. Through exposure to rain and sleet in the Ozark Mountains, he was much afflicted, resigned and returned home. Soon he was so far recovered as to accept from Gov. Yates the chaplaincy of the 61st Reg. Ill. Inf., with which he served until again his health failing he was forced to resign.

Afterward his work in the Conference was Ashland, Springfield and Mason City. He was an earnest, successful preacher, faithful to the temporal and spiritual interests of the Church and never satisfied with less than the fruits of a genuine revival. Having never recovered from the disabilities of army life, he asked for a superannuated relation to the Conference which he retained until he died at Yates Center, Kan., December 28, 1894. Although a great sufferer for years past, his end was peace: "They thought him dying when he slept, and sleeping when he died." He was seven years younger than his brother George of precious memory, and two and a half older than Wm. J. Rutledge, chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, who is the youngest and last survivor of eleven children. He left a widow, whose model record is well known, and "whose praise is in all the Churches."

JAMES R. IVINS.

Rev. James R. Ivins was born at Bowen, Hancock county, Ill., April 25, 1866, and died at Camp Point, Ill., at sunrise, Sunday, January 27, 1895. Reared in a Methodist home, he was converted and joined the Church at the early age of eleven years. His religious experience was very clear and bright, and his testimonies and exhortations were so zealous and forceful that many were impressed that the Lord was laying his hand on him for a special work. Like many others who have been commissioned as heralds of the cross, his call to the ministry caused him a severe struggle, but when he yielded his consecration was complete and his zeal for the work became a consuming fire. He was licensed to preach in 1886, and it was soon manifest that he possessed both grace and gifts in an unusual degree, and gave promise of eminent usefulnes in the pulpit.

In 1889 he was admitted to the Illinois Conference and appointed to the Camden Circuit where he spent two very successful years and proved himself a zealous soulwinner and faithful pastor. During this pastorate, on Christmas Eve., 1890, he was married to Mary E. Glasgow, whose memoir was read in Conference last year, she having entered into rest about eight months before him.

And the words of the poet were verified, that "Death never takes one alone, but two,

Whenever he enters in at a door,
Under roof of gold, or roof of thatch,
He always leaves it upon the latch,
And comes again ere the year is o'er."

In 1891 he was appointed to Camp Point, where his pulpit power, pastoral tact and administrative ability, secured large results in the way of a gracious revival followed by the erection of a beautiful new Church and parsonage. During his second year in Camp Point, his health failed so that he was obliged to desist from labor during the summer, and to ask for a supernumerary relation at the Conference of 1893.

During about three months of the following winter he did some supply work and for three weeks he engaged with marvelous energy in revival services. As if fearful that some little remnant of his strength might run to waste, he broke it like a box of precious ointment at the Master's feet and freely gave him all. Truly he might have said: "The zeal of thine house has eaten me up."

In February, by the advice of his physician, he sought relief in change of climate and went to Florida, where he spent three months as pastor of the M. E. Church at Tarpon Springs. Returning in May to his home, in Camp Point, he arrived a few hours too late to see his beloved wife alive. Under this crushing blow, with broken health and broken heart, he was most marvelously sustained. He leaned wholly upon God, and was not disappointed, for he found the promised "grace sufficient". In the months that followed his patience and cheerfulness won all hearts. He was more thoughtful of others than of himself, and when his strength was sufficient, he was in attendance at all the Church services and prayed and exhorted with all the fervor of his days of health. He was full of hope and courage to the last, and had entered vigorously on the studies of the fourth year, hoping to be ordained Elder and receive an appointment at this Conference.

He wanted to live for the work, and for his two motherless little boys, but the last foe had no terror for him, when told that death was near he said, "If this is death, I see no reason to dread it". In his sufferings and death were manifested the same power and triumph which marked his ministerial life.

"'Tis ever wrong to say a good man dies," but "God's finger touched him and he slept".

MRS. RACHEL H. MOORE.

Rachel Handley Hynes was born in Daviess county, Kentucky, February 26, 1822. In 1836 her father, Samuel T. Hynes, removed with his family to St. Clair county, Illinois, and settled in Union Grove, near Lebanon, where, on September 13, 1842, she was married to Jesse H. Moore, to whom she was a devoted and loving helpmate in all his varied positions of citizen, educator, preacher, soldier and statesman. She was the mother of ten children, six of whom survive her. To them she was unusually self-sacrificing, never wearying in her efforts to lead them on to a higher life. Being of Methodist parentage she became a member of the Methodist Church in early childhood. Her uncle, Samuel H. Thompson, was one of the most prominent of the early Methodist preachers of Illinois. In 1861 she, with her husband, removed to Decatur, Ill., where he assumed the pastorate of the only Methodist Church then in the city. Her husband afterward became widely known as General Moore, having gone into the war of the rebellion as colonel of the 115th Illinois Volunteer Infantry. While he was serving his country in her hour of peril, Mrs. Moore, with a heart full of patriotism, took up alone the great and responsible care of her large family. Her husband died July 11, 1883, at Callao, Peru, while serving as United States Consul at that place. She returned from Peru to Decatur bowed down with grief over the loss of her companion, with whom she had journeyed over forty years. For several years just prior to death she was debarred by illness from attending public worship, but she spent much time with her Bible and other religious literature.

She spent her last years with her eldest daughter, Mrs. George R. Steel, at the old homestead in Decatur, where, on the evening of November 26, 1894, she peacefully passed away, cheerful and conscious to the last and eager to greet those who stood expectant on the other shore. In many respects she was a remarkable woman, devoted to her home, her church and her country, manifesting a personal interest in the veterans of the late war, who in turn revered her. Her funeral was held at the First M. E. Church, Decatur, Rev. D. F. Howe officiating, assisted by Rev. R. G. Hobbs of Grace Church.

MRS. LUCY J. PHILLIPS.

Lucy Jane Dungan was born in Mercer county, Kentucky, February 10th, 1832, and died at her home in Jacksonville, Illinois, April 11, 1895. She was the second daughter of Rev. Richard J. Dungan, of Kentucky. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when a girl in her teens and maintained her Christian character until the end of her life. She was married to Rev. F. W. Phillips, October, 1853, in Washington county, Kentucky. Her husband being a Methodist preacher she entered at once into full sympathy with his work, and shared with him during all the years of their married life, the toils and sacrifices as well as the joys and triumphs of the itinerant ministry. Coming to Illinois in 1864, they soon afterward became identified with the Illinois Annual Conference and served the following charges: Mattoon, Springfield, First Church; Jacksonville, Centenary, twice, and Danville District. In 1874 her husband having been appointed as Superintendent of the State Institution for the Blind, she became the matron of the Institution, and served in that capacity for sixteen years—a responsible trust which she discharged with sacred fidelity and patient, conscientious care. In one circumstance at least, it would seem she was particularly fortunate; and that was her life-long association with Methodist preachers. It may be said without unwarrantable assumption that as a class there are no better people in the world than Methodist preachers. If this be so, how favored was her lot, for her earthly life on every side was bounded by relatives in the Methodist ministry. She was the daughter of a Methodist preacher, the wife of a Methodist preacher, the sister of a Methodist preacher, and the mother of a Methodist preacher. On the right hand and on the left, behind, before, her whole life was girded with a cordon of ministerial kin; so that it is no wonder that she was ardently attached to the Methodist Church. It could hardly be otherwise, but while her attachment to her own church was strong, it was not bigoted or narrow; her sympathies were broad enough to extend to Christians of every name. In fact, she could love Christians in other churches all the better because she was so true and loyal to her own church. Her religious life was very quiet and undemonstrative, but nevertheless steady and consistent. It was controlled by a fixed purpose rather than by the uncertain moods and impulses of the passing hour. She had strength and force of character to make her influence felt on the right side wherever she went. The elements of her character were of the solid and substantial kind. Nothing of the frivolous or giddy found a place in her composition. The structure of her character was built to stand. Her qualities were such as wear and improve by acquaintance. She must have been long and intimately known to be fully appreciated. The best people were her friends and the friendships she made were strong and lasting. She was hospitable and kind, ever ready to extend help to the needy. She was not only a mother to her own children, but she knew how to act a mother's part in the fostering care of orphans, of which she gave proof in more instances than one. She had a happy way of looking up strangers who came to church, becoming acquainted with them and bidding them welcome to the house of God. She was punctual and regular in her attendance upon the means of grace so long as health permitted. Her last illness was severe and protracted, but in it all she was patient till the end came, and she was transferred to the home above, whither her husband had preceded her seven years before. She leaves three sons, R. M., of Yates Center, Kansas; Rev. W. S., of the Illinois Conference; and Dr. G. H. Phillips, of Pawnee, Oklahoma Territory, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Mary Hinchee, of Little Rock, Arkansas. She also leaves one sister in Kentucky, Mrs.

Conway, and two brothers, Rev. George W. Dungan, of the Illinois Conference, and Mr. E. K. Dungan, of Jacksonville, Illinois, besides a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. Her three sons and two brothers were with her at the time of her decease. Her funeral services were held at Centenary Church, April 13, Rev. W. A. Smith preaching the sermon, assisted in the service by Dr. W. F. Short and the writer, the latter reading the memoir.

MRS. ANN GOHEEN AKERS.

Ann Goheen Akers was born in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, October 3, 1807, and died at her home in Jacksonville, Ill., March 13, 1895. Mrs. Akers was a noble woman. She came of good stock. Her mother was a typical old-time Methodist saint, in spirit, in manners and in dress. One brother, an eminent physician, was a pioneer missionary to Africa, two were in the ministry, one, Rev. Maberry Goheen, was for a long time a leading member of the Baltimore Conference. She was married to the Rev. Peter Akers, D.D. in May, 1846. In coming into the home of Dr. Akers she assumed very grave responsibilities, for her husband already had a large family in which she was at once installed as queen of the household. One can readily see what a difficult, delicate situation that was, but bravely and nobly did she respond to its demands, for she brought to it such intelligent oversight, such rare tact and prudence, such motherly kindness as not only to inspire the confidence and respect but also to win the love of every member of the household.

To the children she was a mother, indeed, and to her husband she was a helpmeet, indeed, a fitting companion of a great and good man. It is sometimes said that real marriages are made in Heaven, and surely this was, for it proved a most happy and fortunate union. Together they possessed elements of character that harmonized and balanced. They were sufficiently alike and unlike for each to serve as a counterpoise and complement to the other, so they were not only joined in wedlock, they were mated. Not only in the home, but in the community and in the church and everywhere she moved with an easy, quiet dignity, and a cheeriness of manner that won all hearts. She was converted and joined the M. E. Church when about fourteen years of age, so that her spiritual life extended beyond the allotted three score years and ten, which is the prescribed limit of our natural life. As a Christian woman she possessed some sterling traits of character worthy of consideration and imitation. One was her unselfish devotion to the welfare of others. She seemed to forget herself in the interest she had in serving her family, her friends and the church. In this respect she reflected much of the spirit of the Master, "who pleased not Himself," and "who came not to be ministered unto but to minister." And along with this was that unaffected modesty that adorned her life. She was the farthest removed from that bold obtrusiveness, that noisy self-assertion so common in the world. She avoided notoriety, she never aspired to public life, and without a particle of bitterness or jealousy toward those of her sisters who feel called to a wider sphere, she for herself preferred to tread the more quiet walks of life.

And how discreet she was in word and deed. How careful she was of the reputation of others. "The law of kindness was on her tongue" as well as in her heart. No foolish, idle gossip, no malicious tattling marred the purity of her speech.

Another trait was her remarkable equinimity and self-poise. She had a steadiness of purpose and an evenness of disposition that saved her from the vacillating course, the ups-and-downs and ins-and-outs, that characterize so many. She was kind and conciliatory, but firm and uncompromising in matters of principle. She was cheerful without indulging in undue mirth or levity. She was serious without being sad: she never gave way to moping melancholy. She had sunshine in her soul and sunshine in her face. She had a gentle and benignant expression of countenance that was always winning. Her course preserved an even tenor, her life spun an even thread. If she had no rapturous joy, she had no fits of abject depression. If she had no mountain height experiences, she had, on the other hand, no ghastly declensions. If she never walked amid the stars, she never drabbled her white robes in the mire.

She was faithful in all the relations of life: faithful to her family, faithful to her church, faithful to her God. No one who knew her doubted for a moment the sincerity or the depth of her piety. She died as she lived, in the faith of Jesus. Her dying testimony to her daughter was that she would soon be with her sainted husband in the better land.

MRS. JULIA LEMON.

Julia, daughter of John and Margaret Clothier, of Berryville, Va., was born May 7, 1807. Her father being a Quaker and her mother an Episcopalian, she was surrounded in early life by religious influences. She was educated at an Episcopalian Academy.

When about eighteen years of age she went, out of curiosity, to a Camp-meeting, and listened for the first time to a sermon from a Methodist preacher. She was converted shortly after and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1831 she was married to W. D. Lemon, M.D., and in 1835 they commenced their work in the Methodist itinerancy. From that time until 1856, with the exception of three years that Dr. Lemon was Presiding Elder of Morgantown District, W. Va., Conference, they labored in the Pittsburg Conference. In 1856 they were transferred to the Illinois Conference.

After the death of her husband, in 1882, Mrs. Lemon made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Fackler, in Astoria, Ill. From thence she passed to the Heavenly home, Jan. 13, 1895.

Mrs. Lemon was a remarkable person. From the human standpoint, the adverse surroundings of her earlier Christian career won her a place among heroic women. Friends strongly opposed her becoming a Methodist, but she pursued her chosen course with meekness and patience, and ultimately had the pleasure of seeing all the members of the family, except her father, become devoted workers in the Methodist Episcopal Church. She bravely encountered the hardships and surmounted the difficulties incident to their early circuits, and cheered her husband in the performance of his arduous duties.

Her intellectual ability was above the average. While Dr. Lemon's health was frail for several years, so that he was unable to study the books in the Conference course in addition to traveling circuits, Mrs. Lemon read the books, making abstracts of them, and by mastering these and attending to her explanations, he passed the examinations with credit. She pursued the Chautauqua course for two years after she was seventy-five years old, but failing eyesight prevented her completing it.

She was a beautiful Christian. Her adorning was "the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit." In public she was modest and retiring, but in doing personal work she was a power for God. While her husband was successful as a preacher she spent much time in secret prayer for Divine blessing upon his labors. She was the power behind the throne in his ministry. She trusted fully in God's providence, believing that all things work together for good. Her last days were peacefully spent. She dwelt much upon the memories of her earlier life and the love of Jesus, and calmly awaited the time of her departure. After a few days of sickness she dropped into an unconscious slumber and her spirit returned to God who gave it.

Many rise up and call her blessed.

MRS. MARY W. ATKINSON.

The widow of the late Rev. Charles Atkinson of the Illinois Conference, has gone to join the companion of many years of faithful toils.

The daughter of Alexander Oliver, she was born in 1814, in Miami County, Ohio. Converted at the age of sixteen she never faltered in her Christian life all the way through her eighty years. Married in 1839, in Pulaski, Ill., to the above named, she was his faithful help-meet in labors abundant on the pioneer fields of the old Illinois Conference until the fall of the memorable 1861, when her husband heard the call of his country and went to the field.

As her pastor in the last year of her life, I saw her often, and found her with slowly failing senses, but with heart aglow with the faith that had sustained her through the years. It was good to hear her tell of the revival triumphs of their ministry and to note the brightening eye as she anticipated meeting again the loved ones long gone before.

On the 14th of January, 1895, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Rankin, in Ontario, California, she fell asleep.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Lay Electoral Conference

HELD AT

JACKSONVILLE, ILL., SEPT. 13, 1895.

The Lay Electoral Conference met at State Street Presbyterian Church, at 9 o'clock Friday morning, September 13, 1895, and was opened with prayer by Dr. De Motte.

Hon. W. G. Cochran, Speaker of the House of Representatives of Illinois, was unanimously elected temporary chairman, and C. E. Gullett, of Lincoln, secretary.

On motion of Dr. De Motte, the Chair appointed a committee on credentials, namely: Dr. De Motte, of Bloomington; Messrs. Rapp, of Jacksonville, and Towse, of Carlinville.

Pending the report of this committee, Chairman Cochran proposed an old-fashioned Methodist experience meeting. The proposal was received with a hearty chorus of amens, and the chairman gave the first testimony. Others followed in rapid succession, verses of song rose from different parts of the room, and the greatest enthusiasm and joy abounded during the continuance of this service.

The committee on credentials reported the attendance by districts, as follows, the names of all being in the possession of the secretary of the committee:

Bloomington District	16
Champaign District	22
Danville District	16
Decatur District	18
Jacksonville District	19
Mattoon District	17
Quincy District	22
Springfield District	23
West Jacksonville District	21
Total	174

On motion of Dr. De Motte the temporary organization was made permanent.

R. E. Hamill, of Marshall, moved that a committee of three be appointed to inform Bishop Joyce that the Lay Conference was organized and ready for business. R. E. Hamill, of Marshall; H. B. Prentice, of Springfield, and Milton Johnson, of Decatur, were appointed.

R. E. Hamill moved that a committee on resolutions consisting of one from each district be appointed. Carried.

The chair then appointed the committee on resolutions, as follows: Messrs. Cruikshank, of Bloomington district; Wisegarver, of Champaign district; Tuttle, of Danville district; Girndol, of Decatur district; Hall, of Jacksoville district; Rominger, of Mattoon district; Hoyt, of Quincy district; Jones, of Springfield district; English, of West Jacksonville district.

It was decided to proceed to the nomination of candidates for the General Conference, and to allow no nominating speeches.

Messrs. Hutchinson, of Waverley, and Stabler, of Camp Point, were appointed tellers, to assist the secretary in counting the ballots.

The following were placed in nomination as candidates to General Conference: H. G. Whitlock, Jacksonville; H. B. Prentice, Springfield; Milton Johnson, Decatur; L. H. Kerrick, Bloomington; J. O. Cunningham, Urbana; James DeWitt, Quincy; Philip G. Gillett, Jacksonville; R. E. Hamill, Marshall.

On motion of Mr. Hutchinson it was decided that on the first ballot each delegate must vote for two candidates, the number to be chosen.

A motion that the first ballot be an informal one was lost.

Dr. P. G. Gillett offered resolutions committing the church to all efforts for the suppression of crime and the use of intoxicating liquors, and favoring the admission of women as delegates to General Conference, with clearly defined legislation as to their eligibility for admission. Referred.

The first ballot for lay delegates to General Conference resulted as follows: Total ballots cast, 173; necessary to a choice, 87:

H. G. Whitlock	46
H. B. Prentice	16
Milton Johnson	38
L. H. Kerrick	42
J. O. Cunningham	120
James DeWitt	23
P. G. Gillett	33
R. E. Hamill	22
Dr. DeMotte	2
J. W. Wilkin	1
Abraham Mann	1
J. R. Jones	1

Joseph O. Cunningham was declared elected and a second ballot was ordered.

During the count of the first ballot, Dr. Joseph R. Harker, President of Illinois Female College, addressed the Conference in the interests of that institution.

W. A. Towse offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, that this Electoral Conference has heard with much pleasure the statement of Dr. Joseph R. Harker, narrating the prosperity of the Illinois Female College and congratulates the church on the same, and we pledge the members of the Conference to coöperate with Dr. Harker in the further good work of the college.

The second ballot for lay delegate resulted as follows: Total 173; necessare to a choice, 87:

H. G. Whitlock	56
H. B. Prentice	8
Milton Johnson	33
L. H. Kerrick	33
James DeWitt	11
P. G. Gillett	21
R. E. Hamill	10
Richard Yates	1

There was no election on this ballot,

Dr. Gillett, R. E. Hamill, H. B. Prentice and James DeWitt withdrew their names, and the third ballot was ordered.

During the count of the second ballot, Bishop William Taylor addressed the conference and sang.

The third ballot resulted as follows: Total vote, 170; necessary to a choice, 86:

H. G. Whitlock	93
L. H. Kerrick	36
Milton Johnson	29
R. E. Hamill	4
P. G. Gillett	5
H. B. Prentice	1
James DeWitt	1
Richard Yates	1

Judge H. G. Whitlock, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared elected the second delegate.

On motion of Dr. DeMotte it was decided that the two candidates who had received the next highest votes throughout the balloting should be elected alternates. This was done by acclamation. L. H. Kerrick was chosen alternate for J. O. Cunningham and Milton Johnson alternate for Judge Whitlock.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read by Chairman Cochran, and adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That we hereby express our hearty endorsement of every effort of the M. E. Church to suppress crime and the use of intoxicating liquors and recommend a continuance of the systematic method of creating public sentiment among all classes against these dangerous evils.

Resolved, That we favor the admission of women as delegates to the General Conference and favor such legislation as will clearly define their eligibility to admission.

Resolved. That this Lay Conference recommend that the lay membership be represented by delegates in the Annual Conference.

G. W. ENGLISH, Chairman.

J. C. WISEGARVER, Secretary.

Resolved, That the lay delegates in the Lay Conference assembled, urge that in every charge in the Illinois Conference the pastor shall use his influence to establish an Epworth League.

J. T. GALFORD.

Moved that it is the sense of this Electoral Conference that lay delegates have equal representation with the ministers in the General Conference.

A. J. BOMAN.

Judge Whitlock, J. O. Cunningham, L. H. Kerrick and Milton Johnson addressed the Conference in response to calls from the delegates.

The Conference voted to visit the Illinois Female College at the adjournment of the afternoon session.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the members of the State Street Presbyterian Church for the use of their handsome edifice.

Adjourned to meet at 3:30 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Lay Electoral Conference assembled at 3:30 o'clock in State Street Presbyterian church, Hon. W. G. Cochran in the chair.

The session was opened with prayer by Chairman Cochran.

Dr. De Motte offered the following resolution as supplementary to the action on the same subject taken at the morning session:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Lay Electoral Conference that the equality of Ministerial and Lay representation in the General Conference should be effected by a reduction in the number of Ministerial delegates, rather than by an increase in the number of Lay delegates.

N. M. Rigg sang, by invitation of the Chairman, "Christ Is All."

President W. H. Wilder, D. D., briefly addressed the Conference in the interests of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

The Chair ordered a collection for the purpose of incorporating the minutes in the Ministerial Conference minutes.

Bishop Joyce and the members of the Ministerial Conference entered for the fraternal meeting of the two Conferences, and the Lay Electoral Conference adjourned without day.

W. G. COCHRAN, Chairman.

C. E. GULLETT, Secretary.

V.

Presiding Elders' Reports.

Bloomington District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—Thankful to Almighty God for His presence in and blessing upon our work during the year, we make this our third annual report of Bloomington district. We call your attention to—

I. Changes—There have been a few changes in appointments in the interim of conferences. Charles Baughman, who was appointed to Waynesville, after almost a half year of able preaching, in view of obstacles he did not create and over which he had no control, and in view of his physical disability to endure the exposure of travel on the circuit, asked to be relieved in hope of being able to aid in revival meetings in the larger towns. In the circumstances in the course he desired was thougnt to be the only one to be adopted, and R. S. Haney, who was admitted on trial last fall and left without an appointment to attend school, was appointed to the vacancy, where he has done good work.

A. L. Wood, after serving five months of growing interest on the Bloomington Circuit, was compelled to ask relief from further ministerial labors on account of a severe attack of tonsilitis. A. M. Campbell was transferred from Leroy Circuit to take his place, where he rendered good service. R. B. Hubbard, who was left last fall without an appointment to attend school, finished out the year on Leroy Circuit and from whom good reports will be made.

Thus in all the changes we have been favored in securing the employment of conference preachers. We refer you to—

II. What has been Wrought in Material Interests—From the beginning to the close of the year the stringency in money matters grew more oppressive, and we have been confronted with more difficult financial problems than we have ever before encountered. In the midst of a profusion of such difficulties God has led us into a large measure of success.

1. There has been raised for church and parsonage improvements and the payment of old debts over twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). We prefer to give an itemized account of each charge in this almost phenominal achievement, but the time given us for this report will not permit us to do so. In Bloomington, Grace church has raised in negotiable interest-bearing notes and cash $12,000 to pay the long standing and embarrassing debt on the church building. First church has secured for improvement and debt paying $4,000, which will be increased to $6,000. This amount has been secured largely by voluntary contributions.

Delavan has completed a new parsonage, beautiful and with modern improvements, at a paid cost of $3,000. Kenney has improved the church at teat place at an expense of $1,500.

Mineir Circuit at Armington bought a new lot, to which the old church was moved and repaired at an expense of $600. This was necessary to save the society from utter extinction, efforts for which removal had been made for years. Here we mention the name of Brother Charles Griffin. In order to remove the church to a proper location, it was necessary to cut down a large row of grown shade trees that stood across his beautiful home place, then gave liberally of his money and time to promote the enterprise. Mineir church has been improved. Arrowshith Circuit has improved its churches and paid old debts to the amount of $400.

These are a part of the improvements made and debts paid during the year.

2. Our benevolent collections have suffered from hard times. A few charges have increased while others have fallen below their collections of last year. "Debt paying day" was generally observed throughout the district and our preachers have labored diligently to secure the amounts assigned them to raise. The work of domestic missions has not been neglected; and while our collections for that work may not show so well in our statistical tables, we have spent more money for that work than will be reported. First church, Bloomington, has spent during the year for its mission over $300 and the Grace church $150, making a total of $450.

Special attention ought to be given another year to the organization of auxiliaries to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies. No charge ought to be thought of as doing well for benevolence that has not one or more such organizations.

3. Preachers' salaries have been considered first in importance in our financial schemes.

Our statistical tables will show that the deficit on these claims was $1,395 in 1892-93. With an increase of allowance in 1893-4 the deficit was only $721, and with a further increase of allowance in 1894-5 the deficit was only $427. A number of charges have paid up in full this year, but I think there will be an increase of deficit over last year. Te raise the salaries we have resorted to all the means we knew. We have had pastors to assist each other in a few cases, we have employed that lex non scripta of Methodism that pertains to adjourned quarterly conferences, and during the closing month we have traveled almost constantly throughout the district and preached and lectured from four to seven times a week.

We call attention to—

III. Religious Organization and Achievements—1. The Sunday schools have sustained their usual interest and effectiveness in spiritual instruction and influence, and while a number of them have grown numerically in the attendance of pupils, new schools have been organized.

2. The Epworth League continues to achieve its noble work well. There have been a number of new chapters organized and the membership increased by several hundred. Two Endeavor societies have been changed into Epworth Leagues—the one at Grace church, Bloomington, the other at Downs. The changes, especially in Grace church, are a marked and agreeable surprise. We highly esteem the Endeavor, but not as an organization for us, and believe that every young people's society in the Methodist Episcopal church should be the League.

3. The class meeting is successfully maintained in a few charges and, where properly observed, has its usually spiritual influence upon the church. The Epworth League has largely taken its place and though a potential factor in advancing the prosperity of our people the League ought not yet to supplant the class meeting.

4. The prayer meeting still holds its high place of honor and power in the district and no charge is considered prosperous where it is not held.

5. Preaching the gospel is the great instrumental means for advancing the religious intelligence and spiritual life of the people. Wherever it has been employed it has proven as of old "the power of God unto salvation."

All these means as employed by the church have not been employed in vain in the Bloomington District. During the year with other good results there have been 927 conversions and 1,044 accessions to the church. Among the more prominent revivals were those at First church, Bloomington, where there were 160 conversions and 224 accessions to the church; Lincoln, 98 conversions and 76 accessions; Clinton, 86 conversions and 66 accessions; Easton, 85 conversions and 62 accessions; Green Valley, 50 conversions and 40 accessions; Hastsburg, 65 conversions and 64 accessions to the church.

In this work we have sought expansion rather than contraction, and Hastsburg, with its intelligent and prosperous membership, is a new appointment made since last conference. Except for the hard times we could organize two new self-supporting circuits within the district.

To secure these and other good results the preachers have encountered a variety of embarrassments. Some of them have ridden miles every day for weeks, through mud and storm to conduct revivals; others have employed the bicycle, and through dust and over sand, have striven to secure their benevolent collections; others have prayed all night long for light in the solution of difficult problems that were pressing upon them. To their prayers and tears God responded and upon their labors came His manifest approval and blessing. Whatever embarrassments have fallen in our way or sore conflicts engaged us, our labors, in some respects, as it seems to us, have been crowned with phenomenal success, and to the praise of God's grace, we have been enabled to pursue that process of spiritual chemistry by which the light is taken from the face of darkest clouds and strength from the bosom of the fiercest avalanche.

Death has come to only one of our number—Joseph Montgomery—an honored superannuate member of our conference. We spent a pleasant evening with him about a week before his death, when he was in his usual health, and deeply regret the failure of a telegram to reach us in time to attend his funeral services. We would be pleased to note many good things of our boyhood pastor and friend, but as a memoir of his will be read before the Conference, we make this reference. As may be expected of as good a man as he, surely his death was "as one who wrapt the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

We do not rejoice so much in the deeds we have performed and work accomplished as in the fact assured us, that "our names are recorded in heaven." Amidst the confusion of political excitement we have remembered that we are not redeemed with silver and gold, but by the precious blood of Jesus, and during the year the Lord has saved us, saved us from partisan strife and political bitterness, saved us from sin, and the star of our hope has risen to a higher altitude and shines more brightly than ever before. J. B. WOLFE.

Champaign District.

Fourth annual report of the Presiding Elder of Champaign District to the Illinois Conference, September 16, 1896:

This has been the most difficult year of my administration, and one of the most difficult of my ministry, for aggressive Christian work. The almost total failure of the oat crop, the unprecedentedly low prices of farm products, and the widespread fear of a financial revolution, have operated to paralyze business and drive into retirement the circulating medium of the country. Money has been scarce and hard to get. As a consequence the total deficiency in pastors' salaries will be the largest, I think, ever reported from the Champaign District, where the rule has been to pay the preachers in full. There will be a corresponding decrease, I fear, in our benevolent report. The terrible condition of the roads and the stormy weather which continued through the entire season made it almost impossible to hold revival meetings, especially on the circuits. Nevertheless, we will report something over seven hundred conversions in the district. The most important revivals were at Mansfield, Mahomet and Rantoul, where the conversions reached over a hundred each at the two former places and near that at Rantoul. We have dedicated three new churches during the year; one at Enterprise appointment, on the Cisco work, a very neat country church costing near $1.800; one at Savoy costing $3,200, and one at Mahomet costing about $6,000. These churches were all dedicated free of debt. We have also completed new parsonages at Rankin, Sadorus, Savoy and Weldon. All these but the last are free of debt. The final payment on the comfortable parsonage at Ludlow will be made within a few weeks after Conence. Some improvements have been made also on churches and parsonages. The preachers have all been on duty during the year. No one has broken down or had serious illness. The Epworth League has grown in favor with our people and has made material progress. We had the most enthusiasic and profitable conference ever held in the district. Plans were perfected and put into operation for an aggressive campaign all along the line the coming year. We have given special attention to the circulation of our literature, and the subscriptions to our periodicals will, I think, show an increase over last year.

We have emphasized the cause of education, and I have sought publicly and privately to direct the attention of prospective students to our own schools and colleges. I am impressed that this will be the imperative duty of the preachers in the future, in view of the overshadowing influence of great and growing universities, of a secular character, which threaten the very existence of the denominational college. Our preachers must be student hunters and money getters if the prestige and influence of our church schools are to be maintained.

It affords me great pleasure to report that the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage has completed the first year of its existence with a record gratifying to its benefactors and full of promise to its friends. It was formally dedicated and opened early in the month of last October, since which every day has been full of mercy and good works. The Deaconess' work has been only experimental thus far, but affords promise of great usefulness when it shall be fully established. The wisdom and the practicability of the orphanage feature have been justified from the beginning. We have sheltered and befriended twenty-two homeless children during the year, rescuing some of them from the depths of degradation and starvation. We have placed many of them in respectable Christian homes and have at present in the institution a dozen or more little waifs, who are tenderly mothered and cared for until homes can be found for them. The home has been supported this year by faith. The matron, Mrs. C. F. Woodruff, a most competent and consecrated Christian woman, serves without salary, her reward being the promise of the Master, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto these, ye have done it unto me." Kind friends have from time to time sent in money, and donations of various kinds, so that the children have never gone to bed hungry and no debt has been incurred by the management. The Epworth League of Champaign District furnished the dining room, at a cost of over one hundred dollars, and have recently put in a telephone, at a cost of twenty-three dollars. A little circular sent out to Sunday school children by myself, asking each to contribute a nickle, brought in enough money to buy a cow, and a good brother gave us a horse and a new set of harness. This is the way our necessities have been supplied. When we want anything we ask for it. We ask the Lord, and if it doesn't come in that way, then we ask the people, and thus far no good thing has been withheld from us. I commend the Cunningham Home to the Illinois Conference, whose ward it is, asking for it your prayers, your encouragement and your liberal support.

In submitting this brief report, I feel that it does not do justice to the magnitude and importance of the work, but I have had neither time nor heart to write at length. Some of the brethren know something of the difficulties under which I have labored for half the year. Perhaps it is proper that all should know. For six months the shadow of death has been over my home, and it was never darker than now. I will not obtrude upon the Conference any recital of what I and my family have suffered during these months of anxiety and expense. The imagination and hearts of this company of brothers will supply what I cannot relate. This much is due; however, the promise, "My grace shall be sufficient for thee," has stood the test. We are "passing through deep waters: they have not yet overflowed us." "We are in the furnace, but the form of the Fourth is with us."

I have done my work, I believe, as well as it was possible for me to do under the circumstances. The preachers have been very kind to offer their services to assist in holding the quarterly meetings, and no interest of the church has suffered. I cannot express my appreciation of their goodness. "The best of all is, God is with us."

Respectfully submitted, A. C. Byerly.

Danville District.

Dear Fathers and Brethren--With thanksgiving to God for his past mercies and an abiding faith in his future care, I make this fifth annual report to this body. As the Presiding Elder of the Danville District I join with the pastor and people of this church and the citizens of this place in heartily welcoming you to the fair city of Tuscola, created, as it is, in one of the garden spots of the world. Upon the close of the last session of our conference the preachers of the Danville District entered cheerfully and promptly upon their work, and have continued faithfully upon the same throughout the year. Inspired with a consciousness of the grandeur of their calling, and sustained by the gracious aid of their Divine Master. Notwithstanding the excitement incident to a "presidential year" good spiritual results have been realized. Over 1,200 have professed saving faith in Christ this year, making a slight increase over last year. So that God's crowning blessing has come upon these pastors. Between one-half and two-thirds of the above number have come into full connection, while a considerable number will yet be received, which witnesses to faithful training on the part of the shepherds of the flock.

The year has been remarkable in the conversions and reclamations of many already in the church, and this is an occasion of much rejoicing. The temporal interests of the church have had a fair degree of prosperity. Soon after conference a beautiful church was dedicated at West Ridge, on Villa Grove Circuit, costing $2,500. A little later this elegant church, in which we are now assembled, was dedicated under the inspiring leadership of "Chaplain" Bishop McCabe, who is never greater than when making a missionary address or providing for a church debt. The cost of this church was $20,000.

On the first Sunday of this month a neat comfortable church was dedicated at Fairview, on the Georgetown Circuit, and Dr. Thornton beheld the rare scene of a dedication without even a basket collection. I am just from the hard pull but blessed victory of last Sunday when the modern and attractive church at Armstrong, on the Potomac Circuit, was dedicated amid great rejoicing. The cost of church and lot is $4,200.

There has been church and parsonage improvements made this year to the extent of $2,000. The Danville District is well to the front in value of church and parsonage property. I wish that I had a better report on benevolences and pastors' salaries to present than the facts warrant me in offering. I urged the preachers to make early efforts along the line of our connectional benevolences in view of the political agitation coming on and the increasing stringency of the times. Most of them did so, but have found difficulty in collecting subscriptions. Doubtless had our people been a little freer with their silver and more faithful in the observance of the golden rule our reports would be better, but I have never known the members more willing to give to such purposes than this year. Much dependence was placed on the oat crop, but the almost utter failure and exceedingly low prices attending this year's harvest have blighted their hopes. In other cereals and in fruits and vegetables our people have been embarrassed with abundance, but prevailing low prices of grain and the high rentals have had their depressing effects. We will fall, I fear, between 15 and 20 per cent. on our benevolences as compared with last year. Our faithful preaches—some of them receiving low salaries—will suffer in some cases considerable deficits. Yet our people have never been more desirious to comfortably support the servants of God. I believe that the pulpit was never so lofty as today, and never had such opportunities to bless mankind in a practical, glorious manner as at this time. If our young men will cast aside all ambition to excell at lecturing and all undue strife after place and salary, and give themselves wholly to the salvation of men, great rewards await them here and hereafter.

The health of our preachers and their families has been good on the whole. Pastor Crews, after a long and successful campaign in soul-saving, was seriously prostrated and had to rest from full work for several months. Several others have been temporarily disabled by sickness, but no one has been compelled to ask relief from his charge. Death, however, has entered several parsonage homes. Soon after conference that unwelcome visitor entered the home of Brother E. M. Jeffers and bore away his bright little boy. His ashes rest beside those of his mother, whom he has joined in the deathless clime. Then the ties of love and twinship proved unable to hold to earth Brother C. F. Tobey's darling babe, and father and mother were left sorrowing in the shadows. Sadly then Brother and Sister J. F. Clearwater bade adieu to their dear babe. But then brave hearts are all sustained by an unfaltering faith in God. My own health has been excellent. Beginning with the first Sunday after conference I have been unremittingly at work, having devoted every Sunday to District labor.

Since our delegates to the general conference were so well qualified, physically as well as mentally, the first reserve delegate was not called to Cleveland, and therefore was able to give his whole time to the work. I suppose it is not best for too many presiding elders to be absent from the conference at the same time. Wm. Kemp is closing his third year of unvarying success on the Allerton Circuit. No interest of the church has suffered during his pastorate. He has had a good revival, and brings up the benevolences in full missions a little above the apportionment.

At Arcola M. A. Hewes has done good solid work as preacher and pastor. He reports 52 conversions and brings a good report on benevolences. Willis Grantham has been "redeeming the time" on the Arthur Circuit, and has secured for Methodism a foot-hold long delayed in Arthur, that I believe will never be relinquished. A church lot has been purchased and we hope to see before long a church built upon it. Atwood is one of the best circuits in the Conference, and many think out that way, that they have one of the best pastors in the person of Walter Mitchell. Missions will be in full this year and claims well met.

"Bismark District," as a former pastor called it, is as large as ever. Rev. A. E. Kester has tilled the big farm well and reports 50 conversions. E. A. Olmstead has worked hard on the Broadlands Circuit and has some good results to report. There have been 43 conversions and he brings a fair report on benevolences. Beside this he has married a good wife and regards this as the greatest victory of the year.

At Camargo W. H. Schwartz has had a blessed year. He thought last year that his work was done at Camargo, but the bishop, elder and people disagreed with him, and the results prove that they were right. There has been 164 conversions, and $200 spent on parsonage improvements. Our student pastor at Catlin, M. M. Want, comes up with the flush of victory and reports 68 conversions, of whom 50 have been received into full connection, and benevolences in full.

G. W. Bates has been doing just as usual at Chrisman, preaching good sermons and growing in favor with the people. Danville has had a good year for Methodism, and Methodism is a larger part of Danville. S. W. Thornton has put vigor and force into his preaching and pastoral visitation, and the results are manifest in the good congregations, the growing interest and attendance at the prayer meetings and the influence of this church. The finances have not been in as good condition probably for years. At Kimber S. H. Whitlock has given the people stirring spiritual sermons and God's blessing has been upon him throughout the year. Both these pastors report missions and superannuated apportionments in full, and other benevolences well cared for.

E. A. Wanless has done very efficient service at Grace church. This church is neither a bubble, a balloon or a Bloomington first church, but a church well located and with a future that it is going to capture for Christ. Under the direction of Brother Wanless over $900 has been paid on the church debt, leaving a balance of a little over $200. Lincoln street church has enjoyed one of its greatest revivals under the leadership of E. K. Crews. He reports 122 conversions and brings up a good report on benevolences. The pastor is much beloved by his people. Forty souls have rejoiced in the acquaintance of their forgiving Lord at East Lynn this year, and Pastor Burkitt is happy. He has proven that an elderly pastor can be popular with the young people.

Charles L. Flowers has done hard work in the Edgar Circuit and comes up with good reports. J. F. Horney has sustained his reputation at Fairmount of good, social and preaching powers, and has succeeded well with the finances of the church.

Three successful years in the pastorate of J. M. Oakwood have rolled around at Georgetown. He has experienced the joy of seeing a beautiful new church at Fairview arise from the ashes of the old church which burned to the ground early in the year. The new church cost $2,500.

E. M. Jeffers is closing his second year on the Homor charge in a delightful manner. He is deservedly popular and the people will be glad to see him back. Parker Shields has had a year of victory at Hoopeston. Entering on the work after J. T. Orr had prepared the way by plain, faithful preaching and conscientious pastoral visitation, he has pushed the work along with his characteristic enthusiasm, and Methodism marches in the front column of the christian powers of that city, and is appropriately erecting a spendid house of worship on a commanding height. There have been 120 conversions. Over $8,000 have been expended and collected on church and parsonage improvements. It is hoped to dedicate the new church in November. The church will cost $20,000.

H. G. Wass has had three good years at Hume. He has built up a flourishing little station that will grow with the passing years. The church is out of debt and good reports are presented on benevolences. The quiet town of Indianola has heard the voice of J. F. Clearwater's ringing out for righteousness and temperance. He has had a year of hard, persistent labor and fair success, and gives his report with joy and not with grief.

Metcalf has spent its first year in its present circuit form, and has done well under the pastoral care of T. F. Pierson. There has been $1,200 raised for parsonage and church improvements. Having built a neat parsonage it was proper that the pastor should marry a good christian girl as the closing and crowning act of this conference year.

D. D. Kensill has done well at Murdock. He, too, has entered the benedictine state and will hereafter command a married man's appointment.

At Newton C. F. Tobey has preached clear, thoughtful sermons, and managed with skill the affairs of his charge.

There is no more beautiful country that that embraced in the Philo Circuit, and there has been no more faithful or successful pastor, all things considered, than H. C. Turner. Though greatly depleted by removals and deaths and handicapped by certain unmethodist features, this charge is looking up.

John Milton Mills has had no time to compose stately poems this year on the Pilot Circuit. The latter part of his name has had longer exemplification this year than the first part as he has faithfully ground away. He reports 31 conversions all received into full connection, and $35 for missions.

All has not been quiet on the Potomac this year for J. C. Lockhart, who has been making a stir all year, and pastor and people are mutually pleased with the stir. About $500 has been spent on church improvement, while the new church at Armstrong, costing $4,200, has been provided for in good subscriptions.

William McKendree Gooding has done vigorous, aggressive work at Ridge Farm and comes up with good reports for these times.

M. Auer has had quite a good year at Rossville, and his reports show that he has not been idle.

Safe and good has been the pastorate of J. M. Goodspeed at Sidell. He reports 22 conversions and $50 for missions.

Sidney Circuit has been favored with the labors of G. Cunningham and G. Cunningham has been favored with the hearty support of Sidney Circuit.

Tuscola's pastor and Tuscola speak for themselves. All the kind ministrations of W. S. Calhoun and his good people throughout this conference session will speak to us in an effective way of the success of this conference year. Benevolences are in full, 250 souls have been saved, and this Temple of God dedicated amid shouts of joy. The people of Tuscola Circuit think they have had the biggest preacher for the size of the work in the conference. M. H. Ewers has delighted them by his preaching while he has rendered efficient services on many charges, and endeavored to encourage the cause of Christ by kindly words and generous giving.

Ernest Pletcher has strengthened the Villa Grove Circuit this year and is recognized as one of our most efficient young men.

W. H. Webster, superintendent of our Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society, lives in Danville, where he is honored as a christian minister and citizen, and from which city he journeys forth in the interest of the important work committed to his hands. The Epworth League work is flourishing on the district, as is also the Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies.

The annual meeting of the N. W. Branch of the W. F. M. Society will be held in Danville in October.

With a greatful heart I record God's goodness to me and the people of the district this year, and profoundly believing, as I do, that the coming conference year will witness a great outpuring of God's Spirit throughout the whole country, I join with you in "setting up our banner in the name of the Lord of Hosts."

Respectfully submitted,

G. E. SCRINGER.

Decatur District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BROTHERS—I approach the work of making up this report of the work of my district under great embarrassment, for I find that I have two classes of people to please. First, those who have wrought themselves within the bounds of the Decatur district and who have by toil and sacrifice done their best to build up the churches. These would. no doubt, like their presiding elder to take time and space to speak liberally of their trials and triumphs, and they rightly deserve this slight recognition of services, which in many instances, will receive but slight praise elsewhere on this earth. My disposition to notice real merit and speak about it would prompt me to write a lengthy report which would deal largely in details of the work and enough has been done to warrant the use of many more words than I shall employ.

But there is that vastly large number of preachers who belong to other districts, everyone of which is impatient to hear his own praises sung by his presiding elder. I fear these will not be disposed to bear with me until I can adequately picture the virtues of the 28 men who have achieved such grand results in Decatur district. So out of consideration for the majority I shall be brief.

Spiritual Growth.—First, in an important sense, is the spiritual development of the work. I believe every preacher in the district has labored assiduously to this end. Plans were laid by all the pastors early in the year for the prosecution of the revival campaign and the most of them achieved a good degree of success. There was some revival influence in nearly every charge, and the reports show about 700 conversions within the district. I think an unusually large percentage of these were received into the church and are maintaining the christian life. This in no small degree due to the working of our Epworth and Junior Leagues. There are potent agencies in developing purity and christian character in our young converts.

One thing urged by the presiding elder during the year, and cordially endorsed and re-enforced by the pastors of the Decatur district, was the doctrine that we do not so much need more members, as better ones, "quality, not quantity," has been our watchword. We have steadily tried to inculcate the principles of benevolence, brotherly love, deep devotion to the cause of Christ and a spirit of opposition to the world.

I believe that throughout the district to-day there is a deeper piety, a more loyal devotion to the principles of Methodism and a riper experience in the deep things of God than ever before.

I would like to speak in detail of the labors of every pastor in the district. They all deserve it. Their labors have been abundant. Their faith unswerving, and their achievements glorious. But such detailed statement would expand this report to an unseemingly length, hence I must forbear.

Under this head of spiritual interests, I ought, perhaps, to mention especially the work of the Epworth League. This organization has one or more chapters in almost every charge of the district. During the year two or three Endeavor societies have swung in line and into sympathy with our league, and at this time there are but three societies of Christian Endeavor in this district. There have been during the year, a large number of sub-district league conferences and one very interesting district conference. We suffer somewhat in comparing members with some other districts, from the fact two of our largest churches have Endeavor societies instead of Leagues and the memberships and contributions of these societies are not counted as part of the district league.

Temporalities.—Concerning temporal matters much might be written that would be interesting if time were not such an important factor in the session of an annual conference. One notable fact perhaps worthy of mention is that every congregation and every Sunday school in the district, with the exception of one, has a house dedicated to divine worship. There is just one school house appointment. This statement should not be taken to mean that there is no unoccupied territory within our bounds, for that is not the case. There are several localities where the gospel ought to be preached and Sunday schools organized, and I sincerely hope that by and by, through our Domestic Mission and Church Aid Society such communities may be reached. Within the city of Decatur something has been done in this direction by the two churches.

Grace Church has long sustained a mission in the northeastern part of the city, and the First Church has kept one going in the southern part. During this year the young people of the First Church procured lots and built a substantial house in the north part of the city and named it Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church. The enterprise cost about $2,000. All these missions sustain good Sunday schools and prayer meetings and occasional preaching services.

The church at Emery, on the Maroa circuit, was burned to the ground early in the spring. Fortunately for the society it was amply insured and in less than three months a chapel more beautiful than the former house had arisen from the ashes and was dedicated amid great rejoicings.

The beautiful new church at Latham was dedicated free from debt soon after conference and the society there has made substantial advancement during the year.

The society at Mowequa, under the leadership of Bro. E. J. Durham, caught parsonage fever about the close of last year. They forthwith began to plan for a commodious residence for the pastor, and about Christmas the preacher moved into one of the most elegant parsonages in the conference.

Repairs more or less extensive have been made on the property in the following charges: First Church, Decatur; Grace Church, Decatur; Argenta, Maroa, Mowequa, Decatur Circuit, Blue Mound, Assumption, Rosemond, Hammond. These improvements will aggregate several thousand dollars, and have all, or nearly all, been made without incurring debt.

At the first quarterly conferences the people were so well pleased with the quality of their preachers that the aggregate allowance for ministerial support was increased several hundred dollars. This indicates that the Presiding Elder is right in his surmise that he has no "wet logs" in the district. The preachers are all first-class men.

But with all that the deficiencies in ministerial support will be unusually large this year. It is pitiful to hear the apologies offered for not paying the preacher. In but few cases do I find complaint against the pastor. The people say, "We would like to pay him, but we just cannot get the money. Send him back and we hope to do so well next year that he will not lose anything by the venture." In some instances, as might be expected, this stringency has occasioned uneasiness among the preachers, and many want to move, because they hope in some other field to find financial matters easier. But I think this is a mistake, and I fear that in some instances quarterly conferences will take occasion to reduce the salary of a new man while if the old one is returned it will be kept up to the old figure.

Our benevolent collections will suffer to some extent. The preachers have wrought energetically and sacrificed heroically that these causes should not suffer. And so far as I can learn at the time of this writing (September 12) we will just about hold our own. I think there will be no decrease, at least. But I had planned and hoped for several hundred dollars advance.

Debt-paying day was observed by about half the charges in the district, and these charges averaged about the sum desired, 10 cents per capita. If all the charges in Methodism had done as well the debt would have been annihilated.

Miscellaneous.—In general the health of the preachers and their families has been most excellent. Bro. Durham and one little son had a severe attack of typhoid fever early in the year, but thanks to a generous providence both were restored to full health. Brothers Agnew, Dugan and Lacy have been driven from their respective pulpits for a snort time by illness. Bro. Hobbs was seriously ill for several weeks and unable to fill his pulpit or look after the interests of his charge. Unfortunately his illness came just at the time when he would otherwise have been looking after the benevolent collections. Being thus disabled he was compelled to turn these matters over to other hands, and consequently the collections will not come up to what he desired to make them.

Death has entered but one parsonage during the year. On Monday evening, September 7, a messenger from the Court of the Great King bore away the treasure from the parsonage of Grach Church. Little Marjorie, aged 4 years and 9 months, laid down the joys and sorrows of early child life and took up her abode with Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Brother and Sister Hobbs have the love and sympathy of the people whom they have served so faithfully for two years to an unusual degree in their great bereavement.

I feel like expressing my sincerest thanks to the preachers of the district for their hearty coöoperation during the year and for their many kind words, and especially to their wives for substantial kindnesses when visiting the parsonages. Also to the laity throughout the district for their loyal support in all righteous enterprises, and, above all, my gratitude goes up to Him from whom cometh every good and perfect gift that He has given me all that ever my heart could desire by way of health for body and strength of soul to do the work that has been laid upon me.

As I look back over the work of the year I see much in which to rejoice, some that I would gladly have seen otherwise, and much that had to be omitted because of limited ability.

May our Master graciously own our efforts and foster the seed we have sown until we shall gather the harvest over yonder.

C. GALEENER,

Jacksonville District.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE:—The same financial stringency, the same discouraging circumstances to which the other presiding elders have referred in their reports, have confronted us in our work on the Jacksonville District. No body could have more zeal in the work, or more deep conscientious concern for the prosperity of the church than the preachers on this district have had, and no body has worked harder than they have to accomplish all that was expected of them, and yet, with great regret, they report some failure. There will be some loss on salaries, but this is not so much regreted as the shrinkage on the benevolent collections. However, I am gratified to say that the loss will not be as great as we feared.

Not as much has been accomplished in revival work and in building and in repairs, as in former years, for reasons that were unavoidable.

Good work has been done in the Epworth Leagues, chapters have been organized in nearly every appointment. A large and enthusiastic convention in the hot days of July attested the life and zeal of the work on the district. Allow me to speak of the work in more detail.

Ashland—Bro. J. O. Kirkpatrick has closed his third year on this charge, having built a fine parsonage, papered and carpeted the church, and done most excellent work among the children and young people. In the revival of last year quite a large number were added to the church. Large reports on benevolences have been made each year. He is much beloved by the people.

Bath Circuit has had the services of Rev. A. H. Flagg for two years. Substantial progress has been made in the increase of membership and the work among the young people. He has been popular in the work.

Brooklyn, Jacksonville.—Bro. J. E. Artz has served this charge for one year with marked ability and success. The congregation's interest and hope of the church have continually grown. The people think the destiny of this church depends on his remaining with them. Plans have been adopted and subscriptions started to remodel and improve the building, which, when completed, will make it a gem of beauty and convenience.

Carrollton.—Bro. W. J. Tull, the pastor, and his family, have passed through a very deep affliction in the death of their oldest daughter. She was a lovely girl, a beautiful Christian, an idolized daughter and just blooming into womanhood, when death claimed her as a shining mark. Because of this heavy blow, Bro. Tull has not done what he could have done under more encouraging circumstances. But he has taken some valuable members into the church and made a good impression on the community.

Centenary Church, Jacksonville.—Rev. W. A. Smith has closed his third year in this historic church and made an excellent record. He has been in labors abundant. Five hundred members have been added to the church, most of whom required special pastoral care. A good revival was conducted by himself last winter. The year has closed with all the interests of the church in good condition.

Chandlerville, Circuit.—Bro. O. E. Badger has not Badgered this charge in any harmful way, but he has done a good year's work. A good revival was held during the winter, and excellent collections for missions are reported. Bro. Badger has done a hard year's work.

Chesterfield Circuit.—Bro. S. W. Beggs has closed two years of excellent work on this circuit. There was a fine revival at Kellar appointment, thirty-five joined the church, and an Epworth League of fifty-five members was formed. The work having been found to be too heavy, the Hettie appointment was supplied by Bro. R. P. Droke. Bro. Beggs is very highly esteemed by the people.

Franklin Circuit.—On this circuit Bro. W. T. Heater has done an excellent work. He has had some very unpleasant things to deal with, such as too many pastors avoid, but he has heroically grappled them and won. He has done a good work in purging the membership and setting before the world a clean church. He brings up a large collection for benevolences.

Grace Church, Jacksonville.—For five years Bro. J. T. McFarland has reigned over Grace Church without a rival. The last year, in many respects, the best. He leaves the church strengthened in membership, united, grounded in the faith, and deeply sorrowing that they shall see his face no more as their pastor. The benevolent reports are all full.

Greenfield.—In this pleasant charge Bro. C. W. Jacobs has served the past year with excellent satisfaction. A successful revival was held during the winter. All the interests of the church are maintained. The usual report comes to us—all collections full.

Greenfield Circuit.—During four years Bro. P. B. Huffman has served this circuit with great satisfaction. A gradual increase in congregations and contributions has marked each year. A very great change has been wrought on this charge to the great credit of Bro. Huffman. He reports an increase on missions and all other collections the same as last year.

Greenview has been supplied by Bro. E. L. Darley for the past four years. During that time the work has outgrown into three appointments, one new church has been built and one repaired and refurnished with opera chairs, and the membership has been increased. Bro. Darley is popular with his people.

Havana is the place over which Bro. M. P. Wilkin presides while he serves as pastor of the M. E. Church, and both city and church are of the opinion that he knows how to run things. He has closed the second year of a very pleasant and prosperous pastorate. His collections show an increase over last year.

Island Grove.—Alexander and Island Grove were put into one charge last year under the pastoral care of Bro. O. L. Kiplinger. He has given excellent satisfaction in his pulpit and revival work. He has done a hard year's work with good results.

Jacksonville Circuit.—Bro. S. W. Balch has put in three years of hard, faithful and successful work on this charge. Every interest of the church has been carefully looked after, and very much good has been accomplished, although there were some very discouraging circumstances to meet. Bro. Balch has the love and confidence of the people, and by several good revivals has added many members to the church.

Leiterberry Circuit.—Bro. DeLancy Bowen was appointed to this circuit as a supply. But a week after conference he was taken sick, and within one week died, leaving a widow and five small children with nothing upon which to live. His father, H. L. Bowen, wanted to take the work so that he might take care of this fatherless and helpless family. He was given the work and has done doubtless the best he could.

Early in the fall the church building at Arcadia was moved from the old site up into the village, a much more desirable location.

Manchester Circuit.—This circuit has been in charge of W. W. Drake for the past year. The parsonage has been extensively repaired and the church at Murrayville papered. Good meetings were held at each of the appointments, and a flourishing Epworth League has been organized at Murrayville. Bro. Drake has done a hard and successful year's work. The benevolent collections have been increased 40 per cent.

Oakford Circuit has been in charge of Bro. G. W. Read. He has devoted himself to the work with his usual zeal.

Petersburg.—Bro. H. L. Mitchell, who has been in charge here for two years, has not realized the success that his abilities and hard labor have justified in this difficult work. Yet he has probably accomplished as much any one could under the circumstances. We hope for a bright future yet for Petersburg Methodism. Bro. Mitchell is highly esteemed by all the citizens of Petersburg.

Palmyra Circuit has been served by Bro. P. F. Gay, who has had some good success, and commands the love and respect of the people.

A good revival was held at Scottville, and the church at Modesto has been neatly papered.

Roodhouse.—Bro. C. F. Poorman has done a good year's work here. All the interests of the church have been maintained. The building has been reroofed and neatly papered inside. Bro. Poorman and family have the love and confidence of the people.

Topeka Circuit.—Bro. J. F. Smith has served this charge the past year very acceptably and successfully. Good revivals have been held, the Epworth Leagues kept up and other interests sustained.

Waverly.—Another five-year man, Bro. E. A. Hamilton, has packed his goods and is ready to move, to the sincere regret of the entire community. The last year was probably, in some respects, the best of all the five. Shortly after conference the church was thoroughly overhauled and many improvements made. It was reroofed and the interior remodeled and ornamented and lighted with electric lights, making it a very delightful auditorium. The expense incurred was about $1,500. The parsonage was also subjected to extensive repairs. All financial claims have been met. Excellent collections are reported, with a handsome increase for missions.

Waverly Circuit.—Bro. A. H. Alkire has been on this work one year, and has endeared himself to the people. He has done a hard year's work and good results have been accomplished.

Allow me to say a word for the brethren who are no longer in the active ranks—the superannuates. There are seven of them in the bounds of this district. Bro. Wm. J. Rutledge resides in Jacksonville in his own home, and although failing in physical form and faculties, is still bright in intellect and warm of heart. He still preaches as opportunity is given.

Bro. Wm. McElfresh also lives in his own home, pleasantly situated, happy in the bosom of his family, sweet spirited and sound in mind as he is in heart. He also occasionally blows the gospel trumpet, and it moves the people as in earlier years.

Bro. G. R. S. McElfresh also lives in his own pleasant home, and seems to take life as a benediction, because for him to live is Christ. He is capable still of the same fervor and fire when occasion calls it forth.

Bro. D. H. Stubblefield lives in Greenfield in his own home, and though he still holds on his cane, he is young in spirit, trusting and hopeful.

Rev. Robert Clark lives in Waverly in his own home. Age and feebleness make no perceptible difference with him. He is happy, contented and resigned, an inspiration even to the young.

Rev. R. P. Droke also lives in Waverly in his own home. He has been supplying an appointment on the Chesterfield Circuit during the year. His eye is not dim and his natural force is not abated.

Rev. A. Sloan lives in Ashland in the small house of his wife's mother. He has been preaching during the year almost every Sunday. He is feeble, but strong in faith, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.

Bro. J. P. Dimmitt, who at the last conference was already walking on the border lands of glory, a few weeks after passed over with the triumph of a glorious conqueror. He was buried in the quiet and beautiful cemetery of Hebron Church on the Jacksonville Circuit.

The Illinois Female College has maintained its standard of efficiency during the past year. The attendance was large, the order and discipline excellent, and the instruction thorough. The graduating exercises last June were unusually fine, and would be creditable to any institution. The Institution opens this year, I understand, with a larger number of boarding pupils than any previous year under the present administration. The annual trustee meeting was very largely attended, and all were very enthusiastic over the success of the year and the promise of the future. The income of the school over all expenses was $2,500, thus netting the trustees a handsome sum to spend in needed improvements. An encouraging exhibit of all these things will be given in the report of the Committee on Education.

During the six years of my presiding eldership I have exercised the authority of a sub-bishop over sixty-eight different preachers.

I have assisted in making sixty appointments in the district up to date.

Of the brethren who have served on this district during my administration I find the following record: Two have transferred—Bros. F. C.

Bruner and J. T. McFarland; three have superannuated—Bros. A. Sloan, Wm. J. Rutledge and W. S. Hooper; three have superanumerated—Bros. Henry Wilson, W. H. Musgrove, L. F. Walden; two have located—Bros. J. M. McPhail and H. H. Goad; one has withdrawn from the church and ministry —J. S. Carr; three have left work to attend school—Bros. J. S. Smith, W. E. Blair and J. R. Clark; four have deceased—Bros. Johnson, Hecox, Everly and Bowen.

And now to all the brethen to whom I have sustained the relation of presiding elder, those now under my administration and those who have been, I desire to say I have learned to love you and esteem you highly for your work's sake and for your personal worth; and while I do not regret leaving the district, I do regret losing the very pleasant communing and companionship I have enjoyed with you and your families all these years; and if, by anything I have ever said or anything I have ever done, I have harmed you in the least, or wounded your feelings, or interfered with your usefulness, I most sincerely regret it and humbly beg your forgivenness. But if, on the other hand, by anything I have said or anything I have done, I have made it pleasanter for you and your families, and contributed in the least measure to your success, I will greatly rejoice, for this has been the deep desire of my heart and the burden of my prayers.

The Lord abundantly bless and crown you all.

W. D. Best.

Mattoon District.

Bishop and Members of the Illinois Conference:—The preachers of Mattoon District, believing that the King's business demanded haste, wasted no time in getting to their appointments, for most of them were in their pulpits the first Sabbath after Conference, and from then till now they have been lifting up Christ as the sinner's friend and the sinner's Savior. As a result of their consecrated efforts, some 1,300 souls have been blessedly saved, and nearly all of these have been received into the church.

In some revivals the pastors were assisted by revivalists, but in the majority of the revivals held the pastor was his own revivalist.

Epworth League.—One of the great helps to the pastors have been the Epworth Leaguers of the district. They have been with the pastor in the revival and after the revival, and have been to the pastor great sources of inspiration and of helpfulness. We have more than 50 League Chapters, with an enrollment of 3,000 members. These young people take and read 500 copies of the Epworth Herald, and they are growing up loyal to the doctrines, polity and life of Methodism. The pastors have been impressed with the need of training this army of young people. Hence they have held one district convention, three conventions in charges and six sub-district conventions. In these conventions the young people have read more than ninety-five papers on the different departments of church work as understood by the Methodists.

Church Improvements.—The past year has been an off-year in church improvements. There has been but little accomplished in the line of church work, and yet we have not been entirely idle, for at Toledo and Humboldt we have built two splendid parsonages, which will be fine homes for the preachers stationed there in the future.

At Charleston we have completed and dedicated a beautiful stone church costing $20,000, that will hold 1,200 people. It has all the modern improvements for church work, and is a monument to the liberality of the people, and the splendid effort of the pastor, J. W. Miller. Besides this we have raised quite a sum of money for church improvements in different parts of the district. The First Church at Mottoon has raised and expended for the purpose of pavement by the church and parsonage several hundreds of dollars. The people at Casey paid $350 on a parsonage debt.

Benevolences.—The canvass for the benevolences began early and has been continued late, and the preachers have stood by the benevolent institutions of the church like men in a battle. It is not their fault that there is a falling off in the collections, for the pastors have made heroic efforts to find the last man, and get the last cent. Nor is it the people's fault, for I never saw a people more willing to pay their pastor's salary and raise the benevolences than the people of the Mattoon District, but the wave of hard times reached our part of the land, and many of our people have not had the money to give. I believe, taking everything into consideration, that when the reports are all in, they will show that the preachers and people called Methodists, within the bounds of Mattoon District, have not only done what they could, but have done well.

Better Times.—It is a trait of a Methodist preacher to look on the bright side of things, and to keep his eye toward the stars and to have his ears open to catch the sound of good news, hence the preachers are expecting better things. The friends of Mr. Bryan tell us that if he is elected a wave of prosperity will roll over this land such as the eye of man has never seen. There will be silver in abundance and man will be happy, and the friends of Bro. McKinley shout to us that if elected gold and silver will be in the land once more, very plentiful, and there will be no more hard times in our land. Hence we have closed our year in confidence that there is a better time coming. Oh, yes, there is for the faithful Methodist preacher. The time is coming when the hardships of this life will give place to a place of rest. He can afford to work and wait. The Master will see to it that he shall enter into a city where they hunger no more, and where the despair arising out of hard times shall never be known.

R. STEPHENS.

Quincy District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Sunday, September 22, 1895, found the most of the twenty-six pastors of the Quincy District in their pulpits. Some renewing old acquaintances, others looking upon new faces. The same zeal that carried them so early to their places, has characterized their labors during the year. There has been but little interruption in their work on account of sickness. During conference last year Bro. Hoffer was taken seriously ill with typhoid fever, which continued for several weeks, making it impossible for him to move to his charge until the last of December. His health is now fully restored. Death has visited one parsonage in the district. Sister Duff, the wife of the pastor at Lima, died in peace on the 10th of May, surrounded by many friends and loved by all who knew her. Her memoir will appear at the proper time.

The church property of the district is valued at $193,225, and is in good repair, with very little indebtedness.

In church building there has been greater achievements than for many years. Soon after Conference the improvements on the church at Golden were completed under the wise management of Bro. Slagle, costing about $1,800, all of which was paid. In December the new chapel at "Scott's Society," under the pastorate of Bro. Abner Clark, was dedicated to God free of debt. It cost $1,700. Coatsburg has a new society, with a vigorous Sabbath school and Epworth League. Last May they bought the old church property of the United Brethren, and have remodeled it and furnished it at a cost of near $1,500 all of which is provided for. Ripley, in the bounds of the Mt. Sterling Circuit, at the beginning of the year, informed the Elder that they could not pay for the services of a pastor, as they must repair the old church, so no pastor was sent to them. I have preached to them on a week night, once in two weeks, for the greater part of the year. They gave up the plan to repair the old church, and on the 2d of August we dedicated a beautiful new chapel, with raised floor and arched ceiling, all well furnished. The whole expense, aggregating $1,400, was fully met. Rev. A. K. Byrns has supplied the church as pastor since June 1, and has done good work. Marblehead, south of Quincy, has a small society formed this year, which has built a good chapel costing $1,100. I dedicated this chapel August 9, assisted by J. B. Horney. Both Ripley and Marblehead churches were aided by the donation of moveable furniture from the old Wesley Chapel Society. Augusta has let the contract for a handsome and commodious church, which, when completed, will cost $10,000. Bro. Dillon is a skillful manager of such an enterprise.

The Quincy Mission worships in Chaddock Chapel. They have a small membership, most of their members having gone to Vermont Street Church. The trustees have transferred the title of the property from the trustees of the Trinity Society to the Methodist Episcopal Church, thus now holding it under a regular Methodist deed. The property consists of a fine block of ground on Maine street, in a desirable part of the city, and is valued at $3,000, and is unincumbered. We expect this to be a nucleus for a new church.

LaPrairie reopened their church August 2, having made valuable improvements. The pastor, Bro. McDonald, gets almost anything he asks of his people. Besides these mentioned, there have been many churches and parsonages renewed and made more attractive and comfortable. For these enterprises the people have coniribuned with remarkable cheerfulness.

The Epworth League gives signs of even greater effectiveness than ever before. We have fifty-one chapters, with two thousand and five hundred members. Of these two hundred and sixty have been gained this year. Without being urged, the Leaguers are becoming prominent in every kind of Church work. They raise money, aid in the revival, conduct socials, visit jails, and are ready to respond in all the religious services. Sub-district conferences are held throughout the district.

The annual District League Conference took the form of a "district training school." Dr. Berry was present, and a good part of each day was devoted to normal work, in which League department work was finely elucidated. The aim is, not only to learn what is to do, but also how best to do it. Quincy District has adopted the League reading course, with some added work in Bible study. Written examinations are required on the Bible study, and the League diploma is conferred if a grade of seventy is made. We had a class of seventy-eight graduates this year. All of this has been accomplished without loss, but rather with an increase of spiritual power and experience. From the Epworth League there are coming to our quarterly Conferences men and women with better and larger views and better training for work.

The Sunday schools are larger and better than they ever were. The preparation on the part of many of the teachers is as thorough as that made for the public schools. Methodist lesson helps are abundant and are doing the work. We have fifty-eight Sunday schools. They gave to missions six hundred and six dollars.

Chaddock College has done good work. The attendance has not fallen off on account of financial pressure. The grade of work done is up to that of any of our schools. Dr. Baker is making the school a desirable place for young men and women seeking an education.

The Benevolences.—The pastors have given special attention to the benevolences, particularly missions. Easter was observed in all the stations and in some of the country schools.

Debt-paying day received attention from many of our Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues. The amount per member for missions is 53 cents. Of the entire Conference, three districts pay more per capita; five pay less. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has been active and will continue to assist in the support of Miss Blackburn, of Loftcha, Bulgaria.

There has been a revival spirit among the churches, and there has been more than seven hundred conversions reported. The pastors are devoted to the circulation of our church literature, knowing that nothing helps them more than the weekly coming of the Advocate and Herald.

The congregations are large and the Church occupies a high position in the minds of the people. We expect continued growth and the blessing of God upon our labors as pastors and people during the coming year.

D. W. ENGLISH.

Springfield District.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—In making this, my sixth annual report of the churches in the bounds of the Springfield District, I wish first of all to express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His presence and blessing during the arduous labors and care of the six years just closing; also my thanks to the pastors and laymen for their uniform courtesy, kindness and coöperation, without which the work accomplished could not have been done.

The past year has been one of faithful labor and sacrifice, both upon the part of the pastors and the people. The churches and preachers have felt keenly the financial pressure everywhere prevailing, and have not been without their cares and sufferings.

All the preachers went to their charges cheerfully and were well received. They have labored faithfully and not without results. Notwithstanding the hard times and the partial failure of crops last year, liberal salaries were allowed. But in few instances was there any decrease from the preceding year. Williamsville, $50; Grove City, $50; Raymond, $50, and Second Church, Springfield, $250. These reductions do not mean any fault found with the preachers sent to these places. They are among the most popular in the district and have all been asked to return, but from a supposed inability to pay more. The Second Church, Springfield, where the principal reduction occurred, has really paid more for pastoral support this year than for many years past, both pastoral support and benevolences being in full. The following charges increased the allowance of the preachers over last year as follows: Taylorville, $200; Edinburg, $50; Edinburg Circuit, $50; Wagoner, $100; Athens, $100; Cantrall, $275; Loami, $50; Curran, $50; Rochester, $150; Dawson, $50; Ridgely and Round Prairie, new charge, $200, making a total increase of $1,275, less $400, leaving net increase of $675 for the year. These salaries have not been as well paid as usual. There are deficiencies aggregating about $800.

This year has not been as marked in revival influence as some others, yet in many places the Lord has poured out His Holy Spirit upon the people. Carlinville, Carlinville Circuit, Rochester, Edinburg, Edinburg Circuit, Dawson, Williamsville, Mt. Auburn and Second Church, Springfield, had remarkable visitations, while several other places shared in less copious showers. Over 1,000 conversions were reported, and an unusually large per cent. of them have been taken into the church in full membership.

Our Sunday-school work is in a good condition and accomplishing good results. There are 62 Sunday schools in the district reporting an average attendance of 4,226 pupils, and an enrollment of between 6,000 and 7,000. This is an increase of four schools this year.

Not only in the Sunday schools are the children and youth being taught and trained, but in the Epworth and Junior Leagues as well. There are 47 Epworth Leagues in the district, reporting a membership of 2,455. There are also 28 Junior Leagues, with a membership of 1,244, making in all 75 Leagues, with a membership of 3,699, an increase of 9 Leagues and 8 Juniors, and making an increase of 337 seniors and 562 Juniors, or 799 in all. These Leagues are doing efficient work.

Juniors are trained in the catechism, the bible and the history, polity and doctrines of the M. E. Church, and in many places are graduated upon examination into the Leagues. The Leagues in many places are pursuing courses of study and in all are being trained to take part in the public exercises of the church. A great host of educated and indoctrinated Methodist young people are coming forward whose presence and influence will be felt with power in the church before many years. A district convention is held each year, and in many parts of the district sub-district conventions are held twice a year, and also circuit conventions in connection with the quarterly meetings. These have been very beneficial, bringing the young people in direct touch with the working of our polity.

In the matter of church benevolence I make the following report: Last year we reported for missions, $3,832; for all benevolences, $8,624; this year we report for missions, $———; for all, $———.

This is a marvellous showing and has not been accomplished without great labor and sacrifice.

Something has been done in the way of improving churches and paying church debts. Carlinville spent about $1,300 in church improvements; Virden, $1,800; Bethel, on Pleasant Plains Circuit, about $1,200; Mt. Auburn, $1,150; Girard, $500 and over. Riverton, on the Dawson Circuit, has finished its improvements begun last year at a cost of $1,500. Other places have made improvements amounting to from $100 to $200 each. Some of the parsonages have also been improved. But the great achievement for the year is the extinguishment of the debt of over $24,000 on the Second M. E. Church of Springfield. This mountain has disappeared. Faith and works have removed it and cast it into the sea of the past, where it lies buried in the waves never to rise again! Nobody mourns its departure. Peace to its ashes. Amen!

As a result of the removal of this incubus upon Springfield Methodism another church has been organized in the west part of the city. The abandoned Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been rented and regular services have been held since June 1. I appointed Rev. J. A. Dooley pastor. This organization gives promise of fine success and asks the appointment of a pastor from the Bishop.

Rev. W. A. Boyd, pastor of Girard, resigned his charge because of sickness at the close of the first quarter and removed to Champaign county. I secured the services of Rev. Robert F. McDaniel, a probationer in the Conference, with an appointment for the work and he has filled out the year most acceptably. The Ridgely and Round Prairie work was organized last year. It had but twenty members. I secured the services of Rev. J. T. Mevlidi to supply it. It will now report as many as 75 members and a flourishing Sunday school and Epworth League.

Something has been done in the circulation of our periodical literature. There are 712 copies of our church advocates taken, mostly, Centrals, and 696 copies of the Epworth Herald. All our Sunday schools patronize our Sunday school literature and are well supplied with journals, advocates, classmates and lesson leaves.

I would be pleased to notice each charge and pastor by name and give to each the credit due them did time permit, but I hardly deem this necessary. Some have done better than others, but none have done poorly. Invidious comparisons would be distasteful, so I forbear. The record is kept on high and is kept correctly.

In conclusion you will, I know, pardon a short review of the six year's work, now closing. The district was left in fine condition by my predecessor, Rev. Preston Wood, Sr. It then had 5,538 members and probationers. It now has 7,342, a net increase, over deaths and removals, of 2,004. There were then 25 charges. There are now in the same territory 34. Three of them, however, are very weak charges. It then reported for missions $2,998. Last year it reported $3,832, a net gain of $834. This year it reports $——. It then reported for all collections $6,044. Last year it reported $8,634, a gain of $2,590. This year $——. It then paid for ministerial support $25,830. It paid this year $28,000, an increase in six years of over $5,000. There were then three Epworth Leagues with 175 members. There are now, including Juniors, 75, with a membership of 3,699. We have paid church debts to the amount of about $35,000, and have expended in building churches and parsonages fully $45,000 additional, besides about $30,000 in repairing churches and parsonages, making about $110,000 added to church property, including debts paid. There is now less than $3,000 debts left in this district.

Our periodical literature circulation has increased from an unknown number to over 1,400 Advocates and Heralds. Four new churches have been built at a cost of $34,000. Five new parsonages have been added at a cost of $9,500. Churches have been repaired at a cost of $25,000; parsonages at over $5,000. The church has expended in these years for buildings and improvements over $75,000. For ministerial support nearly if not quite $150,000 has been paid. For benevolent objects about $45,000. To God and the faithful preachers and people we give all the glory for the progress. Methodism is not dying out in the bounds of the Springfield District. It is deepening its roots and spreading its branches. It never stood as high as it does to-day. It leads all other churches almost everywhere. The people respect the church and are learning to respect its policy. Our congregations are larger this year than ever before and all the means of grace are well sustained. The people believe in the free and unobstructed coinage of Christian character and works, and demand that everything of the kind shall be kept up to the gold standard.

I have enjoyed the company of the preachers and their families, and of a hospitable people. These years have been years full of kindness to myself. If I should say I am glad to leave the district I would not tell the truth. If there were no time limit I would be glad to stay. I have learned to love the preachers and the people and part from them with regret.

Bros. S. H. Clark, Ira Emmerson and A. M. Dunnavan, superannuated preachers, remain among us, faithful and true, doing what they can, waiting for promotion on high.

The year has not passed without afflictions. Rev. A. T. Orr, an old and beloved member of the Conference, passed away in peace to his reward last April. When the flowers of June were blooming Sister Wright, wife of Rev. T. B. Wright, of Rochester, entered through the gates of light into a world where flowers never fade, and on April 4th, the day before Easter, our own only and beloved daughter passed on before us. Earth and time recede, but heaven draws nearer! A goodly company await us on the other shore. We expect to hail them there

"Where the hidden wound is healed,
Where the blighted life reblooms.
Where the smitten heart the freshness
Of its buoyant youth resumes,
Where we find the joy of loving
As we never loved before;
Loving on unchilled, unhindered,
Loving once, forevermore."

WM. N. MCELROY.

West Jacksonville District.

As a preface to my report I wish to state the principles which have governed me hitherto in my official work as presiding elder. From my earliest study of Methodist economy I have had a conviction that a presiding elder should carefully study all the interests and claims both of the preachers and the charges in his district and conscientiously make such recommendations to the Bishop as will promote the highest interest of the church.

The laity have been very generous in their expressions of appreciation for the amount of work I have done (for I have preached over three hundred times every year I have served a district, besides the Normal work I have done) and the laity have often commended my carefulness and zeal in protecting the weakest and poorest charges from the affliction of inefficient preachers. Equally appreciative have been the expressions of all the preachers who wrought efficient work and were acceptable to the charges.

My greatest embarrassments have been in relation to preachers having more points of failure than success, whom I could not satisfactorily place in my own district, and no other presiding elder would take off my hands.

I hold that when the official members of a charge implicitly trust a presiding elder to secure them a suitable preacher, it is his bounden duty to the utmost of his ability to protect that charge from being afflicted by a preacher whose inefficiency will pave the way for preachers and evangelists of other denominations to come in and capture our young people and impair our charges for years to come.

West Jacksonville District embraces twenty-nine charges—seven of which are stations and twenty-two circuits. Twenty-six of the charges have been served by appointment from the Conference and three supplies. I question if in any district in the church you can find twenty-nine preachers who have wrought more faithful work and prosecuted their studies more diligently.

Though on account of the open winter the preachers were embarrased in revival work, still they reported over 850 conversions and 650 accessions to the church. Though greater difficulties have confronted the preachers in taking collections than for many years, still the charges will make good reports in the benevolences.

In face of shrinking prices the salaries allowed were a little in exeess of last year, and I think the amount paid will be equal to last year. Though my district politically is the banner free silver district in this conference yet the preachers have done golden work in their efforts to raise the benevolences.

Four churches have been dedicated during the year. At Bluffs we now have a beautiful church edifice costing over $3,000. Bros. T. B. Smith and Royal Ennis deserve great credit for that church and a flourishing society of over one hundred members where two years ago we had no organization.

Scott Wike Charge on the Sny Island circuit was dedicated early in the year, another monument to the greatest local preacher in the Illinois Conference, John O. Stone.

Seehorn Chapel on the Kinderhook circuit was dedicated last December. One of the most beautiful edifices in the district, for which Wm. Landiss and Nathan English deserve great credit.

A beautiful edifice costing $12,000 was dedicated in Virginia Station early in January. Methodism now lifts up her head in that city and to Bro. A. H. Reat's praise it can be truly said that he managed the enterprise most skillfully and successfully.

Five preachers in the district ask for a change of relation. Anderson Orr, on account of impaired eyesight, after thirty-four years service in the Illinois Conference asks for a superannuated relation. I believe that without a dissenting voice this Conference is ready to say of Bro. Orr "Well done good and faithful servant."

James W. Madison, after fourteen years of service on hard circuits, on account of impaired health resulting from wounds received in the army, asks for a superannuated relation.

Charles B. Draper, one of our brightest and purest young men, was prostrated four weeks with the pneumonia. Fears have been entertained that he was going into consumption. To add to the affliction of himself and wife, their beautiful baby boy born Easter Sabbath, was taken from them by death. Bro. Draper is now in the mountains of Tennessee seeking health. He asks for a supernumerary relation.

Wm. Landiss, who was admitted three years ago and gave large promise because of the purity of his character, studious habits and thorough devotion, has also failed in health, and he too is in Tennessee where he hopes to recuperate. He asks for a supernumerary relation.

Giles M. Peak, who was admitted two years ago, and on the Rockport circuit has had phenominal success, asks to be left without appointment to attend school.

I would be glad to make personal mention of each preacher and in detail set forth their achievements, but where so many have done their best I fear that my poverty of adjectives might cause me to make unfortunate discriminations. It would give me greater pleasure were it in my power to give them all better appointments.

I desire to call the attention of the Conference to the importance of relieving our undergraduates, who are on hard circuits from some of the great burdens they are bearing. There is no denying the fact that a young man on a circuit of four or five societies who is expected to hold revival services at each place from two to four weeks, look after his family, visit all his members, attend numerous funerals, and bring up all his studies to the required grade, is overburdened. Young men thus taxed will probably fail either in careful pulpit preparation, or to make grades on their pastoral work, or to bring up their benevolences or to break down their health.

This plan has occurred to my mind. Let the Conference pass a resolution requesting the Conference board of examiners to hold one-half of the revival meetings of the undergraduates. This would keep the examiners in sympathetic touch with the undergraduates and would wonderfully promote the evangelistic enthusiasm of the examiners, and give our people on the circuits the privilege of hearing our leading preachers at their best, thus bringing Methodism in the cities and circuits in closer fellowship than ever before.

The Epworth League under the leadership of Robt. Steed, the district president, has made substantial progress during the year. We are planning for more efficient work in all the departments.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has added several auxiliaries this year and will report improved collections.

Most pleasant relations have existed between the presiding elder and pastors and I have never held more pleasant quarterly conferences. I have earnestly endeavored to promote the revival, the missionary, the educational and all other interests of the church in the district. During the year I have preached 359 times, delivered 14 lectures to Epworth leagues, held 106 quarterly conferences. I have given on an average not less than five days per week in the field work.

EDUCATIONAL.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

This institution has, during the past year, maintained its high standing for thoroughness of work, efficiency of discipline and breadth of scholarship. The attendance in all resident departments was over 1,100, and in the College of Letters there was an increase over any previous year. The faculty of the University remains unchanged, except that Mr. Snyder, the instructor in Modern Languages, retires, to enter post graduate work, and Prof. Blumenthal, a cultured German, has been secured in his stead. The several members of the faculty have shown themselves to be able instructors, progressive in their methods and unswerving in loyalty to the University, as well as abundant in labors and sacrifice for the upbuilding of its several departments. The President, W. H. Wilder, D. D., has been untiring in his zeal and wise and judicious in his plans and efforts to make this institution in every respect one of which our great Methodism may justly be proud. His recent appointment as a member of the "University Senate" commends itself to us as an honor befitting the man and the institution of which he is the head.

The religious climate of the institution is one which is adapted to nourish and develop the spiritual instinct of our young people and lead them to seek that higher life which can only be attained through the regenerating agency of the Holy Spirit. The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations are doing systematic, energetic and efficient work, and in all the classes there is steadily kept in view the incitement of the religious nature to the performance of its proper functions. The courses of study are planned after the best pedagogic principles and operated under what is known as the "group system," giving every opportunity to the teacher to develop the individuality of the student.

The standard of scholarship is of such a character that only the best high schools can prepare their pupils to enter the freshman class. The School of Music has had a prosperous year. The attendance of students upon all courses has been 128 greater than last year.

The Law School under the wise, energetic and able management of O. T. Reeves, its dean, has maintained its high standard throughout the year. Its reputation for thoroughness has been justly earned. Its faculty is strong, scholarly and efficient, men of excellent moral character and worthy examples to the young men who will have much to do in making the laws and shaping the future destiny of the commonwealth.

The financial condition of the University is somewhat discouraging and embarrassing. While the receipts from tuition in the Preparatory School and College of Letters were gratifying, aggregating as they did $12,194.67 for the year, nevertheless the failure of many friends of the school, because of hard times and the stringency of monetary affairs, to meet their obligations to the institution, has made it impossible for the Board to pursue the liberal policy of expanding its facilities to the measure of ever increasing urgency which presses upon them. In the growing secularism of our civilization and its educational tendencies there is an imperative demand and necessity that Methodism should make herself a commanding and overmastering educational force, and that her schools should be centers of power, sending forth intellectual and spiritual energy in such magnitude and momentum as to create a mighty countercurrent in society and history and break the power of materialism and superstition. It is within the power of this annual Conference to make the Illinois Wesleyan University such a force, and your committee urges that the Conference pledge anew its best efforts to this end.

We recommend that the Conference elect as Trustees: Rev. W. A. Smith. Mrs. Martha Buck, Peter Whitmar and Sain Welty, and as Conference Visitors: Revs. J. T. Orr, C. Galeener, A. C. Byerly, R. Stephens, F. Havighorst and James Miller.

THE ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

The past year of the Illinois Female College has been one of the most prosperous in its history. The attendance in all its departments was the largest for many years, numbering 230 pupils. There has been a steady increase for the last three years in the number of boarding pupils, and last year nearly all the rooms were occupied.

Financially, the year was equally successful. After paying all the regular expenses, the income was sufficient to provide for repairs and improvements to the value of $2,000, and leave a balance of $500 in the hands of the treasurer.

The teachers have done excellent work, and the class room records have been quite satisfactory. The health of all in the College has been good. A deep religious interest has been maintained, and several students during the year decided to begin the Christian life. Special interest was shown in the Bible study.

In March last, Rev. W. H. Musgrove was appointed Field Agent of the College to secure funds to enlarge and improve the College property. While not successful, on account of the unusual financial depression, in raising the amount aimed at, $20,000, Bro. Musgrove has done very valuable service to the College in making known its work, and in calling the attention of all our people to the advantages the College offers.

Fifty years ago the Illinois Conference appointed the first Trustees of this institution, and next June will be the celebration of its fiftieth anniversary.

The College is worthy of hearty support and patronage. It is in most excellent condition as to building, grounds, furniture and equipment; its courses of study are strong and well arranged; and the moral and religious tone of the school is deep and effective. We urge that the members of the Conference take an active interest in the College, and work in any possible way to secure the attendance of our young women, and to find friends who will assist in its endowment.

For Conference visitors we recommend the Presiding Elders of the Jacksonville, West Jacksonville, Springfield and Decatur Districts, and the pastors resident in Jacksonville.

The College Alumnæ Association have nominated as Trustees, in accordance with the action of the Conference allowing them representatives in the Board, Mrs. Minerva D. Scott, of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Ella Y. Orr, of Pittsfield. We recommend their appointment by the Conference.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE.

This institution is doing good work. Young people who go there will receive kindly Christian treatment and every help that a competent faculty can give. The moral and spiritual influences are wholesome and elevating. The finances of the College are in a better condition than they have been for years. The income of the past year met the expenditures. The Trustees report a mortgage indebtedness of $14,900 and $1,550 in outstanding notes. A sum of $500 is in the hands of the Treasurer.

The fall term of 1896 opened with better prospects than the school has had heretofore. In the interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church and all Protestant Christianity, Chaddock College ought to abide in this Roman Catholic center, and be abundantly sustained by the church. There is no more need of establishing Protestant churches in the midst of Romanized countries than there is of maintaining this school in the midst of a Roman Catholic community, which seeks to drive Protestantism out. Let benevolent persons, who contemplate making donations to worthy Christian enterprises, take Chaddock College into consideration.

We recommend the election of the following Trustees: Revs. S. H. Whitlock, R. G. Hobbs and Howard Vickers, and H. B. Dines; and as Conference visitors, A. N. Simmons, R. L. Steed, T. M. Dillon, R. E. Matthis, W. A. Reynolds and the Pastor of Vermont Street, Quincy.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We commend in earnest words the Theological schools of our church to the young men who are called of God to preach the Gospel; and as thorough drill prepares for efficient work, we trust our young men will select one of our schools and become, as students and graduates, workmen who will advance Christianity and education.

We recommend the following visitors to the various schools:
DePauw—W. F. Gilmore.
Garrett Biblical—J. B. Colwell.
Drew—Frost Craft.
Boston School of Theology—T. A. Parker.
Iliff—G. A. Scott.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF BALTIMORE.

We commend to all young women the Woman's College of Baltimore as an institution eminently superior in its equipments and facilities for the promotion of highest Christian education.

We congratulate the Church on having an institution to which we may send our daughters, equal, and in some respects superior, to secular institutions.

We recommend as visitor to this institution, Rev. J. A. Kumler.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

As a Conference we hail with joy the representations made by Vice Chancellor Rev. Dr. S. L. Beiler, of the American University, at Washington, D. C. We are glad to know that the rich men of our country are turning their thousands toward this worthy enterprise. We pledge ourselves to do what we can to promote the establishment of this University, under Methodist auspices, for purely post-graduate and professional studies, because we believe such a school a necessity to the future influence of Protestantism and the wider influence of our beloved Methodism.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Notwithstanding the existence of a serious financial depression, the Educational Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has had a very prosperous year in all departments of its work. Remarkable success has attended the movement to bring all the colleges of the church into a federation which shall be under the fostering care of the church. Nearly all the colleges have accepted the standard of requirements formulated by the University Senate, which will secure a better standard among the higher institutions of learning and also secure a larger attendance of students.

The board is now aiding annually between fifteen hundred and sixteen hundred students of some twenty-four different nationalities, and in more than one hundred and thirty institutions of learning. In the assistance which it has given to worthy students of our church our own Conference has by no means been neglected. The board aided during the last school year 36 students belonging within the bounds of our own Conference to the amount of $1,841.00. The receipts from our Conference for the last fiscal year amounted to $1,398.40. The board has granted loans to our students considerably beyond the amount received into its treasury from our Conference.

We ask that Children's Day be faithfully observed in every Sunday School and that a collection be taken in every school and forwarded to Dr. Payne, the Secretary of the Board of Education.

We recommend that the second Sunday in November of each year be set apart as Educational Day in our Conference; that on that day a sermon be preached in every charge on religious education, with special reference to the educational institutions of our own Conference, and that so far as practicable, the public educational collection be taken on that day.

We also recommend that when the public educational collection is taken on Children's Day, and not on the second Sunday in November, the amounts raised by the children in Sunday School be forwarded entire to the Secretary of the Board of Education, as the discipline provides, and that the amounts raised in our public congregations be forwarded to our Conference treasurer, as part of our Conference educational fund, as the Conference has directed.

During the last quadrennium the public educational collection was increased 66 per cent., in large part because it was taken on some other day than Children's Day and was in no way mixed with the Children's Day collection. The Children's Day collection itself increased 40 per cent. during that quadrennium. These facts show that it is vastly better to have every charge take the two collections on two distinct days, and not to have them in any way brought together.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES MILLER, Chairman.
W. F. GILMORE, Secretary.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Conference has about nineteen thousand dollars invested capital. It will disburse this year to its thirty-nine claimants about twenty-four hundred dollars. The society is in a perfectly safe condition, and is entirely worthy the confidence and support of the church. All our ministers should be members of it.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

WHEREAS, The Epworth League is an ideal institution for the spiritual, intellectual and social development of our young people, and the reports from the different districts are very gratifying, swhoing an increase in membership and the number of Heralds taken; and

WHEREAS, The ideal is far in advance of present attainments in the various departments; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we lose none of our fervor in the departments of Spiritual Work and Mercy and Help.

2d. That we redouble our energy in the work of the Literary Department, as the intellectual life of the League depends upon its skillful operation. To this end we recommend the course of study and the increased circulation of the Herald by presenting Dr. Berry's excellent combination offer, thus making the Illinois the banner Conference in the Banner State in subscriptions for the Herald.

3d. That more attention should be paid to the social work of the League, as it is through this department that our young Christians are to get their first hold upon the unsaved. All of which we respectfully submit.

DOMESTIC MISSIONARY AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

We recognize the great necessity of pushing the work of the Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society nearer the front. The fountain from which all missionary success springs is the home church.

So much importance has been placed upon the subject of foreign missions that the home field is suffering from unintentional neglect.

Your committee therefore submit the following recommendations:

1st. That the Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society be continued under the present management, and that Rev. W. H. Webster be reappointed Superintendent for the ensuing year.

2nd. That the Society be allowed a column in the published minutes, and this be provided for in blanks sent out by the Statistical Secretary.

3rd. That this Society be allowed a place on programme of our next Conference for the anniversary meeting, same as other connectional societies.

4th. That the preachers be urged to present this cause to the people and take a collection, giving it the place that its importance requires, and the interest of the church demands.

M. H. Ewers, Secretary.

ANDRUS FUND.

I have received for the year ending September 1, 1896, interest amounting to $98.00, applied as follows:

Missions	$81 00
Superannuates	7 00
Church extension	5 00
Sunday School Union	3 00
Domestic Mission	2 00

Respectfully submitted. T. B. Smith.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

In view of the supreme importance of the general circulation of the Word of God at home and abroad, as it is the chief source of supply to our missionary work in all lands, and as it "is the only and sufficient guide for our faith and practice;" therefore,

Resolved, That we are in full sympathy with this Society in its great and glorious aim to give an open Bible to all in our land in every tongue, and to the whole world as soon as possible.

2. That we rejoice in the grand record of this society in the eighty years of its history in the circulation of over sixty million volumes in nearly one hundred languages and dialects.

3. That we will endeavor to carry out the resolutions of the late General Conference, and see that every charge takes its Bible collection, and will endeavor to increase the same till they rerch the standard of former years.

W. C. LACEY, Chairman.
G. W. DUNGAN, Secretary.

TRACTS.

Believing that our pastors and people, especially in the smaller places, fail to appreciate the valuable aid they may get from a proper use of the tracts published by our Society, we urge them to investigate the matter. Stating, as they do, the position of our church and the reasons therefor, upon many much-debated questions, as that of amusements, for instance, in a clear and logical manner, these tracts can give invaluable aid to the pastor. We urge that in order that more funds be available for this purpose, the cause be more fully presented to the people.

J. H. HARTRICK, Chairman.
J. F. CLEARWATERS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

"THE SALOONS MUST GO."

Your committee appointed to voice the sentiments of this, the Illinois Annual Conference, upon the question of Temperance, beg leave to report:

That we heartily endorse the deliverance of the General Conference of 1892, as found in the Appendix of our Discipline.

We believe in total abstinence from all intoxicants as the duty of every Christian, and we would make emphatic our statement, that dram drinking is a sin. And we insist that our rules be enforced kindly, and yet fully against all who so offend.

We fully endorse the declaration of our Bishops in their address of 1888, that: "The liquor traffic is pernicious in all of its bearings, so inimical to the interest of honest trade, so repugnant to the moral sense, so injurious to the peace and order of society, so hurtful to the home, to the church and to the body politic; and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward it for Christians is that of relentless hostility. It can never be legalized without sin."

We declare, and publish it to the world, that we are the relentless and uncompromising foes of this corrupting, pernicious, and destructive business. Men who engage in the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages are unworthy, and they should not receive the commercial patronage of a Christian people. We look upon the question of Temperance not only as a great question, but as the greatest question which is now before the American people; hence we will accept no compromise, but we demand the the universal and unconditional surrender of this pirate and rebellious business. We rejoice, in that we were Prohibitionists before the Supreme Court declared prohibition constitutional, and we insist that the United States Government, and the various State governments, in tolerating the liquor traffic for money consideration, are guilty of wicked complicity with a business whose awful work of destruction brands it as alike an enemy to God and man.

Finally, we ask and urge that our preachers read before their respective congregations, at least once during the Conference year, our declaration on Temperance, as found in the Book of Discipline.

We recommend that a permanent committee of this annual Conference, consisting of five members, who shall be auxiliary to the General Conference Committee, be appointed. Also that there be two delegates selected by this Conference to the American Anti-Saloon League, which is to convene in Washington, D. C., in December.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Bishop Hurst has said: "There is one class of Christion workers who know no hard times, from whose vocabulary the words 'discouragement' and 'panic' are forever banished, and who never vote to call missionaries home, and that is the Christian women."

As this high compliment, justly merited, has been called forth by the work wrought and the spirit manifested by the women of the church, from one so prominent in church authority, and since there are but one hundred and thirty auxiliary societies of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, out of a possible two hundred and fifty-six charges in Illinois Conference, among them several strong circuits, where two or more such organizations might be secured; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as pastors, mindful of the exhortation, "to help those women," urge the speedy organization, and the encouragement of auxiliaries in all our respective charges.

T. B. WRIGHT, Chairman.

SABBATH.

Among the Christian institutions, we regard the Sabbath as one of the most important; and the one around which all others seem to cluster, and upon which they largely depend for their perpetuity.

We recognize it as a means of grace affording opportunities for Christian development, apart from which, Christianity itself would become extinct.

Observing the growing tendency to the secularzation of our Sabbath, especially by the youth of our land, in their pursuit of pleasure:

Resolved, That we denounce as morally corrupting the flagrant violation of the Lord's Day by the running of Sunday trains and excursions, the playing of base ball, holding of picnics, patronizing Sunday newspapers, and other forms of Sabbath desecration.

Resolved, That we will urge upon our people the importance of a stricter observance of the sacred day.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of all wise methods by which its sanctity is sought to be maintained, and especially do we commend the work of the Sunday League of America, represented at this session of our Conference by Dr. Edward Thompson.

We have examined some of the leaflets published by this society, and coincide in the opinion of them expressed by Bishop J. P. Newman, who said: "They are what are needed to educate and interest the people."

We endorse the plan of the Sunday League of America to reach every large town once in five years with its practical evangelistic work in the interests of our American Sabbath, and are gratified to learn that for the coming year Dr. Thomson, the general manager of this society, will have his headquarters in Chicago, and will give part of his attention to Sunday reform work within the bounds of our Conference, and that we will gladly welcome Dr. Thomson to our charges and pulpits whenever he may find it convenient to be with us; and that we will aid and assist him in securing subscriptions for the literature of the Sunday League of America, and in the distribution of the same.

And we sincerely hope and devoutly pray that his services may be greatly blessed to the good of all our people.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

The amount asked was	$2,178
The amount paid was	1,400
	$778

WHEREAS, The Word of God declares that he that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much, and the Discipline provides that the claims of Pastors, Presiding Elders and Bishops be paid pro rata, we therefore recommend strict adherence to the principles of justice and faithful obedience to the law of the church as it relates to this fund, which is the least division of the amount raised for ministerial support.

MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, Jesus Christ has, by virtue of His creative act, made all men our brothers; and by virtue of his death Has made their salvation possible, and by virtue of His authority as Creator and Redeemer has commanded us to "Go" and proclaim this salvation to these brothers of ours; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will endeavor to surpass all former missionary effort. And to that end we urge the organization of each Sabbath school into a missionary society; and that our Epworth League give great prominence to regular and systematic missionary effort in the way of giving and promotion of missionary intelligence among our young people.

Also that all our pastors be diligent in the dissemination of missionary intelligence, believing that the facts create enthusiasm, and enthusiasm giving. That a lack of knowledge, more than all else, underlies the lack of funds.

Also that our General Missionary Society give us a series of new certificates; believing that the old Macedonian pictures so familiar to our grandsires have served their day, and that something new, in keeping with the art and the missionary status of the day, would be gladly accepted by our people, and thus promote the cause.

J. R. REASONER, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Recognizing the great importance of the Sunday School work, with its 30,259 schools, 352,627 officers and teachers, 2,585,178 scholars, and reporting 132,197 as added to the Church of Christ the past year, we would recommend and urge:

1. That the greatest care should be exercised in the selection of teachrs, those only being chosen who, by gifts, grace and godly lives show themselves fitted for the great work of expounding the Word of God so as to edify and lead souls to Christ.

2. That normal classes be organized in all our schools for the thorough training of teachers, as recommended by the Sunday school department of our church.

3. The forming of our schools according to the loyal army plan, in order to better promote attendance, study and liberality.

4. The use of the Home class department and the thorough prosecution of house to house visitation.

5. We heartily approve the literature provided by our church, and urge the use of the same in all our schools.

6. Again we would call attention to any deep conviction that the Bible, and not merely lesson, leaves, and lesson helps be used in our schools.

7. That our pastors call the attention of parents to the importance and necessity of earnest and thorough Bible study in the home.

We regret to learn that there are so many charges that fail to report this important work. The present year seventy charges, or a little more than one charge in four, failed entirely to report. The remaining charges report less than one-third the amount apportioned the Conference. We therefore urge that the pastors faithfully present this claim in their respective charges.

J. Wesley Miller, President.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We rejoice in the great work done by this society in promoting the cause of education and spreading true scripture knowledge where religion is largely but an emotion and education with difficulty obtained.

We believe in the education of the masses, and especially of those who have but little or no advantages among the poor white and black population of the South.

An educated and Christian ballot must be had from them or they will blight our future. The means for informing the church are both the pulpit and the "Christian Educator." It is highly essential that the church be given the facts and have brought before it the great and imperative needs of this society. It asked this year for $6,315, and has received only $1,475, or less than one-fourth.

The society pleads for more funds. If they are withheld some of our schools must be closed, which will be a great calamity; buildings will be ruined from lack of repairs; students turned away never to return; teachers and helpers must give up their homes and places, bringing permanent loss to the church, and, lastly, the indebtedness, already heavy, will increase to larger proportions and bring the church into disrepute.

Therefore, we recommend that our people be acquainted with the facts and have laid before them the great needs of the society through the medium of the pulpit and the "Christian Educator," and that the people be urged to liberality toward this great interest.

A. L. PLOWMAN, Chairman.

J. O. KIRKPATRICK, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND LITERATURE.

While the press is never to supplant the living pulpit, yet it is nevertheless true that this mighty enginery of good and of evil is yearly wielding a more powerful influence over the public. It therefore becomes our duty to speak out and advise our people to choose not simply the good in literature, as against the notoriously bad, but farther that they select the better and the best from the good.

We feel confident that when our people rise to this high plain in the choice of their literature the press will take warning and furnish a literature that will meet the demands of the pure and cultivated taste of an increasingly inteligent people.

We would therefore urge our people to supply the church, the Sunday School and Epworth League with our own literature, not alone because of its intrinsic merit, but also because of the beneficent work done with the profits accruing from these publications.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

We find that at this time there is almost $10,000 in the hands of the Treasurer of the board, W. H. Webster, all of which is loaned out on security deemed absolutely safe. The interest on all this fund—except a small sum held by a local church—is paid over annually to the stewards for the support of our conference claimants. A few years ago there was only a little over $4,000 in the Treasurer's hands, which amount has increased from time to time until now it is almost $10,000.

This fund has been carefully and judiciously administered by the Treasurer, Dr. Webster, and we desire to call the attention of the presiding elders and all the preachers to the importance of this fund, and the opportunity afforded for doing great good through this channel by securing, whenever possible, donations and bequests to this fund. By proper attention and care it may be increased to $50,000.

We present to the favorable consideration of the Conference this fund, and bespeak for it the care and coöperation of all our preachers.

We also commend the wise and judicious management of this fund given to it by the Treasurer, W. H. Webster.

Respectfully submitted,

J. T. Orr, Chairman.
J. B. Colwell, Secretary.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.

The Children's Home Society is an organization, national in character, which has its headquarters in Chicago, Ill., having for its object the care of helpless and homeless children by placing them in carefully selected family homes. It has a system by which it is able to watch over these children until they reach maturity. It has, since its organization in 1885, placed over 7,000 children in good homes, thereby rescuing them from a life of poverty, degradation and in many cases shame and crime, and placing them where they will be loved, trained, educated and fitted for the duties of life. In view of these facts:

Resolved, First—That in the Children's Home Society we recognize the most complete plan yet devised for caring for these helpless little ones, and we rejoice to learn that it is spreading to the remotest corners of the country, nearly all the States in the Union having been organized.

Resolved, Second—That we commend Revs. David Gay and J. N. Dewell, superintendents of the society, to our people everywhere, and promise to do all that we reasonably can to assist them in furthering the interests of this noble cause.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

WHEREAS, We learn with pleasure of the good work done by the Wesley Hospital at Chicago; and,

WHEREAS, This Conference has already pledged itself to the support of two beds in the hospital; and,

This support has not been forthcoming, largely we believe, because no provision is made for a report of contributions; therefore,

Resolved, That we reaffirm our interest in the hospital and our intention to fulfill our pledge; and further

Resolved, That we will use the dime collection books furnished by the hospital for raising this fund, thus avoiding an additional collection.

DEACONESS HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

WHEREAS, We have within the bounds of the Illinois Conference a Deaconess Home and Orphanage, located at Urbana, Illinois, where has already been accomplished a noble work in its respective sphere,

Resolved, That we affirm our interest in this noble enterprise, and pledge our hearty coöperation to the managers of this Home.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Joyfully we commend the achievements of the Board of Church Extension for the last thirty years to our charges and people. More than ten thousand of our churches, in their necessities and distress, have been by this board materially aided to the extent of $5,635,000. To this sum our own Conference has contributed in these years the sum of $41,320.00 by collections, and we have received aid to date from the board the sum of $6,625, or about 16 per cent. of the whole amount contributed. We have received aid by donation this year the sum of $2,000, while we have contributed from all charges this year less than $1,509.

We urge larger collections to this cause, and we instruct the Presiding Elders, as a committee on apportionment, to distribute for collection the whole amount asked of this Conference by the General Committee of the Board of Church Extension to the districts and charges as the Discipline directs; and that the pastors, by instructive addresses, and wider circulation and use of "Christianity in Earnest" and "Glad Tidings" among our people, should give the facts, and show the blessings attained, by this Board of Church Extension, to our congregations and families.

We also recommend to our aged people as a secure and profitable investment, affording for themselves a steady and satisfactory income during their natural life, the annuity plan of the Board of Church Extension.

JAMES STRAWBRIDGE FUND.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your trustee would respectfully report that the fund entrusted to him by your appointment has been safely invested at 7 per cent. interest, and that the proceeds, amounting to $70, has been appropriated as per will of James Strawbridge, one-half to the Missionary Society of our church and one-half to the support of the pastor of Brooklyn church. I hold receipts for these amounts as follows: First, a receipt for $35 from H. C. Gibbs, Conference Treasurer for Missions; second, a receipt for $35 from J. E. Artz, pastor of Brooklyn church, for his support during past year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. HALL, Trustee.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We recognize in this organization one of the great needs of our church and country. It is aiding the needy of our land, and those coming to our shores, and sending supplies to destitute pastors on the frontiers. This is its great work, and we commend it to the favorable consideration of all our people and pastors, and would suggest a close alliance between this society and the Mercy and Help departments of our League chapters.

We recommend that W. H. Webster, W. N. McElroy, C. Galeener, W. A. Smith, R. G. Hobbs, A. C. Byerly, and Mrs. N. W. Matheney, of Springfield; Mrs. A. W. Conklin, of Decatur, and Mrs. R. S. Potter, of Bloomington, be made the Conference Deaconess Board to attend to the interests of the Cunningham Home at Urbana.

SUPPORT OF SUPERANNUATES.

The committee on the plan for the support of superannuates beg leave to report as follows:

We find that the last General Conference has placed in the Discipline a plan so similar to the one adopted by this Conference that we consider it not expedient to do any more at present than to take the steps necessary to carry into effect the plan of the Discipline.

To carry out that Disciplinary plan, we recommend:

1. That the sum of $7,000 be apportioned among the districts, to be raised for the support of Conference claimants.

2. We recommend that the money from the book concern, the chartered fund and from the Conference Trustees be divided into two equal parts, one part to be added to the money for Conference claimants and the other part to be added to the annuity fund provided for in the Discipline.

3. We recommend that on the day set apart in each charge for presenting the claims of superannuates the pastor explain the nature of each of these funds and the manner of their distribution, and that he not only take the annual collection, but urge liberal persons to make bequest and donations to the permanent annuity fund provided for in the Discipline.

Resolutions.

Conference School of Theology.

Resolved, That the School of Theology of the Illinois Annual Conference, in this first year of its methods and workings, commands our confidence by the satisfactory results shown; that the inconveniences in its first trial to the Conference have been surprssingly few; the results so far assure us that the Conference course of study concedes that dignity and merit which should long since have been given it.

We do hereby tender our thanks to the Dean and Faculty and also express endorsement to the efficiency of this new department.

JOHN A. KUMLER,
F. A. HAVIGHORST,
W. T. BEADLES.

Resolved, That the presiding elders be requested to report at the next session to the Conference Board of Trustees the facts about the sale of all parsonage and church property within the bounds of their respective districts.

PRESTON WOOD, SR.
JOHN A. KUMLER.
S. H. WHITLOCK.

WHEREAS, The Rev. Frank C. Bruner, M. A., formerly of this, but now of the Rock River Conference, endeared himself to us by twenty years of faithful and successful work among us; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our high appreciation of his ability and fruitful services within our limits, and invoke God's blessing upon him, and prey that unbounded success may attend him in his new field of labor.

A. C. BYERLY.
J. E. ARTZ.

WHEREAS, The members of this Annual Conference have been royally entertained by the good people of Tuscola; therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of the preachers and visitors at this session of Conference are due and are hereby extended to the families and persons who have provided most hospitable entertainment; also to Bro. Calhoun, who has so kindly labored for our entertainment.

C. G. WOOD.
J. W. CRANE.

Resolved, That we extend to Bishop Andrews our sincerest thanks for his kind, courteous and able administration of the affairs of our Conference, for his splendid sermon and excellent advice; and we pray our Heavenly Father that his life may long be spared and health prolonged for the good of the church.

C. GALEENER.
A. C. BYERLY.
ROBERT STEPHENS.
HORACE REED.
W. H. WEBSTER.

WHEREAS, The First National Bank and the banking house of A. F. Baughman, Bragg & Co., of this city, have extended special courtesies to H. C. Gibbs, the Conference Treasurer, the Board of Stewards, and the brethren of the Conference; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Annual Conference extend to these banking institutions a vote of thanks.

J. W. CRANE.
C. W. JACOBS.
FROST CRAFT.

Resolved, That we hereby extend our thanks to the Conference Secretaries, Recording, Statistical, and Railroad, for the admirable way in which they have discharged the arduous duties devolving upon them.

C. GALEENER.
A. C. BYERLY.
HORACE REED.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the publishers of the Tuscola Daily Journal for their admirable Conference Daily.

G. C. SCRIMGER.

The members of the Illinois Conference do cordially appreciate the kindness of the railroad companies for the extension of courtesies and rates, and we do hereby express our thanks.

E. A. HAMILTON.
C. W. JACOBS.

Illinois Conference School of Theology.

FACULTY.

Dean—H. M. Hamill, Jacksonville, Illinois.

Secretary and Treasurer—J. J. Dugan, Hillsboro, Illinois.

Faculty—W. D. Best, R. G. Hobbs, J. R. Reasoner, Frost Craft, J. F. Wohlfarth, James Miller, W. S. Calhoun, M. Auer E. A. Hamilton, John W. Miller, H. C. Gibbs, C. B. Taylor, W. F. Gilmore, G. A, Scott, R. L. Steed, J. H. Waterbury, C. W. Jacobs, U. Z. Gilmer, C. Galeener, M. W. Everhart.

The first five named as members of the Faculty are Chairmen of the sections and members of the Executive Committee.

THE REVISED RULES.

With Plan of Study and Examinations for 1896-97.

1. All members of the four Conference classes, together with all candidates for admission on trial, and all local preachers who are pursuing the courses of study for orders, shall be organized into what shall be known as the School of Theology of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. The direction of this School, and the supervision of the courses of study, shall be placed in the hands of a Conference Faculty, who shall be members of the Illinois Annual Conference, consisting of a Dean, a Secretary and twenty additional members to be known as the Faculty of the Illinois Conference School of Theology.

3. This Faculty shall be constituted as follows: The Dean shall be elected by the Conference, by ballot, at 11 o'clock of the third day of the Conference session. The other members of the Faculty, except the Secretary, shall be nominated by the Presiding Elders at a special meeting for that purpose, at which the Dean shall be present for consultation, said nominations being subject to confirmation by the Conference, voting upon each name separately, a vote upon any name to be by ballot if demanded by ten members of the Conference. The twenty members thus chosen shall nominate a Secretary, not of their own number, to be approved by the Conference.

4. The tenure of the members of the Faculty shall be indefinite, except as vacancies may occur through death, transfer, resignation or retirement from the effective ranks of the ministry, except that the term of the Dean shall expire at the end of five years, who, however, may be subject to re-election; and provided that a vote by ballot may be demanded on the annual reappointment of the Dean or any other member of the Faculty, by a written petition to that effect being presented to the Presiding Elders, signed by not less than twenty-five members of the Conference.

5. The courses of study shall be divided into five departments, namely: Biblical Theology, Historical Theology, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology and Philosophy, miscellaneous studies being assigned to these departments so as to most evenly distribute the work. The members of the Faculty shall be divided into five sections corresponding to the divisions of the studies, each section to choose a Chairman, who shall have immediate supervision of the work in his section. It shall be the duty of each member of the Faculty to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

6. The Dean and the Chairmen of the several sections shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Faculty, by whom the annual program of examinations shall be arranged, and by whom all recommendations concerning the passage or conditioning of undergraduates shall be made, subject to the rules elsewhere provided; and who shall have power to fill temporarily all vacancies in the Faculty occurring in the interim of the Conference session. Nominations for the permanent filling of such vacancies shall be made by the Presiding Elders in consultation with the Dean

7. A Conference Thelogical Institute shall be held each year, during the third week in June, continuing three days, the place and program for which shall be determined by the Executive Committee, and attendance upon which, for the full time, shall be required of all Conference undergraduates, unless specially excused in advance by the Dean for sufficient reasons. The Dean of the Faculty shall preside at this Institute, and the members of the Faculty, together with the Secretary, shall attend as a board of instruction and examination. The purpose of this annual Conference Institute is the instruction and examination of the undergraduates in the course of study. (The Institute of 1897 will begin Tuesday, June 22, at 2 o'clock p. m.)

8. Examinations for the first half of the year's work shall be had at this Institute. The examinations on the second half of the work shall be conducted in each district on the third Tuesday of August for all undergraduates, located in the respective districts, under the supervision of the official examiners, appointed by the Dean, to whom the several members of the Faculty shall send the examination questions. The written answers to these questions shall be returned under seal to the members of the Faculty having charge of the studies, who shall make out the grades and forward the papers with certificates of the grades to the Secretary of the faculty, who shall file the papers, and make a record of the grades in a book provided for that purpose.

9. The Secretary of the Faculty, on receipt of certificates of grades from the Examiners, shall promptly notify the undergraduates of the results of their examinations, which notification shall be to the undergraduates an official certificate of his work. In case any candidate fails to pass in a given study, the Secretary shall report the fact to the Chairman of the section to which the study is assigned, and also to the Dean of the Faculty.

10. The questions at each examination shall be returned with the written answers of the undergraduates, and each undergraduate shall be required, before his examination begins, to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

11. The examination questions in each branch shall not be less than sixteen or more than thirty, according to the scope of the text. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and the minimum grade upon which an undergraduate may be passed shall be 70 for Traveling Preachers, and 60 for Local Preachers who are candidates for Orders. Each member of the Faculty in returning grades to the Secretary of the Faculty shall certify that he has made his markings impartially and rigidly upon the answers of the candidate, blanks for which report and certificate shall be furnished.

12. Undergraduates shall be required to present syllabi of the books to be read, certifying in writing that they prepared them independently, as the result of their own reading, not merely following the table of contents; and the syllabi shall be graded, and the gradings recorded, as in the case of examination on books to be studied.

13. The members of the Faculty, in accordance with the assignment of the studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Dean of the Faculty copies of all sets of examination questions at least four weeks before the examinations take place; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary, when so requested, to forward to the Dean the examination papers of any undergraduate, which papers must be returned to the Secretary before the session of the Annual Conference. And it shall be the right and duty of the Dean to insist that the examinations shall be thorough, and that the gradings shall neither work injustice to the undergraduate nor extend to him any grace.

14. The Secretary shall bring with him to the seat of the Annual Conference all examination papers and syllabi; and in case any undergraduate appeals from the markings of the member of the Faculty, the Executive Committee shall investigate the matter, into whose hands shall be given the papers in question. All examination papers shall be destroyed at the close of each Conference session, and no appeal shall be entertained thereafter.

15. No undergraduate shall be entitled to advanced classification who is delinquent or who has failed to pass in two books to be studied, or three books to be read, or in one to be studied and two to be read: and no undergraduate shall be entitled to examination on any advanced study until he has brought up all the work in which he is delinquent. The annual program of examinations shall be printed annually in the minutes of the Conference, and the Secretary of the Faculty shall notify all undergraduates of their respective delinquencies, if any.

16. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be charged each undergraduate, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, examination paper and other necessary expenses of the School. This fee shall be paid to the Secretary (who shall act as Treasurer of the Faculty) within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, on the receipt of which the Secretary shall forward the undergraduate a certificate which shall entitle him to all the examinations and other privileges of the School for the year. No money shall be paid out by the Secretary except on the order of the Dean; and the financial accounts of the Secretary shall be audited by the Executive Committee at each session of the Annual Conference.

17. Examinations for delinquents at other than the regular times may be arranged for, if it is thought proper, by the Dean and the Chairman of the sections to which the studies in question belong: Provided, that all "Conditioned" examinations, when studies of the previous Conference year in which undergraduates failed to pass the required standard, shall be held on the same day in the several Conference Districts, under the Official Examiners, at a time not later than the 9th of December following the Conference session, the Dean to fix the day and notify delinquents and Examiners: Provided, also, that where undergraduates are delinquent in the studies of the last half of the year's course, at the District examination, of the month of August, and where such delinquency is unquestionably from Providential causes, and not by reason of the undergraduates' neglect or lack of thorough study, the Dean of the Faculty in person may examine such delinquents on the day before the opening session of the Annual Conference, at the place of the meeting of the Conference.

18. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate covering all his work, signed by the Dean and Secretary of the Faculty.

19. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the Secretary of the Faculty, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for Orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective Districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be required to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Dean when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

20. It shall be the duty of the Dean of the Faculty to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of all candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection, which information he shall lay before the Executive Committee: and it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee, having carefully considered all the information concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the results of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Dean to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another Communion, and of the Executive Committee to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Executive Committee. To facilitate the work of the Committee in this matter, the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the Dean as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

NOTE:—The above plan, after two years' consideration, was adopted by the Illinois Conference, September, 1895.

REVISED COURSE OF STUDY.

Assignment of Studies for the Year 1896-97.

The studies below printed in italics are the subjects for the examinations upon the first half of the year's course at the mid-year Conference Institute, beginning Tuesday, 2 P. M., June 22, 1897. All other regular studies of the year are assigned to the Final Examinations in the several Districts, to be held Tuesday, 10:30 A. M., August 17, 1897. Essays must be reported to the members of the Faculty in charge not later than the 1st of May; the written sermons not later than the 1st of August. Syllabi may be submitted at any time during the period to which the books are assigned. The Faculty and the undergraduates shall note carefully that the following assignment of studies is based upon the Course of Study as revised at the Cleveland General Conference, and rinted in full in the Discipline of 1896.

OFFICIAL EXAMINERS.

For the Conference Year 1896-97.

By instructions from the Conference Faculty, the following named brethren are appointed to supervise all undergraduate Conference examinations in their respective Districts during the coming year, except the studies assigned to the Conference Institute in the third week in June, which will be supervised by the Faculty in person. The conditioned examinations upon studies in which brethren failed during the past year will take place Tuesday, December 8, 1896, beginning, as far as practicable, at 10:30 a. m. The regular examination upon the last half of the year's course of study will be held on the third Tuesday in August, 1897, beginning at the hour of 10:30 a. m. These two examinations will be conducted by the brethren named below, who will supervise the examination and return all questions and answers to the members of the Conference Faculty, by whom the questions were sent to them. The examinees will select their own examiners from the list below, each choosing the nearest examiner in his own District, and taking all examinations (except the June Institute examination) under the same examiner during the Conference year. He should also at once notify the Dean of his choice of an examiner. If an examiner in an adjacent District is located more conveniently than his own District examiner, any examineé will be permitted, upon notification to the Dean, to take his examinations outside his own District.

Examiners and examineés will please note carefully the two dates above named—Tuesday, 10:30 a. m., December 8, 1896, for conditional examinations, and Tuesday, 1:30 a. m., August 17, 1897, for regular examinations—and place for the required examination work:

JOSEPH MONTGOMERY.

Rev. Joseph Montgomery was born near Shepherdstown, Jefferson county, Virginia, on October 10, 1812, and died at home in the city of Normal, McLean county, Illinois, on August 22, 1896, being aged 83 years, 10 months and 12 days.

Brother Montgomery was born of Christian parents, and was surrounded by a healthy religious influence in his childhood days. His first religious impressions were received while listening to his father as he sang the grand old hymn, "O, how happy are they who their Saviour obey," etc.

His first recollection of a religious service was a Methodist class meeting. He was converted in his early youth, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, near the city of Wheeling, West Virginia.

His faithfulness, and the rapid development of his gifts and graces, soon furnished his brethren a sufficient warrantee for granting him license to preach; and after traveling one year by appointment of a presiding elder, in 1837 he was received on trial in the Pittsburgh Conference, in the bounds of which he labored with marked efficiency for fifteen years. He served the following charges in successive order, viz.: Lewis, New Lisbon, Hanover, Hanover and Knoxville, Deersville, Leesburg, Carrollton, Smithfield, St. Clairville, Bridgewater, Salem, and Uniontown.

He was ordained Deacon at Clarksburg, Virginia, by Bishop Morris, in 1840, and was ordained as an Elder at Pittsburg, Virginia, by Bishop Roberts, in 1841.

In 1852 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, in which he remained forty-four years, and then he was not, for God took him. In this Conference he served the following charges, in the order named, viz.: Rushville, Quincy District as Presiding Elder, Bloomington, East charge; Decatur, First Church; Waverly, Clinton, Lincoln, Mechanicsburg, Decatur Circuit, Quincy, Fifth Street; Payson, Twin Grove and Covel, Champaign, University charge; Bement, Agent of the Preachers' Aid Society, Rantoul, Taylorville, Illiopolis, Monticello, Arcola, Cisco, Mahomet, and Warrensburg.

In 1882 he was granted a supernumerary relation, and in 1883 his relation was changed to that of a superannuated preacher, which he sustained for nearly thirteen years, when the Great Head of the church transferred him to "the general assembly and church of the First Born, whose names are written in Heaven."

God honored our beloved brother with an extension of time beyond the average limit of ministerial service, in that he was permitted to receive an appointment from the hands of our Bishops and to do the work of a Methodist preacher with commendable success for forty-five consecutive years.

He was twice married: First to Miss Nancy Tidd, of Woodfield, Ohio, in the fall of 1838. To them were born five children, two sons and three daughters. One son and one daughter preceded him to the better land, by death in their early years. The two surviving daughters, Mrs. G. F. Wessels and Mrs. A. B. Sloan, reside in the city of Chicago. The surviving son, Rev. Homer B. Montgomery, has just closed his first year in the Illinois Conference.

His first companion, after sharing with him in the toils, sacrifices, triumphs and joys of the Methodist intinerancy for thirty-three years, was released from further service by death, in the fall of 1871, and taken to her reward on high.

His second marriage was to Miss Rachel Salisbury, of Camargo, Illinois, in the fall of 1880. She shared with him the toils, sacrifices and joys of life for sixteen years, and remains to sustain the sore bereavement consequent on his decease.

He was a great lover of books, and a tireless searcher of the truth. He had a profound regard for the polity and doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was in perfect accord with her Episcopal economy, while he delighted in her unique system of itinerancy. These, with her class meetings, were to him the glory of Methodism. He gloried in preaching the doctrines of "the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." Only a few hours prior to his sudden departure, while conversing with his wife, he said, "If it was the pleasure of my Heavenly Father to give me strength for the work, I would love to live a thousand years, to preach the glorious gospel of the glorious Christ." The same spirit that prompted this last utterance actuated and impelled him in the very beginning of his life work. This is confirmed by the following item, taken from a memoranda, found among his papers since his demise, and inserted here at the earnest solicitation of his sorrow-stricken companion: "In mid summer of 1836, a young man, fresh from the school room, where he had taught for three successive years, left the home of a widowed mother, a few miles south of the city of Wheeling, West Virginia, and started for his first circuit in Monongahelia county, then in the bounds of the Pittsburgh Conference. Here he commenced his work on a four weeks circuit, with twenty-one appointments. After making one or two rounds, the young itinerant began to feel the great importance of the work to which he had been called, and also to realize his own weakness and want of ability to preach the gospel, until he became burdened with the thought, 'who is sufficient for these things?' God gave him relief from this burden by a remarkable dream. He dreamed that he went up to Heaven, stepping higher and higher, and all the while leading others up as he went. But on his arrival at the pearly gate, which stood ajar, he was told by the Lord, who sat just back of 'the book of life,' which he saw lying on a table, that he was not yet ready for that place of rest: that he had a great work to do, and must return to the earth, and accomplish his work before he could be admitted thereto. He soon found himself on his knees praying for a deeper work of grace, and for divine help that he might be qualified for, and enabled to perform 'that great work,' and as he prayed he received a most remarkable experience of divine influence to save, strengthen and happify the soul." And, like Elijah, he went in the strength of that food to do the will of God for sixty years, in spreading scriptural holiness over the land, and in helping sinners out of darkness into the marvelous light and liberty of the children of God.

As a preacher, he was methodical, earnest, impressive, and at times impassioned and eloquent. As a pastor, and a citizen, he was one of God's noblemen. He had strong convictions of right, and the courage to defend them, both in speech and the public press. He was an obliging neighbor, an affectionate and faithful husband, a tender and painstaking father. He was ever solicitous for the success and happiness of his children. Only a few days before his death he said to a brother minister, "If it shall please my Heavenly Father, I would like to live to see my son Homer through his Conference studies and admitted to full membership in the Conference.

As a Christian, he was devout, ardent and eminently spiritual. His every-day life was a worthy model of piety and of real consecration to God and His service. In this respect he was indeed a burning and a shining light on the earth. He was among the oldest and most highly respected members of the Conference. He never failed to answer to his name when the roll was called, save once, in fifty-nine years. He was always ready to perform any service the Conference asked of him, and always did his work in a manly manner.

His last illness was of short duration, but was not considered to be very serious, and hence when the end came of heart failure, so very sudden, it was a great surprise to all. As in the case of Moses, God led him apart from his associates, and he died there; and like Elijah, he was suddenly carried up into Heaven, in the chariot of the Lord, while we, like Elisha, are left to cry, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof, for we shall see him no more.

A very interesting memorial service, under the directionof Rev. James Miller, was held on Sabbath afternoon following his demise, in the Methodist Church at Normal, Illinois, where a large congregation were in attendance.

On the following morning his remains were taken to Decatur, Illinois, where another memorial service was held in the Frst Methodist Church, of which deceased was pastor thirty-nine years ago, when one of the most wonderful and far reaching revivals took place.

The remains were conveyed to Greenwood Cemetery, where they were tenderly laid to rest by the side of his former companion, where they will remain until the dead in Christ shall rise to be forever with the Lord.

JAMES M. WEST.

JAMES P. DIMMITT.

Rev. James P. Dimmitt, after an illness of more than one year, died of paralysis, in Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 29, 1895, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Batavia, Ohio. When ten years old he came with his parents to Illinois, who settled near Griggsville, where he was brought up.

He was converted and joined the church Sept. 20, 1842. He was lilensed to preach by Rev. Dr. Peter Akers in August, 1849, and the following September was received on trial in the Illinois Conference. He was assigned to a circuit with twenty-six appointments. His health gave way in the middle of the year, and he was compelled to desist. At the next conference he was discontinued at his own request, but, pursuing his studies, he exercised his gifts as a local preacher for three or four years. In 1854 he was re-admitted and early took high rank in the Conference, filling acceptably some of its most important positions. He served the following charges successively: Quincy, Fifth Street, Barry Circuit, Perry Station, where he had 100 conversions; Perry Circuit, Griggsville, Second charge; Pittsfield; Griggsville District, Danville, North Street. His health partially failing, he superannuated in 1868 and removed to Ft. Scott, Kas., where he supplied the First Church, having a revival with sixty-five conversions.

Returning to Illinois, he served Griggsville Circuit, Detroit, Griggsville District the Second time, Quincy District, Jacksonville Circuit, Decatur, First Church, Clinton, and West Jacksonville Circuit. In 1887, on account of the impaired health of his wife, he removed to Texas and supplied St. Paul's Church, Ft. Worth, where he had a revival with 250 conversions. In 1888 he was transferred to the Austin Conference, and was appointed to Ft. Worth District. In 1889 he organized the society and built the first church in Iowa Park.

In 1890 he was transferred back to the Illinois Conference, where he afterward remained. He was twice elected delegate to the General Conference. Brother Dimmitt was one of the leading men of the Conference. As a preacher he was popular and successful. He had a winning address, a fine voice, easy, natural manners, and a ready utterance. His sermons were clear, practical, forcible presentations of gospel truth. He was remarkably successful as a soul-winner. Perhaps it is not too much to say that in this respect he was unsurpassed, possibly unequaled, in the Illinois Conference. Hundreds, and even thousands, were converted under his ministry. In one year, part of which was devoted to evangelistic work, he conducted camp meetings in which 1,000 converts were reported. It was in his later ministry that he was led into the evangelistic field. Only two years ago, since he was a superannuate, he labored in revivals where there were 800 conversions.

During one of his campaigns in the northwest, he had a wonderful experience. Letters to his wife breathe a spirit of seraphic ardor not unlike John Flether's. He was amazed at himself. Like Paul, he seemed exalted above measure through the manifestations of divine power to him and through him to the people. His methods were his own. He did not storm. Ae did not attempt to drive or unduly terrify by highly wrought and violent appeals. He relied more on the gentler methods of persuasion. Another element of strength he possessed was versatility. He had the happy faculty of adapting his ministry to the varying conditions and different grades of society. He seemed equally at home whether presiding elder of a district, pastor of a high grade city station, or circuit rider of the humblest circuit. He was kind and genial in his social intercourse and "given to hospitality." He was tenderly devoted to his family.

Just before he died he was asked if the Lord was with him. He replied audibly and consciously, "O, yes, all the time," and repeated the dying words of Wesley: "The best of all is God is with us."

He married on April 12, 1853, Miss Sarah L. Rush, who proved a worthy companion, not only in the home, tenderly caring for him in sickness and in health, but aiding him greatly in his ministry. Besides his widow, he leaves four children.

The funeral occurred on November 1, at Hebron charge, on the Jacksonville Circuit. A large congregation and a number of preachers, some of whom were converted under his ministry, gathered to do him honor. The following brethren spoke words of appreciation for the deceased and of sympathy for the bereaved: Rev. Messrs. J. C. Sargent, A. P. Stover, M. M. Davidson, John A. Kumler and J. T. Orr. The following brethren also took part in the service: Rev. S. W. Balch, who, as pastor, had general charge; and Revs. W. D. Best, J. Winterbottom, W. A. Smith, Dr. W. F. Short, W. McK. McElfresh, A. H. Beat, V. Brecken, J. P. Hillerby and the writer, who prepared and read the memoir.

G. R. S. McELFRESH.

A. T. ORR.

Rev. Alexander Taylor Orr was born in Harrison County, Ohio, Jan. 24, 1831, and died in Buffalo, Ill., April 13, 1896.

He was converted in Monroe County, Ohio, January, 1846, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He was married to Margaret S. Gamble Dec. 27, 1855; she survives him, with two sons and one daughter. He proved to him a helpmeet indeed, sharing with him the joys and sorrows of wedded life for forty-one years and over, and an itinerant's home for more than thirty years.

He was licensed to preach in July, 1858, by the Barry, (Ill.) Circuit, Quarterly Conference, and was received on trial into the Illinois Annual Conference in 1863, filling acceptably the following appointments: Taylorville, 1863-64; Irving, 1865-67; Mt. Pleasant, 1869-69; Farmer City, 1870; McLean, 1871-73; Marshall, 1874; Griggsville District, 1875-78; Delavan, 1879-81; Tuscola, 1882; Paris, 1883-5; Clinton, 1886; Mattoon, 1887-88; Shelbyville, First Church, 1889-90; Deland, 1891. Superannuated, 1892-96.

His early educational advantages were such as was afforded by the public schools of the State of Ohio, and were improved to the utmost. But he did not stop with what the schools could give him. All his life he was a student, pursuing those lines of investigation which would discipline and broaden his mind, and be of advantage to him in his ministry. He read closely and widely, was a good theologian, and a very intelligent and well-informed man on various subjects and different lines of study and investigation.

Mr. Orr was descended from a sturdy ancestry. He was of Scotch-Irish origin, and was well born physically, mentally and morally. His father was more than an ordinary man, a life-long, devoted Methodist. His mother was also a saintly woman.

He possessed a massive frame, and was a man of most commanding presence. Among a thousand you would not find his equal. His mind partook of the nature of his body. It was strong, massive, finely poised, analytic, and most unerring in its judgment. He was endowed with uncommon common sense.

He was cool and clear-headed, saw things in their true relations, saw behind manifestations; could look clear through men and their motives, and could not be cheated by any fair face, promise, or cunning.

He read men as well as books. Because of this he excelled as an administrator, both in the pastorate and the presiding eldership. He knew how to manage men, how to settle difficulties, how to put the right men in the lead and get others to follow.

He was prudent, never rash, never moving until he was ready. Because of this he needed to make no explanations for mistakes.

He commanded the respect of the best and most thoughtful men in whatever community he resided or exercised his ministry.

As a preacher he was strong, scriptural, instructive, evangelical. He was not a brilliant speaker, though he was sometimes dramatic; he was a good preacher. He built up the church, sinners were awakened and converted under his ministry.

He never substituted something else for the gospel nor thrust himself to the front.

He preached Christ. He hid himself behind the cross. His preaching commanded the highest respect and the Church had a healthy growth under his ministry.

He was a noble, warm-hearted man; a true friend; a brother indeed! He stood by his brethren when he believed they were right. He hated shams and hypocrisy, and trickery of all kinds. His whole nature rose in revolt against injustice and falsehood.

He had both the positive and negative poles of good in him.

While he loved whatever was true and noble, he hated the contrary.

As a Christian he was humble, faithful, trustful. He never made much parade of his piety by words, but he lived it!

During his long sickness he gave continual evidence of his unfaltering trust in his Saviour, affirming again and again that all was well and that everything was right between his soul and Christ.

He was waiting the call—looking for the chariot to come and the angel guards to take him! The religion he had preached to others sustained him. The Christ he had recommended did not forsake him. He lives in the memory of his friends, of his brethren in the ministry, of those he was instrumental in leading to the cross, or building up in the Christian faith; of his family, who were dearer to him than life.

He lives in heaven.

SAMUEL H. MARTIN.

Rev. Samuel H. Martin was born in Hagerstown, Md., May 5, 1818, and died in Concord, Ill., February 22, 1896.

He was brought up in the Roman Catholic faith. When nineteen years old he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Knox County, Ohio, and six months after was licensed to preach.

The first trophy of his ministry was the conversion of his own mother.

In 1837 he married Miss Anna Harry and soon after came to Illinois and was engaged to supply Mt. Pulaski circuit.

He continued to preach under the appointment of presiding elders until 1845, when he settled in Clinton, where his wife died.

On September 27, 1848, he married Miss Rebecca Yorrea, who survives him.

He was the father of eight children, four by the first marriage and four by the second, all of whom are living.

One of his sons is Rev. J. J. Martin, now a member of the St. Louis Conference.

After his second marriage he again took up the work of the ministry until 1862, when on November 4, he enlisted in the Union army and was commissioned as chaplain of the 107th Illinois Volunteers, with the rank of captain. As a soldier he served his country faithfully until failing health compelled him to resign his position, and the 7th of December, 1863, he was honorably discharged from the service.

In 1865 he joined the Illinois Conference and never failed to answer to his name at roll call.

He served very acceptably the following charges: San Jose, Heyworth, Chapin, Concord, twice, Middletown, Elkhart, Athens and Beverly.

For three years he was agent for the Illinois Wesleyan University. In 1874 he was made supernumerary and engaged in the practice of medicine. In 1892 he superannuated and settled in Concord.

He was cotemporary with Cartwright, Akers, Buck, Prentice and others, who, with him, have been promoted from the church militant to the church triumphant.

His motto was, "Better Wear Out Than Rust Out," and so long as health and strength would permit he was active in the work of the master.

During the last months of his life he passed through much suffering, yet he did not grow impatient but bore it all with a calm unshaken confidence in God.

Almost his last words were "All is clear, be faithful and meet me in heaven."

As a preacher he was above the average. He was earnest and forcible and in the days of his strength had great power over his audiences. He was very animated in manner. There was nothing dull about him. His message came from a warm heart and was watered with many tears. He doubtless realized the promise, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy."

His funeral at Concord was conducted by his presiding elder, Dr. Horace Reed, who was assisted by his pastor, Rev. A. C. Hunter.

MARION ROSE.

Rev. Marion Rose was born near Knoxville, Knox County, Ill., Feb. 15, 1847 and died in Virginia, Cass County, Ill., July 16, 1896.

In early life he removed with his parents to Indiana, where he was reared and educated.

When he was fifteen years of age his father died, leaving him wholly dependent upon his own resources. Having a great desire for an education, and being possessed of a strong will and great degree of energy, he applied himself vigorously, and in young manhood graduated with honors at Sullivan, Ind. He afterward attended DePauw University at Greencastle, Ind., but did not complete the course.

He spent about ten years in teaching.

He was converted near New Lebanon, Sullivan County, Ind., in February, 1863, and ever after was a devoted Christian.

On December 30, 1880, he married Miss Mary Williamson, at Anderson, Cass County, Ill. To them were born two daughters, one of whom, little Ethel, survives to comfort her bereaved and widowed mother.

Mr. Rose was received on trial in the Indiana Conference sn September, 1878. In 1884 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and stationed at Palmyra, where he served two years.

His other charges were:

1886–87, Manchester.

1888–89, Havana.

1890, Pittsfield.

1891–92, Warrensburg.

1893, Homer.

Here his health failed, and he was compelled to resign his charge at the end of six months and retire from the effective ranks, and has since been on the superannuated list.

He was signally successful in his work on every charge he was appointed to serve. He was peculiarly fitted for the work of a well-rounded Methodist preacher, bringing up and keeping up evenly all departments of church work. He was a careful pastor, an able preacher, a wise counsellor, a devoted, refined, pure Christian gentleman. Purity of thought, of heart and life was a grace that he constantly enjoyed.

The last two years of his life were years of great suffering, which was endured with perfect patience and resignation. Sometimes he seemed anxious to be freed from the body and to be present with the Lord. But while the happy spirit remained with the suffering body, he had a consciousness of the fulness of God's presence.

Among his last words were these, "All is bright; praise God."

MRS. L. A. BUTLER.

Lida A. Goodwin was born November 29, 1811, and on June 22, 1831, became the wife of Milo Butler, who was then studying medicine. In 1843 Mr. Butler joined the Erie Conference, and in 1851 he transferred to the Illinois Conference, where he and his devoted wife labored faithfully side by side for the glory of God. In 1859 his health failed and he took a superannuated relation. Mrs. Butler had been a member of the church since 1830. She died at Shelbina, Missouri, January 30, 1896. Her husband preceeded her to the glory world. Two sons and a daughter survive her.

MRS. J. M. DUFF.

Emma Jane Lownsberry, daughter of Samuel Lownsberry, of Oakford, Illinois, was born January 4, 1854. On April 11, 1872, she married Dillard H. King, who died April 12, 1878. Of this union one son survives, Samuel King, an exemplary Christian young man, who resides with his grandfather King at Petersburg, Illinois. He was at his mother's bedside when she died. On July 1, 1890, the deceased became the wife of Rev. J. M. Duff, of the Illinois Conference. Mrs. Duff was converted at the age of 13 years, and was a loyal soldier of the Cross, always ready to do the will of her Master. She was born of true Methodist stock. Her mother died in Christian triumph thirty-four years ago, and her patriarchal father is a pillar in the Oakford Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Duff was truly devoted to the work of a pastor's wife. She was often heard to say, "Duty has become a pleasure." She was known only to be loved. She had a kind word for every one. For twelve months she was a sufferer with consumption, gradually growing weaker, and yet she bore up under her affliction most patiently, saying continually in her heart, "Thy will be done." Her death, which occurred March 28, 1896, at Lima, Ill., whither she went with her husband by the appointment of the Illinois Conference, both at the session of 1894 and 1895, was victorious, for the Christ whom she embraced as her Saviour in childhood was with her, so she constantly sang, "I've Jesus With Me All the Time." She leaves to mourn her departure a father, brother, husband and three children. Her remains were brought to Oakford on March 30 for interment. Funeral services were held in our church at Oakford. Rev. J. A. Kumler, of Virden, preached the sermon. The undersigned assisted in the service. A large audience filled the church. A like service was also held at Lima, Sunday, March 29, at which time Rev. Dr. B. W. Baker, of Chaddock College, preached the sermon.

G. W. READ.

MRS. EMMA DAY WRIGHT.

Mrs. Emma Day Wright, wife of Rev. Thomas B. Wright, of the Illinois Conference, was born near Carlinville, Ill., Feb. 8, 1851, and died in Rochester, Ill., June 20, 1896. She was married to Rev. T. B. Wright, of Virden, Ill., April 18, 1878, and entered the traveling ministry as the wife of an itinerant in 1888. She was the daughter of Rev. and Mary Byram Wright. Her mother was a woman of extraordinary gifts and attainments, her first husband being Rev. Mr. Otwell, a pioneer itinerant in Illinois, who died in 1842. Mrs. Wright was converted and united with the church in her early childhood, and remained a devoted Christian throughout her life. Especially after her husband entered the itinerant ministry, did she devote all the energies of her soul and body to the work of her Master.

She was quiet, modest, and unassuming, devoted to her family, the church, and every good word and work. Toiling beyond her strength in church work and in all the different ladies' societies of the church and community, she could really have said, "the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." Her character was gentle and Christlike, and her disposition calm, sunny, and tenderly loving. She walked with Christ, and lived in daily communion with Him. She hated injustice, or anything that indicated a lack in the conformity of the life to the profession, and was deeply grieved when anything of that kind occurred.

A woman of rare intelligence, tact, and transparent honesty and purity of character, she was a helpmeet indeed to her husband in his work. Her judgment was excellent, and her spirit a reflection of the Spirit of Him who was altogether "sweetness and light." She was sick about a year. Her testimony is that of a whole life devoted to her Savior. Her funeral occurred at the church in Rochester, and was attended by many pearons from the charges her husband had served as pastor, signifying the esteem in which she was held. The writer conducted the services, speaking from John 12:3. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, and several brothers and sisters. W. N. McElroy.

(ESTABLISHED 1879.)

PEKIN, - ILLINOIS.

CHURCH ORGAN BUILDERS.

Organs of any required capacity or style built to order, according to the most improved methods of construction. With unsurpassed facilities and advantages to our command, we can meet the demand for the Largest Church and Cathedral Organs. But also make a specialty of Superb Pipe Organs for Churches with Moderate Means who cannot afford grand, imposing and costly organs, and have hitherto been obliged to content themselves with unsatisfactory Reed organs, or alleged substitutes for pipe organs.

Parlor, School and Chapel..... Reed Organs.—We are large manufacturers of Reed Organs, and as we sell only direct from our factory to private purchasers, without intermediate or middlemen, we save the agent's profit, and thus are enabled to sell organs of highest grade at very reasonable prices.

PIANOS—Our direct intercourse with musical people everywhere brings us such a large demand for pianos, that we are enabled to offer purchasers very excellent Pianos at more reasonable prices than can be had of dealers generally.

☞ Catalogues, Circulars, Proposals or Estimates sent to any address on application.

HINNERS & ALBERTSEN, Pekin, Ill.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—We base our claims for patronage solely on the grounds that we furnish instruments of the highest standard of excellence, at the lowest possible prices consistent with quality. If desired we can furnish references to Prominent Methodists Everywhere who know us.
